In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.

Now the earth was [Or possibly became] formless and empty, darkness was over the surface of the deep, and the Spirit of God was hovering over the waters.

And God said, “Let there be light,” and there was light.

God saw that the light was good, and he separated the light from the darkness.

God called the light “day”, and the darkness he called “night”. And there was evening, and there was morning — the first day.

And God said, “Let there be an expanse between the waters to separate water from water.”

So God made the expanse and separated the water under the expanse from the water above it. And it was so.

And God said, “Let the water under the sky be gathered to one place, and let dry ground appear.” And it was so.

God called the dry ground “land”, and the gathered waters he called “seas”. And God saw that it was good.

Then God said, “Let the land produce vegetation: seed-bearing plants and trees on the land that bear fruit with seed in it, according to their various kinds.” And it was so.

The land produced vegetation: plants bearing seed according to their kinds and trees bearing fruit with seed in it according to their kinds. And God saw that it was good.
And there was evening, and there was morning — the third day.

And God said, “Let there be lights in the expanse of the sky to separate the day from the night, and let them serve as signs to mark seasons and days and years, and let them be lights in the expanse of the sky to give light on the earth.” And it was so.

God made two great lights — the greater light to govern the day and the lesser light to govern the night. He also made the stars.

God set them in the expanse of the sky to give light on the earth, to govern the day and the night, and to separate light from darkness. And God saw that it was good.

And there was evening, and there was morning — the fourth day.

And God said, “Let the water teem with living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth across the expanse of the sky.”

So God created the great creatures of the sea and every living and moving thing with which the water teems, according to their kinds, and every winged bird according to its kind. And God saw that it was good.

God blessed them and said, “Be fruitful and increase in number and fill the water in the seas, and let the birds increase on the earth.”

And there was evening, and there was morning — the fifth day.

And God said, “Let the land produce living creatures according to their kinds: livestock, creatures that move along the ground, and wild animals, each according to its kind.” And it was so.
Ge. 1:25 God made the wild animals according to their kinds, the livestock according to their kinds, and all the creatures that move along the ground according to their kinds. And God saw that it was good.

Ge. 1:26 Then God said, “Let us make man in our image, in our likeness, and let them rule over the fish of the sea and the birds of the air, over the livestock, over all the earth, [Hebrew; Syriac all the wild animals] and over all the creatures that move along the ground.”

Ge. 1:27 So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them.

Ge. 1:28 God blessed them and said to them, “Be fruitful and increase in number; fill the earth and subdue it. Rule over the fish of the sea and the birds of the air and over every living creature that moves on the ground.”

Ge. 1:29 Then God said, “I give you every seed-bearing plant on the face of the whole earth and every tree that has fruit with seed in it. They will be yours for food.

Ge. 1:30 And to all the beasts of the earth and all the birds of the air and all the creatures that move on the ground — everything that has the breath of life in it — I give every green plant for food.” And it was so.

Ge. 1:31 God saw all that he had made, and it was very good. And there was evening, and there was morning — the sixth day.

CHAPTER 2

Ge. 2:1 Thus the heavens and the earth were completed in all their vast array.

Ge. 2:2 By the seventh day God had finished the work he had been doing; so on the seventh day he rested [Or ceased; also in verse 3] from all his work.
And God blessed the seventh day and made it holy, because on it he rested from all the work of creating that he had done.

This is the account of the heavens and the earth when they were created. When the LORD God made the earth and the heavens — and no shrub of the field had yet appeared on the earth [Or land; also in verse 6] and no plant of the field had yet sprung up, for the LORD God had not sent rain on the earth [Or land; also in verse 6] and there was no man to work the ground, but streams [Or mist] came up from the earth and watered the whole surface of the ground — the LORD God formed the man [The Hebrew for man (adam) sounds like and may be related to the Hebrew for ground (adamah); it is also the name Adam (see Gen. 2:20).] from the dust of the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and the man became a living being.

Now the LORD God had planted a garden in the east, in Eden; and there he put the man he had formed.

And the LORD God made all kinds of trees grow out of the ground — trees that were pleasing to the eye and good for food. In the middle of the garden were the tree of life and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

A river watering the garden flowed from Eden; from there it was separated into four headwaters.

The name of the first is the Pishon; it winds through the entire land of Havilah, where there is gold.

(The gold of that land is good; aromatic resin [Or good; pearls] and onyx are also there.)

The name of the second river is the Gihon; it winds through the entire land of Cush. [Possibly south-east Mesopotamia]

The name of the third river is the Tigris; it runs along the east side of Asshur. And the fourth river is the Euphrates.
Ge. 2:15  The LORD God took the man and put him in the Garden of Eden to work it and take care of it.

Ge. 2:16  And the LORD God commanded the man, “You are free to eat from any tree in the garden;

Ge. 2:17  but you must not eat from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, for when you eat of it you will surely die.”

Ge. 2:18  The LORD God said, “It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a helper suitable for him.”

Ge. 2:19  Now the LORD God had formed out of the ground all the beasts of the field and all the birds of the air. He brought them to the man to see what he would name them; and whatever the man called each living creature, that was its name.

Ge. 2:20  So the man gave names to all the livestock, the birds of the air and all the beasts of the field. But for Adam [Or the man] no suitable helper was found.

Ge. 2:21  So the LORD God caused the man to fall into a deep sleep; and while he was sleeping, he took one of the man’s ribs [Or took part of the man’s side] and closed up the place with flesh.

Ge. 2:22  Then the LORD God made a woman from the rib [Or part] he had taken out of the man, and he brought her to the man.

Ge. 2:23  The man said, “This is now bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; she shall be called ‘woman’, [The Hebrew for woman sounds like the Hebrew for man.] for she was taken out of man.”

Ge. 2:24  For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and they will become one flesh.

Ge. 2:25  The man and his wife were both naked, and they felt no shame.
CHAPTER 3

Ge. 3:1 Now the serpent was more crafty than any of the wild animals the LORD God had made. He said to the woman, “Did God really say, ‘You must not eat from any tree in the garden’?”

Ge. 3:2 The woman said to the serpent, “We may eat fruit from the trees in the garden,

Ge. 3:3 but God did say, ‘You must not eat fruit from the tree that is in the middle of the garden, and you must not touch it, or you will die.’”

Ge. 3:4 “You will not surely die,” the serpent said to the woman.

Ge. 3:5 “For God knows that when you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil.”

Ge. 3:6 When the woman saw that the fruit of the tree was good for food and pleasing to the eye, and also desirable for gaining wisdom, she took some and ate it. She also gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate it.

Ge. 3:7 Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they realised that they were naked; so they sewed fig leaves together and made coverings for themselves.

Ge. 3:8 Then the man and his wife heard the sound of the LORD God as he was walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and they hid from the LORD God among the trees of the garden.

Ge. 3:9 But the LORD God called to the man, “Where are you?”

Ge. 3:10 He answered, “I heard you in the garden, and I was afraid because I was naked; so I hid.”

Ge. 3:11 And he said, “Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree from which I commanded you not to eat?”

Ge. 3:12 The man said, “The woman you put here with me — she gave me some fruit from the tree, and I ate it.”
Then the LORD God said to the woman, “What is this you have done?” The woman said, “The serpent deceived me, and I ate.”

So the LORD God said to the serpent, “Because you have done this, “Cursed are you above all the livestock and all the wild animals! You will crawl on your belly and you will eat dust all the days of your life.

And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring [Or seed] and hers; he will crush [Or strike] your head, and you will strike his heel.”

To the woman he said, “I will greatly increase your pains in childbearing; with pain you will give birth to children. Your desire will be for your husband, and he will rule over you.”

To Adam he said, “Because you listened to your wife and ate from the tree about which I commanded you, ‘You must not eat of it,’ “Cursed is the ground because of you; through painful toil you will eat of it all the days of your life.

It will produce thorns and thistles for you, and you will eat the plants of the field.

By the sweat of your brow you will eat your food until you return to the ground, since from it you were taken; for dust you are and to dust you will return.”

Adam [Or The man] named his wife Eve, [Eve probably means living.] because she would become the mother of all the living.

The LORD God made garments of skin for Adam and his wife and clothed them.

And the LORD God said, “The man has now become like one of us, knowing good and evil. He must not be allowed to reach out his hand and take also from the tree of life and eat, and live for ever.”

So the LORD God banished him from the Garden of Eden to work the ground from which he had been taken.
Ge. 3:24 After he drove the man out, he placed on the east side [Or placed in front] of the Garden of Eden cherubim and a flaming sword flashing back and forth to guard the way to the tree of life.

CHAPTER 4

Ge. 4:1 Adam [Or The man] lay with his wife Eve, and she became pregnant and gave birth to Cain. [Cain sounds like the Hebrew for brought forth or acquired.] She said, “With the help of the LORD I have brought forth [Or have acquired] a man.”

Ge. 4:2 Later she gave birth to his brother Abel. Now Abel kept flocks, and Cain worked the soil.

Ge. 4:3 In the course of time Cain brought some of the fruits of the soil as an offering to the LORD.

Ge. 4:4 But Abel brought fat portions from some of the firstborn of his flock. The LORD looked with favour on Abel and his offering, Ge. 4:5 but on Cain and his offering he did not look with favour. So Cain was very angry, and his face was downcast.

Ge. 4:6 Then the LORD said to Cain, “Why are you angry? Why is your face downcast?

Ge. 4:7 If you do what is right, will you not be accepted? But if you do not do what is right, sin is crouching at your door; it desires to have you, but you must master it.”

Ge. 4:8 Now Cain said to his brother Abel, “Let’s go out to the field.” [Samaritan Pentateuch, Septuagint, Vulgate and Syriac; Masoretic Text does not have “Let’s go out to the field.”] And while they were in the field, Cain attacked his brother Abel and killed him.

Ge. 4:9 Then the LORD said to Cain, “Where is your brother Abel?” “I don’t know,” he replied. “Am I my brother’s keeper?”
Ge. 4:10 The LORD said, “What have you done? Listen! Your brother’s blood cries out to me from the ground.

Ge. 4:11 Now you are under a curse and driven from the ground, which opened its mouth to receive your brother’s blood from your hand.

Ge. 4:12 When you work the ground, it will no longer yield its crops for you. You will be a restless wanderer on the earth.”

Ge. 4:13 Cain said to the LORD, “My punishment is more than I can bear.

Ge. 4:14 Today you are driving me from the land, and I will be hidden from your presence; I will be a restless wanderer on the earth, and whoever finds me will kill me.”

Ge. 4:15 But the LORD said to him, “Not so; [Septuagint, Vulgate and Syriac; Hebrew Very well] if anyone kills Cain, he will suffer vengeance seven times over.” Then the LORD put a mark on Cain so that no-one who found him would kill him.

Ge. 4:16 So Cain went out from the LORD’s presence and lived in the land of Nod, [Nod means wandering (see verses 12 and 14).] east of Eden.

Ge. 4:17 Cain lay with his wife, and she became pregnant and gave birth to Enoch. Cain was then building a city, and he named it after his son Enoch.

Ge. 4:18 To Enoch was born Irad, and Irad was the father of Mehujael, and Mehujael was the father of Methushael, and Methushael was the father of Lamech.

Ge. 4:19 Lamech married two women, one named Adah and the other Zillah.

Ge. 4:20 Adah gave birth to Jabal; he was the father of those who live in tents and raise livestock.

Ge. 4:21 His brother’s name was Jubal; he was the father of all who play the harp and flute.
Ge. 4:22 Zillah also had a son, Tubal-Cain, who forged all kinds of tools out of [Or who instructed all who work in] bronze and iron. Tubal-Cain’s sister was Naamah.

Ge. 4:23 Lamech said to his wives, “Adah and Zillah, listen to me; wives of Lamech, hear my words. I have killed [Or I will kill] a man for wounding me, a young man for injuring me.

Ge. 4:24 If Cain is avenged seven times, then Lamech seventy-seven times.”

Ge. 4:25 Adam lay with his wife again, and she gave birth to a son and named him Seth, [Seth probably means granted.] saying, “God has granted me another child in place of Abel, since Cain killed him.”

Ge. 4:26 Seth also had a son, and he named him Enosh. At that time men began to call on [Or to proclaim] the name of the LORD.

CHAPTER 5

Ge. 5:1 This is the written account of Adam’s line. When God created man, he made him in the likeness of God.

Ge. 5:2 He created them male and female and blessed them. And when they were created, he called them “man”. [Hebrew adam]

Ge. 5:3 When Adam had lived 130 years, he had a son in his own likeness, in his own image; and he named him Seth.

Ge. 5:4 After Seth was born, Adam lived 800 years and had other sons and daughters.

Ge. 5:5 Altogether, Adam lived 930 years, and then he died.

Ge. 5:6 When Seth had lived 105 years, he became the father [Father may mean ancestor; also in verses 7-26.] of Enosh.

Ge. 5:7 And after he became the father of Enosh, Seth lived 807 years and had other sons and daughters.

Ge. 5:8  Altogether, Seth lived 912 years, and then he died.

Ge. 5:9  When Enosh had lived 90 years, he became the father of Kenan.

Ge. 5:10  And after he became the father of Kenan, Enosh lived 815 years and had other sons and daughters.

Ge. 5:11  Altogether, Enosh lived 905 years, and then he died.

Ge. 5:12  When Kenan had lived 70 years, he became the father of Mahalalel.

Ge. 5:13  And after he became the father of Mahalalel, Kenan lived 840 years and had other sons and daughters.

Ge. 5:14  Altogether, Kenan lived 910 years, and then he died.

Ge. 5:15  When Mahalalel had lived 65 years, he became the father of Jared.

Ge. 5:16  And after he became the father of Jared, Mahalalel lived 830 years and had other sons and daughters.

Ge. 5:17  Altogether, Mahalalel lived 895 years, and then he died.

Ge. 5:18  When Jared had lived 162 years, he became the father of Enoch.

Ge. 5:19  And after he became the father of Enoch, Jared lived 800 years and had other sons and daughters.

Ge. 5:20  Altogether, Jared lived 962 years, and then he died.

Ge. 5:21  When Enoch had lived 65 years, he became the father of Methuselah.

Ge. 5:22  And after he became the father of Methuselah, Enoch walked with God 300 years and had other sons and daughters.

Ge. 5:23  Altogether, Enoch lived 365 years.

Ge. 5:24  Enoch walked with God; then he was no more, because God took him away.
When Methuselah had lived 187 years, he became the father of Lamech.

And after he became the father of Lamech, Methuselah lived 782 years and had other sons and daughters.

Altogether, Methuselah lived 969 years, and then he died.

When Lamech had lived 182 years, he had a son.

He named him Noah [Noah sounds like the Hebrew for comfort.] and said, “He will comfort us in the labour and painful toil of our hands caused by the ground the LORD has cursed.”

After Noah was born, Lamech lived 595 years and had other sons and daughters.

Altogether, Lamech lived 777 years, and then he died.

After Noah was 500 years old, he became the father of Shem, Ham and Japheth.

CHAPTER 6

When men began to increase in number on the earth and daughters were born to them, the sons of God saw that the daughters of men were beautiful, and they married any of them they chose.

Then the LORD said, “My Spirit will not contend with [Or My spirit will not remain in] man for ever, for he is mortal; [Or corrupt] his days will be a hundred and twenty years.”

The Nephilim were on the earth in those days — and also afterwards — when the sons of God went to the daughters of men and had children by them. They were the heroes of old, men of renown.

The LORD saw how great man’s wickedness on the earth had become, and that every inclination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil all the time.
Ge. 6:6 The LORD was grieved that he had made man on the earth, and his heart was filled with pain.

Ge. 6:7 So the LORD said, “I will wipe mankind, whom I have created, from the face of the earth — men and animals, and creatures that move along the ground, and birds of the air — for I am grieved that I have made them.”

Ge. 6:8 But Noah found favour in the eyes of the LORD.

Ge. 6:9 This is the account of Noah. Noah was a righteous man, blameless among the people of his time, and he walked with God.

Ge. 6:10 Noah had three sons: Shem, Ham and Japheth.

Ge. 6:11 Now the earth was corrupt in God’s sight and was full of violence.

Ge. 6:12 God saw how corrupt the earth had become, for all the people on earth had corrupted their ways.

Ge. 6:13 So God said to Noah, “I am going to put an end to all people, for the earth is filled with violence because of them. I am surely going to destroy both them and the earth.

Ge. 6:14 So make yourself an ark of cypress [The meaning of the Hebrew for this word is uncertain.] wood; make rooms in it and coat it with pitch inside and out.

Ge. 6:15 This is how you are to build it: The ark is to be 450 feet long, 75 feet wide and 45 feet high. [Hebrew 300 cubits long, 50 cubits wide and 30 cubits high (about 140 metres long, 23 metres wide and 13.5 metres high)]

Ge. 6:16 Make a roof for it and finish [Or Make an opening for light by finishing] the ark to within 18 inches [Hebrew a cubit (about 0.5 metre)] of the top. Put a door in the side of the ark and make lower, middle and upper decks.

Ge. 6:17 I am going to bring floodwaters on the earth to destroy all life under the heavens, every creature that has the breath of life in it. Everything on earth will perish.
But I will establish my covenant with you, and you will enter the ark — you and your sons and your wife and your sons’ wives with you.

You are to bring into the ark two of all living creatures, male and female, to keep them alive with you.

Two of every kind of bird, of every kind of animal and of every kind of creature that moves along the ground will come to you to be kept alive.

You are to take every kind of food that is to be eaten and store it away as food for you and for them.”

Noah did everything just as God commanded him.

CHAPTER 7

The LORD then said to Noah, “Go into the ark, you and your whole family, because I have found you righteous in this generation.

Take with you seven [Or seven pairs; also in verse 3] of every kind of clean animal, a male and its mate, and two of every kind of unclean animal, a male and its mate, and also seven of every kind of bird, male and female, to keep their various kinds alive throughout the earth.

Seven days from now I will send rain on the earth for forty days and forty nights, and I will wipe from the face of the earth every living creature I have made.”

And Noah did all that the LORD commanded him.

Noah was six hundred years old when the floodwaters came on the earth.

And Noah and his sons and his wife and his sons’ wives entered the ark to escape the waters of the flood.

Pairs of clean and unclean animals, of birds and of all creatures that move along the ground,
Ge. 7:9  male and female, came to Noah and entered the ark, as God had commanded Noah.

Ge. 7:10  And after the seven days the floodwaters came on the earth.

Ge. 7:11  In the six hundredth year of Noah’s life, on the seventeenth day of the second month — on that day all the springs of the great deep burst forth, and the floodgates of the heavens were opened.

Ge. 7:12  And rain fell on the earth for forty days and forty nights.

Ge. 7:13  On that very day Noah and his sons, Shem, Ham and Japheth, together with his wife and the wives of his three sons, entered the ark.

Ge. 7:14  They had with them every wild animal according to its kind, all livestock according to their kinds, every creature that moves along the ground according to its kind and every bird according to its kind, everything with wings.

Ge. 7:15  Pairs of all creatures that have the breath of life in them came to Noah and entered the ark.

Ge. 7:16  The animals going in were male and female of every living thing, as God had commanded Noah. Then the LORD shut him in.

Ge. 7:17  For forty days the flood kept coming on the earth, and as the waters increased they lifted the ark high above the earth.

Ge. 7:18  The waters rose and increased greatly on the earth, and the ark floated on the surface of the water.

Ge. 7:19  They rose greatly on the earth, and all the high mountains under the entire heavens were covered.

Ge. 7:20  The waters rose and covered the mountains to a depth of more than twenty feet. [Hebrew fifteen cubits (about 6.9 metres)] [Or rose more than twenty feet, and the mountains were covered]
Ge. 7:21 Every living thing that moved on the earth perished — birds, livestock, wild animals, all the creatures that swarm over the earth, and all mankind.

Ge. 7:22 Everything on dry land that had the breath of life in its nostrils died.

Ge. 7:23 Every living thing on the face of the earth was wiped out; men and animals and the creatures that move along the ground and the birds of the air were wiped from the earth. Only Noah was left, and those with him in the ark.

Ge. 7:24 The waters flooded the earth for a hundred and fifty days.

CHAPTER 8

Ge. 8:1 But God remembered Noah and all the wild animals and the livestock that were with him in the ark, and he sent a wind over the earth, and the waters receded.

Ge. 8:2 Now the springs of the deep and the floodgates of the heavens had been closed, and the rain had stopped falling from the sky.

Ge. 8:3 The water receded steadily from the earth. At the end of the hundred and fifty days the water had gone down,

Ge. 8:4 and on the seventeenth day of the seventh month the ark came to rest on the mountains of Ararat.

Ge. 8:5 The waters continued to recede until the tenth month, and on the first day of the tenth month the tops of the mountains became visible.

Ge. 8:6 After forty days Noah opened the window he had made in the ark

Ge. 8:7 and sent out a raven, and it kept flying back and forth until the water had dried up from the earth.

Ge. 8:8 Then he sent out a dove to see if the water had receded from the surface of the ground.
Ge. 8:9 But the dove could find no place to set its feet because there was water over all the surface of the earth; so it returned to Noah in the ark. He reached out his hand and took the dove and brought it back to himself in the ark.

Ge. 8:10 He waited seven more days and again sent out the dove from the ark.

Ge. 8:11 When the dove returned to him in the evening, there in its beak was a freshly plucked olive leaf! Then Noah knew that the water had receded from the earth.

Ge. 8:12 He waited seven more days and sent the dove out again, but this time it did not return to him.

Ge. 8:13 By the first day of the first month of Noah’s six hundred and first year, the water had dried up from the earth. Noah then removed the covering from the ark and saw that the surface of the ground was dry.

Ge. 8:14 By the twenty-seventh day of the second month the earth was completely dry.

Ge. 8:15 Then God said to Noah,

Ge. 8:16 “Come out of the ark, you and your wife and your sons and their wives.

Ge. 8:17 Bring out every kind of living creature that is with you — the birds, the animals, and all the creatures that move along the ground — so they can multiply on the earth and be fruitful and increase in number upon it.”

Ge. 8:18 So Noah came out, together with his sons and his wife and his sons’ wives.

Ge. 8:19 All the animals and all the creatures that move along the ground and all the birds — everything that moves on the earth — came out of the ark, one kind after another.

Ge. 8:20 Then Noah built an altar to the LORD and, taking some of all the clean animals and clean birds, he sacrificed burnt offerings on it.
The LORD smelled the pleasing aroma and said in his heart: “Never again will I curse the ground because of man, even though [Or man, for] every inclination of his heart is evil from childhood. And never again will I destroy all living creatures, as I have done.

As long as the earth endures, seedtime and harvest, cold and heat, summer and winter, day and night will never cease.”

CHAPTER 9

Then God blessed Noah and his sons, saying to them, “Be fruitful and increase in number and fill the earth.

The fear and dread of you will fall upon all the beasts of the earth and all the birds of the air, upon every creature that moves along the ground, and upon all the fish of the sea; they are given into your hands.

Everything that lives and moves will be food for you. Just as I gave you the green plants, I now give you everything.

“But you must not eat meat that has its lifeblood still in it.

And for your lifeblood I will surely demand an accounting. I will demand an accounting from every animal. And from each man, too, I will demand an accounting for the life of his fellow man.

“Whoever sheds the blood of man, by man shall his blood be shed; for in the image of God has God made man.

As for you, be fruitful and increase in number; multiply on the earth and increase upon it.”

Then God said to Noah and to his sons with him:

“I now establish my covenant with you and with your descendants after you
Ge. 9:10 and with every living creature that was with you — the birds, the livestock and all the wild animals, all those that came out of the ark with you — every living creature on earth.

Ge. 9:11 I establish my covenant with you: Never again will all life be cut off by the waters of a flood; never again will there be a flood to destroy the earth.”

Ge. 9:12 And God said, “This is the sign of the covenant I am making between me and you and every living creature with you, a covenant for all generations to come:

Ge. 9:13 I have set my rainbow in the clouds, and it will be the sign of the covenant between me and the earth.

Ge. 9:14 Whenever I bring clouds over the earth and the rainbow appears in the clouds,

Ge. 9:15 I will remember my covenant between me and you and all living creatures of every kind. Never again will the waters become a flood to destroy all life.

Ge. 9:16 Whenever the rainbow appears in the clouds, I will see it and remember the everlasting covenant between God and all living creatures of every kind on the earth.”

Ge. 9:17 So God said to Noah, “This is the sign of the covenant I have established between me and all life on the earth.”

Ge. 9:18 The sons of Noah who came out of the ark were Shem, Ham and Japheth. (Ham was the father of Canaan.)

Ge. 9:19 These were the three sons of Noah, and from them came the people who were scattered over the earth.

Ge. 9:20 Noah, a man of the soil, proceeded [Or soil, was the first] to plant a vineyard.

Ge. 9:21 When he drank some of its wine, he became drunk and lay uncovered inside his tent.

Ge. 9:22 Ham, the father of Canaan, saw his father’s nakedness and told his two brothers outside.
Ge. 9:23  But Shem and Japheth took a garment and laid it across their shoulders; then they walked in backwards and covered their father’s nakedness. Their faces were turned the other way so that they would not see their father’s nakedness.

Ge. 9:24  When Noah awoke from his wine and found out what his youngest son had done to him,

Ge. 9:25  he said, “Cursed be Canaan! The lowest of slaves will he be to his brothers.”

Ge. 9:26  He also said, “Blessed be the LORD, the God of Shem! May Canaan be the slave of Shem. [Or be his slave]

Ge. 9:27  May God extend the territory of Japheth; [Japheth sounds like the Hebrew for extend.] may Japheth live in the tents of Shem, and may Canaan be his [Or their] slave.”

Ge. 9:28  After the flood Noah lived 350 years.

Ge. 9:29  Altogether, Noah lived 950 years, and then he died.

CHAPTER 10

Ge. 10:1  This is the account of Shem, Ham and Japheth, Noah’s sons, who themselves had sons after the flood.

Ge. 10:2  The sons [Sons may mean descendants or successors or nations; also in verses 3, 4, 6, 7, 20-23, 29 and 31.] of Japheth: Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan, Tubal, Meshech and Tiras.

Ge. 10:3  The sons of Gomer: Ashkenaz, Riphath and Togarmah.

Ge. 10:4  The sons of Javan: Elishah, Tarshish, the Kittim and the Rodanim. [Some manuscripts of the Masoretic Text and Samaritan Pentateuch (see also Septuagint and 1 Chron. 1:7); most manuscripts of the Masoretic Text Dodanim]

Ge. 10:5  (From these the maritime peoples spread out into their territories by their clans within their nations, each with its own language.)
The sons of Ham: Cush, Mizraim, [That is, Egypt; also in verse 13] Put and Canaan.

The sons of Cush: Seba, Havilah, Sabtah, Raamah and Sabteca. The sons of Raamah: Sheba and Dedan.

Cush was the father [Father may mean ancestor or predecessor or founder; also in verses 13, 15, 24 and 26.] of Nimrod, who grew to be a mighty warrior on the earth.

He was a mighty hunter before the LORD; that is why it is said, “Like Nimrod, a mighty hunter before the LORD.”

The first centres of his kingdom were Babylon, Erech, Akkad and Calneh, in [Or Erech and Akkad — all of them in] Shinar. [That is, Babylonia]

From that land he went to Assyria, where he built Nineveh, Rehoboth Ir, [Or Nineveh with its city squares] Calah and Resen, which is between Nineveh and Calah; that is the great city.

Mizraim was the father of the Ludites, Anamites, Lehabites, Naphtuhites, Pathrusites, Casluhites (from whom the Philistines came) and Caphtorites.

Canaan was the father of Sidon his firstborn, [Or of the Sidonians, the foremost] and of the Hittites, Jebusites, Amorites, Girgashites,

Hivites, Arkites, Sinites,

Arvadites, Zemarites and Hamathites. Later the Canaanite clans scattered and the borders of Canaan reached from Sidon towards Gerar as far as Gaza, and then towards Sodom, Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboiim, as far as Lasha.

These are the sons of Ham by their clans and languages, in their territories and nations.
Sons were also born to Shem, whose older brother was [Or Shem, the older brother of] Japheth; Shem was the ancestor of all the sons of Eber.

The sons of Shem: Elam, Asshur, Arphaxad, Lud and Aram.

The sons of Aram: Uz, Hul, Gether and Meshech. [See Septuagint and 1 Chron. 1:17; Hebrew Mash.]

Arphaxad was the father of [Hebrew; Septuagint father of Cainan, and Cainan was the father of] Shelah, and Shelah the father of Eber.

Two sons were born to Eber: One was named Peleg, [Peleg means division.] because in his time the earth was divided; his brother was named Joktan.

Joktan was the father of Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, Jerah,

Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah,

Ophir, Havilah and Jobab. All these were sons of Joktan.

The region where they lived stretched from Mesha towards Sephar, in the eastern hill country.

These are the sons of Shem by their clans and languages, in their territories and nations.

These are the clans of Noah’s sons, according to their lines of descent, within their nations. From these the nations spread out over the earth after the flood.

CHAPTER 11

Now the whole world had one language and a common speech.
Ge. 11:2 As men moved eastward, [Or from the east; or in the east] they found a plain in Shinar [That is, Babylonia] and settled there.

Ge. 11:3 They said to each other, “Come, let’s make bricks and bake them thoroughly.” They used brick instead of stone, and bitumen for mortar.

Ge. 11:4 Then they said, “Come, let us build ourselves a city, with a tower that reaches to the heavens, so that we may make a name for ourselves and not be scattered over the face of the whole earth.”

Ge. 11:5 But the LORD came down to see the city and the tower that the men were building.

Ge. 11:6 The LORD said, “If as one people speaking the same language they have begun to do this, then nothing they plan to do will be impossible for them.

Ge. 11:7 Come, let us go down and confuse their language so they will not understand each other.”

Ge. 11:8 So the LORD scattered them from there over all the earth, and they stopped building the city.

Ge. 11:9 That is why it was called Babel — [That is, Babylon; Babel sounds like the Hebrew for confused.] because there the LORD confused the language of the whole world. From there the LORD scattered them over the face of the whole earth.

Ge. 11:10 This is the account of Shem. Two years after the flood, when Shem was 100 years old, he became the father [Father may mean ancestor; also in verses 11-25.] of Arphaxad.

Ge. 11:11 And after he became the father of Arphaxad, Shem lived 500 years and had other sons and daughters.

Ge. 11:12 When Arphaxad had lived 35 years, he became the father of Shelah.

Ge. 11:13 And after he became the father of Shelah, Arphaxad lived 403 years and had other sons and daughters. [Hebrew; Septuagint (see also Luke 3:35, 36 and note at Genesis 10:24) 35 years, he became the father of Cainan. 13 And after he became the father of Cainan, Arphaxad lived 430 years and had other sons and daughters, and then he died. When Cainan had lived 130 years, he became the father of Shelah. And after he became the father of Shelah, Cainan lived 330 years and had other sons and daughters]

Ge. 11:14 When Shelah had lived 30 years, he became the father of Eber.

Ge. 11:15 And after he became the father of Eber, Shelah lived 403 years and had other sons and daughters.

Ge. 11:16 When Eber had lived 34 years, he became the father of Peleg.

Ge. 11:17 And after he became the father of Peleg, Eber lived 430 years and had other sons and daughters.

Ge. 11:18 When Peleg had lived 30 years, he became the father of Reu.

Ge. 11:19 And after he became the father of Reu, Peleg lived 209 years and had other sons and daughters.

Ge. 11:20 When Reu had lived 32 years, he became the father of Serug.

Ge. 11:21 And after he became the father of Serug, Reu lived 207 years and had other sons and daughters.

Ge. 11:22 When Serug had lived 30 years, he became the father of Nahor.

Ge. 11:23 And after he became the father of Nahor, Serug lived 200 years and had other sons and daughters.

Ge. 11:24 When Nahor had lived 29 years, he became the father of Terah.

Ge. 11:25 And after he became the father of Terah, Nahor lived 119 years and had other sons and daughters.

Ge. 11:26 After Terah had lived 70 years, he became the father of Abram, Nahor and Haran.
This is the account of Terah. Terah became the father of Abram, Nahor and Haran. And Haran became the father of Lot.

While his father Terah was still alive, Haran died in Ur of the Chaldeans, in the land of his birth.

Abram and Nahor both married. The name of Abram’s wife was Sarai, and the name of Nahor’s wife was Milcah; she was the daughter of Haran, the father of both Milcah and Iscah.

Now Sarai was barren; she had no children.

Terah took his son Abram, his grandson Lot son of Haran, and his daughter-in-law Sarai, the wife of his son Abram, and together they set out from Ur of the Chaldeans to go to Canaan. But when they came to Haran, they settled there.

Terah lived 205 years, and he died in Haran.

CHAPTER 12

The LORD had said to Abram, “Leave your country, your people and your father’s household and go to the land I will show you.”

“I will make you into a great nation and I will bless you; I will make your name great, and you will be a blessing.”

So Abram left, as the LORD had told him; and Lot went with him. Abram was seventy-five years old when he set out from Haran.

He took his wife Sarai, his nephew Lot, all the possessions they had accumulated and the people they had acquired in Haran, and they set out for the land of Canaan, and they arrived there.
Abram travelled through the land as far as the site of the great tree of Moreh at Shechem. At that time the Canaanites were in the land.

The LORD appeared to Abram and said, “To your offspring [Or seed] I will give this land.” So he built an altar there to the LORD, who had appeared to him.

From there he went on towards the hills east of Bethel and pitched his tent, with Bethel on the west and Ai on the east. There he built an altar to the LORD and called on the name of the LORD.

Then Abram set out and continued towards the Negev.

Now there was a famine in the land, and Abram went down to Egypt to live there for a while because the famine was severe.

As he was about to enter Egypt, he said to his wife Sarai, “I know what a beautiful woman you are.

When the Egyptians see you, they will say, ‘This is his wife.’ Then they will kill me but will let you live.

Say you are my sister, so that I will be treated well for your sake and my life will be spared because of you.”

When Abram came to Egypt, the Egyptians saw that she was a very beautiful woman.

And when Pharaoh’s officials saw her, they praised her to Pharaoh, and she was taken into his palace.

He treated Abram well for her sake, and Abram acquired sheep and cattle, male and female donkeys, menservants and maidservants, and camels.

But the LORD inflicted serious diseases on Pharaoh and his household because of Abram’s wife Sarai.

So Pharaoh summoned Abram. “What have you done to me?” he said. “Why didn’t you tell me she was your wife?
Ge. 12:19 Why did you say, ‘She is my sister,’ so that I took her to be my wife? Now then, here is your wife. Take her and go!”

Ge. 12:20 Then Pharaoh gave orders about Abram to his men, and they sent him on his way, with his wife and everything he had.

Ge. 13:1 So Abram went up from Egypt to the Negev, with his wife and everything he had, and Lot went with him.

Ge. 13:2 Abram had become very wealthy in livestock and in silver and gold.

Ge. 13:3 From the Negev he went from place to place until he came to Bethel, to the place between Bethel and Ai where his tent had been earlier.

Ge. 13:4 and where he had first built an altar. There Abram called on the name of the LORD.

Ge. 13:5 Now Lot, who was moving about with Abram, also had flocks and herds and tents.

Ge. 13:6 But the land could not support them while they stayed together, for their possessions were so great that they were not able to stay together.

Ge. 13:7 And quarrelling arose between Abram’s herdsmen and the herdsmen of Lot. The Canaanites and Perizzites were also living in the land at that time.

Ge. 13:8 So Abram said to Lot, “Let’s not have any quarrelling between you and me, or between your herdsmen and mine, for we are brothers.

Ge. 13:9 Is not the whole land before you? Let’s part company. If you go to the left, I’ll go to the right; if you go to the right, I’ll go to the left.”

Ge. 13:10 Lot looked up and saw that the whole plain of the Jordan was well watered, like the garden of the LORD, like the land of Egypt, towards Zoar. (This was before the LORD destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah.)

Ge. 13:11 So Lot chose for himself the whole plain of the Jordan and set out towards the east. The two men parted company:

Ge. 13:12 Abram lived in the land of Canaan, while Lot lived among the cities of the plain and pitched his tents near Sodom.

Ge. 13:13 Now the men of Sodom were wicked and were sinning greatly against the LORD.

Ge. 13:14 The LORD said to Abram after Lot had parted from him, “Lift up your eyes from where you are and look north and south, east and west.

Ge. 13:15 All the land that you see I will give to you and your offspring [Or seed; also in verse 16] for ever.

Ge. 13:16 I will make your offspring like the dust of the earth, so that if anyone could count the dust, then your offspring could be counted.

Ge. 13:17 Go, walk through the length and breadth of the land, for I am giving it to you.”

Ge. 13:18 So Abram moved his tents and went to live near the great trees of Mamre at Hebron, where he built an altar to the LORD.

CHAPTER 14

Ge. 14:1 At this time Amraphel king of Shinar, [That is, Babylonia; also in verse 9] Arioch king of Ellasar, Kedorlaomer king of Elam and Tidal king of Goiim

Ge. 14:2 went to war against Bera king of Sodom, Birsha king of Gomorrah, Shinab king of Admah, Shemeber king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela (that is, Zoar).

Ge. 14:3 All these latter kings joined forces in the Valley of Siddim (the Salt Sea). [That is, the Dead Sea]
For twelve years they had been subject to Kedorlaomer, but in the thirteenth year they rebelled.

In the fourteenth year, Kedorlaomer and the kings allied with him went out and defeated the Rephaites in Ashteroth Karnaim, the Zuzites in Ham, the Emites in Shaveh Kiriathaim, and the Horites in the hill country of Seir, as far as El Paran near the desert.

Then they turned back and went to En Mishpat (that is, Kadesh), and they conquered the whole territory of the Amalekites, as well as the Amorites who were living in Hazezon Tamar.

Then the king of Sodom, the king of Gomorrah, the king of Admah, the king of Zeboiim and the king of Bela (that is, Zoar) marched out and drew up their battle lines in the Valley of Siddim against Kedorlaomer king of Elam, Tidal king of Goiim, Amraphel king of Shinar and Arioch king of Ellasar — four kings against five.

Now the Valley of Siddim was full of tar pits, and when the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled, some of the men fell into them and the rest fled to the hills.

The four kings seized all the goods of Sodom and Gomorrah and all their food; then they went away.

They also carried off Abram’s nephew Lot and his possessions, since he was living in Sodom.

One who had escaped came and reported this to Abram the Hebrew. Now Abram was living near the great trees of Mamre the Amorite, a brother [Or a relative; or an ally] of Eshcol and Aner, all of whom were allied with Abram.

When Abram heard that his relative had been taken captive, he called out the 318 trained men born in his household and went in pursuit as far as Dan.
Ge. 14:15 During the night Abram divided his men to attack them and he routed them, pursuing them as far as Hobah, north of Damascus.

Ge. 14:16 He recovered all the goods and brought back his relative Lot and his possessions, together with the women and the other people.

Ge. 14:17 After Abram returned from defeating Kedorlaomer and the kings allied with him, the king of Sodom came out to meet him in the Valley of Shaveh (that is, the King’s Valley).

Ge. 14:18 Then Melchizedek king of Salem [That is, Jerusalem] brought out bread and wine. He was priest of God Most High, Ge. 14:19 and he blessed Abram, saying, “Blessed be Abram by God Most High, Creator [Or Possessor; also in verse 22] of heaven and earth.

Ge. 14:20 And blessed be [Or And praise be to] God Most High, who delivered your enemies into your hand.” Then Abram gave him a tenth of everything.

Ge. 14:21 The king of Sodom said to Abram, “Give me the people and keep the goods for yourself.”

Ge. 14:22 But Abram said to the king of Sodom, “I have raised my hand to the LORD, God Most High, Creator of heaven and earth, and have taken an oath

Ge. 14:23 that I will accept nothing belonging to you, not even a thread or the thong of a sandal, so that you will never be able to say, ‘I made Abram rich.’

Ge. 14:24 I will accept nothing but what my men have eaten and the share that belongs to the men who went with me — to Aner, Eshcol and Mamre. Let them have their share.”

CHAPTER 15

Ge. 15:1 After this, the word of the LORD came to Abram in a vision: “Do not be afraid, Abram. I am your shield, [Or sovereign] your very great reward.” [Or shield; your reward will be very great]

Ge. 15:2 But Abram said, “O Sovereign LORD, what can you give me since I remain childless and the one who will inherit [The meaning of the Hebrew for this phrase is uncertain.] my estate is Eliezer of Damascus?”

Ge. 15:3 And Abram said, “You have given me no children; so a servant in my household will be my heir.”

Ge. 15:4 Then the word of the LORD came to him: “This man will not be your heir, but a son coming from your own body will be your heir.”

Ge. 15:5 He took him outside and said, “Look up at the heavens and count the stars — if indeed you can count them.” Then he said to him, “So shall your offspring be.”

Ge. 15:6 Abram believed the LORD, and he credited it to him as righteousness.

Ge. 15:7 He also said to him, “I am the LORD, who brought you out of Ur of the Chaldeans to give you this land to take possession of it.”

Ge. 15:8 But Abram said, “O Sovereign LORD, how can I know that I shall gain possession of it?”

Ge. 15:9 So the LORD said to him, “Bring me a heifer, a goat and a ram, each three years old, along with a dove and a young pigeon.”

Ge. 15:10 Abram brought all these to him, cut them in two and arranged the halves opposite each other; the birds, however, he did not cut in half.

Ge. 15:11 Then birds of prey came down on the carcasses, but Abram drove them away.

Ge. 15:12 As the sun was setting, Abram fell into a deep sleep, and a thick and dreadful darkness came over him.
Then the LORD said to him, “Know for certain that your descendants will be strangers in a country not their own, and they will be enslaved and ill-treated four hundred years.

But I will punish the nation they serve as slaves, and afterwards they will come out with great possessions.

You, however, will go to your fathers in peace and be buried at a good old age.

In the fourth generation your descendants will come back here, for the sin of the Amorites has not yet reached its full measure.”

When the sun had set and darkness had fallen, a smoking brazier with a blazing torch appeared and passed between the pieces.

On that day the LORD made a covenant with Abram and said, “To your descendants I give this land, from the river [Or Wadi] of Egypt to the great river, the Euphrates —

the land of the Kenites, Kenizzites, Kadmonites,

Hittites, Perizzites, Rephaites,

Amorites, Canaanites, Girgashites and Jebusites.”

Now Sarai, Abram’s wife, had borne him no children. But she had an Egyptian maidservant named Hagar; so she said to Abram, “The LORD has kept me from having children. Go, sleep with my maidservant; perhaps I can build a family through her.” Abram agreed to what Sarai said.

So after Abram had been living in Canaan ten years, Sarai his wife took her Egyptian maidservant Hagar and gave her to her husband to be his wife.

He slept with Hagar, and she conceived. When she knew she was pregnant, she began to despise her mistress.
Then Sarai said to Abram, “You are responsible for the wrong I am suffering. I put my servant in your arms, and now that she knows she is pregnant, she despises me. May the LORD judge between you and me.”

“Your servant is in your hands,” Abram said. “Do with her whatever you think best.” Then Sarai ill-treated Hagar; so she fled from her.

The angel of the LORD found Hagar near a spring in the desert; it was the spring that is beside the road to Shur.

And he said, “Hagar, servant of Sarai, where have you come from, and where are you going?” “I’m running away from my mistress Sarai,” she answered.

Then the angel of the LORD told her, “Go back to your mistress and submit to her.”

The angel added, “I will so increase your descendants that they will be too numerous to count.”

The angel of the LORD also said to her: “You are now with child and you will have a son. You shall name him Ishmael, [Ishmael means God hears.] for the LORD has heard of your misery.

He will be a wild donkey of a man; his hand will be against everyone and everyone’s hand against him, and he will live in hostility towards [Or live to the east of] all his brothers.”

She gave this name to the LORD who spoke to her: “You are the God who sees me,” for she said, “I have now seen [Or seen the back of] the One who sees me.”

That is why the well was called Beer Lahai Roi; [Beer Lahai Roi means well of the Living One who sees me.] it is still there, between Kadesh and Bered.

So Hagar bore Abram a son, and Abram gave the name Ishmael to the son she had borne.

Abram was eighty-six years old when Hagar bore him Ishmael.
When Abram was ninety-nine years old, the LORD appeared to him and said, “I am God Almighty; [Hebrew El-Shaddai] walk before me and be blameless.

I will confirm my covenant between me and you and will greatly increase your numbers.”

Abram fell face down, and God said to him, “As for me, this is my covenant with you: You will be the father of many nations.

No longer will you be called Abram; [Abram means exalted father.] your name will be Abraham, [Abraham means father of many.] for I have made you a father of many nations.

I will make you very fruitful; I will make nations of you, and kings will come from you.

I will establish my covenant as an everlasting covenant between me and you and your descendants after you for the generations to come, to be your God and the God of your descendants after you.

The whole land of Canaan, where you are now an alien, I will give as an everlasting possession to you and your descendants after you; and I will be their God.”

Then God said to Abraham, “As for you, you must keep my covenant, you and your descendants after you for the generations to come.

This is my covenant with you and your descendants after you, the covenant you are to keep: Every male among you shall be circumcised.

You are to undergo circumcision, and it will be the sign of the covenant between me and you.

For the generations to come every male among you who is eight days old must be circumcised, including those born in your household or bought with money from a foreigner — those who are not your offspring.

Ge. 17:13 Whether born in your household or bought with your money, they must be circumcised. My covenant in your flesh is to be an everlasting covenant.

Ge. 17:14 Any uncircumcised male, who has not been circumcised in the flesh, will be cut off from his people; he has broken my covenant.”

Ge. 17:15 God also said to Abraham, “As for Sarai your wife, you are no longer to call her Sarai; her name will be Sarah.

Ge. 17:16 I will bless her and will surely give you a son by her. I will bless her so that she will be the mother of nations; kings of peoples will come from her.”

Ge. 17:17 Abraham fell face down; he laughed and said to himself, “Will a son be born to a man a hundred years old? Will Sarah bear a child at the age of ninety?”

Ge. 17:18 And Abraham said to God, “If only Ishmael might live under your blessing!”

Ge. 17:19 Then God said, “Yes, but your wife Sarah will bear you a son, and you will call him Isaac. [Isaac means he laughs.] I will establish my covenant with him as an everlasting covenant for his descendants after him.

Ge. 17:20 And as for Ishmael, I have heard you: I will surely bless him;
I will make him fruitful and will greatly increase his numbers.
He will be the father of twelve rulers, and I will make him into a great nation.

Ge. 17:21 But my covenant I will establish with Isaac, whom Sarah will bear to you by this time next year.”

Ge. 17:22 When he had finished speaking with Abraham, God went up from him.

Ge. 17:23 On that very day Abraham took his son Ishmael and all those born in his household or bought with his money, every male in his household, and circumcised them, as God told him.
Abraham was ninety-nine years old when he was circumcised, and his son Ishmael was thirteen;

Abraham and his son Ishmael were both circumcised on that same day.

And every male in Abraham’s household, including those born in his household or bought from a foreigner, was circumcised with him.

CHAPTER 18

The LORD appeared to Abraham near the great trees of Mamre while he was sitting at the entrance to his tent in the heat of the day.

Abraham looked up and saw three men standing nearby. When he saw them, he hurried from the entrance of his tent to meet them and bowed low to the ground.

He said, “If I have found favour in your eyes, my lord, [Or O Lord] do not pass your servant by.

Let a little water be brought, and then you may all wash your feet and rest under this tree.

Let me get you something to eat, so you can be refreshed and then go on your way — now that you have come to your servant.” “Very well,” they answered, “do as you say.”

So Abraham hurried into the tent to Sarah. “Quick,” he said, “get three seahs [That is, probably about 39 pints (about 22 litres)] of fine flour and knead it and bake some bread.”

Then he ran to the herd and selected a choice, tender calf and gave it to a servant, who hurried to prepare it.

He then brought some curds and milk and the calf that had been prepared, and set these before them. While they ate, he stood near them under a tree.
“Where is your wife Sarah?” they asked him. “There, in the tent,” he said.

Then the LORD [Hebrew Then he] said, “I will surely return to you about this time next year, and Sarah your wife will have a son.” Now Sarah was listening at the entrance to the tent, which was behind him.

Abraham and Sarah were already old and well advanced in years, and Sarah was past the age of childbearing.

So Sarah laughed to herself as she thought, “After I am worn out and my master [Or husband] is old, will I now have this pleasure?”

Then the LORD said to Abraham, “Why did Sarah laugh and say, ‘Will I really have a child, now that I am old?’

Is anything too hard for the LORD? I will return to you at the appointed time next year and Sarah will have a son.”

Sarah was afraid, so she lied and said, “I did not laugh.” But he said, “Yes, you did laugh.”

When the men got up to leave, they looked down towards Sodom, and Abraham walked along with them to see them on their way.

Then the LORD said, “Shall I hide from Abraham what I am about to do?

Abraham will surely become a great and powerful nation, and all nations on earth will be blessed through him.

For I have chosen him, so that he will direct his children and his household after him to keep the way of the LORD by doing what is right and just, so that the LORD will bring about for Abraham what he has promised him.”

Then the LORD said, “The outcry against Sodom and Gomorrah is so great and their sin so grievous that I will go down and see if what they have done is as bad as the outcry that has reached me. If not, I will know.”
Ge. 18:22 The men turned away and went towards Sodom, but Abraham remained standing before the LORD. [Masoretic Text; an ancient Hebrew scribal tradition but the LORD remained standing before Abraham]

Ge. 18:23 Then Abraham approached him and said: “Will you sweep away the righteous with the wicked?

Ge. 18:24 What if there are fifty righteous people in the city? Will you really sweep it away and not spare [Or forgive; also in verse 26] the place for the sake of the fifty righteous people in it?

Ge. 18:25 Far be it from you to do such a thing — to kill the righteous with the wicked, treating the righteous and the wicked alike. Far be it from you! Will not the Judge [Or Ruler] of all the earth do right?”

Ge. 18:26 The LORD said, “If I find fifty righteous people in the city of Sodom, I will spare the whole place for their sake.”

Ge. 18:27 Then Abraham spoke up again: “Now that I have been so bold as to speak to the Lord, though I am nothing but dust and ashes, Ge. 18:28 what if the number of the righteous is five less than fifty? Will you destroy the whole city because of five people?” “If I find forty-five there,” he said, “I will not destroy it.”

Ge. 18:29 Once again he spoke to him, “What if only forty are found there?” He said, “For the sake of forty, I will not do it.”

Ge. 18:30 Then he said, “May the Lord not be angry, but let me speak. What if only thirty can be found there?” He answered, “I will not do it if I find thirty there.”

Ge. 18:31 Abraham said, “Now that I have been so bold as to speak to the Lord, what if only twenty can be found there?” He said, “For the sake of twenty, I will not destroy it.”

Ge. 18:32 Then he said, “May the Lord not be angry, but let me speak just once more. What if only ten can be found there?” He answered, “For the sake of ten, I will not destroy it.”
When the LORD had finished speaking with Abraham, he left, and Abraham returned home.

CHAPTER 19

The two angels arrived at Sodom in the evening, and Lot was sitting in the gateway of the city. When he saw them, he got up to meet them and bowed down with his face to the ground.

“My lords,” he said, “please turn aside to your servant’s house. You can wash your feet and spend the night and then go on your way early in the morning.” “No,” they answered, “we will spend the night in the square.”

But he insisted so strongly that they did go with him and entered his house. He prepared a meal for them, baking bread without yeast, and they ate.

Before they had gone to bed, all the men from every part of the city of Sodom — both young and old — surrounded the house.

They called to Lot, “Where are the men who came to you tonight? Bring them out to us so that we can have sex with them.”

Lot went outside to meet them and shut the door behind him and said, “No, my friends. Don’t do this wicked thing.

Look, I have two daughters who have never slept with a man. Let me bring them out to you, and you can do what you like with them. But don’t do anything to these men, for they have come under the protection of my roof.”

“Get out of our way,” they replied. And they said, “This fellow came here as an alien, and now he wants to play the judge! We’ll treat you worse than them.” They kept bringing pressure on Lot and moved forward to break down the door.
Ge. 19:10 But the men inside reached out and pulled Lot back into the house and shut the door.

Ge. 19:11 Then they struck the men who were at the door of the house, young and old, with blindness so that they could not find the door.

Ge. 19:12 The two men said to Lot, “Do you have anyone else here — sons-in-law, sons or daughters, or anyone else in the city who belongs to you? Get them out of here, because we are going to destroy this place. The outcry to the LORD against its people is so great that he has sent us to destroy it.”

Ge. 19:13 So Lot went out and spoke to his sons-in-law, who were pledged to marry [Or were married to] his daughters. He said, “Hurry and get out of this place, because the LORD is about to destroy the city!” But his sons-in-law thought he was joking.

Ge. 19:14 With the coming of dawn, the angels urged Lot, saying, “Hurry! Take your wife and your two daughters who are here, or you will be swept away when the city is punished.”

Ge. 19:15 When he hesitated, the men grasped his hand and the hands of his wife and of his two daughters and led them safely out of the city, for the LORD was merciful to them.

Ge. 19:16 As soon as they had brought them out, one of them said, “Flee for your lives! Don’t look back, and don’t stop anywhere in the plain! Flee to the mountains or you will be swept away!”

Ge. 19:17 But Lot said to them, “No, my lords, [Or No, Lord; or No, my lord] please!

Ge. 19:18 Your [The Hebrew is singular.] servant has found favour in your [The Hebrew is singular.] eyes, and you [The Hebrew is singular.] have shown great kindness to me in sparing my life. But I can’t flee to the mountains; this disaster will overtake me, and I’ll die.
Ge. 19:20 Look, here is a town near enough to run to, and it is small. Let me flee to it — it is very small, isn’t it? Then my life will be spared.”

Ge. 19:21 He said to him, “Very well, I will grant this request too; I will not overthrow the town you speak of.

Ge. 19:22 But flee there quickly, because I cannot do anything until you reach it.” (That is why the town was called Zoar.) [Zoar means small.]

Ge. 19:23 By the time Lot reached Zoar, the sun had risen over the land.

Ge. 19:24 Then the LORD rained down burning sulphur on Sodom and Gomorrah — from the LORD out of the heavens.

Ge. 19:25 Thus he overthrew those cities and the entire plain, including all those living in the cities — and also the vegetation in the land.

Ge. 19:26 But Lot’s wife looked back, and she became a pillar of salt.

Ge. 19:27 Early the next morning Abraham got up and returned to the place where he had stood before the LORD.

Ge. 19:28 He looked down towards Sodom and Gomorrah, towards all the land of the plain, and he saw dense smoke rising from the land, like smoke from a furnace.

Ge. 19:29 So when God destroyed the cities of the plain, he remembered Abraham, and he brought Lot out of the catastrophe that overthrew the cities where Lot had lived.

Ge. 19:30 Lot and his two daughters left Zoar and settled in the mountains, for he was afraid to stay in Zoar. He and his two daughters lived in a cave.

Ge. 19:31 One day the older daughter said to the younger, “Our father is old, and there is no man around here to lie with us, as is the custom all over the earth.

Ge. 19:32 Let’s get our father to drink wine and then lie with him and preserve our family line through our father.”
Ge. 19:33 That night they got their father to drink wine, and the older daughter went in and lay with him. He was not aware of it when she lay down or when she got up.

Ge. 19:34 The next day the older daughter said to the younger, “Last night I lay with my father. Let’s get him to drink wine again tonight, and you go in and lie with him so we can preserve our family line through our father.”

Ge. 19:35 So they got their father to drink wine that night also, and the younger daughter went and lay with him. Again he was not aware of it when she lay down or when she got up.

Ge. 19:36 So both of Lot’s daughters became pregnant by their father.

Ge. 19:37 The older daughter had a son, and she named him Moab; [Moab sounds like the Hebrew for from father.] he is the father of the Moabites of today.

Ge. 19:38 The younger daughter also had a son, and she named him Ben-Ammi; [Ben-Ammi means son of my people.] he is the father of the Ammonites of today.

CHAPTER 20

Ge. 20:1 Now Abraham moved on from there into the region of the Negev and lived between Kadesh and Shur. For a while he stayed in Gerar, Ge. 20:2 and there Abraham said of his wife Sarah, “She is my sister.” Then Abimelech king of Gerar sent for Sarah and took her.

Ge. 20:3 But God came to Abimelech in a dream one night and said to him, “You are as good as dead because of the woman you have taken; she is a married woman.”

Ge. 20:4 Now Abimelech had not gone near her, so he said, “Lord, will you destroy an innocent nation?

Ge. 20:5 Did he not say to me, ‘She is my sister,’ and didn’t she also say, ‘He is my brother’? I have done this with a clear conscience and clean hands.”
Then God said to him in the dream, “Yes, I know you did this with a clear conscience, and so I have kept you from sinning against me. That is why I did not let you touch her.

Now return the man’s wife, for he is a prophet, and he will pray for you and you will live. But if you do not return her, you may be sure that you and all yours will die.”

Early the next morning Abimelech summoned all his officials, and when he told them all that had happened, they were very much afraid.

Then Abimelech called Abraham in and said, “What have you done to us? How have I wronged you that you have brought such great guilt upon me and my kingdom? You have done things to me that should not be done.”

And Abimelech asked Abraham, “What was your reason for doing this?”

Abraham replied, “I said to myself, ‘There is surely no fear of God in this place, and they will kill me because of my wife.’

Besides, she really is my sister, the daughter of my father though not of my mother; and she became my wife.

And when God caused me to wander from my father’s household, I said to her, ‘This is how you can show your love to me: Everywhere we go, say of me, “He is my brother.”’

Then Abimelech brought sheep and cattle and male and female slaves and gave them to Abraham, and he returned Sarah his wife to him.

And Abimelech said, “My land is before you; live wherever you like.”

To Sarah he said, “I am giving your brother a thousand shekels [That is, about 25 pounds (about 11.5 kilograms)] of silver. This is to cover the offence against you before all who are with you; you are completely vindicated.”

Then Abraham prayed to God, and God healed Abimelech, his wife and his slave girls so they could have children again,
Ge. 20:18 for the LORD had closed up every womb in Abimelech’s household because of Abraham’s wife Sarah.

CHAPTER 21

Ge. 21:1 Now the LORD was gracious to Sarah as he had said, and the LORD did for Sarah what he had promised.

Ge. 21:2 Sarah became pregnant and bore a son to Abraham in his old age, at the very time God had promised him.

Ge. 21:3 Abraham gave the name Isaac [Isaac means he laughs.] to the son Sarah bore him.

Ge. 21:4 When his son Isaac was eight days old, Abraham circumcised him, as God commanded him.

Ge. 21:5 Abraham was a hundred years old when his son Isaac was born to him.

Ge. 21:6 Sarah said, “God has brought me laughter, and everyone who hears about this will laugh with me.”

Ge. 21:7 And she added, “Who would have said to Abraham that Sarah would nurse children? Yet I have borne him a son in his old age.”

Ge. 21:8 The child grew and was weaned, and on the day Isaac was weaned Abraham held a great feast.

Ge. 21:9 But Sarah saw that the son whom Hagar the Egyptian had borne to Abraham was mocking,

Ge. 21:10 and she said to Abraham, “Get rid of that slave woman and her son, for that slave woman’s son will never share in the inheritance with my son Isaac.”

Ge. 21:11 The matter distressed Abraham greatly because it concerned his son.

Ge. 21:12 But God said to him, “Do not be so distressed about the boy and your maidservant. Listen to whatever Sarah tells you, because it is through Isaac that your offspring [Or seed] will be reckoned.

Ge. 21:13 I will make the son of the maidservant into a nation also, because he is your offspring.”

Ge. 21:14 Early the next morning Abraham took some food and a skin of water and gave them to Hagar. He set them on her shoulders and then sent her off with the boy. She went on her way and wandered in the desert of Beersheba.

Ge. 21:15 When the water in the skin was gone, she put the boy under one of the bushes.

Ge. 21:16 Then she went off and sat down nearby, about a bow-shot away, for she thought, “I cannot watch the boy die.” And as she sat there nearby, she [Hebrew; Septuagint the child] began to sob.

Ge. 21:17 God heard the boy crying, and the angel of God called to Hagar from heaven and said to her, “What is the matter, Hagar? Do not be afraid; God has heard the boy crying as he lies there.

Ge. 21:18 Lift the boy up and take him by the hand, for I will make him into a great nation.”

Ge. 21:19 Then God opened her eyes and she saw a well of water. So she went and filled the skin with water and gave the boy a drink.

Ge. 21:20 God was with the boy as he grew up. He lived in the desert and became an archer.

Ge. 21:21 While he was living in the Desert of Paran, his mother got a wife for him from Egypt.

Ge. 21:22 At that time Abimelech and Phicol the commander of his forces said to Abraham, “God is with you in everything you do.

Ge. 21:23 Now swear to me here before God that you will not deal falsely with me or my children or my descendants. Show to me and the country where you are living as an alien the same kindness I have shown to you.”

Ge. 21:24  Abraham said, “I swear it.”

Ge. 21:25  Then Abraham complained to Abimelech about a well of water that Abimelech’s servants had seized.

Ge. 21:26  But Abimelech said, “I don’t know who has done this. You did not tell me, and I heard about it only today.”

Ge. 21:27  So Abraham brought sheep and cattle and gave them to Abimelech, and the two men made a treaty.

Ge. 21:28  Abraham set apart seven ewe lambs from the flock,

Ge. 21:29  and Abimelech asked Abraham, “What is the meaning of these seven ewe lambs you have set apart by themselves?”

Ge. 21:30  He replied, “Accept these seven lambs from my hand as a witness that I dug this well.”

Ge. 21:31  So that place was called Beersheba, [Beersheba can mean well of seven or well of the oath.] because the two men swore an oath there.

Ge. 21:32  After the treaty had been made at Beersheba, Abimelech and Phicol the commander of his forces returned to the land of the Philistines.

Ge. 21:33  Abraham planted a tamarisk tree in Beersheba, and there he called upon the name of the LORD, the Eternal God.

Ge. 21:34  And Abraham stayed in the land of the Philistines for a long time.

CHAPTER 22

Ge. 22:1  Some time later God tested Abraham. He said to him, “Abraham!” “Here I am,” he replied.

Ge. 22:2  Then God said, “Take your son, your only son, Isaac, whom you love, and go to the region of Moriah. Sacrifice him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains I will tell you about.”

Ge. 22:3 Early the next morning Abraham got up and saddled his donkey. He took with him two of his servants and his son Isaac. When he had cut enough wood for the burnt offering, he set out for the place God had told him about.

Ge. 22:4 On the third day Abraham looked up and saw the place in the distance.

Ge. 22:5 He said to his servants, “Stay here with the donkey while I and the boy go over there. We will worship and then we will come back to you.”

Ge. 22:6 Abraham took the wood for the burnt offering and placed it on his son Isaac, and he himself carried the fire and the knife. As the two of them went on together,

Ge. 22:7 Isaac spoke up and said to his father Abraham, “Father?” “Yes, my son?” Abraham replied. “The fire and wood are here,” Isaac said, “but where is the lamb for the burnt offering?”

Ge. 22:8 Abraham answered, “God himself will provide the lamb for the burnt offering, my son.” And the two of them went on together.

Ge. 22:9 When they reached the place God had told him about, Abraham built an altar there and arranged the wood on it. He bound his son Isaac and laid him on the altar, on top of the wood.

Ge. 22:10 Then he reached out his hand and took the knife to slay his son.

Ge. 22:11 But the angel of the LORD called out to him from heaven, “Abraham! Abraham!” “Here I am,” he replied.

Ge. 22:12 “Do not lay a hand on the boy,” he said. “Do not do anything to him. Now I know that you fear God, because you have not withheld from me your son, your only son.”
Abraham looked up and there in a thicket he saw a ram [Many manuscripts of the Masoretic Text, Samaritan Pentateuch, Septuagint and Syriac; most manuscripts of the Masoretic Text a ram behind him] caught by its horns. He went over and took the ram and sacrificed it as a burnt offering instead of his son.

So Abraham called that place The LORD Will Provide. And to this day it is said, “On the mountain of the LORD it will be provided.”

The angel of the LORD called to Abraham from heaven a second time

I will surely bless you and make your descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky and as the sand on the seashore. Your descendants will take possession of the cities of their enemies, and through your offspring [Or seed] all nations on earth will be blessed, because you have obeyed me.”

Then Abraham returned to his servants, and they set off together for Beersheba. And Abraham stayed in Beersheba.

Some time later Abraham was told, “Milcah is also a mother; she has borne sons to your brother Nahor:

Uz the firstborn, Buz his brother, Kemuel (the father of Aram),

Kesed, Hazo, Pildash, Jidlaph and Bethuel.”

Bethuel became the father of Rebekah. Milcah bore these eight sons to Abraham’s brother Nahor.

His concubine, whose name was Reumah, also had sons: Tebah, Gaham, Tahash and Maacah.
Sarah lived to be a hundred and twenty-seven years old.

She died at Kiriath Arba (that is, Hebron) in the land of Canaan, and Abraham went to mourn for Sarah and to weep over her.

Then Abraham rose from beside his dead wife and spoke to the Hittites. [Or the sons of Heth; also in verses 5, 7, 10, 16, 18 and 20] He said,

“I am an alien and a stranger among you. Sell me some property for a burial site here so that I can bury my dead.”

The Hittites replied to Abraham,

“Sir, listen to us. You are a mighty prince among us. Bury your dead in the choicest of our tombs. None of us will refuse you his tomb for burying your dead.”

Then Abraham rose and bowed down before the people of the land, the Hittites.

He said to them, “If you are willing to let me bury my dead, then listen to me and intercede with Ephron son of Zohar on my behalf so that he will sell me the cave of Machpelah, which belongs to him and is at the end of his field. Ask him to sell it to me for the full price as a burial site among you.”

Ephron the Hittite was sitting among his people and he replied to Abraham in the hearing of all the Hittites who had come to the gate of his city.

“No, my lord,” he said. “Listen to me; I give [Or sell] you the field, and I give [Or sell] you the cave that is in it. I give [Or sell] it to you in the presence of my people. Bury your dead.”

Again Abraham bowed down before the people of the land and he said to Ephron in their hearing, “Listen to me, if you will. I will pay the price of the field. Accept it from me so that I can bury my dead there.”

Ephron answered Abraham,

“Listen to me, my lord; the land is worth four hundred shekels [That is, about 10 pounds (about 4.5 kilograms)] of silver, but what is that between me and you? Bury your dead.”

Abraham agreed to Ephron’s terms and weighed out for him the price he had named in the hearing of the Hittites: four hundred shekels of silver, according to the weight current among the merchants.

So Ephron’s field in Machpelah near Mamre — both the field and the cave in it, and all the trees within the borders of the field — was legally made over to Abraham as his property in the presence of all the Hittites who had come to the gate of the city.

Afterwards Abraham buried his wife Sarah in the cave in the field of Machpelah near Mamre (which is at Hebron) in the land of Canaan.

So the field and the cave in it were legally made over to Abraham by the Hittites as a burial site.

CHAPTER 24

Abraham was now old and well advanced in years, and the LORD had blessed him in every way.

He said to the chief [Or oldest] servant in his household, the one in charge of all that he had, “Put your hand under my thigh.

I want you to swear by the LORD, the God of heaven and the God of earth, that you will not get a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I am living, but will go to my country and my own relatives and get a wife for my son Isaac.”

The servant asked him, “What if the woman is unwilling to come back with me to this land? Shall I then take your son back to the country you came from?”

“Make sure that you do not take my son back there,” Abraham said.

“The LORD, the God of heaven, who brought me out of my father’s household and my native land and who spoke to me and promised me on oath, saying, ‘To your offspring [Or seed] I will give this land’ — he will send his angel before you so that you can get a wife for my son from there.

If the woman is unwilling to come back with you, then you will be released from this oath of mine. Only do not take my son back there.”

So the servant put his hand under the thigh of his master Abraham and swore an oath to him concerning this matter.

Then the servant took ten of his master’s camels and left, taking with him all kinds of good things from his master. He set out for Aram Naharaim [That is, North-west Mesopotamia] and made his way to the town of Nahor.

He made the camels kneel down near the well outside the town; it was towards evening, the time the women go out to draw water.

Then he prayed, “O LORD, God of my master Abraham, give me success today, and show kindness to my master Abraham.

See, I am standing beside this spring, and the daughters of the townspeople are coming out to draw water.

May it be that when I say to a girl, ‘Please let down your jar that I may have a drink,’ and she says, ‘Drink, and I’ll water your camels too’ — let her be the one you have chosen for your servant Isaac. By this I will know that you have shown kindness to my master.”
Before he had finished praying, Rebekah came out with her jar on her shoulder. She was the daughter of Bethuel son of Milcah, who was the wife of Abraham’s brother Nahor.

The girl was very beautiful, a virgin; no man had ever lain with her. She went down to the spring, filled her jar and came up again.

The servant hurried to meet her and said, “Please give me a little water from your jar.”

“Drink, my lord,” she said, and quickly lowered the jar to her hands and gave him a drink.

After she had given him a drink, she said, “I’ll draw water for your camels too, until they have finished drinking.”

So she quickly emptied her jar into the trough, ran back to the well to draw more water, and drew enough for all his camels.

Without saying a word, the man watched her closely to learn whether or not the LORD had made his journey successful.

When the camels had finished drinking, the man took out a gold nose ring weighing a beka [That is, about 1/5 ounce (about 6 grams)] and two gold bracelets weighing ten shekels. [That is, about 4 ounces (about 115 grams)]

Then he asked, “Whose daughter are you? Please tell me, is there room in your father’s house for us to spend the night?”

She answered him, “I am the daughter of Bethuel, the son that Milcah bore to Nahor.”

And she added, “We have plenty of straw and fodder, as well as room for you to spend the night.”

Then the man bowed down and worshipped the LORD, saying, “Praise be to the LORD, the God of my master Abraham, who has not abandoned his kindness and faithfulness to my master. As for me, the LORD has led me on the journey to the house of my master’s relatives.”
The girl ran and told her mother’s household about these things.

Now Rebekah had a brother named Laban, and he hurried out to the man at the spring.

As soon as he had seen the nose ring, and the bracelets on his sister’s arms, and had heard Rebekah tell what the man said to her, he went out to the man and found him standing by the camels near the spring.

“Come, you who are blessed by the LORD,” he said. “Why are you standing out here? I have prepared the house and a place for the camels.”

So the man went to the house, and the camels were unloaded. Straw and fodder were brought for the camels, and water for him and his men to wash their feet.

Then food was set before him, but he said, “I will not eat until I have told you what I have to say.” “Then tell us,” Laban said.

So he said, “I am Abraham’s servant.

The LORD has blessed my master abundantly, and he has become wealthy. He has given him sheep and cattle, silver and gold, menservants and maidservants, and camels and donkeys.

My master’s wife Sarah has borne him a son in her [Or his] old age, and he has given him everything he owns.

And my master made me swear an oath, and said, ‘You must not get a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I live, but go to my father’s family and to my own clan, and get a wife for my son.’

‘Then I asked my master, ‘What if the woman will not come back with me?’
“He replied, ‘The LORD, before whom I have walked, will send his angel with you and make your journey a success, so that you can get a wife for my son from my own clan and from my father’s family.’

Then, when you go to my clan, you will be released from my oath even if they refuse to give her to you — you will be released from my oath.’

“When I came to the spring today, I said, ‘O LORD, God of my master Abraham, if you will, please grant success to the journey on which I have come.

See, I am standing beside this spring; if a maiden comes out to draw water and I say to her, “Please let me drink a little water from your jar,” and if she says to me, “Drink, and I’ll draw water for your camels too,” let her be the one the LORD has chosen for my master’s son.’

“Before I finished praying in my heart, Rebekah came out, with her jar on her shoulder. She went down to the spring and drew water, and I said to her, ‘Please give me a drink.’

“She quickly lowered her jar from her shoulder and said, ‘Drink, and I’ll water your camels too.’ So I drank, and she watered the camels also.

“I asked her, ‘Whose daughter are you?’ “She said, ‘The daughter of Bethuel son of Nahor, whom Milcah bore to him.’ “Then I put the ring in her nose and the bracelets on her arms, and I bowed down and worshipped the LORD. I praised the LORD, the God of my master Abraham, who had led me on the right road to get the granddaughter of my master’s brother for his son.

Now if you will show kindness and faithfulness to my master, tell me; and if not, tell me, so I may know which way to turn.”
Laban and Bethuel answered, “This is from the LORD; we can say nothing to you one way or the other.

Here is Rebekah; take her and go, and let her become the wife of your master’s son, as the LORD has directed.”

When Abraham’s servant heard what they said, he bowed down to the ground before the LORD.

Then the servant brought out gold and silver jewellery and articles of clothing and gave them to Rebekah; he also gave costly gifts to her brother and to her mother.

Then he and the men who were with him ate and drank and spent the night there. When they got up the next morning, he said, “Send me on my way to my master.”

But her brother and her mother replied, “Let the girl remain with us ten days or so; then you [Or she] may go.”

But he said to them, “Do not detain me, now that the LORD has granted success to my journey. Send me on my way so I may go to my master.”

Then they said, “Let’s call the girl and ask her about it.”

So they called Rebekah and asked her, “Will you go with this man?” “I will go,” she said.

So they sent their sister Rebekah on her way, along with her nurse and Abraham’s servant and his men.

And they blessed Rebekah and said to her, “Our sister, may you increase to thousands upon thousands; may your offspring possess the gates of their enemies.”

Then Rebekah and her maids got ready and mounted their camels and went back with the man. So the servant took Rebekah and left.

Now Isaac had come from Beer Lahai Roi, for he was living in the Negev.
He went out to the field one evening to meditate, [The meaning of the Hebrew for this word is uncertain.] and as he looked up, he saw camels approaching.

Rebekah also looked up and saw Isaac. She got down from her camel and asked the servant, “Who is that man in the field coming to meet us?” “He is my master,” the servant answered. So she took her veil and covered herself.

Then the servant told Isaac all he had done.

Isaac brought her into the tent of his mother Sarah, and he married Rebekah. So she became his wife, and he loved her; and Isaac was comforted after his mother’s death.

CHAPTER 25

Abraham took [Or had taken] another wife, whose name was Keturah.

She bore him Zimran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak and Shuah.

Jokshan was the father of Sheba and Dedan; the descendants of Dedan were the Asshurites, the Letushites and the Leummites.

The sons of Midian were Ephah, Epher, Hanoch, Abida and Eldaah. All these were descendants of Keturah.

Abraham left everything he owned to Isaac.

But while he was still living, he gave gifts to the sons of his concubines and sent them away from his son Isaac to the land of the east.

Altogether, Abraham lived a hundred and seventy-five years.

Then Abraham breathed his last and died at a good old age, an old man and full of years; and he was gathered to his people.
His sons Isaac and Ishmael buried him in the cave of Machpelah near Mamre, in the field of Ephron son of Zohar the Hittite, the field Abraham had bought from the Hittites. [Or the sons of Heth] There Abraham was buried with his wife Sarah.

After Abraham’s death, God blessed his son Isaac, who then lived near Beer Lahai Roi.

This is the account of Abraham’s son Ishmael, whom Sarah’s maidservant, Hagar the Egyptian, bore to Abraham.

These are the names of the sons of Ishmael, listed in the order of their birth: Nebaioth the firstborn of Ishmael, Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam,

Mishma, Dumah, Massa,

Hadad, Tema, Jetur, Naphish and Kedemah.

These were the sons of Ishmael, and these are the names of the twelve tribal rulers according to their settlements and camps.

Altogether, Ishmael lived a hundred and thirty-seven years. He breathed his last and died, and he was gathered to his people.

His descendants settled in the area from Havilah to Shur, near the border of Egypt, as you go towards Asshur. And they lived in hostility towards [Or lived to the east of] all their brothers.

This is the account of Abraham’s son Isaac. Abraham became the father of Isaac, and Isaac was forty years old when he married Rebekah daughter of Bethuel the Aramean from Paddan Aram [That is, North-west Mesopotamia] and sister of Laban the Aramean.

Ge. 25:21 Isaac prayed to the LORD on behalf of his wife, because she was barren. The LORD answered his prayer, and his wife Rebekah became pregnant.

Ge. 25:22 The babies jostled each other within her, and she said, “Why is this happening to me?” So she went to enquire of the LORD.

Ge. 25:23 The LORD said to her, “Two nations are in your womb, and two peoples from within you will be separated; one people will be stronger than the other, and the older will serve the younger.”

Ge. 25:24 When the time came for her to give birth, there were twin boys in her womb.

Ge. 25:25 The first to come out was red, and his whole body was like a hairy garment; so they named him Esau. [Esau may mean hairy; he was also called Edom, which means red.]

Ge. 25:26 After this, his brother came out, with his hand grasping Esau’s heel; so he was named Jacob. [Jacob means he grasps the heel (figuratively, he deceives).] Isaac was sixty years old when Rebekah gave birth to them.

Ge. 25:27 The boys grew up, and Esau became a skilful hunter, a man of the open country, while Jacob was a quiet man, staying among the tents.

Ge. 25:28 Isaac, who had a taste for wild game, loved Esau, but Rebekah loved Jacob.

Ge. 25:29 Once when Jacob was cooking some stew, Esau came in from the open country, famished.

Ge. 25:30 He said to Jacob, “Quick, let me have some of that red stew! I’m famished!” (That is why he was also called Edom.) [Edom means red.]

Ge. 25:31 Jacob replied, “First sell me your birthright.”

Ge. 25:32 “Look, I am about to die,” Esau said. “What good is the birthright to me?”
But Jacob said, “Swear to me first.” So he swore an oath to him, selling his birthright to Jacob.

Then Jacob gave Esau some bread and some lentil stew. He ate and drank, and then got up and left. So Esau despised his birthright.

CHAPTER 26

Now there was a famine in the land — besides the earlier famine of Abraham’s time — and Isaac went to Abimelech king of the Philistines in Gerar.

The LORD appeared to Isaac and said, “Do not go down to Egypt; live in the land where I tell you to live.

Stay in this land for a while, and I will be with you and will bless you. For to you and your descendants I will give all these lands and will confirm the oath I swore to your father Abraham.

I will make your descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky and will give them all these lands, and through your offspring [Or seed] all nations on earth will be blessed, because Abraham obeyed me and kept my requirements, my commands, my decrees and my laws.”

So Isaac stayed in Gerar.

When the men of that place asked him about his wife, he said, “She is my sister,” because he was afraid to say, “She is my wife.” He thought, “The men of this place might kill me on account of Rebekah, because she is beautiful.”

When Isaac had been there a long time, Abimelech king of the Philistines looked down from a window and saw Isaac caressing his wife Rebekah.

So Abimelech summoned Isaac and said, “She is really your wife! Why did you say, ‘She is my sister’?” Isaac answered him, “Because I thought I might lose my life on account of her.”

Ge. 26:10 Then Abimelech said, “What is this you have done to us? One of the men might well have slept with your wife, and you would have brought guilt upon us.”

Ge. 26:11 So Abimelech gave orders to all the people: “Anyone who molests this man or his wife shall surely be put to death.”

Ge. 26:12 Isaac planted crops in that land and the same year reaped a hundredfold, because the LORD blessed him.

Ge. 26:13 The man became rich, and his wealth continued to grow until he became very wealthy.

Ge. 26:14 He had so many flocks and herds and servants that the Philistines envied him.

Ge. 26:15 So all the wells that his father’s servants had dug in the time of his father Abraham, the Philistines stopped up, filling them with earth.

Ge. 26:16 Then Abimelech said to Isaac, “Move away from us; you have become too powerful for us.”

Ge. 26:17 So Isaac moved away from there and encamped in the Valley of Gerar and settled there.

Ge. 26:18 Isaac reopened the wells that had been dug in the time of his father Abraham, which the Philistines had stopped up after Abraham died, and he gave them the same names his father had given them.

Ge. 26:19 Isaac’s servants dug in the valley and discovered a well of fresh water there.

Ge. 26:20 But the herdsmen of Gerar quarrelled with Isaac’s herdsmen and said, “The water is ours!” So he named the well Esek, [Esek means dispute.] because they disputed with him.

Ge. 26:21 Then they dug another well, but they quarrelled over that one also; so he named it Sitnah. [Sitnah means opposition.]
He moved on from there and dug another well, and no-one quarrelled over it. He named it Rehoboth, [Rehoboth means room.] saying, “Now the LORD has given us room and we will flourish in the land.”

From there he went up to Beersheba.

That night the LORD appeared to him and said, “I am the God of your father Abraham. Do not be afraid, for I am with you; I will bless you and will increase the number of your descendants for the sake of my servant Abraham.”

Isaac built an altar there and called on the name of the LORD. There he pitched his tent, and there his servants dug a well.

Meanwhile, Abimelech had come to him from Gerar, with Ahuzzath his personal adviser and Phicol the commander of his forces.

Isaac asked them, “Why have you come to me, since you were hostile to me and sent me away?”

They answered, “We saw clearly that the LORD was with you; so we said, ‘There ought to be a sworn agreement between us’ — between us and you. Let us make a treaty with you that you will do us no harm, just as we did not molest you but always treated you well and sent you away in peace. And now you are blessed by the LORD.”

Isaac then made a feast for them, and they ate and drank.

Early the next morning the men swore an oath to each other. Then Isaac sent them on their way, and they left him in peace.

That day Isaac’s servants came and told him about the well they had dug. They said, “We’ve found water!”

He called it Shibah, [Shibah can mean oath or seven.] and to this day the name of the town has been Beersheba. [Beersheba can mean well of the oath or well of seven.]
Ge. 26:34  When Esau was forty years old, he married Judith daughter of Beeri the Hittite, and also Basemath daughter of Elon the Hittite.

Ge. 26:35  They were a source of grief to Isaac and Rebekah.

CHAPTER 27

Ge. 27:1  When Isaac was old and his eyes were so weak that he could no longer see, he called for Esau his older son and said to him, “My son.” “Here I am,” he answered.

Ge. 27:2  Isaac said, “I am now an old man and don’t know the day of my death.

Ge. 27:3  Now then, get your weapons — your quiver and bow — and go out to the open country to hunt some wild game for me.

Ge. 27:4  Prepare me the kind of tasty food I like and bring it to me to eat, so that I may give you my blessing before I die.”

Ge. 27:5  Now Rebekah was listening as Isaac spoke to his son Esau. When Esau left for the open country to hunt game and bring it back,

Ge. 27:6  Rebekah said to her son Jacob, “Look, I overheard your father say to your brother Esau,

Ge. 27:7  ‘Bring me some game and prepare me some tasty food to eat, so that I may give you my blessing in the presence of the LORD before I die.’

Ge. 27:8  Now, my son, listen carefully and do what I tell you:

Ge. 27:9  Go out to the flock and bring me two choice young goats, so that I can prepare some tasty food for your father, just the way he likes it.

Ge. 27:10  Then take it to your father to eat, so that he may give you his blessing before he dies.”

Ge. 27:11  Jacob said to Rebekah his mother, “But my brother Esau is a hairy man, and I’m a man with smooth skin.
Ge. 27:12 What if my father touches me? I would appear to be tricking him and would bring down a curse on myself rather than a blessing.”

Ge. 27:13 His mother said to him, “My son, let the curse fall on me. Just do what I say; go and get them for me.”

Ge. 27:14 So he went and got them and brought them to his mother, and she prepared some tasty food, just the way his father liked it.

Ge. 27:15 Then Rebekah took the best clothes of Esau her older son, which she had in the house, and put them on her younger son Jacob.

Ge. 27:16 She also covered his hands and the smooth part of his neck with the goatskins.

Ge. 27:17 Then she handed to her son Jacob the tasty food and the bread she had made.

Ge. 27:18 He went to his father and said, “My father.” “Yes, my son,” he answered. “Who is it?”

Ge. 27:19 Jacob said to his father, “I am Esau your firstborn. I have done as you told me. Please sit up and eat some of my game so that you may give me your blessing.”

Ge. 27:20 Isaac asked his son, “How did you find it so quickly, my son?” “The LORD your God gave me success,” he replied.

Ge. 27:21 Then Isaac said to Jacob, “Come near so I can touch you, my son, to know whether you really are my son Esau or not.”

Ge. 27:22 Jacob went close to his father Isaac, who touched him and said, “The voice is the voice of Jacob, but the hands are the hands of Esau.”

Ge. 27:23 He did not recognise him, for his hands were hairy like those of his brother Esau; so he blessed him.

Ge. 27:24 “Are you really my son Esau?” he asked. “I am,” he replied.
Then he said, “My son, bring me some of your game to eat, so that I may give you my blessing.” Jacob brought it to him and he ate; and he brought some wine and he drank.

Then his father Isaac said to him, “Come here, my son, and kiss me.”

So he went to him and kissed him. When Isaac caught the smell of his clothes, he blessed him and said, “Ah, the smell of my son is like the smell of a field that the LORD has blessed.

May God give you of heaven’s dew and of earth’s richness — an abundance of grain and new wine.

May nations serve you and peoples bow down to you. Be lord over your brothers, and may the sons of your mother bow down to you. May those who curse you be cursed and those who bless you be blessed.”

After Isaac finished blessing him and Jacob had scarcely left his father’s presence, his brother Esau came in from hunting.

He too prepared some tasty food and brought it to his father. Then he said to him, “My father, sit up and eat some of my game, so that you may give me your blessing.”

His father Isaac asked him, “Who are you?” “I am your son,” he answered, “your firstborn, Esau.”

Isaac trembled violently and said, “Who was it, then, that hunted game and brought it to me? I ate it just before you came and I blessed him — and indeed he will be blessed!”

When Esau heard his father’s words, he burst out with a loud and bitter cry and said to his father, “Bless me — me too, my father!”

But he said, “Your brother came deceitfully and took your blessing.”

Esau said, “Isn’t he rightly named Jacob? [Jacob means he grasps the heel (figuratively, he deceives).] He has deceived me these two times: He took my birthright, and now he’s taken my blessing!” Then he asked, “Haven’t you reserved any blessing for me?”

Ge. 27:37 Isaac answered Esau, “I have made him lord over you and have made all his relatives his servants, and I have sustained him with grain and new wine. So what can I possibly do for you, my son?”

Ge. 27:38 Esau said to his father, “Do you have only one blessing, my father? Bless me too, my father!” Then Esau wept aloud.

Ge. 27:39 His father Isaac answered him, “Your dwelling will be away from the earth’s richness, away from the dew of heaven above.

Ge. 27:40 You will live by the sword and you will serve your brother. But when you grow restless, you will throw his yoke from off your neck.”

Ge. 27:41 Esau held a grudge against Jacob because of the blessing his father had given him. He said to himself, “The days of mourning for my father are near; then I will kill my brother Jacob.”

Ge. 27:42 When Rebekah was told what her older son Esau had said, she sent for her younger son Jacob and said to him, “Your brother Esau is consoling himself with the thought of killing you.

Ge. 27:43 Now then, my son, do what I say: Flee at once to my brother Laban in Haran.

Ge. 27:44 Stay with him for a while until your brother’s fury subsides.

Ge. 27:45 When your brother is no longer angry with you and forgets what you did to him, I’ll send word for you to come back from there. Why should I lose both of you in one day?”

Ge. 27:46 Then Rebekah said to Isaac, “I’m disgusted with living because of these Hittite women. If Jacob takes a wife from among the women of this land, from Hittite women like these, my life will not be worth living.”
So Isaac called for Jacob and blessed [Or greeted] him and commanded him: “Do not marry a Canaanite woman.

Go at once to Paddan Aram, [That is, North-west Mesopotamia; also in verses 5, 6 and 7] to the house of your mother’s father Bethuel. Take a wife for yourself there, from among the daughters of Laban, your mother’s brother.

May God Almighty [Hebrew El-Shaddai] bless you and make you fruitful and increase your numbers until you become a community of peoples.

Then Isaac sent Jacob on his way, and he went to Paddan Aram, to Laban son of Bethuel the Aramean, the brother of Rebekah, who was the mother of Jacob and Esau.

Now Esau learned that Isaac had blessed Jacob and had sent him to Paddan Aram to take a wife from there, and that when he blessed him he commanded him, “Do not marry a Canaanite woman,” and that Jacob had obeyed his father and mother and had gone to Paddan Aram.

Esau then realised how displeasing the Canaanite women were to his father Isaac; so he went to Ishmael and married Mahalath, the sister of Nebaioth and daughter of Ishmael son of Abraham, in addition to the wives he already had.

Jacob left Beersheba and set out for Haran.

When he reached a certain place, he stopped for the night because the sun had set. Taking one of the stones there, he put it under his head and lay down to sleep.
He had a dream in which he saw a stairway [Or ladder] resting on the earth, with its top reaching to heaven, and the angels of God were ascending and descending on it.

There above it [Or There beside him] stood the LORD, and he said: “I am the LORD, the God of your father Abraham and the God of Isaac. I will give you and your descendants the land on which you are lying.

Your descendants will be like the dust of the earth, and you will spread out to the west and to the east, to the north and to the south. All peoples on earth will be blessed through you and your offspring.

When Jacob awoke from his sleep, he thought, “Surely the LORD is in this place, and I was not aware of it.”

He was afraid and said, “How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of God; this is the gate of heaven.”

Early the next morning Jacob took the stone he had placed under his head and set it up as a pillar and poured oil on top of it.

He called that place Bethel, [Bethel means house of God.] though the city used to be called Luz.

Then Jacob made a vow, saying, “If God will be with me and will watch over me on this journey I am taking and will give me food to eat and clothes to wear so that I return safely to my father’s house, then the LORD [Or Since God...father’s house, the LORD] will be my God and [Or house, and the LORD will be my God, 22 then] this stone that I have set up as a pillar will be God’s house, and of all that you give me I will give you a tenth.”

Then Jacob continued on his journey and came to the land of the eastern peoples.

There he saw a well in the field, with three flocks of sheep lying near it because the flocks were watered from that well. The stone over the mouth of the well was large.

When all the flocks were gathered there, the shepherds would roll the stone away from the well’s mouth and water the sheep. Then they would return the stone to its place over the mouth of the well.

Jacob asked the shepherds, “My brothers, where are you from?” “We’re from Haran,” they replied.

He said to them, “Do you know Laban, Nahor’s grandson?” “Yes, we know him,” they answered.

Then Jacob asked them, “Is he well?” “Yes, he is,” they said, “and here comes his daughter Rachel with the sheep.”

“Look,” he said, “the sun is still high; it is not time for the flocks to be gathered. Water the sheep and take them back to pasture.”

“We can’t,” they replied, “until all the flocks are gathered and the stone has been rolled away from the mouth of the well. Then we will water the sheep.”

While he was still talking with them, Rachel came with her father’s sheep, for she was a shepherdess.

When Jacob saw Rachel daughter of Laban, his mother’s brother, and Laban’s sheep, he went over and rolled the stone away from the mouth of the well and watered his uncle’s sheep.

Then Jacob kissed Rachel and began to weep aloud.

He had told Rachel that he was a relative of her father and a son of Rebekah. So she ran and told her father.
As soon as Laban heard the news about Jacob, his sister’s son, he hurried to meet him. He embraced him and kissed him and brought him to his home, and there Jacob told him all these things.

Then Laban said to him, “You are my own flesh and blood.” After Jacob had stayed with him for a whole month,

Laban said to him, “Just because you are a relative of mine, should you work for me for nothing? Tell me what your wages should be.”

Now Laban had two daughters; the name of the older was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel.

Leah had weak [Or delicate] eyes, but Rachel was lovely in form, and beautiful.

Jacob was in love with Rachel and said, “I’ll work for you seven years in return for your younger daughter Rachel.”

Laban said, “It’s better that I give her to you than to some other man. Stay here with me.”

So Jacob served seven years to get Rachel, but they seemed like only a few days to him because of his love for her.

Then Jacob said to Laban, “Give me my wife. My time is completed, and I want to lie with her.”

So Laban brought together all the people of the place and gave a feast.

But when evening came, he took his daughter Leah and gave her to Jacob, and Jacob lay with her.

And Laban gave his servant girl Zilpah to his daughter as her maidservant.

When morning came, there was Leah! So Jacob said to Laban, “What is this you have done to me? I served you for Rachel, didn’t I? Why have you deceived me?”

Laban replied, “It is not our custom here to give the younger daughter in marriage before the older one.
Ge. 29:27 Finish this daughter’s bridal week; then we will give you the younger one also, in return for another seven years of work.”

Ge. 29:28 And Jacob did so. He finished the week with Leah, and then Laban gave him his daughter Rachel to be his wife.

Ge. 29:29 Laban gave his servant girl Bilhah to his daughter Rachel as her maidservant.

Ge. 29:30 Jacob lay with Rachel also, and he loved Rachel more than Leah. And he worked for Laban another seven years.

Ge. 29:31 When the LORD saw that Leah was not loved, he opened her womb, but Rachel was barren.

Ge. 29:32 Leah became pregnant and gave birth to a son. She named him Reuben, [Reuben sounds like the Hebrew for he has seen my misery; the name means see, a son.] for she said, “It is because the LORD has seen my misery. Surely my husband will love me now.”

Ge. 29:33 She conceived again, and when she gave birth to a son she said, “Because the LORD heard that I am not loved, he gave me this one too.” So she named him Simeon. [Simeon probably means one who hears.]

Ge. 29:34 Again she conceived, and when she gave birth to a son she said, “Now at last my husband will become attached to me, because I have borne him three sons.” So he was named Levi. [Levi sounds like and may be derived from the Hebrew for attached.]

Ge. 29:35 She conceived again, and when she gave birth to a son she said, “This time I will praise the LORD.” So she named him Judah. [Judah sounds like and may be derived from the Hebrew for praise.] Then she stopped having children.
CHAPTER 30

Ge. 30:1 When Rachel saw that she was not bearing Jacob any children, she became jealous of her sister. So she said to Jacob, “Give me children, or I’ll die!”

Ge. 30:2 Jacob became angry with her and said, “Am I in the place of God, who has kept you from having children?”

Ge. 30:3 Then she said, “Here is Bilhah, my maidservant. Sleep with her so that she can bear children for me and that through her I too can build a family.”

Ge. 30:4 So she gave him her servant Bilhah as a wife. Jacob slept with her, Ge. 30:5 and she became pregnant and bore him a son.

Ge. 30:6 Then Rachel said, “God has vindicated me; he has listened to my plea and given me a son.” Because of this she named him Dan. [Dan here means he has vindicated.]

Ge. 30:7 Rachel’s servant Bilhah conceived again and bore Jacob a second son.

Ge. 30:8 Then Rachel said, “I have had a great struggle with my sister, and I have won.” So she named him Naphtali. [Naphtali means my struggle.]

Ge. 30:9 When Leah saw that she had stopped having children, she took her maidservant Zilpah and gave her to Jacob as a wife.

Ge. 30:10 Leah’s servant Zilpah bore Jacob a son.

Ge. 30:11 Then Leah said, “What good fortune!” [Or “A troop is coming!”] So she named him Gad. [Gad can mean good fortune or a troop.]

Ge. 30:12 Leah’s servant Zilpah bore Jacob a second son.

Ge. 30:13 Then Leah said, “How happy I am! The women will call me happy.” So she named him Asher. [Asher means happy.]
During wheat harvest, Reuben went out into the fields and found some mandrake plants, which he brought to his mother Leah. Rachel said to Leah, “Please give me some of your son’s mandrakes.”

But she said to her, “Wasn’t it enough that you took away my husband? Will you take my son’s mandrakes too?” “Very well,” Rachel said, “he can sleep with you tonight in return for your son’s mandrakes.”

So when Jacob came in from the fields that evening, Leah went out to meet him. “You must sleep with me,” she said. “I have hired you with my son’s mandrakes.” So he slept with her that night.

God listened to Leah, and she became pregnant and bore Jacob a fifth son.

Then Leah said, “God has rewarded me for giving my maidservant to my husband.” So she named him Issachar. [Issachar sounds like the Hebrew for reward.]

Leah conceived again and bore Jacob a sixth son.

Then Leah said, “God has presented me with a precious gift. This time my husband will treat me with honour, because I have borne him six sons.” So she named him Zebulun. [Zebulun probably means honour.]

Some time later she gave birth to a daughter and named her Dinah.

Then God remembered Rachel; he listened to her and opened her womb.

She became pregnant and gave birth to a son and said, “God has taken away my disgrace.”

She named him Joseph, [Joseph means may he add.] and said, “May the LORD add to me another son.”

After Rachel gave birth to Joseph, Jacob said to Laban, “Send me on my way so that I can go back to my own homeland.”
Give me my wives and children, for whom I have served you, and I will be on my way. You know how much work I’ve done for you.”

But Laban said to him, “If I have found favour in your eyes, please stay. I have learned by divination that [Or possibly have become rich and] the LORD has blessed me because of you.”

He added, “Name your wages, and I will pay them.”

Jacob said to him, “You know how I have worked for you and how your livestock has fared under my care.

The little you had before I came has increased greatly, and the LORD has blessed you wherever I have been. But now, when may I do something for my own household?”

“What shall I give you?” he asked. “Don’t give me anything,” Jacob replied. “But if you will do this one thing for me, I will go on tending your flocks and watching over them:

Let me go through all your flocks today and remove from them every speckled or spotted sheep, every dark-coloured lamb and every spotted or speckled goat. They will be my wages.

And my honesty will testify for me in the future, whenever you check on the wages you have paid me. Any goat in my possession that is not speckled or spotted, or any lamb that is not dark-coloured, will be considered stolen.”

“Agreed,” said Laban. “Let it be as you have said.”

That same day he removed all the male goats that were streaked or spotted, and all the speckled or spotted female goats (all that had white on them) and all the dark-coloured lambs, and he placed them in the care of his sons.

Then he put a three-day journey between himself and Jacob, while Jacob continued to tend the rest of Laban’s flocks.
Jacob, however, took fresh-cut branches from poplar, almond and plane trees and made white stripes on them by peeling the bark and exposing the white inner wood of the branches.

Then he placed the peeled branches in all the watering troughs, so that they would be directly in front of the flocks when they came to drink. When the flocks were in heat and came to drink, they mated in front of the branches. And they bore young that were streaked or speckled or spotted.

Jacob set apart the young of the flock by themselves, but made the rest face the streaked and dark-coloured animals that belonged to Laban. Thus he made separate flocks for himself and did not put them with Laban’s animals.

Whenever the stronger females were in heat, Jacob would place the branches in the troughs in front of the animals so that they would mate near the branches, but if the animals were weak, he would not place them there. So the weak animals went to Laban and the strong ones to Jacob.

In this way the man grew exceedingly prosperous and came to own large flocks, and maidservants and menservants, and camels and donkeys.

CHAPTER 31

Jacob heard that Laban’s sons were saying, “Jacob has taken everything our father owned and has gained all this wealth from what belonged to our father.”

And Jacob noticed that Laban’s attitude towards him was not what it had been.

Then the LORD said to Jacob, “Go back to the land of your fathers and to your relatives, and I will be with you.”
Ge. 31:4 So Jacob sent word to Rachel and Leah to come out to the fields where his flocks were.

Ge. 31:5 He said to them, “I see that your father’s attitude towards me is not what it was before, but the God of my father has been with me.

Ge. 31:6 You know that I’ve worked for your father with all my strength, Ge. 31:7 yet your father has cheated me by changing my wages ten times. However, God has not allowed him to harm me.

Ge. 31:8 If he said, ‘The speckled ones will be your wages,’ then all the flocks gave birth to speckled young; and if he said, ‘The streaked ones will be your wages,’ then all the flocks bore streaked young.

Ge. 31:9 So God has taken away your father’s livestock and has given them to me.

Ge. 31:10 “In the breeding season I once had a dream in which I looked up and saw that the male goats mating with the flock were streaked, speckled or spotted.

Ge. 31:11 The angel of God said to me in the dream, ‘Jacob.’ I answered, ‘Here I am.’

Ge. 31:12 And he said, ‘Look up and see that all the male goats mating with the flock are streaked, speckled or spotted, for I have seen all that Laban has been doing to you.

Ge. 31:13 I am the God of Bethel, where you anointed a pillar and where you made a vow to me. Now leave this land at once and go back to your native land.’”

Ge. 31:14 Then Rachel and Leah replied, “Do we still have any share in the inheritance of our father’s estate?

Ge. 31:15 Does he not regard us as foreigners? Not only has he sold us, but he has used up what was paid for us.
Ge. 31:16 Surely all the wealth that God took away from our father belongs to us and our children. So do whatever God has told you.”

Ge. 31:17 Then Jacob put his children and his wives on camels,

Ge. 31:18 and he drove all his livestock ahead of him, along with all the goods he had accumulated in Paddan Aram, [That is, Northwest Mesopotamia] to go to his father Isaac in the land of Canaan.

Ge. 31:19 When Laban had gone to shear his sheep, Rachel stole her father’s household gods.

Ge. 31:20 Moreover, Jacob deceived Laban the Aramean by not telling him he was running away.

Ge. 31:21 So he fled with all he had, and crossing the River, [That is, the Euphrates] he headed for the hill country of Gilead.

Ge. 31:22 On the third day Laban was told that Jacob had fled.

Ge. 31:23 Taking his relatives with him, he pursued Jacob for seven days and caught up with him in the hill country of Gilead.

Ge. 31:24 Then God came to Laban the Aramean in a dream at night and said to him, “Be careful not to say anything to Jacob, either good or bad.”

Ge. 31:25 Jacob had pitched his tent in the hill country of Gilead when Laban overtook him, and Laban and his relatives camped there too.

Ge. 31:26 Then Laban said to Jacob, “What have you done? You’ve deceived me, and you’ve carried off my daughters like captives in war.

Ge. 31:27 Why did you run off secretly and deceive me? Why didn’t you tell me, so that I could send you away with joy and singing to the music of tambourines and harps?

Ge. 31:28 You didn’t even let me kiss my grandchildren and my daughters good-bye. You have done a foolish thing.
Ge. 31:29 I have the power to harm you; but last night the God of your father said to me, ‘Be careful not to say anything to Jacob, either good or bad.’

Ge. 31:30 Now you have gone off because you longed to return to your father’s house. But why did you steal my gods?”

Ge. 31:31 Jacob answered Laban, “I was afraid, because I thought you would take your daughters away from me by force.

Ge. 31:32 But if you find anyone who has your gods, he shall not live. In the presence of our relatives, see for yourself whether there is anything of yours here with me; and if so, take it.” Now Jacob did not know that Rachel had stolen the gods.

Ge. 31:33 So Laban went into Jacob’s tent and into Leah’s tent and into the tent of the two maidservants, but he found nothing. After he came out of Leah’s tent, he entered Rachel’s tent.

Ge. 31:34 Now Rachel had taken the household gods and put them inside her camel’s saddle and was sitting on them. Laban searched through everything in the tent but found nothing.

Ge. 31:35 Rachel said to her father, “Don’t be angry, my lord, that I cannot stand up in your presence; I’m having my period.” So he searched but could not find the household gods.

Ge. 31:36 Jacob was angry and took Laban to task. “What is my crime?” he asked Laban. “What sin have I committed that you hunt me down?

Ge. 31:37 Now that you have searched through all my goods, what have you found that belongs to your household? Put it here in front of your relatives and mine, and let them judge between the two of us.

Ge. 31:38 “I have been with you for twenty years now. Your sheep and goats have not miscarried, nor have I eaten rams from your flocks.

Ge. 31:39 I did not bring you animals torn by wild beasts; I bore the loss myself. And you demanded payment from me for whatever was stolen by day or night.
This was my situation: The heat consumed me in the daytime and the cold at night, and sleep fled from my eyes.

It was like this for the twenty years I was in your household. I worked for you fourteen years for your two daughters and six years for your flocks, and you changed my wages ten times.

If the God of my father, the God of Abraham and the Fear of Isaac, had not been with me, you would surely have sent me away empty-handed. But God has seen my hardship and the toil of my hands, and last night he rebuked you.”

Laban answered Jacob, “The women are my daughters, the children are my children, and the flocks are my flocks. All you see is mine. Yet what can I do today about these daughters of mine, or about the children they have borne?

Come now, let’s make a covenant, you and I, and let it serve as a witness between us.”

So Jacob took a stone and set it up as a pillar.

He said to his relatives, “Gather some stones.” So they took stones and piled them in a heap, and they ate there by the heap.

Laban called it Jegar Sahadutha, [The Aramaic Jegar Sahadutha means witness heap.] and Jacob called it Galeed. [The Hebrew Galeed means witness heap.]

Laban said, “This heap is a witness between you and me today.” That is why it was called Galeed.

It was also called Mizpah, [Mizpah means watchtower.] because he said, “May the LORD keep watch between you and me when we are away from each other.

If you ill-treat my daughters or if you take any wives besides my daughters, even though no-one is with us, remember that God is a witness between you and me.”

Laban also said to Jacob, “Here is this heap, and here is this pillar I have set up between you and me.
Ge. 31:52 This heap is a witness, and this pillar is a witness, that I will not go past this heap to your side to harm you and that you will not go past this heap and pillar to my side to harm me.

Ge. 31:53 May the God of Abraham and the God of Nahor, the God of their father, judge between us.” So Jacob took an oath in the name of the Fear of his father Isaac.

Ge. 31:54 He offered a sacrifice there in the hill country and invited his relatives to a meal. After they had eaten, they spent the night there.

Ge. 31:55 Early the next morning Laban kissed his grandchildren and his daughters and blessed them. Then he left and returned home.

CHAPTER 32

Ge. 32:1 Jacob also went on his way, and the angels of God met him.

Ge. 32:2 When Jacob saw them, he said, “This is the camp of God!” So he named that place Mahanaim. [Mahanaim means two camps.]

Ge. 32:3 Jacob sent messengers ahead of him to his brother Esau in the land of Seir, the country of Edom.

Ge. 32:4 He instructed them: “This is what you are to say to my master Esau: ‘Your servant Jacob says, I have been staying with Laban and have remained there till now.

Ge. 32:5 I have cattle and donkeys, sheep and goats, menservants and maidservants. Now I am sending this message to my lord, that I may find favour in your eyes.’”

Ge. 32:6 When the messengers returned to Jacob, they said, “We went to your brother Esau, and now he is coming to meet you, and four hundred men are with him.”

Ge. 32:7 In great fear and distress Jacob divided the people who were with him into two groups, [Or camps; also in verse 10] and the flocks and herds and camels as well.
He thought, “If Esau comes and attacks one group, [Or camp] the group [Or camp] that is left may escape.”

Then Jacob prayed, “O God of my father Abraham, God of my father Isaac, O LORD, who said to me, ‘Go back to your country and your relatives, and I will make you prosper,’

I am unworthy of all the kindness and faithfulness you have shown your servant. I had only my staff when I crossed this Jordan, but now I have become two groups.

Save me, I pray, from the hand of my brother Esau, for I am afraid he will come and attack me, and also the mothers with their children.

But you have said, ‘I will surely make you prosper and will make your descendants like the sand of the sea, which cannot be counted.’”

He spent the night there, and from what he had with him he selected a gift for his brother Esau:

two hundred female goats and twenty male goats, two hundred ewes and twenty rams, thirty female camels with their young, forty cows and ten bulls, and twenty female donkeys and ten male donkeys.

He put them in the care of his servants, each herd by itself, and said to his servants, “Go ahead of me, and keep some space between the herds.”

He instructed the one in the lead: “When my brother Esau meets you and asks, ‘To whom do you belong, and where are you going, and who owns all these animals in front of you?’

then you are to say, ‘They belong to your servant Jacob. They are a gift sent to my lord Esau, and he is coming behind us.’”

He also instructed the second, the third and all the others who followed the herds: “You are to say the same thing to Esau when you meet him.
And be sure to say, ‘Your servant Jacob is coming behind us.’” For he thought, “I will pacify him with these gifts I am sending on ahead; later, when I see him, perhaps he will receive me.”

So Jacob’s gifts went on ahead of him, but he himself spent the night in the camp.

That night Jacob got up and took his two wives, his two maidservants and his eleven sons and crossed the ford of the Jabbok.

After he had sent them across the stream, he sent over all his possessions.

So Jacob was left alone, and a man wrestled with him till daybreak.

When the man saw that he could not overpower him, he touched the socket of Jacob’s hip so that his hip was wrenched as he wrestled with the man.

Then the man said, “Let me go, for it is daybreak.” But Jacob replied, “I will not let you go unless you bless me.”

The man asked him, “What is your name?” “Jacob,” he answered.

Then the man said, “Your name will no longer be Jacob, but Israel, [Israel means he struggles with God.] because you have struggled with God and with men and have overcome.”

Jacob said, “Please tell me your name.” But he replied, “Why do you ask my name?” Then he blessed him there.

So Jacob called the place Peniel, [Peniel means face of God.] saying, “It is because I saw God face to face, and yet my life was spared.”

The sun rose above him as he passed Peniel, [Hebrew Penuel, a variant of Peniel] and he was limping because of his hip.
Therefore to this day the Israelites do not eat the tendon attached to the socket of the hip, because the socket of Jacob’s hip was touched near the tendon.

CHAPTER 33

Ge. 33:1 Jacob looked up and there was Esau, coming with his four hundred men; so he divided the children among Leah, Rachel and the two maidservants.

Ge. 33:2 He put the maidservants and their children in front, Leah and her children next, and Rachel and Joseph in the rear.

Ge. 33:3 He himself went on ahead and bowed down to the ground seven times as he approached his brother.

Ge. 33:4 But Esau ran to meet Jacob and embraced him; he threw his arms around his neck and kissed him. And they wept.

Ge. 33:5 Then Esau looked up and saw the women and children. “Who are these with you?” he asked. Jacob answered, “They are the children God has graciously given your servant.”

Ge. 33:6 Then the maidservants and their children approached and bowed down.

Ge. 33:7 Next, Leah and her children came and bowed down. Last of all came Joseph and Rachel, and they too bowed down.

Ge. 33:8 Esau asked, “What do you mean by all these droves I met?” “To find favour in your eyes, my lord,” he said.

Ge. 33:9 But Esau said, “I already have plenty, my brother. Keep what you have for yourself.”

Ge. 33:10 “No, please!” said Jacob. “If I have found favour in your eyes, accept this gift from me. For to see your face is like seeing the face of God, now that you have received me favourably.”
Ge. 33:11 Please accept the present that was brought to you, for God has been gracious to me and I have all I need.” And because Jacob insisted, Esau accepted it.

Ge. 33:12 Then Esau said, “Let us be on our way; I’ll accompany you.”

Ge. 33:13 But Jacob said to him, “My lord knows that the children are tender and that I must care for the ewes and cows that are nursing their young. If they are driven hard just one day, all the animals will die.

Ge. 33:14 So let my lord go on ahead of his servant, while I move along slowly at the pace of the droves before me and that of the children, until I come to my lord in Seir.”

Ge. 33:15 Esau said, “Then let me leave some of my men with you.” “But why do that?” Jacob asked. “Just let me find favour in the eyes of my lord.”

Ge. 33:16 So that day Esau started on his way back to Seir.

Ge. 33:17 Jacob, however, went to Succoth, where he built a place for himself and made shelters for his livestock. That is why the place is called Succoth. [Succoth means shelters.]

Ge. 33:18 After Jacob came from Paddan Aram, [That is, North-west Mesopotamia] he arrived safely at the [Or arrived at Shalem, a] city of Shechem in Canaan and camped within sight of the city.

Ge. 33:19 For a hundred pieces of silver, [Hebrew hundred kesitahs; a kesitah was a unit of money of unknown weight and value.] he bought from the sons of Hamor, the father of Shechem, the plot of ground where he pitched his tent.

Ge. 33:20 There he set up an altar and called it El Elohe Israel. [El Elohe Israel can mean God, the God of Israel or mighty is the God of Israel.]
Now Dinah, the daughter Leah had borne to Jacob, went out to visit the women of the land.

When Shechem son of Hamor the Hivite, the ruler of that area, saw her, he took her and raped her.

His heart was drawn to Dinah daughter of Jacob, and he loved the girl and spoke tenderly to her.

And Shechem said to his father Hamor, “Get me this girl as my wife.”

When Jacob heard that his daughter Dinah had been defiled, his sons were in the fields with his livestock; so he kept quiet about it until they came home.

Then Shechem’s father Hamor went out to talk with Jacob.

Now Jacob’s sons had come in from the fields as soon as they heard what had happened. They were filled with grief and fury, because Shechem had done a disgraceful thing in [Or against] Israel by lying with Jacob’s daughter — a thing that should not be done.

But Hamor said to them, “My son Shechem has his heart set on your daughter. Please give her to him as his wife.

Intermarry with us; give us your daughters and take our daughters for yourselves.

You can settle among us; the land is open to you. Live in it, trade [Or move about freely; also in verse 21] in it, and acquire property in it.”

Then Shechem said to Dinah’s father and brothers, “Let me find favour in your eyes, and I will give you whatever you ask.

Make the price for the bride and the gift I am to bring as great as you like, and I’ll pay whatever you ask me. Only give me the girl as my wife.”
Because their sister Dinah had been defiled, Jacob’s sons replied deceitfully as they spoke to Shechem and his father Hamor.

They said to them, “We can’t do such a thing; we can’t give our sister to a man who is not circumcised. That would be a disgrace to us.

We will give our consent to you on one condition only: that you become like us by circumcising all your males.

Then we will give you our daughters and take your daughters for ourselves. We’ll settle among you and become one people with you.

But if you will not agree to be circumcised, we’ll take our sister [Hebrew daughter] and go.”

Their proposal seemed good to Hamor and his son Shechem.

The young man, who was the most honoured of all his father’s household, lost no time in doing what they said, because he was delighted with Jacob’s daughter.

So Hamor and his son Shechem went to the gate of their city to speak to their fellow townsmen.

“These men are friendly towards us,” they said. “Let them live in our land and trade in it; the land has plenty of room for them. We can marry their daughters and they can marry ours.

But the men will consent to live with us as one people only on the condition that our males be circumcised, as they themselves are.

Won’t their livestock, their property and all their other animals become ours? So let us give our consent to them, and they will settle among us.”

All the men who went out of the city gate agreed with Hamor and his son Shechem, and every male in the city was circumcised.
Ge. 34:25 Three days later, while all of them were still in pain, two of Jacob’s sons, Simeon and Levi, Dinah’s brothers, took their swords and attacked the unsuspecting city, killing every male.

Ge. 34:26 They put Hamor and his son Shechem to the sword and took Dinah from Shechem’s house and left.

Ge. 34:27 The sons of Jacob came upon the dead bodies and looted the city where [Or because] their sister had been defiled.

Ge. 34:28 They seized their flocks and herds and donkeys and everything else of theirs in the city and out in the fields.

Ge. 34:29 They carried off all their wealth and all their women and children, taking as plunder everything in the houses.

Ge. 34:30 Then Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, “You have brought trouble on me by making me a stench to the Canaanites and Perizzites, the people living in this land. We are few in number, and if they join forces against me and attack me, I and my household will be destroyed.”

Ge. 34:31 But they replied, “Should he have treated our sister like a prostitute?”

CHAPTER 35

Ge. 35:1 Then God said to Jacob, “Go up to Bethel and settle there, and build an altar there to God, who appeared to you when you were fleeing from your brother Esau.”

Ge. 35:2 So Jacob said to his household and to all who were with him, “Get rid of the foreign gods you have with you, and purify yourselves and change your clothes.

Ge. 35:3 Then come, let us go up to Bethel, where I will build an altar to God, who answered me in the day of my distress and who has been with me wherever I have gone.”

Ge. 35:4 So they gave Jacob all the foreign gods they had and the rings in their ears, and Jacob buried them under the oak at Shechem.
Then they set out, and the terror of God fell upon the towns all around them so that no-one pursued them.

Jacob and all the people with him came to Luz (that is, Bethel) in the land of Canaan.

There he built an altar, and he called the place El Bethel, [El Bethel means God of Bethel.] because it was there that God revealed himself to him when he was fleeing from his brother.

Now Deborah, Rebekah’s nurse, died and was buried under the oak below Bethel. So it was named Allon Bacuth. [Allon Bacuth means oak of weeping.]

After Jacob returned from Paddan Aram, [That is, Northwest Mesopotamia; also in verse 26] God appeared to him again and blessed him.

God said to him, “Your name is Jacob, [Jacob means he grasps the heel (figuratively, he deceives).] but you will no longer be called Jacob; your name will be Israel.” [Israel means he struggles with God.] So he named him Israel.

And God said to him, “I am God Almighty; [Hebrew El-Shaddai] be fruitful and increase in number. A nation and a community of nations will come from you, and kings will come from your body.

The land I gave to Abraham and Isaac I also give to you, and I will give this land to your descendants after you.”

Then God went up from him at the place where he had talked with him.

Jacob set up a stone pillar at the place where God had talked with him, and he poured out a drink offering on it; he also poured oil on it.

Jacob called the place where God had talked with him Bethel. [Bethel means house of God.]

Then they moved on from Bethel. While they were still some distance from Ephrath, Rachel began to give birth and had great difficulty.
Ge. 35:17 And as she was having great difficulty in childbirth, the midwife said to her, “Don’t be afraid, for you have another son.”

Ge. 35:18 As she breathed her last — for she was dying — she named her son Ben-Oni. [Ben-Oni means son of my trouble.] But his father named him Benjamin. [Benjamin means son of my right hand.]

Ge. 35:19 So Rachel died and was buried on the way to Ephrat (that is, Bethlehem).

Ge. 35:20 Over her tomb Jacob set up a pillar, and to this day that pillar marks Rachel’s tomb.

Ge. 35:21 Israel moved on again and pitched his tent beyond Migdal Eder.

Ge. 35:22 While Israel was living in that region, Reuben went in and slept with his father’s concubine Bilhah, and Israel heard of it. Jacob had twelve sons:

Ge. 35:23 The sons of Leah: Reuben the firstborn of Jacob, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar and Zebulun.

Ge. 35:24 The sons of Rachel: Joseph and Benjamin.

Ge. 35:25 The sons of Rachel’s maidservant Bilhah: Dan and Naphtali.

Ge. 35:26 The sons of Leah’s maidservant Zilpah: Gad and Asher. These were the sons of Jacob, who were born to him in Paddan Aram.

Ge. 35:27 Jacob came home to his father Isaac in Mamre, near Kiriath Arba (that is, Hebron), where Abraham and Isaac had stayed.

Ge. 35:28 Isaac lived a hundred and eighty years.

Ge. 35:29 Then he breathed his last and died and was gathered to his people, old and full of years. And his sons Esau and Jacob buried him.
CHAPTER 36

Ge. 36:1 This is the account of Esau (that is, Edom).

Ge. 36:2 Esau took his wives from the women of Canaan: Adah daughter of Elon the Hittite, and Oholibamah daughter of Anah and granddaughter of Zibeon the Hivite —

Ge. 36:3 also Basemath daughter of Ishmael and sister of Nebaioth.

Ge. 36:4 Adah bore Eliphaz to Esau, Basemath bore Reuel,

Ge. 36:5 and Oholibamah bore Jeush, Jalam and Korah. These were the sons of Esau, who were born to him in Canaan.

Ge. 36:6 Esau took his wives and sons and daughters and all the members of his household, as well as his livestock and all his other animals and all the goods he had acquired in Canaan, and moved to a land some distance from his brother Jacob.

Ge. 36:7 Their possessions were too great for them to remain together; the land where they were staying could not support them both because of their livestock.

Ge. 36:8 So Esau (that is, Edom) settled in the hill country of Seir.

Ge. 36:9 This is the account of Esau the father of the Edomites in the hill country of Seir.

Ge. 36:10 These are the names of Esau’s sons: Eliphaz, the son of Esau’s wife Adah, and Reuel, the son of Esau’s wife Basemath.

Ge. 36:11 The sons of Eliphaz: Teman, Omar, Zepho, Gatam and Kenaz.

Ge. 36:12 Esau’s son Eliphaz also had a concubine named Timna, who bore him Amalek. These were grandsons of Esau’s wife Adah.

Ge. 36:13 The sons of Reuel: Nahath, Zerah, Shammah and Mizzah. These were grandsons of Esau’s wife Basemath.
The sons of Esau’s wife Oholibamah daughter of Anah and granddaughter of Zibeon, whom she bore to Esau: Jeush, Jalam and Korah.

These were the chiefs among Esau’s descendants: The sons of Eliphaz the firstborn of Esau: Chiefs Teman, Omar, Zepho, Kenaz, Gatam and Amalek. These were the chiefs descended from Eliphaz in Edom; they were grandsons of Adah.

Korah, [Masoretic Text; Samaritan Pentateuch (see also Genesis 36:11 and 1 Chronicles 1:36) does not have Korah.] The sons of Esau’s son Reuel: Chiefs Nahath, Zerah, Shammah and Mizzah. These were the chiefs descended from Reuel in Edom; they were grandsons of Esau’s wife Basemath.

These were the sons of Esau (that is, Edom), and these were their chiefs.

The sons of Seir the Horite, who were living in the region: Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, Dishon, Ezer and Dishan. These sons of Seir in Edom were Horite chiefs.

The sons of Lotan: Hori and Homam. [Hebrew Hemam, a variant of Homam (see 1 Chronicles 1:39)] Timna was Lotan’s sister.

The sons of Shobal: Alvan, Manahath, Ebal, Shepho and Onam.

The sons of Zibeon: Aiah and Anah. This is the Anah who discovered the hot springs [Vulgate; Syriac discovered water; the meaning of the Hebrew for this word is uncertain.] in the desert while he was grazing the donkeys of his father Zibeon.

Ge. 36:25 The children of Anah: Dishon and Oholibamah daughter of Anah.

Ge. 36:27 The sons of Ezer: Bilhan, Zaavan and Akan.

Ge. 36:28 The sons of Dishan: Uz and Aran.

Ge. 36:29 These were the Horite chiefs: Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, Dishon, Ezer and Dishan. These were the Horite chiefs, according to their divisions, in the land of Seir.

Ge. 36:31 These were the kings who reigned in Edom before any Israelite king reigned: [Or before an Israelite king reigned over them]

Ge. 36:32 Bela son of Beor became king of Edom. His city was named Dinhabah.

Ge. 36:33 When Bela died, Jobab son of Zerah from Bozrah succeeded him as king.

Ge. 36:34 When Jobab died, Husham from the land of the Temanites succeeded him as king.

Ge. 36:35 When Husham died, Hadad son of Bedad, who defeated Midian in the country of Moab, succeeded him as king. His city was named Avith.

Ge. 36:36 When Hadad died, Samlah from Masrekah succeeded him as king.

Ge. 36:37 When Samlah died, Shaul from Rehoboth on the river [Possibly the Euphrates] succeeded him as king.

Ge. 36:38 When Shaul died, Baal-Hanan son of Acbor succeeded him as king.

Ge. 36:39 When Baal-Hanan son of Acbor died, Hadad [Many manuscripts of the Masoretic Text, Samaritan Pentateuch and Syriac (see also 1 Chron. 1:50); most manuscripts of the Masoretic Text Hadar] succeeded him as king. His city was named Pau, and his wife’s name was Mehetabel daughter of Matred, the daughter of Me-Zahab.

Ge. 36:40 These were the chiefs descended from Esau, by name, according to their clans and regions: Timna, Alvah, Jetheth,

Ge. 36:41 Oholibamah, Elah, Pinon,

Ge. 36:42 Kenaz, Teman, Mibzar,

Ge. 36:43 Magdiel and Iram. These were the chiefs of Edom, according to their settlements in the land they occupied. This was Esau the father of the Edomites.

CHAPTER 37

Ge. 37:1 Jacob lived in the land where his father had stayed, the land of Canaan.

Ge. 37:2 This is the account of Jacob. Joseph, a young man of seventeen, was tending the flocks with his brothers, the sons of Bilhah and the sons of Zilpah, his father’s wives, and he brought their father a bad report about them.

Ge. 37:3 Now Israel loved Joseph more than any of his other sons, because he had been born to him in his old age; and he made a richly ornamented [The meaning of the Hebrew for richly ornamented is uncertain; also in verses 23 and 32.] robe for him.

Ge. 37:4 When his brothers saw that their father loved him more than any of them, they hated him and could not speak a kind word to him.

Ge. 37:5 Joseph had a dream, and when he told it to his brothers, they hated him all the more.

Ge. 37:6 He said to them, “Listen to this dream I had:

Ge. 37:7 We were binding sheaves of corn out in the field when suddenly my sheaf rose and stood upright, while your sheaves gathered round mine and bowed down to it.”
His brothers said to him, “Do you intend to reign over us? Will you actually rule us?” And they hated him all the more because of his dream and what he had said.

Then he had another dream, and he told it to his brothers. “Listen,” he said, “I had another dream, and this time the sun and moon and eleven stars were bowing down to me.”

His brothers were jealous of him, but his father kept the matter in mind.

Now his brothers had gone to graze their father’s flocks near Shechem, and Israel said to Joseph, “As you know, your brothers are grazing the flocks near Shechem. Come, I am going to send you to them.” “Very well,” he replied.

So he said to him, “Go and see if all is well with your brothers and with the flocks, and bring word back to me.” Then he sent him off from the Valley of Hebron. When Joseph arrived at Shechem, a man found him wandering around in the fields and asked him, “What are you looking for?”

He replied, “I’m looking for my brothers. Can you tell me where they are grazing their flocks?”

“They have moved on from here,” the man answered. “I heard them say, ‘Let’s go to Dothan.’” So Joseph went after his brothers and found them near Dothan.

But they saw him in the distance, and before he reached them, they plotted to kill him.

“Here comes that dreamer!” they said to each other.
“Come now, let’s kill him and throw him into one of these cisterns and say that a ferocious animal devoured him. Then we’ll see what comes of his dreams.”

When Reuben heard this, he tried to rescue him from their hands. “Let’s not take his life,” he said.

“Don’t shed any blood. Throw him into this cistern here in the desert, but don’t lay a hand on him.” Reuben said this to rescue him from them and take him back to his father.

So when Joseph came to his brothers, they stripped him of his robe — the richly ornamented robe he was wearing — and they took him and threw him into the cistern. Now the cistern was empty; there was no water in it.

As they sat down to eat their meal, they looked up and saw a caravan of Ishmaelites coming from Gilead. Their camels were loaded with spices, balm and myrrh, and they were on their way to take them down to Egypt.

Judah said to his brothers, “What will we gain if we kill our brother and cover up his blood?

Come, let’s sell him to the Ishmaelites and not lay our hands on him; after all, he is our brother, our own flesh and blood.” His brothers agreed.

So when the Midianite merchants came by, his brothers pulled Joseph up out of the cistern and sold him for twenty shekels [That is, about 8 ounces (about 0.2 kilogram)] of silver to the Ishmaelites, who took him to Egypt.

When Reuben returned to the cistern and saw that Joseph was not there, he tore his clothes.

He went back to his brothers and said, “The boy isn’t there! Where can I turn now?”

Then they got Joseph’s robe, slaughtered a goat and dipped the robe in the blood.
They took the ornamented robe back to their father and said, “We found this. Examine it to see whether it is your son’s robe.”

He recognised it and said, “It is my son’s robe! Some ferocious animal has devoured him. Joseph has surely been torn to pieces.”

Then Jacob tore his clothes, put on sackcloth and mourned for his son many days.

All his sons and daughters came to comfort him, but he refused to be comforted. “No,” he said, “in mourning will I go down to the grave [Hebrew Sheol] to my son.” So his father wept for him.

Meanwhile, the Midianites [Samaritan Pentateuch, Septuagint, Vulgate and Syriac (see also verse 28); Masoretic Text Medanites] sold Joseph in Egypt to Potiphar, one of Pharaoh’s officials, the captain of the guard.

CHAPTER 38

At that time, Judah left his brothers and went down to stay with a man of Adullam named Hirah.

There Judah met the daughter of a Canaanite man named Shua. He married her and lay with her; she became pregnant and gave birth to a son, who was named Er.

She conceived again and gave birth to a son and named him Onan.

She gave birth to still another son and named him Shelah. It was at Kezib that she gave birth to him.

Judah got a wife for Er, his firstborn, and her name was Tamar.
But Er, Judah’s firstborn, was wicked in the LORD’s sight; so the LORD put him to death.

Then Judah said to Onan, “Lie with your brother’s wife and fulfil your duty to her as a brother-in-law to produce offspring for your brother.”

But Onan knew that the offspring would not be his; so whenever he lay with his brother’s wife, he spilled his semen on the ground to keep from producing offspring for his brother.

What he did was wicked in the LORD’s sight; so he put him to death also.

Judah then said to his daughter-in-law Tamar, “Live as a widow in your father’s house until my son Shelah grows up.” For he thought, “He may die too, just like his brothers.” So Tamar went to live in her father’s house.

After a long time Judah’s wife, the daughter of Shua, died. When Judah had recovered from his grief, he went up to Timnah, to the men who were shearing his sheep, and his friend Hirah the Adullamite went with him.

When Tamar was told, “Your father-in-law is on his way to Timnah to shear his sheep,” she took off her widow’s clothes, covered herself with a veil to disguise herself, and then sat down at the entrance to Enaim, which is on the road to Timnah. For she saw that, though Shelah had now grown up, she had not been given to him as his wife.

When Judah saw her, he thought she was a prostitute, for she had covered her face.

Not realising that she was his daughter-in-law, he went over to her by the roadside and said, “Come now, let me sleep with you.” “And what will you give me to sleep with you?” she asked.
“I’ll send you a young goat from my flock,” he said. “Will you give me something as a pledge until you send it?” she asked.

He said, “What pledge should I give you?” “Your seal and its cord, and the staff in your hand,” she answered. So he gave them to her and slept with her, and she became pregnant by him.

After she left, she took off her veil and put on her widow’s clothes again.

Meanwhile Judah sent the young goat by his friend the Adullamite in order to get his pledge back from the woman, but he did not find her.

He asked the men who lived there, “Where is the shrine-prostitute who was beside the road at Enaim?” “There hasn’t been any shrine-prostitute here,” they said.

So he went back to Judah and said, “I didn’t find her. Besides, the men who lived there said, ‘There hasn’t been any shrine-prostitute here.’”

Then Judah said, “Let her keep what she has, or we will become a laughing-stock. After all, I did send her this young goat, but you didn’t find her.”

About three months later Judah was told, “Your daughter-in-law Tamar is guilty of prostitution, and as a result she is now pregnant.” Judah said, “Bring her out and have her burned to death!”

As she was being brought out, she sent a message to her father-in-law. “I am pregnant by the man who owns these,” she said. And she added, “See if you recognise whose seal and cord and staff these are.”

Judah recognised them and said, “She is more righteous than I, since I wouldn’t give her to my son Shelah.” And he did not sleep with her again.
When the time came for her to give birth, there were twin boys in her womb.

As she was giving birth, one of them put out his hand; so the midwife took a scarlet thread and tied it on his wrist and said, “This one came out first.”

But when he drew back his hand, his brother came out, and she said, “So this is how you have broken out!” And he was named Perez. [Perez means breaking out.]

Then his brother, who had the scarlet thread on his wrist, came out and he was given the name Zerah. [Zerah can mean scarlet or brightness.]

CHAPTER 39

Now Joseph had been taken down to Egypt. Potiphar, an Egyptian who was one of Pharaoh’s officials, the captain of the guard, bought him from the Ishmaelites who had taken him there.

The LORD was with Joseph and he prospered, and he lived in the house of his Egyptian master.

When his master saw that the LORD was with him and that the LORD gave him success in everything he did,

Joseph found favour in his eyes and became his attendant. Potiphar put him in charge of his household, and he entrusted to his care everything he owned.

From the time he put him in charge of his household and of all that he owned, the LORD blessed the household of the Egyptian because of Joseph. The blessing of the LORD was on everything Potiphar had, both in the house and in the field.

So he left in Joseph’s care everything he had; with Joseph in charge, he did not concern himself with anything except the food he ate. Now Joseph was well-built and handsome, and after a while his master’s wife took notice of Joseph and said, “Come to bed with me!”

But he refused. “With me in charge,” he told her, “my master does not concern himself with anything in the house; everything he owns he has entrusted to my care.

No-one is greater in this house than I am. My master has withheld nothing from me except you, because you are his wife. How then could I do such a wicked thing and sin against God?”

And though she spoke to Joseph day after day, he refused to go to bed with her or even to be with her.

One day he went into the house to attend to his duties, and none of the household servants was inside.

She caught him by his cloak and said, “Come to bed with me!” But he left his cloak in her hand and ran out of the house.

When she saw that he had left his cloak in her hand and had run out of the house, she called her household servants. “Look,” she said to them, “this Hebrew has been brought to us to make sport of us! He came in here to sleep with me, but I screamed.

When he heard me scream for help, he left his cloak beside me and ran out of the house.”

She kept his cloak beside her until his master came home.

Then she told him this story: “That Hebrew slave you brought us came to me to make sport of me.

But as soon as I screamed for help, he left his cloak beside me and ran out of the house.”

When his master heard the story his wife told him, saying, “This is how your slave treated me,” he burned with anger.
Joseph’s master took him and put him in prison, the place where the king’s prisoners were confined. But while Joseph was there in the prison, the LORD was with him; he showed him kindness and granted him favour in the eyes of the prison warder.

So the warder put Joseph in charge of all those held in the prison, and he was made responsible for all that was done there.

The warder paid no attention to anything under Joseph’s care, because the LORD was with Joseph and gave him success in whatever he did.

CHAPTER 40

Some time later, the cupbearer and the baker of the king of Egypt offended their master, the king of Egypt.

Pharaoh was angry with his two officials, the chief cupbearer and the chief baker, and put them in custody in the house of the captain of the guard, in the same prison where Joseph was confined.

The captain of the guard assigned them to Joseph, and he attended them. After they had been in custody for some time, each of the two men — the cupbearer and the baker of the king of Egypt, who were being held in prison — had a dream the same night, and each dream had a meaning of its own.

When Joseph came to them the next morning, he saw that they were dejected.

So he asked Pharaoh’s officials who were in custody with him in his master’s house, “Why are your faces so sad today?”
“We both had dreams,” they answered, “but there is no-one to interpret them.” Then Joseph said to them, “Do not interpretations belong to God? Tell me your dreams.”

So the chief cupbearer told Joseph his dream. He said to him, “In my dream I saw a vine in front of me, and on the vine were three branches. As soon as it budded, it blossomed, and its clusters ripened into grapes.”

Pharaoh’s cup was in my hand, and I took the grapes, squeezed them into Pharaoh’s cup and put the cup in his hand.”

“This is what it means,” Joseph said to him. “The three branches are three days.

Within three days Pharaoh will lift up your head and restore you to your position, and you will put Pharaoh’s cup in his hand, just as you used to do when you were his cupbearer.

But when all goes well with you, remember me and show me kindness; mention me to Pharaoh and get me out of this prison.

For I was forcibly carried off from the land of the Hebrews, and even here I have done nothing to deserve being put in a dungeon.”

When the chief baker saw that Joseph had given a favourable interpretation, he said to Joseph, “I too had a dream: On my head were three baskets of bread. [Or three wicker baskets]

In the top basket were all kinds of baked goods for Pharaoh, but the birds were eating them out of the basket on my head.”

“This is what it means,” Joseph said. “The three baskets are three days.

Within three days Pharaoh will lift off your head and hang you on a tree. [Or and impale you on a pole] And the birds will eat away your flesh.”
Now the third day was Pharaoh’s birthday, and he gave a feast for all his officials. He lifted up the heads of the chief cupbearer and the chief baker in the presence of his officials:

He restored the chief cupbearer to his position, so that he once again put the cup into Pharaoh’s hand, but he hanged [Or impaled] the chief baker, just as Joseph had said to them in his interpretation.

The chief cupbearer, however, did not remember Joseph; he forgot him.

CHAPTER 41

When two full years had passed, Pharaoh had a dream: He was standing by the Nile, when out of the river there came up seven cows, sleek and fat, and they grazed among the reeds.

After them, seven other cows, ugly and gaunt, came up out of the Nile and stood beside those on the riverbank.

And the cows that were ugly and gaunt ate up the seven sleek, fat cows. Then Pharaoh woke up.

He fell asleep again and had a second dream: Seven ears of corn, healthy and good, were growing on a single stalk.

After them, seven other ears of corn sprouted — thin and scorched by the east wind.

The thin ears of corn swallowed up the seven healthy, full ears. Then Pharaoh woke up; it had been a dream.

In the morning his mind was troubled, so he sent for all the magicians and wise men of Egypt. Pharaoh told them his dreams, but no-one could interpret them for him.

Then the chief cupbearer said to Pharaoh, “Today I am reminded of my shortcomings.
Pharaoh was once angry with his servants, and he imprisoned me and the chief baker in the house of the captain of the guard.

Each of us had a dream the same night, and each dream had a meaning of its own.

Now a young Hebrew was there with us, a servant of the captain of the guard. We told him our dreams, and he interpreted them for us, giving each man the interpretation of his dream.

And things turned out exactly as he interpreted them to us: I was restored to my position, and the other man was hanged.” [Or impaled]

So Pharaoh sent for Joseph, and he was quickly brought from the dungeon. When he had shaved and changed his clothes, he came before Pharaoh.

“Pharaoh said to Joseph, “I had a dream, and no-one can interpret it. But I have heard it said of you that when you hear a dream you can interpret it.”

Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, “In my dream I was standing on the bank of the Nile, when out of the river there came up seven cows, fat and sleek, and they grazed among the reeds.

After them, seven other cows came up — scrawny and very ugly and lean. I had never seen such ugly cows in all the land of Egypt.

The lean, ugly cows ate up the seven fat cows that came up first.

But even after they ate them, no-one could tell that they had done so; they looked just as ugly as before. Then I woke up.
Ge. 41:22 “In my dreams I also saw seven ears of corn, full and good, growing on a single stalk.

Ge. 41:23 After them, seven other ears sprouted — withered and thin and scorched by the east wind.

Ge. 41:24 The thin ears of corn swallowed up the seven good ears. I told this to the magicians, but none could explain it to me.”

Ge. 41:25 Then Joseph said to Pharaoh, “The dreams of Pharaoh are one and the same. God has revealed to Pharaoh what he is about to do.

Ge. 41:26 The seven good cows are seven years, and the seven good ears of corn are seven years; it is one and the same dream.

Ge. 41:27 The seven lean, ugly cows that came up afterwards are seven years, and so are the seven worthless ears of corn scorched by the east wind: They are seven years of famine.

Ge. 41:28 “It is just as I said to Pharaoh: God has shown Pharaoh what he is about to do.

Ge. 41:29 Seven years of great abundance are coming throughout the land of Egypt,

Ge. 41:30 but seven years of famine will follow them. Then all the abundance in Egypt will be forgotten, and the famine will ravage the land.

Ge. 41:31 The abundance in the land will not be remembered, because the famine that follows it will be so severe.

Ge. 41:32 The reason the dream was given to Pharaoh in two forms is that the matter has been firmly decided by God, and God will do it soon.

Ge. 41:33 “And now let Pharaoh look for a discerning and wise man and put him in charge of the land of Egypt.

Ge. 41:34 Let Pharaoh appoint commissioners over the land to take a fifth of the harvest of Egypt during the seven years of abundance.
They should collect all the food of these good years that are coming and store up the grain under the authority of Pharaoh, to be kept in the cities for food.

This food should be held in reserve for the country, to be used during the seven years of famine that will come upon Egypt, so that the country may not be ruined by the famine.”

The plan seemed good to Pharaoh and to all his officials.

So Pharaoh asked them, “Can we find anyone like this man, one in whom is the spirit of God?” [Or of the gods]

Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, “Since God has made all this known to you, there is no-one so discerning and wise as you.

You shall be in charge of my palace, and all my people are to submit to your orders. Only with respect to the throne will I be greater than you.”

So Pharaoh said to Joseph, “I hereby put you in charge of the whole land of Egypt.”

Then Pharaoh took his signet ring from his finger and put it on Joseph’s finger. He dressed him in robes of fine linen and put a gold chain around his neck.

He had him ride in a chariot as his second-in-command, [Or in the chariot of his second-in-command; or in his second chariot] and men shouted before him, “Make way!” [Or Bow down] Thus he put him in charge of the whole land of Egypt.

Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, “I am Pharaoh, but without your word no-one will lift hand or foot in all Egypt.”

Pharaoh gave Joseph the name Zaphenath-Paneah and gave him Asenath daughter of Potiphera, priest of On, [That is, Heliopolis; also in verse 50] to be his wife. And Joseph went throughout the land of Egypt.

Joseph was thirty years old when he entered the service of Pharaoh king of Egypt. And Joseph went out from Pharaoh’s presence and travelled throughout Egypt.
During the seven years of abundance the land produced plentifully.

Joseph collected all the food produced in those seven years of abundance in Egypt and stored it in the cities. In each city he put the food grown in the fields surrounding it.

Joseph stored up huge quantities of grain, like the sand of the sea; it was so much that he stopped keeping records because it was beyond measure.

Before the years of famine came, two sons were born to Joseph by Asenath daughter of Potiphera, priest of On.

Joseph named his firstborn Manasseh [Manasseh sounds like and may be derived from the Hebrew for forget.] and said, “It is because God has made me forget all my trouble and all my father’s household.”

The second son he named Ephraim [Ephraim sounds like the Hebrew for twice fruitful.] and said, “It is because God has made me fruitful in the land of my suffering.”

The seven years of abundance in Egypt came to an end, and the seven years of famine began, just as Joseph had said. There was famine in all the other lands, but in the whole land of Egypt there was food.

When all Egypt began to feel the famine, the people cried to Pharaoh for food. Then Pharaoh told all the Egyptians, “Go to Joseph and do what he tells you.”

When the famine had spread over the whole country, Joseph opened the storehouses and sold grain to the Egyptians, for the famine was severe throughout Egypt.

And all the countries came to Egypt to buy grain from Joseph, because the famine was severe in all the world.
When Jacob learned that there was grain in Egypt, he said to his sons, “Why do you just keep looking at each other?”

He continued, “I have heard that there is grain in Egypt. Go down there and buy some for us, so that we may live and not die.”

Then ten of Joseph’s brothers went down to buy grain from Egypt.

But Jacob did not send Benjamin, Joseph’s brother, with the others, because he was afraid that harm might come to him.

So Israel’s sons were among those who went to buy grain, for the famine was in the land of Canaan also.

Now Joseph was the governor of the land, the one who sold grain to all its people. So when Joseph’s brothers arrived, they bowed down to him with their faces to the ground.

As soon as Joseph saw his brothers, he recognised them, but he pretended to be a stranger and spoke harshly to them. “Where do you come from?” he asked. “From the land of Canaan,” they replied, “to buy food.”

Although Joseph recognised his brothers, they did not recognise him.

“No, my lord,” they answered. “Your servants have come to buy food.

We are all the sons of one man. Your servants are honest men, not spies.”

“No!” he said to them. “You have come to see where our land is unprotected.”
But they replied, “Your servants were twelve brothers, the sons of one man, who lives in the land of Canaan. The youngest is now with our father, and one is no more.”

Joseph said to them, “It is just as I told you: You are spies!

And this is how you will be tested: As surely as Pharaoh lives, you will not leave this place unless your youngest brother comes here.

Send one of your number to get your brother; the rest of you will be kept in prison, so that your words may be tested to see if you are telling the truth. If you are not, then as surely as Pharaoh lives, you are spies!”

And he put them all in custody for three days.

On the third day, Joseph said to them, “Do this and you will live, for I fear God:

If you are honest men, let one of your brothers stay here in prison, while the rest of you go and take grain back for your starving households.

But you must bring your youngest brother to me, so that your words may be verified and that you may not die.” This they proceeded to do.

They said to one another, “Surely we are being punished because of our brother. We saw how distressed he was when he pleaded with us for his life, but we would not listen; that’s why this distress has come upon us.”

Reuben replied, “Didn’t I tell you not to sin against the boy? But you wouldn’t listen! Now we must give an accounting for his blood.”

They did not realise that Joseph could understand them, since he was using an interpreter.

He turned away from them and began to weep, but then turned back and spoke to them again. He had Simeon taken from them and bound before their eyes.
Joseph gave orders to fill their bags with grain, to put each man’s silver back in his sack, and to give them provisions for their journey. After this was done for them, they loaded their grain on their donkeys and left. At the place where they stopped for the night one of them opened his sack to get feed for his donkey, and he saw his silver in the mouth of his sack. “My silver has been returned,” he said to his brothers. “Here it is in my sack.” Their hearts sank and they turned to each other trembling and said, “What is this that God has done to us?” When they came to their father Jacob in the land of Canaan, they told him all that had happened to them. They said, “The man who is lord over the land spoke harshly to us and treated us as though we were spying on the land.” But we said to him, ‘We are honest men; we are not spies.’ We were twelve brothers, sons of one father. One is no more, and the youngest is now with our father in Canaan.’ “Then the man who is lord over the land said to us, ‘This is how I will know whether you are honest men: Leave one of your brothers here with me, and take food for your starving households and go. But bring your youngest brother to me so I will know that you are not spies but honest men. Then I will give your brother back to you, and you can trade [Or move about freely] in the land.’” As they were emptying their sacks, there in each man’s sack was his pouch of silver! When they and their father saw the money pouches, they were frightened. Their father Jacob said to them, “You have deprived me of my children. Joseph is no more and Simeon is no more, and now you want to take Benjamin. Everything is against me!”
Then Reuben said to his father, “You may put both of my sons to death if I do not bring him back to you. Entrust him to my care, and I will bring him back.”

But Jacob said, “My son will not go down there with you; his brother is dead and he is the only one left. If harm comes to him on the journey you are taking, you will bring my grey head down to the grave [Hebrew Sheol] in sorrow.”

CHAPTER 43

Now the famine was still severe in the land.

So when they had eaten all the grain they had brought from Egypt, their father said to them, “Go back and buy us a little more food.”

But Judah said to him, “The man warned us solemnly, ‘You will not see my face again unless your brother is with you.’

If you will send our brother along with us, we will go down and buy food for you.

But if you will not send him, we will not go down, because the man said to us, ‘You will not see my face again unless your brother is with you.’”

Israel asked, “Why did you bring this trouble on me by telling the man you had another brother?”

They replied, “The man questioned us closely about ourselves and our family. ‘Is your father still living?’ he asked us. ‘Do you have another brother?’ We simply answered his questions. How were we to know he would say, ‘Bring your brother down here’?”

Then Judah said to Israel his father, “Send the boy along with me and we will go at once, so that we and you and our children may live and not die.

I myself will guarantee his safety; you can hold me personally responsible for him. If I do not bring him back to you and set him here before you, I will bear the blame before you all my life.

Ge. 43:10 As it is, if we had not delayed, we could have gone and returned twice.”

Ge. 43:11 Then their father Israel said to them, “If it must be, then do this: Put some of the best products of the land in your bags and take them down to the man as a gift — a little balm and a little honey, some spices and myrrh, some pistachio nuts and almonds.

Ge. 43:12 Take double the amount of silver with you, for you must return the silver that was put back into the mouths of your sacks. Perhaps it was a mistake.

Ge. 43:13 Take your brother also and go back to the man at once.

Ge. 43:14 And may God Almighty [Hebrew El-Shaddai] grant you mercy before the man so that he will let your other brother and Benjamin come back with you. As for me, if I am bereaved, I am bereaved.”

Ge. 43:15 So the men took the gifts and double the amount of silver, and Benjamin also. They hurried down to Egypt and presented themselves to Joseph.

Ge. 43:16 When Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the steward of his house, “Take these men to my house, slaughter an animal and prepare dinner; they are to eat with me at noon.”

Ge. 43:17 The man did as Joseph told him and took the men to Joseph’s house.

Ge. 43:18 Now the men were frightened when they were taken to his house. They thought, “We were brought here because of the silver that was put back into our sacks the first time. He wants to attack us and overpower us and seize us as slaves and take our donkeys.”

Ge. 43:19 So they went up to Joseph’s steward and spoke to him at the entrance to the house.
“Please, sir,” they said, “we came down here the first time to buy food.

But at the place where we stopped for the night we opened our sacks and each of us found his silver — the exact weight — in the mouth of his sack. So we have brought it back with us.

We have also brought additional silver with us to buy food. We don’t know who put our silver in our sacks.”

“It’s all right,” he said. “Don’t be afraid. Your God, the God of your father, has given you treasure in your sacks; I received your silver.” Then he brought Simeon out to them.

The steward took the men into Joseph’s house, gave them water to wash their feet and provided fodder for their donkeys.

They prepared their gifts for Joseph’s arrival at noon, because they had heard that they were to eat there.

When Joseph came home, they presented to him the gifts they had brought into the house, and they bowed down before him to the ground.

He asked them how they were, and then he said, “How is your aged father you told me about? Is he still living?”

They replied, “Your servant our father is still alive and well.” And they bowed low to pay him honour.

As he looked about and saw his brother Benjamin, his own mother’s son, he asked, “Is this your youngest brother, the one you told me about?” And he said, “God be gracious to you, my son.”

Deeply moved at the sight of his brother, Joseph hurried out and looked for a place to weep. He went into his private room and wept there.

After he had washed his face, he came out and, controlling himself, said, “Serve the food.”
Ge. 43:32 They served him by himself, the brothers by themselves, and the Egyptians who ate with him by themselves, because Egyptians could not eat with Hebrews, for that is detestable to Egyptians.

Ge. 43:33 The men had been seated before him in the order of their ages, from the firstborn to the youngest; and they looked at each other in astonishment.

Ge. 43:34 When portions were served to them from Joseph’s table, Benjamin’s portion was five times as much as anyone else’s. So they feasted and drank freely with him.

CHAPTER 44

Ge. 44:1 Now Joseph gave these instructions to the steward of his house: “Fill the men’s sacks with as much food as they can carry, and put each man’s silver in the mouth of his sack.

Ge. 44:2 Then put my cup, the silver one, in the mouth of the youngest one’s sack, along with the silver for his grain.” And he did as Joseph said.

Ge. 44:3 As morning dawned, the men were sent on their way with their donkeys.

Ge. 44:4 They had not gone far from the city when Joseph said to his steward, “Go after those men at once, and when you catch up with them, say to them, ‘Why have you repaid good with evil?’

Ge. 44:5 Isn’t this the cup my master drinks from and also uses for divination? This is a wicked thing you have done.’”

Ge. 44:6 When he caught up with them, he repeated these words to them.

Ge. 44:7 But they said to him, “Why does my lord say such things? Far be it from your servants to do anything like that!
We even brought back to you from the land of Canaan the silver we found inside the mouths of our sacks. So why would we steal silver or gold from your master’s house?

If any of your servants is found to have it, he will die; and the rest of us will become my lord’s slaves."

“Very well, then,” he said, “let it be as you say. Whoever is found to have it will become my slave; the rest of you will be free from blame.”

Each of them quickly lowered his sack to the ground and opened it.

Then the steward proceeded to search, beginning with the oldest and ending with the youngest. And the cup was found in Benjamin’s sack.

At this, they tore their clothes. Then they all loaded their donkeys and returned to the city.

Joseph was still in the house when Judah and his brothers came in, and they threw themselves to the ground before him.

Joseph said to them, “What is this you have done? Don’t you know that a man like me can find things out by divination?”

“What can we say to my lord?” Judah replied. “What can we say? How can we prove our innocence? God has uncovered your servants’ guilt. We are now my lord’s slaves — we ourselves and the one who was found to have the cup.”

But Joseph said, “Far be it from me to do such a thing! Only the man who was found to have the cup will become my slave. The rest of you, go back to your father in peace.”

Then Judah went up to him and said: “Please, my lord, let your servant speak a word to my lord. Do not be angry with your servant, though you are equal to Pharaoh himself.

My lord asked his servants, ‘Do you have a father or a brother?’
Ge. 44:20 And we answered, ‘We have an aged father, and there is a young son born to him in his old age. His brother is dead, and he is the only one of his mother’s sons left, and his father loves him.’

Ge. 44:21 ‘Then you said to your servants, ‘Bring him down to me so I can see him for myself.’

Ge. 44:22 And we said to my lord, ‘The boy cannot leave his father; if he leaves him, his father will die.’

Ge. 44:23 But you told your servants, ‘Unless your youngest brother comes down with you, you will not see my face again.’

Ge. 44:24 When we went back to your servant my father, we told him what my lord had said.

Ge. 44:25 ‘Then our father said, ‘Go back and buy a little more food.’

Ge. 44:26 But we said, ‘We cannot go down. Only if our youngest brother is with us will we go. We cannot see the man’s face unless our youngest brother is with us.’

Ge. 44:27 ‘Your servant my father said to us, ‘You know that my wife bore me two sons.

Ge. 44:28 One of them went away from me, and I said, “He has surely been torn to pieces.” And I have not seen him since.

Ge. 44:29 If you take this one from me too and harm comes to him, you will bring my grey head down to the grave [Hebrew Sheol; also in verse 31] in misery.’

Ge. 44:30 “So now, if the boy is not with us when I go back to your servant my father and if my father, whose life is closely bound up with the boy’s life,

Ge. 44:31 sees that the boy isn’t there, he will die. Your servants will bring the grey head of our father down to the grave in sorrow.

Ge. 44:32 Your servant guaranteed the boy’s safety to my father. I said, ‘If I do not bring him back to you, I will bear the blame before you, my father, all my life!’
Ge. 44:33 “Now then, please let your servant remain here as my lord’s slave in place of the boy, and let the boy return with his brothers.

Ge. 44:34 How can I go back to my father if the boy is not with me? No! Do not let me see the misery that would come upon my father.”

CHAPTER 45

Ge. 45:1 Then Joseph could no longer control himself before all his attendants, and he cried out, “Make everyone leave my presence!” So there was no-one with Joseph when he made himself known to his brothers.

Ge. 45:2 And he wept so loudly that the Egyptians heard him, and Pharaoh’s household heard about it.

Ge. 45:3 Joseph said to his brothers, “I am Joseph! Is my father still living?” But his brothers were not able to answer him, because they were terrified at his presence.

Ge. 45:4 Then Joseph said to his brothers, “Come close to me.” When they had done so, he said, “I am your brother Joseph, the one you sold into Egypt!

Ge. 45:5 And now, do not be distressed and do not be angry with yourselves for selling me here, because it was to save lives that God sent me ahead of you.

Ge. 45:6 For two years now there has been famine in the land, and for the next five years there will not be ploughing and reaping.

Ge. 45:7 But God sent me ahead of you to preserve for you a remnant on earth and to save your lives by a great deliverance. [Or save you as a great band of survivors]

Ge. 45:8 “So then, it was not you who sent me here, but God. He made me father to Pharaoh, lord of his entire household and ruler of all Egypt.
Now hurry back to my father and say to him, ‘This is what your son Joseph says: God has made me lord of all Egypt. Come down to me; don’t delay.’

You shall live in the region of Goshen and be near me — you, your children and grandchildren, your flocks and herds, and all you have.

I will provide for you there, because five years of famine are still to come. Otherwise you and your household and all who belong to you will become destitute.’

“You can see for yourselves, and so can my brother Benjamin, that it is really I who am speaking to you.

Tell my father about all the honour accorded me in Egypt and about everything you have seen. And bring my father down here quickly.”

Then he threw his arms around his brother Benjamin and wept, and Benjamin embraced him, weeping.

And he kissed all his brothers and wept over them. Afterwards his brothers talked with him.

When the news reached Pharaoh’s palace that Joseph’s brothers had come, Pharaoh and all his officials were pleased.

Pharaoh said to Joseph, “Tell your brothers, ‘Do this: Load your animals and return to the land of Canaan, and bring your father and your families back to me. I will give you the best of the land of Egypt and you can enjoy the fat of the land.’

“You are also directed to tell them, ‘Do this: Take some carts from Egypt for your children and your wives, and get your father and come.

Never mind about your belongings, because the best of all Egypt will be yours.’”
So the sons of Israel did this. Joseph gave them carts, as Pharaoh had commanded, and he also gave them provisions for their journey.

To each of them he gave new clothing, but to Benjamin he gave three hundred shekels [That is, about 7 1/2 pounds (about 3.5 kilograms)] of silver and five sets of clothes.

And this is what he sent to his father: ten donkeys loaded with the best things of Egypt, and ten female donkeys loaded with grain and bread and other provisions for his journey.

Then he sent his brothers away, and as they were leaving he said to them, “Don’t quarrel on the way!”

So they went up out of Egypt and came to their father Jacob in the land of Canaan.

They told him, “Joseph is still alive! In fact, he is ruler of all Egypt.” Jacob was stunned; he did not believe them.

But when they told him everything Joseph had said to them, and when he saw the carts Joseph had sent to carry him back, the spirit of their father Jacob revived.

And Israel said, “I’m convinced! My son Joseph is still alive. I will go and see him before I die.”

CHAPTER 46

So Israel set out with all that was his, and when he reached Beersheba, he offered sacrifices to the God of his father Isaac.

And God spoke to Israel in a vision at night and said, “Jacob! Jacob!” “Here I am,” he replied.

“I am God, the God of your father,” he said. “Do not be afraid to go down to Egypt, for I will make you into a great nation there.
I will go down to Egypt with you, and I will surely bring you back again. And Joseph’s own hand will close your eyes.”

Then Jacob left Beersheba, and Israel’s sons took their father Jacob and their children and their wives in the carts that Pharaoh had sent to transport him.

They also took with them their livestock and the possessions they had acquired in Canaan, and Jacob and all his offspring went to Egypt.

He took with him to Egypt his sons and grandsons and his daughters and granddaughters — all his offspring.

These are the names of the sons of Israel (Jacob and his descendants) who went to Egypt: Reuben the firstborn of Jacob.

The sons of Reuben: Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron and Carmi.

The sons of Simeon: Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jakin, Zohar and Shaul the son of a Canaanite woman.

The sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath and Merari.

The sons of Judah: Er, Onan, Shelah, Perez and Zerah (but Er and Onan had died in the land of Canaan). The sons of Perez: Hezron and Hamul.

The sons of Issachar: Tola, Puah, [Samaritan Pentateuch and Syriac (see also 1 Chron. 7); Masoretic Text Puvah] Jashub [Samaritan Pentateuch and some Septuagint manuscripts (see also 26:24 and 1 Chron. 7:1); Masoretic Text Job] and Shimron.

The sons of Zebulun: Sered, Elon and Jahleel.

These were the sons Leah bore to Jacob in Paddan Aram, [That is, North-west Mesopotamia] besides his daughter Dinah. These sons and daughters of his were thirty-three in all.
The sons of Gad: Zephon, [Samaritan Pentateuch and Septuagint (see also Num. 26:15); Masoretic Text Ziphion] Haggi, Shuni, Ezbon, Eri, Arodi and Areli.

The sons of Asher: Imnah, Ishvah, Ishvi and Beriah. Their sister was Serah. The sons of Beriah: Heber and Malkiel.

These were the children born to Jacob by Zilpah, whom Laban had given to his daughter Leah — sixteen in all.

The sons of Jacob’s wife Rachel: Joseph and Benjamin.

In Egypt, Manasseh and Ephraim were born to Joseph by Asenath daughter of Potiphera, priest of On. [That is, Heliopolis]

The sons of Benjamin: Bela, Beker, Ashbel, Gera, Naaman, Ehi, Rosh, Muppim, Huppim and Ard.

These were the sons of Rachel who were born to Jacob — fourteen in all.

The son of Dan: Hushim.

The sons of Naphtali: Jahziel, Guni, Jezer and Shillem.

These were the sons born to Jacob by Bilhah, whom Laban had given to his daughter Rachel — seven in all.

All those who went to Egypt with Jacob — those who were his direct descendants, not counting his sons’ wives — numbered sixty-six persons.

With the two sons [Hebrew; Septuagint the nine children] who had been born to Joseph in Egypt, the members of Jacob’s family, which went to Egypt, were seventy [Hebrew (see also Exodus 1:5 and footnote); Septuagint (see also Acts 7:14) seventy-five] in all.

Now Jacob sent Judah ahead of him to Joseph to get directions to Goshen. When they arrived in the region of Goshen, Joseph had his chariot made ready and went to Goshen to meet his father Israel. As soon as Joseph appeared before him, he threw his arms around his father [Hebrew around him] and wept for a long time.

Ge. 46:30 Israel said to Joseph, “Now I am ready to die, since I have seen for myself that you are still alive.”

Ge. 46:31 Then Joseph said to his brothers and to his father’s household, “I will go up and speak to Pharaoh and will say to him, ‘My brothers and my father’s household, who were living in the land of Canaan, have come to me.

Ge. 46:32 The men are shepherds; they tend livestock, and they have brought along their flocks and herds and everything they own.’

Ge. 46:33 When Pharaoh calls you in and asks, ‘What is your occupation?’

Ge. 46:34 you should answer, ‘Your servants have tended livestock from our boyhood on, just as our fathers did.’ Then you will be allowed to settle in the region of Goshen, for all shepherds are detestable to the Egyptians.”

CHAPTER 47

Ge. 47:1 Joseph went and told Pharaoh, “My father and brothers, with their flocks and herds and everything they own, have come from the land of Canaan and are now in Goshen.”

Ge. 47:2 He chose five of his brothers and presented them before Pharaoh.

Ge. 47:3 Pharaoh asked the brothers, “What is your occupation?” “Your servants are shepherds,” they replied to Pharaoh, “just as our fathers were.”

Ge. 47:4 They also said to him, “We have come to live here awhile, because the famine is severe in Canaan and your servants’ flocks have no pasture. So now, please let your servants settle in Goshen.”
Pharaoh said to Joseph, “Your father and your brothers have come to you, and the land of Egypt is before you; settle your father and your brothers in the best part of the land. Let them live in Goshen. And if you know of any among them with special ability, put them in charge of my own livestock.”

Then Joseph brought his father Jacob in and presented him before Pharaoh. After Jacob blessed [Or greeted] Pharaoh, Pharaoh asked him, “How old are you?”

And Jacob said to Pharaoh, “The years of my pilgrimage are a hundred and thirty. My years have been few and difficult, and they do not equal the years of the pilgrimage of my fathers.”

Then Jacob blessed [Or said farewell to] Pharaoh and went out from his presence.

So Joseph settled his father and his brothers in Egypt and gave them property in the best part of the land, the district of Rameses, as Pharaoh directed.

Joseph also provided his father and his brothers and all his father’s household with food, according to the number of their children.

There was no food, however, in the whole region because the famine was severe; both Egypt and Canaan wasted away because of the famine.

Joseph collected all the money that was to be found in Egypt and Canaan in payment for the grain they were buying, and he brought it to Pharaoh’s palace.

When the money of the people of Egypt and Canaan was gone, all Egypt came to Joseph and said, “Give us food. Why should we die before your eyes? Our money is used up.”

“Then bring your livestock,” said Joseph. “I will sell you food in exchange for your livestock, since your money is gone.”
So they brought their livestock to Joseph, and he gave them food in exchange for their horses, their sheep and goats, their cattle and donkeys. And he brought them through that year with food in exchange for all their livestock.

When that year was over, they came to him the following year and said, “We cannot hide from our lord the fact that since our money is gone and our livestock belongs to you, there is nothing left for our lord except our bodies and our land.

Why should we perish before your eyes — we and our land as well? Buy us and our land in exchange for food, and we with our land will be in bondage to Pharaoh. Give us seed so that we may live and not die, and that the land may not become desolate.”

So Joseph bought all the land in Egypt for Pharaoh. The Egyptians, one and all, sold their fields, because the famine was too severe for them. The land became Pharaoh’s, and Joseph reduced the people to servitude, [Samaritan Pentateuch and Septuagint (see also Vulgate); Masoretic Text and he moved the people into the cities] from one end of Egypt to the other.

However, he did not buy the land of the priests, because they received a regular allotment from Pharaoh and had food enough from the allotment Pharaoh gave them. That is why they did not sell their land.

Joseph said to the people, “Now that I have bought you and your land today for Pharaoh, here is seed for you so you can plant the ground.

But when the crop comes in, give a fifth of it to Pharaoh. The other four-fifths you may keep as seed for the fields and as food for yourselves and your households and your children.”

“You have saved our lives,” they said. “May we find favour in the eyes of our lord; we will be in bondage to Pharaoh.”
So Joseph established it as a law concerning land in Egypt — still in force today — that a fifth of the produce belongs to Pharaoh. It was only the land of the priests that did not become Pharaoh’s.

Now the Israelites settled in Egypt in the region of Goshen. They acquired property there and were fruitful and increased greatly in number.

Jacob lived in Egypt seventeen years, and the years of his life were a hundred and forty-seven.

When the time drew near for Israel to die, he called for his son Joseph and said to him, “If I have found favour in your eyes, put your hand under my thigh and promise that you will show me kindness and faithfulness. Do not bury me in Egypt, but when I rest with my fathers, carry me out of Egypt and bury me where they are buried.” “I will do as you say,” he said.

“Swear to me,” he said. Then Joseph swore to him, and Israel worshipped as he leaned on the top of his staff. [Or Israel bowed down at the head of his bed]

CHAPTER 48

Some time later Joseph was told, “Your father is ill.” So he took his two sons Manasseh and Ephraim along with him.

When Jacob was told, “Your son Joseph has come to you,” Israel rallied his strength and sat up on the bed.

Jacob said to Joseph, “God Almighty [Hebrew El-Shaddai] appeared to me at Luz in the land of Canaan, and there he blessed me and said to me, ‘I am going to make you fruitful and will increase your numbers. I will make you a community of peoples, and I will give this land as an everlasting possession to your descendants after you.’

Now then, your two sons born to you in Egypt before I came to you here will be reckoned as mine; Ephraim and Manasseh will be mine, just as Reuben and Simeon are mine.

Any children born to you after them will be yours; in the territory they inherit they will be reckoned under the names of their brothers.

As I was returning from Paddan, [That is, North-west Mesopotamia] to my sorrow Rachel died in the land of Canaan while we were still on the way, a little distance from Ephrath. So I buried her there beside the road to Ephrath” (that is, Bethlehem).

When Israel saw the sons of Joseph, he asked, “Who are these?”

“They are the sons God has given me here,” Joseph said to his father. Then Israel said, “Bring them to me so that I may bless them.”

Now Israel’s eyes were failing because of old age, and he could hardly see. So Joseph brought his sons close to him, and his father kissed them and embraced them.

Israel said to Joseph, “I never expected to see your face again, and now God has allowed me to see your children too.”

Then Joseph removed them from Israel’s knees and bowed down with his face to the ground.

And Joseph took both of them, Ephraim on his right towards Israel’s left hand and Manasseh on his left towards Israel’s right hand, and brought them close to him.

But Israel reached out his right hand and put it on Ephraim’s head, though he was the younger, and crossing his arms, he put his left hand on Manasseh’s head, even though Manasseh was the firstborn.
Then he blessed Joseph and said, “May the God before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac walked, the God who has been my shepherd all my life to this day, the Angel who has delivered me from all harm — may he bless these boys. May they be called by my name and the names of my fathers Abraham and Isaac, and may they increase greatly upon the earth.”

When Joseph saw his father placing his right hand on Ephraim’s head he was displeased; so he took hold of his father’s hand to move it from Ephraim’s head to Manasseh’s head.

Joseph said to him, “No, my father, this one is the firstborn; put your right hand on his head.”

But his father refused and said, “I know, my son, I know. He too will become a people, and he too will become great. Nevertheless, his younger brother will be greater than he, and his descendants will become a group of nations.”

He blessed them that day and said, “In your [The Hebrew is singular.] name will Israel pronounce this blessing: ‘May God make you like Ephraim and Manasseh.’” So he put Ephraim ahead of Manasseh.

Then Israel said to Joseph, “I am about to die, but God will be with you [The Hebrew is plural.] and take you [The Hebrew is plural.] back to the land of your [The Hebrew is plural.] fathers.

And to you, as one who is over your brothers, I give the ridge of land [Or And to you I give one portion more than to your brothers — the portion] I took from the Amorites with my sword and my bow.”

CHAPTER 49

Then Jacob called for his sons and said: “Gather round so that I can tell you what will happen to you in days to come.
“Assemble and listen, sons of Jacob; listen to your father Israel.

“Reuben, you are my firstborn, my might, the first sign of my strength, excelling in honour, excelling in power.

Turbulent as the waters, you will no longer excel, for you went up onto your father’s bed, onto my couch and defiled it.

“Simeon and Levi are brothers — their swords [The meaning of the Hebrew for this word is uncertain.] are weapons of violence.

Let me not enter their council, let me not join their assembly, for they have killed men in their anger and hamstrung oxen as they pleased.

Cursed be their anger, so fierce, and their fury, so cruel! I will scatter them in Jacob and disperse them in Israel.

“Judah, [Judah sounds like and may be derived from the Hebrew for praise.] your brothers will praise you; your hand will be on the neck of your enemies; your father’s sons will bow down to you.

You are a lion’s cub, O Judah; you return from the prey, my son. Like a lion he crouches and lies down, like a lioness — who dares to rouse him?

The sceptre will not depart from Judah, nor the ruler’s staff from between his feet, until he comes to whom it belongs [Or until Shiloh comes; or until he comes to whom tribute belongs] and the obedience of the nations is his.

He will tether his donkey to a vine, his colt to the choicest branch; he will wash his garments in wine, his robes in the blood of grapes.

His eyes will be darker than wine, his teeth whiter than milk. [Or will be dull from wine, his teeth white from milk]

“Zebulun will live by the seashore and become a haven for ships; his border will extend towards Sidon.
Ge. 49:14 “Issachar is a scrawny [Or strong] donkey lying down between two saddlebags. [Or campfires]

Ge. 49:15 When he sees how good is his resting place and how pleasant is his land, he will bend his shoulder to the burden and submit to forced labour.

Ge. 49:16 “Dan [Dan here means he provides justice.] will provide justice for his people as one of the tribes of Israel.

Ge. 49:17 Dan will be a serpent by the roadside, a viper along the path, that bites the horse’s heels so that its rider tumbles backwards.

Ge. 49:18 “I look for your deliverance, O LORD.

Ge. 49:19 “Gad [Gad can mean attack and band of raiders.] will be attacked by a band of raiders, but he will attack them at their heels.

Ge. 49:20 “Asher’s food will be rich; he will provide delicacies fit for a king.

Ge. 49:21 “Naphtali is a doe set free that bears beautiful fawns. [Or free; he utters beautiful words]

Ge. 49:22 “Joseph is a fruitful vine, a fruitful vine near a spring, whose branches climb over a wall. [Or Joseph is a wild colt, a wild colt near a spring, a wild donkey on a terraced hill]

Ge. 49:23 With bitterness archers attacked him; they shot at him with hostility.

Ge. 49:24 But his bow remained steady, his strong arms stayed [Or archers will attack...will shoot...will remain...will stay] supple, because of the hand of the Mighty One of Jacob, because of the Shepherd, the Rock of Israel,

Ge. 49:25 because of your father’s God, who helps you, because of the Almighty, [Hebrew Shaddai] who blesses you with blessings of the heavens above, blessings of the deep that lies below, blessings of the breast and womb.
Ge. 49:26 Your father’s blessings are greater than the blessings of the ancient mountains, than [Or of my progenitors, as great as] the bounty of the age-old hills. Let all these rest on the head of Joseph, on the brow of the prince among [Or the one separated from] his brothers.

Ge. 49:27 “Benjamin is a ravenous wolf; in the morning he devours the prey, in the evening he divides the plunder.”

Ge. 49:28 All these are the twelve tribes of Israel, and this is what their father said to them when he blessed them, giving each the blessing appropriate to him.

Ge. 49:29 Then he gave them these instructions: “I am about to be gathered to my people. Bury me with my fathers in the cave in the field of Ephron the Hittite, Ge. 49:30 the cave in the field of Machpelah, near Mamre in Canaan, which Abraham bought as a burial place from Ephron the Hittite, along with the field.

Ge. 49:31 There Abraham and his wife Sarah were buried, there Isaac and his wife Rebekah were buried, and there I buried Leah.

Ge. 49:32 The field and the cave in it were bought from the Hittites.” [Or the sons of Heth]

Ge. 49:33 When Jacob had finished giving instructions to his sons, he drew his feet up into the bed, breathed his last and was gathered to his people.

CHAPTER 50

Ge. 50:1 Joseph threw himself upon his father and wept over him and kissed him.

Ge. 50:2 Then Joseph directed the physicians in his service to embalm his father Israel. So the physicians embalmed him, Ge. 50:3 taking a full forty days, for that was the time required for embalming. And the Egyptians mourned for him seventy days.

When the days of mourning had passed, Joseph said to Pharaoh’s court, “If I have found favour in your eyes, speak to Pharaoh for me. Tell him, ‘My father made me swear an oath and said, “I am about to die; bury me in the tomb I dug for myself in the land of Canaan.” Now let me go up and bury my father; then I will return.’”

Pharaoh said, “Go up and bury your father, as he made you swear to do.”

So Joseph went up to bury his father. All Pharaoh’s officials accompanied him — the dignitaries of his court and all the dignitaries of Egypt — besides all the members of Joseph’s household and his brothers and those belonging to his father’s household. Only their children and their flocks and herds were left in Goshen.

Chariots and horsemen [Or charioteers] also went up with him. It was a very large company.

When they reached the threshing-floor of Atad, near the Jordan, they lamented loudly and bitterly; and there Joseph observed a seven-day period of mourning for his father.

When the Canaanites who lived there saw the mourning at the threshing-floor of Atad, they said, “The Egyptians are holding a solemn ceremony of mourning.” That is why that place near the Jordan is called Abel Mizraim. [Abel Mizraim means mourning of the Egyptians.]

So Jacob’s sons did as he had commanded them:

They carried him to the land of Canaan and buried him in the cave in the field of Machpelah, near Mamre, which Abraham had bought as a burial place from Ephron the Hittite, along with the field.

After burying his father, Joseph returned to Egypt, together with his brothers and all the others who had gone with him to bury his father.
When Joseph’s brothers saw that their father was dead, they said, “What if Joseph holds a grudge against us and pays us back for all the wrongs we did to him?”

So they sent word to Joseph, saying, “Your father left these instructions before he died:

‘This is what you are to say to Joseph: I ask you to forgive your brothers the sins and the wrongs they committed in treating you so badly.’ Now please forgive the sins of the servants of the God of your father.” When their message came to him, Joseph wept.

His brothers then came and threw themselves down before him. “We are your slaves,” they said.

But Joseph said to them, “Don’t be afraid. Am I in the place of God?

You intended to harm me, but God intended it for good to accomplish what is now being done, the saving of many lives.

So then, don’t be afraid. I will provide for you and your children.” And he reassured them and spoke kindly to them.

Joseph stayed in Egypt, along with all his father’s family. He lived a hundred and ten years and saw the third generation of Ephraim’s children. Also the children of Makir son of Manasseh were placed at birth on Joseph’s knees. [That is, were counted as his]

Then Joseph said to his brothers, “I am about to die. But God will surely come to your aid and take you up out of this land to the land he promised on oath to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.”

And Joseph made the sons of Israel swear an oath and said, “God will surely come to your aid, and then you must carry my bones up from this place.”

So Joseph died at the age of a hundred and ten. And after they embalmed him, he was placed in a coffin in Egypt.
These are the names of the sons of Israel who went to Egypt with Jacob, each with his family:

Reuben, Simeon, Levi and Judah;

Issachar, Zebulun and Benjamin;

Dan and Naphtali; Gad and Asher.

The descendants of Jacob numbered seventy in all; Joseph was already in Egypt.

Now Joseph and all his brothers and all that generation died, but the Israelites were fruitful and multiplied greatly and became exceedingly numerous, so that the land was filled with them.

Then a new king, who did not know about Joseph, came to power in Egypt.

“Look,” he said to his people, “the Israelites have become much too numerous for us.

Come, we must deal shrewdly with them or they will become even more numerous and, if war breaks out, will join our enemies, fight against us and leave the country.”

So they put slave masters over them to oppress them with forced labour, and they built Pithom and Rameses as store cities for Pharaoh.

But the more they were oppressed, the more they multiplied and spread; so the Egyptians came to dread the Israelites and worked them ruthlessly.
Ex. 1:14 They made their lives bitter with hard labour in brick and mortar and with all kinds of work in the fields; in all their hard labour the Egyptians used them ruthlessly.

Ex. 1:15 The king of Egypt said to the Hebrew midwives, whose names were Shiphrah and Puah,

Ex. 1:16 “When you help the Hebrew women in childbirth and observe them on the delivery stool, if it is a boy, kill him; but if it is a girl, let her live.”

Ex. 1:17 The midwives, however, feared God and did not do what the king of Egypt had told them to do; they let the boys live.

Ex. 1:18 Then the king of Egypt summoned the midwives and asked them, “Why have you done this? Why have you let the boys live?”

Ex. 1:19 The midwives answered Pharaoh, “Hebrew women are not like Egyptian women; they are vigorous and give birth before the midwives arrive.”

Ex. 1:20 So God was kind to the midwives and the people increased and became even more numerous.

Ex. 1:21 And because the midwives feared God, he gave them families of their own.

Ex. 1:22 Then Pharaoh gave this order to all his people: “Every boy that is born you must throw into the Nile, but let every girl live.”

CHAPTER 2

Ex. 2:1 Now a man of the house of Levi married a Levite woman, and she became pregnant and gave birth to a son. When she saw that he was a fine child, she hid him for three months.

Ex. 2:3 But when she could hide him no longer, she got a papyrus basket for him and coated it with tar and pitch. Then she placed the child in it and put it among the reeds along the bank of the Nile.

Ex. 2:4 His sister stood at a distance to see what would happen to him.

Ex. 2:5 Then Pharaoh’s daughter went down to the Nile to bathe, and her attendants were walking along the river bank. She saw the basket among the reeds and sent her slave girl to get it.

Ex. 2:6 She opened it and saw the baby. He was crying, and she felt sorry for him. “This is one of the Hebrew babies,” she said.

Ex. 2:7 Then his sister asked Pharaoh’s daughter, “Shall I go and get one of the Hebrew women to nurse the baby for you?”

Ex. 2:8 “Yes, go,” she answered. And the girl went and got the baby’s mother.

Ex. 2:9 Pharaoh’s daughter said to her, “Take this baby and nurse him for me, and I will pay you.” So the woman took the baby and nursed him.

Ex. 2:10 When the child grew older, she took him to Pharaoh’s daughter and he became her son. She named him Moses, saying, “I drew him out of the water.”

Ex. 2:11 One day, after Moses had grown up, he went out to where his own people were and watched them at their hard labour. He saw an Egyptian beating a Hebrew, one of his own people.

Ex. 2:12 Glancing this way and that and seeing no-one, he killed the Egyptian and hid him in the sand.

Ex. 2:13 The next day he went out and saw two Hebrews fighting. He asked the one in the wrong, “Why are you hitting your fellow Hebrew?”

Ex. 2:14 The man said, “Who made you ruler and judge over us? Are you thinking of killing me as you killed the Egyptian?” Then Moses was afraid and thought, “What I did must have become known.”
Ex. 2:15 When Pharaoh heard of this, he tried to kill Moses, but Moses fled from Pharaoh and went to live in Midian, where he sat down by a well.

Ex. 2:16 Now a priest of Midian had seven daughters, and they came to draw water and fill the troughs to water their father’s flock.

Ex. 2:17 Some shepherds came along and drove them away, but Moses got up and came to their rescue and watered their flock.

Ex. 2:18 When the girls returned to Reuel their father, he asked them, “Why have you returned so early today?”

Ex. 2:19 They answered, “An Egyptian rescued us from the shepherds. He even drew water for us and watered the flock.”

Ex. 2:20 “And where is he?” he asked his daughters. “Why did you leave him? Invite him to have something to eat.”

Ex. 2:21 Moses agreed to stay with the man, who gave his daughter Zipporah to Moses in marriage.

Ex. 2:22 Zipporah gave birth to a son, and Moses named him Gershom, saying, “I have become an alien in a foreign land.”

Ex. 2:23 During that long period, the king of Egypt died. The Israelites groaned in their slavery and cried out, and their cry for help because of their slavery went up to God.

Ex. 2:24 God heard their groaning and he remembered his covenant with Abraham, with Isaac and with Jacob.

Ex. 2:25 So God looked on the Israelites and was concerned about them.

CHAPTER 3

Ex. 3:1 Now Moses was tending the flock of Jethro his father-in-law, the priest of Midian, and he led the flock to the far side of the desert and came to Horeb, the mountain of God.
Ex. 3:2 There the angel of the LORD appeared to him in flames of fire from within a bush. Moses saw that though the bush was on fire it did not burn up.

Ex. 3:3 So Moses thought, “I will go over and see this strange sight — why the bush does not burn up.”

Ex. 3:4 When the LORD saw that he had gone over to look, God called to him from within the bush, “Moses! Moses!” And Moses said, “Here I am.”

Ex. 3:5 “Do not come any closer,” God said. “Take off your sandals, for the place where you are standing is holy ground.”

Ex. 3:6 Then he said, “I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob.” At this, Moses hid his face, because he was afraid to look at God.

Ex. 3:7 The LORD said, “I have indeed seen the misery of my people in Egypt. I have heard them crying out because of their slave drivers, and I am concerned about their suffering.

Ex. 3:8 So I have come down to rescue them from the hand of the Egyptians and to bring them up out of that land into a good and spacious land, a land flowing with milk and honey — the home of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites.

Ex. 3:9 And now the cry of the Israelites has reached me, and I have seen the way the Egyptians are oppressing them.

Ex. 3:10 So now, go. I am sending you to Pharaoh to bring my people the Israelites out of Egypt.”

Ex. 3:11 But Moses said to God, “Who am I, that I should go to Pharaoh and bring the Israelites out of Egypt?”

Ex. 3:12 And God said, “I will be with you. And this will be the sign to you that it is I who have sent you: When you have brought the people out of Egypt, you will worship God on this mountain.”
Ex. 3:13 Moses said to God, “Suppose I go to the Israelites and say to them, ‘The God of your fathers has sent me to you,’ and they ask me, ‘What is his name?’ Then what shall I tell them?”

Ex. 3:14 God said to Moses, “I AM WHO I AM. This is what you are to say to the Israelites: ‘I AM has sent me to you.’”

Ex. 3:15 God also said to Moses, “Say to the Israelites, ‘The LORD, the God of your fathers — the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob — has sent me to you.’ This is my name for ever, the name by which I am to be remembered from generation to generation.

Ex. 3:16 “Go, assemble the elders of Israel and say to them, ‘The LORD, the God of your fathers — the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob — appeared to me and said: I have watched over you and have seen what has been done to you in Egypt.

Ex. 3:17 And I have promised to bring you up out of your misery in Egypt into the land of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites — a land flowing with milk and honey.’

Ex. 3:18 “The elders of Israel will listen to you. Then you and the elders are to go to the king of Egypt and say to him, ‘The LORD, the God of the Hebrews, has met with us. Let us take a three-day journey into the desert to offer sacrifices to the LORD our God.’

Ex. 3:19 But I know that the king of Egypt will not let you go unless a mighty hand compels him.

Ex. 3:20 So I will stretch out my hand and strike the Egyptians with all the wonders that I will perform among them. After that, he will let you go.

Ex. 3:21 “And I will make the Egyptians favourably disposed towards this people, so that when you leave you will not go empty-handed.

Ex. 3:22 Every woman is to ask her neighbour and any woman living in her house for articles of silver and gold and for clothing, which you will put on your sons and daughters. And so you will plunder the Egyptians.”

CHAPTER 4

Ex. 4:1 Moses answered, “What if they do not believe me or listen to me and say, ‘The LORD did not appear to you’?”

Ex. 4:2 Then the LORD said to him, “What is that in your hand?” “A staff,” he replied.

Ex. 4:3 The LORD said, “Throw it on the ground.” Moses threw it on the ground and it became a snake, and he ran from it.

Ex. 4:4 Then the LORD said to him, “Reach out your hand and take it by the tail.” So Moses reached out and took hold of the snake and it turned back into a staff in his hand.

Ex. 4:5 “This,” said the LORD, “is so that they may believe that the LORD, the God of their fathers — the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob — has appeared to you.”

Ex. 4:6 Then the LORD said, “Put your hand inside your cloak.” So Moses put his hand into his cloak, and when he took it out, it was leprous, like snow.

Ex. 4:7 “Now put it back into your cloak,” he said. So Moses put his hand back into his cloak, and when he took it out, it was restored, like the rest of his flesh.

Ex. 4:8 Then the LORD said, “If they do not believe you or pay attention to the first miraculous sign, they may believe the second.

Ex. 4:9 But if they do not believe these two signs or listen to you, take some water from the Nile and pour it on the dry ground. The water you take from the river will become blood on the ground.”

Ex. 4:10 Moses said to the LORD, “O Lord, I have never been eloquent, neither in the past nor since you have spoken to your servant. I am slow of speech and tongue.”
Ex. 4:11 The LORD said to him, “Who gave man his mouth? Who makes him deaf or mute? Who gives him sight or makes him blind? Is it not I, the LORD?

Ex. 4:12 Now go; I will help you speak and will teach you what to say.”

Ex. 4:13 But Moses said, “O Lord, please send someone else to do it.”

Ex. 4:14 Then the LORD’s anger burned against Moses and he said, “What about your brother, Aaron the Levite? I know he can speak well. He is already on his way to meet you, and his heart will be glad when he sees you.

Ex. 4:15 You shall speak to him and put words in his mouth; I will help both of you speak and will teach you what to do.

Ex. 4:16 He will speak to the people for you, and it will be as if he were your mouth and as if you were God to him.

Ex. 4:17 But take this staff in your hand so that you can perform miraculous signs with it.”

Ex. 4:18 Then Moses went back to Jethro his father-in-law and said to him, “Let me go back to my own people in Egypt to see if any of them are still alive.” Jethro said, “Go, and I wish you well.”

Ex. 4:19 Now the LORD had said to Moses in Midian, “Go back to Egypt, for all the men who wanted to kill you are dead.”

Ex. 4:20 So Moses took his wife and sons, put them on a donkey and started back to Egypt. And he took the staff of God in his hand.

Ex. 4:21 The LORD said to Moses, “When you return to Egypt, see that you perform before Pharaoh all the wonders I have given you the power to do. But I will harden his heart so that he will not let the people go.

Ex. 4:22 Then say to Pharaoh, ‘This is what the LORD says: Israel is my firstborn son,
Ex. 4:23 and I told you, “Let my son go, so that he may worship me.” But you refused to let him go; so I will kill your firstborn son.”

Ex. 4:24 At a lodging place on the way, the LORD met Moses and was about to kill him.

Ex. 4:25 But Zipporah took a flint knife, cut off her son’s foreskin and touched Moses’ feet with it. “Surely you are a bridegroom of blood to me,” she said.

Ex. 4:26 So the LORD let him alone. (At that time she said “bridegroom of blood”, referring to circumcision.)

Ex. 4:27 The LORD said to Aaron, “Go into the desert to meet Moses.” So he met Moses at the mountain of God and kissed him.

Ex. 4:28 Then Moses told Aaron everything the LORD had sent him to say, and also about all the miraculous signs he had commanded him to perform.

Ex. 4:29 Moses and Aaron brought together all the elders of the Israelites,

Ex. 4:30 and Aaron told them everything the LORD had said to Moses. He also performed the signs before the people, Ex. 4:31 and they believed. And when they heard that the LORD was concerned about them and had seen their misery, they bowed down and worshipped.

CHAPTER 5

Ex. 5:1 Afterwards Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and said, “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: ‘Let my people go, so that they may hold a festival to me in the desert.’”

Ex. 5:2 Pharaoh said, “Who is the LORD, that I should obey him and let Israel go? I do not know the LORD and I will not let Israel go.”
Then they said, “The God of the Hebrews has met with us. Now let us take a three-day journey into the desert to offer sacrifices to the LORD our God, or he may strike us with plagues or with the sword.”

But the king of Egypt said, “Moses and Aaron, why are you taking the people away from their labour? Get back to your work!”

Then Pharaoh said, “Look, the people of the land are now numerous, and you are stopping them from working.”

That same day Pharaoh gave this order to the slave drivers and foremen in charge of the people:

“You are no longer to supply the people with straw for making bricks; let them go and gather their own straw.

But require them to make the same number of bricks as before; don’t reduce the quota. They are lazy; that is why they are crying out, ‘Let us go and sacrifice to our God.’

Make the work harder for the men so that they keep working and pay no attention to lies.”

Then the slave drivers and the foremen went out and said to the people, “This is what Pharaoh says: ‘I will not give you any more straw.

So the people scattered all over Egypt to gather stubble to use for straw.

The slave drivers kept pressing them, saying, “Complete the work required of you for each day, just as when you had straw.”

The Israelite foremen appointed by Pharaoh’s slave drivers were beaten and were asked, “Why didn’t you meet your quota of bricks yesterday or today, as before?”
Ex. 5:15 Then the Israelite foremen went and appealed to Pharaoh: “Why have you treated your servants this way?

Ex. 5:16 Your servants are given no straw, yet we are told, ‘Make bricks!’ Your servants are being beaten, but the fault is with your own people.”

Ex. 5:17 Pharaoh said, “Lazy, that’s what you are — lazy! That is why you keep saying, ‘Let us go and sacrifice to the LORD.’

Ex. 5:18 Now get to work. You will not be given any straw, yet you must produce your full quota of bricks.”

Ex. 5:19 The Israelite foremen realised they were in trouble when they were told, “You are not to reduce the number of bricks required of you for each day.”

Ex. 5:20 When they left Pharaoh, they found Moses and Aaron waiting to meet them,

Ex. 5:21 and they said, “May the LORD look upon you and judge you! You have made us a stench to Pharaoh and his officials and have put a sword in their hand to kill us.”

Ex. 5:22 Moses returned to the LORD and said, “O Lord, why have you brought trouble upon this people? Is this why you sent me?

Ex. 5:23 Ever since I went to Pharaoh to speak in your name, he has brought trouble upon this people, and you have not rescued your people at all.”

CHAPTER 6

Ex. 6:1 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Now you will see what I will do to Pharaoh: Because of my mighty hand he will let them go; because of my mighty hand he will drive them out of his country.”

Ex. 6:2 God also said to Moses, “I am the LORD.”
Ex. 6:3 I appeared to Abraham, to Isaac and to Jacob as God Almighty, but by my name the LORD I did not make myself known to them.

Ex. 6:4 I also established my covenant with them to give them the land of Canaan, where they lived as aliens.

Ex. 6:5 Moreover, I have heard the groaning of the Israelites, whom the Egyptians are enslaving, and I have remembered my covenant.

Ex. 6:6 “Therefore, say to the Israelites: ‘I am the LORD, and I will bring you out from under the yoke of the Egyptians. I will free you from being slaves to them, and I will redeem you with an outstretched arm and with mighty acts of judgment.

Ex. 6:7 I will take you as my own people, and I will be your God. Then you will know that I am the LORD your God, who brought you out from under the yoke of the Egyptians.

Ex. 6:8 And I will bring you to the land I swore with uplifted hand to give to Abraham, to Isaac and to Jacob. I will give it to you as a possession. I am the LORD.’”

Ex. 6:9 Moses reported this to the Israelites, but they did not listen to him because of their discouragement and cruel bondage.

Ex. 6:10 Then the LORD said to Moses,

Ex. 6:11 “Go, tell Pharaoh king of Egypt to let the Israelites go out of his country.”

Ex. 6:12 But Moses said to the LORD, “If the Israelites will not listen to me, why would Pharaoh listen to me, since I speak with faltering lips?”

Ex. 6:13 Now the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron about the Israelites and Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he commanded them to bring the Israelites out of Egypt.

Ex. 6:14 These were the heads of their families: The sons of Reuben the firstborn son of Israel were Hanoch and Pallu, Hezron and Carmi. These were the clans of Reuben.
Ex. 6:15  The sons of Simeon were Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jakin, Zohar and Shaul the son of a Canaanite woman. These were the clans of Simeon.

Ex. 6:16  These were the names of the sons of Levi according to their records: Gershon, Kohath and Merari. Levi lived 137 years.

Ex. 6:17  The sons of Gershon, by clans, were Libni and Shimei.

Ex. 6:18  The sons of Kohath were Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel. Kohath lived 133 years.

Ex. 6:19  The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi. These were the clans of Levi according to their records.

Ex. 6:20  Amram married his father’s sister Jochebed, who bore him Aaron and Moses. Amram lived 137 years.

Ex. 6:21  The sons of Izhar were Korah, Nepheg and Zicri.

Ex. 6:22  The sons of Uzziel were Mishael, Elzaphan and Sithri.

Ex. 6:23  Aaron married Elisheba, daughter of Amminadab and sister of Nahshon, and she bore him Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

Ex. 6:24  The sons of Korah were Assir, Elkanah and Abiasaph. These were the Korahite clans.

Ex. 6:25  Eleazar son of Aaron married one of the daughters of Putiel, and she bore him Phinehas. These were the heads of the Levite families, clan by clan.

Ex. 6:26  It was this same Aaron and Moses to whom the LORD said, “Bring the Israelites out of Egypt by their divisions.”

Ex. 6:27  They were the ones who spoke to Pharaoh king of Egypt about bringing the Israelites out of Egypt. It was the same Moses and Aaron.

Ex. 6:28  Now when the LORD spoke to Moses in Egypt,

Ex. 6:29  he said to him, “I am the LORD. Tell Pharaoh king of Egypt everything I tell you.”
Ex. 6:30 But Moses said to the LORD, “Since I speak with faltering lips, why would Pharaoh listen to me?”

CHAPTER 7

Ex. 7:1 Then the LORD said to Moses, “See, I have made you like God to Pharaoh, and your brother Aaron will be your prophet.

Ex. 7:2 You are to say everything I command you, and your brother Aaron is to tell Pharaoh to let the Israelites go out of his country.

Ex. 7:3 But I will harden Pharaoh’s heart, and though I multiply my miraculous signs and wonders in Egypt,

Ex. 7:4 he will not listen to you. Then I will lay my hand on Egypt and with mighty acts of judgment I will bring out my divisions, my people the Israelites.

Ex. 7:5 And the Egyptians will know that I am the LORD when I stretch out my hand against Egypt and bring the Israelites out of it.”

Ex. 7:6 Moses and Aaron did just as the LORD commanded them.

Ex. 7:7 Moses was eighty years old and Aaron eighty-three when they spoke to Pharaoh.

Ex. 7:8 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron,

Ex. 7:9 “When Pharaoh says to you, ‘Perform a miracle,’ then say to Aaron, ‘Take your staff and throw it down before Pharaoh,’ and it will become a snake.”

Ex. 7:10 So Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and did just as the LORD commanded. Aaron threw his staff down in front of Pharaoh and his officials, and it became a snake.

Ex. 7:11 Pharaoh then summoned the wise men and sorcerers, and the Egyptian magicians also did the same things by their secret arts:
Ex. 7:12 Each one threw down his staff and it became a snake. But Aaron’s staff swallowed up their staffs.

Ex. 7:13 Yet Pharaoh’s heart became hard and he would not listen to them, just as the LORD had said.

Ex. 7:14 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Pharaoh’s heart is unyielding; he refuses to let the people go.

Ex. 7:15 Go to Pharaoh in the morning as he goes out to the water. Wait on the bank of the Nile to meet him, and take in your hand the staff that was changed into a snake.

Ex. 7:16 Then say to him, ‘The LORD, the God of the Hebrews, has sent me to say to you: Let my people go, so that they may worship me in the desert. But until now you have not listened.

Ex. 7:17 This is what the LORD says: By this you will know that I am the LORD: With the staff that is in my hand I will strike the water of the Nile, and it will be changed into blood.

Ex. 7:18 The fish in the Nile will die, and the river will stink; the Egyptians will not be able to drink its water.”

Ex. 7:19 The LORD said to Moses, “Tell Aaron, ‘Take your staff and stretch out your hand over the waters of Egypt — over the streams and canals, over the ponds and all the reservoirs’ — and they will turn to blood. Blood will be everywhere in Egypt, even in the wooden buckets and stone jars.’

Ex. 7:20 Moses and Aaron did just as the LORD had commanded. He raised his staff in the presence of Pharaoh and his officials and struck the water of the Nile, and all the water was changed into blood.

Ex. 7:21 The fish in the Nile died, and the river smelled so bad that the Egyptians could not drink its water. Blood was everywhere in Egypt.

Ex. 7:22 But the Egyptian magicians did the same things by their secret arts, and Pharaoh’s heart became hard; he would not listen to Moses and Aaron, just as the LORD had said.
Ex. 7:23 Instead, he turned and went into his palace, and did not take even this to heart.

Ex. 7:24 And all the Egyptians dug along the Nile to get drinking water, because they could not drink the water of the river.

Ex. 7:25 Seven days passed after the LORD struck the Nile.

CHAPTER 8

Ex. 8:1 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Go to Pharaoh and say to him, ‘This is what the LORD says: Let my people go, so that they may worship me.

Ex. 8:2 If you refuse to let them go, I will plague your whole country with frogs.

Ex. 8:3 The Nile will teem with frogs. They will come up into your palace and your bedroom and onto your bed, into the houses of your officials and on your people, and into your ovens and kneading troughs.

Ex. 8:4 The frogs will go up on you and your people and all your officials.”

Ex. 8:5 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Tell Aaron, ‘Stretch out your hand with your staff over the streams and canals and ponds, and make frogs come up on the land of Egypt.’”

Ex. 8:6 So Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt, and the frogs came up and covered the land.

Ex. 8:7 But the magicians did the same things by their secret arts; they also made frogs come up on the land of Egypt.

Ex. 8:8 Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron and said, “Pray to the LORD to take the frogs away from me and my people, and I will let your people go to offer sacrifices to the LORD.”

Ex. 8:9 Moses said to Pharaoh, “I leave to you the honour of setting the time for me to pray for you and your officials and your people that you and your houses may be rid of the frogs, except for those that remain in the Nile.’

Ex. 8:10 “Tomorrow,” Pharaoh said. Moses replied, “It will be as you say, so that you may know there is no-one like the LORD our God.

Ex. 8:11 The frogs will leave you and your houses, your officials and your people; they will remain only in the Nile.”

Ex. 8:12 After Moses and Aaron left Pharaoh, Moses cried out to the LORD about the frogs he had brought on Pharaoh.

Ex. 8:13 And the LORD did what Moses asked. The frogs died in the houses, in the courtyards and in the fields.

Ex. 8:14 They were piled into heaps, and the land reeked of them.

Ex. 8:15 But when Pharaoh saw that there was relief, he hardened his heart and would not listen to Moses and Aaron, just as the LORD had said.

Ex. 8:16 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Tell Aaron, ‘Stretch out your staff and strike the dust of the ground,’ and throughout the land of Egypt the dust will become gnats.”

Ex. 8:17 They did this, and when Aaron stretched out his hand with the staff and struck the dust of the ground, gnats came upon men and animals. All the dust throughout the land of Egypt became gnats.

Ex. 8:18 But when the magicians tried to produce gnats by their secret arts, they could not. And the gnats were on men and animals.

Ex. 8:19 The magicians said to Pharaoh, “This is the finger of God.” But Pharaoh’s heart was hard and he would not listen, just as the LORD had said.

Ex. 8:20 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Get up early in the morning and confront Pharaoh as he goes to the water and say to him, ‘This is what the LORD says: Let my people go, so that they may worship me.”
Ex. 8:21 If you do not let my people go, I will send swarms of flies on you and your officials, on your people and into your houses. The houses of the Egyptians will be full of flies, and even the ground where they are.

Ex. 8:22 “But on that day I will deal differently with the land of Goshen, where my people live; no swarms of flies will be there, so that you will know that I, the LORD, am in this land.

Ex. 8:23 I will make a distinction between my people and your people. This miraculous sign will occur tomorrow.”

Ex. 8:24 And the LORD did this. Dense swarms of flies poured into Pharaoh’s palace and into the houses of his officials, and throughout Egypt the land was ruined by the flies.

Ex. 8:25 Then Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron and said, “Go, sacrifice to your God here in the land.”

Ex. 8:26 But Moses said, “That would not be right. The sacrifices we offer the LORD our God would be detestable to the Egyptians. And if we offer sacrifices that are detestable in their eyes, will they not stone us?

Ex. 8:27 We must take a three-day journey into the desert to offer sacrifices to the LORD our God, as he commands us.”

Ex. 8:28 Pharaoh said, “I will let you go to offer sacrifices to the LORD your God in the desert, but you must not go very far. Now pray for me.”

Ex. 8:29 Moses answered, “As soon as I leave you, I will pray to the LORD, and tomorrow the flies will leave Pharaoh and his officials and his people. Only be sure that Pharaoh does not act deceitfully again by not letting the people go to offer sacrifices to the LORD.”

Ex. 8:30 Then Moses left Pharaoh and prayed to the LORD,

Ex. 8:31 and the LORD did what Moses asked: The flies left Pharaoh and his officials and his people; not a fly remained.
Ex. 8:32 But this time also Pharaoh hardened his heart and would not let the people go.

CHAPTER 9

Ex. 9:1 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Go to Pharaoh and say to him, ‘This is what the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, says: “Let my people go, so that they may worship me.”

Ex. 9:2 If you refuse to let them go and continue to hold them back,

Ex. 9:3 the hand of the LORD will bring a terrible plague on your livestock in the field — on your horses and donkeys and camels and on your cattle and sheep and goats.

Ex. 9:4 But the LORD will make a distinction between the livestock of Israel and that of Egypt, so that no animal belonging to the Israelites will die.”

Ex. 9:5 The LORD set a time and said, “Tomorrow the LORD will do this in the land.”

Ex. 9:6 And the next day the LORD did it: All the livestock of the Egyptians died, but not one animal belonging to the Israelites died.

Ex. 9:7 Pharaoh sent men to investigate and found that not even one of the animals of the Israelites had died. Yet his heart was unyielding and he would not let the people go.

Ex. 9:8 Then the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, “Take handfuls of soot from a furnace and have Moses toss it into the air in the presence of Pharaoh.

Ex. 9:9 It will become fine dust over the whole land of Egypt, and festering boils will break out on men and animals throughout the land.”

Ex. 9:10 So they took soot from a furnace and stood before Pharaoh. Moses tossed it into the air, and festering boils broke out on men and animals.
The magicians could not stand before Moses because of the boils that were on them and on all the Egyptians.

But the LORD hardened Pharaoh’s heart and he would not listen to Moses and Aaron, just as the LORD had said to Moses.

Then the LORD said to Moses, “Get up early in the morning, confront Pharaoh and say to him, ‘This is what the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, says: Let my people go, so that they may worship me, or this time I will send the full force of my plagues against you and against your officials and your people, so you may know that there is no-one like me in all the earth.

For by now I could have stretched out my hand and struck you and your people with a plague that would have wiped you off the earth.

You still set yourself against my people and will not let them go.

Therefore, at this time tomorrow I will send the worst hailstorm that has ever fallen on Egypt, from the day it was founded till now.

Give an order now to bring your livestock and everything you have in the field to a place of shelter, because the hail will fall on every man and animal that has not been brought in and is still out in the field, and they will die.’”

Those officials of Pharaoh who feared the word of the LORD hurried to bring their slaves and their livestock inside.

But those who ignored the word of the LORD left their slaves and livestock in the field.

Then the LORD said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand towards the sky so that hail will fall all over Egypt — on men and animals and on everything growing in the fields of Egypt.”

Ex. 9:23 When Moses stretched out his staff towards the sky, the LORD sent thunder and hail, and lightning flashed down to the ground. So the LORD rained hail on the land of Egypt;

Ex. 9:24 hail fell and lightning flashed back and forth. It was the worst storm in all the land of Egypt since it had become a nation.

Ex. 9:25 Throughout Egypt hail struck everything in the fields — both men and animals; it beat down everything growing in the fields and stripped every tree.

Ex. 9:26 The only place it did not hail was the land of Goshen, where the Israelites were.

Ex. 9:27 Then Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron. “This time I have sinned,” he said to them. “The LORD is in the right, and I and my people are in the wrong.

Ex. 9:28 Pray to the LORD, for we have had enough thunder and hail. I will let you go; you don’t have to stay any longer.”

Ex. 9:29 Moses replied, “When I have gone out of the city, I will spread out my hands in prayer to the LORD. The thunder will stop and there will be no more hail, so you may know that the earth is the LORD’s.

Ex. 9:30 But I know that you and your officials still do not fear the LORD God.”

Ex. 9:31 (The flax and barley were destroyed, since the barley was in the ear and the flax was in bloom.

Ex. 9:32 The wheat and spelt, however, were not destroyed, because they ripen later.)

Ex. 9:33 Then Moses left Pharaoh and went out of the city. He spread out his hands towards the LORD; the thunder and hail stopped, and the rain no longer poured down on the land.
Ex. 9:34 When Pharaoh saw that the rain and hail and thunder had stopped, he sinned again: He and his officials hardened their hearts.

Ex. 9:35 So Pharaoh’s heart was hard and he would not let the Israelites go, just as the LORD had said through Moses.

CHAPTER 10

Ex. 10:1 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Go to Pharaoh, for I have hardened his heart and the hearts of his officials so that I may perform these miraculous signs of mine among them

Ex. 10:2 that you may tell your children and grandchildren how I dealt harshly with the Egyptians and how I performed my signs among them, and that you may know that I am the LORD.”

Ex. 10:3 So Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and said to him, “This is what the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, says: ‘How long will you refuse to humble yourself before me? Let my people go, so that they may worship me.

Ex. 10:4 If you refuse to let them go, I will bring locusts into your country tomorrow.

Ex. 10:5 They will cover the face of the ground so that it cannot be seen. They will devour what little you have left after the hail, including every tree that is growing in your fields.

Ex. 10:6 They will fill your houses and those of all your officials and all the Egyptians — something neither your fathers nor your forefathers have ever seen from the day they settled in this land till now.” Then Moses turned and left Pharaoh.

Ex. 10:7 Pharaoh’s officials said to him, “How long will this man be a snare to us? Let the people go, so that they may worship the LORD their God. Do you not yet realise that Egypt is ruined?”
Then Moses and Aaron were brought back to Pharaoh. “Go, worship the LORD your God,” he said. “But just who will be going?”

Moses answered, “We will go with our young and old, with our sons and daughters, and with our flocks and herds, because we are to celebrate a festival to the LORD.”

Pharaoh said, “The LORD be with you — if I let you go, along with your women and children! Clearly you are bent on evil.”

No! Let only the men go; and worship the LORD, since that’s what you have been asking for.” Then Moses and Aaron were driven out of Pharaoh’s presence.

And the LORD said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand over Egypt so that locusts will swarm over the land and devour everything growing in the fields, everything left by the hail.”

So Moses stretched out his staff over Egypt, and the LORD made an east wind blow across the land all that day and all that night. By morning the wind had brought the locusts; they invaded all Egypt and settled down in every area of the country in great numbers. Never before had there been such a plague of locusts, nor will there ever be again.

They covered all the ground until it was black. They devoured all that was left after the hail — everything growing in the fields and the fruit on the trees. Nothing green remained on tree or plant in all the land of Egypt.

Pharaoh quickly summoned Moses and Aaron and said, “I have sinned against the LORD your God and against you.

Now forgive my sin once more and pray to the LORD your God to take this deadly plague away from me.”

Moses then left Pharaoh and prayed to the LORD.

And the LORD changed the wind to a very strong west wind, which caught up the locusts and carried them into the Red Sea. Not a locust was left anywhere in Egypt.
But the LORD hardened Pharaoh’s heart, and he would not let the Israelites go.

Then the LORD said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand towards the sky so that darkness will spread over Egypt — darkness that can be felt.”

So Moses stretched out his hand towards the sky, and total darkness covered all Egypt for three days.

No-one could see anyone else or leave his place for three days. Yet all the Israelites had light in the places where they lived.

Then Pharaoh summoned Moses and said, “Go, worship the LORD. Even your women and children may go with you; only leave your flocks and herds behind.”

But Moses said, “You must allow us to have sacrifices and burnt offerings to present to the LORD our God.

Our livestock too must go with us; not a hoof is to be left behind. We have to use some of them in worshipping the LORD our God, and until we get there we will not know what we are to use to worship the LORD.”

But the LORD hardened Pharaoh’s heart, and he was not willing to let them go.

Pharaoh said to Moses, “Get out of my sight! Make sure you do not appear before me again! The day you see my face you will die.”

“Just as you say,” Moses replied, “I will never appear before you again.”

CHAPTER 11

Now the LORD said to Moses, “I will bring one more plague on Pharaoh and on Egypt. After that, he will let you go from here, and when he does, he will drive you out completely.
Ex. 11:2 Tell the people that men and women alike are to ask their neighbours for articles of silver and gold.”

Ex. 11:3 (The LORD made the Egyptians favourably disposed towards the people, and Moses himself was highly regarded in Egypt by Pharaoh’s officials and by the people.)

Ex. 11:4 So Moses said, “This is what the LORD says: ‘About midnight I will go throughout Egypt.”

Ex. 11:5 Every firstborn son in Egypt will die, from the firstborn son of Pharaoh, who sits on the throne, to the firstborn son of the slave girl, who is at her hand mill, and all the firstborn of the cattle as well.

Ex. 11:6 There will be loud wailing throughout Egypt — worse than there has ever been or ever will be again.

Ex. 11:7 But among the Israelites not a dog will bark at any man or animal.” Then you will know that the LORD makes a distinction between Egypt and Israel.

Ex. 11:8 All these officials of yours will come to me, bowing down before me and saying, ‘Go, you and all the people who follow you!’ After that I will leave.” Then Moses, hot with anger, left Pharaoh.

Ex. 11:9 The LORD had said to Moses, “Pharaoh will refuse to listen to you — so that my wonders may be multiplied in Egypt.”

Ex. 11:10 Moses and Aaron performed all these wonders before Pharaoh, but the LORD hardened Pharaoh’s heart, and he would not let the Israelites go out of his country.

CHAPTER 12

Ex. 12:1 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron in Egypt,

Ex. 12:2 “This month is to be for you the first month, the first month of your year.
Tell the whole community of Israel that on the tenth day of this month each man is to take a lamb for his family, one for each household.

If any household is too small for a whole lamb, they must share one with their nearest neighbour, having taken into account the number of people there are. You are to determine the amount of lamb needed in accordance with what each person will eat.

The animals you choose must be year-old males without defect, and you may take them from the sheep or the goats.

Take care of them until the fourteenth day of the month, when all the people of the community of Israel must slaughter them at twilight.

Then they are to take some of the blood and put it on the sides and tops of the door-frames of the houses where they eat the lambs.

That same night they are to eat the meat roasted over the fire, along with bitter herbs, and bread made without yeast.

Do not eat the meat raw or cooked in water, but roast it over the fire — head, legs and inner parts.

Do not leave any of it till morning; if some is left till morning, you must burn it.

This is how you are to eat it: with your cloak tucked into your belt, your sandals on your feet and your staff in your hand. Eat it in haste; it is the LORD’s Passover.

“On that same night I will pass through Egypt and strike down every firstborn — both men and animals — and I will bring judgment on all the gods of Egypt. I am the LORD.

The blood will be a sign for you on the houses where you are; and when I see the blood, I will pass over you. No destructive plague will touch you when I strike Egypt.
Ex. 12:14 “This is a day you are to commemorate; for the generations to come you shall celebrate it as a festival to the LORD — a lasting ordinance.

Ex. 12:15 For seven days you are to eat bread made without yeast. On the first day remove the yeast from your houses, for whoever eats anything with yeast in it from the first day until the seventh must be cut off from Israel.

Ex. 12:16 On the first day hold a sacred assembly, and another one on the seventh day. Do no work at all on these days, except to prepare food for everyone to eat — that is all you may do.

Ex. 12:17 “Celebrate the Feast of Unleavened Bread, because it was on this very day that I brought your divisions out of Egypt. Celebrate this day as a lasting ordinance for the generations to come.

Ex. 12:18 In the first month you are to eat bread made without yeast, from the evening of the fourteenth day until the evening of the twenty-first day.

Ex. 12:19 For seven days no yeast is to be found in your houses. And whoever eats anything with yeast in it must be cut off from the community of Israel, whether he is an alien or native-born.

Ex. 12:20 Eat nothing made with yeast. Wherever you live, you must eat unleavened bread.”

Ex. 12:21 Then Moses summoned all the elders of Israel and said to them, “Go at once and select the animals for your families and slaughter the Passover lamb.

Ex. 12:22 Take a bunch of hyssop, dip it into the blood in the basin and put some of the blood on the top and on both sides of the door-frame. Not one of you shall go out of the door of his house until morning.

Ex. 12:23 When the LORD goes through the land to strike down the Egyptians, he will see the blood on the top and sides of the door-frame and will pass over that doorway, and he will not
Ex. 12:24 “Obey these instructions as a lasting ordinance for you and your descendants.

Ex. 12:25 When you enter the land that the LORD will give you as he promised, observe this ceremony.

Ex. 12:26 And when your children ask you, ‘What does this ceremony mean to you?’

Ex. 12:27 then tell them, ‘It is the Passover sacrifice to the LORD, who passed over the houses of the Israelites in Egypt and spared our homes when he struck down the Egyptians.’” Then the people bowed down and worshipped.

Ex. 12:28 The Israelites did just what the LORD commanded Moses and Aaron.

Ex. 12:29 At midnight the LORD struck down all the firstborn in Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh, who sat on the throne, to the firstborn of the prisoner, who was in the dungeon, and the firstborn of all the livestock as well.

Ex. 12:30 Pharaoh and all his officials and all the Egyptians got up during the night, and there was loud wailing in Egypt, for there was not a house without someone dead.

Ex. 12:31 During the night Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron and said, “Up! Leave my people, you and the Israelites! Go, worship the LORD as you have requested.

Ex. 12:32 Take your flocks and herds, as you have said, and go. And also bless me.”

Ex. 12:33 The Egyptians urged the people to hurry and leave the country. “For otherwise,” they said, “we will all die!”

Ex. 12:34 So the people took their dough before the yeast was added, and carried it on their shoulders in kneading troughs wrapped in clothing.
Ex. 12:35 The Israelites did as Moses instructed and asked the Egyptians for articles of silver and gold and for clothing.

Ex. 12:36 The LORD had made the Egyptians favourably disposed towards the people, and they gave them what they asked for; so they plundered the Egyptians.

Ex. 12:37 The Israelites journeyed from Rameses to Succoth. There were about six hundred thousand men on foot, besides women and children.

Ex. 12:38 Many other people went up with them, as well as large droves of livestock, both flocks and herds.

Ex. 12:39 With the dough they had brought from Egypt, they baked cakes of unleavened bread. The dough was without yeast because they had been driven out of Egypt and did not have time to prepare food for themselves.

Ex. 12:40 Now the length of time the Israelite people lived in Egypt was 430 years.

Ex. 12:41 At the end of the 430 years, to the very day, all the LORD’s divisions left Egypt.

Ex. 12:42 Because the LORD kept vigil that night to bring them out of Egypt, on this night all the Israelites are to keep vigil to honour the LORD for the generations to come.

Ex. 12:43 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron, “These are the regulations for the Passover: “No foreigner is to eat of it.

Ex. 12:44 Any slave you have bought may eat of it after you have circumcised him,

Ex. 12:45 but a temporary resident and a hired worker may not eat of it.

Ex. 12:46 “It must be eaten inside one house; take none of the meat outside the house. Do not break any of the bones.

Ex. 12:47 The whole community of Israel must celebrate it.

Ex. 12:48 “An alien living among you who wants to celebrate the LORD’s Passover must have all the males in his household
Ex. 12:49  The same law applies to the native-born and to the alien living among you.”

Ex. 12:50  All the Israelites did just what the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron.

Ex. 12:51  And on that very day the LORD brought the Israelites out of Egypt by their divisions.

CHAPTER 13

Ex. 13:1  The LORD said to Moses,

Ex. 13:2  “Consecrate to me every firstborn male. The first offspring of every womb among the Israelites belongs to me, whether man or animal.”

Ex. 13:3  Then Moses said to the people, “Commemorate this day, the day you came out of Egypt, out of the land of slavery, because the LORD brought you out of it with a mighty hand. Eat nothing containing yeast.

Ex. 13:4  Today, in the month of Abib, you are leaving.

Ex. 13:5  When the LORD brings you into the land of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Hivites and Jebusites — the land he swore to your forefathers to give you, a land flowing with milk and honey — you are to observe this ceremony in this month:

Ex. 13:6  For seven days eat bread made without yeast and on the seventh day hold a festival to the LORD.

Ex. 13:7  Eat unleavened bread during those seven days; nothing with yeast in it is to be seen among you, nor shall any yeast be seen anywhere within your borders.

Ex. 13:8  On that day tell your son, ‘I do this because of what the LORD did for me when I came out of Egypt.’
This observance will be for you like a sign on your hand and a reminder on your forehead that the law of the LORD is to be on your lips. For the LORD brought you out of Egypt with his mighty hand.

You must keep this ordinance at the appointed time year after year.

“After the LORD brings you into the land of the Canaanites and gives it to you, as he promised on oath to you and your forefathers, you are to give over to the LORD the first offspring of every womb. All the firstborn males of your livestock belong to the LORD.

Redeem with a lamb every firstborn donkey, but if you do not redeem it, break its neck. Redeem every firstborn among your sons.

“In days to come when your son asks you, ‘What does this mean?’ say to him, ‘With a mighty hand the LORD brought us out of Egypt, out of the land of slavery.

When Pharaoh stubbornly refused to let us go, the LORD killed every firstborn in Egypt, both man and animal. This is why I sacrifice to the LORD the first male offspring of every womb and redeem each of my firstborn sons.’

And it will be like a sign on your hand and a symbol on your forehead that the LORD brought us out of Egypt with his mighty hand.”

When Pharaoh let the people go, God did not lead them on the road through the Philistine country, though that was shorter. For God said, “If they face war, they might change their minds and return to Egypt.”

So God led the people around by the desert road towards the Red Sea. The Israelites went up out of Egypt armed for battle.
Ex. 13:19 Moses took the bones of Joseph with him because Joseph had made the sons of Israel swear an oath. He had said, “God will surely come to your aid, and then you must carry my bones up with you from this place.”

Ex. 13:20 After leaving Succoth they camped at Etham on the edge of the desert.

Ex. 13:21 By day the LORD went ahead of them in a pillar of cloud to guide them on their way and by night in a pillar of fire to give them light, so that they could travel by day or night.

Ex. 13:22 Neither the pillar of cloud by day nor the pillar of fire by night left its place in front of the people.

CHAPTER 14

Ex. 14:1 Then the LORD said to Moses,

Ex. 14:2 “Tell the Israelites to turn back and camp near Pi Hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea. They are to camp by the sea, directly opposite Baal Zephon.

Ex. 14:3 Pharaoh will think, ‘The Israelites are wandering around the land in confusion, hemmed in by the desert.’

Ex. 14:4 And I will harden Pharaoh’s heart, and he will pursue them. But I will gain glory for myself through Pharaoh and all his army, and the Egyptians will know that I am the LORD.” So the Israelites did this.

Ex. 14:5 When the king of Egypt was told that the people had fled, Pharaoh and his officials changed their minds about them and said, “What have we done? We have let the Israelites go and have lost their services!”

Ex. 14:6 So he had his chariot made ready and took his army with him.

Ex. 14:7 He took six hundred of the best chariots, along with all the other chariots of Egypt, with officers over all of them.
Ex. 14:8 The LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, so that he pursued the Israelites, who were marching out boldly.

Ex. 14:9 The Egyptians — all Pharaoh’s horses and chariots, horsemen and troops — pursued the Israelites and overtook them as they camped by the sea near Pi Hahiroth, opposite Baal Zephon.

Ex. 14:10 As Pharaoh approached, the Israelites looked up, and there were the Egyptians, marching after them. They were terrified and cried out to the LORD.

Ex. 14:11 They said to Moses, “Was it because there were no graves in Egypt that you brought us to the desert to die? What have you done to us by bringing us out of Egypt?

Ex. 14:12 Didn’t we say to you in Egypt, ‘Leave us alone; let us serve the Egyptians’? It would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians than to die in the desert!”

Ex. 14:13 Moses answered the people, “Do not be afraid. Stand firm and you will see the deliverance the LORD will bring you today. The Egyptians you see today you will never see again.

Ex. 14:14 The LORD will fight for you; you need only to be still.”

Ex. 14:15 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Why are you crying out to me? Tell the Israelites to move on.

Ex. 14:16 Raise your staff and stretch out your hand over the sea to divide the water so that the Israelites can go through the sea on dry ground.

Ex. 14:17 I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians so that they will go in after them. And I will gain glory through Pharaoh and all his army, through his chariots and his horsemen.

Ex. 14:18 The Egyptians will know that I am the LORD when I gain glory through Pharaoh, his chariots and his horsemen.”

Ex. 14:19 Then the angel of God, who had been travelling in front of Israel’s army, withdrew and went behind them. The pillar of cloud also moved from in front and stood behind them,
Ex. 14:20 coming between the armies of Egypt and Israel. Throughout the night the cloud brought darkness to the one side and light to the other; so neither went near the other all night long.

Ex. 14:21 Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and all that night the LORD drove the sea back with a strong east wind and turned it into dry land. The waters were divided,

Ex. 14:22 and the Israelites went through the sea on dry ground, with a wall of water on their right and on their left.

Ex. 14:23 The Egyptians pursued them, and all Pharaoh’s horses and chariots and horsemen followed them into the sea.

Ex. 14:24 During the last watch of the night the LORD looked down from the pillar of fire and cloud at the Egyptian army and threw it into confusion.

Ex. 14:25 He made the wheels of their chariots come off so that they had difficulty driving. And the Egyptians said, “Let’s get away from the Israelites! The LORD is fighting for them against Egypt.”

Ex. 14:26 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand over the sea so that the waters may flow back over the Egyptians and their chariots and horsemen.”

Ex. 14:27 Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and at daybreak the sea went back to its place. The Egyptians were fleeing towards it, and the LORD swept them into the sea.

Ex. 14:28 The water flowed back and covered the chariots and horsemen — the entire army of Pharaoh that had followed the Israelites into the sea. Not one of them survived.

Ex. 14:29 But the Israelites went through the sea on dry ground, with a wall of water on their right and on their left.

Ex. 14:30 That day the LORD saved Israel from the hands of the Egyptians, and Israel saw the Egyptians lying dead on the shore.
Ex. 14:31 And when the Israelites saw the great power the LORD displayed against the Egyptians, the people feared the LORD and put their trust in him and in Moses his servant.

CHAPTER 15

Ex. 15:1 Then Moses and the Israelites sang this song to the LORD: “I will sing to the LORD, for he is highly exalted. The horse and its rider he has hurled into the sea.

Ex. 15:2 The LORD is my strength and my song; he has become my salvation. He is my God, and I will praise him, my father’s God, and I will exalt him.

Ex. 15:3 The LORD is a warrior; the LORD is his name.

Ex. 15:4 Pharaoh’s chariots and his army he has hurled into the sea. The best of Pharaoh’s officers are drowned in the Red Sea.

Ex. 15:5 The deep waters have covered them; they sank to the depths like a stone.

Ex. 15:6 “Your right hand, O LORD, was majestic in power. Your right hand, O LORD, shattered the enemy.

Ex. 15:7 In the greatness of your majesty you threw down those who opposed you. You unleashed your burning anger; it consumed them like stubble.

Ex. 15:8 By the blast of your nostrils the waters piled up. The surging waters stood firm like a wall; the deep waters congealed in the heart of the sea.

Ex. 15:9 ‘The enemy boasted, ‘I will pursue, I will overtake them. I will divide the spoils; I will gorge myself on them. I will draw my sword and my hand will destroy them.’

Ex. 15:10 But you blew with your breath, and the sea covered them. They sank like lead in the mighty waters.

Ex. 15:11 “Who among the gods is like you, O LORD? Who is like you — majestic in holiness, awesome in glory, working wonders?
Ex. 15:12 You stretched out your right hand and the earth swallowed them.

Ex. 15:13 “In your unfailing love you will lead the people you have redeemed. In your strength you will guide them to your holy dwelling.

Ex. 15:14 The nations will hear and tremble; anguish will grip the people of Philistia.

Ex. 15:15 The chiefs of Edom will be terrified, the leaders of Moab will be seized with trembling, the people of Canaan will melt away;

Ex. 15:16 terror and dread will fall upon them. By the power of your arm they will be as still as a stone — until your people pass by, O LORD, until the people you bought pass by.

Ex. 15:17 You will bring them in and plant them on the mountain of your inheritance — the place, O LORD, you made for your dwelling, the sanctuary, O Lord, your hands established.

Ex. 15:18 The LORD will reign for ever and ever.”

Ex. 15:19 When Pharaoh’s horses, chariots and horsemen went into the sea, the LORD brought the waters of the sea back over them, but the Israelites walked through the sea on dry ground.

Ex. 15:20 Then Miriam the prophetess, Aaron’s sister, took a tambourine in her hand, and all the women followed her, with tambourines and dancing.

Ex. 15:21 Miriam sang to them: “Sing to the LORD, for he is highly exalted. The horse and its rider he has hurled into the sea.”

Ex. 15:22 Then Moses led Israel from the Red Sea and they went into the Desert of Shur. For three days they travelled in the desert without finding water.

Ex. 15:23 When they came to Marah, they could not drink its water because it was bitter. (That is why the place is called Marah.)

Ex. 15:24 So the people grumbled against Moses, saying, “What are we to drink?”
Ex. 15:25 Then Moses cried out to the LORD, and the LORD showed him a piece of wood. He threw it into the water, and the water became sweet. There the LORD made a decree and a law for them, and there he tested them.

Ex. 15:26 He said, “If you listen carefully to the voice of the LORD your God and do what is right in his eyes, if you pay attention to his commands and keep all his decrees, I will not bring on you any of the diseases I brought on the Egyptians, for I am the LORD, who heals you.”

Ex. 15:27 Then they came to Elim, where there were twelve springs and seventy palm trees, and they camped there near the water.

CHAPTER 16

Ex. 16:1 The whole Israelite community set out from Elim and came to the Desert of Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after they had come out of Egypt.

Ex. 16:2 In the desert the whole community grumbled against Moses and Aaron.

Ex. 16:3 The Israelites said to them, “If only we had died by the LORD’s hand in Egypt! There we sat round pots of meat and ate all the food we wanted, but you have brought us out into this desert to starve this entire assembly to death.”

Ex. 16:4 Then the LORD said to Moses, “I will rain down bread from heaven for you. The people are to go out each day and gather enough for that day. In this way I will test them and see whether they will follow my instructions.

Ex. 16:5 On the sixth day they are to prepare what they bring in, and that is to be twice as much as they gather on the other days.”

Ex. 16:6 So Moses and Aaron said to all the Israelites, “In the evening you will know that it was the LORD who brought you out of Egypt, and in the morning you will see the glory of the LORD, because he has heard your grumbling against him. Who are we, that you should grumble against us?”

Moses also said, “You will know that it was the LORD when he gives you meat to eat in the evening and all the bread you want in the morning, because he has heard your grumbling against him. Who are we? You are not grumbling against us, but against the LORD.”

Then Moses told Aaron, “Say to the entire Israelite community, ‘Come before the LORD, for he has heard your grumbling.’”

While Aaron was speaking to the whole Israelite community, they looked towards the desert, and there was the glory of the LORD appearing in the cloud.

The LORD said to Moses, “I have heard the grumbling of the Israelites. Tell them, ‘At twilight you will eat meat, and in the morning you will be filled with bread. Then you will know that I am the LORD your God.’”

That evening quail came and covered the camp, and in the morning there was a layer of dew around the camp.

When the dew was gone, thin flakes like frost on the ground appeared on the desert floor.

When the Israelites saw it, they said to each other, “What is it?” For they did not know what it was. Moses said to them, “It is the bread the LORD has given you to eat.

This is what the LORD has commanded: ‘Each one is to gather as much as he needs. Take an omer for each person you have in your tent.’”

The Israelites did as they were told; some gathered much, some little.
Ex. 16:18 And when they measured it by the omer, he who gathered much did not have too much, and he who gathered little did not have too little. Each one gathered as much as he needed.

Ex. 16:19 Then Moses said to them, “No-one is to keep any of it until morning.”

Ex. 16:20 However, some of them paid no attention to Moses; they kept part of it until morning, but it was full of maggots and began to smell. So Moses was angry with them.

Ex. 16:21 Each morning everyone gathered as much as he needed, and when the sun grew hot, it melted away.

Ex. 16:22 On the sixth day, they gathered twice as much — two omers for each person — and the leaders of the community came and reported this to Moses.

Ex. 16:23 He said to them, “This is what the LORD commanded: ‘Tomorrow is to be a day of rest, a holy Sabbath to the LORD. So bake what you want to bake and boil what you want to boil. Save whatever is left and keep it until morning.’”

Ex. 16:24 So they saved it until morning, as Moses commanded, and it did not stink or get maggots in it.

Ex. 16:25 “Eat it today,” Moses said, “because today is a Sabbath to the LORD. You will not find any of it on the ground today.

Ex. 16:26 Six days you are to gather it, but on the seventh day, the Sabbath, there will not be any.”

Ex. 16:27 Nevertheless, some of the people went out on the seventh day to gather it, but they found none.

Ex. 16:28 Then the LORD said to Moses, “How long will you refuse to keep my commands and my instructions?

Ex. 16:29 Bear in mind that the LORD has given you the Sabbath; that is why on the sixth day he gives you bread for two days. Everyone is to stay where he is on the seventh day; no-one is to go out.”
Ex. 16:30 So the people rested on the seventh day.

Ex. 16:31 The people of Israel called the bread manna. It was white like coriander seed and tasted like wafers made with honey.

Ex. 16:32 Moses said, “This is what the LORD has commanded: ‘Take an omer of manna and keep it for the generations to come, so they can see the bread I gave you to eat in the desert when I brought you out of Egypt.’”

Ex. 16:33 So Moses said to Aaron, “Take a jar and put an omer of manna in it. Then place it before the LORD to be kept for the generations to come.”

Ex. 16:34 As the LORD commanded Moses, Aaron put the manna in front of the Testimony, that it might be kept.

Ex. 16:35 The Israelites ate manna for forty years, until they came to a land that was settled; they ate manna until they reached the border of Canaan.

Ex. 16:36 (An omer is one tenth of an ephah.)

CHAPTER 17

Ex. 17:1 The whole Israelite community set out from the Desert of Sin, travelling from place to place as the LORD commanded. They camped at Rephidim, but there was no water for the people to drink.

Ex. 17:2 So they quarrelled with Moses and said, “Give us water to drink.” Moses replied, “Why do you quarrel with me? Why do you put the LORD to the test?”

Ex. 17:3 But the people were thirsty for water there, and they grumbled against Moses. They said, “Why did you bring us up out of Egypt to make us and our children and livestock die of thirst?”

Ex. 17:4 Then Moses cried out to the LORD, “What am I to do with these people? They are almost ready to stone me.”
Ex. 17:5  The LORD answered Moses, “Walk on ahead of the people. Take with you some of the elders of Israel and take in your hand the staff with which you struck the Nile, and go.

Ex. 17:6  I will stand there before you by the rock at Horeb. Strike the rock, and water will come out of it for the people to drink.” So Moses did this in the sight of the elders of Israel.

Ex. 17:7  And he called the place Massah and Meribah because the Israelites quarrelled and because they tested the LORD saying, “Is the LORD among us or not?”

Ex. 17:8  The Amalekites came and attacked the Israelites at Rephidim.

Ex. 17:9  Moses said to Joshua, “Choose some of our men and go out to fight the Amalekites. Tomorrow I will stand on top of the hill with the staff of God in my hands.”

Ex. 17:10  So Joshua fought the Amalekites as Moses had ordered, and Moses, Aaron and Hur went to the top of the hill.

Ex. 17:11  As long as Moses held up his hands, the Israelites were winning, but whenever he lowered his hands, the Amalekites were winning.

Ex. 17:12  When Moses’ hands grew tired, they took a stone and put it under him and he sat on it. Aaron and Hur held his hands up — one on one side, one on the other — so that his hands remained steady till sunset.

Ex. 17:13  So Joshua overcame the Amalekite army with the sword.

Ex. 17:14  Then the LORD said to Moses, “Write this on a scroll as something to be remembered and make sure that Joshua hears it, because I will completely blot out the memory of Amalek from under heaven.”

Ex. 17:15  Moses built an altar and called it The LORD is my Banner.

Ex. 17:16  He said, “For hands were lifted up to the throne of the LORD. The LORD will be at war against the Amalekites from generation to generation.”
CHAPTER 18

Ex. 18:1 Now Jethro, the priest of Midian and father-in-law of Moses, heard of everything God had done for Moses and for his people Israel, and how the LORD had brought Israel out of Egypt.

Ex. 18:2 After Moses had sent away his wife Zipporah, his father-in-law Jethro received her and her two sons. One son was named Gershom, for Moses said, “I have become an alien in a foreign land”; and the other was named Eliezer, for he said, “My father’s God was my helper; he saved me from the sword of Pharaoh.”

Ex. 18:5 Jethro, Moses’ father-in-law, together with Moses’ sons and wife, came to him in the desert, where he was camped near the mountain of God.

Ex. 18:6 Jethro had sent word to him, “I, your father-in-law Jethro, am coming to you with your wife and her two sons.”

Ex. 18:7 So Moses went out to meet his father-in-law and bowed down and kissed him. They greeted each other and then went into the tent.

Ex. 18:8 Moses told his father-in-law about everything the LORD had done to Pharaoh and the Egyptians for Israel’s sake and about all the hardships they had met along the way and how the LORD had saved them.

Ex. 18:9 Jethro was delighted to hear about all the good things the LORD had done for Israel in rescuing them from the hand of the Egyptians.

Ex. 18:10 He said, “Praise be to the LORD, who rescued you from the hand of the Egyptians and of Pharaoh, and who rescued the people from the hand of the Egyptians.

Ex. 18:11 Now I know that the LORD is greater than all other gods, for he did this to those who had treated Israel arrogantly.”
Ex. 18:12 Then Jethro, Moses’ father-in-law, brought a burnt offering and other sacrifices to God, and Aaron came with all the elders of Israel to eat bread with Moses’ father-in-law in the presence of God.

Ex. 18:13 The next day Moses took his seat to serve as judge for the people, and they stood round him from morning till evening.

Ex. 18:14 When his father-in-law saw all that Moses was doing for the people, he said, “What is this you are doing for the people? Why do you alone sit as judge, while all these people stand round you from morning till evening?”

Ex. 18:15 Moses answered him, “Because the people come to me to seek God’s will.

Ex. 18:16 Whenever they have a dispute, it is brought to me, and I decide between the parties and inform them of God’s decrees and laws.”

Ex. 18:17 Moses’ father-in-law replied, “What you are doing is not good.

Ex. 18:18 You and these people who come to you will only wear yourselves out. The work is too heavy for you; you cannot handle it alone.

Ex. 18:19 Listen now to me and I will give you some advice, and may God be with you. You must be the people’s representative before God and bring their disputes to him.

Ex. 18:20 Teach them the decrees and laws, and show them the way to live and the duties they are to perform.

Ex. 18:21 But select capable men from all the people — men who fear God, trustworthy men who hate dishonest gain — and appoint them as officials over thousands, hundreds, fifties and tens.

Ex. 18:22 Have them serve as judges for the people at all times, but have them bring every difficult case to you; the simple cases they can decide themselves. That will make your load lighter, because they will share it with you.
Ex. 18:23 If you do this and God so commands, you will be able to stand the strain, and all these people will go home satisfied.”

Ex. 18:24 Moses listened to his father-in-law and did everything he said.

Ex. 18:25 He chose capable men from all Israel and made them leaders of the people, officials over thousands, hundreds, fifties and tens.

Ex. 18:26 They served as judges for the people at all times. The difficult cases they brought to Moses, but the simple ones they decided themselves.

Ex. 18:27 Then Moses sent his father-in-law on his way, and Jethro returned to his own country.

CHAPTER 19

Ex. 19:1 In the third month after the Israelites left Egypt — on the very day — they came to the Desert of Sinai.

Ex. 19:2 After they set out from Rephidim, they entered the Desert of Sinai, and Israel camped there in the desert in front of the mountain.

Ex. 19:3 Then Moses went up to God, and the LORD called to him from the mountain and said, “This is what you are to say to the house of Jacob and what you are to tell the people of Israel:

Ex. 19:4 ‘You yourselves have seen what I did to Egypt, and how I carried you on eagles’ wings and brought you to myself.

Ex. 19:5 Now if you obey me fully and keep my covenant, then out of all nations you will be my treasured possession. Although the whole earth is mine,

Ex. 19:6 you will be for me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation.’ These are the words you are to speak to the Israelites.”
Ex. 19:7 So Moses went back and summoned the elders of the people and set before them all the words the LORD had commanded him to speak.

Ex. 19:8 The people all responded together, “We will do everything the LORD has said.” So Moses brought their answer back to the LORD.

Ex. 19:9 The LORD said to Moses, “I am going to come to you in a dense cloud, so that the people will hear me speaking with you and will always put their trust in you.” Then Moses told the LORD what the people had said.

Ex. 19:10 And the LORD said to Moses, “Go to the people and consecrate them today and tomorrow. Make them wash their clothes and be ready by the third day, because on that day the LORD will come down on Mount Sinai in the sight of all the people.

Ex. 19:11 Put limits for the people around the mountain and tell them, ‘Be careful that you do not go up the mountain or touch the foot of it. Whoever touches the mountain shall surely be put to death.

Ex. 19:12 He shall surely be stoned or shot with arrows; not a hand is to be laid on him. Whether man or animal, he shall not be permitted to live.’ Only when the ram’s horn sounds a long blast may they go up to the mountain.”

Ex. 19:13 After Moses had gone down the mountain to the people, he consecrated them, and they washed their clothes.

Ex. 19:14 Then he said to the people, “Prepare yourselves for the third day. Abstain from sexual relations.”

Ex. 19:15 On the morning of the third day there was thunder and lightning, with a thick cloud over the mountain, and a very loud trumpet blast. Everyone in the camp trembled.

Ex. 19:16 Then Moses led the people out of the camp to meet with God, and they stood at the foot of the mountain.
Mount Sinai was covered with smoke, because the LORD descended on it in fire. The smoke billowed up from it like smoke from a furnace, the whole mountain trembled violently, and the sound of the trumpet grew louder and louder. Then Moses spoke and the voice of God answered him.

The LORD descended to the top of Mount Sinai and called Moses to the top of the mountain. So Moses went up and the LORD said to him, “Go down and warn the people so they do not force their way through to see the LORD and many of them perish.

Even the priests, who approach the LORD, must consecrate themselves, or the LORD will break out against them.”

Moses said to the LORD, “The people cannot come up Mount Sinai, because you yourself warned us, ‘Put limits around the mountain and set it apart as holy.’”

The LORD replied, “Go down and bring Aaron up with you. But the priests and the people must not force their way through to come up to the LORD, or he will break out against them.”

So Moses went down to the people and told them.

CHAPTER 20

And God spoke all these words:

“I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of Egypt, out of the land of slavery.

“You shall have no other gods before me.

“You shall not make for yourself an idol in the form of anything in heaven above or on the earth beneath or in the waters below.
Ex. 20:5 You shall not bow down to them or worship them; for I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God, punishing the children for the sin of the fathers to the third and fourth generation of those who hate me,

Ex. 20:6 but showing love to a thousand generations of those who love me and keep my commandments.

Ex. 20:7 “You shall not misuse the name of the LORD your God, for the LORD will not hold anyone guiltless who misuses his name.

Ex. 20:8 “Remember the Sabbath day by keeping it holy.

Ex. 20:9 Six days you shall labour and do all your work,

Ex. 20:10 but the seventh day is a Sabbath to the LORD your God. On it you shall not do any work, neither you, nor your son or daughter, nor your manservant or maidservant, nor your animals, nor the alien within your gates.

Ex. 20:11 For in six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, the sea, and all that is in them, but he rested on the seventh day. Therefore the LORD blessed the Sabbath day and made it holy.

Ex. 20:12 “Honour your father and your mother, so that you may live long in the land the LORD your God is giving you.

Ex. 20:13 “You shall not murder.

Ex. 20:14 “You shall not commit adultery.

Ex. 20:15 “You shall not steal.

Ex. 20:16 “You shall not give false testimony against your neighbour.

Ex. 20:17 “You shall not covet your neighbour’s house. You shall not covet your neighbour’s wife, or his manservant or maidservant, his ox or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbour.”

Ex. 20:18 When the people saw the thunder and lightning and heard the trumpet and saw the mountain in smoke, they trembled with fear. They stayed at a distance
Ex. 20:19 and said to Moses, “Speak to us yourself and we will listen. But do not have God speak to us or we will die.”

Ex. 20:20 Moses said to the people, “Do not be afraid. God has come to test you, so that the fear of God will be with you to keep you from sinning.”

Ex. 20:21 The people remained at a distance, while Moses approached the thick darkness where God was.

Ex. 20:22 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Tell the Israelites this: ‘You have seen for yourselves that I have spoken to you from heaven:

Ex. 20:23 Do not make any gods to be alongside me; do not make for yourselves gods of silver or gods of gold.

Ex. 20:24 “Make an altar of earth for me and sacrifice on it your burnt offerings and fellowship offerings, your sheep and goats and your cattle. Wherever I cause my name to be honoured, I will come to you and bless you.

Ex. 20:25 If you make an altar of stones for me, do not build it with dressed stones, for you will defile it if you use a tool on it.

Ex. 20:26 And do not go up to my altar on steps, lest your nakedness be exposed on it.’

CHAPTER 21

Ex. 21:1 “These are the laws you are to set before them:

Ex. 21:2 “If you buy a Hebrew servant, he is to serve you for six years. But in the seventh year, he shall go free, without paying anything.

Ex. 21:3 If he comes alone, he is to go free alone; but if he has a wife when he comes, she is to go with him.

Ex. 21:4 If his master gives him a wife and she bears him sons or daughters, the woman and her children shall belong to her master, and only the man shall go free.
Ex. 21:5 “But if the servant declares, ‘I love my master and my wife and children and do not want to go free, ’

Ex. 21:6 then his master must take him before the judges. He shall take him to the door or the door-post and pierce his ear with an awl. Then he will be his servant for life.

Ex. 21:7 “If a man sells his daughter as a servant, she is not to go free as menservants do.

Ex. 21:8 If she does not please the master who has selected her for himself, he must let her be redeemed. He has no right to sell her to foreigners, because he has broken faith with her.

Ex. 21:9 If he selects her for his son, he must grant her the rights of a daughter.

Ex. 21:10 If he marries another woman, he must not deprive the first one of her food, clothing and marital rights.

Ex. 21:11 If he does not provide her with these three things, she is to go free, without any payment of money.

Ex. 21:12 “Anyone who strikes a man and kills him shall surely be put to death.

Ex. 21:13 However, if he does not do it intentionally, but God lets it happen, he is to flee to a place I will designate.

Ex. 21:14 But if a man schemes and kills another man deliberately, take him away from my altar and put him to death.

Ex. 21:15 “Anyone who attacks his father or his mother must be put to death.

Ex. 21:16 “Anyone who kidnaps another and either sells him or still has him when he is caught must be put to death.

Ex. 21:17 “Anyone who curses his father or mother must be put to death.

Ex. 21:18 “If men quarrel and one hits the other with a stone or with his fist and he does not die but is confined to bed,
Ex. 21:19 the one who struck the blow will not be held responsible if the other gets up and walks around outside with his staff; however, he must pay the injured man for the loss of his time and see that he is completely healed.

Ex. 21:20 “If a man beats his male or female slave with a rod and the slave dies as a direct result, he must be punished, but he is not to be punished if the slave gets up after a day or two, since the slave is his property.

Ex. 21:22 “If men who are fighting hit a pregnant woman and she gives birth prematurely but there is no serious injury, the offender must be fined whatever the woman’s husband demands and the court allows.

Ex. 21:23 But if there is serious injury, you are to take life for life,

Ex. 21:24 eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot,

Ex. 21:25 burn for burn, wound for wound, bruise for bruise.

Ex. 21:26 “If a man hits a manservant or maidservant in the eye and destroys it, he must let the servant go free to compensate for the eye.

Ex. 21:27 And if he knocks out the tooth of a manservant or maidservant, he must let the servant go free to compensate for the tooth.

Ex. 21:28 “If a bull gores a man or a woman to death, the bull must be stoned to death, and its meat must not be eaten. But the owner of the bull will not be held responsible.

Ex. 21:29 If, however, the bull has had the habit of goring and the owner has been warned but has not kept it penned up and it kills a man or woman, the bull must be stoned and the owner also must be put to death.

Ex. 21:30 However, if payment is demanded of him, he may redeem his life by paying whatever is demanded.

Ex. 21:31 This law also applies if the bull goes a son or a daughter.
Ex. 21:32 If the bull gores a male or female slave, the owner must pay thirty shekels of silver to the master of the slave, and the bull must be stoned.

Ex. 21:33 “If a man uncovers a pit or digs one and fails to cover it and an ox or a donkey falls into it,

Ex. 21:34 the owner of the pit must pay for the loss; he must pay its owner, and the dead animal will be his.

Ex. 21:35 “If a man’s bull injures the bull of another and it dies, they are to sell the live one and divide both the money and the dead animal equally.

Ex. 21:36 However, if it was known that the bull had the habit of goring, yet the owner did not keep it penned up, the owner must pay, animal for animal, and the dead animal will be his.

CHAPTER 22

Ex. 22:1 “If a man steals an ox or a sheep and slaughters it or sells it, he must pay back five head of cattle for the ox and four sheep for the sheep.

Ex. 22:2 “If a thief is caught breaking in and is struck so that he dies, the defender is not guilty of bloodshed;

Ex. 22:3 but if it happens after sunrise, he is guilty of bloodshed. “A thief must certainly make restitution, but if he has nothing, he must be sold to pay for his theft.

Ex. 22:4 “If the stolen animal is found alive in his possession — whether ox or donkey or sheep — he must pay back double.

Ex. 22:5 “If a man grazes his livestock in a field or vineyard and lets them stray and they graze in another man’s field, he must make restitution from the best of his own field or vineyard.

Ex. 22:6 “If a fire breaks out and spreads into thornbushes so that it burns shocks of grain or standing corn or the whole field, the one who started the fire must make restitution.
Ex. 22:7 “If a man gives his neighbour silver or goods for safekeeping and they are stolen from the neighbour’s house, the thief, if he is caught, must pay back double.

Ex. 22:8 But if the thief is not found, the owner of the house must appear before the judges to determine whether he has laid his hands on the other man’s property.

Ex. 22:9 In all cases of illegal possession of an ox, a donkey, a sheep, a garment, or any other lost property about which somebody says, ‘This is mine,’ both parties are to bring their cases before the judges. The one whom the judges declare guilty must pay back double to his neighbour.

Ex. 22:10 “If a man gives a donkey, an ox, a sheep or any other animal to his neighbour for safekeeping and it dies or is injured or is taken away while no-one is looking,

Ex. 22:11 the issue between them will be settled by the taking of an oath before the LORD that the neighbour did not lay hands on the other person’s property. The owner is to accept this, and no restitution is required.

Ex. 22:12 But if the animal was stolen from the neighbour, he must make restitution to the owner.

Ex. 22:13 If it was torn to pieces by a wild animal, he shall bring in the remains as evidence and he will not be required to pay for the torn animal.

Ex. 22:14 “If a man borrows an animal from his neighbour and it is injured or dies while the owner is not present, he must make restitution.

Ex. 22:15 But if the owner is with the animal, the borrower will not have to pay. If the animal was hired, the money paid for the hire covers the loss.

Ex. 22:16 “If a man seduces a virgin who is not pledged to be married and sleeps with her, he must pay the bride-price, and she shall be his wife.
Ex. 22:17 If her father absolutely refuses to give her to him, he must still pay the bride-price for virgins.

Ex. 22:18 "Do not allow a sorceress to live.

Ex. 22:19 "Anyone who has sexual relations with an animal must be put to death.

Ex. 22:20 "Whoever sacrifices to any god other than the LORD must be destroyed.

Ex. 22:21 "Do not ill-treat an alien or oppress him, for you were aliens in Egypt.

Ex. 22:22 "Do not take advantage of a widow or an orphan.

Ex. 22:23 If you do and they cry out to me, I will certainly hear their cry.

Ex. 22:24 My anger will be aroused, and I will kill you with the sword; your wives will become widows and your children fatherless.

Ex. 22:25 "If you lend money to one of my people among you who is needy, do not be like a money-lender; charge him no interest.

Ex. 22:26 If you take your neighbour’s cloak as a pledge, return it to him by sunset,

Ex. 22:27 because his cloak is the only covering he has for his body. What else will he sleep in? When he cries out to me, I will hear, for I am compassionate.

Ex. 22:28 "Do not blaspheme God or curse the ruler of your people.

Ex. 22:29 "Do not hold back offerings from your granaries or your vats. “You must give me the firstborn of your sons.

Ex. 22:30 Do the same with your cattle and your sheep. Let them stay with their mothers for seven days, but give them to me on the eighth day.

Ex. 22:31 “You are to be my holy people. So do not eat the meat of an animal torn by wild beasts; throw it to the dogs.
CHAPTER 23

Ex. 23:1 “Do not spread false reports. Do not help a wicked man by being a malicious witness.

Ex. 23:2 “Do not follow the crowd in doing wrong. When you give testimony in a lawsuit, do not pervert justice by siding with the crowd,

Ex. 23:3 and do not show favouritism to a poor man in his lawsuit.

Ex. 23:4 “If you come across your enemy’s ox or donkey wandering off, be sure to take it back to him.

Ex. 23:5 If you see the donkey of someone who hates you fallen down under its load, do not leave it there; be sure you help him with it.

Ex. 23:6 “Do not deny justice to your poor people in their lawsuits.

Ex. 23:7 Have nothing to do with a false charge and do not put an innocent or honest person to death, for I will not acquit the guilty.

Ex. 23:8 “Do not accept a bribe, for a bribe blinds those who see and twists the words of the righteous.

Ex. 23:9 “Do not oppress an alien; you yourselves know how it feels to be aliens, because you were aliens in Egypt.

Ex. 23:10 “For six years you are to sow your fields and harvest the crops,

Ex. 23:11 but during the seventh year let the land lie unploughed and unused. Then the poor among your people may get food from it, and the wild animals may eat what they leave. Do the same with your vineyard and your olive grove.

Ex. 23:12 “Six days do your work, but on the seventh day do not work, so that your ox and your donkey may rest and the slave born in your household, and the alien as well, may be refreshed.
Ex. 23:13 “Be careful to do everything I have said to you. Do not invoke the names of other gods; do not let them be heard on your lips.

Ex. 23:14 “Three times a year you are to celebrate a festival to me.

Ex. 23:15 “Celebrate the Feast of Unleavened Bread; for seven days eat bread made without yeast, as I commanded you. Do this at the appointed time in the month of Abib, for in that month you came out of Egypt. “No-one is to appear before me empty-handed.

Ex. 23:16 “Three times a year all the men are to appear before the Sovereign LORD.

Ex. 23:17 “Celebrate the Feast of Harvest with the firstfruits of the crops you sow in your field. “Celebrate the Feast of Ingathering at the end of the year, when you gather in your crops from the field.

Ex. 23:18 “Do not offer the blood of a sacrifice to me along with anything containing yeast. “The fat of my festival offerings must not be kept until morning.

Ex. 23:19 “Bring the best of the firstfruits of your soil to the house of the LORD your God. “Do not cook a young goat in its mother’s milk.

Ex. 23:20 Pay attention to him and listen to what he says. Do not rebel against him; he will not forgive your rebellion, since my Name is in him.

Ex. 23:21 If you listen carefully to what he says and do all that I say, I will be an enemy to your enemies and will oppose those who oppose you.

Ex. 23:22 My angel will go ahead of you and bring you into the land of the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Canaanites, Hivites and Jebusites, and I will wipe them out.
Ex. 23:24 Do not bow down before their gods or worship them or follow their practices. You must demolish them and break their sacred stones to pieces.

Ex. 23:25 Worship the LORD your God, and his blessing will be on your food and water. I will take away sickness from among you, and none will miscarry or be barren in your land. I will give you a full life span.

Ex. 23:27 “I will send my terror ahead of you and throw into confusion every nation you encounter. I will make all your enemies turn their backs and run.

Ex. 23:28 I will send the hornet ahead of you to drive the Hivites, Canaanites and Hittites out of your way.

Ex. 23:29 But I will not drive them out in a single year, because the land would become desolate and the wild animals too numerous for you.

Ex. 23:30 Little by little I will drive them out before you, until you have increased enough to take possession of the land.

Ex. 23:31 “I will establish your borders from the Red Sea to the Sea of the Philistines, and from the desert to the River. I will hand over to you the people who live in the land and you will drive them out before you.

Ex. 23:32 Do not make a covenant with them or with their gods.

Ex. 23:33 Do not let them live in your land, or they will cause you to sin against me, because the worship of their gods will certainly be a snare to you.”

CHAPTER 24

Ex. 24:1 Then he said to Moses, “Come up to the LORD, you and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel. You are to worship at a distance, Ex. 24:2 but Moses alone is to approach the LORD; the others must not come near. And the people may not come up with him.”

Ex. 24:3 When Moses went and told the people all the LORD’s words and laws, they responded with one voice, “Everything the LORD has said we will do.”

Ex. 24:4 Moses then wrote down everything the LORD had said. He got up early the next morning and built an altar at the foot of the mountain and set up twelve stone pillars representing the twelve tribes of Israel.

Ex. 24:5 Then he sent young Israelite men, and they offered burnt offerings and sacrificed young bulls as fellowship offerings to the LORD.

Ex. 24:6 Moses took half of the blood and put it in bowls, and the other half he sprinkled on the altar.

Ex. 24:7 Then he took the Book of the Covenant and read it to the people. They responded, “We will do everything the LORD has said; we will obey.”

Ex. 24:8 Moses then took the blood, sprinkled it on the people and said, “This is the blood of the covenant that the LORD has made with you in accordance with all these words.”

Ex. 24:9 Moses and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and the seventy elders of Israel went up

Ex. 24:10 and saw the God of Israel. Under his feet was something like a pavement made of sapphire, clear as the sky itself.

Ex. 24:11 But God did not raise his hand against these leaders of the Israelites; they saw God, and they ate and drank.

Ex. 24:12 The LORD said to Moses, “Come up to me on the mountain and stay here, and I will give you the tablets of stone, with the law and commands I have written for their instruction.”

Ex. 24:13 Then Moses set out with Joshua his assistant, and Moses went up on the mountain of God.
Ex. 24:14 He said to the elders, “Wait here for us until we come back to you. Aaron and Hur are with you, and anyone involved in a dispute can go to them.”

Ex. 24:15 When Moses went up on the mountain, the cloud covered it, and the glory of the LORD settled on Mount Sinai. For six days the cloud covered the mountain, and on the seventh day the LORD called to Moses from within the cloud.

Ex. 24:17 To the Israelites the glory of the LORD looked like a consuming fire on top of the mountain.

Ex. 24:18 Then Moses entered the cloud as he went on up the mountain. And he stayed on the mountain forty days and forty nights.

CHAPTER 25

Ex. 25:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Ex. 25:2 “Tell the Israelites to bring me an offering. You are to receive the offering for me from each man whose heart prompts him to give.

Ex. 25:3 These are the offerings you are to receive from them: gold, silver and bronze;

Ex. 25:4 blue, purple and scarlet yarn and fine linen; goat hair;

Ex. 25:5 ram skins dyed red and hides of sea cows; acacia wood;

Ex. 25:6 olive oil for the light; spices for the anointing oil and for the fragrant incense;

Ex. 25:7 and onyx stones and other gems to be mounted on the ephod and breastpiece.

Ex. 25:8 “Then have them make a sanctuary for me, and I will dwell among them.

Ex. 25:9 Make this tabernacle and all its furnishings exactly like the pattern I will show you.
Ex. 25:10 “Have them make a chest of acacia wood — two and a half cubits long, a cubit and a half wide, and a cubit and a half high.

Ex. 25:11 Overlay it with pure gold, both inside and out, and make a gold moulding around it.

Ex. 25:12 Cast four gold rings for it and fasten them to its four feet, with two rings on one side and two rings on the other.

Ex. 25:13 Then make poles of acacia wood and overlay them with gold.

Ex. 25:14 Insert the poles into the rings on the sides of the chest to carry it.

Ex. 25:15 The poles are to remain in the rings of this ark; they are not to be removed.

Ex. 25:16 Then put in the ark the Testimony, which I will give you.

Ex. 25:17 “Make an atonement cover of pure gold — two and a half cubits long and a cubit and a half wide.

Ex. 25:18 And make two cherubim out of hammerd gold at the ends of the cover.

Ex. 25:19 Make one cherub on one end and the second cherub on the other; make the cherubim of one piece with the cover, at the two ends.

Ex. 25:20 The cherubim are to have their wings spread upwards, overshadowing the cover with them. The cherubim are to face each other, looking towards the cover.

Ex. 25:21 Place the cover on top of the ark and put in the ark the Testimony, which I will give you.

Ex. 25:22 There, above the cover between the two cherubim that are over the ark of the Testimony, I will meet with you and give you all my commands for the Israelites.

Ex. 25:23 “Make a table of acacia wood — two cubits long, a cubit wide and a cubit and a half high.
Overlay it with pure gold and make a gold moulding around it.

Also make around it a rim a handbreadth wide and put a gold moulding on the rim.

Make four gold rings for the table and fasten them to the four corners, where the four legs are.

The rings are to be close to the rim to hold the poles used in carrying the table.

Make the poles of acacia wood, overlay them with gold and carry the table with them.

And make its plates and dishes of pure gold, as well as its pitchers and bowls for the pouring out of offerings.

Put the bread of the Presence on this table to be before me at all times.

“Make a lampstand of pure gold and hammer it out, base and shaft; its flowerlike cups, buds and blossoms shall be of one piece with it.

Six branches are to extend from the sides of the lampstand — three on one side and three on the other.

Three cups shaped like almond flowers with buds and blossoms are to be on one branch, three on the next branch, and the same for all six branches extending from the lampstand.

And on the lampstand there are to be four cups shaped like almond flowers with buds and blossoms.

One bud shall be under the first pair of branches extending from the lampstand, a second bud under the second pair, and a third bud under the third pair — six branches in all.

The buds and branches shall all be of one piece with the lampstand, hammered out of pure gold.

“Then make its seven lamps and set them up on it so that they light the space in front of it.
Ex. 25:38 Its wick trimmers and trays are to be of pure gold.
Ex. 25:39 A talent of pure gold is to be used for the lampstand and all these accessories.
Ex. 25:40 See that you make them according to the pattern shown you on the mountain.

CHAPTER 26

Ex. 26:1 “Make the tabernacle with ten curtains of finely twisted linen and blue, purple and scarlet yarn, with cherubim worked into them by a skilled craftsman.
Ex. 26:2 All the curtains are to be the same size — twenty-eight cubits long and four cubits wide.
Ex. 26:3 Join five of the curtains together, and do the same with the other five.
Ex. 26:4 Make loops of blue material along the edge of the end curtain in one set, and do the same with the end curtain in the other set.
Ex. 26:5 Make fifty loops on one curtain and fifty loops on the end curtain of the other set, with the loops opposite each other.
Ex. 26:6 Then make fifty gold clasps and use them to fasten the curtains together so that the tabernacle is a unit.
Ex. 26:7 “Make curtains of goat hair for the tent over the tabernacle — eleven altogether.
Ex. 26:8 All eleven curtains are to be the same size — thirty cubits long and four cubits wide.
Ex. 26:9 Join five of the curtains together into one set and the other six into another set. Fold the sixth curtain double at the front of the tent.
Ex. 26:10 Make fifty loops along the edge of the end curtain in one set and also along the edge of the end curtain in the other set.
Ex. 26:11 Then make fifty bronze clasps and put them in the loops to fasten the tent together as a unit.

Ex. 26:12 As for the additional length of the tent curtains, the half curtain that is left over is to hang down at the rear of the tabernacle.

Ex. 26:13 The tent curtains will be a cubit longer on both sides; what is left will hang over the sides of the tabernacle so as to cover it.

Ex. 26:14 Make for the tent a covering of ram skins dyed red, and over that a covering of hides of sea cows.

Ex. 26:15 “Make upright frames of acacia wood for the tabernacle.

Ex. 26:16 Each frame is to be ten cubits long and a cubit and a half wide,

Ex. 26:17 with two projections set parallel to each other. Make all the frames of the tabernacle in this way.

Ex. 26:18 Make twenty frames for the south side of the tabernacle

Ex. 26:19 and make forty silver bases to go under them — two bases for each frame, one under each projection.

Ex. 26:20 For the other side, the north side of the tabernacle, make twenty frames

Ex. 26:21 and forty silver bases — two under each frame.

Ex. 26:22 Make six frames for the far end, that is, the west end of the tabernacle,

Ex. 26:23 and make two frames for the corners at the far end.

Ex. 26:24 At these two corners they must be double from the bottom all the way to the top, and fitted into a single ring; both shall be like that.

Ex. 26:25 So there will be eight frames and sixteen silver bases — two under each frame.

Ex. 26:26 “Also make crossbars of acacia wood: five for the frames on one side of the tabernacle,
Ex. 26:27 five for those on the other side, and five for the frames on the west, at the far end of the tabernacle.

Ex. 26:28 The centre crossbar is to extend from end to end at the middle of the frames.

Ex. 26:29 Overlay the frames with gold and make gold rings to hold the crossbars. Also overlay the crossbars with gold.

Ex. 26:30 “Set up the tabernacle according to the plan shown you on the mountain.

Ex. 26:31 “Make a curtain of blue, purple and scarlet yarn and finely twisted linen, with cherubim worked into it by a skilled craftsman.

Ex. 26:32 Hang it with gold hooks on four posts of acacia wood overlaid with gold and standing on four silver bases.

Ex. 26:33 Hang the curtain from the clasps and place the ark of the Testimony behind the curtain. The curtain will separate the Holy Place from the Most Holy Place.

Ex. 26:34 Put the atonement cover on the ark of the Testimony in the Most Holy Place.

Ex. 26:35 Place the table outside the curtain on the north side of the tabernacle and put the lampstand opposite it on the south side.

Ex. 26:36 “For the entrance to the tent make a curtain of blue, purple and scarlet yarn and finely twisted linen — the work of an embroiderer.

Ex. 26:37 Make gold hooks for this curtain and five posts of acacia wood overlaid with gold. And cast five bronze bases for them.

CHAPTER 27

Ex. 27:1 “Build an altar of acacia wood, three cubits high; it is to be square, five cubits long and five cubits wide.
Ex. 27:2 Make a horn at each of the four corners, so that the horns and the altar are of one piece, and overlay the altar with bronze.

Ex. 27:3 Make all its utensils of bronze — its pots to remove the ashes, and its shovels, sprinkling bowls, meat forks and firepans.

Ex. 27:4 Make a grating for it, a bronze network, and make a bronze ring at each of the four corners of the network.

Ex. 27:5 Put it under the ledge of the altar so that it is halfway up the altar.

Ex. 27:6 Make poles of acacia wood for the altar and overlay them with bronze.

Ex. 27:7 The poles are to be inserted into the rings so they will be on two sides of the altar when it is carried.

Ex. 27:8 Make the altar hollow, out of boards. It is to be made just as you were shown on the mountain.

Ex. 27:9 “Make a courtyard for the tabernacle. The south side shall be a hundred cubits long and is to have curtains of finely twisted linen,

Ex. 27:10 with twenty posts and twenty bronze bases and with silver hooks and bands on the posts.

Ex. 27:11 The north side shall also be a hundred cubits long and is to have curtains, with twenty posts and twenty bronze bases and with silver hooks and bands on the posts.

Ex. 27:12 “The west end of the courtyard shall be fifty cubits wide and have curtains, with ten posts and ten bases.

Ex. 27:13 On the east end, towards the sunrise, the courtyard shall also be fifty cubits wide.

Ex. 27:14 Curtains fifteen cubits long are to be on one side of the entrance, with three posts and three bases,

Ex. 27:15 and curtains fifteen cubits long are to be on the other side, with three posts and three bases.
Ex. 27:16 “For the entrance to the courtyard, provide a curtain twenty cubits long, of blue, purple and scarlet yarn and finely twisted linen — the work of an embroiderer — with four posts and four bases.

Ex. 27:17 All the posts around the courtyard are to have silver bands and hooks, and bronze bases.

Ex. 27:18 The courtyard shall be a hundred cubits long and fifty cubits wide, with curtains of finely twisted linen five cubits high, and with bronze bases.

Ex. 27:19 All the other articles used in the service of the tabernacle, whatever their function, including all the tent pegs for it and those for the courtyard, are to be of bronze.

Ex. 27:20 “Command the Israelites to bring you clear oil of pressed olives for the light so that the lamps may be kept burning.

Ex. 27:21 In the Tent of Meeting, outside the curtain that is in front of the Testimony, Aaron and his sons are to keep the lamps burning before the LORD from evening till morning. This is to be a lasting ordinance among the Israelites for the generations to come.

CHAPTER 28

Ex. 28:1 “Have Aaron your brother brought to you from among the Israelites, with his sons Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar, so that they may serve me as priests.

Ex. 28:2 Make sacred garments for your brother Aaron, to give him dignity and honour.

Ex. 28:3 Tell all the skilled men to whom I have given wisdom in such matters that they are to make garments for Aaron, for his consecration, so that he may serve me as priest.

Ex. 28:4 These are the garments they are to make: a breastpiece, an ephod, a robe, a woven tunic, a turban and a sash. They are to make these sacred garments for your brother Aaron and his sons, so that they may serve me as priests.

Ex. 28:5 Make them use gold, and blue, purple and scarlet yarn, and fine linen.

Ex. 28:6 “Make the ephod of gold, and of blue, purple and scarlet yarn, and of finely twisted linen — the work of a skilled craftsman.

Ex. 28:7 It is to have two shoulder pieces attached to two of its corners, so that it can be fastened.

Ex. 28:8 Its skillfully woven waistband is to be like it — of one piece with the ephod and made with gold, and with blue, purple and scarlet yarn, and with finely twisted linen.

Ex. 28:9 “Take two onyx stones and engrave on them the names of the sons of Israel in the order of their birth — six names on one stone and the remaining six on the other.

Ex. 28:10 Engrave the names of the sons of Israel on the two stones the way a gem cutter engraves a seal. Then mount the stones in gold filigree settings and fasten them on the shoulder pieces of the ephod as memorial stones for the sons of Israel. Aaron is to bear the names on his shoulders as a memorial before the LORD.

Ex. 28:11 Make gold filigree settings and two braided chains of pure gold, like a rope, and attach the chains to the settings.

Ex. 28:12 “Fashion a breastpiece for making decisions — the work of a skilled craftsman. Make it like the ephod: of gold, and of blue, purple and scarlet yarn, and of finely twisted linen.

Ex. 28:13 It is to be square — a span long and a span wide — and folded double.

Ex. 28:14 Then mount four rows of precious stones on it. In the first row there shall be a ruby, a topaz and a beryl;
Ex. 28:18 in the second row a turquoise, a sapphire and an emerald;

Ex. 28:19 in the third row a jacinth, an agate and an amethyst;

Ex. 28:20 in the fourth row a chrysolite, an onyx and a jasper. Mount them in gold filigree settings.

Ex. 28:21 There are to be twelve stones, one for each of the names of the sons of Israel, each engraved like a seal with the name of one of the twelve tribes.

Ex. 28:22 “For the breastpiece make braided chains of pure gold, like a rope.

Ex. 28:23 Make two gold rings for it and fasten them to two corners of the breastpiece.

Ex. 28:24 Fasten the two gold chains to the rings at the corners of the breastpiece,

Ex. 28:25 and the other ends of the chains to the two settings, attaching them to the shoulder pieces of the ephod at the front.

Ex. 28:26 Make two gold rings and attach them to the other two corners of the breastpiece on the inside edge next to the ephod.

Ex. 28:27 Make two more gold rings and attach them to the bottom of the shoulder pieces on the front of the ephod, close to the seam just above the waistband of the ephod.

Ex. 28:28 The rings of the breastpiece are to be tied to the rings of the ephod with blue cord, connecting it to the waistband, so that the breastpiece will not swing out from the ephod.

Ex. 28:29 “Whenever Aaron enters the Holy Place, he will bear the names of the sons of Israel over his heart on the breastpiece of decision as a continuing memorial before the LORD.

Ex. 28:30 Also put the Urim and the Thummim in the breastpiece, so they may be over Aaron’s heart whenever he enters the presence of the LORD. Thus Aaron will always bear the means of making decisions for the Israelites over his heart before the LORD.
Ex. 28:31 “Make the robe of the ephod entirely of blue cloth,

Ex. 28:32 with an opening for the head in its centre. There shall be a woven edge like a collar around this opening, so that it will not tear.

Ex. 28:33 Make pomegranates of blue, purple and scarlet yarn around the hem of the robe, with gold bells between them.

Ex. 28:34 The gold bells and the pomegranates are to alternate around the hem of the robe.

Ex. 28:35 Aaron must wear it when he ministers. The sound of the bells will be heard when he enters the Holy Place before the LORD and when he comes out, so that he will not die.

Ex. 28:36 “Make a plate of pure gold and engrave on it as on a seal: HOLY TO THE LORD.

Ex. 28:37 Fasten a blue cord to it to attach it to the turban; it is to be on the front of the turban.

Ex. 28:38 It will be on Aaron’s forehead, and he will bear the guilt involved in the sacred gifts the Israelites consecrate, whatever their gifts may be. It will be on Aaron’s forehead continually so that they will be acceptable to the LORD.

Ex. 28:39 “Weave the tunic of fine linen and make the turban of fine linen. The sash is to be the work of an embroiderer.

Ex. 28:40 Make tunics, sashes and headbands for Aaron’s sons, to give them dignity and honour.

Ex. 28:41 After you put these clothes on your brother Aaron and his sons, anoint and ordain them. Consecrate them so they may serve me as priests.

Ex. 28:42 “Make linen undergarments as a covering for the body, reaching from the waist to the thigh.

Ex. 28:43 Aaron and his sons must wear them whenever they enter the Tent of Meeting or approach the altar to minister in the Holy Place, so that they will not incur guilt and die. “This is to be a lasting ordinance for Aaron and his descendants.
Ex. 29:1 “This is what you are to do to consecrate them, so that they may serve me as priests: Take a young bull and two rams without defect.

Ex. 29:2 And from fine wheat flour, without yeast, make bread, and cakes mixed with oil, and wafers spread with oil.

Ex. 29:3 Put them in a basket and present them in it — along with the bull and the two rams.

Ex. 29:4 Then bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance to the Tent of Meeting and wash them with water.

Ex. 29:5 Take the garments and dress Aaron with the tunic, the robe of the ephod, the ephod itself and the breastpiece. Fasten the ephod on him by its skilfully woven waistband.

Ex. 29:6 Put the turban on his head and attach the sacred diadem to the turban.

Ex. 29:7 Take the anointing oil and anoint him by pouring it on his head.

Ex. 29:8 Bring his sons and dress them in tunics

Ex. 29:9 and put headbands on them. Then tie sashes on Aaron and his sons. The priesthood is theirs by a lasting ordinance. In this way you shall ordain Aaron and his sons.

Ex. 29:10 “Bring the bull to the front of the Tent of Meeting, and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on its head.

Ex. 29:11 Slaughter it in the LORD’s presence at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Ex. 29:12 Take some of the bull’s blood and put it on the horns of the altar with your finger, and pour out the rest of it at the base of the altar.

Ex. 29:13 Then take all the fat around the inner parts, the covering of the liver, and both kidneys with the fat on them, and burn them on the altar.
Ex. 29:14 But burn the bull’s flesh and its hide and its offal outside the camp. It is a sin offering.

Ex. 29:15 “Take one of the rams, and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on its head.

Ex. 29:16 Slaughter it and take the blood and sprinkle it against the altar on all sides.

Ex. 29:17 Cut the ram into pieces and wash the inner parts and the legs, putting them with the head and the other pieces.

Ex. 29:18 Then burn the entire ram on the altar. It is a burnt offering to the LORD, a pleasing aroma, an offering made to the LORD by fire.

Ex. 29:19 “Take the other ram, and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on its head.

Ex. 29:20 Slaughter it, take some of its blood and put it on the lobes of the right ears of Aaron and his sons, on the thumbs of their right hands, and on the big toes of their right feet. Then sprinkle blood against the altar on all sides.

Ex. 29:21 And take some of the blood on the altar and some of the anointing oil and sprinkle it on Aaron and his garments and on his sons and their garments. Then he and his sons and their garments will be consecrated.

Ex. 29:22 “Take from this ram the fat, the fat tail, the fat around the inner parts, the covering of the liver, both kidneys with the fat on them, and the right thigh. (This is the ram for the ordination.)

Ex. 29:23 From the basket of bread made without yeast, which is before the LORD, take a loaf, and a cake made with oil, and a wafer.

Ex. 29:24 Put all these in the hands of Aaron and his sons and wave them before the LORD as a wave offering.

Ex. 29:25 Then take them from their hands and burn them on the altar along with the burnt offering for a pleasing aroma to the LORD, an offering made to the LORD by fire.
Ex. 29:26 After you take the breast of the ram for Aaron’s ordination, wave it before the LORD as a wave offering, and it will be your share.

Ex. 29:27 “Consecrate those parts of the ordination ram that belong to Aaron and his sons: the breast that was waved and the thigh that was presented.

Ex. 29:28 This is always to be the regular share from the Israelites for Aaron and his sons. It is the contribution the Israelites are to make to the LORD from their fellowship offerings.

Ex. 29:29 “Aaron’s sacred garments will belong to his descendants so that they can be anointed and ordained in them.

Ex. 29:30 The son who succeeds him as priest and comes to the Tent of Meeting to minister in the Holy Place is to wear them seven days.

Ex. 29:31 “Take the ram for the ordination and cook the meat in a sacred place.

Ex. 29:32 At the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, Aaron and his sons are to eat the meat of the ram and the bread that is in the basket.

Ex. 29:33 They are to eat these offerings by which atonement was made for their ordination and consecration. But no-one else may eat them, because they are sacred.

Ex. 29:34 And if any of the meat of the ordination ram or any bread is left over till morning, burn it up. It must not be eaten, because it is sacred.

Ex. 29:35 “Do for Aaron and his sons everything I have commanded you, taking seven days to ordain them.

Ex. 29:36 Sacrifice a bull each day as a sin offering to make atonement. Purify the altar by making atonement for it, and anoint it to consecrate it.

Ex. 29:37 For seven days make atonement for the altar and consecrate it. Then the altar will be most holy, and whatever touches it will be holy.
Ex. 29:38 “This is what you are to offer on the altar regularly each day: two lambs a year old.

Ex. 29:39 Offer one in the morning and the other at twilight.

Ex. 29:40 With the first lamb offer a tenth of an ephah of fine flour mixed with a quarter of a hin of oil from pressed olives, and a quarter of a hin of wine as a drink offering.

Ex. 29:41 Sacrifice the other lamb at twilight with the same grain offering and its drink offering as in the morning — a pleasing aroma, an offering made to the LORD by fire.

Ex. 29:42 “For the generations to come this burnt offering is to be made regularly at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting before the LORD. There I will meet you and speak to you; there also I will meet with the Israelites, and the place will be consecrated by my glory.

Ex. 29:43 Then I will dwell among the Israelites and be their God.

Ex. 29:44 They will know that I am the LORD their God, who brought them out of Egypt so that I might dwell among them. I am the LORD their God.

CHAPTER 30

Ex. 30:1 “Make an altar of acacia wood for burning incense.

Ex. 30:2 It is to be square, a cubit long and a cubit wide, and two cubits high — its horns of one piece with it.

Ex. 30:3 Overlay the top and all the sides and the horns with pure gold, and make a gold moulding around it.

Ex. 30:4 Make two gold rings for the altar below the moulding — two on opposite sides — to hold the poles used to carry it.

Ex. 30:5 Make the poles of acacia wood and overlay them with gold.
Ex. 30:6  Put the altar in front of the curtain that is before the ark of the Testimony — before the atonement cover that is over the Testimony — where I will meet with you.

Ex. 30:7  “Aaron must burn fragrant incense on the altar every morning when he tends the lamps.

Ex. 30:8  He must burn incense again when he lights the lamps at twilight so that incense will burn regularly before the LORD for the generations to come.

Ex. 30:9  Do not offer on this altar any other incense or any burnt offering or grain offering, and do not pour a drink offering on it.

Ex. 30:10 Once a year Aaron shall make atonement on its horns. This annual atonement must be made with the blood of the atoning sin offering for the generations to come. It is most holy to the LORD.”

Ex. 30:11 Then the LORD said to Moses,

Ex. 30:12 “When you take a census of the Israelites to count them, each one must pay the LORD a ransom for his life at the time he is counted. Then no plague will come on them when you number them.

Ex. 30:13 Each one who crosses over to those already counted is to give a half shekel, according to the sanctuary shekel, which weighs twenty gerahs. This half shekel is an offering to the LORD.

Ex. 30:14 All who cross over, those twenty years old or more, are to give an offering to the LORD.

Ex. 30:15 The rich are not to give more than a half shekel and the poor are not to give less when you make the offering to the LORD to atone for your lives.

Ex. 30:16 Receive the atonement money from the Israelites and use it for the service of the Tent of Meeting. It will be a memorial for the Israelites before the LORD, making atonement for your lives.”
Then the LORD said to Moses,

“Make a bronze basin, with its bronze stand, for washing. Place it between the Tent of Meeting and the altar, and put water in it.

Aaron and his sons are to wash their hands and feet with water from it.

Whenever they enter the Tent of Meeting, they shall wash with water so that they will not die. Also, when they approach the altar to minister by presenting an offering made to the LORD by fire, they shall wash their hands and feet so that they will not die. This is to be a lasting ordinance for Aaron and his descendants for the generations to come.”

Then the LORD said to Moses,

“Take the following fine spices: 500 shekels of liquid myrrh, half as much (that is, 250 shekels) of fragrant cinnamon, 250 shekels of fragrant cane,

500 shekels of cassia — all according to the sanctuary shekel — and a hin of olive oil.

Make these into a sacred anointing oil, a fragrant blend, the work of a perfumer. It will be the sacred anointing oil.

Then use it to anoint the Tent of Meeting, the ark of the Testimony, the table and all its articles, the lampstand and its accessories, the altar of incense, the altar of burnt offering and all its utensils, and the basin with its stand.

You shall consecrate them so they will be most holy, and whatever touches them will be holy.

“Anoint Aaron and his sons and consecrate them so they may serve me as priests.
Ex. 30:31 Say to the Israelites, ‘This is to be my sacred anointing oil for the generations to come.

Ex. 30:32 Do not pour it on men’s bodies and do not make any oil with the same formula. It is sacred, and you are to consider it sacred.

Ex. 30:33 Whoever makes perfume like it and whoever puts it on anyone other than a priest must be cut off from his people.’”

Ex. 30:34 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Take fragrant spices — gum resin, onycha and galbanum — and pure frankincense, all in equal amounts,

Ex. 30:35 and make a fragrant blend of incense, the work of a perfumer. It is to be salted and pure and sacred.

Ex. 30:36 Grind some of it to powder and place it in front of the Testimony in the Tent of Meeting, where I will meet with you. It shall be most holy to you.

Ex. 30:37 Do not make any incense with this formula for yourselves; consider it holy to the LORD.

Ex. 30:38 Whoever makes any like it to enjoy its fragrance must be cut off from his people.”

CHAPTER 31

Ex. 31:1 Then the LORD said to Moses,

Ex. 31:2 “See I have chosen Bezalel son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah,

Ex. 31:3 and I have filled him with the Spirit of God, with skill, ability and knowledge in all kinds of crafts —

Ex. 31:4 to make artistic designs for work in gold, silver and bronze,

Ex. 31:5 to cut and set stones, to work in wood, and to engage in all kinds of craftsmanship.
Moreover, I have appointed Oholiab son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, to help him. Also I have given skill to all the craftsmen to make everything I have commanded you:

the Tent of Meeting, the ark of the Testimony with the atonement cover on it, and all the other furnishings of the tent — the table and its articles, the pure gold lampstand and all its accessories, the altar of incense, the altar of burnt offering and all its utensils, the basin with its stand — and also the woven garments, both the sacred garments for Aaron the priest and the garments for his sons when they serve as priests, and the anointing oil and fragrant incense for the Holy Place. They are to make them just as I commanded you.”

Then the LORD said to Moses,

“Say to the Israelites, ‘You must observe my Sabbaths. This will be a sign between me and you for the generations to come, so that you may know that I am the LORD, who makes you holy.

‘Observe the Sabbath, because it is holy to you. Anyone who desecrates it must be put to death; whoever does any work on that day must be cut off from his people.

For six days, work is to be done, but the seventh day is a Sabbath of rest, holy to the LORD. Whoever does any work on the Sabbath day must be put to death.

The Israelites are to observe the Sabbath, celebrating it for the generations to come as a lasting covenant.

It will be a sign between me and the Israelites for ever, for in six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, and on the seventh day he abstained from work and rested.”
When the LORD finished speaking to Moses on Mount Sinai, he gave him the two tablets of the Testimony, the tablets of stone inscribed by the finger of God.

CHAPTER 32

When the people saw that Moses was so long in coming down from the mountain, they gathered round Aaron and said, “Come, make us gods who will go before us. As for this fellow Moses who brought us up out of Egypt, we don’t know what has happened to him.”

Aaron answered them, “Take off the gold ear-rings that your wives, your sons and your daughters are wearing, and bring them to me.”

So all the people took off their ear-rings and brought them to Aaron.

He took what they handed him and made it into an idol cast in the shape of a calf, fashioning it with a tool. Then they said, “These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of Egypt.”

When Aaron saw this, he built an altar in front of the calf and announced, “Tomorrow there will be a festival to the LORD.”

So the next day the people rose early and sacrificed burnt offerings and presented fellowship offerings. Afterwards they sat down to eat and drink and got up to indulge in revelry.

Then the LORD said to Moses, “Go down, because your people, whom you brought up out of Egypt, have become corrupt.

They have been quick to turn away from what I commanded them and have made themselves an idol cast in the shape of a calf. They have bowed down to it and sacrificed to it and have said, ‘These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of Egypt.’
Ex. 32:9 “I have seen these people,” the LORD said to Moses, “and they are a stiff-necked people.

Ex. 32:10 Now leave me alone so that my anger may burn against them and that I may destroy them. Then I will make you into a great nation.”

Ex. 32:11 But Moses sought the favour of the LORD his God. “O LORD,” he said, “why should your anger burn against your people, whom you brought out of Egypt with great power and a mighty hand?

Ex. 32:12 Why should the Egyptians say, ‘It was with evil intent that he brought them out, to kill them in the mountains and to wipe them off the face of the earth’? Turn from your fierce anger; relent and do not bring disaster on your people.

Ex. 32:13 Remember your servants Abraham, Isaac and Israel, to whom you swore by your own self: ‘I will make your descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky and I will give your descendants all this land I promised them, and it will be their inheritance for ever.’”

Ex. 32:14 Then the LORD relented and did not bring on his people the disaster he had threatened.

Ex. 32:15 Moses turned and went down the mountain with the two tablets of the Testimony in his hands. They were inscribed on both sides, front and back.

Ex. 32:16 The tablets were the work of God; the writing was the writing of God, engraved on the tablets.

Ex. 32:17 When Joshua heard the noise of the people shouting, he said to Moses, “There is the sound of war in the camp.”

Ex. 32:18 Moses replied: “It is not the sound of victory, it is not the sound of defeat; it is the sound of singing that I hear.”

Ex. 32:19 When Moses approached the camp and saw the calf and the dancing, his anger burned and he threw the tablets out of his hands, breaking them to pieces at the foot of the mountain.
Ex. 32:20 And he took the calf they had made and burned it in the fire; then he ground it to powder, scattered it on the water and made the Israelites drink it.

Ex. 32:21 He said to Aaron, “What did these people do to you, that you led them into such great sin?”

Ex. 32:22 “Do not be angry, my lord,” Aaron answered. “You know how prone these people are to evil.

Ex. 32:23 They said to me, ‘Make us gods who will go before us. As for this fellow Moses who brought us up out of Egypt, we don’t know what has happened to him.’

Ex. 32:24 So I told them, ‘Whoever has any gold jewellery, take it off.’ Then they gave me the gold, and I threw it into the fire, and out came this calf!”

Ex. 32:25 Moses saw that the people were running wild and that Aaron had let them get out of control and so become a laughing-stock to their enemies.

Ex. 32:26 So he stood at the entrance to the camp and said, “Whoever is for the LORD, come to me.” And all the Levites rallied to him.

Ex. 32:27 Then he said to them, “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: ‘Each man strap a sword to his side. Go back and forth through the camp from one end to the other, each killing his brother and friend and neighbour.’”

Ex. 32:28 The Levites did as Moses commanded, and that day about three thousand of the people died.

Ex. 32:29 Then Moses said, “You have been set apart to the LORD today, for you were against your own sons and brothers, and he has blessed you this day.”

Ex. 32:30 The next day Moses said to the people, “You have committed a great sin. But now I will go up to the LORD; perhaps I can make atonement for your sin.”
Ex. 32:31 So Moses went back to the LORD and said, “Oh, what a great sin these people have committed! They have made themselves gods of gold.

Ex. 32:32 But now, please forgive their sin — but if not, then blot me out of the book you have written.”

Ex. 32:33 The LORD replied to Moses, “Whoever has sinned against me I will blot out of my book.

Ex. 32:34 Now go, lead the people to the place I spoke of, and my angel will go before you. However, when the time comes for me to punish, I will punish them for their sin.”

Ex. 32:35 And the LORD struck the people with a plague because of what they did with the calf Aaron had made.

CHAPTER 33

Ex. 33:1 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Leave this place, you and the people you brought up out of Egypt, and go up to the land I promised on oath to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, saying, ‘I will give it to your descendants.’

Ex. 33:2 I will send an angel before you and drive out the Canaanites, Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites.

Ex. 33:3 Go up to the land flowing with milk and honey. But I will not go with you, because you are a stiff-necked people and I might destroy you on the way.”

Ex. 33:4 When the people heard these distressing words, they began to mourn and no-one put on any ornaments.

Ex. 33:5 For the LORD had said to Moses, “Tell the Israelites, ‘You are a stiff-necked people. If I were to go with you even for a moment, I might destroy you. Now take off your ornaments and I will decide what to do with you.’”

Ex. 33:6 So the Israelites stripped off their ornaments at Mount Horeb.
Ex. 33:7 Now Moses used to take a tent and pitch it outside the camp some distance away, calling it the “tent of meeting”. Anyone enquiring of the LORD would go to the tent of meeting outside the camp.

Ex. 33:8 And whenever Moses went out to the tent, all the people rose and stood at the entrances to their tents, watching Moses until he entered the tent.

Ex. 33:9 As Moses went into the tent, the pillar of cloud would come down and stay at the entrance, while the LORD spoke with Moses.

Ex. 33:10 Whenever the people saw the pillar of cloud standing at the entrance to the tent, they all stood and worshipped, each at the entrance to his tent.

Ex. 33:11 The LORD would speak to Moses face to face, as a man speaks with his friend. Then Moses would return to the camp, but his young assistant Joshua son of Nun did not leave the tent.

Ex. 33:12 Moses said to the LORD, “You have been telling me, ‘Lead these people,’ but you have not let me know whom you will send with me. You have said, ‘I know you by name and you have found favour with me.’

Ex. 33:13 If you are pleased with me, teach me your ways so I may know you and continue to find favour with you. Remember that this nation is your people.”

Ex. 33:14 The LORD replied, “My Presence will go with you, and I will give you rest.”

Ex. 33:15 Then Moses said to him, “If your Presence does not go with us, do not send us up from here.

Ex. 33:16 How will anyone know that you are pleased with me and with your people unless you go with us? What else will distinguish me and your people from all the other people on the face of the earth?”
Ex. 33:17 And the LORD said to Moses, “I will do the very thing you have asked, because I am pleased with you and I know you by name.”

Ex. 33:18 Then Moses said, “Now show me your glory.”

Ex. 33:19 And the LORD said, “I will cause all my goodness to pass in front of you, and I will proclaim my name, the LORD, in your presence. I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.

Ex. 33:20 But,” he said, “you cannot see my face, for no-one may see me and live.”

Ex. 33:21 Then the LORD said, “There is a place near me where you may stand on a rock.

Ex. 33:22 When my glory passes by, I will put you in a cleft in the rock and cover you with my hand until I have passed by.

Ex. 33:23 Then I will remove my hand and you will see my back; but my face must not be seen.”

CHAPTER 34

Ex. 34:1 The LORD said to Moses, “Chisel out two stone tablets like the first ones, and I will write on them the words that were on the first tablets, which you broke.

Ex. 34:2 Be ready in the morning, and then come up on Mount Sinai. Present yourself to me there on top of the mountain.

Ex. 34:3 No-one is to come with you or be seen anywhere on the mountain; not even the flocks and herds may graze in front of the mountain.”

Ex. 34:4 So Moses chiselled out two stone tablets like the first ones and went up Mount Sinai early in the morning, as the LORD had commanded him; and he carried the two stone tablets in his hands.
Then the LORD came down in the cloud and stood there with him and proclaimed his name, the LORD.

And he passed in front of Moses, proclaiming, “The LORD, the LORD, the compassionate and gracious God, slow to anger, abounding in love and faithfulness, maintaining love to thousands, and forgiving wickedness, rebellion and sin. Yet he does not leave the guilty unpunished; he punishes the children and their children for the sin of the fathers to the third and fourth generation.”

Moses bowed to the ground at once and worshipped.

“O Lord, if I have found favour in your eyes,” he said, “then let the Lord go with us. Although this is a stiff-necked people, forgive our wickedness and our sin, and take us as your inheritance.”

Then the LORD said: “I am making a covenant with you. Before all your people I will do wonders never before done in any nation in all the world. The people you live among will see how awesome is the work that I, the LORD, will do for you.

Obey what I command you today. I will drive out before you the Amorites, Canaanites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites.

Be careful not to make a treaty with those who live in the land where you are going, or they will be a snare among you.

Break down their altars, smash their sacred stones and cut down their Asherah poles.

Do not worship any other god, for the LORD, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God.

“Be careful not to make a treaty with those who live in the land; for when they prostitute themselves to their gods and sacrifice to them, they will invite you and you will eat their sacrifices.
And when you choose some of their daughters as wives for your sons and those daughters prostitute themselves to their gods, they will lead your sons to do the same.

“Do not make cast idols.

“Celebrate the Feast of Unleavened Bread. For seven days eat bread made without yeast, as I commanded you. Do this at the appointed time in the month of Abib, for in that month you came out of Egypt.

“The first offspring of every womb belongs to me, including all the firstborn males of your livestock, whether from herd or flock.

Redeem the firstborn donkey with a lamb, but if you do not redeem it, break its neck. Redeem all your firstborn sons. “No-one is to appear before me empty-handed.

“Six days you shall labour, but on the seventh day you shall rest; even during the ploughing season and harvest you must rest.

“Celebrate the Feast of Weeks with the firstfruits of the wheat harvest, and the Feast of Ingathering at the turn of the year.

Three times a year all your men are to appear before the Sovereign LORD, the God of Israel.

I will drive out nations before you and enlarge your territory, and no-one will covet your land when you go up three times each year to appear before the LORD your God.

“Do not offer the blood of a sacrifice to me along with anything containing yeast, and do not let any of the sacrifice from the Passover Feast remain until morning.

“Bring the best of the firstfruits of your soil to the house of the LORD your God. “Do not cook a young goat in its mother’s milk.”
Then the LORD said to Moses, “Write down these words, for in accordance with these words I have made a covenant with you and with Israel.”

Moses was there with the LORD forty days and forty nights without eating bread or drinking water. And he wrote on the tablets the words of the covenant — the Ten Commandments.

When Moses came down from Mount Sinai with the two tablets of the Testimony in his hands, he was not aware that his face was radiant because he had spoken with the LORD.

When Aaron and all the Israelites saw Moses, his face was radiant, and they were afraid to come near him.

But Moses called to them; so Aaron and all the leaders of the community came back to him, and he spoke to them.

Afterwards all the Israelites came near him, and he gave them all the commands the LORD had given him on Mount Sinai.

When Moses finished speaking to them, he put a veil over his face.

But whenever he entered the LORD’s presence to speak with him, he removed the veil until he came out. And when he came out and told the Israelites what he had been commanded, they saw that his face was radiant. Then Moses would put the veil back over his face until he went in to speak with the LORD.

Moses assembled the whole Israelite community and said to them, “These are the things the LORD has commanded you to do:
Ex. 35:2 For six days, work is to be done, but the seventh day shall be your holy day, a Sabbath of rest to the LORD. Whoever does any work on it must be put to death.

Ex. 35:3 Do not light a fire in any of your dwellings on the Sabbath day.”

Ex. 35:4 Moses said to the whole Israelite community, “This is what the LORD has commanded:

Ex. 35:5 From what you have, take an offering for the LORD. Everyone who is willing is to bring to the LORD an offering of gold, silver and bronze;

Ex. 35:6 blue, purple and scarlet yarn and fine linen; goat hair;

Ex. 35:7 ram skins dyed red and hides of sea cows; acacia wood;

Ex. 35:8 olive oil for the light; spices for the anointing oil and for the fragrant incense;

Ex. 35:9 and onyx stones and other gems to be mounted on the ephod and breastpiece.

Ex. 35:10 “All who are skilled among you are to come and make everything the LORD has commanded:

Ex. 35:11 the tabernacle with its tent and its covering, clasps, frames, crossbars, posts and bases;

Ex. 35:12 the ark with its poles and the atonement cover and the curtain that shields it;

Ex. 35:13 the table with its poles and all its articles and the bread of the Presence;

Ex. 35:14 the lampstand that is for light with its accessories, lamps and oil for the light;

Ex. 35:15 the altar of incense with its poles, the anointing oil and the fragrant incense; the curtain for the doorway at the entrance to the tabernacle;

Ex. 35:16 the altar of burnt offering with its bronze grating, its poles and all its utensils; the bronze basin with its stand;
Ex. 35:17 the curtains of the courtyard with its posts and bases, and the curtain for the entrance to the courtyard;

Ex. 35:18 the tent pegs for the tabernacle and for the courtyard, and their ropes;

Ex. 35:19 the woven garments worn for ministering in the sanctuary — both the sacred garments for Aaron the priest and the garments for his sons when they serve as priests.”

Ex. 35:20 Then the whole Israelite community withdrew from Moses’ presence,

Ex. 35:21 and everyone who was willing and whose heart moved him came and brought an offering to the LORD for the work on the Tent of Meeting, for all its service, and for the sacred garments.

Ex. 35:22 All who were willing, men and women alike, came and brought gold jewellery of all kinds: brooches, ear-rings, rings and ornaments. They all presented their gold as a wave offering to the LORD.

Ex. 35:23 Everyone who had blue, purple or scarlet yarn or fine linen, or goat hair, ram skins dyed red or hides of sea cows brought them.

Ex. 35:24 Those presenting an offering of silver or bronze brought it as an offering to the LORD, and everyone who had acacia wood for any part of the work brought it.

Ex. 35:25 Every skilled woman spun with her hands and brought what she had spun — blue, purple or scarlet yarn or fine linen.

Ex. 35:26 And all the women who were willing and had the skill spun the goat hair.

Ex. 35:27 The leaders brought onyx stones and other gems to be mounted on the ephod and breastpiece.

Ex. 35:28 They also brought spices and olive oil for the light and for the anointing oil and for the fragrant incense.
Ex. 35:29 All the Israelite men and women who were willing brought to the LORD freewill offerings for all the work the LORD through Moses had commanded them to do.

Ex. 35:30 Then Moses said to the Israelites, “See, the LORD has chosen Bezalel son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah,

Ex. 35:31 and he has filled him with the Spirit of God, with skill, ability and knowledge in all kinds of crafts —

Ex. 35:32 to make artistic designs for work in gold, silver and bronze,

Ex. 35:33 to cut and set stones, to work in wood and to engage in all kinds of artistic craftsmanship.

Ex. 35:34 And he has given both him and Oholiab son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, the ability to teach others.

Ex. 35:35 He has filled them with skill to do all kinds of work as craftsmen, designers, embroiderers in blue, purple and scarlet yarn and fine linen, and weavers — all of them master craftsmen and designers.

CHAPTER 36

Ex. 36:1 So Bezalel, Oholiab and every skilled person to whom the LORD has given skill and ability to know how to carry out all the work of constructing the sanctuary are to do the work just as the LORD has commanded.”

Ex. 36:2 Then Moses summoned Bezalel and Oholiab and every skilled person to whom the LORD had given ability and who was willing to come and do the work.

Ex. 36:3 They received from Moses all the offerings the Israelites had brought to carry out the work of constructing the sanctuary. And the people continued to bring freewill offerings morning after morning.

Ex. 36:4 So all the skilled craftsmen who were doing all the work on the sanctuary left their work
Ex. 36:5 and said to Moses, “The people are bringing more than enough for doing the work the LORD commanded to be done.”

Ex. 36:6 Then Moses gave an order and they sent this word throughout the camp: “No man or woman is to make anything else as an offering for the sanctuary.” And so the people were restrained from bringing more,

Ex. 36:7 because what they already had was more than enough to do all the work.

Ex. 36:8 All the skilled men among the workmen made the tabernacle with ten curtains of finely twisted linen and blue, purple and scarlet yarn, with cherubim worked into them by a skilled craftsman.

Ex. 36:9 All the curtains were the same size — twenty-eight cubits long and four cubits wide.

Ex. 36:10 They joined five of the curtains together and did the same with the other five.

Ex. 36:11 Then they made loops of blue material along the edge of the end curtain in one set, and the same was done with the end curtain in the other set.

Ex. 36:12 They also made fifty loops on one curtain and fifty loops on the end curtain of the other set, with the loops opposite each other.

Ex. 36:13 Then they made fifty gold clasps and used them to fasten the two sets of curtains together so that the tabernacle was a unit.

Ex. 36:14 They made curtains of goat hair for the tent over the tabernacle — eleven altogether.

Ex. 36:15 All eleven curtains were the same size — thirty cubits long and four cubits wide.

Ex. 36:16 They joined five of the curtains into one set and the other six into another set.
Ex. 36:17 Then they made fifty loops along the edge of the end curtain in one set and also along the edge of the end curtain in the other set.

Ex. 36:18 They made fifty bronze clasps to fasten the tent together as a unit.

Ex. 36:19 Then they made for the tent a covering of ram skins dyed red, and over that a covering of hides of sea cows.

Ex. 36:20 They made upright frames of acacia wood for the tabernacle.

Ex. 36:21 Each frame was ten cubits long and a cubit and a half wide,

Ex. 36:22 with two projections set parallel to each other. They made all the frames of the tabernacle in this way.

Ex. 36:23 They made twenty frames for the south side of the tabernacle

Ex. 36:24 and made forty silver bases to go under them — two bases for each frame, one under each projection.

Ex. 36:25 For the other side, the north side of the tabernacle, they made twenty frames

Ex. 36:26 and forty silver bases — two under each frame.

Ex. 36:27 They made six frames for the far end, that is, the west end of the tabernacle,

Ex. 36:28 and two frames were made for the corners of the tabernacle at the far end.

Ex. 36:29 At these two corners the frames were double from the bottom all the way to the top and fitted into a single ring; both were made alike.

Ex. 36:30 They also made crossbars of acacia wood: five for the frames on one side of the tabernacle,

Ex. 36:32 five for those on the other side, and five for the frames on the west, at the far end of the tabernacle.
Ex. 36:33 They made the centre crossbar so that it extended from end to end at the middle of the frames.

Ex. 36:34 They overlaid the frames with gold and made gold rings to hold the crossbars. They also overlaid the crossbars with gold.

Ex. 36:35 They made the curtain of blue, purple and scarlet yarn and finely twisted linen, with cherubim worked into it by a skilled craftsman.

Ex. 36:36 They made four posts of acacia wood for it and overlaid them with gold. They made gold hooks for them and cast their four silver bases.

Ex. 36:37 For the entrance to the tent they made a curtain of blue, purple and scarlet yarn and finely twisted linen — the work of an embroiderer; and they made five posts with hooks for them. They overlaid the tops of the posts and their bands with gold and made their five bases of bronze.

CHAPTER 37

Ex. 37:1 Bezalel made the ark of acacia wood — two and a half cubits long, a cubit and a half wide, and a cubit and a half high.

Ex. 37:2 He overlaid it with pure gold, both inside and out, and made a gold moulding around it.

Ex. 37:3 He cast four gold rings for it and fastened them to its four feet, with two rings on one side and two rings on the other.

Ex. 37:4 Then he made poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold.

Ex. 37:5 And he inserted the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark to carry it.

Ex. 37:6 He made the atonement cover of pure gold — two and a half cubits long and a cubit and a half wide.
Ex. 37:7 Then he made two cherubim out of hammered gold at the ends of the cover.

Ex. 37:8 He made one cherub on one end and the second cherub on the other; at the two ends he made them of one piece with the cover.

Ex. 37:9 The cherubim had their wings spread upwards, overshadowing the cover with them. The cherubim faced each other, looking towards the cover.

Ex. 37:10 They made the table of acacia wood — two cubits long, a cubit wide, and a cubit and a half high.

Ex. 37:11 Then they overlaid it with pure gold and made a gold moulding around it.

Ex. 37:12 They also made around it a rim a handbreadth wide and put a gold moulding on the rim.

Ex. 37:13 They cast four gold rings for the table and fastened them to the four corners, where the four legs were.

Ex. 37:14 The rings were put close to the rim to hold the poles used in carrying the table.

Ex. 37:15 The poles for carrying the table were made of acacia wood and were overlaid with gold.

Ex. 37:16 And they made from pure gold the articles for the table — its plates and dishes and bowls and its pitchers for the pouring out of drink offerings.

Ex. 37:17 They made the lampstand of pure gold and hammered it out, base and shaft; its flowerlike cups, buds and blossoms were of one piece with it.

Ex. 37:18 Six branches extended from the sides of the lampstand — three on one side and three on the other.

Ex. 37:19 Three cups shaped like almond flowers with buds and blossoms were on one branch, three on the next branch and the same for all six branches extending from the lampstand.
Ex. 37:20 And on the lampstand were four cups shaped like almond flowers with buds and blossoms.

Ex. 37:21 One bud was under the first pair of branches extending from the lampstand, a second bud under the second pair, and a third bud under the third pair — six branches in all.

Ex. 37:22 The buds and the branches were all of one piece with the lampstand, hammered out of pure gold.

Ex. 37:23 They made its seven lamps, as well as its wick trimmers and trays, of pure gold.

Ex. 37:24 They made the lampstand and all its accessories from one talent of pure gold.

Ex. 37:25 They made the altar of incense out of acacia wood. It was square, a cubit long and a cubit wide, and two cubits high — its horns of one piece with it.

Ex. 37:26 They overlaid the top and all the sides and the horns with pure gold, and made a gold moulding around it.

Ex. 37:27 They made two gold rings below the moulding — two on opposite sides — to hold the poles used to carry it.

Ex. 37:28 They made the poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold.

Ex. 37:29 They also made the sacred anointing oil and the pure, fragrant incense — the work of a perfumer.

CHAPTER 38

Ex. 38:1 They built the altar of burnt offering of acacia wood, three cubits high; it was square, five cubits long and five cubits wide.

Ex. 38:2 They made a horn at each of the four corners, so that the horns and the altar were of one piece, and they overlaid the altar with bronze.
Ex. 38:3 They made all its utensils of bronze — its pots, shovels, sprinkling bowls, meat forks and firepans.

Ex. 38:4 They made a grating for the altar, a bronze network, to be under its ledge, halfway up the altar.

Ex. 38:5 They cast bronze rings to hold the poles for the four corners of the bronze grating.

Ex. 38:6 They made the poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with bronze.

Ex. 38:7 They inserted the poles into the rings so they would be on the sides of the altar for carrying it. They made it hollow, out of boards.

Ex. 38:8 They made the bronze basin and its bronze stand from the mirrors of the women who served at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Ex. 38:9 Next they made the courtyard. The south side was a hundred cubits long and had curtains of finely twisted linen,

Ex. 38:10 with twenty posts and twenty bronze bases, and with silver hooks and bands on the posts.

Ex. 38:11 The north side was also a hundred cubits long and had twenty posts and twenty bronze bases, with silver hooks and bands on the posts.

Ex. 38:12 The west end was fifty cubits wide and had curtains, with ten posts and ten bases, with silver hooks and bands on the posts.

Ex. 38:13 The east end, towards the sunrise, was also fifty cubits wide.

Ex. 38:14 Curtains fifteen cubits long were on one side of the entrance, with three posts and three bases,

Ex. 38:15 and curtains fifteen cubits long were on the other side of the entrance to the courtyard, with three posts and three bases.

Ex. 38:16 All the curtains around the courtyard were of finely twisted linen.
Ex. 38:17 The bases for the posts were bronze. The hooks and bands on the posts were silver, and their tops were overlaid with silver; so all the posts of the courtyard had silver bands.

Ex. 38:18 The curtain for the entrance to the courtyard was of blue, purple and scarlet yarn and finely twisted linen — the work of an embroiderer. It was twenty cubits long and, like the curtains of the courtyard, five cubits high, with four posts and four bronze bases. Their hooks and bands were silver, and their tops were overlaid with silver.

Ex. 38:20 All the tent pegs of the tabernacle and of the surrounding courtyard were bronze.

Ex. 38:21 These are the amounts of the materials used for the tabernacle, the tabernacle of the Testimony, which were recorded at Moses’ command by the Levites under the direction of Ithamar son of Aaron, the priest.

Ex. 38:22 (Bezalel son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made everything the LORD commanded Moses; with him was Oholiab son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan — a craftsman and designer, and an embroiderer in blue, purple and scarlet yarn and fine linen.)

Ex. 38:24 The total amount of the gold from the wave offering used for all the work on the sanctuary was 29 talents and 730 shekels, according to the sanctuary shekel.

Ex. 38:25 The silver obtained from those of the community who were counted in the census was 100 talents and 1,775 shekels, according to the sanctuary shekel — one beka per person, that is, half a shekel, according to the sanctuary shekel, from everyone who had crossed over to those counted, twenty years old or more, a total of 603,550 men.

Ex. 38:27 The 100 talents of silver were used to cast the bases for the sanctuary and for the curtain — 100 bases from the 100 talents, one talent for each base.
Ex. 38:28 They used the 1,775 shekels to make the hooks for the posts, to overlay the tops of the posts, and to make their bands.

Ex. 38:29 The bronze from the wave offering was 70 talents and 2,400 shekels.

Ex. 38:30 They used it to make the bases for the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, the bronze altar with its bronze grating and all its utensils,

Ex. 38:31 the bases for the surrounding courtyard and those for its entrance and all the tent pegs for the tabernacle and those for the surrounding courtyard.

CHAPTER 39

Ex. 39:1 From the blue, purple and scarlet yarn they made woven garments for ministering in the sanctuary. They also made sacred garments for Aaron, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Ex. 39:2 They made the ephod of gold, and of blue, purple and scarlet yarn, and of finely twisted linen.

Ex. 39:3 They hammered out thin sheets of gold and cut strands to be worked into the blue, purple and scarlet yarn and fine linen — the work of a skilled craftsman.

Ex. 39:4 They made shoulder pieces for the ephod, which were attached to two of its corners, so that it could be fastened.

Ex. 39:5 Its skilfully woven waistband was like it — of one piece with the ephod and made with gold, and with blue, purple and scarlet yarn, and with finely twisted linen, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Ex. 39:6 They mounted the onyx stones in gold filigree settings and engraved them like a seal with the names of the sons of Israel.

Ex. 39:7 Then they fastened them on the shoulder pieces of the ephod as memorial stones for the sons of Israel, as the LORD commanded Moses.
Ex. 39:8 They fashioned the breastpiece — the work of a skilled craftsman. They made it like the ephod: of gold, and of blue, purple and scarlet yarn, and of finely twisted linen.

Ex. 39:9 It was square — a span long and a span wide — and folded double.

Ex. 39:10 Then they mounted four rows of precious stones on it. In the first row there was a ruby, a topaz and a beryl;

Ex. 39:11 in the second row a turquoise, a sapphire and an emerald;

Ex. 39:12 in the third row a jacinth, an agate and an amethyst;

Ex. 39:13 in the fourth row a chrysolite, an onyx and a jasper. They were mounted in gold filigree settings.

Ex. 39:14 There were twelve stones, one for each of the names of the sons of Israel, each engraved like a seal with the name of one of the twelve tribes.

Ex. 39:15 For the breastpiece they made braided chains of pure gold, like a rope.

Ex. 39:16 They made two gold filigree settings and two gold rings, and fastened the rings to two of the corners of the breastpiece.

Ex. 39:17 They fastened the two gold chains to the rings at the corners of the breastpiece,

Ex. 39:18 and the other ends of the chains to the two settings, attaching them to the shoulder pieces of the ephod at the front.

Ex. 39:19 They made two gold rings and attached them to the other two corners of the breastpiece on the inside edge next to the ephod.

Ex. 39:20 Then they made two more gold rings and attached them to the bottom of the shoulder pieces on the front of the ephod, close to the seam just above the waistband of the ephod.

Ex. 39:21 They tied the rings of the breastpiece to the rings of the ephod with blue cord, connecting it to the waistband so that the breastpiece would not swing out from the ephod — as the LORD commanded Moses.
Ex. 39:22 They made the robe of the ephod entirely of blue cloth — the work of a weaver —

Ex. 39:23 with an opening in the centre of the robe like the opening of a collar, and a band around this opening, so that it would not tear.

Ex. 39:24 They made pomegranates of blue, purple and scarlet yarn and finely twisted linen around the hem of the robe.

Ex. 39:25 And they made bells of pure gold and attached them around the hem between the pomegranates.

Ex. 39:26 The bells and pomegranates alternated around the hem of the robe to be worn for ministering, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Ex. 39:27 For Aaron and his sons, they made tunics of fine linen — the work of a weaver —

Ex. 39:28 and the turban of fine linen, the linen headbands and the undergarments of finely twisted linen.

Ex. 39:29 The sash was of finely twisted linen and blue, purple and scarlet yarn — the work of an embroiderer — as the LORD commanded Moses.

Ex. 39:30 They made the plate, the sacred diadem, out of pure gold and engraved on it, like an inscription on a seal: HOLY TO THE LORD.

Ex. 39:31 Then they fastened a blue cord to it to attach it to the turban, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Ex. 39:32 So all the work on the tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting, was completed. The Israelites did everything just as the LORD commanded Moses.

Ex. 39:33 Then they brought the tabernacle to Moses: the tent and all its furnishings, its clasps, frames, crossbars, posts and bases;

Ex. 39:34 the covering of ram skins dyed red, the covering of hides of sea cows and the shielding curtain;
Ex. 39:35 the ark of the Testimony with its poles and the atonement cover;
Ex. 39:36 the table with all its articles and the bread of the Presence;
Ex. 39:37 the pure gold lampstand with its row of lamps and all its accessories, and the oil for the light;
Ex. 39:38 the gold altar, the anointing oil, the fragrant incense, and the curtain for the entrance to the tent;
Ex. 39:39 the bronze altar with its bronze grating, its poles and all its utensils; the basin with its stand;
Ex. 39:40 the curtains of the courtyard with its posts and bases, and the curtain for the entrance to the courtyard; the ropes and tent pegs for the courtyard; all the furnishings for the tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting;
Ex. 39:41 and the woven garments worn for ministering in the sanctuary, both the sacred garments for Aaron the priest and the garments for his sons when serving as priests.
Ex. 39:42 The Israelites had done all the work just as the LORD had commanded Moses.
Ex. 39:43 Moses inspected the work and saw that they had done it just as the LORD had commanded. So Moses blessed them.

CHAPTER 40

Ex. 40:1 Then the LORD said to Moses:
Ex. 40:2 “Set up the tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting, on the first day of the first month.
Ex. 40:3 Place the ark of the Testimony in it and shield the ark with the curtain.
Ex. 40:4 Bring in the table and set out what belongs on it. Then bring in the lampstand and set up its lamps.
Ex. 40:5 Place the gold altar of incense in front of the ark of the Testimony and put the curtain at the entrance to the tabernacle.

Ex. 40:6 “Place the altar of burnt offering in front of the entrance to the tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting; place the basin between the Tent of Meeting and the altar and put water in it.

Ex. 40:8 Set up the courtyard around it and put the curtain at the entrance to the courtyard.

Ex. 40:9 “Take the anointing oil and anoint the tabernacle and everything in it; consecrate it and all its furnishings, and it will be holy.

Ex. 40:10 Then anoint the altar of burnt offering and all its utensils; consecrate the altar, and it will be most holy.

Ex. 40:11 Anoint the basin and its stand and consecrate them.

Ex. 40:12 “Bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance to the Tent of Meeting and wash them with water.

Ex. 40:13 Then dress Aaron in the sacred garments, anoint him and consecrate him so that he may serve me as priest.

Ex. 40:14 Bring his sons and dress them in tunics.

Ex. 40:15 Anoint them just as you anointed their father, so that they may serve me as priests. Their anointing will be to a priesthood that will continue for all generations to come.”

Ex. 40:16 Moses did everything just as the LORD commanded him.

Ex. 40:17 So the tabernacle was set up on the first day of the first month in the second year.

Ex. 40:18 When Moses set up the tabernacle, he put the bases in place, erected the frames, inserted the crossbars and set up the posts.

Ex. 40:19 Then he spread the tent over the tabernacle and put the covering over the tent, as the LORD commanded him.
Ex. 40:20 He took the Testimony and placed it in the ark, attached the poles to the ark and put the atonement cover over it.

Ex. 40:21 Then he brought the ark into the tabernacle and hung the shielding curtain and shielded the ark of the Testimony, as the LORD commanded him.

Ex. 40:22 Moses placed the table in the Tent of Meeting on the north side of the tabernacle outside the curtain and set out the bread on it before the LORD, as the LORD commanded him.

Ex. 40:23 He placed the lampstand in the Tent of Meeting opposite the table on the south side of the tabernacle and set up the lamps before the LORD, as the LORD commanded him.

Ex. 40:24 Then he put up the curtain at the entrance to the tabernacle.

Ex. 40:25 Moses placed the gold altar in the Tent of Meeting in front of the curtain and burned fragrant incense on it, as the LORD commanded him.

Ex. 40:26 He set the altar of burnt offering near the entrance to the tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting, and offered on it burnt offerings and grain offerings, as the LORD commanded him.

Ex. 40:27 Then Moses set up the courtyard around the tabernacle and altar and put up the curtain at the entrance to the courtyard. And so Moses finished the work.
Ex. 40:34 Then the cloud covered the Tent of Meeting, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle.

Ex. 40:35 Moses could not enter the Tent of Meeting because the cloud had settled upon it, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle.

Ex. 40:36 In all the travels of the Israelites, whenever the cloud lifted from above the tabernacle, they would set out; but if the cloud did not lift, they did not set out — until the day it lifted.

Ex. 40:38 So the cloud of the LORD was over the tabernacle by day, and fire was in the cloud by night, in the sight of all the house of Israel during all their travels.
Le. 1:1 The LORD called to Moses and spoke to him from the Tent of Meeting. He said, Le. 1:2 “Speak to the Israelites and say to them: ‘When any of you brings an offering to the LORD, bring as your offering an animal from either the herd or the flock.

Le. 1:3 “If the offering is a burnt offering from the herd, he is to offer a male without defect. He must present it at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting so that it [Or he] will be acceptable to the LORD.

Le. 1:4 He is to lay his hand on the head of the burnt offering, and it will be accepted on his behalf to make atonement for him.

Le. 1:5 He is to slaughter the young bull before the LORD, and then Aaron’s sons the priests shall bring the blood and sprinkle it against the altar on all sides at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Le. 1:6 He is to skin the burnt offering and cut it into pieces.

Le. 1:7 The sons of Aaron the priest are to put fire on the altar and arrange wood on the fire.

Le. 1:8 Then Aaron’s sons the priests shall arrange the pieces, including the head and the fat, on the burning wood that is on the altar.

Le. 1:9 He is to wash the inner parts and the legs with water, and the priest is to burn all of it on the altar. It is a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, an aroma pleasing to the LORD.

Le. 1:10 “If the offering is a burnt offering from the flock, from either the sheep or the goats, he is to offer a male without defect.
Le. 1:11 He is to slaughter it at the north side of the altar before the LORD, and Aaron’s sons the priests shall sprinkle its blood against the altar on all sides.

Le. 1:12 He is to cut it into pieces, and the priest shall arrange them, including the head and the fat, on the burning wood that is on the altar.

Le. 1:13 He is to wash the inner parts and the legs with water, and the priest is to bring all of it and burn it on the altar. It is a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, an aroma pleasing to the LORD.

Le. 1:14 “If the offering to the LORD is a burnt offering of birds, he is to offer a dove or a young pigeon.

Le. 1:15 The priest shall bring it to the altar, wring off the head and burn it on the altar; its blood shall be drained out on the side of the altar.

Le. 1:16 He is to remove the crop with its contents [Or crop and the feathers; the meaning of the Hebrew for this word is uncertain.] and throw it to the east side of the altar, where the ashes are.

Le. 1:17 He shall tear it open by the wings, not severing it completely, and then the priest shall burn it on the wood that is on the fire on the altar. It is a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, an aroma pleasing to the LORD.

CHAPTER 2

Le. 2:1 “When someone brings a grain offering to the LORD, his offering is to be of fine flour. He is to pour oil on it, put incense on it

Le. 2:2 and take it to Aaron’s sons the priests. The priest shall take a handful of the fine flour and oil, together with all the incense, and burn this as a memorial portion on the altar, an offering made by fire, an aroma pleasing to the LORD.
The rest of the grain offering belongs to Aaron and his sons; it is a most holy part of the offerings made to the LORD by fire.

Le. 2:4 “If you bring a grain offering baked in an oven, it is to consist of fine flour: cakes made without yeast and mixed with oil, or [Or and] wafers made without yeast and spread with oil.

Le. 2:5 If your grain offering is prepared on a griddle, it is to be made of fine flour mixed with oil, and without yeast.

Le. 2:6 Crumble it and pour oil on it; it is a grain offering.

Le. 2:7 If your grain offering is cooked in a pan, it is to be made of fine flour and oil.

Le. 2:8 Bring the grain offering made of these things to the LORD; present it to the priest, who shall take it to the altar.

Le. 2:9 He shall take out the memorial portion from the grain offering and burn it on the altar as an offering made by fire, an aroma pleasing to the LORD.

Le. 2:10 The rest of the grain offering belongs to Aaron and his sons; it is a most holy part of the offerings made to the LORD by fire.

Le. 2:11 “Every grain offering you bring to the LORD must be made without yeast, for you are not to burn any yeast or honey in an offering made to the LORD by fire.

Le. 2:12 You may bring them to the LORD as an offering of the firstfruits, but they are not to be offered on the altar as a pleasing aroma.

Le. 2:13 Season all your grain offerings with salt. Do not leave the salt of the covenant of your God out of your grain offerings; add salt to all your offerings.

Le. 2:14 “If you bring a grain offering of firstfruits to the LORD, offer crushed heads of new grain roasted in the fire.

Le. 2:15 Put oil and incense on it; it is a grain offering.
CHAPTER 3

Le. 3:1 “If someone’s offering is a fellowship offering, [Traditionally peace offering; also in verses 3, 6 and 9] and he offers an animal from the herd, whether male or female, he is to present before the LORD an animal without defect.

Le. 3:2 He is to lay his hand on the head of his offering and slaughter it at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting. Then Aaron’s sons shall sprinkle the blood against the altar on all sides.

Le. 3:3 From the fellowship offering he is to bring a sacrifice made to the LORD by fire: all the fat that covers the inner parts or is connected to them,

Le. 3:4 both kidneys with the fat on them near the loins, and the covering of the liver, which he will remove with the kidneys.

Le. 3:5 Then Aaron’s sons are to burn it on the altar on top of the burnt offering that is on the burning wood, as an offering made by fire, an aroma pleasing to the LORD.

Le. 3:6 “If he offers an animal from the flock as a fellowship offering to the LORD, he is to offer a male or female without defect.

Le. 3:7 If he offers a lamb, he is to present it before the LORD.

Le. 3:8 He is to lay his hand on the head of his offering and slaughter it in front of the Tent of Meeting. Then Aaron’s sons shall sprinkle its blood against the altar on all sides.

Le. 3:9 From the fellowship offering he is to bring a sacrifice made to the LORD by fire: its fat, the entire fat tail cut off close to the backbone, all the fat that covers the inner parts or is connected to them,
Le. 3:10 both kidneys with the fat on them near the loins, and the covering of the liver, which he will remove with the kidneys.

Le. 3:11 The priest shall burn them on the altar as food, an offering made to the LORD by fire.

Le. 3:12 "If his offering is a goat, he is to present it before the LORD.

Le. 3:13 He is to lay his hand on its head and slaughter it in front of the Tent of Meeting. Then Aaron’s sons shall sprinkle its blood against the altar on all sides.

Le. 3:14 From what he offers he is to make this offering to the LORD by fire: all the fat that covers the inner parts or is connected to them,

Le. 3:15 both kidneys with the fat on them near the loins, and the covering of the liver, which he will remove with the kidneys.

Le. 3:16 The priest shall burn them on the altar as food, an offering made by fire, a pleasing aroma. All the fat is the LORD’s.

Le. 3:17 "This is a lasting ordinance for the generations to come, wherever you live: You must not eat any fat or any blood."

CHAPTER 4

Le. 4:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Le. 4:2 "Say to the Israelites: ‘When anyone sins unintentionally and does what is forbidden in any of the LORD’s commands —

Le. 4:3 "If the anointed priest sins, bringing guilt on the people, he must bring to the LORD a young bull without defect as a sin offering for the sin he has committed.

Le. 4:4 He is to present the bull at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting before the LORD. He is to lay his hand on its head and slaughter it before the LORD.

Le. 4:5 Then the anointed priest shall take some of the bull’s blood and carry it into the Tent of Meeting.
Le. 4:6 He is to dip his finger into the blood and sprinkle some of it seven times before the LORD, in front of the curtain of the sanctuary.

Le. 4:7 The priest shall then put some of the blood on the horns of the altar of fragrant incense that is before the LORD in the Tent of Meeting. The rest of the bull’s blood he shall pour out at the base of the altar of burnt offering at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Le. 4:8 He shall remove all the fat from the bull of the sin offering — the fat that covers the inner parts or is connected to them,

Le. 4:9 both kidneys with the fat on them near the loins, and the covering of the liver, which he will remove with the kidneys —

Le. 4:10 just as the fat is removed from the ox [The Hebrew word can include both male and female.] sacrificed as a fellowship offering. [Traditionally peace offering; also in verses 26, 31 and 35] Then the priest shall burn them on the altar of burnt offering.

Le. 4:11 But the hide of the bull and all its flesh, as well as the head and legs, the inner parts and offal —

Le. 4:12 that is, all the rest of the bull — he must take outside the camp to a place ceremonially clean, where the ashes are thrown, and burn it in a wood fire on the ash heap.

Le. 4:13 “If the whole Israelite community sins unintentionally and does what is forbidden in any of the LORD’s commands, even though the community is unaware of the matter, they are guilty.

Le. 4:14 When they become aware of the sin they committed, the assembly must bring a young bull as a sin offering and present it before the Tent of Meeting.

Le. 4:15 The elders of the community are to lay their hands on the bull’s head before the LORD, and the bull shall be slaughtered before the LORD.
Le. 4:16 Then the anointed priest is to take some of the bull’s blood into the Tent of Meeting.

Le. 4:17 He shall dip his finger into the blood and sprinkle it before the LORD seven times in front of the curtain.

Le. 4:18 He is to put some of the blood on the horns of the altar that is before the LORD in the Tent of Meeting. The rest of the blood he shall pour out at the base of the altar of burnt offering at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Le. 4:19 He shall remove all the fat from it and burn it on the altar, and do with this bull just as he did with the bull for the sin offering. In this way the priest will make atonement for them, and they will be forgiven.

Le. 4:21 Then he shall take the bull outside the camp and burn it as he burned the first bull. This is the sin offering for the community.

Le. 4:22 “When a leader sins unintentionally and does what is forbidden in any of the commands of the LORD his God, he is guilty.

Le. 4:23 When he is made aware of the sin he committed, he must bring as his offering a male goat without defect.

Le. 4:24 He is to lay his hand on the goat’s head and slaughter it at the place where the burnt offering is slaughtered before the LORD. It is a sin offering.

Le. 4:25 Then the priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering and pour out the rest of the blood at the base of the altar.

Le. 4:26 He shall burn all the fat on the altar as he burned the fat of the fellowship offering. In this way the priest will make atonement for the man’s sin, and he will be forgiven.

Le. 4:27 “If a member of the community sins unintentionally and does what is forbidden in any of the LORD’s commands, he is guilty.
Le. 4:28 When he is made aware of the sin he committed, he must bring as his offering for the sin he committed a female goat without defect.

Le. 4:29 He is to lay his hand on the head of the sin offering and slaughter it at the place of the burnt offering.

Le. 4:30 Then the priest is to take some of the blood with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering and pour out the rest of the blood at the base of the altar.

Le. 4:31 He shall remove all the fat, just as the fat is removed from the fellowship offering, and the priest shall burn it on the altar as an aroma pleasing to the LORD. In this way the priest will make atonement for him, and he will be forgiven.

Le. 4:32 “If he brings a lamb as his sin offering, he is to bring a female without defect.

Le. 4:33 He is to lay his hand on its head and slaughter it for a sin offering at the place where the burnt offering is slaughtered.

Le. 4:34 Then the priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering and pour out the rest of the blood at the base of the altar.

Le. 4:35 He shall remove all the fat, just as the fat is removed from the lamb of the fellowship offering, and the priest shall burn it on the altar on top of the offerings made to the LORD by fire. In this way the priest will make atonement for him for the sin he has committed, and he will be forgiven.

CHAPTER 5

Le. 5:1 “If a person sins because he does not speak up when he hears a public charge to testify regarding something he has seen or learned about, he will be held responsible.

Le. 5:2 “Or if a person touches anything ceremonially unclean — whether the carcasses of unclean wild animals or of unclean livestock or of unclean creatures that move along the ground — even though he is unaware of it, he has become unclean and is guilty.

Le. 5:3 “Or if he touches human uncleanness — anything that would make him unclean — even though he is unaware of it, when he learns of it he will be guilty.

Le. 5:4 “Or if a person thoughtlessly takes an oath to do anything, whether good or evil — in any matter one might carelessly swear about — even though he is unaware of it, in any case when he learns of it he will be guilty.

Le. 5:5 “‘When anyone is guilty in any of these ways, he must confess in what way he has sinned

Le. 5:6 and, as a penalty for the sin he has committed, he must bring to the LORD a female lamb or goat from the flock as a sin offering; and the priest shall make atonement for him for his sin.

Le. 5:7 “‘If he cannot afford a lamb, he is to bring two doves or two young pigeons to the LORD as a penalty for his sin — one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering.

Le. 5:8 He is to bring them to the priest, who shall first offer the one for the sin offering. He is to wring its head from its neck, not severing it completely,

Le. 5:9 and is to sprinkle some of the blood of the sin offering against the side of the altar; the rest of the blood must be drained out at the base of the altar. It is a sin offering.

Le. 5:10 The priest shall then offer the other as a burnt offering in the prescribed way and make atonement for him for the sin he has committed, and he will be forgiven.

Le. 5:11 “‘If, however, he cannot afford two doves or two young pigeons, he is to bring as an offering for his sin a tenth of an ephah [That is, probably about 4 pints (about 2 litres)] of fine flour for a sin offering. He must not put oil or incense on it, because it is a sin offering.
Le. 5:12 He is to bring it to the priest, who shall take a handful of it as a memorial portion and burn it on the altar on top of the offerings made to the LORD by fire. It is a sin offering.

Le. 5:13 In this way the priest will make atonement for him for any of these sins he has committed, and he will be forgiven. The rest of the offering will belong to the priest, as in the case of the grain offering.””

Le. 5:14 The LORD said to Moses:

Le. 5:15 “When a person commits a violation and sins unintentionally in regard to any of the LORD’s holy things, he is to bring to the LORD as a penalty a ram from the flock, one without defect and of the proper value in silver, according to the sanctuary shekel. [That is, about 2/5 ounce (about 11.5 grams)] It is a guilt offering.

Le. 5:16 He must make restitution for what he has failed to do in regard to the holy things, add a fifth of the value to that and give it all to the priest, who will make atonement for him with the ram as a guilt offering, and he will be forgiven.

Le. 5:17 “If a person sins and does what is forbidden in any of the LORD’s commands, even though he does not know it, he is guilty and will be held responsible.

Le. 5:18 He is to bring to the priest as a guilt offering a ram from the flock, one without defect and of the proper value. In this way the priest will make atonement for him for the wrong he has committed unintentionally, and he will be forgiven.

Le. 5:19 It is a guilt offering; he has been guilty of [Or has made full expiation for his] wrongdoing against the LORD.”

CHAPTER 6

Le. 6:1 The LORD said to Moses:
“If anyone sins and is unfaithful to the LORD by deceiving his neighbour about something entrusted to him or left in his care or stolen, or if he cheats him, or if he finds lost property and lies about it, or if he swears falsely, or if he commits any such sin that people may do — when he thus sins and becomes guilty, he must return what he has stolen or taken by extortion, or what was entrusted to him, or the lost property he found, or whatever it was he swore falsely about. He must make restitution in full, add a fifth of the value to it and give it all to the owner on the day he presents his guilt offering.

And as a penalty he must bring to the priest, that is, to the LORD, his guilt offering, a ram from the flock, one without defect and of the proper value.

In this way the priest will make atonement for him before the LORD, and he will be forgiven for any of these things he did that made him guilty.”

The LORD said to Moses:

“Give Aaron and his sons this command: ‘These are the regulations for the burnt offering: The burnt offering is to remain on the altar hearth throughout the night, till morning, and the fire must be kept burning on the altar.

The priest shall then put on his linen clothes, with linen undergarments next to his body, and shall remove the ashes of the burnt offering that the fire has consumed on the altar and place them beside the altar.

Then he is to take off these clothes and put on others, and carry the ashes outside the camp to a place that is ceremonially clean.

The fire on the altar must be kept burning; it must not go out. Every morning the priest is to add firewood and arrange the burnt offering on the fire and burn the fat of the fellowship offerings [Traditionally peace offerings] on it.
Le. 6:13 The fire must be kept burning on the altar continuously; it must not go out.

Le. 6:14 “These are the regulations for the grain offering: Aaron’s sons are to bring it before the LORD, in front of the altar.

Le. 6:15 The priest is to take a handful of fine flour and oil, together with all the incense on the grain offering, and burn the memorial portion on the altar as an aroma pleasing to the LORD.

Le. 6:16 Aaron and his sons shall eat the rest of it, but it is to be eaten without yeast in a holy place; they are to eat it in the courtyard of the Tent of Meeting.

Le. 6:17 It must not be baked with yeast; I have given it as their share of the offerings made to me by fire. Like the sin offering and the guilt offering, it is most holy.

Le. 6:18 Any male descendant of Aaron may eat it. It is his regular share of the offerings made to the LORD by fire for the generations to come. Whatever touches it will become holy.”” [Or Whoever touches them must be holy; similarly in verse 27]

Le. 6:19 The LORD also said to Moses,

Le. 6:20 “This is the offering Aaron and his sons are to bring to the LORD on the day he [Or each] is anointed: a tenth of an ephah [That is, probably about 4 pints (about 2 litres)] of fine flour as a regular grain offering, half of it in the morning and half in the evening.

Le. 6:21 Prepare it with oil on a griddle; bring it well-mixed and present the grain offering broken [The meaning of the Hebrew for this word is uncertain.] in pieces as an aroma pleasing to the LORD.

Le. 6:22 The son who is to succeed him as anointed priest shall prepare it. It is the LORD’s regular share and is to be burned completely.
Le. 6:23  Every grain offering of a priest shall be burned completely; it must not be eaten.”

Le. 6:24  The LORD said to Moses,

Le. 6:25  “Say to Aaron and his sons: ‘These are the regulations for the sin offering: The sin offering is to be slaughtered before the LORD in the place where the burnt offering is slaughtered; it is most holy.

Le. 6:26  The priest who offers it shall eat it; it is to be eaten in a holy place, in the courtyard of the Tent of Meeting.

Le. 6:27  Whatever touches any of the flesh will become holy, and if any of the blood is spattered on a garment, you must wash it in a holy place.

Le. 6:28  The clay pot that the meat is cooked in must be broken; but if it is cooked in a bronze pot, the pot is to be scoured and rinsed with water.

Le. 6:29  Any male in a priest’s family may eat it; it is most holy.

Le. 6:30  But any sin offering whose blood is brought into the Tent of Meeting to make atonement in the Holy Place must not be eaten; it must be burned.

CHAPTER 7

Le. 7:1  “These are the regulations for the guilt offering, which is most holy:

Le. 7:2  The guilt offering is to be slaughtered in the place where the burnt offering is slaughtered, and its blood is to be sprinkled against the altar on all sides.

Le. 7:3  All its fat shall be offered: the fat tail and the fat that covers the inner parts,

Le. 7:4  both kidneys with the fat on them near the loins, and the covering of the liver, which is to be removed with the kidneys.
Le. 7:5 The priest shall burn them on the altar as an offering made to the LORD by fire. It is a guilt offering.

Le. 7:6 Any male in a priest’s family may eat it, but it must be eaten in a holy place; it is most holy.

Le. 7:7 “The same law applies to both the sin offering and the guilt offering: They belong to the priest who makes atonement with them.

Le. 7:8 The priest who offers a burnt offering for anyone may keep its hide for himself.

Le. 7:9 Every grain offering baked in an oven or cooked in a pan or on a griddle belongs to the priest who offers it,

Le. 7:10 and every grain offering, whether mixed with oil or dry, belongs equally to all the sons of Aaron.

Le. 7:11 “These are the regulations for the fellowship offering [Traditionally peace offering; also in verses 13-37] a person may present to the LORD:

Le. 7:12 “If he offers it as an expression of thankfulness, then along with this thank-offering he is to offer cakes of bread made without yeast and mixed with oil, wafers made without yeast and spread with oil, and cakes of fine flour well-kneaded and mixed with oil.

Le. 7:13 Along with his fellowship offering of thanksgiving he is to present an offering with cakes of bread made with yeast.

Le. 7:14 He is to bring one of each kind as an offering, a contribution to the LORD; it belongs to the priest who sprinkles the blood of the fellowship offerings.

Le. 7:15 The meat of his fellowship offering of thanksgiving must be eaten on the day it is offered; he must leave none of it till morning.

Le. 7:16 “If, however, his offering is the result of a vow or is a freewill offering, the sacrifice shall be eaten on the day he offers it, but anything left over may be eaten on the next day.
Le. 7:17 Any meat of the sacrifice left over till the third day must be burned up.

Le. 7:18 If any meat of the fellowship offering is eaten on the third day, it will not be accepted. It will not be credited to the one who offered it, for it is impure; the person who eats any of it will be held responsible.

Le. 7:19 “Meat that touches anything ceremonially unclean must not be eaten; it must be burned up. As for other meat, anyone ceremonially clean may eat it.

Le. 7:20 But if anyone who is unclean eats any meat of the fellowship offering belonging to the LORD, that person must be cut off from his people.

Le. 7:21 If anyone touches something unclean — whether human uncleanness or an unclean animal or any unclean, detestable thing — and then eats any of the meat of the fellowship offering belonging to the LORD, that person must be cut off from his people.”

Le. 7:22 The LORD said to Moses,

Le. 7:23 “Say to the Israelites: ‘Do not eat any of the fat of cattle, sheep or goats.

Le. 7:24 The fat of an animal found dead or torn by wild animals may be used for any other purpose, but you must not eat it.

Le. 7:25 Anyone who eats the fat of an animal from which an offering by fire may be [Or fire is] made to the LORD must be cut off from his people.

Le. 7:26 And wherever you live, you must not eat the blood of any bird or animal.

Le. 7:27 If anyone eats blood, that person must be cut off from his people.’”

Le. 7:28 The LORD said to Moses,
“Say to the Israelites: ‘Anyone who brings a fellowship offering to the LORD is to bring part of it as his sacrifice to the LORD.’

With his own hands he is to bring the offering made to the LORD by fire; he is to bring the fat, together with the breast, and wave the breast before the LORD as a wave offering.

The priest shall burn the fat on the altar, but the breast belongs to Aaron and his sons.

You are to give the right thigh of your fellowship offerings to the priest as a contribution.

The son of Aaron who offers the blood and the fat of the fellowship offering shall have the right thigh as his share.

From the fellowship offerings of the Israelites, I have taken the breast that is waved and the thigh that is presented and have given them to Aaron the priest and his sons as their regular share from the Israelites.’”

This is the portion of the offerings made to the LORD by fire that were allotted to Aaron and his sons on the day they were presented to serve the LORD as priests.

On the day they were anointed, the LORD commanded that the Israelites give this to them as their regular share for the generations to come.

These, then, are the regulations for the burnt offering, the grain offering, the sin offering, the guilt offering, the ordination offering and the fellowship offering, which the LORD gave Moses on Mount Sinai on the day he commanded the Israelites to bring their offerings to the LORD, in the Desert of Sinai.

CHAPTER 8

The LORD said to Moses,
Le. 8:2 “Bring Aaron and his sons, their garments, the anointing oil, the bull for the sin offering, the two rams and the basket containing bread made without yeast,

Le. 8:3 and gather the entire assembly at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.”

Le. 8:4 Moses did as the LORD commanded him, and the assembly gathered at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Le. 8:5 Moses said to the assembly, “This is what the LORD has commanded to be done.”

Le. 8:6 Then Moses brought Aaron and his sons forward and washed them with water.

Le. 8:7 He put the tunic on Aaron, tied the sash around him, clothed him with the robe and put the ephod on him. He also tied the ephod to him by its skilfully woven waistband; so it was fastened on him.

Le. 8:8 He placed the breastpiece on him and put the Urim and Thummim in the breastpiece.

Le. 8:9 Then he placed the turban on Aaron’s head and set the gold plate, the sacred diadem, on the front of it, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Le. 8:10 He sprinkled some of the oil on the altar seven times, anointing the altar and all its utensils and the basin with its stand, to consecrate them.

Le. 8:11 He poured some of the anointing oil on Aaron’s head and anointed him to consecrate him.

Le. 8:12 Then he brought Aaron’s sons forward, put tunics on them, tied sashes around them and put headbands on them, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Le. 8:13 He then presented the bull for the sin offering, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on its head.
Le. 8:15 Moses slaughtered the bull and took some of the blood, and with his finger he put it on all the horns of the altar to purify the altar. He poured out the rest of the blood at the base of the altar. So he consecrated it to make atonement for it.

Le. 8:16 Moses also took all the fat around the inner parts, the covering of the liver, and both kidneys and their fat, and burned it on the altar.

Le. 8:17 But the bull with its hide and its flesh and its offal he burned up outside the camp, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Le. 8:18 He then presented the ram for the burnt offering, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on its head.

Le. 8:19 Then Moses slaughtered the ram and sprinkled the blood against the altar on all sides.

Le. 8:20 He cut the ram into pieces and burned the head, the pieces and the fat.

Le. 8:21 He washed the inner parts and the legs with water and burned the whole ram on the altar as a burnt offering, a pleasing aroma, an offering made to the LORD by fire, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Le. 8:22 He then presented the other ram, the ram for the ordination, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on its head.

Le. 8:23 Moses slaughtered the ram and took some of its blood and put it on the lobe of Aaron’s right ear, on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot.

Le. 8:24 Moses also brought Aaron’s sons forward and put some of the blood on the lobes of their right ears, on the thumbs of their right hands and on the big toes of their right feet. Then he sprinkled blood against the altar on all sides.

Le. 8:25 He took the fat, the fat tail, all the fat around the inner parts, the covering of the liver, both kidneys and their fat and the right thigh.

Le. 8:26 Then from the basket of bread made without yeast, which was before the LORD, he took a cake of bread, and one made with oil, and a wafer; he put these on the fat portions and on the right thigh.

Le. 8:27 He put all these in the hands of Aaron and his sons and waved them before the LORD as a wave offering.

Le. 8:28 Then Moses took them from their hands and burned them on the altar on top of the burnt offering as an ordination offering, a pleasing aroma, an offering made to the LORD by fire.

Le. 8:29 He also took the breast — Moses’ share of the ordination ram — and waved it before the LORD as a wave offering, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Le. 8:30 Then Moses took some of the anointing oil and some of the blood from the altar and sprinkled them on Aaron and his garments and on his sons and their garments. So he consecrated Aaron and his garments and his sons and their garments.

Le. 8:31 Moses then said to Aaron and his sons, “Cook the meat at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting and eat it there with the bread from the basket of ordination offerings, as I commanded, saying, [Or I was commanded:] ‘Aaron and his sons are to eat it.’

Le. 8:32 Then burn up the rest of the meat and the bread.

Le. 8:33 Do not leave the entrance to the Tent of Meeting for seven days, until the days of your ordination are completed, for your ordination will last seven days.

Le. 8:34 What has been done today was commanded by the LORD to make atonement for you.

Le. 8:35 You must stay at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting day and night for seven days and do what the LORD requires, so that you will not die; for that is what I have been commanded.”

Le. 8:36 So Aaron and his sons did everything the LORD commanded through Moses.
Le. 9:1 On the eighth day Moses summoned Aaron and his sons and the elders of Israel.

Le. 9:2 He said to Aaron, “Take a bull calf for your sin offering and a ram for your burnt offering, both without defect, and present them before the LORD.

Le. 9:3 Then say to the Israelites: ‘Take a male goat for a sin offering, a calf and a lamb — both a year old and without defect — for a burnt offering,

Le. 9:4 and an ox [The Hebrew word can include both male and female; also in verses 18 and 19.] and a ram for a fellowship offering [Traditionally peace offering; also in verses 18 and 22] to sacrifice before the LORD, together with a grain offering mixed with oil. For today the LORD will appear to you.’”

Le. 9:5 They took the things Moses commanded to the front of the Tent of Meeting, and the entire assembly came near and stood before the LORD.

Le. 9:6 Then Moses said, “This is what the LORD has commanded you to do, so that the glory of the LORD may appear to you.”

Le. 9:7 Moses said to Aaron, “Come to the altar and sacrifice your sin offering and your burnt offering and make atonement for yourself and the people; sacrifice the offering that is for the people and make atonement for them, as the LORD has commanded.”

Le. 9:8 So Aaron came to the altar and slaughtered the calf as a sin offering for himself.

Le. 9:9 His sons brought the blood to him, and he dipped his finger into the blood and put it on the horns of the altar; the rest of the blood he poured out at the base of the altar.
Le. 9:10 On the altar he burned the fat, the kidneys and the covering of the liver from the sin offering, as the LORD commanded Moses;

Le. 9:11 the flesh and the hide he burned up outside the camp.

Le. 9:12 Then he slaughtered the burnt offering. His sons handed him the blood, and he sprinkled it against the altar on all sides.

Le. 9:13 They handed him the burnt offering piece by piece, including the head, and he burned them on the altar.

Le. 9:14 He washed the inner parts and the legs and burned them on top of the burnt offering on the altar.

Le. 9:15 Aaron then brought the offering that was for the people. He took the goat for the people’s sin offering and slaughtered it and offered it for a sin offering as he did with the first one.

Le. 9:16 He brought the burnt offering and offered it in the prescribed way.

Le. 9:17 He also brought the grain offering, took a handful of it and burned it on the altar in addition to the morning’s burnt offering.

Le. 9:18 He slaughtered the ox and the ram as the fellowship offering for the people. His sons handed him the blood, and he sprinkled it against the altar on all sides.

Le. 9:19 But the fat portions of the ox and the ram — the fat tail, the layer of fat, the kidneys and the covering of the liver —

Le. 9:20 these they laid on the breasts, and then Aaron burned the fat on the altar.

Le. 9:21 Aaron waved the breasts and the right thigh before the LORD as a wave offering, as Moses commanded.

Le. 9:22 Then Aaron lifted his hands towards the people and blessed them. And having sacrificed the sin offering, the burnt offering and the fellowship offering, he stepped down.
Le. 9:23 Moses and Aaron then went into the Tent of Meeting. When they came out, they blessed the people; and the glory of the LORD appeared to all the people.

Le. 9:24 Fire came out from the presence of the LORD and consumed the burnt offering and the fat portions on the altar. And when all the people saw it, they shouted for joy and fell face down.

CHAPTER 10

Le. 10:1 Aaron’s sons Nadab and Abihu took their censers, put fire in them and added incense; and they offered unauthorised fire before the LORD, contrary to his command.

Le. 10:2 So fire came out from the presence of the LORD and consumed them, and they died before the LORD.

Le. 10:3 Moses then said to Aaron, “This is what the LORD spoke of when he said: ‘Among those who approach me I will show myself holy; in the sight of all the people I will be honoured.’” Aaron remained silent.

Le. 10:4 Moses summoned Mishael and Elzaphan, sons of Aaron’s uncle Uzziel, and said to them, “Come here; carry your cousins outside the camp, away from the front of the sanctuary.”

Le. 10:5 So they came and carried them, still in their tunics, outside the camp, as Moses ordered.

Le. 10:6 Then Moses said to Aaron and his sons Eleazar and Ithamar, “Do not let your hair become unkempt, [Or Do not uncover your heads] and do not tear your clothes, or you will die and the LORD will be angry with the whole community. But your relatives, all the house of Israel, may mourn for those the LORD has destroyed by fire.

Le. 10:7 Do not leave the entrance to the Tent of Meeting or you will die, because the LORD’s anointing oil is on you.” So they did as Moses said.
Then the LORD said to Aaron,

“You and your sons are not to drink wine or other fermented drink whenever you go into the Tent of Meeting, or you will die. This is a lasting ordinance for the generations to come.

You must distinguish between the holy and the common, between the unclean and the clean, and you must teach the Israelites all the decrees the LORD has given them through Moses.”

Moses said to Aaron and his remaining sons, Eleazar and Ithamar, “Take the grain offering left over from the offerings made to the LORD by fire and eat it prepared without yeast beside the altar, for it is most holy.

Eat it in a holy place, because it is your share and your sons’ share of the offerings made to the LORD by fire; for so I have been commanded.

But you and your sons and your daughters may eat the breast that was waved and the thigh that was presented. Eat them in a ceremonially clean place; they have been given to you and your children as your share of the Israelites’ fellowship offerings. [Traditionally peace offerings]

The thigh that was presented and the breast that was waved must be brought with the fat portions of the offerings made by fire, to be waved before the LORD as a wave offering. This will be the regular share for you and your children, as the LORD has commanded.”

When Moses enquired about the goat of the sin offering and found that it had been burned up, he was angry with Eleazar and Ithamar, Aaron’s remaining sons, and asked, “Why didn’t you eat the sin offering in the sanctuary area? It is most holy; it was given to you to take away the guilt of the community by making atonement for them before the LORD.

Since its blood was not taken into the Holy Place, you should have eaten the goat in the sanctuary area, as I commanded.”
Le. 10:19 Aaron replied to Moses, “Today they sacrificed their sin offering and their burnt offering before the LORD, but such things as this have happened to me. Would the LORD have been pleased if I had eaten the sin offering today?”

Le. 10:20 When Moses heard this, he was satisfied.

CHAPTER 11

Le. 11:1 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron,

Le. 11:2 “Say to the Israelites: ‘Of all the animals that live on land, these are the ones you may eat:

Le. 11:3 You may eat any animal that has a split hoof completely divided and that chews the cud.

Le. 11:4 “There are some that only chew the cud or only have a split hoof, but you must not eat them. The camel, though it chews the cud, does not have a split hoof; it is ceremonially unclean for you.

Le. 11:5 The coney, [That is, the hyrax or rock badger] though it chews the cud, does not have a split hoof; it is unclean for you.

Le. 11:6 The rabbit, though it chews the cud, does not have a split hoof; it is unclean for you.

Le. 11:7 And the pig, though it has a split hoof completely divided, does not chew the cud; it is unclean for you.

Le. 11:8 You must not eat their meat or touch their carcasses; they are unclean for you.

Le. 11:9 “Of all the creatures living in the water of the seas and the streams, you may eat any that have fins and scales.

Le. 11:10 But all creatures in the seas or streams that do not have fins and scales — whether among all the swarming things or among all the other living creatures in the water — you are to detest.
Le. 11:11 And since you are to detest them, you must not eat their meat and you must detest their carcasses.

Le. 11:12 Anything living in the water that does not have fins and scales is to be detestable to you.

Le. 11:13 “These are the birds you are to detest and not eat because they are detestable: the eagle, the vulture, the black vulture, the red kite, any kind of black kite,

Le. 11:15 any kind of raven,

Le. 11:16 the horned owl, the screech owl, the gull, any kind of hawk,

Le. 11:17 the little owl, the cormorant, the great owl,

Le. 11:18 the white owl, the desert owl, the osprey,

Le. 11:19 the stork, any kind of heron, the hoopoe and the bat. [The precise identification of some of the birds, insects and animals in this chapter is uncertain.]

Le. 11:20 “All flying insects that walk on all fours are to be detestable to you.

Le. 11:21 There are, however, some winged creatures that walk on all fours that you may eat: those that have jointed legs for hopping on the ground.

Le. 11:22 Of these you may eat any kind of locust, katydid, cricket or grasshopper.

Le. 11:23 But all other winged creatures that have four legs you are to detest.

Le. 11:24 “You will make yourselves unclean by these; whoever touches their carcasses will be unclean till evening.

Le. 11:25 Whoever picks up one of their carcasses must wash his clothes, and he will be unclean till evening.

Le. 11:26 “Every animal that has a split hoof not completely divided or that does not chew the cud is unclean for you; whoever touches the carcass of any of them will be unclean.
Le. 11:27 Of all the animals that walk on all fours, those that walk on their paws are unclean for you; whoever touches their carcasses will be unclean till evening.

Le. 11:28 Anyone who picks up their carcasses must wash his clothes, and he will be unclean till evening. They are unclean for you.

Le. 11:29 “Of the animals that move about on the ground, these are unclean for you: the weasel, the rat, any kind of great lizard, the gecko, the monitor lizard, the wall lizard, the skink and the chameleon.

Le. 11:30 Of all those that move along the ground, these are unclean for you. Whoever touches them when they are dead will be unclean till evening.

Le. 11:31 When one of them dies and falls on something, that article, whatever its use, will be unclean, whether it is made of wood, cloth, hide or sackcloth. Put it in water; it will be unclean till evening, and then it will be clean.

Le. 11:32 If one of them falls into a clay pot, everything in it will be unclean, and you must break the pot.

Le. 11:33 Any food that could be eaten but has water on it from such a pot is unclean, and any liquid that could be drunk from it is unclean.

Le. 11:34 Anything that one of their carcasses falls on becomes unclean; an oven or cooking pot must be broken up. They are unclean, and you are to regard them as unclean.

Le. 11:35 A spring, however, or a cistern for collecting water remains clean, but anyone who touches one of these carcasses is unclean.

Le. 11:36 If a carcass falls on any seeds that are to be planted, they remain clean.

Le. 11:37 But if water has been put on the seed and a carcass falls on it, it is unclean for you.
Le. 11:39 “‘If an animal that you are allowed to eat dies, anyone who touches the carcass will be unclean till evening.

Le. 11:40 Anyone who eats some of the carcass must wash his clothes, and he will be unclean till evening. Anyone who picks up the carcass must wash his clothes, and he will be unclean till evening.

Le. 11:41 “‘Every creature that moves about on the ground is detestable; it is not to be eaten.

Le. 11:42 You are not to eat any creature that moves about on the ground, whether it moves on its belly or walks on all fours or on many feet; it is detestable.

Le. 11:43 Do not defile yourselves by any of these creatures. Do not make yourselves unclean by means of them or be made unclean by them.

Le. 11:44 I am the LORD your God; consecrate yourselves and be holy, because I am holy. Do not make yourselves unclean by any creature that moves about on the ground.

Le. 11:45 I am the LORD who brought you up out of Egypt to be your God; therefore be holy, because I am holy.

Le. 11:46 “‘These are the regulations concerning animals, birds, every living thing that moves in the water and every creature that moves about on the ground.

Le. 11:47 You must distinguish between the unclean and the clean, between living creatures that may be eaten and those that may not be eaten.’’

CHAPTER 12

Le. 12:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Le. 12:2 “Say to the Israelites: ‘A woman who becomes pregnant and gives birth to a son will be ceremonially unclean for seven days, just as she is unclean during her monthly period.
Le. 12:3  On the eighth day the boy is to be circumcised.

Le. 12:4  Then the woman must wait thirty-three days to be purified from her bleeding. She must not touch anything sacred or go to the sanctuary until the days of her purification are over.

Le. 12:5  If she gives birth to a daughter, for two weeks the woman will be unclean, as during her period. Then she must wait sixty-six days to be purified from her bleeding.

Le. 12:6  “When the days of her purification for a son or daughter are over, she is to bring to the priest at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting a year-old lamb for a burnt offering and a young pigeon or a dove for a sin offering.

Le. 12:7  He shall offer them before the LORD to make atonement for her, and then she will be ceremonially clean from her flow of blood. “These are the regulations for the woman who gives birth to a boy or a girl.

Le. 12:8  If she cannot afford a lamb, she is to bring two doves or two young pigeons, one for a burnt offering and the other for a sin offering. In this way the priest will make atonement for her, and she will be clean.”

Le. 13:1  The LORD said to Moses and Aaron,

Le. 13:2  “When anyone has a swelling or a rash or a bright spot on his skin that may become an infectious skin disease, [Traditionally leprosy; the Hebrew word was used for various diseases affecting the skin — not necessarily leprosy; also elsewhere in this chapter.] he must be brought to Aaron the priest or to one of his sons [Or descendants] who is a priest.

Le. 13:3  The priest is to examine the sore on his skin, and if the hair in the sore has turned white and the sore appears to be more than skin deep, [Or be lower than the rest of the skin; also elsewhere in this chapter] it is an infectious skin disease.
When the priest examines him, he shall pronounce him ceremonially unclean.

Le. 13:4 If the spot on his skin is white but does not appear to be more than skin deep and the hair in it has not turned white, the priest is to put the infected person in isolation for seven days.

Le. 13:5 On the seventh day the priest is to examine him, and if he sees that the sore is unchanged and has not spread in the skin, he is to keep him in isolation another seven days.

Le. 13:6 On the seventh day the priest is to examine him again, and if the sore has faded and has not spread in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him clean; it is only a rash. The man must wash his clothes, and he will be clean.

Le. 13:7 But if the rash does spread in his skin after he has shown himself to the priest to be pronounced clean, he must appear before the priest again.

Le. 13:8 The priest is to examine him, and if the rash has spread in the skin, he shall pronounce him unclean; it is an infectious disease.

Le. 13:9 “When anyone has an infectious skin disease, he must be brought to the priest.

Le. 13:10 The priest is to examine him, and if there is a white swelling in the skin that has turned the hair white and if there is raw flesh in the swelling,

Le. 13:11 it is a chronic skin disease and the priest shall pronounce him unclean. He is not to put him in isolation, because he is already unclean.

Le. 13:12 “If the disease breaks out all over his skin and, so far as the priest can see, it covers all the skin of the infected person from head to foot,

Le. 13:13 the priest is to examine him, and if the disease has covered his whole body, he shall pronounce that person clean. Since it has all turned white, he is clean.
Le. 13:14 But whenever raw flesh appears on him, he will be unclean.

Le. 13:15 When the priest sees the raw flesh, he shall pronounce him unclean. The raw flesh is unclean; he has an infectious disease.

Le. 13:16 Should the raw flesh change and turn white, he must go to the priest.

Le. 13:17 The priest is to examine him, and if the sores have turned white, the priest shall pronounce the infected person clean; then he will be clean.

Le. 13:18 “When someone has a boil on his skin and it heals,

Le. 13:19 and in the place where the boil was, a white swelling or reddish-white spot appears, he must present himself to the priest.

Le. 13:20 The priest is to examine it, and if it appears to be more than skin deep and the hair in it has turned white, the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is an infectious skin disease that has broken out where the boil was.

Le. 13:21 But if, when the priest examines it, there is no white hair in it and it is not more than skin deep and has faded, then the priest is to put him in isolation for seven days.

Le. 13:22 If it is spreading in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is infectious.

Le. 13:23 But if the spot is unchanged and has not spread, it is only a scar from the boil, and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

Le. 13:24 “When someone has a burn on his skin and a reddish-white or white spot appears in the raw flesh of the burn,

Le. 13:25 the priest is to examine the spot, and if the hair in it has turned white, and it appears to be more than skin deep, it is an infectious disease that has broken out in the burn. The priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is an infectious skin disease.
Le. 13:26 But if the priest examines it and there is no white hair in the spot and if it is not more than skin deep and has faded, then the priest is to put him in isolation for seven days.

Le. 13:27 On the seventh day the priest is to examine him, and if it is spreading in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is an infectious skin disease.

Le. 13:28 If, however, the spot is unchanged and has not spread in the skin but has faded, it is a swelling from the burn, and the priest shall pronounce him clean; it is only a scar from the burn.

Le. 13:29 “If a man or woman has a sore on the head or on the chin,

Le. 13:30 the priest is to examine the sore, and if it appears to be more than skin deep and the hair in it is yellow and thin, the priest shall pronounce that person unclean; it is an itch, an infectious disease of the head or chin.

Le. 13:31 But if, when the priest examines this kind of sore, it does not seem to be more than skin deep and there is no black hair in it, then the priest is to put the infected person in isolation for seven days.

Le. 13:32 On the seventh day the priest is to examine the itch, and if the itch has not spread and there is no yellow hair in it and it does not appear to be more than skin deep,

Le. 13:33 he must be shaved except for the diseased area, and the priest is to keep him in isolation another seven days.

Le. 13:34 On the seventh day the priest is to examine the itch, and if it has not spread in the skin and appears to be no more than skin deep, the priest shall pronounce him clean. He must wash his clothes, and he will be clean.

Le. 13:35 But if the itch does spread in the skin after he is pronounced clean,

Le. 13:36 the priest is to examine him, and if the itch has spread in the skin, the priest does not need to look for yellow hair; the person is unclean.
If, however, in his judgment it is unchanged and black hair has grown in it, the itch is healed. He is clean, and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

“When a man or woman has white spots on the skin, the priest is to examine them, and if the spots are dull white, it is a harmless rash that has broken out on the skin; that person is clean.

“When a man has lost his hair and is bald, he is clean.

If he has lost his hair from the front of his scalp and has a bald forehead, he is clean.

But if he has a reddish-white sore on his bald head or forehead, it is an infectious disease breaking out on his head or forehead.

The priest is to examine him, and if the swollen sore on his head or forehead is reddish-white like an infectious skin disease, the man is diseased and is unclean. The priest shall pronounce him unclean because of the sore on his head.

“The person with such an infectious disease must wear torn clothes, let his hair be unkempt, [Or clothes, uncover his head] cover the lower part of his face and cry out, ‘Unclean! Unclean!’

As long as he has the infection he remains unclean. He must live alone; he must live outside the camp.

“If any clothing is contaminated with mildew — any woollen or linen clothing, any woven or knitted material of linen or wool, any leather or anything made of leather — and if the contamination in the clothing, or leather, or woven or knitted material, or any leather article, is greenish or reddish, it is a spreading mildew and must be shown to the priest.

Le. 13:50 The priest is to examine the mildew and isolate the affected article for seven days.

Le. 13:51 On the seventh day he is to examine it, and if the mildew has spread in the clothing, or the woven or knitted material, or the leather, whatever its use, it is a destructive mildew; the article is unclean.

Le. 13:52 He must burn up the clothing, or the woven or knitted material of wool or linen, or any leather article that has the contamination in it, because the mildew is destructive; the article must be burned up.

Le. 13:53 “But if, when the priest examines it, the mildew has not spread in the clothing, or the woven or knitted material, or the leather article,

Le. 13:54 he shall order that the contaminated article be washed. Then he is to isolate it for another seven days.

Le. 13:55 After the affected article has been washed, the priest is to examine it, and if the mildew has not changed its appearance, even though it has not spread, it is unclean. Burn it with fire, whether the mildew has affected one side or the other.

Le. 13:56 If, when the priest examines it, the mildew has faded after the article has been washed, he is to tear the contaminated part out of the clothing, or the leather, or the woven or knitted material.

Le. 13:57 But if it reappears in the clothing, or in the woven or knitted material, or in the leather article, it is spreading, and whatever has the mildew must be burned with fire.

Le. 13:58 The clothing, or the woven or knitted material, or any leather article that has been washed and is rid of the mildew, must be washed again, and it will be clean.”

Le. 13:59 These are the regulations concerning contamination by mildew in woollen or linen clothing, woven or knitted material, or any leather article, for pronouncing them clean or unclean.
The LORD said to Moses,

These are the regulations for the diseased person at the time of his ceremonial cleansing, when he is brought to the priest:

The priest is to go outside the camp and examine him. If the person has been healed of his infectious skin disease, [Traditionally leprosy; the Hebrew word was used for various diseases affecting the skin — not necessarily leprosy; also elsewhere in this chapter.]

The priest shall order that two live clean birds and some cedar wood, scarlet yarn and hyssop be brought for the one to be cleansed.

Then the priest shall order that one of the birds be killed over fresh water in a clay pot.

He is then to take the live bird and dip it, together with the cedar wood, the scarlet yarn and the hyssop, into the blood of the bird that was killed over the fresh water.

Seven times he shall sprinkle the one to be cleansed of the infectious disease and pronounce him clean. Then he is to release the live bird in the open fields.

The person to be cleansed must wash his clothes, shave off all his hair and bathe with water; then he will be ceremonially clean. After this he may come into the camp, but he must stay outside his tent for seven days.

On the seventh day he must shave off all his hair; he must shave his head, his beard, his eyebrows and the rest of his hair. He must wash his clothes and bathe himself with water, and he will be clean.

“On the eighth day he must bring two male lambs and one ewe lamb a year old, each without defect, along with three-tenths of an ephah [That is, probably about 11 1/2 pints (about 6.5 litres)] of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering, and one log [That is, probably about 1/2 pint (about 0.3 litre); also in verses 12, 15, 21 and 24] of oil.

Le. 14:11 The priest who pronounces him clean shall present both the one to be cleansed and his offerings before the LORD at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Le. 14:12 “Then the priest is to take one of the male lambs and offer it as a guilt offering, along with the log of oil; he shall wave them before the LORD as a wave offering.

Le. 14:13 He is to slaughter the lamb in the holy place where the sin offering and the burnt offering are slaughtered. Like the sin offering, the guilt offering belongs to the priest; it is most holy.

Le. 14:14 The priest is to take some of the blood of the guilt offering and put it on the lobe of the right ear of the one to be cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot.

Le. 14:15 The priest shall then take some of the log of oil, pour it in the palm of his own left hand, Le. 14:16 dip his right forefinger into the oil in his palm, and with his finger sprinkle some of it before the LORD seven times.

Le. 14:17 The priest is to put some of the oil remaining in his palm on the lobe of the right ear of the one to be cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot, on top of the blood of the guilt offering.

Le. 14:18 The rest of the oil in his palm the priest shall put on the head of the one to be cleansed and make atonement for him before the LORD.

Le. 14:19 “Then the priest is to sacrifice the sin offering and make atonement for the one to be cleansed from his uncleanness. After that, the priest shall slaughter the burnt offering

Le. 14:20 and offer it on the altar, together with the grain offering, and make atonement for him, and he will be clean.
“If, however, he is poor and cannot afford these, he must take one male lamb as a guilt offering to be waved to make atonement for him, together with a tenth of an ephah [That is, probably about 4 pints (about 2 litres)] of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering, a log of oil, and two doves or two young pigeons, which he can afford, one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering.

“On the eighth day he must bring them for his cleansing to the priest at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, before the LORD.

He shall slaughter the lamb for the guilt offering and take some of its blood and put it on the lobe of the right ear of the one to be cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot.

The priest is to pour some of the oil into the palm of his own left hand, and with his right forefinger sprinkle some of the oil from his palm seven times before the LORD.

Some of the oil in his palm he is to put on the same places he put the blood of the guilt offering — on the lobe of the right ear of the one to be cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot.

The rest of the oil in his palm the priest shall put on the head of the one to be cleansed, to make atonement for him before the LORD.

Then he shall sacrifice the doves or the young pigeons, which the person can afford, one [Septuagint and Syriac; Hebrew 31 such as the person can afford, one] as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering, together with the grain offering. In this way the priest will make atonement before the LORD on behalf of the one to be cleansed.”

Le. 14:32 These are the regulations for anyone who has an infectious skin disease and who cannot afford the regular offerings for his cleansing.

Le. 14:33 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron,

Le. 14:34 “When you enter the land of Canaan, which I am giving you as your possession, and I put a spreading mildew in a house in that land,

Le. 14:35 the owner of the house must go and tell the priest, ‘I have seen something that looks like mildew in my house.’

Le. 14:36 The priest is to order the house to be emptied before he goes in to examine the mildew, so that nothing in the house will be pronounced unclean. After this the priest is to go in and inspect the house.

Le. 14:37 He is to examine the mildew on the walls, and if it has greenish or reddish depressions that appear to be deeper than the surface of the wall,

Le. 14:38 the priest shall go out of the doorway of the house and close it up for seven days.

Le. 14:39 On the seventh day the priest shall return to inspect the house. If the mildew has spread on the walls,

Le. 14:40 he is to order that the contaminated stones be torn out and thrown into an unclean place outside the town.

Le. 14:41 He must have all the inside walls of the house scraped and the material that is scraped off dumped into an unclean place outside the town.

Le. 14:42 Then they are to take other stones to replace these and take new clay and plaster the house.

Le. 14:43 “If the mildew reappears in the house after the stones have been torn out and the house scraped and plastered,
Le. 14:44 the priest is to go and examine it and, if the mildew has spread in the house, it is a destructive mildew; the house is unclean.

Le. 14:45 It must be torn down — its stones, timbers and all the plaster — and taken out of the town to an unclean place.

Le. 14:46 “Anyone who goes into the house while it is closed up will be unclean till evening.

Le. 14:47 Anyone who sleeps or eats in the house must wash his clothes.

Le. 14:48 “But if the priest comes to examine it and the mildew has not spread after the house has been plastered, he shall pronounce the house clean, because the mildew is gone.

Le. 14:49 To purify the house he is to take two birds and some cedar wood, scarlet yarn and hyssop.

Le. 14:50 He shall kill one of the birds over fresh water in a clay pot.

Le. 14:51 Then he is to take the cedar wood, the hyssop, the scarlet yarn and the live bird, dip them into the blood of the dead bird and the fresh water, and sprinkle the house seven times.

Le. 14:52 He shall purify the house with the bird’s blood, the fresh water, the live bird, the cedar wood, the hyssop and the scarlet yarn.

Le. 14:53 Then he is to release the live bird in the open fields outside the town. In this way he will make atonement for the house, and it will be clean.”

Le. 14:54 These are the regulations for any infectious skin disease, for an itch,

Le. 14:55 for mildew in clothing or in a house,

Le. 14:56 and for a swelling, a rash or a bright spot,

Le. 14:57 to determine when something is clean or unclean. These are the regulations for infectious skin diseases and mildew.
The LORD said to Moses and Aaron,

Speak to the Israelites and say to them: ‘When any man has a bodily discharge, the discharge is unclean.

Whether it continues flowing from his body or is blocked, it will make him unclean. This is how his discharge will bring about uncleanness:

“Any bed the man with a discharge lies on will be unclean, and anything he sits on will be unclean.

Anyone who touches his bed must wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will be unclean till evening.

Whoever sits on anything that the man with a discharge sat on must wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will be unclean till evening.

“Whoever touches the man who has a discharge must wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will be unclean till evening.

“If the man with the discharge spits on someone who is clean, that person must wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will be unclean till evening.

“Anything the man sits on when riding will be unclean, and whoever touches any of the things that were under him will be unclean till evening; whoever picks up those things must wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will be unclean till evening.

“Anyone the man with a discharge touches without rinsing his hands with water must wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will be unclean till evening.

“A clay pot that the man touches must be broken, and any wooden article is to be rinsed with water.
Le. 15:13 “When a man is cleansed from his discharge, he is to count off seven days for his ceremonial cleansing; he must wash his clothes and bathe himself with fresh water, and he will be clean.

Le. 15:14 On the eighth day he must take two doves or two young pigeons and come before the LORD to the entrance to the Tent of Meeting and give them to the priest.

Le. 15:15 The priest is to sacrifice them, the one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering. In this way he will make atonement before the LORD for the man because of his discharge.

Le. 15:16 “When a man has an emission of semen, he must bathe his whole body with water, and he will be unclean till evening.

Le. 15:17 Any clothing or leather that has semen on it must be washed with water, and it will be unclean till evening.

Le. 15:18 When a man lies with a woman and there is an emission of semen, both must bathe with water, and they will be unclean till evening.

Le. 15:19 “When a woman has her regular flow of blood, the impurity of her monthly period will last seven days, and anyone who touches her will be unclean till evening.

Le. 15:20 “Anything she lies on during her period will be unclean, and anything she sits on will be unclean.

Le. 15:21 Whoever touches her bed must wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will be unclean till evening.

Le. 15:22 Whoever touches anything she sits on must wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will be unclean till evening.

Le. 15:23 Whether it is the bed or anything she was sitting on, when anyone touches it, he will be unclean till evening.

Le. 15:24 “If a man lies with her and her monthly flow touches him, he will be unclean for seven days; any bed he lies on will be unclean.
ʻWhen a woman has a discharge of blood for many days at a time other than her monthly period or has a discharge that continues beyond her period, she will be unclean as long as she has the discharge, just as in the days of her period.

Any bed she lies on while her discharge continues will be unclean, as is her bed during her monthly period, and anything she sits on will be unclean, as during her period.

Whoever touches them will be unclean; he must wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will be unclean till evening.

ʻWhen she is cleansed from her discharge, she must count off seven days, and after that she will be ceremonially clean.

On the eighth day she must take two doves or two young pigeons and bring them to the priest at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

The priest is to sacrifice one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering. In this way he will make atonement for her before the LORD for the uncleanness of her discharge.

ʻYou must keep the Israelites separate from things that make them unclean, so they will not die in their uncleanness for defiling my dwelling-place, [Or my tabernacle] which is among them.ʻ

These are the regulations for a man with a discharge, for anyone made unclean by an emission of semen, for a woman in her monthly period, for a man or a woman with a discharge, and for a man who lies with a woman who is ceremonially unclean.

CHAPTER 16

The LORD spoke to Moses after the death of the two sons of Aaron who died when they approached the LORD.
Le. 16:2 The LORD said to Moses: “Tell your brother Aaron not to come whenever he chooses into the Most Holy Place behind the curtain in front of the atonement cover on the ark, or else he will die, because I appear in the cloud over the atonement cover.

Le. 16:3 “This is how Aaron is to enter the sanctuary area: with a young bull for a sin offering and a ram for a burnt offering.

Le. 16:4 He is to put on the sacred linen tunic, with linen undergarments next to his body; he is to tie the linen sash around him and put on the linen turban. These are sacred garments; so he must bathe himself with water before he puts them on.

Le. 16:5 From the Israelite community he is to take two male goats for a sin offering and a ram for a burnt offering.

Le. 16:6 “Aaron is to offer the bull for his own sin offering to make atonement for himself and his household.

Le. 16:7 Then he is to take the two goats and present them before the LORD at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Le. 16:8 He is to cast lots for the two goats — one lot for the LORD and the other for the scapegoat. [That is, the goat of removal; Hebrew azazel; also in verses 10 and 26]

Le. 16:9 Aaron shall bring the goat whose lot falls to the LORD and sacrifice it for a sin offering.

Le. 16:10 But the goat chosen by lot as the scapegoat shall be presented alive before the LORD to be used for making atonement by sending it into the desert as a scapegoat.

Le. 16:11 “Aaron shall bring the bull for his own sin offering to make atonement for himself and his household, and he is to slaughter the bull for his own sin offering.

Le. 16:12 He is to take a censer full of burning coals from the altar before the LORD and two handfuls of finely ground fragrant incense and take them behind the curtain.
Le. 16:13  He is to put the incense on the fire before the LORD, and the smoke of the incense will conceal the atonement cover above the Testimony, so that he will not die.

Le. 16:14  He is to take some of the bull’s blood and with his finger sprinkle it on the front of the atonement cover; then he shall sprinkle some of it with his finger seven times before the atonement cover.

Le. 16:15  “He shall then slaughter the goat for the sin offering for the people and take its blood behind the curtain and do with it as he did with the bull’s blood: He shall sprinkle it on the atonement cover and in front of it.

Le. 16:16  In this way he will make atonement for the Most Holy Place because of the uncleanness and rebellion of the Israelites, whatever their sins have been. He is to do the same for the Tent of Meeting, which is among them in the midst of their uncleanness.

Le. 16:17  No-one is to be in the Tent of Meeting from the time Aaron goes in to make atonement in the Most Holy Place until he comes out, having made atonement for himself, his household and the whole community of Israel.

Le. 16:18  “Then he shall come out to the altar that is before the LORD and make atonement for it. He shall take some of the bull’s blood and some of the goat’s blood and put it on all the horns of the altar.

Le. 16:19  He shall sprinkle some of the blood on it with his finger seven times to cleanse it and consecrate it from the uncleanness of the Israelites.

Le. 16:20  “When Aaron has finished making atonement for the Most Holy Place, the Tent of Meeting and the altar, he shall bring forward the live goat.

Le. 16:21  He is to lay both hands on the head of the live goat and confess over it all the wickedness and rebellion of the Israelites — all their sins — and put them on the goat’s head.
He shall send the goat away into the desert in the care of a man appointed for the task.

Le. 16:22 The goat will carry on itself all their sins to a solitary place; and the man shall release it in the desert.

Le. 16:23 “Then Aaron is to go into the Tent of Meeting and take off the linen garments he put on before he entered the Most Holy Place, and he is to leave them there.

Le. 16:24 He shall bathe himself with water in a holy place and put on his regular garments. Then he shall come out and sacrifice the burnt offering for himself and the burnt offering for the people, to make atonement for himself and for the people.

Le. 16:25 He shall also burn the fat of the sin offering on the altar.

Le. 16:26 “The man who releases the goat as a scapegoat must wash his clothes and bathe himself with water; afterwards he may come into the camp.

Le. 16:27 The bull and the goat for the sin offerings, whose blood was brought into the Most Holy Place to make atonement, must be taken outside the camp; their hides, flesh and offal are to be burned up.

Le. 16:28 The man who burns them must wash his clothes and bathe himself with water; afterwards he may come into the camp.

Le. 16:29 “This is to be a lasting ordinance for you: On the tenth day of the seventh month you must deny yourselves [Or must fast; also in verse 31] and not do any work — whether native-born or an alien living among you —

Le. 16:30 because on this day atonement will be made for you, to cleanse you. Then, before the LORD, you will be clean from all your sins.

Le. 16:31 It is a sabbath of rest, and you must deny yourselves; it is a lasting ordinance.

Le. 16:32 The priest who is anointed and ordained to succeed his father as high priest is to make atonement. He is to put on the sacred linen garments
Le. 16:33 and make atonement for the Most Holy Place, for the Tent of Meeting and the altar, and for the priests and all the people of the community.

Le. 16:34 “This is to be a lasting ordinance for you: Atonement is to be made once a year for all the sins of the Israelites.” And it was done, as the LORD commanded Moses.

CHAPTER 17

Le. 17:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Le. 17:2 “Speak to Aaron and his sons and to all the Israelites and say to them: ‘This is what the LORD has commanded:

Le. 17:3 Any Israelite who sacrifices an ox, [The Hebrew word can include both male and female.] a lamb or a goat in the camp or outside of it instead of bringing it to the entrance to the Tent of Meeting to present it as an offering to the LORD in front of the tabernacle of the LORD — that man shall be considered guilty of bloodshed; he has shed blood and must be cut off from his people.

Le. 17:5 This is so that the Israelites will bring to the LORD the sacrifices they are now making in the open fields. They must bring them to the priest, that is, to the LORD, at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting and sacrifice them as fellowship offerings. [Traditionally peace offerings]

Le. 17:6 The priest is to sprinkle the blood against the altar of the LORD at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting and burn the fat as an aroma pleasing to the LORD.

Le. 17:7 They must no longer offer any of their sacrifices to the goat idols [Or demons] to whom they prostitute themselves. This is to be a lasting ordinance for them and for the generations to come.’
Le. 17:8 “Say to them: ‘Any Israelite or any alien living among them who offers a burnt offering or sacrifice and does not bring it to the entrance to the Tent of Meeting to sacrifice it to the LORD — that man must be cut off from his people.

Le. 17:10 “‘Any Israelite or any alien living among them who eats any blood — I will set my face against that person who eats blood and will cut him off from his people.

Le. 17:11 For the life of a creature is in the blood, and I have given it to you to make atonement for yourselves on the altar; it is the blood that makes atonement for one’s life.

Le. 17:12 Therefore I say to the Israelites, “None of you may eat blood, nor may an alien living among you eat blood.”

Le. 17:13 “‘Any Israelite or any alien living among you who hunts any animal or bird that may be eaten must drain out the blood and cover it with earth,

Le. 17:14 because the life of every creature is its blood. That is why I have said to the Israelites, “You must not eat the blood of any creature, because the life of every creature is its blood; anyone who eats it must be cut off.”

Le. 17:15 “Anyone, whether native-born or alien, who eats anything found dead or torn by wild animals must wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will be ceremonially unclean till evening; then he will be clean.

Le. 17:16 But if he does not wash his clothes and bathe himself, he will be held responsible.’”

CHAPTER 18

Le. 18:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Le. 18:2 “Speak to the Israelites and say to them: ‘I am the LORD your God.
Le. 18:3 You must not do as they do in Egypt, where you used to live, and you must not do as they do in the land of Canaan, where I am bringing you. Do not follow their practices.

Le. 18:4 You must obey my laws and be careful to follow my decrees. I am the LORD your God.

Le. 18:5 Keep my decrees and laws, for the man who obeys them will live by them. I am the LORD.

Le. 18:6 “No-one is to approach any close relative to have sexual relations. I am the LORD.

Le. 18:7 “Do not dishonour your father by having sexual relations with your mother. She is your mother; do not have relations with her.

Le. 18:8 “Do not have sexual relations with your father’s wife; that would dishonour your father.

Le. 18:9 “Do not have sexual relations with your sister, either your father’s daughter or your mother’s daughter, whether she was born in the same home or elsewhere.

Le. 18:10 “Do not have sexual relations with your son’s daughter or your daughter’s daughter; that would dishonour you.

Le. 18:11 “Do not have sexual relations with the daughter of your father’s wife, born to your father; she is your sister.

Le. 18:12 “Do not have sexual relations with your father’s sister; she is your father’s close relative.

Le. 18:13 “Do not dishonour your father’s brother by approaching his wife to have sexual relations; she is your aunt.

Le. 18:14 “Do not have sexual relations with your daughter-in-law. She is your son’s wife; do not have relations with her.

Le. 18:15 “Do not have sexual relations with your brother’s wife; that would dishonour your brother.
Le. 18:17 “Do not have sexual relations with both a woman and her daughter. Do not have sexual relations with either her son’s daughter or her daughter’s daughter; they are her close relatives. That is wickedness.

Le. 18:18 “Do not take your wife’s sister as a rival wife and have sexual relations with her while your wife is living.

Le. 18:19 “Do not approach a woman to have sexual relations during the uncleanness of her monthly period.

Le. 18:20 “Do not have sexual relations with your neighbour’s wife and defile yourself with her.

Le. 18:21 “Do not give any of your children to be sacrificed [Or to be passed through the fire] to Molech, for you must not profane the name of your God. I am the LORD.

Le. 18:22 “Do not lie with a man as one lies with a woman; that is detestable.

Le. 18:23 “Do not have sexual relations with an animal and defile yourself with it. A woman must not present herself to an animal to have sexual relations with it; that is a perversion.

Le. 18:24 “Do not defile yourselves in any of these ways, because this is how the nations that I am going to drive out before you became defiled.

Le. 18:25 Even the land was defiled; so I punished it for its sin, and the land vomited out its inhabitants.

Le. 18:26 But you must keep my decrees and my laws. The native-born and the aliens living among you must not do any of these detestable things,

Le. 18:27 for all these things were done by the people who lived in the land before you, and the land became defiled.

Le. 18:28 And if you defile the land, it will vomit you out as it vomited out the nations that were before you.

Le. 18:29 “Everyone who does any of these detestable things — such persons must be cut off from their people.
Le. 18:30 Keep my requirements and do not follow any of the detestable customs that were practised before you came and do not defile yourselves with them. I am the LORD your God.”

CHAPTER 19

Le. 19:1 The LORD said to Moses,
Le. 19:2 “Speak to the entire assembly of Israel and say to them: ‘Be holy because I, the LORD your God, am holy.
Le. 19:3 “Each of you must respect his mother and father, and you must observe my Sabbaths. I am the LORD your God.
Le. 19:4 “Do not turn to idols or make gods of cast metal for yourselves. I am the LORD your God.
Le. 19:5 “When you sacrifice a fellowship offering [Traditionally peace offering] to the LORD, sacrifice it in such a way that it will be accepted on your behalf.
Le. 19:6 It shall be eaten on the day you sacrifice it or on the next day; anything left over until the third day must be burned up.
Le. 19:7 If any of it is eaten on the third day, it is impure and will not be accepted.
Le. 19:8 Whoever eats it will be held responsible because he has desecrated what is holy to the LORD; that person must be cut off from his people.
Le. 19:9 “When you reap the harvest of your land, do not reap to the very edges of your field or gather the gleanings of your harvest.
Le. 19:10 Do not go over your vineyard a second time or pick up the grapes that have fallen. Leave them for the poor and the alien. I am the LORD your God.
Le. 19:12  "Do not swear falsely by my name and so profane the name of your God. I am the LORD.

Le. 19:13  "Do not defraud your neighbour or rob him. "Do not hold back the wages of a hired man overnight.

Le. 19:14  "Do not curse the deaf or put a stumbling-block in front of the blind, but fear your God. I am the LORD.

Le. 19:15  "Do not pervert justice; do not show partiality to the poor or favouritism to the great, but judge your neighbour fairly.

Le. 19:16  "Do not go about spreading slander among your people. "Do not do anything that endangers your neighbour's life. I am the LORD.

Le. 19:17  "Do not hate your brother in your heart. Rebuke your neighbour frankly so that you will not share in his guilt.

Le. 19:18  "Do not seek revenge or bear a grudge against one of your people, but love your neighbour as yourself. I am the LORD.

Le. 19:19  "Keep my decrees. "Do not mate different kinds of animals. "Do not plant your field with two kinds of seed. "Do not wear clothing woven of two kinds of material.

Le. 19:20  "If a man sleeps with a woman who is a slave girl promised to another man but who has not been ransomed or given her freedom, there must be due punishment. Yet they are not to be put to death, because she had not been freed.

Le. 19:21  The man, however, must bring a ram to the entrance to the Tent of Meeting for a guilt offering to the LORD.

Le. 19:22  With the ram of the guilt offering the priest is to make atonement for him before the LORD for the sin he has committed, and his sin will be forgiven.

Le. 19:23  "When you enter the land and plant any kind of fruit tree, regard its fruit as forbidden. [Hebrew uncircumcised] For three years you are to consider it forbidden; [Hebrew uncircumcised] it must not be eaten.
Le. 19:24  In the fourth year all its fruit will be holy, an offering of praise to the LORD.

Le. 19:25  But in the fifth year you may eat its fruit. In this way your harvest will be increased. I am the LORD your God.

Le. 19:26  “Do not eat any meat with the blood still in it. “Do not practise divination or sorcery.

Le. 19:27  “Do not cut the hair at the sides of your head or clip off the edges of your beard.

Le. 19:28  “Do not cut your bodies for the dead or put tattoo marks on yourselves. I am the LORD.

Le. 19:29  “Do not degrade your daughter by making her a prostitute, or the land will turn to prostitution and be filled with wickedness.

Le. 19:30  “Observe my Sabbaths and have reverence for my sanctuary. I am the LORD.

Le. 19:31  “Do not turn to mediums or seek out spiritists, for you will be defiled by them. I am the LORD your God.

Le. 19:32  “Rise in the presence of the aged, show respect for the elderly and revere your God. I am the LORD.

Le. 19:33  “When an alien lives with you in your land, do not ill-treat him.

Le. 19:34  The alien living with you must be treated as one of your native-born. Love him as yourself, for you were aliens in Egypt. I am the LORD your God.

Le. 19:35  “Do not use dishonest standards when measuring length, weight or quantity.

Le. 19:36  Use honest scales and honest weights, an honest ephah [An ephah was a dry measure.] and an honest hin. [A hin was a liquid measure.] I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of Egypt.

Le. 19:37  “Keep all my decrees and all my laws and follow them. I am the LORD.”
CHAPTER 20

Le. 20:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Le. 20:2 “Say to the Israelites: ‘Any Israelite or any alien living in Israel who gives [Or sacrifices; also in verses 3 and 4] any of his children to Molech must be put to death. The people of the community are to stone him.

Le. 20:3 I will set my face against that man and I will cut him off from his people; for by giving his children to Molech, he has defiled my sanctuary and profaned my holy name.

Le. 20:4 If the people of the community close their eyes when that man gives one of his children to Molech and they fail to put him to death,

Le. 20:5 I will set my face against that man and his family and will cut off from their people both him and all who follow him in prostituting themselves to Molech.

Le. 20:6 “I will set my face against the person who turns to mediums and spiritists to prostitute himself by following them, and I will cut him off from his people.

Le. 20:7 “Consecrate yourselves and be holy, because I am the LORD your God.

Le. 20:8 Keep my decrees and follow them. I am the LORD, who makes you holy. [Or who sanctifies you; or who sets you apart as holy]

Le. 20:9 “If anyone curses his father or mother, he must be put to death. He has cursed his father or his mother, and his blood will be on his own head.

Le. 20:10 “If a man commits adultery with another man’s wife — with the wife of his neighbour — both the adulterer and the adulteress must be put to death.

Le. 20:11 “If a man sleeps with his father’s wife, he has dishonoured his father. Both the man and the woman must be put to death; their blood will be on their own heads.
Le. 20:12 “If a man sleeps with his daughter-in-law, both of them must be put to death. What they have done is a perversion; their blood will be on their own heads.

Le. 20:13 “If a man lies with a man as one lies with a woman, both of them have done what is detestable. They must be put to death; their blood will be on their own heads.

Le. 20:14 “If a man marries both a woman and her mother, it is wicked. Both he and they must be burned in the fire, so that no wickedness will be among you.

Le. 20:15 “If a man has sexual relations with an animal, he must be put to death, and you must kill the animal.

Le. 20:16 “If a woman approaches an animal to have sexual relations with it, kill both the woman and the animal. They must be put to death; their blood will be on their own heads.

Le. 20:17 “If a man marries his sister, the daughter of either his father or his mother, and they have sexual relations, it is a disgrace. They must be cut off before the eyes of their people. He has dishonoured his sister and will be held responsible.

Le. 20:18 “If a man lies with a woman during her monthly period and has sexual relations with her, he has exposed the source of her flow, and she has also uncovered it. Both of them must be cut off from their people.

Le. 20:19 “Do not have sexual relations with the sister of either your mother or your father, for that would dishonour a close relative; both of you would be held responsible.

Le. 20:20 “If a man sleeps with his aunt, he has dishonoured his uncle. They will be held responsible; they will die childless.

Le. 20:21 “If a man marries his brother’s wife, it is an act of impurity; he has dishonoured his brother. They will be childless.

Le. 20:22 “Keep all my decrees and laws and follow them, so that the land where I am bringing you to live may not vomit you out.
Le. 20:23 You must not live according to the customs of the nations I am going to drive out before you. Because they did all these things, I abhorred them.

Le. 20:24 But I said to you, “You will possess their land; I will give it to you as an inheritance, a land flowing with milk and honey.” I am the LORD your God, who has set you apart from the nations.

Le. 20:25 “You must therefore make a distinction between clean and unclean animals and between unclean and clean birds. Do not defile yourselves by any animal or bird or anything that moves along the ground — those which I have set apart as unclean for you.

Le. 20:26 You are to be holy to me [Or be my holy ones] because I, the LORD, am holy, and I have set you apart from the nations to be my own.

Le. 20:27 “A man or woman who is a medium or spiritist among you must be put to death. You are to stone them; their blood will be on their own heads.”

CHAPTER 21

Le. 21:1 The LORD said to Moses, “Speak to the priests, the sons of Aaron, and say to them: ‘A priest must not make himself ceremonially unclean for any of his people who die,

Le. 21:2 except for a close relative, such as his mother or father, his son or daughter, his brother,

Le. 21:3 or an unmarried sister who is dependent on him since she has no husband — for her he may make himself unclean.

Le. 21:4 He must not make himself unclean for people related to him by marriage, [Or unclean as a leader among his people] and so defile himself.

Le. 21:5 “Priests must not shave their heads or shave off the edges of their beards or cut their bodies.
Le. 21:6 They must be holy to their God and must not profane the name of their God. Because they present the offerings made to the LORD by fire, the food of their God, they are to be holy.

Le. 21:7 “They must not marry women defiled by prostitution or divorced from their husbands, because priests are holy to their God.

Le. 21:8 Regard them as holy, because they offer up the food of your God. Consider them holy, because I the LORD am holy — I who make you holy. [Or who sanctify you; or who set you apart as holy]

Le. 21:9 “If a priest’s daughter defiles herself by becoming a prostitute, she disgraces her father; she must be burned in the fire.

Le. 21:10 “The high priest, the one among his brothers who has had the anointing oil poured on his head and who has been ordained to wear the priestly garments, must not let his hair become unkempt [Or not uncover his head] or tear his clothes.

Le. 21:11 He must not enter a place where there is a dead body. He must not make himself unclean, even for his father or mother, Le. 21:12 nor leave the sanctuary of his God or desecrate it, because he has been dedicated by the anointing oil of his God. I am the LORD.

Le. 21:13 “The woman he marries must be a virgin.

Le. 21:14 He must not marry a widow, a divorced woman, or a woman defiled by prostitution, but only a virgin from his own people,

Le. 21:15 so that he will not defile his offspring among his people. I am the LORD, who makes him holy.” [Or who sanctifies him; or who sets him apart as holy]

Le. 21:16 The LORD said to Moses,
Le. 21:17 “Say to Aaron: ‘For the generations to come none of your descendants who has a defect may come near to offer the food of his God.’

Le. 21:18 No man who has any defect may come near: no man who is blind or lame, disfigured or deformed;

Le. 21:19 no man with a crippled foot or hand,

Le. 21:20 or who is hunchbacked or dwarfed, or who has any eye defect, or who has festering or running sores or damaged testicles.

Le. 21:21 No descendant of Aaron the priest who has any defect is to come near to present the offerings made to the LORD by fire. He has a defect; he must not come near to offer the food of his God.

Le. 21:22 He may eat the most holy food of his God, as well as the holy food;

Le. 21:23 yet because of his defect, he must not go near the curtain or approach the altar, and so desecrate my sanctuary. I am the LORD, who makes them holy.’” [Or who sanctifies them; or who sets them apart as holy]

Le. 21:24 So Moses told this to Aaron and his sons and to all the Israelites.

CHAPTER 22

Le. 22:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Le. 22:2 “Tell Aaron and his sons to treat with respect the sacred offerings the Israelites consecrate to me, so that they will not profane my holy name. I am the LORD.

Le. 22:3 “Say to them: ‘For the generations to come, if any of your descendants is ceremonially unclean and yet comes near the sacred offerings that the Israelites consecrate to the LORD, that person must be cut off from my presence. I am the LORD.”
Le. 22:4 “If a descendant of Aaron has an infectious skin disease [Traditionally leprosy; the Hebrew word was used for various diseases affecting the skin — not necessarily leprosy.] or a bodily discharge, he may not eat the sacred offerings until he is cleansed. He will also be unclean if he touches something defiled by a corpse or by anyone who has an emission of semen,

Le. 22:5 or if he touches any crawling thing that makes him unclean, or any person who makes him unclean, whatever the uncleanness may be.

Le. 22:6 The one who touches any such thing will be unclean till evening. He must not eat any of the sacred offerings unless he has bathed himself with water.

Le. 22:7 When the sun goes down, he will be clean, and after that he may eat the sacred offerings, for they are his food.

Le. 22:8 He must not eat anything found dead or torn by wild animals, and so become unclean through it. I am the LORD.

Le. 22:9 “The priests are to keep my requirements so that they do not become guilty and die for treating them with contempt. I am the LORD, who makes them holy. [Or who sanctifies them; or who sets them apart as holy; also in verse 16]

Le. 22:10 “No-one outside a priest’s family may eat the sacred offering, nor may the guest of a priest or his hired worker eat it.

Le. 22:11 But if a priest buys a slave with money, or if a slave is born in his household, that slave may eat his food.

Le. 22:12 If a priest’s daughter marries anyone other than a priest, she may not eat any of the sacred contributions.

Le. 22:13 But if a priest’s daughter becomes a widow or is divorced, yet has no children, and she returns to live in her father’s house as in her youth, she may eat of her father’s food. No unauthorised person, however, may eat any of it.
Le. 22:14 “‘If anyone eats a sacred offering by mistake, he must make restitution to the priest for the offering and add a fifth of the value to it.

Le. 22:15 The priests must not desecrate the sacred offerings the Israelites present to the LORD

Le. 22:16 by allowing them to eat the sacred offerings and so bring upon them guilt requiring payment. I am the LORD, who makes them holy.’”

Le. 22:17 The LORD said to Moses,

Le. 22:18 “Speak to Aaron and his sons and to all the Israelites and say to them: ‘If any of you — either an Israelite or an alien living in Israel — presents a gift for a burnt offering to the LORD, either to fulfil a vow or as a freewill offering,

Le. 22:19 you must present a male without defect from the cattle, sheep or goats in order that it may be accepted on your behalf.

Le. 22:20 Do not bring anything with a defect, because it will not be accepted on your behalf.

Le. 22:21 When anyone brings from the herd or flock a fellowship offering [Traditionally peace offering] to the LORD to fulfil a special vow or as a freewill offering, it must be without defect or blemish to be acceptable.

Le. 22:22 Do not offer to the LORD the blind, the injured or the maimed, or anything with warts or festering or running sores. Do not place any of these on the altar as an offering made to the LORD by fire.

Le. 22:23 You may, however, present as a freewill offering an ox [The Hebrew word can include both male and female.] or a sheep that is deformed or stunted, but it will not be accepted in fulfilment of a vow.

Le. 22:24 You must not offer to the LORD an animal whose testicles are bruised, crushed, torn or cut. You must not do this in your own land,
Le. 22:25 and you must not accept such animals from the hand of a foreigner and offer them as the food of your God. They will not be accepted on your behalf, because they are deformed and have defects.’”

Le. 22:26 The LORD said to Moses,

Le. 22:27 “When a calf, a lamb or a goat is born, it is to remain with its mother for seven days. From the eighth day on, it will be acceptable as an offering made to the LORD by fire.

Le. 22:28 Do not slaughter a cow or a sheep and its young on the same day.

Le. 22:29 “When you sacrifice a thank-offering to the LORD, sacrifice it in such a way that it will be accepted on your behalf.

Le. 22:30 It must be eaten that same day; leave none of it till morning. I am the LORD.

Le. 22:31 “Keep my commands and follow them. I am the LORD.

Le. 22:32 Do not profane my holy name. I must be acknowledged as holy by the Israelites. I am the LORD, who makes [Or made] you holy [Or who sanctifies you; or who sets you apart as holy]

Le. 22:33 and who brought you out of Egypt to be your God. I am the LORD.”

CHAPTER 23

Le. 23:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Le. 23:2 “Speak to the Israelites and say to them: ‘These are my appointed feasts, the appointed feasts of the LORD, which you are to proclaim as sacred assemblies.

Le. 23:3 “There are six days when you may work, but the seventh day is a Sabbath of rest, a day of sacred assembly. You are not to do any work; wherever you live, it is a Sabbath to the LORD.
Le. 23:4  “These are the LORD’s appointed feasts, the sacred assemblies you are to proclaim at their appointed times:

Le. 23:5  The LORD’s Passover begins at twilight on the fourteenth day of the first month.

Le. 23:6  On the fifteenth day of that month the LORD’s Feast of Unleavened Bread begins; for seven days you must eat bread made without yeast.

Le. 23:7  On the first day hold a sacred assembly and do no regular work.

Le. 23:8  For seven days present an offering made to the LORD by fire. And on the seventh day hold a sacred assembly and do no regular work.”

Le. 23:9  The LORD said to Moses,

Le. 23:10  “Speak to the Israelites and say to them: ‘When you enter the land I am going to give you and you reap its harvest, bring to the priest a sheaf of the first grain you harvest.

Le. 23:11  He is to wave the sheaf before the LORD so it will be accepted on your behalf; the priest is to wave it on the day after the Sabbath.

Le. 23:12  On the day you wave the sheaf, you must sacrifice as a burnt offering to the LORD a lamb a year old without defect,

Le. 23:13  together with its grain offering of two-tenths of an ephah [That is, probably about 7 1/2 pints (about 4.5 litres); also in verse 17] of fine flour mixed with oil — an offering made to the LORD by fire, a pleasing aroma — and its drink offering of a quarter of a hin [That is, probably about 1 1/2 pints (about 1 litre)] of wine.

Le. 23:14  You must not eat any bread, or roasted or new grain, until the very day you bring this offering to your God. This is to be a lasting ordinance for the generations to come, wherever you live.

Le. 23:15  “From the day after the Sabbath, the day you brought the sheaf of the wave offering, count off seven full weeks.
Le. 23:16 Count off fifty days up to the day after the seventh Sabbath, and then present an offering of new grain to the LORD.

Le. 23:17 From wherever you live, bring two loaves made of two-tenths of an ephah of fine flour, baked with yeast, as a wave offering of firstfruits to the LORD.

Le. 23:18 Present with this bread seven male lambs, each a year old and without defect, one young bull and two rams. They will be a burnt offering to the LORD, together with their grain offerings and drink offerings — an offering made by fire, an aroma pleasing to the LORD.

Le. 23:19 Then sacrifice one male goat for a sin offering and two lambs, each a year old, for a fellowship offering. [Traditionally peace offering]

Le. 23:20 The priest is to wave the two lambs before the LORD as a wave offering, together with the bread of the firstfruits. They are a sacred offering to the LORD for the priest.

Le. 23:21 On that same day you are to proclaim a sacred assembly and do no regular work. This is to be a lasting ordinance for the generations to come, wherever you live.

Le. 23:22 “When you reap the harvest of your land, do not reap to the very edges of your field or gather the gleanings of your harvest. Leave them for the poor and the alien. I am the LORD your God.”

Le. 23:23 The LORD said to Moses,

Le. 23:24 “Say to the Israelites: ‘On the first day of the seventh month you are to have a day of rest, a sacred assembly commemorated with trumpet blasts.

Le. 23:25 Do no regular work, but present an offering made to the LORD by fire.’”

Le. 23:26 The LORD said to Moses,

Le. 23:27 “The tenth day of this seventh month is the Day of Atonement. Hold a sacred assembly and deny yourselves, [Or and fast; also in verses 29 and 32] and present an offering made to the LORD by fire.

Le. 23:28 Do no work on that day, because it is the Day of Atonement, when atonement is made for you before the LORD your God.

Le. 23:29 Anyone who does not deny himself on that day must be cut off from his people.

Le. 23:30 I will destroy from among his people anyone who does any work on that day.

Le. 23:31 You shall do no work at all. This is to be a lasting ordinance for the generations to come, wherever you live.

Le. 23:32 It is a sabbath of rest for you, and you must deny yourselves. From the evening of the ninth day of the month until the following evening you are to observe your sabbath.”

Le. 23:33 The LORD said to Moses,

Le. 23:34 “Say to the Israelites: ‘On the fifteenth day of the seventh month the LORD’s Feast of Tabernacles begins, and it lasts for seven days.

Le. 23:35 The first day is a sacred assembly; do no regular work.

Le. 23:36 For seven days present offerings made to the LORD by fire, and on the eighth day hold a sacred assembly and present an offering made to the LORD by fire. It is the closing assembly; do no regular work.

Le. 23:37 (“These are the LORD’s appointed feasts, which you are to proclaim as sacred assemblies for bringing offerings made to the LORD by fire — the burnt offerings and grain offerings, sacrifices and drink offerings required for each day.

Le. 23:38 These offerings are in addition to those for the LORD’s Sabbaths and [Or These feasts are in addition to the LORD’s Sabbaths, and these offerings are] in addition to your gifts and whatever you have vowed and all the freewill offerings you give to the LORD.)
Le. 23:39 So beginning with the fifteenth day of the seventh month, after you have gathered the crops of the land, celebrate the festival to the LORD for seven days; the first day is a day of rest, and the eighth day also is a day of rest.

Le. 23:40 On the first day you are to take choice fruit from the trees, and palm fronds, leafy branches and poplars, and rejoice before the LORD your God for seven days.

Le. 23:41 Celebrate this as a festival to the LORD for seven days each year. This is to be a lasting ordinance for the generations to come; celebrate it in the seventh month.

Le. 23:42 Live in booths for seven days: All native-born Israelites are to live in booths so that your descendants will know that I made the Israelites live in booths when I brought them out of Egypt. I am the LORD your God.”

Le. 23:43 So Moses announced to the Israelites the appointed feasts of the LORD.

CHAPTER 24

Le. 24:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Le. 24:2 “Command the Israelites to bring you clear oil of pressed olives for the light so that the lamps may be kept burning continually.

Le. 24:3 Outside the curtain of the Testimony in the Tent of Meeting, Aaron is to tend the lamps before the LORD from evening till morning, continually. This is to be a lasting ordinance for the generations to come.

Le. 24:4 The lamps on the pure gold lampstand before the LORD must be tended continually.

Le. 24:5 “Take fine flour and bake twelve loaves of bread, using two-tenths of an ephah [That is, probably about 7 1/2 pints (about 4.5 litres)] for each loaf.
Le. 24:6  Set them in two rows, six in each row, on the table of pure gold before the LORD.

Le. 24:7  Along each row put some pure incense as a memorial portion to represent the bread and to be an offering made to the LORD by fire.

Le. 24:8  This bread is to be set out before the LORD regularly, Sabbath after Sabbath, on behalf of the Israelites, as a lasting covenant.

Le. 24:9  It belongs to Aaron and his sons, who are to eat it in a holy place, because it is a most holy part of their regular share of the offerings made to the LORD by fire.”

Le. 24:10 Now the son of an Israelite mother and an Egyptian father went out among the Israelites, and a fight broke out in the camp between him and an Israelite.

Le. 24:11 The son of the Israelite woman blasphemed the Name with a curse; so they brought him to Moses. (His mother’s name was Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri the Danite.)

Le. 24:12 They put him in custody until the will of the LORD should be made clear to them.

Le. 24:13 Then the LORD said to Moses: “Take the blasphemer outside the camp. All those who heard him are to lay their hands on his head, and the entire assembly is to stone him.

Le. 24:14 Say to the Israelites: ‘If anyone curses his God, he will be held responsible;

Le. 24:15 anyone who blasphemes the name of the LORD must be put to death. The entire assembly must stone him. Whether an alien or native-born, when he blasphemes the Name, he must be put to death.

Le. 24:16 “‘If anyone takes the life of a human being, he must be put to death.
Le. 24:18 Anyone who takes the life of someone’s animal must make restitution — life for life.

Le. 24:19 If anyone injures his neighbour, whatever he has done must be done to him:

Le. 24:20 fracture for fracture, eye for eye, tooth for tooth. As he has injured the other, so he is to be injured.

Le. 24:21 Whoever kills an animal must make restitution, but whoever kills a man must be put to death.

Le. 24:22 You are to have the same law for the alien and the native-born. I am the LORD your God.”

Le. 24:23 Then Moses spoke to the Israelites, and they took the blasphemer outside the camp and stoned him. The Israelites did as the LORD commanded Moses.

CHAPTER 25

Le. 25:1 The LORD said to Moses on Mount Sinai,

Le. 25:2 “Speak to the Israelites and say to them: ‘When you enter the land I am going to give you, the land itself must observe a sabbath to the LORD.

Le. 25:3 For six years sow your fields, and for six years prune your vineyards and gather their crops.

Le. 25:4 But in the seventh year the land is to have a sabbath of rest, a sabbath to the LORD. Do not sow your fields or prune your vineyards.

Le. 25:5 Do not reap what grows of itself or harvest the grapes of your untended vines. The land is to have a year of rest.

Le. 25:6 Whatever the land yields during the sabbath year will be food for you — for yourself, your manservant and maidservant, and the hired worker and temporary resident who live among you,
Le. 25:7 as well as for your livestock and the wild animals in your land. Whatever the land produces may be eaten.

Le. 25:8 “Count off seven sabbaths of years — seven times seven years — so that the seven sabbaths of years amount to a period of forty-nine years.

Le. 25:9 Then have the trumpet sounded everywhere on the tenth day of the seventh month; on the Day of Atonement sound the trumpet throughout your land.

Le. 25:10 Consecrate the fiftieth year and proclaim liberty throughout the land to all its inhabitants. It shall be a jubilee for you; each one of you is to return to his family property and each to his own clan.

Le. 25:11 The fiftieth year shall be a jubilee for you; do not sow and do not reap what grows of itself or harvest the untended vines.

Le. 25:12 For it is a jubilee and is to be holy for you; eat only what is taken directly from the fields.

Le. 25:13 “In this Year of Jubilee everyone is to return to his own property.

Le. 25:14 “If you sell land to one of your countrymen or buy any from him, do not take advantage of each other.

Le. 25:15 You are to buy from your countryman on the basis of the number of years since the Jubilee. And he is to sell to you on the basis of the number of years left for harvesting crops.

Le. 25:16 When the years are many, you are to increase the price, and when the years are few, you are to decrease the price, because what he is really selling you is the number of crops.

Le. 25:17 Do not take advantage of each other, but fear your God. I am the LORD your God.

Le. 25:18 “Follow my decrees and be careful to obey my laws, and you will live safely in the land.

Le. 25:19 Then the land will yield its fruit, and you will eat your fill and live there in safety.
Le. 25:20 You may ask, “What will we eat in the seventh year if we do not plant or harvest our crops?”

Le. 25:21 I will send you such a blessing in the sixth year that the land will yield enough for three years.

Le. 25:22 While you plant during the eighth year, you will eat from the old crop and will continue to eat from it until the harvest of the ninth year comes in.

Le. 25:23 “The land must not be sold permanently, because the land is mine and you are but aliens and my tenants.

Le. 25:24 Throughout the country that you hold as a possession, you must provide for the redemption of the land.

Le. 25:25 “If one of your countrymen becomes poor and sells some of his property, his nearest relative is to come and redeem what his countryman has sold.

Le. 25:26 If, however, a man has no-one to redeem it for him but he himself prospers and acquires sufficient means to redeem it,

Le. 25:27 he is to determine the value for the years since he sold it and refund the balance to the man to whom he sold it; he can then go back to his own property.

Le. 25:28 But if he does not acquire the means to repay him, what he sold will remain in the possession of the buyer until the Year of Jubilee. It will be returned in the Jubilee, and he can then go back to his property.

Le. 25:29 “If a man sells a house in a walled city, he retains the right of redemption a full year after its sale. During that time he may redeem it.

Le. 25:30 If it is not redeemed before a full year has passed, the house in the walled city shall belong permanently to the buyer and his descendants. It is not to be returned in the Jubilee.

Le. 25:31 But houses in villages without walls round them are to be considered as open country. They can be redeemed, and they are to be returned in the Jubilee.
Le. 25:32 “The Levites always have the right to redeem their houses in the Levitical towns, which they possess.

Le. 25:33 So the property of the Levites is redeemable — that is, a house sold in any town they hold — and is to be returned in the Jubilee, because the houses in the towns of the Levites are their property among the Israelites.

Le. 25:34 But the pasture-land belonging to their towns must not be sold; it is their permanent possession.

Le. 25:35 “If one of your countrymen becomes poor and is unable to support himself among you, help him as you would an alien or a temporary resident, so that he can continue to live among you.

Le. 25:36 Do not take interest of any kind [Or take excessive interest; similarly in verse 37] from him, but fear your God, so that your countryman may continue to live among you.

Le. 25:37 You must not lend him money at interest or sell him food at a profit.

Le. 25:38 I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of Egypt to give you the land of Canaan and to be your God.

Le. 25:39 “If one of your countrymen becomes poor among you and sells himself to you, do not make him work as a slave.

Le. 25:40 He is to be treated as a hired worker or a temporary resident among you; he is to work for you until the Year of Jubilee.

Le. 25:41 Then he and his children are to be released, and he will go back to his own clan and to the property of his forefathers.

Le. 25:42 Because the Israelites are my servants, whom I brought out of Egypt, they must not be sold as slaves.

Le. 25:43 Do not rule over them ruthlessly, but fear your God.

Le. 25:44 “Your male and female slaves are to come from the nations around you; from them you may buy slaves.
Le. 25:45 You may also buy some of the temporary residents living among you and members of their clans born in your country, and they will become your property.

Le. 25:46 You can will them to your children as inherited property and can make them slaves for life, but you must not rule over your fellow Israelites ruthlessly.

Le. 25:47 ‘‘If an alien or a temporary resident among you becomes rich and one of your countrymen becomes poor and sells himself to the alien living among you or to a member of the alien’s clan,

Le. 25:48 he retains the right of redemption after he has sold himself. One of his relatives may redeem him:

Le. 25:49 An uncle or a cousin or any blood-relative in his clan may redeem him. Or if he prospers, he may redeem himself.

Le. 25:50 He and his buyer are to count the time from the year he sold himself up to the Year of Jubilee. The price for his release is to be based on the rate paid to a hired man for that number of years.

Le. 25:51 If many years remain, he must pay for his redemption a larger share of the price paid for him.

Le. 25:52 If only a few years remain until the Year of Jubilee, he is to compute that and pay for his redemption accordingly.

Le. 25:53 He is to be treated as a man hired from year to year; you must see to it that his owner does not rule over him ruthlessly.

Le. 25:54 ‘‘Even if he is not redeemed in any of these ways, he and his children are to be released in the Year of Jubilee, Le. 25:55 for the Israelites belong to me as servants. They are my servants, whom I brought out of Egypt. I am the LORD your God.

CHAPTER 26

Le. 26:1 “Do not make idols or set up an image or a sacred stone for yourselves, and do not place a carved stone in your land to bow down before it. I am the LORD your God.

Le. 26:2 “Observe my Sabbaths and have reverence for my sanctuary. I am the LORD.

Le. 26:3 “If you follow my decrees and are careful to obey my commands,

Le. 26:4 I will send you rain in its season, and the ground will yield its crops and the trees of the field their fruit.

Le. 26:5 Your threshing will continue until grape harvest and the grape harvest will continue until planting, and you will eat all the food you want and live in safety in your land.

Le. 26:6 “I will grant peace in the land, and you will lie down and no-one will make you afraid. I will remove savage beasts from the land, and the sword will not pass through your country.

Le. 26:7 You will pursue your enemies, and they will fall by the sword before you.

Le. 26:8 Five of you will chase a hundred, and a hundred of you will chase ten thousand, and your enemies will fall by the sword before you.

Le. 26:9 “I will look on you with favour and make you fruitful and increase your numbers, and I will keep my covenant with you.

Le. 26:10 You will still be eating last year’s harvest when you will have to move it out to make room for the new.

Le. 26:11 I will put my dwelling-place [Or my tabernacle] among you, and I will not abhor you.

Le. 26:12 I will walk among you and be your God, and you will be my people.
Le. 26:13 I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of Egypt so that you would no longer be slaves to the Egyptians; I broke the bars of your yoke and enabled you to walk with heads held high.

Le. 26:14 “But if you will not listen to me and carry out all these commands,

Le. 26:15 and if you reject my decrees and abhor my laws and fail to carry out all my commands and so violate my covenant,

Le. 26:16 then I will do this to you: I will bring upon you sudden terror, wasting diseases and fever that will destroy your sight and drain away your life. You will plant seed in vain, because your enemies will eat it.

Le. 26:17 I will set my face against you so that you will be defeated by your enemies; those who hate you will rule over you, and you will flee even when no-one is pursuing you.

Le. 26:18 “If after all this you will not listen to me, I will punish you for your sins seven times over.

Le. 26:19 I will break down your stubborn pride and make the sky above you like iron and the ground beneath you like bronze.

Le. 26:20 Your strength will be spent in vain, because your soil will not yield its crops, nor will the trees of the land yield their fruit.

Le. 26:21 “If you remain hostile towards me and refuse to listen to me, I will multiply your afflictions seven times over, as your sins deserve.

Le. 26:22 I will send wild animals against you, and they will rob you of your children, destroy your cattle and make you so few in number that your roads will be deserted.

Le. 26:23 “If in spite of these things you do not accept my correction but continue to be hostile towards me,

Le. 26:24 I myself will be hostile towards you and will afflict you for your sins seven times over.
Le. 26:25 And I will bring the sword upon you to avenge the breaking of the covenant. When you withdraw into your cities, I will send a plague among you, and you will be given into enemy hands.

Le. 26:26 When I cut off your supply of bread, ten women will be able to bake your bread in one oven, and they will dole out the bread by weight. You will eat, but you will not be satisfied.

Le. 26:27 “If in spite of this you still do not listen to me but continue to be hostile towards me,

Le. 26:28 then in my anger I will be hostile towards you, and I myself will punish you for your sins seven times over.

Le. 26:29 You will eat the flesh of your sons and the flesh of your daughters.

Le. 26:30 I will destroy your high places, cut down your incense altars and pile your dead bodies on the lifeless forms of your idols, and I will abhor you.

Le. 26:31 I will turn your cities into ruins and lay waste your sanctuaries, and I will take no delight in the pleasing aroma of your offerings.

Le. 26:32 I will lay waste the land, so that your enemies who live there will be appalled.

Le. 26:33 I will scatter you among the nations and will draw out my sword and pursue you. Your land will be laid waste, and your cities will lie in ruins.

Le. 26:34 Then the land will enjoy its sabbath years all the time that it lies desolate and you are in the country of your enemies; then the land will rest and enjoy its sabbaths.

Le. 26:35 All the time that it lies desolate, the land will have the rest it did not have during the sabbaths you lived in it.

Le. 26:36 “As for those of you who are left, I will make their hearts so fearful in the lands of their enemies that the sound of a wind-blown leaf will put them to flight. They will run as though fleeing from the sword, and they will fall, even though no-one is pursuing them.

Le. 26:37 They will stumble over one another as though fleeing from the sword, even though no-one is pursuing them. So you will not be able to stand before your enemies.

Le. 26:38 You will perish among the nations; the land of your enemies will devour you.

Le. 26:39 Those of you who are left will waste away in the lands of their enemies because of their sins; also because of their fathers’ sins they will waste away.

Le. 26:40 “But if they will confess their sins and the sins of their fathers — their treachery against me and their hostility towards me,

Le. 26:41 which made me hostile towards them so that I sent them into the land of their enemies — then when their uncircumcised hearts are humbled and they pay for their sin,

Le. 26:42 I will remember my covenant with Jacob and my covenant with Isaac and my covenant with Abraham, and I will remember the land.

Le. 26:43 For the land will be deserted by them and will enjoy its sabbaths while it lies desolate without them. They will pay for their sins because they rejected my laws and abhorred my decrees.

Le. 26:44 Yet in spite of this, when they are in the land of their enemies, I will not reject them or abhor them so as to destroy them completely, breaking my covenant with them. I am the LORD their God.

Le. 26:45 But for their sake I will remember the covenant with their ancestors whom I brought out of Egypt in the sight of the nations to be their God. I am the LORD.”

Le. 26:46 These are the decrees, the laws and the regulations that the LORD established on Mount Sinai between himself and the Israelites through Moses.
Le. 27:1 The LORD said to Moses,
Le. 27:2 “Speak to the Israelites and say to them: ‘If anyone makes a special vow to dedicate persons to the LORD by giving equivalent values,
Le. 27:3 set the value of a male between the ages of twenty and sixty at fifty shekels [That is, about 1 1/4 pounds (about 0.6 kilogram); also in verse 16] of silver, according to the sanctuary shekel; [That is, about 2/5 ounce (about 11.5 grams); also in verse 25] and if it is a female, set her value at thirty shekels. [That is, about 12 ounces (about 0.3 kilogram)]
Le. 27:4 If it is a person between the ages of five and twenty, set the value of a male at twenty shekels [That is, about 8 ounces (about 0.2 kilogram)] and of a female at ten shekels. [That is, about 4 ounces (about 115 grams); also in verse 7]
Le. 27:5 If it is a person between one month and five years, set the value of a male at five shekels [That is, about 2 ounces (about 55 grams)] of silver and that of a female at three shekels [That is, about 1 1/4 ounces (about 35 grams)] of silver.
Le. 27:6 If it is a person sixty years old or more, set the value of a male at fifteen shekels [That is, about 6 ounces (about 170 grams)] and of a female at ten shekels.
Le. 27:7 If anyone making the vow is too poor to pay the specified amount, he is to present the person to the priest, who will set the value for him according to what the man making the vow can afford.
Le. 27:8 “‘If what he vowed is an animal that is acceptable as an offering to the LORD, such an animal given to the LORD becomes holy.
Le. 27:10 He must not exchange it or substitute a good one for a bad one, or a bad one for a good one; if he should substitute one animal for another, both it and the substitute become holy.

Le. 27:11 If what he vowed is a ceremonially unclean animal — one that is not acceptable as an offering to the LORD — the animal must be presented to the priest,

Le. 27:12 who will judge its quality as good or bad. Whatever value the priest then sets, that is what it will be.

Le. 27:13 If the owner wishes to redeem the animal, he must add a fifth to its value.

Le. 27:14 “If a man dedicates his house as something holy to the LORD, the priest will judge its quality as good or bad. Whatever value the priest then sets, so it will remain.

Le. 27:15 If the man who dedicates his house redeems it, he must add a fifth to its value, and the house will again become his.

Le. 27:16 “If a man dedicates to the LORD part of his family land, its value is to be set according to the amount of seed required for it — fifty shekels of silver to a homer [That is, probably about 6 bushels (about 220 litres)] of barley seed.

Le. 27:17 If he dedicates his field during the Year of Jubilee, the value that has been set remains.

Le. 27:18 But if he dedicates his field after the Jubilee, the priest will determine the value according to the number of years that remain until the next Year of Jubilee, and its set value will be reduced.

Le. 27:19 If the man who dedicates the field wishes to redeem it, he must add a fifth to its value, and the field will again become his.

Le. 27:20 If, however, he does not redeem the field, or if he has sold it to someone else, it can never be redeemed.

Le. 27:21 When the field is released in the Jubilee, it will become holy, like a field devoted to the LORD; it will become the property of the priests. [Or priest]
Le. 27:22 “If a man dedicates to the LORD a field he has bought, which is not part of his family land,

Le. 27:23 the priest will determine its value up to the Year of Jubilee, and the man must pay its value on that day as something holy to the LORD.

Le. 27:24 In the Year of Jubilee the field will revert to the person from whom he bought it, the one whose land it was.

Le. 27:25 Every value is to be set according to the sanctuary shekel, twenty gerahs to the shekel.

Le. 27:26 “No-one, however, may dedicate the firstborn of an animal, since the firstborn already belongs to the LORD; whether an ox [The Hebrew word can include both male and female.] or a sheep, it is the LORD’s.

Le. 27:27 If it is one of the unclean animals, he may buy it back at its set value, adding a fifth of the value to it. If he does not redeem it, it is to be sold at its set value.

Le. 27:28 “But nothing that a man owns and devotes [The Hebrew term refers to the irrevocable giving over of things or persons to the LORD.] to the LORD — whether man or animal or family land — may be sold or redeemed; everything so devoted is most holy to the LORD.

Le. 27:29 “No person devoted to destruction [The Hebrew term refers to the irrevocable giving over of things or persons to the LORD, often by totally destroying them.] may be ransomed; he must be put to death.

Le. 27:30 “A tithe of everything from the land, whether grain from the soil or fruit from the trees, belongs to the LORD; it is holy to the LORD.

Le. 27:31 If a man redeems any of his tithe, he must add a fifth of the value to it.

Le. 27:32 The entire tithe of the herd and flock — every tenth animal that passes under the shepherd’s rod — will be holy to the LORD.
Le. 27:33 He must not pick out the good from the bad or make any substitution. If he does make a substitution, both the animal and its substitute become holy and cannot be redeemed.”

Le. 27:34 These are the commands the LORD gave Moses on Mount Sinai for the Israelites.
The LORD spoke to Moses in the Tent of Meeting in the Desert of Sinai on the first day of the second month of the second year after the Israelites came out of Egypt. He said:

“Take a census of the whole Israelite community by their clans and families, listing every man by name, one by one.

You and Aaron are to number by their divisions all the men in Israel twenty years old or more who are able to serve in the army.

One man from each tribe, each the head of his family, is to help you.

These are the names of the men who are to assist you: from Reuben, Elizur son of Shedeur; from Simeon, Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai; from Judah, Nahshon son of Amminadab; from Issachar, Nethanel son of Zuar;
from Zebulun, Eliab son of Helon; from the sons of Joseph: from Ephraim, Elishama son of Ammihud; from Manasseh, Gamaliel son of Pedahzur; from Benjamin, Abidan son of Gideoni;
from Dan, Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai;
from Asher, Pagiel son of Ocran;
from Gad, Eliasaph son of Deuel;
from Naphtali, Ahira son of Enan.”
These were the men appointed from the community, the leaders of their ancestral tribes. They were the heads of the clans of Israel.

Moses and Aaron took these men whose names had been given, and they called the whole community together on the first day of the second month. The people indicated their ancestry by their clans and families, and the men twenty years old or more were listed by name, one by one, as the LORD commanded Moses. And so he counted them in the Desert of Sinai:

From the descendants of Reuben the firstborn son of Israel: All the men twenty years old or more who were able to serve in the army were listed by name, one by one, according to the records of their clans and families.

The number from the tribe of Reuben was 46,500.

From the descendants of Simeon: All the men twenty years old or more who were able to serve in the army were counted and listed by name, one by one, according to the records of their clans and families.

The number from the tribe of Simeon was 59,300.

From the descendants of Gad: All the men twenty years old or more who were able to serve in the army were listed by name, according to the records of their clans and families.

The number from the tribe of Gad was 45,650.

From the descendants of Judah: All the men twenty years old or more who were able to serve in the army were listed by name, according to the records of their clans and families.

The number from the tribe of Judah was 74,600.

From the descendants of Issachar: All the men twenty years old or more who were able to serve in the army were listed by name, according to the records of their clans and families.
The number from the tribe of Issachar was 54,400.

From the descendants of Zebulun: All the men twenty years old or more who were able to serve in the army were listed by name, according to the records of their clans and families.

The number from the tribe of Zebulun was 57,400.

From the sons of Joseph: From the descendants of Ephraim: All the men twenty years old or more who were able to serve in the army were listed by name, according to the records of their clans and families.

The number from the tribe of Ephraim was 40,500.

From the descendants of Manasseh: All the men twenty years old or more who were able to serve in the army were listed by name, according to the records of their clans and families.

The number from the tribe of Manasseh was 32,200.

From the descendants of Benjamin: All the men twenty years old or more who were able to serve in the army were listed by name, according to the records of their clans and families.

The number from the tribe of Benjamin was 35,400.

From the descendants of Asher: All the men twenty years old or more who were able to serve in the army were listed by name, according to the records of their clans and families.

The number from the tribe of Asher was 41,500.

From the descendants of Naphtali: All the men twenty years old or more who were able to serve in the army were listed by name, according to the records of their clans and families.

The number from the tribe of Naphtali was 53,400.
These were the men counted by Moses and Aaron and the twelve leaders of Israel, each one representing his family.

All the Israelites twenty years old or more who were able to serve in Israel’s army were counted according to their families.

The total number was 603,550.

The families of the tribe of Levi, however, were not counted along with the others.

The LORD had said to Moses:

“You must not count the tribe of Levi or include them in the census of the other Israelites.

Instead, appoint the Levites to be in charge of the tabernacle of the Testimony — over all its furnishings and everything belonging to it. They are to carry the tabernacle and all its furnishings; they are to take care of it and encamp round it.

Whenever the tabernacle is to move, the Levites are to take it down, and whenever the tabernacle is to be set up, the Levites shall do it. Anyone else who goes near it shall be put to death.

The Israelites are to set up their tents by divisions, each man in his own camp under his own standard.

The Levites, however, are to set up their tents round the tabernacle of the Testimony so that wrath will not fall on the Israelite community. The Levites are to be responsible for the care of the tabernacle of the Testimony.”

The Israelites did all this just as the LORD commanded Moses.

CHAPTER 2

The LORD said to Moses and Aaron:
The Israelites are to camp round the Tent of Meeting some distance from it, each man under his standard with the banners of his family.”

On the east, towards the sunrise, the divisions of the camp of Judah are to encamp under their standard. The leader of the people of Judah is Nahshon son of Amminadab.

His division numbers 74,600.

The tribe of Issachar will camp next to them. The leader of the people of Issachar is Nethanel son of Zuar.

His division numbers 54,400.

The tribe of Zebulun will be next. The leader of the people of Zebulun is Eliab son of Helon.

His division numbers 57,400.

All the men assigned to the camp of Judah, according to their divisions, number 186,400. They will set out first.

On the south will be the divisions of the camp of Reuben under their standard. The leader of the people of Reuben is Elizur son of Shedeur.

His division numbers 46,500.

The tribe of Simeon will camp next to them. The leader of the people of Simeon is Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai.

His division numbers 59,300.

The tribe of Gad will be next. The leader of the people of Gad is Eliasaph son of Deuel. [Many manuscripts of the Masoretic Text, Samaritan Pentateuch and Vulgate (see also Num. 1:14); most manuscripts of the Masoretic Text Reuel]

His division numbers 45,650.
Nu. 2:16 All the men assigned to the camp of Reuben, according to their divisions, number 151,450. They will set out second.

Nu. 2:17 Then the Tent of Meeting and the camp of the Levites will set out in the middle of the camps. They will set out in the same order as they encamp, each in his own place under his standard.

Nu. 2:18 On the west will be the divisions of the camp of Ephraim under their standard. The leader of the people of Ephraim is Elishama son of Ammihud.

Nu. 2:19 His division numbers 40,500.

Nu. 2:20 The tribe of Manasseh will be next to them. The leader of the people of Manasseh is Gamaliel son of Pedahzur.

Nu. 2:21 His division numbers 32,200.

Nu. 2:22 The tribe of Benjamin will be next. The leader of the people of Benjamin is Abidan son of Gideoni.

Nu. 2:23 His division numbers 35,400.

Nu. 2:24 All the men assigned to the camp of Ephraim, according to their divisions, number 108,100. They will set out third.

Nu. 2:25 On the north will be the divisions of the camp of Dan, under their standard. The leader of the people of Dan is Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai.

Nu. 2:26 His division numbers 62,700.

Nu. 2:27 The tribe of Asher will camp next to them. The leader of the people of Asher is Pagiel son of Ocran.

Nu. 2:28 His division numbers 41,500.

Nu. 2:29 The tribe of Naphtali will be next. The leader of the people of Naphtali is Ahira son of Enan.

Nu. 2:30 His division numbers 53,400.

Nu. 2:31 All the men assigned to the camp of Dan number 157,600. They will set out last, under their standards.
These are the Israelites, counted according to their families. All those in the camps, by their divisions, number 603,550.

The Levites, however, were not counted along with the other Israelites, as the LORD commanded Moses.

So the Israelites did everything the LORD commanded Moses; that is the way they encamped under their standards, and that is the way they set out, each with his clan and family.

CHAPTER 3

This is the account of the family of Aaron and Moses at the time the LORD talked with Moses on Mount Sinai.

The names of the sons of Aaron were Nadab the firstborn and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

Those were the names of Aaron’s sons, the anointed priests, who were ordained to serve as priests.

Nadab and Abihu, however, fell dead before the LORD when they made an offering with unauthorised fire before him in the Desert of Sinai. They had no sons; so only Eleazar and Ithamar served as priests during the lifetime of their father Aaron.

The LORD said to Moses,

“Bring the tribe of Levi and present them to Aaron the priest to assist him.

They are to perform duties for him and for the whole community at the Tent of Meeting by doing the work of the tabernacle.

Give the Levites to Aaron and his sons; they are the Israelites who are to be given wholly to him. [Most manuscripts of the Masoretic Text; some manuscripts of the Masoretic Text, Samaritan Pentateuch and Septuagint (see also Num. 8:16) to me]

Nu. 3:10 Appoint Aaron and his sons to serve as priests; anyone else who approaches the sanctuary must be put to death.”

Nu. 3:11 The LORD also said to Moses,

Nu. 3:12 “I have taken the Levites from among the Israelites in place of the first male offspring of every Israelite woman. The Levites are mine, Nu. 3:13 for all the firstborn are mine. When I struck down all the firstborn in Egypt, I set apart for myself every firstborn in Israel, whether man or animal. They are to be mine. I am the LORD.”

Nu. 3:14 The LORD said to Moses in the Desert of Sinai,

Nu. 3:15 “Count the Levites by their families and clans. Count every male a month old or more.”

Nu. 3:16 So Moses counted them, as he was commanded by the word of the LORD.

Nu. 3:17 These were the names of the sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath and Merari.

Nu. 3:18 These were the names of the Gershonite clans: Libni and Shimei.

Nu. 3:19 The Kohathite clans: Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel.

Nu. 3:20 The Merarite clans: Mahli and Mushi. These were the Levite clans, according to their families.

Nu. 3:21 To Gershon belonged the clans of the Libnites and Shimeites; these were the Gershonite clans.

Nu. 3:22 The number of all the males a month old or more who were counted was 7,500.

Nu. 3:23 The Gershonite clans were to camp on the west, behind the tabernacle.
The leader of the families of the Gershonites was Eliasaph son of Lael.

At the Tent of Meeting the Gershonites were responsible for the care of the tabernacle and tent, its coverings, the curtain at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, the curtains of the courtyard, the curtain at the entrance to the courtyard surrounding the tabernacle and altar, and the ropes — and everything related to their use.

To Kohath belonged the clans of the Amramites, Izharites, Hebronites and Uzzielites; these were the Kohathite clans.

The number of all the males a month old or more was 8,600. [Hebrew; some Septuagint manuscripts 8,300] The Kohathites were responsible for the care of the sanctuary.

The Kohathite clans were to camp on the south side of the tabernacle.

The leader of the families of the Kohathite clans was Elizaphan son of Uzziel.

They were responsible for the care of the ark, the table, the lampstand, the altars, the articles of the sanctuary used in ministering, the curtain, and everything related to their use.

The chief leader of the Levites was Eleazar son of Aaron, the priest. He was appointed over those who were responsible for the care of the sanctuary.

To Merari belonged the clans of the Mahlites and the Mushites; these were the Merarite clans.

The number of all the males a month old or more who were counted was 6,200.

The leader of the families of the Merarite clans was Zuriel son of Abihail; they were to camp on the north side of the tabernacle.
The Merarites were appointed to take care of the frames of the tabernacle, its crossbars, posts, bases, all its equipment, and everything related to their use, as well as the posts of the surrounding courtyard with their bases, tent pegs and ropes.

Moses and Aaron and his sons were to camp to the east of the tabernacle, towards the sunrise, in front of the Tent of Meeting. They were responsible for the care of the sanctuary on behalf of the Israelites. Anyone else who approached the sanctuary was to be put to death.

The total number of Levites counted at the LORD’s command by Moses and Aaron according to their clans, including every male a month old or more, was 22,000.

The LORD said to Moses, “Count all the firstborn Israelite males who are a month old or more and make a list of their names.

Take the Levites for me in place of all the firstborn of the Israelites, and the livestock of the Levites in place of all the firstborn of the livestock of the Israelites. I am the LORD.”

So Moses counted all the firstborn of the Israelites, as the LORD commanded him.

The total number of firstborn males a month old or more, listed by name, was 22,273.

The LORD also said to Moses,

“Take the Levites in place of all the firstborn of Israel, and the livestock of the Levites in place of their livestock. The Levites are to be mine. I am the LORD.

To redeem the 273 firstborn Israelites who exceed the number of the Levites, collect five shekels [That is, about 2 ounces (about 55 grams)] for each one, according to the sanctuary shekel, which weighs twenty gerahs.

Give the money for the redemption of the additional Israelites to Aaron and his sons.”

So Moses collected the redemption money from those who exceeded the number redeemed by the Levites.

From the firstborn of the Israelites he collected silver weighing 1,365 shekels, [That is, about 35 pounds (about 15.5 kilograms)] according to the sanctuary shekel.

Moses gave the redemption money to Aaron and his sons, as he was commanded by the word of the LORD.

CHAPTER 4

The LORD said to Moses and Aaron:

“Take a census of the Kohathite branch of the Levites by their clans and families.

Count all the men from thirty to fifty years of age who come to serve in the work in the Tent of Meeting.

“This is the work of the Kohathites in the Tent of Meeting: the care of the most holy things.

When the camp is to move, Aaron and his sons are to go in and take down the shielding curtain and cover the ark of the Testimony with it.

Then they are to cover this with hides of sea cows, [That is, large aquatic mammals; also elsewhere in this chapter] spread a cloth of solid blue over that and put the poles in place.

“Over the table of the Presence they are to spread a blue cloth and put on it the plates, dishes and bowls, and the jars for drink offerings; the bread that is continually there is to remain on it.

Over these they are to spread a scarlet cloth, cover that with hides of sea cows and put its poles in place.
“They are to take a blue cloth and cover the lampstand that is for light, together with its lamps, its wick trimmers and trays, and all its jars for the oil used to supply it.

Then they are to wrap it and all its accessories in a covering of hides of sea cows and put it on a carrying frame.

“Over the gold altar they are to spread a blue cloth and cover that with hides of sea cows and put its poles in place.

“They are to take all the articles used for ministering in the sanctuary, wrap them in a blue cloth, cover that with hides of sea cows and put them on a carrying frame.

“They are to remove the ashes from the bronze altar and spread a purple cloth over it.

Then they are to place on it all the utensils used for ministering at the altar, including the firepans, meat forks, shovels and sprinkling bowls. Over it they are to spread a covering of hides of sea cows and put its poles in place.

“After Aaron and his sons have finished covering the holy furnishings and all the holy articles, and when the camp is ready to move, the Kohathites are to come to do the carrying. But they must not touch the holy things or they will die. The Kohathites are to carry those things that are in the Tent of Meeting.

“Eleazar son of Aaron, the priest, is to have charge of the oil for the light, the fragrant incense, the regular grain offering and the anointing oil. He is to be in charge of the entire tabernacle and everything in it, including its holy furnishings and articles.”

The LORD said to Moses and Aaron,

“See that the Kohathite tribal clans are not cut off from the Levites.

So that they may live and not die when they come near the most holy things, do this for them: Aaron and his sons are to go into the sanctuary and assign to each man his work and what he is to carry.

Nu. 4:20 But the Kohathites must not go in to look at the holy things, even for a moment, or they will die.”

Nu. 4:21 The LORD said to Moses,

Nu. 4:22 “Take a census also of the Gershonites by their families and clans.

Nu. 4:23 Count all the men from thirty to fifty years of age who come to serve in the work at the Tent of Meeting.

Nu. 4:24 “This is the service of the Gershonite clans as they work and carry burdens:

Nu. 4:25 They are to carry the curtains of the tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting, its covering and the outer covering of hides of sea cows, the curtains for the entrance to the Tent of Meeting,

Nu. 4:26 the curtains of the courtyard surrounding the tabernacle and altar, the curtain for the entrance, the ropes and all the equipment used in its service. The Gershonites are to do all that needs to be done with these things.

Nu. 4:27 All their service, whether carrying or doing other work, is to be done under the direction of Aaron and his sons. You shall assign to them as their responsibility all they are to carry.

Nu. 4:28 This is the service of the Gershonite clans at the Tent of Meeting. Their duties are to be under the direction of Ithamar son of Aaron, the priest.

Nu. 4:29 “Count the Merarites by their clans and families.

Nu. 4:30 Count all the men from thirty to fifty years of age who come to serve in the work at the Tent of Meeting.

Nu. 4:31 This is their duty as they perform service at the Tent of Meeting: to carry the frames of the tabernacle, its crossbars, posts and bases,

Nu. 4:32 as well as the posts of the surrounding courtyard with their bases, tent pegs, ropes, all their equipment and everything related to their use. Assign to each man the specific things he is to carry.

Nu. 4:33 This is the service of the Merarite clans as they work at the Tent of Meeting under the direction of Ithamar son of Aaron, the priest.”

Nu. 4:34 Moses, Aaron and the leaders of the community counted the Kohathites by their clans and families.

Nu. 4:35 All the men from thirty to fifty years of age who came to serve in the work in the Tent of Meeting,

Nu. 4:36 counted by clans, were 2,750.

Nu. 4:37 This was the total of all those in the Kohathite clans who served in the Tent of Meeting. Moses and Aaron counted them according to the LORD’s command through Moses.

Nu. 4:38 The Gershonites were counted by their clans and families.

Nu. 4:39 All the men from thirty to fifty years of age who came to serve in the work at the Tent of Meeting,

Nu. 4:40 counted by their clans and families, were 2,630.

Nu. 4:41 This was the total of those in the Gershonite clans who served at the Tent of Meeting. Moses and Aaron counted them according to the LORD’s command.

Nu. 4:42 The Merarites were counted by their clans and families.

Nu. 4:43 All the men from thirty to fifty years of age who came to serve in the work at the Tent of Meeting,

Nu. 4:44 counted by their clans, were 3,200.

Nu. 4:45 This was the total of those in the Merarite clans. Moses and Aaron counted them according to the LORD’s command through Moses.

Nu. 4:46 So Moses, Aaron and the leaders of Israel counted all the Levites by their clans and families.

Nu. 4:47 All the men from thirty to fifty years of age who came to do the work of serving and carrying the Tent of Meeting
Nu. 4:48 numbered 8,580.

Nu. 4:49 At the LORD’s command through Moses, each was assigned his work and told what to carry. Thus they were counted, as the LORD commanded Moses.

CHAPTER 5

Nu. 5:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Nu. 5:2 “Command the Israelites to send away from the camp anyone who has an infectious skin disease [Traditionally leprosy; the Hebrew word was used for various diseases affecting the skin — not necessarily leprosy.] or a discharge of any kind, or who is ceremonially unclean because of a dead body.

Nu. 5:3 Send away male and female alike; send them outside the camp so that they will not defile their camp, where I dwell among them.”

Nu. 5:4 The Israelites did this; they sent them outside the camp. They did just as the LORD had instructed Moses.

Nu. 5:5 The LORD said to Moses,

Nu. 5:6 “Say to the Israelites: ‘When a man or woman wrongs another in any way [Or woman commits any wrong common to mankind] and so is unfaithful to the LORD, that person is guilty

Nu. 5:7 and must confess the sin he has committed. He must make full restitution for his wrong, add one fifth to it and give it all to the person he has wronged.

Nu. 5:8 But if that person has no close relative to whom restitution can be made for the wrong, the restitution belongs to the LORD and must be given to the priest, along with the ram with which atonement is made for him.

Nu. 5:9 All the sacred contributions the Israelites bring to a priest will belong to him.
Nu. 5:10 Each man’s sacred gifts are his own, but what he gives to the priest will belong to the priest.”

Nu. 5:11 Then the LORD said to Moses,

Nu. 5:12 “Speak to the Israelites and say to them: ‘If a man’s wife goes astray and is unfaithful to him by sleeping with another man, and this is hidden from her husband and her impurity is undetected (since there is no witness against her and she has not been caught in the act), and if feelings of jealousy come over her husband and he suspects his wife and she is impure — or if he is jealous and suspects her even though she is not impure — then he is to take his wife to the priest. He must also take an offering of a tenth of an ephah [That is, probably about 4 pints (about 2 litres)] of barley flour on her behalf. He must not pour oil on it or put incense on it, because it is a grain offering for jealousy, a reminder offering to draw attention to guilt.

“Then the priest shall bring her and make her stand before the LORD.

After the priest has made the woman stand before the LORD, he shall loosen her hair and place in her hands the reminder offering, the grain offering for jealousy, while he himself holds the bitter water that brings a curse.

Then the priest shall put the woman under oath and say to her, “If no other man has slept with you and you have not gone astray and become impure while married to your husband, may this bitter water that brings a curse not harm you.

But if you have gone astray while married to your husband and you have defiled yourself by sleeping with a man other than your husband” —
Nu. 5:21 here the priest is to put the woman under this curse of the oath — “may the LORD cause your people to curse and denounce you when he causes your thigh to waste away and your abdomen to swell. [Or causes you to have a miscarrying womb and barrenness]

Nu. 5:22 May this water that brings a curse enter your body so that your abdomen swells and your thigh wastes away.” [Or body and cause you to be barren and have a miscarrying womb] “‘Then the woman is to say, “Amen. So be it.”

Nu. 5:23 “‘The priest is to write these curses on a scroll and then wash them off into the bitter water.

Nu. 5:24 He shall make the woman drink the bitter water that brings a curse, and this water will enter her and cause bitter suffering.

Nu. 5:25 The priest is to take from her hands the grain offering for jealousy, wave it before the LORD and bring it to the altar.

Nu. 5:26 The priest is then to take a handful of the grain offering as a memorial offering and burn it on the altar; after that, he is to make the woman drink the water.

Nu. 5:27 If she has defiled herself and been unfaithful to her husband, then when she is made to drink the water that brings a curse, it will go into her and cause bitter suffering; her abdomen will swell and her thigh waste away, [Or suffering; she will have barrenness and a miscarrying womb] and she will become accursed among her people.

Nu. 5:28 If, however, the woman has not defiled herself and is free from impurity, she will be cleared of guilt and will be able to have children.

Nu. 5:29 “‘This, then, is the law of jealousy when a woman goes astray and defiles herself while married to her husband, or when feelings of jealousy come over a man because he suspects his wife. The priest is to make her stand before the LORD and is to apply this entire law to her.
The husband will be innocent of any wrongdoing, but the woman will bear the consequences of her sin.’”

CHAPTER 6

Nu. 6:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Nu. 6:2 “Speak to the Israelites and say to them: ‘If a man or woman wants to make a special vow, a vow of separation to the LORD as a Nazirite,

Nu. 6:3 he must abstain from wine and other fermented drink and must not drink vinegar made from wine or from other fermented drink. He must not drink grape juice or eat grapes or raisins.

Nu. 6:4 As long as he is a Nazirite, he must not eat anything that comes from the grapevine, not even the seeds or skins.

Nu. 6:5 “During the entire period of his vow of separation no razor may be used on his head. He must be holy until the period of his separation to the LORD is over; he must let the hair of his head grow long.

Nu. 6:6 Throughout the period of his separation to the LORD he must not go near a dead body.

Nu. 6:7 Even if his own father or mother or brother or sister dies, he must not make himself ceremonially unclean on account of them, because the symbol of his separation to God is on his head.

Nu. 6:8 Throughout the period of his separation he is consecrated to the LORD.

Nu. 6:9 “If someone dies suddenly in his presence, thus defiling the hair he has dedicated, he must shave his head on the day of his cleansing — the seventh day.

Nu. 6:10 Then on the eighth day he must bring two doves or two young pigeons to the priest at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.
The priest is to offer one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering to make atonement for him because he sinned by being in the presence of the dead body. That same day he is to consecrate his head.

He must dedicate himself to the LORD for the period of his separation and must bring a year-old male lamb as a guilt offering. The previous days do not count, because he became defiled during his separation.

“Now this is the law for the Nazirite when the period of his separation is over. He is to be brought to the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

There he is to present his offerings to the LORD: a year-old male lamb without defect for a burnt offering, a year-old ewe lamb without defect for a sin offering, a ram without defect for a fellowship offering, [Traditionally peace offering; also in verses 17 and 18] together with their grain offerings and drink offerings, and a basket of bread made without yeast — cakes made of fine flour mixed with oil, and wafers spread with oil.

“The priest is to present them before the LORD and make the sin offering and the burnt offering.

He is to present the basket of unleavened bread and is to sacrifice the ram as a fellowship offering to the LORD, together with its grain offering and drink offering.

“Then at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, the Nazirite must shave off the hair that he dedicated. He is to take the hair and put it in the fire that is under the sacrifice of the fellowship offering.

“After the Nazirite has shaved off the hair of his dedication, the priest is to place in his hands a boiled shoulder of the ram, and a cake and a wafer from the basket, both made without yeast.

The priest shall then wave them before the LORD as a wave offering; they are holy and belong to the priest, together with the breast that was waved and the thigh that was presented. After that, the Nazirite may drink wine.

Nu. 6:21 “This is the law of the Nazirite who vows his offering to the LORD in accordance with his separation, in addition to whatever else he can afford. He must fulfil the vow he has made, according to the law of the Nazirite.”

Nu. 6:22 The LORD said to Moses,

Nu. 6:23 “Tell Aaron and his sons, ‘This is how you are to bless the Israelites. Say to them:

Nu. 6:24 “‘The LORD bless you and keep you;

Nu. 6:25 the LORD make his face shine upon you and be gracious to you;

Nu. 6:26 the LORD turn his face towards you and give you peace.’”

Nu. 6:27 “So they will put my name on the Israelites, and I will bless them.”

CHAPTER 7

Nu. 7:1 When Moses finished setting up the tabernacle, he anointed it and consecrated it and all its furnishings. He also anointed and consecrated the altar and all its utensils.

Nu. 7:2 Then the leaders of Israel, the heads of families who were the tribal leaders in charge of those who were counted, made offerings.

Nu. 7:3 They brought as their gifts before the LORD six covered carts and twelve oxen — an ox from each leader and a cart from every two. These they presented before the tabernacle.

Nu. 7:4 The LORD said to Moses,

Nu. 7:5 “Accept these from them, that they may be used in the work at the Tent of Meeting. Give them to the Levites as each man’s work requires.”
So Moses took the carts and oxen and gave them to the Levites.

He gave two carts and four oxen to the Gershonites, as their work required, and he gave four carts and eight oxen to the Merarites, as their work required. They were all under the direction of Ithamar son of Aaron, the priest.

But Moses did not give any to the Kohathites, because they were to carry on their shoulders the holy things, for which they were responsible.

When the altar was anointed, the leaders brought their offerings for its dedication and presented them before the altar.

For the LORD had said to Moses, “Each day one leader is to bring his offering for the dedication of the altar.”

The one who brought his offering on the first day was Nahshon son of Amminadab of the tribe of Judah.

His offering was one silver plate weighing a hundred and thirty shekels, [That is, about 3 1/4 pounds (about 1.5 kilograms); also elsewhere in this chapter] and one silver sprinkling bowl weighing seventy shekels, [That is, about 1 3/4 pounds (about 0.8 kilogram); also elsewhere in this chapter] both according to the sanctuary shekel, each filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

one gold dish weighing ten shekels, [That is, about 4 ounces (about 115 grams); also elsewhere in this chapter] filled with incense;

Nu. 7:66 On the tenth day Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai, the leader of the people of Dan, brought his offering.

Nu. 7:67 His offering was one silver plate weighing a hundred and thirty shekels, and one silver sprinkling bowl weighing seventy shekels, both according to the sanctuary shekel, each filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

Nu. 7:70 one male goat for a sin offering;

Nu. 7:71 and two oxen, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs a year old, to be sacrificed as a fellowship offering. This was the offering of Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai.

Nu. 7:72 On the eleventh day Pagiel son of Ocran, the leader of the people of Asher, brought his offering.
His offering was one silver plate weighing a hundred and thirty shekels, and one silver sprinkling bowl weighing seventy shekels, both according to the sanctuary shekel, each filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

On the twelfth day Ahira son of Enan, the leader of the people of Naphtali, brought his offering.

These were the offerings of the Israelite leaders for the dedication of the altar when it was anointed: twelve silver plates, twelve silver sprinkling bowls and twelve gold dishes.

Each silver plate weighed a hundred and thirty shekels, and each sprinkling bowl seventy shekels. Altogether, the silver dishes weighed two thousand four hundred shekels, [That is, about 61 pounds (about 28 kilograms)] according to the sanctuary shekel.

The total number of animals for the sacrifice of the fellowship offering came to twenty-four oxen, sixty rams, sixty male goats and sixty male lambs a year old. These were the offerings for the dedication of the altar after it was anointed.

When Moses entered the Tent of Meeting to speak with the LORD, he heard the voice speaking to him from between the two cherubim above the atonement cover on the ark of the Testimony. And he spoke with him.

CHAPTER 8

The LORD said to Moses,

“Speak to Aaron and say to him, ‘When you set up the seven lamps, they are to light the area in front of the lampstand.’”

Aaron did so; he set up the lamps so that they faced forward on the lampstand, just as the LORD commanded Moses.

This is how the lampstand was made: It was made of hammered gold — from its base to its blossoms. The lampstand was made exactly like the pattern the LORD had shown Moses.

The LORD said to Moses:

“Take the Levites from among the other Israelites and make them ceremonially clean."
Nu. 8:7 To purify them, do this: Sprinkle the water of cleansing on them; then make them shave their whole bodies and wash their clothes, and so purify themselves.

Nu. 8:8 Make them take a young bull with its grain offering of fine flour mixed with oil; then you are to take a second young bull for a sin offering.

Nu. 8:9 Bring the Levites to the front of the Tent of Meeting and assemble the whole Israelite community.

Nu. 8:10 You are to bring the Levites before the LORD, and the Israelites are to lay their hands on them.

Nu. 8:11 Aaron is to present the Levites before the LORD as a wave offering from the Israelites, so that they may be ready to do the work of the LORD.

Nu. 8:12 “After the Levites lay their hands on the heads of the bulls, use the one for a sin offering to the LORD and the other for a burnt offering, to make atonement for the Levites.

Nu. 8:13 Make the Levites stand in front of Aaron and his sons and then present them as a wave offering to the LORD.

Nu. 8:14 In this way you are to set the Levites apart from the other Israelites, and the Levites will be mine.

Nu. 8:15 “After you have purified the Levites and presented them as a wave offering, they are to come to do their work at the Tent of Meeting.

Nu. 8:16 They are the Israelites who are to be given wholly to me. I have taken them as my own in place of the firstborn, the first male offspring from every Israelite woman.

Nu. 8:17 Every firstborn male in Israel, whether man or animal, is mine. When I struck down all the firstborn in Egypt, I set them apart for myself.

Nu. 8:18 And I have taken the Levites in place of all the firstborn sons in Israel.
Of all the Israelites, I have given the Levites as gifts to Aaron and his sons to do the work at the Tent of Meeting on behalf of the Israelites and to make atonement for them so that no plague will strike the Israelites when they go near the sanctuary.”

Moses, Aaron and the whole Israelite community did with the Levites just as the LORD commanded Moses.

The Levites purified themselves and washed their clothes. Then Aaron presented them as a wave offering before the LORD and made atonement for them to purify them.

After that, the Levites came to do their work at the Tent of Meeting under the supervision of Aaron and his sons. They did with the Levites just as the LORD commanded Moses.

The LORD said to Moses,

“This applies to the Levites: Men twenty-five years old or more shall come to take part in the work at the Tent of Meeting, but at the age of fifty, they must retire from their regular service and work no longer.

They may assist their brothers in performing their duties at the Tent of Meeting, but they themselves must not do the work. This, then, is how you are to assign the responsibilities of the Levites.”

CHAPTER 9

The LORD spoke to Moses in the Desert of Sinai in the first month of the second year after they came out of Egypt. He said, “Make the Israelites celebrate the Passover at the appointed time.

Celebrate it at the appointed time, at twilight on the fourteenth day of this month, in accordance with all its rules and regulations.”

So Moses told the Israelites to celebrate the Passover, and they did so in the Desert of Sinai at twilight on the fourteenth day of the first month. The Israelites did everything just as the LORD commanded Moses.

But some of them could not celebrate the Passover on that day because they were ceremonially unclean on account of a dead body. So they came to Moses and Aaron that same day and said to Moses, “We have become unclean because of a dead body, but why should we be kept from presenting the LORD’s offering with the other Israelites at the appointed time?”

Moses answered them, “Wait until I find out what the LORD commands concerning you.”

Then the LORD said to Moses, “Tell the Israelites: ‘When any of you or your descendants are unclean because of a dead body or are away on a journey, they may still celebrate the LORD’s Passover.

They are to celebrate it on the fourteenth day of the second month at twilight. They are to eat the lamb, together with unleavened bread and bitter herbs.

They must not leave any of it till morning or break any of its bones. When they celebrate the Passover, they must follow all the regulations.

But if a man who is ceremonially clean and not on a journey fails to celebrate the Passover, that person must be cut off from his people because he did not present the LORD’s offering at the appointed time. That man will bear the consequences of his sin.

“An alien living among you who wants to celebrate the LORD’s Passover must do so in accordance with its rules and regulations. You must have the same regulations for the alien and the native-born.”"

Nu. 9:15 On the day the tabernacle, the Tent of the Testimony, was set up, the cloud covered it. From evening till morning the cloud above the tabernacle looked like fire.

Nu. 9:16 That is how it continued to be; the cloud covered it, and at night it looked like fire.

Nu. 9:17 Whenever the cloud lifted from above the Tent, the Israelites set out; wherever the cloud settled, the Israelites encamped.

Nu. 9:18 At the LORD’s command the Israelites set out, and at his command they encamped. As long as the cloud stayed over the tabernacle, they remained in camp.

Nu. 9:19 When the cloud remained over the tabernacle a long time, the Israelites obeyed the LORD’s order and did not set out.

Nu. 9:20 Sometimes the cloud was over the tabernacle only a few days; at the LORD’s command they would encamp, and then at his command they would set out.

Nu. 9:21 Sometimes the cloud stayed only from evening till morning, and when it lifted in the morning, they set out. Whether by day or by night, whenever the cloud lifted, they set out.

Nu. 9:22 Whether the cloud stayed over the tabernacle for two days or a month or a year, the Israelites would remain in camp and not set out; but when it lifted, they would set out.

Nu. 9:23 At the LORD’s command they encamped, and at the LORD’s command they set out. They obeyed the LORD’s order, in accordance with his command through Moses.

CHAPTER 10

Nu. 10:1 The LORD said to Moses:
Nu. 10:2 “Make two trumpets of hammered silver, and use them for calling the community together and for having the camps set out.

Nu. 10:3 When both are sounded, the whole community is to assemble before you at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Nu. 10:4 If only one is sounded, the leaders — the heads of the clans of Israel — are to assemble before you.

Nu. 10:5 When a trumpet blast is sounded, the tribes camping on the east are to set out.

Nu. 10:6 At the sounding of a second blast, the camps on the south are to set out. The blast will be the signal for setting out.

Nu. 10:7 To gather the assembly, blow the trumpets, but not with the same signal.

Nu. 10:8 “The sons of Aaron, the priests, are to blow the trumpets. This is to be a lasting ordinance for you and the generations to come.

Nu. 10:9 When you go into battle in your own land against an enemy who is oppressing you, sound a blast on the trumpets. Then you will be remembered by the LORD your God and rescued from your enemies.

Nu. 10:10 Also at your times of rejoicing — your appointed feasts and New Moon festivals — you are to sound the trumpets over your burnt offerings and fellowship offerings, [Traditionally peace offerings] and they will be a memorial for you before your God. I am the LORD your God.”

Nu. 10:11 On the twentieth day of the second month of the second year, the cloud lifted from above the tabernacle of the Testimony.

Nu. 10:12 Then the Israelites set out from the Desert of Sinai and travelled from place to place until the cloud came to rest in the Desert of Paran.

Nu. 10:13 They set out, this first time, at the LORD’s command through Moses.
The divisions of the camp of Judah went first, under their standard. Nahshon son of Amminadab was in command.

Nethanel son of Zuar was over the division of the tribe of Issachar, and Eliab son of Helon was over the division of the tribe of Zebulun.

Then the tabernacle was taken down, and the Gershonites and Merarites, who carried it, set out.

The divisions of the camp of Reuben went next, under their standard. Elizur son of Shedeur was in command.

Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai was over the division of the tribe of Simeon, and Eliasaph son of Deuel was over the division of the tribe of Gad.

Then the Kohathites set out, carrying the holy things. The tabernacle was to be set up before they arrived.

The divisions of the camp of Ephraim went next, under their standard. Elishama son of Ammihud was in command.

Gamaliel son of Pedahzur was over the division of the tribe of Manasseh, and Abidan son of Gideoni was over the division of the tribe of Benjamin.

Finally, as the rear guard for all the units, the divisions of the camp of Dan set out, under their standard. Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai was in command.

Pagiel son of Ocran was over the division of the tribe of Asher, and Ahira son of Enan was over the division of the tribe of Naphtali.

This was the order of march for the Israelite divisions as they set out.
Nu. 10:29 Now Moses said to Hobab son of Reuel the Midianite, Moses’ father-in-law, “We are setting out for the place about which the LORD said, ‘I will give it to you.’ Come with us and we will treat you well, for the LORD has promised good things to Israel.”

Nu. 10:30 He answered, “No, I will not go; I am going back to my own land and my own people.”

Nu. 10:31 But Moses said, “Please do not leave us. You know where we should camp in the desert, and you can be our eyes.

Nu. 10:32 If you come with us, we will share with you whatever good things the LORD gives us.”

Nu. 10:33 So they set out from the mountain of the LORD and travelled for three days. The ark of the covenant of the LORD went before them during those three days to find them a place to rest.

Nu. 10:34 The cloud of the LORD was over them by day when they set out from the camp.

Nu. 10:35 Whenever the ark set out, Moses said, “Rise up, O LORD! May your enemies be scattered; may your foes flee before you.”

Nu. 10:36 Whenever it came to rest, he said, “Return, O LORD, to the countless thousands of Israel.”

CHAPTER 11

Nu. 11:1 Now the people complained about their hardships in the hearing of the LORD, and when he heard them his anger was aroused. Then fire from the LORD burned among them and consumed some of the outskirts of the camp.

Nu. 11:2 When the people cried out to Moses, he prayed to the LORD and the fire died down.

Nu. 11:3 So that place was called Taberah, [Taberah means burning.] because fire from the LORD had burned among them.
Nu. 11:4 The rabble with them began to crave other food, and again the Israelites started wailing and said, “If only we had meat to eat!”

Nu. 11:5 We remember the fish we ate in Egypt at no cost — also the cucumbers, melons, leeks, onions and garlic.

Nu. 11:6 But now we have lost our appetite; we never see anything but this manna!”

Nu. 11:7 The manna was like coriander seed and looked like resin.

Nu. 11:8 The people went around gathering it, and then ground it in a hand mill or crushed it in a mortar. They cooked it in a pot or made it into cakes. And it tasted like something made with olive oil.

Nu. 11:9 When the dew settled on the camp at night, the manna also came down.

Nu. 11:10 Moses heard the people of every family wailing, each at the entrance to his tent. The LORD became exceedingly angry, and Moses was troubled.

Nu. 11:11 He asked the LORD, “Why have you brought this trouble on your servant? What have I done to displease you that you put the burden of all these people on me?

Nu. 11:12 Did I conceive all these people? Did I give them birth? Why do you tell me to carry them in my arms, as a nurse carries an infant, to the land you promised on oath to their forefathers?

Nu. 11:13 Where can I get meat for all these people? They keep wailing to me, ‘Give us meat to eat!’

Nu. 11:14 I cannot carry all these people by myself; the burden is too heavy for me.

Nu. 11:15 If this is how you are going to treat me, put me to death right now — if I have found favour in your eyes — and do not let me face my own ruin.”

Nu. 11:16 The LORD said to Moses: “Bring me seventy of Israel’s elders who are known to you as leaders and officials among the people. Make them come to the Tent of Meeting, that they may stand there with you.

Nu. 11:17 I will come down and speak with you there, and I will take of the Spirit that is on you and put the Spirit on them. They will help you carry the burden of the people so that you will not have to carry it alone.

Nu. 11:18 “Tell the people: ‘Consecrate yourselves in preparation for tomorrow, when you will eat meat. The LORD heard you when you wailed, ‘If only we had meat to eat! We were better off in Egypt!’ Now the LORD will give you meat, and you will eat it.

Nu. 11:19 You will not eat it for just one day, or two days, or five, ten or twenty days,

Nu. 11:20 but for a whole month — until it comes out of your nostrils and you loathe it — because you have rejected the LORD, who is among you, and have wailed before him, saying, ‘Why did we ever leave Egypt?’”

Nu. 11:21 But Moses said, “Here I am among six hundred thousand men on foot, and you say, ‘I will give them meat to eat for a whole month!’

Nu. 11:22 Would they have enough if flocks and herds were slaughtered for them? Would they have enough if all the fish in the sea were caught for them?”

Nu. 11:23 The LORD answered Moses, “Is the LORD’s arm too short? You will now see whether or not what I say will come true for you.”

Nu. 11:24 So Moses went out and told the people what the LORD had said. He brought together seventy of their elders and made them stand round the Tent.

Nu. 11:25 Then the LORD came down in the cloud and spoke with him, and he took of the Spirit that was on him and put the Spirit on the seventy elders. When the Spirit rested on them, they prophesied, but they did not do so again. [Or prophesied and continued to do so]
However, two men, whose names were Eldad and Medad, had remained in the camp. They were listed among the elders, but did not go out to the Tent. Yet the Spirit also rested on them, and they prophesied in the camp.

A young man ran and told Moses, “Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp.”

Joshua son of Nun, who had been Moses’ assistant since youth, spoke up and said, “Moses, my lord, stop them!”

But Moses replied, “Are you jealous for my sake? I wish that all the LORD’s people were prophets and that the LORD would put his Spirit on them!”

Then Moses and the elders of Israel returned to the camp.

Now a wind went out from the LORD and drove quail in from the sea. It brought them down all around the camp to about three feet above the ground, as far as a day’s walk in any direction.

All that day and night and all the next day the people went out and gathered quail. No-one gathered less than ten homers. [That is, probably about 60 bushels (about 2.2 kilolitres)] Then they spread them out all around the camp.

But while the meat was still between their teeth and before it could be consumed, the anger of the LORD burned against the people, and he struck them with a severe plague.

Therefore the place was named Kibroth Hattaavah, [Kibroth Hattaavah means graves of craving.] because there they buried the people who had craved other food.

From Kibroth Hattaavah the people travelled to Hazeroth and stayed there.
Miriam and Aaron began to talk against Moses because of his Cushite wife, for he had married a Cushite.

“Has the LORD spoken only through Moses?” they asked. “Hasn’t he also spoken through us?” And the LORD heard this.

(Now Moses was a very humble man, more humble than anyone else on the face of the earth.)

At once the LORD said to Moses, Aaron and Miriam, “Come out to the Tent of Meeting, all three of you.” So the three of them came out.

Then the LORD came down in a pillar of cloud; he stood at the entrance to the Tent and summoned Aaron and Miriam. When both of them stepped forward, he said, “Listen to my words: “When a prophet of the LORD is among you, I reveal myself to him in visions, I speak to him in dreams.

But this is not true of my servant Moses; he is faithful in all my house.

With him I speak face to face, clearly and not in riddles; he sees the form of the LORD. Why then were you not afraid to speak against my servant Moses?”

The anger of the LORD burned against them, and he left them.

When the cloud lifted from above the Tent, there stood Miriam — leprous, [The Hebrew word was used for various diseases affecting the skin — not necessarily leprosy.] like snow. Aaron turned towards her and saw that she had leprosy; and he said to Moses, “Please, my lord, do not hold against us the sin we have so foolishly committed.

Nu. 12:12 Do not let her be like a stillborn infant coming from its mother’s womb with its flesh half eaten away.”

Nu. 12:13 So Moses cried out to the LORD, “O God, please heal her!”

Nu. 12:14 The LORD replied to Moses, “If her father had spat in her face, would she not have been in disgrace for seven days? Confine her outside the camp for seven days; after that she can be brought back.”

Nu. 12:15 So Miriam was confined outside the camp for seven days, and the people did not move on till she was brought back.

Nu. 12:16 After that, the people left Hazeroth and encamped in the Desert of Paran.

CHAPTER 13

Nu. 13:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Nu. 13:2 “Send some men to explore the land of Canaan, which I am giving to the Israelites. From each ancestral tribe send one of its leaders.”

Nu. 13:3 So at the LORD’s command Moses sent them out from the Desert of Paran. All of them were leaders of the Israelites.

Nu. 13:4 These are their names: from the tribe of Reuben, Shammua son of Zaccur;

Nu. 13:5 from the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat son of Hori;

Nu. 13:6 from the tribe of Judah, Caleb son of Jephunneh;

Nu. 13:7 from the tribe of Issachar, Igal son of Joseph;

Nu. 13:8 from the tribe of Ephraim, Hoshea son of Nun;

Nu. 13:9 from the tribe of Benjamin, Palti son of Raphu;

Nu. 13:10 from the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel son of Sodi;

Nu. 13:11 from the tribe of Manasseh (a tribe of Joseph), Gaddi son of Susi;
Nu. 13:12 from the tribe of Dan, Ammiel son of Gemalli;

Nu. 13:13 from the tribe of Asher, Sethur son of Michael;

Nu. 13:14 from the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi son of Vophsi;

Nu. 13:15 from the tribe of Gad, Geuel son of Maki.

Nu. 13:16 These are the names of the men Moses sent to explore the land. (Moses gave Hoshea son of Nun the name Joshua.)

Nu. 13:17 When Moses sent them to explore Canaan, he said, “Go up through the Negev and on into the hill country.

Nu. 13:18 See what the land is like and whether the people who live there are strong or weak, few or many.

Nu. 13:19 What kind of land do they live in? Is it good or bad? What kind of towns do they live in? Are they unwalled or fortified?

Nu. 13:20 How is the soil? Is it fertile or poor? Are there trees on it or not? Do your best to bring back some of the fruit of the land.” (It was the season for the first ripe grapes.)

Nu. 13:21 So they went up and explored the land from the Desert of Zin as far as Rehob, towards Lebo [Or towards the entrance to] Hamath.

Nu. 13:22 They went up through the Negev and came to Hebron, where Ahiman, Sheshai and Talmai, the descendants of Anak, lived. (Hebron had been built seven years before Zoan in Egypt.)

Nu. 13:23 When they reached the Valley of Eshcol, [Eshcol means cluster; also in verse 24.] they cut off a branch bearing a single cluster of grapes. Two of them carried it on a pole between them, along with some pomegranates and figs.

Nu. 13:24 That place was called the Valley of Eshcol because of the cluster of grapes the Israelites cut off there.

Nu. 13:25 At the end of forty days they returned from exploring the land.

Nu. 13:26 They came back to Moses and Aaron and the whole Israelite community at Kadesh in the Desert of Paran. There they reported to them and to the whole assembly and showed them the fruit of the land.

Nu. 13:27 They gave Moses this account: “We went into the land to which you sent us, and it does flow with milk and honey! Here is its fruit.

Nu. 13:28 But the people who live there are powerful, and the cities are fortified and very large. We even saw descendants of Anak there.

Nu. 13:29 The Amalekites live in the Negeb; the Hittites, Jebusites and Amorites live in the hill country; and the Canaanites live near the sea and along the Jordan.”

Nu. 13:30 Then Caleb silenced the people before Moses and said, “We should go up and take possession of the land, for we can certainly do it.”

Nu. 13:31 But the men who had gone up with him said, “We can’t attack those people; they are stronger than we are.”

Nu. 13:32 And they spread among the Israelites a bad report about the land they had explored. They said, “The land we explored devours those living in it. All the people we saw there are of great size.

Nu. 13:33 We saw the Nephilim there (the descendants of Anak come from the Nephilim). We seemed like grasshoppers in our own eyes, and we looked the same to them.”

CHAPTER 14

Nu. 14:1 That night all the people of the community raised their voices and wept aloud.

Nu. 14:2 All the Israelites grumbled against Moses and Aaron, and the whole assembly said to them, “If only we had died in Egypt! Or in this desert!”
Why is the LORD bringing us to this land only to let us fall by the sword? Our wives and children will be taken as plunder. Wouldn’t it be better for us to go back to Egypt?”

And they said to each other, “We should choose a leader and go back to Egypt.”

Then Moses and Aaron fell face down in front of the whole Israelite assembly gathered there.

Joshua son of Nun and Caleb son of Jephunneh, who were among those who had explored the land, tore their clothes and said to the entire Israelite assembly, “The land we passed through and explored is exceedingly good.

If the LORD is pleased with us, he will lead us into that land, a land flowing with milk and honey, and will give it to us.

Only do not rebel against the LORD. And do not be afraid of the people of the land, because we will swallow them up. Their protection is gone, but the LORD is with us. Do not be afraid of them.”

But the whole assembly talked about stoning them. Then the glory of the LORD appeared at the Tent of Meeting to all the Israelites.

The LORD said to Moses, “How long will these people treat me with contempt? How long will they refuse to believe in me, in spite of all the miraculous signs I have performed among them?

I will strike them down with a plague and destroy them, but I will make you into a nation greater and stronger than they.”

Moses said to the LORD, “Then the Egyptians will hear about it! By your power you brought these people up from among them.

And they will tell the inhabitants of this land about it. They have already heard that you, O LORD, are with these people and that you, O LORD, have been seen face to face, that your cloud stays over them, and that you go before them in a pillar of cloud by day and a pillar of fire by night.

Nu. 14:15 If you put these people to death all at one time, the nations who have heard this report about you will say,

Nu. 14:16 ‘The LORD was not able to bring these people into the land he promised them on oath; so he slaughtered them in the desert.’

Nu. 14:17 “Now may the Lord’s strength be displayed, just as you have declared:

Nu. 14:18 ‘The LORD is slow to anger, abounding in love and forgiving sin and rebellion. Yet he does not leave the guilty unpunished; he punishes the children for the sin of the fathers to the third and fourth generation.’

Nu. 14:19 In accordance with your great love, forgive the sin of these people, just as you have pardoned them from the time they left Egypt until now.”

Nu. 14:20 The LORD replied, “I have forgiven them, as you asked.

Nu. 14:21 Nevertheless, as surely as I live and as surely as the glory of the LORD fills the whole earth,

Nu. 14:22 not one of the men who saw my glory and the miraculous signs I performed in Egypt and in the desert but who disobeyed me and tested me ten times —

Nu. 14:23 not one of them will ever see the land I promised on oath to their forefathers. No-one who has treated me with contempt will ever see it.

Nu. 14:24 But because my servant Caleb has a different spirit and follows me wholeheartedly, I will bring him into the land he went to, and his descendants will inherit it.

Nu. 14:25 Since the Amalekites and Canaanites are living in the valleys, turn back tomorrow and set out towards the desert along the route to the Red Sea.” [Hebrew Yam Suph; that is, Sea of Reeds]
The LORD said to Moses and Aaron:

“How long will this wicked community grumble against me? I have heard the complaints of these grumbling Israelites.

So tell them, ‘As surely as I live, declares the LORD, I will do to you the very things I heard you say:

In this desert your bodies will fall — every one of you twenty years old or more who was counted in the census and who has grumbled against me.

Not one of you will enter the land I swore with uplifted hand to make your home, except Caleb son of Jephunneh and Joshua son of Nun.

As for your children that you said would be taken as plunder, I will bring them in to enjoy the land you have rejected.

But you — your bodies will fall in this desert.

Your children will be shepherds here for forty years, suffering for your unfaithfulness, until the last of your bodies lies in the desert.

For forty years — one year for each of the forty days you explored the land — you will suffer for your sins and know what it is like to have me against you.’

I, the LORD, have spoken, and I will surely do these things to this whole wicked community, which has banded together against me. They will meet their end in this desert; here they will die.”

So the men Moses had sent to explore the land, who returned and made the whole community grumble against him by spreading a bad report about it —

these men responsible for spreading the bad report about the land were struck down and died of a plague before the LORD.

Of the men who went to explore the land, only Joshua son of Nun and Caleb son of Jephunneh survived.
When Moses reported this to all the Israelites, they mourned bitterly.

Early the next morning they went up towards the high hill country. “We have sinned,” they said. “We will go up to the place the LORD promised.”

But Moses said, “Why are you disobeying the LORD’s command? This will not succeed!

Do not go up, because the LORD is not with you. You will be defeated by your enemies, for the Amalekites and Canaanites will face you there. Because you have turned away from the LORD, he will not be with you and you will fall by the sword.”

Nevertheless, in their presumption they went up towards the high hill country, though neither Moses nor the ark of the LORD’s covenant moved from the camp.

Then the Amalekites and Canaanites who lived in that hill country came down and attacked them and beat them down all the way to Hormah.

CHAPTER 15

The LORD said to Moses,

“Speak to the Israelites and say to them: ‘After you enter the land I am giving you as a home and you present to the LORD offerings made by fire, from the herd or the flock, as an aroma pleasing to the LORD — whether burnt offerings or sacrifices, for special vows or freewill offerings or festival offerings — then the one who brings his offering shall present to the LORD a grain offering of a tenth of an ephah [That is, probably about 4 pints (about 2 litres)] of fine flour mixed with a quarter of a hin [That is, probably about 1 1/2 pints (about 1 litre); also in verse 5] of oil.

With each lamb for the burnt offering or the sacrifice, prepare a quarter of a hin of wine as a drink offering.

“With a ram prepare a grain offering of two-tenths of an ephah [That is, probably about 7 1/2 pints (about 4.5 litres)] of fine flour mixed with a third of a hin [That is, probably about 2 1/4 pints (about 1.2 litres); also in verse 7] of oil, and a third of a hin of wine as a drink offering. Offer it as an aroma pleasing to the LORD.

“When you prepare a young bull as a burnt offering or sacrifice, for a special vow or a fellowship offering [Traditionally peace offering] to the LORD, bring with the bull a grain offering of three-tenths of an ephah [That is, probably about 11 1/2 pints (about 6.5 litres)] of fine flour mixed with half a hin [That is, probably about 3 pints (about 2 litres); also in verse 10] of oil. Also bring half a hin of wine as a drink offering. It will be an offering made by fire, an aroma pleasing to the LORD.

Each bull or ram, each lamb or young goat, is to be prepared in this manner.

Do this for each one, for as many as you prepare.

“Everyone who is native-born must do these things in this way when he brings an offering made by fire as an aroma pleasing to the LORD.

For the generations to come, whenever an alien or anyone else living among you presents an offering made by fire as an aroma pleasing to the LORD, he must do exactly as you do.

The community is to have the same rules for you and for the alien living among you; this is a lasting ordinance for the generations to come. You and the alien shall be the same before the LORD:

The same laws and regulations will apply both to you and to the alien living among you.”
The LORD said to Moses,

“Speak to the Israelites and say to them: ‘When you enter the land to which I am taking you and you eat the food of the land, present a portion as an offering to the LORD.

Present a cake from the first of your ground meal and present it as an offering from the threshing-floor.

Throughout the generations to come you are to give this offering to the LORD from the first of your ground meal.

“Now if you unintentionally fail to keep any of these commands the LORD gave Moses — any of the LORD’s commands to you through him, from the day the LORD gave them and continuing through the generations to come — and if this is done unintentionally without the community being aware of it, then the whole community is to offer a young bull for a burnt offering as an aroma pleasing to the LORD, along with its prescribed grain offering and drink offering, and a male goat for a sin offering.

The priest is to make atonement for the whole Israelite community, and they will be forgiven, for it was not intentional and they have brought to the LORD for their wrong an offering made by fire and a sin offering.

The whole Israelite community and the aliens living among them will be forgiven, because all the people were involved in the unintentional wrong.

“But if just one person sins unintentionally, he must bring a year-old female goat for a sin offering.

The priest is to make atonement before the LORD for the one who erred by sinning unintentionally, and when atonement has been made for him, he will be forgiven.
Nu. 15:29 One and the same law applies to everyone who sins unintentionally, whether he is a native-born Israelite or an alien.

Nu. 15:30 “But anyone who sins defiantly, whether native-born or alien, blasphemes the LORD, and that person must be cut off from his people.

Nu. 15:31 Because he has despised the LORD’s word and broken his commands, that person must surely be cut off; his guilt remains on him.”

Nu. 15:32 While the Israelites were in the desert, a man was found gathering wood on the Sabbath day.

Nu. 15:33 Those who found him gathering wood brought him to Moses and Aaron and the whole assembly,

Nu. 15:34 and they kept him in custody, because it was not clear what should be done to him.

Nu. 15:35 Then the LORD said to Moses, “The man must die. The whole assembly must stone him outside the camp.”

Nu. 15:36 So the assembly took him outside the camp and stoned him to death, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Nu. 15:37 The LORD said to Moses,

Nu. 15:38 “Speak to the Israelites and say to them: ‘Throughout the generations to come you are to make tassels on the corners of your garments, with a blue cord on each tassel.

Nu. 15:39 You will have these tassels to look at and so you will remember all the commands of the LORD, that you may obey them and not prostitute yourselves by going after the lusts of your own hearts and eyes.

Nu. 15:40 Then you will remember to obey all my commands and will be consecrated to your God.

Nu. 15:41 I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of Egypt to be your God. I am the LORD your God.”
Korah son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, and certain Reubenites — Dathan and Abiram, sons of Eliab, and On son of Peleth — became insolent [Or Peleth — took men] and rose up against Moses. With them were 250 Israelite men, well-known community leaders who had been appointed members of the council.

They came as a group to oppose Moses and Aaron and said to them, “You have gone too far! The whole community is holy, every one of them, and the LORD is with them. Why then do you set yourselves above the LORD’s assembly?”

When Moses heard this, he fell face down.

Then he said to Korah and all his followers: “In the morning the LORD will show who belongs to him and who is holy, and he will make that person come near him. The man he chooses he will cause to come near him.

You, Korah, and all your followers are to do this: Take censers
and tomorrow put fire and incense in them before the LORD.
The man the LORD chooses will be the one who is holy. You Levites have gone too far!”

Moses also said to Korah, “Now listen, you Levites!
Isn’t it enough for you that the God of Israel has separated you from the rest of the Israeliite community and brought you near himself to do the work at the LORD’s tabernacle and to stand before the community and minister to them?

He has brought you and all your fellow Levites near himself, but now you are trying to get the priesthood too.

It is against the LORD that you and all your followers have banded together. Who is Aaron that you should grumble against him?”
Then Moses summoned Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab. But they said, “We will not come!”

Isn’t it enough that you have brought us up out of a land flowing with milk and honey to kill us in the desert? And now you also want to lord it over us?

Moreover, you haven’t brought us into a land flowing with milk and honey or given us an inheritance of fields and vineyards. Will you gouge out the eyes of [Or you make slaves of; or you deceive] these men? No, we will not come!”

Then Moses became very angry and said to the LORD, “Do not accept their offering. I have not taken so much as a donkey from them, nor have I wronged any of them.”

Moses said to Korah, “You and all your followers are to appear before the LORD tomorrow — you and they and Aaron.

Each man is to take his censer and put incense in it — 250 censers in all — and present it before the LORD. You and Aaron are to present your censers also.”

So each man took his censer, put fire and incense in it, and stood with Moses and Aaron at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

When Korah had gathered all his followers in opposition to them at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, the glory of the LORD appeared to the entire assembly.

The LORD said to Moses and Aaron,

“Separate yourselves from this assembly so that I can put an end to them at once.”

But Moses and Aaron fell face down and cried out, “O God, God of the spirits of all mankind, will you be angry with the entire assembly when only one man sins?”

Then the LORD said to Moses,
“Say to the assembly, ‘Move away from the tents of Korah, Dathan and Abiram.’”

Moses got up and went to Dathan and Abiram, and the elders of Israel followed him.

He warned the assembly, “Move back from the tents of these wicked men! Do not touch anything belonging to them, or you will be swept away because of all their sins.”

So they moved away from the tents of Korah, Dathan and Abiram. Dathan and Abiram had come out and were standing with their wives, children and little ones at the entrances to their tents.

Then Moses said, “This is how you will know that the LORD has sent me to do all these things and that it was not my idea:

If these men die a natural death and experience only what usually happens to men, then the LORD has not sent me.

But if the LORD brings about something totally new, and the earth opens its mouth and swallows them, with everything that belongs to them, and they go down alive into the grave, [Hebrew Sheol; also in verse 33] then you will know that these men have treated the LORD with contempt.”

As soon as he finished saying all this, the ground under them split apart and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them, with their households and all Korah’s men and all their possessions.

At their cries, all the Israelites around them fled, shouting, “The earth is going to swallow us too!”

And fire came out from the LORD and consumed the 250 men who were offering the incense.
The LORD said to Moses,

“Tell Eleazar son of Aaron, the priest, to take the censers out of the smouldering remains and scatter the coals some distance away, for the censers are holy — the censers of the men who sinned at the cost of their lives. Hammer the censers into sheets to overlay the altar, for they were presented before the LORD and have become holy. Let them be a sign to the Israelites.”

So Eleazar the priest collected the bronze censers brought by those who had been burned up, and he had them hammered out to overlay the altar, as the LORD directed him through Moses. This was to remind the Israelites that no-one except a descendant of Aaron should come to burn incense before the LORD, or he would become like Korah and his followers.

The next day the whole Israelite community grumbled against Moses and Aaron. “You have killed the LORD’s people,” they said.

But when the assembly gathered in opposition to Moses and Aaron and turned towards the Tent of Meeting, suddenly the cloud covered it and the glory of the LORD appeared.

Then Moses and Aaron went to the front of the Tent of Meeting, and the LORD said to Moses,

“Get away from this assembly so that I can put an end to them at once.” And they fell face down.

Then Moses said to Aaron, “Take your censer and put incense in it, along with fire from the altar, and hurry to the assembly to make atonement for them. Wrath has come out from the LORD; the plague has started.”

So Aaron did as Moses said, and ran into the midst of the assembly. The plague had already started among the people, but Aaron offered the incense and made atonement for them.
He stood between the living and the dead, and the plague stopped.

But 14,700 people died from the plague, in addition to those who had died because of Korah.

Then Aaron returned to Moses at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, for the plague had stopped.

CHAPTER 17

The LORD said to Moses,

“Speak to the Israelites and get twelve staffs from them, one from the leader of each of their ancestral tribes. Write the name of each man on his staff.

On the staff of Levi write Aaron’s name, for there must be one staff for the head of each ancestral tribe.

Place them in the Tent of Meeting in front of the Testimony, where I meet with you.

The staff belonging to the man I choose will sprout, and I will rid myself of this constant grumbling against you by the Israelites.”

So Moses spoke to the Israelites, and their leaders gave him twelve staffs, one for the leader of each of their ancestral tribes, and Aaron’s staff was among them.

Moses placed the staffs before the LORD in the Tent of the Testimony.

The next day Moses entered the Tent of the Testimony and saw that Aaron’s staff, which represented the house of Levi, had not only sprouted but had budded, blossomed and produced almonds.

Then Moses brought out all the staffs from the LORD’s presence to all the Israelites. They looked at them, and each man took his own staff.
The LORD said to Moses, “Put back Aaron’s staff in front of the Testimony, to be kept as a sign to the rebellious. This will put an end to their grumbling against me, so that they will not die.”

Moses did just as the LORD commanded him.

The Israelites said to Moses, “We shall die! We are lost, we are all lost!

Anyone who even comes near the tabernacle of the LORD will die. Are we all going to die?”

CHAPTER 18

The LORD said to Aaron, “You, your sons and your father’s family are to bear the responsibility for offences against the sanctuary, and you and your sons alone are to bear the responsibility for offences against the priesthood.

Bring your fellow Levites from your ancestral tribe to join you and assist you when you and your sons minister before the Tent of the Testimony.

They are to be responsible to you and are to perform all the duties of the Tent, but they must not go near the furnishings of the sanctuary or the altar, or both they and you will die.

They are to join you and be responsible for the care of the Tent of Meeting — all the work at the Tent — and no-one else may come near where you are.

“You are to be responsible for the care of the sanctuary and the altar, so that wrath will not fall on the Israelites again.

I myself have selected your fellow Levites from among the Israelites as a gift to you, dedicated to the LORD to do the work at the Tent of Meeting.

But only you and your sons may serve as priests in connection with everything at the altar and inside the curtain. I am giving you the service of the priesthood as a gift.
Anyone else who comes near the sanctuary must be put to death.”

Nu. 18:8 Then the LORD said to Aaron, “I myself have put you in charge of the offerings presented to me; all the holy offerings the Israelites give me I give to you and your sons as your portion and regular share.

Nu. 18:9 You are to have the part of the most holy offerings that is kept from the fire. From all the gifts they bring me as most holy offerings, whether grain or sin or guilt offerings, that part belongs to you and your sons.

Nu. 18:10 Eat it as something most holy; every male shall eat it. You must regard it as holy.

Nu. 18:11 “This also is yours: whatever is set aside from the gifts of all the wave offerings of the Israelites. I give this to you and your sons and daughters as your regular share. Everyone in your household who is ceremonially clean may eat it.

Nu. 18:12 “I give you all the finest olive oil and all the finest new wine and grain they give to the LORD as the firstfruits of their harvest.

Nu. 18:13 All the land’s firstfruits that they bring to the LORD will be yours. Everyone in your household who is ceremonially clean may eat it.

Nu. 18:14 “Everything in Israel that is devoted [The Hebrew term refers to the irrevocable giving over of things or persons to the LORD.] to the LORD is yours.

Nu. 18:15 The first offspring of every womb, both man and animal, that is offered to the LORD is yours. But you must redeem every firstborn son and every firstborn male of unclean animals.

Nu. 18:16 When they are a month old, you must redeem them at the redemption price set at five shekels [That is, about 2 ounces (about 55 grams)] of silver, according to the sanctuary shekel, which weighs twenty gerahs.
But you must not redeem the firstborn of an ox, a sheep or a goat; they are holy. Sprinkle their blood on the altar and burn their fat as an offering made by fire, an aroma pleasing to the LORD.

Their meat is to be yours, just as the breast of the wave offering and the right thigh are yours.

Whatever is set aside from the holy offerings the Israelites present to the LORD I give to you and your sons and daughters as your regular share. It is an everlasting covenant of salt before the LORD for both you and your offspring.”

The LORD said to Aaron, “You will have no inheritance in their land, nor will you have any share among them; I am your share and your inheritance among the Israelites.

“I give to the Levites all the tithes in Israel as their inheritance in return for the work they do while serving at the Tent of Meeting.

From now on the Israelites must not go near the Tent of Meeting, or they will bear the consequences of their sin and will die.

It is the Levites who are to do the work at the Tent of Meeting and bear the responsibility for offences against it. This is a lasting ordinance for the generations to come. They will receive no inheritance among the Israelites.

Instead, I give to the Levites as their inheritance the tithes that the Israelites present as an offering to the LORD. That is why I said concerning them: ‘They will have no inheritance among the Israelites.’”

The LORD said to Moses,

“Speak to the Levites and say to them: ‘When you receive from the Israelites the tithe I give you as your inheritance, you must present a tenth of that tithe as the LORD’s offering.

Your offering will be reckoned to you as grain from the threshing-floor or juice from the winepress.
In this way you also will present an offering to the LORD from all the tithes you receive from the Israelites. From these tithes you must give the LORD’s portion to Aaron the priest.

You must present as the LORD’s portion the best and holiest part of everything given to you.’

“Say to the Levites: ‘When you present the best part, it will be reckoned to you as the product of the threshing-floor or the winepress.

You and your households may eat the rest of it anywhere, for it is your wages for your work at the Tent of Meeting.

By presenting the best part of it you will not be guilty in this matter; then you will not defile the holy offerings of the Israelites, and you will not die.’”

The LORD said to Moses and Aaron:

“This is a requirement of the law that the LORD has commanded: Tell the Israelites to bring you a red heifer without defect or blemish and that has never been under a yoke.

Give it to Eleazar the priest; it is to be taken outside the camp and slaughtered in his presence.

Then Eleazar the priest is to take some of its blood on his finger and sprinkle it seven times towards the front of the Tent of Meeting.

While he watches, the heifer is to be burned — its hide, flesh, blood and offal.

The priest is to take some cedar wood, hyssop and scarlet wool and throw them onto the burning heifer.
After that, the priest must wash his clothes and bathe himself with water. He may then come into the camp, but he will be ceremonially unclean till evening.

The man who burns it must also wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he too will be unclean till evening.

“A man who is clean shall gather up the ashes of the heifer and put them in a ceremonially clean place outside the camp. They shall be kept by the Israelite community for use in the water of cleansing; it is for purification from sin.

The man who gathers up the ashes of the heifer must also wash his clothes, and he too will be unclean till evening. This will be a lasting ordinance both for the Israelites and for the aliens living among them.

Whoever touches the dead body of anyone will be unclean for seven days.

He must purify himself with the water on the third day and on the seventh day; then he will be clean. But if he does not purify himself on the third and seventh days, he will not be clean.

Whoever touches the dead body of anyone and fails to purify himself defiles the LORD’s tabernacle. That person must be cut off from Israel. Because the water of cleansing has not been sprinkled on him, he is unclean; his uncleanness remains on him.

“This is the law that applies when a person dies in a tent: Anyone who enters the tent and anyone who is in it will be unclean for seven days, and every open container without a lid fastened on it will be unclean.

“Anyone out in the open who touches someone who has been killed with a sword or someone who has died a natural death, or anyone who touches a human bone or a grave, will be unclean for seven days.
Nu. 19:17 “For the unclean person, put some ashes from the burned purification offering into a jar and pour fresh water over them.

Nu. 19:18 Then a man who is ceremonially clean is to take some hyssop, dip it in the water and sprinkle the tent and all the furnishings and the people who were there. He must also sprinkle anyone who has touched a human bone or a grave or someone who has been killed or someone who has died a natural death.

Nu. 19:19 The man who is clean is to sprinkle the unclean person on the third and seventh days, and on the seventh day he is to purify him. The person being cleansed must wash his clothes and bathe with water, and that evening he will be clean.

Nu. 19:20 But if a person who is unclean does not purify himself, he must be cut off from the community, because he has defiled the sanctuary of the LORD. The water of cleansing has not been sprinkled on him, and he is unclean.

Nu. 19:21 This is a lasting ordinance for them. “The man who sprinkles the water of cleansing must also wash his clothes, and anyone who touches the water of cleansing will be unclean till evening.

Nu. 19:22 Anything that an unclean person touches becomes unclean, and anyone who touches it becomes unclean till evening.”

CHAPTER 20

Nu. 20:1 In the first month the whole Israelite community arrived at the Desert of Zin, and they stayed at Kadesh. There Miriam died and was buried.

Nu. 20:2 Now there was no water for the community, and the people gathered in opposition to Moses and Aaron.

Nu. 20:3 They quarrelled with Moses and said, “If only we had died when our brothers fell dead before the LORD!”
Why did you bring the LORD’s community into this desert, that we and our livestock should die here?

Why did you bring us up out of Egypt to this terrible place? It has no grain or figs, grapevines or pomegranates. And there is no water to drink!”

Moses and Aaron went from the assembly to the entrance to the Tent of Meeting and fell face down, and the glory of the LORD appeared to them.

The LORD said to Moses,

“Take the staff, and you and your brother Aaron gather the assembly together. Speak to that rock before their eyes and it will pour out its water. You will bring water out of the rock for the community so that they and their livestock can drink.”

So Moses took the staff from the LORD’s presence, just as he commanded him.

He and Aaron gathered the assembly together in front of the rock and Moses said to them, “Listen, you rebels, must we bring you water out of this rock?”

Then Moses raised his arm and struck the rock twice with his staff. Water gushed out, and the community and their livestock drank.

But the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, “Because you did not trust in me enough to honour me as holy in the sight of the Israelites, you will not bring this community into the land I give them.”

These were the waters of Meribah, [Meribah means quarrelling.] where the Israelites quarrelled with the LORD and where he showed himself holy among them.

Moses sent messengers from Kadesh to the king of Edom, saying: “This is what your brother Israel says: You know about all the hardships that have come upon us.

Our forefathers went down into Egypt, and we lived there many years. The Egyptians ill-treated us and our fathers, but when we cried out to the LORD, he heard our cry and sent an angel and brought us out of Egypt. “Now we are here at Kadesh, a town on the edge of your territory.

Please let us pass through your country. We will not go through any field or vineyard, or drink water from any well. We will travel along the king’s highway and not turn to the right or to the left until we have passed through your territory.”

But Edom answered: “You may not pass through here; if you try, we will march out and attack you with the sword.”

The Israelites replied: “We will go along the main road, and if we or our livestock drink any of your water, we will pay for it. We only want to pass through on foot — nothing else.”

Again they answered: “You may not pass through.” Then Edom came out against them with a large and powerful army.

Since Edom refused to let them go through their territory, Israel turned away from them.

The whole Israelite community set out from Kadesh and came to Mount Hor.

At Mount Hor, near the border of Edom, the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, “Aaron will be gathered to his people. He will not enter the land I give the Israelites, because both of you rebelled against my command at the waters of Meribah.

Call Aaron and his son Eleazar and take them up Mount Hor.

Remove Aaron’s garments and put them on his son Eleazar, for Aaron will be gathered to his people; he will die there.”

Moses did as the LORD commanded: They went up Mount Hor in the sight of the whole community.

Moses removed Aaron’s garments and put them on his son Eleazar. And Aaron died there on top of the mountain. Then Moses and Eleazar came down from the mountain, and when the whole community learned that Aaron had died, the entire house of Israel mourned for him thirty days.

CHAPTER 21

When the Canaanite king of Arad, who lived in the Negev, heard that Israel was coming along the road to Atharim, he attacked the Israelites and captured some of them.

Then Israel made this vow to the LORD: “If you will deliver these people into our hands, we will totally destroy [The Hebrew term refers to the irrevocable giving over of things or persons to the LORD, often by totally destroying them; also in verse 3.] their cities.”

The LORD listened to Israel’s plea and gave the Canaanites over to them. They completely destroyed them and their towns; so the place was named Hormah. [Hormah means destruction.]

They travelled from Mount Hor along the route to the Red Sea, [Hebrew Yam Suph; that is, Sea of Reeds] to go round Edom. But the people grew impatient on the way; they spoke against God and against Moses, and said, “Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the desert? There is no bread! There is no water! And we detest this miserable food!”

Then the LORD sent venomous snakes among them; they bit the people and many Israelites died.

The people came to Moses and said, “We sinned when we spoke against the LORD and against you. Pray that the LORD will take the snakes away from us.” So Moses prayed for the people.

The LORD said to Moses, “Make a snake and put it up on a pole; anyone who is bitten can look at it and live.”
So Moses made a bronze snake and put it up on a pole. Then when anyone was bitten by a snake and looked at the bronze snake, he lived.

Then the Israelites moved on and camped at Oboth.

Then they set out from Oboth and camped in Iye Abarim, in the desert that faces Moab towards the sunrise.

From there they moved on and camped in the Zered Valley.

They set out from there and camped alongside the Arnon, which is in the desert extending into Amorite territory. The Arnon is the border of Moab, between Moab and the Amorites.

That is why the Book of the Wars of the LORD says: “...Waheb in Suphah [The meaning of the Hebrew for this phrase is uncertain.] and the ravines, the Arnon and [Or “I have been given from Suphah and the ravines of the Arnon 21:15 to] the slopes of the ravines that lead to the site of Ar and lie along the border of Moab.”

From there they continued on to Beer, the well where the LORD said to Moses, “Gather the people together and I will give them water.”

Then Israel sang this song: “Spring up, O well! Sing about it, about the well that the princes dug, that the nobles of the people sank — the nobles with sceptres and staffs.” Then they went from the desert to Mattanah, from Mattanah to Nahaliel, from Nahaliel to Bamoth, and from Bamoth to the valley in Moab where the top of Pisgah overlooks the wasteland.

Israel sent messengers to say to Sihon king of the Amorites: “Let us pass through your country. We will not turn aside into any field or vineyard, or drink water from any well. We will travel along the king’s highway until we have passed through your territory.”
But Sihon would not let Israel pass through his territory. He mustered his entire army and marched out into the desert against Israel. When he reached Jahaz, he fought with Israel.

Israel, however, put him to the sword and took over his land from the Arnon to the Jabbok, but only as far as the Ammonites, because their border was fortified.

Israel captured all the cities of the Amorites and occupied them, including Heshbon and all its surrounding settlements.

Heshbon was the city of Sihon king of the Amorites, who had fought against the former king of Moab and had taken from him all his land as far as the Arnon.

That is why the poets say: “Come to Heshbon and let it be rebuilt; let Sihon’s city be restored.

“Fire went out from Heshbon, a blaze from the city of Sihon. It consumed Ar of Moab, the citizens of Arnon’s heights.

Woe to you, O Moab! You are destroyed, O people of Chemosh! He has given up his sons as fugitives and his daughters as captives to Sihon king of the Amorites.

“But we have overthrown them; Heshbon is destroyed all the way to Dibon. We have demolished them as far as Nophah, which extends to Medeba.”

So Israel settled in the land of the Amorites.

After Moses had sent spies to Jazer, the Israelites captured its surrounding settlements and drove out the Amorites who were there.

Then they turned and went up along the road towards Bashan, and Og king of Bashan and his whole army marched out to meet them in battle at Edrei.

The LORD said to Moses, “Do not be afraid of him, for I have handed him over to you, with his whole army and his land. Do to him what you did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon.”
Nu. 21:35 So they struck him down, together with his sons and his whole army, leaving them no survivors. And they took possession of his land.

CHAPTER 22

Nu. 22:1 Then the Israelites travelled to the plains of Moab and camped along the Jordan across from Jericho. [Hebrew Jordan of Jericho; possibly an ancient name for the Jordan River]

Nu. 22:2 Now Balak son of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites, Nu. 22:3 and Moab was terrified because there were so many people. Indeed, Moab was filled with dread because of the Israelites.

Nu. 22:4 The Moabites said to the elders of Midian, “This horde is going to lick up everything around us, as an ox licks up the grass of the field.” So Balak son of Zippor, who was king of Moab at that time, Nu. 22:5 sent messengers to summon Balaam son of Beor, who was at Pethor, near the River, [That is, the Euphrates] in his native land. Balak said: “A people has come out of Egypt; they cover the face of the land and have settled next to me.

Nu. 22:6 Now come and put a curse on these people, because they are too powerful for me. Perhaps then I will be able to defeat them and drive them out of the country. For I know that those you bless are blessed, and those you curse are cursed.”

Nu. 22:7 The elders of Moab and Midian left, taking with them the fee for divination. When they came to Balaam, they told him what Balak had said.

Nu. 22:8 “Spend the night here,” Balaam said to them, “and I will bring you back the answer the LORD gives me.” So the Moabite princes stayed with him.
God came to Balaam and asked, “Who are these men with you?”

Balaam said to God, “Balak son of Zippor, king of Moab, sent me this message:

‘A people that has come out of Egypt covers the face of the land. Now come and put a curse on them for me. Perhaps then I will be able to fight them and drive them away.’”

But God said to Balaam, “Do not go with them. You must not put a curse on those people, because they are blessed.”

The next morning Balaam got up and said to Balak’s princes, “Go back to your own country, for the LORD has refused to let me go with you.”

So the Moabite princes returned to Balak and said, “Balaam refused to come with us.”

Then Balak sent other princes, more numerous and more distinguished than the first.

They came to Balaam and said: “This is what Balak son of Zippor says: Do not let anything keep you from coming to me, because I will reward you handsomely and do whatever you say. Come and put a curse on these people for me.”

But Balaam answered them, “Even if Balak gave me his palace filled with silver and gold, I could not do anything great or small to go beyond the command of the LORD my God.

Now stay here tonight as the others did, and I will find out what else the LORD will tell me.”

That night God came to Balaam and said, “Since these men have come to summon you, go with them, but do only what I tell you.”

Balaam got up in the morning, saddled his donkey and went with the princes of Moab.
But God was very angry when he went, and the angel of the LORD stood in the road to oppose him. Balaam was riding on his donkey, and his two servants were with him.

When the donkey saw the angel of the LORD standing in the road with a drawn sword in his hand, she turned off the road into a field. Balaam beat her to get her back on the road.

Then the angel of the LORD stood in a narrow path between two vineyards, with walls on both sides.

When the donkey saw the angel of the LORD, she pressed close to the wall, crushing Balaam’s foot against it. So he beat her again.

Then the angel of the LORD moved on ahead and stood in a narrow place where there was no room to turn, either to the right or to the left.

When the donkey saw the angel of the LORD, she lay down under Balaam, and he was angry and beat her with his staff.

Then the LORD opened the donkey’s mouth, and she said to Balaam, “What have I done to you to make you beat me these three times?”

Balaam answered the donkey, “You have made a fool of me! If I had a sword in my hand, I would kill you right now.”

The donkey said to Balaam, “Am I not your own donkey, which you have always ridden, to this day? Have I been in the habit of doing this to you?” “No,” he said.

Then the LORD opened Balaam’s eyes, and he saw the angel of the LORD standing in the road with his sword drawn. So he bowed low and fell face down.

The angel of the LORD asked him, “Why have you beaten your donkey these three times? I have come here to oppose you because your path is a reckless one before me. [The meaning of the Hebrew for this clause is uncertain.]
The donkey saw me and turned away from me these three times. If she had not turned away, I would certainly have killed you by now, but I would have spared her.”

Balaam said to the angel of the LORD, “I have sinned. I did not realise you were standing in the road to oppose me. Now if you are displeased, I will go back.”

The angel of the LORD said to Balaam, “Go with the men, but speak only what I tell you.” So Balaam went with the princes of Balak.

When Balak heard that Balaam was coming, he went out to meet him at the Moabite town on the Arnon border, at the edge of his territory.

Balak said to Balaam, “Did I not send you an urgent summons? Why didn’t you come to me? Am I really not able to reward you?”

“Well, I have come to you now,” Balaam replied. “But can I say just anything? I must speak only what God puts in my mouth.”

Then Balaam went with Balak to Kiriath Huzoth.

Balak sacrificed cattle and sheep, and gave some to Balaam and the princes who were with him.

The next morning Balak took Balaam up to Bamoth Baal, and from there he saw part of the people.

CHAPTER 23

Balaam said, “Build me seven altars here, and prepare seven bulls and seven rams for me.”

Balak did as Balaam said, and the two of them offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

Then Balaam said to Balak, “Stay here beside your offering while I go aside. Perhaps the LORD will come to meet with me. Whatever he reveals to me I will tell you.” Then he went off to a barren height.

Nu. 23:4 God met with him, and Balaam said, “I have prepared seven altars, and on each altar I have offered a bull and a ram.”

Nu. 23:5 The LORD put a message in Balaam’s mouth and said, “Go back to Balak and give him this message.”

Nu. 23:6 So he went back to him and found him standing beside his offering, with all the princes of Moab.

Nu. 23:7 Then Balaam uttered his oracle: “Balak brought me from Aram, the king of Moab from the eastern mountains. ‘Come,’ he said, ‘curse Jacob for me; come, denounce Israel.’

Nu. 23:8 How can I curse those whom God has not cursed? How can I denounce those whom the LORD has not denounced?

Nu. 23:9 From the rocky peaks I see them, from the heights I view them. I see people who live apart and do not consider themselves one of the nations.

Nu. 23:10 Who can count the dust of Jacob or number the fourth part of Israel? Let me die the death of the righteous, and may my end be like theirs!”

Nu. 23:11 Balak said to Balaam, “What have you done to me? I brought you to curse my enemies, but you have done nothing but bless them!”

Nu. 23:12 He answered, “Must I not speak what the LORD puts in my mouth?”

Nu. 23:13 Then Balak said to him, “Come with me to another place where you can see them; you will see only a part but not all of them. And from there, curse them for me.”

Nu. 23:14 So he took him to the field of Zophim on the top of Pisgah, and there he built seven altars and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

Nu. 23:15 Balaam said to Balak, “Stay here beside your offering while I meet with him over there.”
Nu. 23:16 The LORD met with Balaam and put a message in his mouth and said, “Go back to Balak and give him this message.”

Nu. 23:17 So he went to him and found him standing beside his offering, with the princes of Moab. Balak asked him, “What did the LORD say?”

Nu. 23:18 Then he uttered his oracle: “Arise, Balak, and listen; hear me, son of Zippor.

Nu. 23:19 God is not a man, that he should lie, nor a son of man, that he should change his mind. Does he speak and then not act? Does he promise and not fulfil?

Nu. 23:20 I have received a command to bless; he has blessed, and I cannot change it.

Nu. 23:21 “No misfortune is seen in Jacob, no misery observed in Israel. [Or He has not looked on Jacob’s offences or on the wrongs found in Israel.] The LORD their God is with them; the shout of the King is among them.

Nu. 23:22 God brought them out of Egypt; they have the strength of a wild ox.

Nu. 23:23 There is no sorcery against Jacob, no divination against Israel. It will now be said of Jacob and of Israel, ‘See what God has done!’

Nu. 23:24 The people rise like a lioness; they rouse themselves like a lion that does not rest till he devours his prey and drinks the blood of his victims.”

Nu. 23:25 Then Balak said to Balaam, “Neither curse them at all nor bless them at all!”

Nu. 23:26 Balaam answered, “Did I not tell you I must do whatever the LORD says?”

Nu. 23:27 Then Balak said to Balaam, “Come, let me take you to another place. Perhaps it will please God to let you curse them for me from there.”
And Balak took Balaam to the top of Peor, overlooking the wasteland.

Balaam said, “Build me seven altars here, and prepare seven bulls and seven rams for me.”

Balak did as Balaam had said, and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

CHAPTER 24

Now when Balaam saw that it pleased the LORD to bless Israel, he did not resort to sorcery as at other times, but turned his face towards the desert.

When Balaam looked out and saw Israel encamped tribe by tribe, the Spirit of God came upon him and he uttered his oracle: “The oracle of Balaam son of Beor, the oracle of one whose eye sees clearly, the oracle of one who hears the words of God, who sees a vision from the Almighty, [Hebrew Shaddai; also in verse 16] who falls prostrate, and whose eyes are opened:

“How beautiful are your tents, O Jacob, your dwelling-places, O Israel!

Like valleys they spread out, like gardens beside a river, like aloes planted by the LORD, like cedars beside the waters.

Water will flow from their buckets; their seed will have abundant water. “Their king will be greater than Agag; their kingdom will be exalted.

“God brought them out of Egypt; they have the strength of a wild ox. They devour hostile nations and break their bones in pieces; with their arrows they pierce them.

Like a lion they crouch and lie down, like a lioness — who dares to rouse them? “May those who bless you be blessed and those who curse you be cursed!”
Then Balak’s anger burned against Balaam. He struck his hands together and said to him, “I summoned you to curse my enemies, but you have blessed them these three times.

Now leave at once and go home! I said I would reward you handsomely, but the LORD has kept you from being rewarded.”

Balaam answered Balak, “Did I not tell the messengers you sent me,

‘Even if Balak gave me his palace filled with silver and gold, I could not do anything of my own accord, good or bad, to go beyond the command of the LORD — and I must say only what the LORD says’?

Now I am going back to my people, but come, let me warn you of what this people will do to your people in days to come.”

Then he uttered his oracle: “The oracle of Balaam son of Beor, the oracle of one whose eye sees clearly, the oracle of one who hears the words of God, who has knowledge from the Most High, who sees a vision from the Almighty, who falls prostrate, and whose eyes are opened:

“I see him, but not now; I behold him, but not near. A star will come out of Jacob; a sceptre will rise out of Israel. He will crush the foreheads of Moab, the skulls [Samaritan Pentateuch (see also Jer. 48:45); the meaning of the word in the Masoretic Text is uncertain.] of [Or possibly Moab, batter] all the sons of Sheth. [Or all the noisy boasters]

Edom will be conquered; Seir, his enemy, will be conquered, but Israel will grow strong.

A ruler will come out of Jacob and destroy the survivors of the city.”

Then Balaam saw Amalek and uttered his oracle: “Amalek was first among the nations, but he will come to ruin at last.”
Then he saw the Kenites and uttered his oracle: “Your dwelling-place is secure, your nest is set in a rock; yet you Kenites will be destroyed when Asshur takes you captive.”

Then he uttered his oracle: “Ah, who can live when God does this? [Masoretic Text; with a different word division of the Hebrew A people will gather from the north.] Ships will come from the shores of Kittim; they will subdue Asshur and Eber, but they too will come to ruin.”

Then Balaam got up and returned home and Balak went his own way.

CHAPTER 25

While Israel was staying in Shittim, the men began to indulge in sexual immorality with Moabite women, who invited them to the sacrifices to their gods. The people ate and bowed down before these gods. So Israel joined in worshipping the Baal of Peor. And the LORD’s anger burned against them.

The LORD said to Moses, “Take all the leaders of these people, kill them and expose them in broad daylight before the LORD, so that the LORD’s fierce anger may turn away from Israel.”

So Moses said to Israel’s judges, “Each of you must put to death those of your men who have joined in worshipping the Baal of Peor.”

Then an Israelite man brought to his family a Midianite woman right before the eyes of Moses and the whole assembly of Israel while they were weeping at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.
When Phinehas son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, the priest, saw this, he left the assembly, took a spear in his hand and followed the Israelite into the tent. He drove the spear through both of them — through the Israelite and into the woman’s body. Then the plague against the Israelites was stopped; but those who died in the plague numbered 24,000.

The LORD said to Moses,

“Phinehas son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, the priest, has turned my anger away from the Israelites; for he was as zealous as I am for my honour among them, so that in my zeal I did not put an end to them.

Therefore tell him I am making my covenant of peace with him.

He and his descendants will have a covenant of a lasting priesthood, because he was zealous for the honour of his God and made atonement for the Israelites.”

The name of the Israelite who was killed with the Midianite woman was Zimri son of Salu, the leader of a Simeonite family.

And the name of the Midianite woman who was put to death was Cozbi daughter of Zur, a tribal chief of a Midianite family.

The LORD said to Moses,

“Treat the Midianites as enemies and kill them, because they treated you as enemies when they deceived you in the affair of Peor and their sister Cozbi, the daughter of a Midianite leader, the woman who was killed when the plague came as a result of Peor.”
CHAPTER 26

Nu. 26:1  After the plague the LORD said to Moses and Eleazar son of Aaron, the priest,

Nu. 26:2  “Take a census of the whole Israelite community by families — all those twenty years old or more who are able to serve in the army of Israel.”

Nu. 26:3  So on the plains of Moab by the Jordan across from Jericho, [Hebrew Jordan of Jericho; possibly an ancient name for the Jordan River; also in verse 63] Moses and Eleazar the priest spoke with them and said,

Nu. 26:4  “Take a census of men twenty years old or more, as the LORD commanded Moses.” These were the Israelites who came out of Egypt:

Nu. 26:5  The descendants of Reuben, the firstborn son of Israel, were: through Hanoch, the Hanochite clan; through Pallu, the Palluite clan;

Nu. 26:6  through Hezron, the Hezronite clan; through Carmi, the Carmite clan.

Nu. 26:7  These were the clans of Reuben; those numbered were 43,730.

Nu. 26:8  The son of Pallu was Eliab,

Nu. 26:9  and the sons of Eliab were Nemuel, Dathan and Abiram. The same Dathan and Abiram were the community officials who rebelled against Moses and Aaron and were among Korah’s followers when they rebelled against the LORD.

Nu. 26:10  The earth opened its mouth and swallowed them along with Korah, whose followers died when the fire devoured the 250 men. And they served as a warning sign.

Nu. 26:11  The line of Korah, however, did not die out.
Nu. 26:12 The descendants of Simeon by their clans were: through Nemuel, the Nemuelite clan; through Jamin, the Jaminite clan; through Jakin, the Jakinite clan;

Nu. 26:13 through Zerah, the Zerahite clan; through Shaul, the Shaulite clan.

Nu. 26:14 These were the clans of Simeon; there were 22,200 men.

Nu. 26:15 The descendants of Gad by their clans were: through Zepho, the Zephoite clan; through Haggi, the Haggite clan; through Shuni, the Shunite clan;

Nu. 26:16 through Ozni, the Ozniite clan; through Eri, the Erite clan;

Nu. 26:17 through Arodi, [Samaritan Pentateuch and Syriac (see also Gen. 46:16); Masoretic Text Arod] the Arodite clan; through Areli, the Arelite clan.

Nu. 26:18 These were the clans of Gad; those numbered were 40,500.

Nu. 26:19 Er and Onan were sons of Judah, but they died in Canaan.

Nu. 26:20 The descendants of Judah by their clans were: through Shelah, the Shelanite clan; through Perez, the Perezite clan; through Zerah, the Zerahite clan.

Nu. 26:21 The descendants of Perez were: through Hezron, the Hezronite clan; through Hamul, the Hamulite clan.

Nu. 26:22 These were the clans of Judah; those numbered were 76,500.

Nu. 26:23 The descendants of Issachar by their clans were: through Tola, the Tolaite clan; through Puah, the Puite [Samaritan Pentateuch, Septuagint, Vulgate and Syriac (see also 1 Chronicles 7:1); Masoretic Text through Puvah, the Punite] clan;

Nu. 26:24 through Jashub, the Jashubite clan; through Shimron, the Shimronite clan.

Nu. 26:25 These were the clans of Issachar; those numbered were 64,300.
The descendants of Zebulun by their clans were: through Sered, the Seredite clan; through Elon, the Elonite clan; through Jahleel, the Jahleelite clan.

These were the clans of Zebulun; those numbered were 60,500.

The descendants of Joseph by their clans through Manasseh and Ephraim were:

The descendants of Manasseh: through Makir, the Makirite clan (Makir was the father of Gilead); through Gilead, the Gileadite clan.

These were the descendants of Gilead: through Iezer, the Iezerite clan; through Helek, the Helekite clan; through Asriel, the Asrielite clan; through Shechem, the Shechemite clan; through Shemida, the Shemidaite clan; through Hepher, the Hepherite clan.

(Zelophehad son of Hepher had no sons; he had only daughters, whose names were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah and Tirzah.)

These were the clans of Manasseh; those numbered were 52,700.

The descendants of Ephraim by their clans: through Shuthelah, the Shuthelahite clan; through Beker, the Bekerite clan; through Tahan, the Tahanite clan.

These were the descendants of Shuthelah: through Eran, the Eranite clan.

These were the clans of Ephraim; those numbered were 32,500. These were the descendants of Joseph by their clans.

The descendants of Benjamin by their clans were: through Bela, the Belaite clan; through Ashbel, the Ashbelite clan; through Ahiram, the Ahiramite clan; through Shupham, [A few manuscripts of the Masoretic Text, Samaritan Pentateuch, Vulgate and Syriac (see also Septuagint); most manuscripts of the Masoretic Text Shephupham] the Shuphamite clan; through Hupham, the Huphamite clan.

The descendants of Bela through Ard and Naaman were: through Ard, [Samaritan Pentateuch and Vulgate (see also Septuagint); Masoretic Text does not have through Ard,] the Ardite clan; through Naaman, the Naamite clan.

These were the clans of Benjamin; those numbered were 45,600.

These were the descendants of Dan by their clans: through Shuham, the Shuhamite clan. These were the clans of Dan:

All of them were Shuhamite clans; and those numbered were 64,400.

The descendants of Asher by their clans were: through Imnah, the Imnite clan; through Ishvi, the Ishvite clan; through Beriah, the Beriite clan; and through the descendants of Beriah: through Heber, the Heberite clan; through Malkiel, the Malkielite clan.

(Asher had a daughter named Serah.)

These were the clans of Asher; those numbered were 53,400.

The descendants of Naphtali by their clans were: through Jahzeel, the Jahzeelite clan; through Guni, the Gunite clan; through Jezer, the Jezerite clan; through Shillem, the Shillemite clan.

These were the clans of Naphtali; those numbered were 45,400.

The total number of the men of Israel was 601,730.

The LORD said to Moses,
Nu. 26:53 “The land is to be allotted to them as an inheritance based on the number of names.

Nu. 26:54 To a larger group give a larger inheritance, and to a smaller group a smaller one; each is to receive its inheritance according to the number of those listed.

Nu. 26:55 Be sure that the land is distributed by lot. What each group inherits will be according to the names for its ancestral tribe.

Nu. 26:56 Each inheritance is to be distributed by lot among the larger and smaller groups.”

Nu. 26:57 These were the Levites who were counted by their clans: through Gershon, the Gershonite clan; through Kohath, the Kohathite clan; through Merari, the Merarite clan.

Nu. 26:58 These also were Levite clans: the Libnite clan, the Hebronite clan, the Mahlite clan, the Mushite clan, the Korahite clan. (Kohath was the forefather of Amram;

Nu. 26:59 the name of Amram’s wife was Jochebed, a descendant of Levi, who was born to the Levites [Or Jochebed, a daughter of Levi, who was born to Levi] in Egypt. To Amram she bore Aaron, Moses and their sister Miriam.

Nu. 26:60 Aaron was the father of Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

Nu. 26:61 But Nadab and Abihu died when they made an offering before the LORD with unauthorised fire.)

Nu. 26:62 All the male Levites a month old or more numbered 23,000. They were not counted along with the other Israelites because they received no inheritance among them.

Nu. 26:63 These are the ones counted by Moses and Eleazar the priest when they counted the Israelites on the plains of Moab by the Jordan across from Jericho.

Nu. 26:64 Not one of them was among those counted by Moses and Aaron the priest when they counted the Israelites in the Desert of Sinai.
For the LORD had told those Israelites they would surely die in the desert, and not one of them was left except Caleb son of Jephunneh and Joshua son of Nun.

CHAPTER 27

The daughters of Zelophehad son of Hepher, the son of Gilead, the son of Makir, the son of Manasseh son of Joseph. The names of the daughters were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah and Tirzah. They approached the entrance to the Tent of Meeting and stood before Moses, Eleazar the priest, the leaders and the whole assembly, and said,

“Our father died in the desert. He was not among Korah’s followers, who banded together against the LORD, but he died for his own sin and left no sons.

Why should our father’s name disappear from his clan because he had no son? Give us property among our father’s relatives.”

So Moses brought their case before the LORD and the LORD said to him, “What Zelophehad’s daughters are saying is right. You must certainly give them property as an inheritance among their father’s relatives and give their father’s inheritance over to them.

Say to the Israelites, ‘If a man dies and leaves no son, give his inheritance over to his daughter.

If he has no daughter, give his inheritance to his brothers.

If he has no brothers, give his inheritance to his father’s brothers.
Nu. 27:11 If his father had no brothers, give his inheritance to the nearest relative in his clan, that he may possess it. This is to be a legal requirement for the Israelites, as the LORD commanded Moses.”

Nu. 27:12 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Go up this mountain in the Abarim Range and see the land I have given the Israelites.

Nu. 27:13 After you have seen it, you too will be gathered to your people, as your brother Aaron was,

Nu. 27:14 for when the community rebelled at the waters in the Desert of Zin, both of you disobeyed my command to honour me as holy before their eyes.” (These were the waters of Meribah Kadesh, in the Desert of Zin.)

Nu. 27:15 Moses said to the LORD,

Nu. 27:16 “May the LORD, the God of the spirits of all mankind, appoint a man over this community

Nu. 27:17 to go out and come in before them, one who will lead them out and bring them in, so that the LORD’s people will not be like sheep without a shepherd.”

Nu. 27:18 So the LORD said to Moses, “Take Joshua son of Nun, a man in whom is the spirit, [Or Spirit] and lay your hand on him.

Nu. 27:19 Make him stand before Eleazar the priest and the entire assembly and commission him in their presence.

Nu. 27:20 Give him some of your authority so that the whole Israelite community will obey him.

Nu. 27:21 He is to stand before Eleazar the priest, who will obtain decisions for him by enquiring of the Urim before the LORD. At his command he and the entire community of the Israelites will go out, and at his command they will come in.”

Nu. 27:22 Moses did as the LORD commanded him. He took Joshua and made him stand before Eleazar the priest and the whole assembly.
Then he laid his hands on him and commissioned him, as the LORD instructed through Moses.

CHAPTER 28

The LORD said to Moses,

“Give this command to the Israelites and say to them: ‘See that you present to me at the appointed time the food for my offerings made by fire, as an aroma pleasing to me.’

Say to them: ‘This is the offering made by fire that you are to present to the LORD: two lambs a year old without defect, as a regular burnt offering each day.

Prepare one lamb in the morning and the other at twilight, together with a grain offering of a tenth of an ephah [That is, probably about 4 pints (about 2 litres); also in verses 13, 21 and 29] of fine flour mixed with a quarter of a hin [That is, probably about 1 1/2 pints (about 1 litre); also in verses 7 and 14] of oil from pressed olives.

This is the regular burnt offering instituted at Mount Sinai as a pleasing aroma, an offering made to the LORD by fire.

The accompanying drink offering is to be a quarter of a hin of fermented drink with each lamb. Pour out the drink offering to the LORD at the sanctuary.

Prepare the second lamb at twilight, along with the same kind of grain offering and drink offering that you prepare in the morning. This is an offering made by fire, an aroma pleasing to the LORD.

“On the Sabbath day, make an offering of two lambs a year old without defect, together with its drink offering and a grain offering of two-tenths of an ephah [That is, probably about 7 1/2 pints (about 4.5 litres); also in verses 12, 20 and 28] of fine flour mixed with oil.
Nu. 28:10 This is the burnt offering for every Sabbath, in addition to the regular burnt offering and its drink offering.

Nu. 28:11 “On the first of every month, present to the LORD a burnt offering of two young bulls, one ram and seven male lambs a year old, all without defect.

Nu. 28:12 With each bull there is to be a grain offering of three-tenths of an ephah [That is, probably about 11 1/2 pints (about 6.5 litres); also in verses 20 and 28] of fine flour mixed with oil; with the ram, a grain offering of two-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil;

Nu. 28:13 and with each lamb, a grain offering of a tenth of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil. This is for a burnt offering, a pleasing aroma, an offering made to the LORD by fire.

Nu. 28:14 With each bull there is to be a drink offering of half a hin [That is, probably about 3 pints (about 2 litres)] of wine; with the ram, a third of a hin; [That is, probably about 2 1/4 pints (about 1.2 litres)] and with each lamb, a quarter of a hin. This is the monthly burnt offering to be made at each new moon during the year.

Nu. 28:15 Besides the regular burnt offering with its drink offering, one male goat is to be presented to the LORD as a sin offering.

Nu. 28:16 “On the fourteenth day of the first month the LORD’s Passover is to be held.

Nu. 28:17 On the fifteenth day of this month there is to be a festival; for seven days eat bread made without yeast.

Nu. 28:18 On the first day hold a sacred assembly and do no regular work.

Nu. 28:19 Present to the LORD an offering made by fire, a burnt offering of two young bulls, one ram and seven male lambs a year old, all without defect.

Nu. 28:20 With each bull prepare a grain offering of three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil; with the ram, two-tenths;

Nu. 28:21 and with each of the seven lambs, one-tenth.
Include one male goat as a sin offering to make atonement for you.

Prepare these in addition to the regular morning burnt offering.

In this way prepare the food for the offering made by fire every day for seven days as an aroma pleasing to the LORD; it is to be prepared in addition to the regular burnt offering and its drink offering.

On the seventh day hold a sacred assembly and do no regular work.

On the day of firstfruits, when you present to the LORD an offering of new grain during the Feast of Weeks, hold a sacred assembly and do no regular work.

Present a burnt offering of two young bulls, one ram and seven male lambs a year old as an aroma pleasing to the LORD.

With each bull there is to be a grain offering of three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil; with the ram, two-tenths; and with each of the seven lambs, one-tenth.

Include one male goat to make atonement for you.

Prepare these together with their drink offerings, in addition to the regular burnt offering and its grain offering. Be sure the animals are without defect.

“On the first day of the seventh month hold a sacred assembly and do no regular work. It is a day for you to sound the trumpets.

CHAPTER 29
As an aroma pleasing to the LORD, prepare a burnt offering of one young bull, one ram and seven male lambs a year old, all without defect.

With the bull prepare a grain offering of three-tenths of an ephah [That is, probably about 11 1/2 pints (about 6.5 litres); also in verses 9 and 14] of fine flour mixed with oil; with the ram, two-tenths; [That is, probably about 7 1/2 pints (about 4.5 litres); also in verses 9 and 14] and with each of the seven lambs, one-tenth. [That is, probably about 4 pints (about 2 litres); also in verses 10 and 15]

Include one male goat as a sin offering to make atonement for you.

These are in addition to the monthly and daily burnt offerings with their grain offerings and drink offerings as specified. They are offerings made to the LORD by fire — a pleasing aroma.

“On the tenth day of this seventh month hold a sacred assembly. You must deny yourselves [Or must fast] and do no work.

With the bull prepare a grain offering of three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil; with the ram, two-tenths; and with each of the seven lambs, one-tenth.

Include one male goat as a sin offering, in addition to the sin offering for atonement and the regular burnt offering with its grain offering, and their drink offerings.

“On the fifteenth day of the seventh month, hold a sacred assembly and do no regular work. Celebrate a festival to the LORD for seven days.
Nu. 29:13 Present an offering made by fire as an aroma pleasing to the LORD, a burnt offering of thirteen young bulls, two rams and fourteen male lambs a year old, all without defect.

Nu. 29:14 With each of the thirteen bulls prepare a grain offering of three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil; with each of the two rams, two-tenths;

Nu. 29:15 and with each of the fourteen lambs, one-tenth.

Nu. 29:16 Include one male goat as a sin offering, in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain offering and drink offering.

Nu. 29:17 “On the second day prepare twelve young bulls, two rams and fourteen male lambs a year old, all without defect.

Nu. 29:18 With the bulls, rams and lambs, prepare their grain offerings and drink offerings according to the number specified.

Nu. 29:19 Include one male goat as a sin offering, in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain offering, and their drink offerings.

Nu. 29:20 “On the third day prepare eleven bulls, two rams and fourteen male lambs a year old, all without defect.

Nu. 29:21 With the bulls, rams and lambs, prepare their grain offerings and drink offerings according to the number specified.

Nu. 29:22 Include one male goat as a sin offering, in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain offering and drink offering.

Nu. 29:23 “On the fourth day prepare ten bulls, two rams and fourteen male lambs a year old, all without defect.

Nu. 29:24 With the bulls, rams and lambs, prepare their grain offerings and drink offerings according to the number specified.

Nu. 29:25 Include one male goat as a sin offering, in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain offering and drink offering.
On the fifth day prepare nine bulls, two rams and fourteen male lambs a year old, all without defect.

With the bulls, rams and lambs, prepare their grain offerings and drink offerings according to the number specified.

Include one male goat as a sin offering, in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain offering and drink offering.

On the sixth day prepare eight bulls, two rams and fourteen male lambs a year old, all without defect.

With the bulls, rams and lambs, prepare their grain offerings and drink offerings according to the number specified.

Include one male goat as a sin offering, in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain offering and drink offering.

On the seventh day prepare seven bulls, two rams and fourteen male lambs a year old, all without defect.

With the bulls, rams and lambs, prepare their grain offerings and drink offerings according to the number specified.

Include one male goat as a sin offering, in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain offering and drink offering.

On the eighth day hold an assembly and do no regular work.

Present an offering made by fire as an aroma pleasing to the LORD, a burnt offering of one bull, one ram and seven male lambs a year old, all without defect.

With the bull, the ram and the lambs, prepare their grain offerings and drink offerings according to the number specified.

Include one male goat as a sin offering, in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain offering and drink offering.
“In addition to what you vow and your freewill offerings, prepare these for the LORD at your appointed feasts: your burnt offerings, grain offerings, drink offerings and fellowship offerings.” [Traditionally peace offerings]

Moses told the Israelites all that the LORD commanded him.

CHAPTER 30

Moses said to the heads of the tribes of Israel: “This is what the LORD commands:

When a man makes a vow to the LORD or takes an oath to bind himself by a pledge, he must not break his word but must do everything he said.

“When a young woman still living in her father’s house makes a vow to the LORD or binds herself by a pledge and her father hears about her vow or pledge but says nothing to her, then all her vows and every pledge by which she bound herself will stand.

But if her father forbids her when he hears about it, none of her vows or the pledges by which she bound herself will stand; the LORD will release her because her father has forbidden her.

“If she marries after she makes a vow or after her lips utter a rash promise by which she binds herself and her husband hears about it but says nothing to her, then her vows or the pledges by which she bound herself will stand.

But if her husband forbids her when he hears about it, he nullifies the vow that binds her or the rash promise by which she binds herself, and the LORD will release her.

Any vow or obligation taken by a widow or divorced woman will be binding on her.
Nu. 30:10 “If a woman living with her husband makes a vow or binds herself by a pledge under oath and her husband hears about it but says nothing to her and does not forbid her, then all her vows or the pledges by which she bound herself will stand.

But if her husband nullifies them when he hears about them, then none of the vows or pledges that came from her lips will stand. Her husband has nullified them, and the LORD will release her.

Her husband may confirm or nullify any vow she makes or any sworn pledge to deny herself.

But if her husband says nothing to her about it from day to day, then he confirms all her vows or the pledges binding on her. He confirms them by saying nothing to her when he hears about them.

If, however, he nullifies them some time after he hears about them, then he is responsible for her guilt.”

These are the regulations the LORD gave Moses concerning relationships between a man and his wife, and between a father and his young daughter still living in his house.

CHAPTER 31

Nu. 31:1 The LORD said to Moses,

“Take vengeance on the Midianites for the Israelites. After that, you will be gathered to your people.”

So Moses said to the people, “Arm some of your men to go to war against the Midianites and to carry out the LORD’s vengeance on them.

Send into battle a thousand men from each of the tribes of Israel.”
So twelve thousand men armed for battle, a thousand from each tribe, were supplied from the clans of Israel.

Moses sent them into battle, a thousand from each tribe, along with Phinehas son of Eleazar, the priest, who took with him articles from the sanctuary and the trumpets for signalling.

They fought against Midian, as the LORD commanded Moses, and killed every man.

Among their victims were Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur and Reba — the five kings of Midian. They also killed Balaam son of Beor with the sword.

The Israelites captured the Midianite women and children and took all the Midianite herds, flocks and goods as plunder.

They burned all the towns where the Midianites had settled, as well as all their camps.

They took all the plunder and spoils, including the people and animals, and brought the captives, spoils and plunder to Moses and Eleazar the priest and the Israelite assembly at their camp on the plains of Moab, by the Jordan across from Jericho. [Hebrew Jordan of Jericho; possibly an ancient name for the Jordan River]

Moses, Eleazar the priest and all the leaders of the community went to meet them outside the camp.

Moses was angry with the officers of the army — the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds — who returned from the battle.

“Have you allowed all the women to live?” he asked them.

“They were the ones who followed Balaam’s advice and were the means of turning the Israelites away from the LORD in what happened at Peor, so that a plague struck the LORD’s people.”
Nu. 31:17  Now kill all the boys. And kill every woman who has slept with a man,

Nu. 31:18  but save for yourselves every girl who has never slept with a man.

Nu. 31:19  “All of you who have killed anyone or touched anyone who was killed must stay outside the camp seven days. On the third and seventh days you must purify yourselves and your captives.

Nu. 31:20  Purify every garment as well as everything made of leather, goat hair or wood.”

Nu. 31:21  Then Eleazar the priest said to the soldiers who had gone into battle, “This is the requirement of the law that the LORD gave Moses:

Nu. 31:22  Gold, silver, bronze, iron, tin, lead

Nu. 31:23  and anything else that can withstand fire must be put through the fire, and then it will be clean. But it must also be purified with the water of cleansing. And whatever cannot withstand fire must be put through that water.

Nu. 31:24  On the seventh day wash your clothes and you will be clean. Then you may come into the camp.”

Nu. 31:25  The LORD said to Moses,

Nu. 31:26  “You and Eleazar the priest and the family heads of the community are to count all the people and animals that were captured.

Nu. 31:27  Divide the spoils between the soldiers who took part in the battle and the rest of the community.

Nu. 31:28  From the soldiers who fought in the battle, set apart as tribute for the LORD one out of every five hundred, whether persons, cattle, donkeys, sheep or goats.

Nu. 31:29  Take this tribute from their half share and give it to Eleazar the priest as the LORD’s part.
From the Israelites’ half, select one out of every fifty, whether persons, cattle, donkeys, sheep, goats or other animals. Give them to the Levites, who are responsible for the care of the LORD’s tabernacle.”

So Moses and Eleazar the priest did as the LORD commanded Moses.

The plunder remaining from the spoils that the soldiers took was 675,000 sheep,

72,000 cattle,

61,000 donkeys

and 32,000 women who had never slept with a man.

The half share of those who fought in the battle was: 337,500 sheep, of which the tribute for the LORD was 675;

36,000 cattle, of which the tribute for the LORD was 72;

30,500 donkeys, of which the tribute for the LORD was 61;

16,000 people, of which the tribute for the LORD was 32.

Moses gave the tribute to Eleazar the priest as the LORD’s part, as the LORD commanded Moses.

The half belonging to the Israelites, which Moses set apart from that of the fighting men — the community’s half — was 337,500 sheep,

36,000 cattle,

30,500 donkeys

and 16,000 people.

From the Israelites’ half, Moses selected one out of every fifty persons and animals, as the LORD commanded him, and gave them to the Levites, who were responsible for the care of the LORD’s tabernacle.
Then the officers who were over the units of the army — the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds — went to Moses and said to him, “Your servants have counted the soldiers under our command, and not one is missing.

So we have brought as an offering to the LORD the gold articles each of us acquired — armlets, bracelets, signet rings, ear-rings and necklaces — to make atonement for ourselves before the LORD.”

Moses and Eleazar the priest accepted from them the gold — all the handcrafted articles.

All the gold from the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds that Moses and Eleazar presented as a gift to the LORD weighed 16,750 shekels. [That is, about 420 pounds (about 190 kilograms)]

Each soldier had taken plunder for himself.

Moses and Eleazar the priest accepted the gold from the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds and brought it into the Tent of Meeting as a memorial for the Israelites before the LORD.

CHAPTER 32

The Reubenites and Gadites, who had very large herds and flocks, saw that the lands of Jazer and Gilead were suitable for livestock.

So they came to Moses and Eleazar the priest and to the leaders of the community, and said, “Ataroth, Dibon, Jazer, Nimrah, Heshbon, Elealeh, Sebam, Nebo and Beon — the land the LORD subdued before the people of Israel — are suitable for livestock, and your servants have livestock.

If we have found favour in your eyes,” they said, “let this land be given to your servants as our possession. Do not make us cross the Jordan.”

Moses said to the Gadites and Reubenites, “Shall your countrymen go to war while you sit here?

Why do you discourage the Israelites from going over into the land the LORD has given them?

This is what your fathers did when I sent them from Kadesh Barnea to look over the land.

After they went up to the Valley of Eshcol and viewed the land, they discouraged the Israelites from entering the land the LORD had given them.

The LORD’s anger was aroused that day and he swore this oath:

‘Because they have not followed me wholeheartedly, not one of the men twenty years old or more who came up out of Egypt will see the land I promised on oath to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob — not one except Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite and Joshua son of Nun, for they followed the LORD wholeheartedly.’

The LORD’s anger burned against Israel and he made them wander in the desert for forty years, until the whole generation of those who had done evil in his sight was gone.

“And here you are, a brood of sinners, standing in the place of your fathers and making the LORD even more angry with Israel.

If you turn away from following him, he will again leave all this people in the desert, and you will be the cause of their destruction.”

Then they came up to him and said, “We would like to build pens here for our livestock and cities for our women and children.
Nu. 32:17 But we are ready to arm ourselves and go ahead of the Israelites until we have brought them to their place. Meanwhile our women and children will live in fortified cities, for protection from the inhabitants of the land.

Nu. 32:18 We will not return to our homes until every Israelite has received his inheritance.

Nu. 32:19 We will not receive any inheritance with them on the other side of the Jordan, because our inheritance has come to us on the east side of the Jordan.”

Nu. 32:20 Then Moses said to them, “If you will do this — if you will arm yourselves before the LORD for battle,

Nu. 32:21 and if all of you will go armed over the Jordan before the LORD until he has driven his enemies out before him —

Nu. 32:22 then when the land is subdued before the LORD, you may return and be free from your obligation to the LORD and to Israel. And this land will be your possession before the LORD.

Nu. 32:23 “But if you fail to do this, you will be sinning against the LORD; and you may be sure that your sin will find you out.

Nu. 32:24 Build cities for your women and children, and pens for your flocks, but do what you have promised.”

Nu. 32:25 The Gadites and Reubenites said to Moses, “We your servants will do as our lord commands.

Nu. 32:26 Our children and wives, our flocks and herds will remain here in the cities of Gilead.

Nu. 32:27 But your servants, every man armed for battle, will cross over to fight before the LORD, just as our lord says.”

Nu. 32:28 Then Moses gave orders about them to Eleazar the priest and Joshua son of Nun and to the family heads of the Israelite tribes.

Nu. 32:29 He said to them, “If the Gadites and Reubenites, every man armed for battle, cross over the Jordan with you before the LORD, then when the land is subdued before you, give them the land of Gilead as their possession.

Nu. 32:30 But if they do not cross over with you armed, they must accept their possession with you in Canaan.”

Nu. 32:31 The Gadites and Reubenites answered, “Your servants will do what the LORD has said.

Nu. 32:32 We will cross over before the LORD into Canaan armed, but the property we inherit will be on this side of the Jordan.”

Nu. 32:33 Then Moses gave to the Gadites, the Reubenites and the half-tribe of Manasseh son of Joseph the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites and the kingdom of Og king of Bashan — the whole land with its cities and the territory around them.

Nu. 32:34 The Gadites built up Dibon, Ataroth, Aroer,

Nu. 32:35 Atroth Shophan, Jazer, Jogbehah,

Nu. 32:36 Beth Nimrah and Beth Haran as fortified cities, and built pens for their flocks.

Nu. 32:37 And the Reubenites rebuilt Heshbon, Elealeh and Kiriathaim, Nu. 32:38 as well as Nebo and Baal Meon (these names were changed) and Sibmah. They gave names to the cities they rebuilt.

Nu. 32:39 The descendants of Makir son of Manasseh went to Gilead, captured it and drove out the Amorites who were there.

Nu. 32:40 So Moses gave Gilead to the Makirites, the descendants of Manasseh, and they settled there.

Nu. 32:41 Jair, a descendant of Manasseh, captured their settlements and called them Havvoth Jair. [Or them the settlements of Jair]

Nu. 32:42 And Nobah captured Kenath and its surrounding settlements and called it Nobah after himself.
CHAPTER 33

Nu. 33:1 Here are the stages in the journey of the Israelites when they came out of Egypt by divisions under the leadership of Moses and Aaron.

Nu. 33:2 At the LORD’s command Moses recorded the stages in their journey. This is their journey by stages:

Nu. 33:3 The Israelites set out from Rameses on the fifteenth day of the first month, the day after the Passover. They marched out boldly in full view of all the Egyptians, Nu. 33:4 who were burying all their firstborn, whom the LORD had struck down among them; for the LORD had brought judgment on their gods.

Nu. 33:5 The Israelites left Rameses and camped at Succoth.

Nu. 33:6 They left Succoth and camped at Etham, on the edge of the desert.

Nu. 33:7 They left Etham, turned back to Pi Hahiroth, to the east of Baal Zephon, and camped near Migdol.

Nu. 33:8 They left Pi Hahiroth [Many manuscripts of the Masoretic Text, Samaritan Pentateuch and Vulgate; most manuscripts of the Masoretic Text left from before Hahiroth] and passed through the sea into the desert, and when they had travelled for three days in the Desert of Etham, they camped at Marah.

Nu. 33:9 They left Marah and went to Elim, where there were twelve springs and seventy palm trees, and they camped there.

Nu. 33:10 They left Elim and camped by the Red Sea. [Hebrew Yam Suph; that is, Sea of Reeds; also in verse 11]

Nu. 33:11 They left the Red Sea and camped in the Desert of Sin.

Nu. 33:12 They left the Desert of Sin and camped at Dophkah.

Nu. 33:13 They left Dophkah and camped at Alush.
They left Alush and camped at Rephidim, where there was no water for the people to drink.

They left Rephidim and camped in the Desert of Sinai.

They left the Desert of Sinai and camped at Kibroth Hattaavah.

They left Kibroth Hattaavah and camped at Hazeroth.

They left Rimmon Perez and camped at Libnah.

They left Makhloeth and camped at Tahath.

They left Ezion Geber and camped at Kadesh, in the Desert of Zin.

At the LORD’s command Aaron the priest went up Mount Hor, where he died on the first day of the fifth month of the fortieth year after the Israelites came out of Egypt.

Aaron was a hundred and twenty-three years old when he died on Mount Hor.

The Canaanite king of Arad, who lived in the Negev of Canaan, heard that the Israelites were coming.

They left Mount Hor and camped at Zalmonah.

They left Iyim [That is, Iye Abarim] and camped at Dibon Gad.

They left Dibon Gad and camped at Almon Diblathaim.

They left Almon Diblathaim and camped in the mountains of Abarim, near Nebo.

They left the mountains of Abarim and camped on the plains of Moab by the Jordan across from Jericho. [Hebrew Jordan of Jericho; possibly an ancient name for the Jordan River; also in verse 50]

There on the plains of Moab they camped along the Jordan from Beth Jeshimoth to Abel Shittim.

On the plains of Moab by the Jordan across from Jericho the LORD said to Moses, “Speak to the Israelites and say to them: ‘When you cross the Jordan into Canaan, drive out all the inhabitants of the land before you. Destroy all their carved images and their cast idols, and demolish all their high places.

Take possession of the land and settle in it, for I have given you the land to possess.

Distribute the land by lot, according to your clans. To a larger group give a larger inheritance, and to a smaller group a smaller one. Whatever falls to them by lot will be theirs. Distribute it according to your ancestral tribes.

“But if you do not drive out the inhabitants of the land, those you allow to remain will become barbs in your eyes and thorns in your sides. They will give you trouble in the land where you will live.

And then I will do to you what I plan to do to them.”

CHAPTER 34

The LORD said to Moses,

“Command the Israelites and say to them: ‘When you enter Canaan, the land that will be allotted to you as an inheritance will have these boundaries:

Your southern side will include some of the Desert of Zin along the border of Edom. On the east, your southern boundary will start from the end of the Salt Sea, [That is, the Dead Sea; also in verse 12] cross south of Scorpion [Hebrew Akrabbim] Pass, continue on to Zin and go south of Kadesh Barnea. Then it will go to Hazar Addar and over to Azmon, where it will turn, join the Wadi of Egypt and end at the Sea. [That is, the Mediterranean; also in verses 6 and 7]

Your western boundary will be the coast of the Great Sea. This will be your boundary on the west.
Nu. 34:7 “For your northern boundary, run a line from the Great Sea to Mount Hor

Nu. 34:8 and from Mount Hor to Lebo [Or to the entrance to] Hamath. Then the boundary will go to Zedad, Nu. 34:9 continue to Ziphron and end at Hazar Enan. This will be your boundary on the north.

Nu. 34:10 “For your eastern boundary, run a line from Hazar Enan to Shepham.

Nu. 34:11 The boundary will go down from Shepham to Riblah on the east side of Ain and continue along the slopes east of the Sea of Kinnereth. [That is, Galilee]

Nu. 34:12 Then the boundary will go down along the Jordan and end at the Salt Sea. “This will be your land, with its boundaries on every side.”

Nu. 34:13 Moses commanded the Israelites: “Assign this land by lot as an inheritance. The LORD has ordered that it be given to the nine and a half tribes,

Nu. 34:14 because the families of the tribe of Reuben, the tribe of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh have received their inheritance.

Nu. 34:15 These two and a half tribes have received their inheritance on the east side of the Jordan of Jericho, [Jordan of Jericho was possibly an ancient name for the Jordan River.] towards the sunrise.”

Nu. 34:16 The LORD said to Moses,

Nu. 34:17 “These are the names of the men who are to assign the land for you as an inheritance: Eleazar the priest and Joshua son of Nun.

Nu. 34:18 And appoint one leader from each tribe to help assign the land.

Nu. 34:19 These are their names: Caleb son of Jephunneh, from the tribe of Judah;
Nu. 34:20 Shemuel son of Ammihud, from the tribe of Simeon;
Nu. 34:21 Elidad son of Kislon, from the tribe of Benjamin;
Nu. 34:22 Bukki son of Jogli, the leader from the tribe of Dan;
Nu. 34:23 Hanniel son of Ephod, the leader from the tribe of Manasseh son of Joseph;
Nu. 34:24 Kemuel son of Shiphtan, the leader from the tribe of Ephraim son of Joseph;
Nu. 34:25 Elizaphan son of Parnach, the leader from the tribe of Zebulun;
Nu. 34:26 Paltiel son of Azzan, the leader from the tribe of Issachar;
Nu. 34:27 Ahihuud son of Shelomi, the leader from the tribe of Asher;
Nu. 34:28 Pedahel son of Ammihud, the leader from the tribe of Naphtali.”

Nu. 34:29 These are the men the LORD commanded to assign the inheritance to the Israelites in the land of Canaan.

CHAPTER 35

Nu. 35:1 On the plains of Moab by the Jordan across from Jericho, [Hebrew Jordan of Jericho; possibly an ancient name for the Jordan River] the LORD said to Moses, Nu. 35:2 “Command the Israelites to give the Levites towns to live in from the inheritance the Israelites will possess. And give them pasture-lands around the towns.

Nu. 35:3 Then they will have towns to live in and pasture-lands for their cattle, flocks and all their other livestock.

Nu. 35:4 “The pasture-lands around the towns that you give the Levites will extend out fifteen hundred feet [Hebrew a thousand cubits (about 450 metres)] from the town wall.

Nu. 35:5 Outside the town, measure three thousand feet [Hebrew two thousand cubits (about 900 metres)] on the east side, three thousand on the south side, three thousand on the west and three thousand on the north, with the town in the centre. They will have this area as pasture-land for the towns.

Nu. 35:6 “Six of the towns you give the Levites will be cities of refuge, to which a person who has killed someone may flee. In addition, give them forty-two other towns.

Nu. 35:7 In all you must give the Levites forty-eight towns, together with their pasture-lands.

Nu. 35:8 The towns you give the Levites from the land the Israelites possess are to be given in proportion to the inheritance of each tribe: Take many towns from a tribe that has many, but few from one that has few.”

Nu. 35:9 Then the LORD said to Moses:

Nu. 35:10 “Speak to the Israelites and say to them: ‘When you cross the Jordan into Canaan, select some towns to be your cities of refuge, to which a person who has killed someone accidentally may flee.

Nu. 35:11 They will be places of refuge from the avenger, so that a person accused of murder may not die before he stands trial before the assembly.

Nu. 35:12 These six towns you give will be your cities of refuge.

Nu. 35:13 Give three on this side of the Jordan and three in Canaan as cities of refuge.

Nu. 35:14 These six towns will be a place of refuge for Israelites, aliens and any other people living among them, so that anyone who has killed another accidentally can flee there.

Nu. 35:15 “If a man strikes someone with an iron object so that he dies, he is a murderer; the murderer shall be put to death.

Nu. 35:16 Or if anyone has a stone in his hand that could kill, and he strikes someone so that he dies, he is a murderer; the murderer shall be put to death.
Nu. 35:18  Or if anyone has a wooden object in his hand that could kill, and he hits someone so that he dies, he is a murderer; the murderer shall be put to death.

Nu. 35:19  The avenger of blood shall put the murderer to death; when he meets him, he shall put him to death.

Nu. 35:20  If anyone with malice aforethought pushes another or throws something at him intentionally so that he dies

Nu. 35:21  or if in hostility he hits him with his fist so that he dies, that person shall be put to death; he is a murderer. The avenger of blood shall put the murderer to death when he meets him.

Nu. 35:22  “But if without hostility someone suddenly pushes another or throws something at him unintentionally

Num. 35:23  or, without seeing him, drops a stone on him that could kill him, and he dies, then since he was not his enemy and he did not intend to harm him,

Nu. 35:24  the assembly must judge between him and the avenger of blood according to these regulations.

Nu. 35:25  The assembly must protect the one accused of murder from the avenger of blood and send him back to the city of refuge to which he fled. He must stay there until the death of the high priest, who was anointed with holy oil.

Nu. 35:26  “But if the accused ever goes outside the limits of the city of refuge to which he has fled

Nu. 35:27  and the avenger of blood finds him outside the city, the avenger of blood may kill the accused without being guilty of murder.

Nu. 35:28  The accused must stay in his city of refuge until the death of the high priest; only after the death of the high priest may he return to his own property.

Nu. 35:29  “These are to be legal requirements for you throughout the generations to come, wherever you live.
Nu. 35:30  “Anyone who kills a person is to be put to death as a murderer only on the testimony of witnesses. But no-one is to be put to death on the testimony of only one witness.

Nu. 35:31  “Do not accept a ransom for the life of a murderer, who deserves to die. He must surely be put to death.

Nu. 35:32  “Do not accept a ransom for anyone who has fled to a city of refuge and so allow him to go back and live on his own land before the death of the high priest.

Nu. 35:33  “Do not pollute the land where you are. Bloodshed pollutes the land, and atonement cannot be made for the land on which blood has been shed, except by the blood of the one who shed it.

Nu. 35:34  Do not defile the land where you live and where I dwell, for I, the LORD, dwell among the Israelites.”

CHAPTER 36

Nu. 36:1  The family heads of the clan of Gilead son of Makir, the son of Manasseh, who were from the clans of the descendants of Joseph, came and spoke before Moses and the leaders, the heads of the Israelite families.

Nu. 36:2  They said, “When the LORD commanded my lord to give the land as an inheritance to the Israelites by lot, he ordered you to give the inheritance of our brother Zelophehad to his daughters.

Nu. 36:3  Now suppose they marry men from other Israelite tribes; then their inheritance will be taken from our ancestral inheritance and added to that of the tribe they marry into. And so part of the inheritance allotted to us will be taken away.

Nu. 36:4  When the Year of Jubilee for the Israelites comes, their inheritance will be added to that of the tribe into which they marry, and their property will be taken from the tribal inheritance of our forefathers.”
Then at the LORD’s command Moses gave this order to the Israelites: “What the tribe of the descendants of Joseph is saying is right.

This is what the LORD commands for Zelophehad’s daughters: They may marry anyone they please as long as they marry within the tribal clan of their father.

No inheritance in Israel is to pass from tribe to tribe, for every Israelite shall keep the tribal land inherited from his forefathers.

Every daughter who inherits land in any Israelite tribe must marry someone in her father’s tribal clan, so that every Israelite will possess the inheritance of his fathers.

No inheritance may pass from tribe to tribe, for each Israelite tribe is to keep the land it inherits.”

So Zelophehad’s daughters did as the LORD commanded Moses.

Zelophehad’s daughters — Mahlah, Tirzah, Hoglah, Milcah and Noah — married their cousins on their father’s side.

They married within the clans of the descendants of Manasseh son of Joseph, and their inheritance remained in their father’s clan and tribe.

These are the commands and regulations the LORD gave through Moses to the Israelites on the plains of Moab by the Jordan across from Jericho. [Hebrew Jordan of Jericho; possibly an ancient name for the Jordan River]
These are the words Moses spoke to all Israel in the desert east of the Jordan — that is, in the Arabah — opposite Suph, between Paran and Tophel, Laban, Hazeroth and Dizahab.

(It takes eleven days to go from Horeb to Kadesh Barnea by the Mount Seir road.)

In the fortieth year, on the first day of the eleventh month, Moses proclaimed to the Israelites all that the LORD had commanded him concerning them.

This was after he had defeated Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, and at Edrei had defeated Og king of Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth.

East of the Jordan in the territory of Moab, Moses began to expound this law, saying:

The LORD our God said to us at Horeb, “You have stayed long enough at this mountain.

Break camp and advance into the hill country of the Amorites; go to all the neighbouring peoples in the Arabah, in the mountains, in the western foothills, in the Negev and along the coast, to the land of the Canaanites and to Lebanon, as far as the great river, the Euphrates.

See, I have given you this land. Go in and take possession of the land that the LORD swore he would give to your fathers — to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob — and to their descendants after them.”

At that time I said to you, “You are too heavy a burden for me to carry alone.
De. 1:10 The LORD your God has increased your numbers so that today you are as many as the stars in the sky.

De. 1:11 May the LORD, the God of your fathers, increase you a thousand times and bless you as he has promised!

De. 1:12 But how can I bear your problems and your burdens and your disputes all by myself?

De. 1:13 Choose some wise, understanding and respected men from each of your tribes, and I will set them over you.”

De. 1:14 You answered me, “What you propose to do is good.”

De. 1:15 So I took the leading men of your tribes, wise and respected men, and appointed them to have authority over you — as commanders of thousands, of hundreds, of fifties and of tens and as tribal officials.

De. 1:16 And I charged your judges at that time: Hear the disputes between your brothers and judge fairly, whether the case is between brother Israelites or between one of them and an alien.

De. 1:17 Do not show partiality in judging; hear both small and great alike. Do not be afraid of any man, for judgment belongs to God. Bring me any case too hard for you, and I will hear it.

De. 1:18 And at that time I told you everything you were to do.

De. 1:19 Then, as the LORD our God commanded us, we set out from Horeb and went towards the hill country of the Amorites through all that vast and dreadful desert that you have seen, and so we reached Kadesh Barnea.

De. 1:20 Then I said to you, “You have reached the hill country of the Amorites, which the LORD our God is giving us.

De. 1:21 See, the LORD your God has given you the land. Go up and take possession of it as the LORD, the God of your fathers, told you. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged.”
Then all of you came to me and said, “Let us send men ahead to spy out the land for us and bring back a report about the route we are to take and the towns we will come to.”

The idea seemed good to me; so I selected twelve of you, one man from each tribe.

They left and went up into the hill country, and came to the Valley of Eshcol and explored it.

Taking with them some of the fruit of the land, they brought it down to us and reported, “It is a good land that the LORD our God is giving us.”

But you were unwilling to go up; you rebelled against the command of the LORD your God.

You grumbled in your tents and said, “The LORD hates us; so he brought us out of Egypt to deliver us into the hands of the Amorites to destroy us.

Where can we go? Our brothers have made us lose heart. They say, ‘The people are stronger and taller than we are; the cities are large, with walls up to the sky. We even saw the Anakites there.’

Then I said to you, “Do not be terrified; do not be afraid of them.

The LORD your God, who is going before you, will fight for you, as he did for you in Egypt, before your very eyes, and in the desert. There you saw how the LORD your God carried you, as a father carries his son, all the way you went until you reached this place.”

In spite of this, you did not trust in the LORD your God, who went ahead of you on your journey, in fire by night and in a cloud by day, to search out places for you to camp and to show you the way you should go.

When the LORD heard what you said, he was angry and solemnly swore:
De. 1:35 “Not a man of this evil generation shall see the good land I swore to give your forefathers,

De. 1:36 except Caleb son of Jephunneh. He will see it, and I will give him and his descendants the land he set his feet on, because he followed the LORD wholeheartedly.”

De. 1:37 Because of you the LORD became angry with me also and said, “You shall not enter it, either.

De. 1:38 But your assistant, Joshua son of Nun, will enter it. Encourage him, because he will lead Israel to inherit it.

De. 1:39 And the little ones that you said would be taken captive, your children who do not yet know good from bad — they will enter the land. I will give it to them and they will take possession of it.

De. 1:40 But as for you, turn round and set out towards the desert along the route to the Red Sea.”

De. 1:41 Then you replied, “We have sinned against the LORD. We will go up and fight, as the LORD our God commanded us.” So every one of you put on his weapons, thinking it easy to go up into the hill country.

De. 1:42 But the LORD said to me, “Tell them, `Do not go up and fight, because I will not be with you. You will be defeated by your enemies.’“

De. 1:43 So I told you, but you would not listen. You rebelled against the LORD’s command and in your arrogance you marched up into the hill country.

De. 1:44 The Amorites who lived in those hills came out against you; they chased you like a swarm of bees and beat you down from Seir all the way to Hormah.

De. 1:45 You came back and wept before the LORD, but he paid no attention to your weeping and turned a deaf ear to you.

De. 1:46 And so you stayed in Kadesh many days — all the time you spent there.
De. 2:1 Then we turned back and set out towards the desert along the route to the Red Sea, as the LORD had directed me. For a long time we made our way around the hill country of Seir.

De. 2:2 Then the LORD said to me,

De. 2:3 “You have made your way around this hill country long enough; now turn north.

De. 2:4 Give the people these orders: `You are about to pass through the territory of your brothers the descendants of Esau, who live in Seir. They will be afraid of you, but be very careful.

De. 2:5 Do not provoke them to war, for I will not give you any of their land, not even enough to put your foot on. I have given Esau the hill country of Seir as his own.

De. 2:6 You are to pay them in silver for the food you eat and the water you drink.’“

De. 2:7 The LORD your God has blessed you in all the work of your hands. He has watched over your journey through this vast desert. These forty years the LORD your God has been with you, and you have not lacked anything.

De. 2:8 So we went on past our brothers the descendants of Esau, who live in Seir. We turned from the Arabah road, which comes up from Elath and Ezion Geber, and travelled along the desert road of Moab.

De. 2:9 Then the LORD said to me, “Do not harass the Moabites or provoke them to war, for I will not give you any part of their land. I have given Ar to the descendants of Lot as a possession.”

De. 2:10 (The Emites used to live there — a people strong and numerous, and as tall as the Anakites.

De. 2:11 Like the Anakites, they too were considered Rephaites, but the Moabites called them Emites.
De. 2:12 Horites used to live in Seir, but the descendants of Esau drove them out. They destroyed the Horites from before them and settled in their place, just as Israel did in the land the LORD gave them as their possession.

De. 2:13 And the LORD said, “Now get up and cross the Zered Valley.” So we crossed the valley.

De. 2:14 Thirty-eight years passed from the time we left Kadesh Barnea until we crossed the Zered Valley. By then, that entire generation of fighting men had perished from the camp, as the LORD had sworn to them.

De. 2:15 The LORD’s hand was against them until he had completely eliminated them from the camp.

De. 2:16 Now when the last of these fighting men among the people had died,

De. 2:17 the LORD said to me,

De. 2:18 “Today you are to pass by the region of Moab at Ar.

De. 2:19 When you come to the Ammonites, do not harass them or provoke them to war, for I will not give you possession of any land belonging to the Ammonites. I have given it as a possession to the descendants of Lot.”

De. 2:20 (That too was considered a land of the Rephaites, who used to live there; but the Ammonites called them Zamzummites.

De. 2:21 They were a people strong and numerous, and as tall as the Anakites. The LORD destroyed them from before the Ammonites, who drove them out and settled in their place.

De. 2:22 The LORD had done the same for the descendants of Esau, who lived in Seir, when he destroyed the Horites from before them. They drove them out and have lived in their place to this day.

De. 2:23 And as for the Avvites who lived in villages as far as Gaza, the Caphtorites coming out from Caphtor destroyed them and settled in their place.)
“Set out now and cross the Arnon Gorge. See, I have given into your hand Sihon the Amorite, king of Heshbon, and his country. Begin to take possession of it and engage him in battle.

This very day I will begin to put the terror and fear of you on all the nations under heaven. They will hear reports of you and will tremble and be in anguish because of you.”

From the desert of Kedemoth I sent messengers to Sihon king of Heshbon offering peace and saying, “Let us pass through your country. We will stay on the main road; we will not turn aside to the right or to the left.

Sell us food to eat and water to drink for their price in silver. Only let us pass through on foot — as the descendants of Esau, who live in Seir, and the Moabites, who live in Ar, did for us — until we cross the Jordan into the land the LORD our God is giving us.”

But Sihon king of Heshbon refused to let us pass through. For the LORD your God had made his spirit stubborn and his heart obstinate in order to give him into your hands, as he has now done.

The LORD said to me, “See, I have begun to deliver Sihon and his country over to you. Now begin to conquer and possess his land.”

When Sihon and all his army came out to meet us in battle at Jahaz, the LORD our God delivered him over to us and we struck him down, together with his sons and his whole army.

At that time we took all his towns and completely destroyed them — men, women and children. We left no survivors.

But the livestock and the plunder from the towns we had captured we carried off for ourselves.
De. 2:36 From Aroer on the rim of the Arnon Gorge, and from the town in the gorge, even as far as Gilead, not one town was too strong for us. The LORD our God gave us all of them.

De. 2:37 But in accordance with the command of the LORD our God, you did not encroach on any of the land of the Ammonites, neither the land along the course of the Jabbok nor that around the towns in the hills.

CHAPTER 3

De. 3:1 Next we turned and went up along the road towards Bashan, and Og king of Bashan with his whole army marched out to meet us in battle at Edrei.

De. 3:2 The LORD said to me, “Do not be afraid of him, for I have handed him over to you with his whole army and his land. Do to him what you did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon.”

De. 3:3 So the LORD our God also gave into our hands Og king of Bashan and all his army. We struck them down, leaving no survivors.

De. 3:4 At that time we took all his cities. There was not one of the sixty cities that we did not take from them — the whole region of Argob, Og’s kingdom in Bashan.

De. 3:5 All these cities were fortified with high walls and with gates and bars, and there were also a great many unwalled villages.

De. 3:6 We completely destroyed them, as we had done with Sihon king of Heshbon, destroying every city — men, women and children.

De. 3:7 But all the livestock and the plunder from their cities we carried off for ourselves.

De. 3:8 So at that time we took from these two kings of the Amorites the territory east of the Jordan, from the Arnon Gorge as far as Mount Hermon.
De. 3:9 (Hermon is called Sirion by the Sidonians; the Amorites call it Senir.)

De. 3:10 We took all the towns on the plateau, and all Gilead, and all Bashan as far as Salecah and Edrei, towns of Og’s kingdom in Bashan.

De. 3:11 (Only Og king of Bashan was left of the remnant of the Rephaites. His bed was made of iron and was more than thirteen feet long and six feet wide. It is still in Rabbah of the Ammonites.)

De. 3:12 Of the land that we took over at that time, I gave the Reubenites and the Gadites the territory north of Aroer by the Arnon Gorge, including half the hill country of Gilead, together with its towns.

De. 3:13 The rest of Gilead and also all of Bashan, the kingdom of Og, I gave to the half-tribe of Manasseh. (The whole region of Argob in Bashan used to be known as a land of the Rephaites.

De. 3:14 Jair, a descendant of Manasseh, took the whole region of Argob as far as the border of the Geshurites and the Maacathites; it was named after him, so that to this day Bashan is called Havvoth Jair.)

De. 3:15 And I gave Gilead to Makir.

De. 3:16 But to the Reubenites and the Gadites I gave the territory extending from Gilead down to the Arnon Gorge (the middle of the gorge being the border) and out to the Jabbok River, which is the border of the Ammonites.

De. 3:17 Its western border was the Jordan in the Arabah, from Kinnereth to the Sea of the Arabah (the Salt Sea), below the slopes of Pisgah.

De. 3:18 I commanded you at that time: “The LORD your God has given you this land to take possession of it. But all your able-bodied men, armed for battle, must cross over ahead of your brother Israelites.
De. 3:19 However, your wives, your children and your livestock (I know you have much livestock) may stay in the towns I have given you,

De. 3:20 until the LORD gives rest to your brothers as he has to you, and they too have taken over the land that the LORD your God is giving them, across the Jordan. After that, each of you may go back to the possession I have given you.”

De. 3:21 At that time I commanded Joshua: “You have seen with your own eyes all that the LORD your God has done to these two kings. The LORD will do the same to all the kingdoms over there where you are going.

De. 3:22 Do not be afraid of them; the LORD your God himself will fight for you.”

De. 3:23 At that time I pleaded with the LORD:

De. 3:24 “O Sovereign LORD, you have begun to show to your servant your greatness and your strong hand. For what god is there in heaven or on earth who can do the deeds and mighty works you do?

De. 3:25 Let me go over and see the good land beyond the Jordan — that fine hill country and Lebanon.”

De. 3:26 But because of you the LORD was angry with me and would not listen to me. “That is enough,” the LORD said. “Do not speak to me any more about this matter.

De. 3:27 Go up to the top of Pisgah and look west and north and south and east. Look at the land with your own eyes, since you are not going to cross this Jordan.

De. 3:28 But commission Joshua, and encourage and strengthen him, for he will lead this people across and will cause them to inherit the land that you will see.”

De. 3:29 So we stayed in the valley near Beth Peor.
CHAPTER 4

De. 4:1 Hear now, O Israel, the decrees and laws I am about to teach you. Follow them so that you may live and may go in and take possession of the land that the LORD, the God of your fathers, is giving you.

De. 4:2 Do not add to what I command you and do not subtract from it, but keep the commands of the LORD your God that I give you.

De. 4:3 You saw with your own eyes what the LORD did at Baal Peor. The LORD your God destroyed from among you everyone who followed the Baal of Peor, De. 4:4 but all of you who held fast to the LORD your God are still alive today.

De. 4:5 See, I have taught you decrees and laws as the LORD my God commanded me, so that you may follow them in the land you are entering to take possession of it.

De. 4:6 Observe them carefully, for this will show your wisdom and understanding to the nations, who will hear about all these decrees and say, “Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people.”

De. 4:7 What other nation is so great as to have their gods near them the way the LORD our God is near us whenever we pray to him?

De. 4:8 And what other nation is so great as to have such righteous decrees and laws as this body of laws I am setting before you today?

De. 4:9 Only be careful, and watch yourselves closely so that you do not forget the things your eyes have seen or let them slip from your heart as long as you live. Teach them to your children and to their children after them.

De. 4:10 Remember the day you stood before the LORD your God at Horeb, when he said to me, “Assemble the people before me to hear my words so that they may learn to revere me as long as they live in the land and may teach them to their children.”

De. 4:11 You came near and stood at the foot of the mountain while it blazed with fire to the very heavens, with black clouds and deep darkness.

De. 4:12 Then the LORD spoke to you out of the fire. You heard the sound of words but saw no form; there was only a voice.

De. 4:13 He declared to you his covenant, the Ten Commandments, which he commanded you to follow and then wrote them on two stone tablets.

De. 4:14 And the LORD directed me at that time to teach you the decrees and laws you are to follow in the land that you are crossing the Jordan to possess.

De. 4:15 You saw no form of any kind the day the LORD spoke to you at Horeb out of the fire. Therefore watch yourselves very carefully,

De. 4:16 so that you do not become corrupt and make for yourselves an idol, an image of any shape, whether formed like a man or a woman,

De. 4:17 or like any animal on earth or any bird that flies in the air,

De. 4:18 or like any creature that moves along the ground or any fish in the waters below.

De. 4:19 And when you look up to the sky and see the sun, the moon and the stars — all the heavenly array — do not be enticed into bowing down to them and worshipping things the LORD your God has apportioned to all the nations under heaven.

De. 4:20 But as for you, the LORD took you and brought you out of the iron-smelting furnace, out of Egypt, to be the people of his inheritance, as you now are.

De. 4:21 The LORD was angry with me because of you, and he solemnly swore that I would not cross the Jordan and enter the good land the LORD your God is giving you as your inheritance.
De. 4:22 I will die in this land; I will not cross the Jordan; but you are about to cross over and take possession of that good land.

De. 4:23 Be careful not to forget the covenant of the LORD your God that he made with you; do not make for yourselves an idol in the form of anything the LORD your God has forbidden.

De. 4:24 For the LORD your God is a consuming fire, a jealous God.

De. 4:25 After you have had children and grandchildren and have lived in the land a long time — if you then become corrupt and make any kind of idol, doing evil in the eyes of the LORD your God and provoking him to anger,

De. 4:26 I call heaven and earth as witnesses against you this day that you will quickly perish from the land that you are crossing the Jordan to possess. You will not live there long but will certainly be destroyed.

De. 4:27 The LORD will scatter you among the peoples, and only a few of you will survive among the nations to which the LORD will drive you.

De. 4:28 There you will worship man-made gods of wood and stone, which cannot see or hear or eat or smell.

De. 4:29 But if from there you seek the LORD your God, you will find him if you look for him with all your heart and with all your soul.

De. 4:30 When you are in distress and all these things have happened to you, then in later days you will return to the LORD your God and obey him.

De. 4:31 For the LORD your God is a merciful God; he will not abandon or destroy you or forget the covenant with your forefathers, which he confirmed to them by oath.

De. 4:32 Ask now about the former days, long before your time, from the day God created man on the earth; ask from one end of the heavens to the other. Has anything so great as this ever happened, or has anything like it ever been heard of?
De. 4:33 Has any other people heard the voice of God speaking out of fire, as you have, and lived?

De. 4:34 Has any god ever tried to take for himself one nation out of another nation, by testings, by miraculous signs and wonders, by war, by a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, or by great and awesome deeds, like all the things the LORD your God did for you in Egypt before your very eyes?

De. 4:35 You were shown these things so that you might know that the LORD is God; besides him there is no other.

De. 4:36 From heaven he made you hear his voice to discipline you. On earth he showed you his great fire, and you heard his words from out of the fire.

De. 4:37 Because he loved your forefathers and chose their descendants after them, he brought you out of Egypt by his Presence and his great strength,

De. 4:38 to drive out before you nations greater and stronger than you and to bring you into their land to give it to you for your inheritance, as it is today.

De. 4:39 Acknowledge and take to heart this day that the LORD is God in heaven above and on the earth below. There is no other.

De. 4:40 Keep his decrees and commands, which I am giving you today, so that it may go well with you and your children after you and that you may live long in the land the LORD your God gives you for all time.

De. 4:41 Then Moses set aside three cities east of the Jordan,

De. 4:42 to which anyone who had killed a person could flee if he had unintentionally killed his neighbour without malice aforethought. He could flee into one of these cities and save his life.

De. 4:43 The cities were these: Bezer in the desert plateau, for the Reubenites; Ramoth in Gilead, for the Gadites; and Golan in Bashan, for the Manassites.
De. 4:44 This is the law Moses set before the Israelites.

De. 4:45 These are the stipulations, decrees and laws Moses gave them when they came out of Egypt.

De. 4:46 and were in the valley near Beth Peor east of the Jordan, in the land of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon and was defeated by Moses and the Israelites as they came out of Egypt.

De. 4:47 They took possession of his land and the land of Og king of Bashan, the two Amorite kings east of the Jordan.

De. 4:48 This land extended from Aroer on the rim of the Arnon Gorge to Mount Siyon (that is, Hermon), De. 4:49 and included all the Arabah east of the Jordan, as far as the Sea of the Arabah, below the slopes of Pisgah.

CHAPTER 5

De. 5:1 Moses summoned all Israel and said: Hear, O Israel, the decrees and the laws I declare in your hearing today. Learn them and be sure to follow them.

De. 5:2 The LORD our God made a covenant with us at Horeb.

De. 5:3 It was not with our fathers that the LORD made this covenant, but with us, with all of us who are alive here today.

De. 5:4 The LORD spoke to you face to face out of the fire on the mountain.

De. 5:5 (At that time I stood between the LORD and you to declare to you the word of the LORD, because you were afraid of the fire and did not go up the mountain.) And he said:

De. 5:6 “I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of Egypt, out of the land of slavery.

De. 5:7 “You shall have no other gods before me.
De. 5:8 “You shall not make for yourself an idol in the form of anything in heaven above or on the earth beneath or in the waters below.

De. 5:9 You shall not bow down to them or worship them; for I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God, punishing the children for the sin of the fathers to the third and fourth generation of those who hate me,

De. 5:10 but showing love to a thousand generations of those who love me and keep my commandments.

De. 5:11 “You shall not misuse the name of the LORD your God, for the LORD will not hold anyone guiltless who misuses his name.

De. 5:12 “Observe the Sabbath day by keeping it holy, as the LORD your God has commanded you.

De. 5:13 Six days you shall labour and do all your work,

De. 5:14 but the seventh day is a Sabbath to the LORD your God. On it you shall not do any work, neither you, nor your son or daughter, nor your manservant or maidservant, nor your ox, your donkey or any of your animals, nor the alien within your gates, so that your manservant and maidservant may rest, as you do.

De. 5:15 Remember that you were slaves in Egypt and that the LORD your God brought you out of there with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm. Therefore the LORD your God has commanded you to observe the Sabbath day.

De. 5:16 “Honour your father and your mother, as the LORD your God has commanded you, so that you may live long and that it may go well with you in the land the LORD your God is giving you.

De. 5:17 “You shall not murder.

De. 5:18 “You shall not commit adultery.

De. 5:19 “You shall not steal.
De. 5:20 “You shall not give false testimony against your neighbour.

De. 5:21 “You shall not covet your neighbour’s wife. You shall not set your desire on your neighbour’s house or land, his manservant or maidservant, his ox or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbour.”

De. 5:22 These are the commandments the LORD proclaimed in a loud voice to your whole assembly there on the mountain from out of the fire, the cloud and the deep darkness; and he added nothing more. Then he wrote them on two stone tablets and gave them to me.

De. 5:23 When you heard the voice out of the darkness, while the mountain was ablaze with fire, all the leading men of your tribes and your elders came to me.

De. 5:24 And you said, “The LORD our God has shown us his glory and his majesty, and we have heard his voice from the fire. Today we have seen that a man can live even if God speaks with him.

De. 5:25 But now, why should we die? This great fire will consume us, and we will die if we hear the voice of the LORD our God any longer.

De. 5:26 For what mortal man has ever heard the voice of the living God speaking out of fire, as we have, and survived?

De. 5:27 Go near and listen to all that the LORD our God says. Then tell us whatever the LORD our God tells you. We will listen and obey.”

De. 5:28 The LORD heard you when you spoke to me and the LORD said to me, “I have heard what this people said to you. Everything they said was good.

De. 5:29 Oh, that their hearts would be inclined to fear me and keep all my commands always, so that it might go well with them and their children for ever!

De. 5:30 “Go, tell them to return to their tents.
De. 5:31 But you stay here with me so that I may give you all the commands, decrees and laws that you are to teach them to follow in the land I am giving them to possess.”

De. 5:32 So be careful to do what the LORD your God has commanded you; do not turn aside to the right or to the left.

De. 5:33 Walk in all the way that the LORD your God has commanded you, so that you may live and prosper and prolong your days in the land that you will possess.

CHAPTER 6

De. 6:1 These are the commands, decrees and laws the LORD your God directed me to teach you to observe in the land that you are crossing the Jordan to possess,

De. 6:2 so that you, your children and their children after them may fear the LORD your God as long as you live by keeping all his decrees and commands that I give you, and so that you may enjoy long life.

De. 6:3 Hear, O Israel, and be careful to obey so that it may go well with you and that you may increase greatly in a land flowing with milk and honey, just as the LORD, the God of your fathers, promised you.

De. 6:4 Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God, the LORD is one.

De. 6:5 Love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength.

De. 6:6 These commandments that I give you today are to be upon your hearts.

De. 6:7 Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up.

De. 6:8 Tie them as symbols on your hands and bind them on your foreheads.
De. 6:9 Write them on the door-frames of your houses and on your gates.

De. 6:10 When the LORD your God brings you into the land he swore to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, to give you — a land with large, flourishing cities you did not build,

De. 6:11 houses filled with all kinds of good things you did not provide, wells you did not dig, and vineyards and olive groves you did not plant — then when you eat and are satisfied,

De. 6:12 be careful that you do not forget the LORD, who brought you out of Egypt, out of the land of slavery.

De. 6:13 Fear the LORD your God, serve him only and take your oaths in his name.

De. 6:14 Do not follow other gods, the gods of the peoples around you;

De. 6:15 for the LORD your God, who is among you, is a jealous God and his anger will burn against you, and he will destroy you from the face of the land.

De. 6:16 Do not test the LORD your God as you did at Massah.

De. 6:17 Be sure to keep the commands of the LORD your God and the stipulations and decrees he has given you.

De. 6:18 Do what is right and good in the LORD’s sight, so that it may go well with you and you may go in and take over the good land that the LORD promised on oath to your forefathers,

De. 6:19 thrusting out all your enemies before you, as the LORD said.

De. 6:20 In the future, when your son asks you, “What is the meaning of the stipulations, decrees and laws the LORD our God has commanded you?”

De. 6:21 tell him: “We were slaves of Pharaoh in Egypt, but the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand.”
De. 6:22 Before our eyes the LORD sent miraculous signs and wonders — great and terrible — upon Egypt and Pharaoh and his whole household.

De. 6:23 But he brought us out from there to bring us in and give us the land that he promised on oath to our forefathers.

De. 6:24 The LORD commanded us to obey all these decrees and to fear the LORD our God, so that we might always prosper and be kept alive, as is the case today.

De. 6:25 And if we are careful to obey all this law before the LORD our God, as he has commanded us, that will be our righteousness.”

CHAPTER 7

De. 7:1 When the LORD your God brings you into the land you are entering to possess and drives out before you many nations — the Hittites, Girgashites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites, seven nations larger and stronger than you —

De. 7:2 and when the LORD your God has delivered them over to you and you have defeated them, then you must destroy them totally. Make no treaty with them, and show them no mercy.

De. 7:3 Do not intermarry with them. Do not give your daughters to their sons or take their daughters for your sons, De. 7:4 for they will turn your sons away from following me to serve other gods, and the LORD’s anger will burn against you and will quickly destroy you.

De. 7:5 This is what you are to do to them: Break down their altars, smash their sacred stones, cut down their Asherah poles and burn their idols in the fire.

De. 7:6 For you are a people holy to the LORD your God. The LORD your God has chosen you out of all the peoples on the face of the earth to be his people, his treasured possession.
De. 7:7 The LORD did not set his affection on you and choose you because you were more numerous than other peoples, for you were the fewest of all peoples.

De. 7:8 But it was because the LORD loved you and kept the oath he swore to your forefathers that he brought you out with a mighty hand and redeemed you from the land of slavery, from the power of Pharaoh king of Egypt.

De. 7:9 Know therefore that the LORD your God is God; he is the faithful God, keeping his covenant of love to a thousand generations of those who love him and keep his commands.

De. 7:10 But those who hate him he will repay to their face by destruction; he will not be slow to repay to their face those who hate him.

De. 7:11 Therefore, take care to follow the commands, decrees and laws I give you today.

De. 7:12 If you pay attention to these laws and are careful to follow them, then the LORD your God will keep his covenant of love with you, as he swore to your forefathers.

De. 7:13 He will love you and bless you and increase your numbers. He will bless the fruit of your womb, the crops of your land — your grain, new wine and oil — the calves of your herds and the lambs of your flocks in the land that he swore to your forefathers to give you.

De. 7:14 You will be blessed more than any other people; none of your men or women will be childless, nor any of your livestock without young.

De. 7:15 The LORD will keep you free from every disease. He will not inflict on you the horrible diseases you knew in Egypt, but he will inflict them on all who hate you.

De. 7:16 You must destroy all the peoples the LORD your God gives over to you. Do not look on them with pity and do not serve their gods, for that will be a snare to you.
You may say to yourselves, “These nations are stronger than we are. How can we drive them out?”

But do not be afraid of them; remember well what the LORD your God did to Pharaoh and to all Egypt.

You saw with your own eyes the great trials, the miraculous signs and wonders, the mighty hand and outstretched arm, with which the LORD your God brought you out. The LORD your God will do the same to all the peoples you now fear.

Moreover, the LORD your God will send the hornet among them until even the survivors who hide from you have perished.

Do not be terrified by them, for the LORD your God, who is among you, is a great and awesome God.

The LORD your God will drive out those nations before you, little by little. You will not be allowed to eliminate them all at once, or the wild animals will multiply around you.

But the LORD your God will deliver them over to you, throwing them into great confusion until they are destroyed.

He will give their kings into your hand, and you will wipe out their names from under heaven. No-one will be able to stand up against you; you will destroy them.

The images of their gods you are to burn in the fire. Do not covet the silver and gold on them, and do not take it for yourselves, or you will be ensnared by it, for it is detestable to the LORD your God.

Do not bring a detestable thing into your house or you, like it, will be set apart for destruction. Utterly abhor and detest it, for it is set apart for destruction.
Be careful to follow every command I am giving you today, so that you may live and increase and may enter and possess the land that the LORD promised on oath to your forefathers.

Remember how the LORD your God led you all the way in the desert these forty years, to humble you and to test you in order to know what was in your heart, whether or not you would keep his commands.

He humbled you, causing you to hunger and then feeding you with manna, which neither you nor your fathers had known, to teach you that man does not live on bread alone but on every word that comes from the mouth of the LORD.

Your clothes did not wear out and your feet did not swell during these forty years.

Know then in your heart that as a man disciplines his son, so the LORD your God disciplines you.

Observe the commands of the LORD your God, walking in his ways and revering him.

For the LORD your God is bringing you into a good land — a land with streams and pools of water, with springs flowing in the valleys and hills; a land with wheat and barley, vines and fig-trees, pomegranates, olive oil and honey;

a land where bread will not be scarce and you will lack nothing; a land where the rocks are iron and you can dig copper out of the hills.

When you have eaten and are satisfied, praise the LORD your God for the good land he has given you.

Be careful that you do not forget the LORD your God, failing to observe his commands, his laws and his decrees that I am giving you this day.
De. 8:12 Otherwise, when you eat and are satisfied, when you build fine houses and settle down,

De. 8:13 and when your herds and flocks grow large and your silver and gold increase and all you have is multiplied,

De. 8:14 then your heart will become proud and you will forget the LORD your God, who brought you out of Egypt, out of the land of slavery.

De. 8:15 He led you through the vast and dreadful desert, that thirsty and waterless land, with its venomous snakes and scorpions. He brought you water out of hard rock.

De. 8:16 He gave you manna to eat in the desert, something your fathers had never known, to humble and to test you so that in the end it might go well with you.

De. 8:17 You may say to yourself, “My power and the strength of my hands have produced this wealth for me.”

De. 8:18 But remember the LORD your God, for it is he who gives you the ability to produce wealth, and so confirms his covenant, which he swore to your forefathers, as it is today.

De. 8:19 If you ever forget the LORD your God and follow other gods and worship and bow down to them, I testify against you today that you will surely be destroyed.

De. 8:20 Like the nations the LORD destroyed before you, so you will be destroyed for not obeying the LORD your God.

CHAPTER 9

De. 9:1 Hear, O Israel. You are now about to cross the Jordan to go in and dispossess nations greater and stronger than you, with large cities that have walls up to the sky.

De. 9:2 The people are strong and tall — Anakites! You know about them and have heard it said: “Who can stand up against the Anakites?”
De. 9:3 But be assured today that the LORD your God is the one who goes across ahead of you like a devouring fire. He will destroy them; he will subdue them before you. And you will drive them out and annihilate them quickly, as the LORD has promised you.

De. 9:4 After the LORD your God has driven them out before you, do not say to yourself, “The LORD has brought me here to take possession of this land because of my righteousness.” No, it is on account of the wickedness of these nations that the LORD is going to drive them out before you.

De. 9:5 It is not because of your righteousness or your integrity that you are going in to take possession of their land; but on account of the wickedness of these nations, the LORD your God will drive them out before you, to accomplish what he swore to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

De. 9:6 Understand, then, that it is not because of your righteousness that the LORD your God is giving you this good land to possess, for you are a stiff-necked people.

De. 9:7 Remember this and never forget how you provoked the LORD your God to anger in the desert. From the day you left Egypt until you arrived here, you have been rebellious against the LORD.

De. 9:8 At Horeb you aroused the LORD’s wrath so that he was angry enough to destroy you.

De. 9:9 When I went up on the mountain to receive the tablets of stone, the tablets of the covenant that the LORD had made with you, I stayed on the mountain forty days and forty nights; I ate no bread and drank no water.

De. 9:10 The LORD gave me two stone tablets inscribed by the finger of God. On them were all the commandments the LORD proclaimed to you on the mountain out of the fire, on the day of the assembly.

De. 9:11 At the end of the forty days and forty nights, the LORD gave me the two stone tablets, the tablets of the covenant.
De. 9:12 Then the LORD told me, “Go down from here at once, because your people whom you brought out of Egypt have become corrupt. They have turned away quickly from what I commanded them and have made a cast idol for themselves.”

De. 9:13 And the LORD said to me, “I have seen this people, and they are a stiff-necked people indeed!

De. 9:14 Let me alone, so that I may destroy them and blot out their name from under heaven. And I will make you into a nation stronger and more numerous than they.”

De. 9:15 So I turned and went down from the mountain while it was ablaze with fire. And the two tablets of the covenant were in my hands.

De. 9:16 When I looked, I saw that you had sinned against the LORD your God; you had made for yourselves an idol cast in the shape of a calf. You had turned aside quickly from the way that the LORD had commanded you.

De. 9:17 So I took the two tablets and threw them out of my hands, breaking them to pieces before your eyes.

De. 9:18 Then once again I fell prostrate before the LORD for forty days and forty nights; I ate no bread and drank no water, because of all the sin you had committed, doing what was evil in the LORD’s sight and so provoking him to anger.

De. 9:19 I feared the anger and wrath of the LORD, for he was angry enough with you to destroy you. But again the LORD listened to me.

De. 9:20 And the LORD was angry enough with Aaron to destroy him, but at that time I prayed for Aaron too.

De. 9:21 Also I took that sinful thing of yours, the calf you had made, and burned it in the fire. Then I crushed it and ground it to powder as fine as dust and threw the dust into a stream that flowed down the mountain.

De. 9:22 You also made the LORD angry at Taberah, at Massah and at Kibroth Hattaavah.
De. 9:23 And when the LORD sent you out from Kadesh Barnea, he said, “Go up and take possession of the land I have given you.” But you rebelled against the command of the LORD your God. You did not trust him or obey him.

De. 9:24 You have been rebellious against the LORD ever since I have known you.

De. 9:25 I lay prostrate before the LORD those forty days and forty nights because the LORD had said he would destroy you.

De. 9:26 I prayed to the LORD and said, “O Sovereign LORD, do not destroy your people, your own inheritance that you redeemed by your great power and brought out of Egypt with a mighty hand.

De. 9:27 Remember your servants Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. Overlook the stubbornness of this people, their wickedness and their sin.

De. 9:28 Otherwise, the country from which you brought us will say, ‘Because the LORD was not able to take them into the land he had promised them, and because he hated them, he brought them out to put them to death in the desert.’

De. 9:29 But they are your people, your inheritance that you brought out by your great power and your outstretched arm.”

CHAPTER 10

De. 10:1 At that time the LORD said to me, “Chisel out two stone tablets like the first ones and come up to me on the mountain. Also make a wooden chest.

De. 10:2 I will write on the tablets the words that were on the first tablets, which you broke. Then you are to put them in the chest.”

De. 10:3 So I made the ark out of acacia wood and chiselled out two stone tablets like the first ones, and I went up on the mountain with the two tablets in my hands.
The LORD wrote on these tablets what he had written before, the Ten Commandments he had proclaimed to you on the mountain, out of the fire, on the day of the assembly. And the LORD gave them to me.

Then I came back down the mountain and put the tablets in the ark I had made, as the LORD commanded me, and they are there now.

(The Israelites travelled from the wells of the Jaakanites to Moserah. There Aaron died and was buried, and Eleazar his son succeeded him as priest.

From there they travelled to Gudgodah and on to Jotbathah, a land with streams of water.

At that time the LORD set apart the tribe of Levi to carry the ark of the covenant of the LORD, to stand before the LORD to minister and to pronounce blessings in his name, as they still do today.

That is why the Levites have no share or inheritance among their brothers; the LORD is their inheritance, as the LORD your God told them.

Now I had stayed on the mountain forty days and nights, as I did the first time, and the LORD listened to me at this time also. It was not his will to destroy you.

“Go,” the LORD said to me, “and lead the people on their way, so that they may enter and possess the land that I swore to their fathers to give them.”

And now, O Israel, what does the LORD your God ask of you but to fear the LORD your God, to walk in all his ways, to love him, to serve the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, and to observe the LORD’s commands and decrees that I am giving you today for your own good?

To the LORD your God belong the heavens, even the highest heavens, the earth and everything in it.
De. 10:15 Yet the LORD set his affection on your forefathers and loved them, and he chose you, their descendants, above all the nations, as it is today.

De. 10:16 Circumcise your hearts, therefore, and do not be stiff-necked any longer.

De. 10:17 For the LORD your God is God of gods and Lord of lords, the great God, mighty and awesome, who shows no partiality and accepts no bribes.

De. 10:18 He defends the cause of the fatherless and the widow, and loves the alien, giving him food and clothing.

De. 10:19 And you are to love those who are aliens, for you yourselves were aliens in Egypt.

De. 10:20 Fear the LORD your God and serve him. Hold fast to him and take your oaths in his name.

De. 10:21 He is your praise; he is your God, who performed for you those great and awesome wonders you saw with your own eyes.

De. 10:22 Your forefathers who went down into Egypt were seventy in all, and now the LORD your God has made you as numerous as the stars in the sky.

CHAPTER 11

De. 11:1 Love the LORD your God and keep his requirements, his decrees, his laws and his commands always.

De. 11:2 Remember today that your children were not the ones who saw and experienced the discipline of the LORD your God: his majesty, his mighty hand, his outstretched arm;

De. 11:3 the signs he performed and the things he did in the heart of Egypt, both to Pharaoh king of Egypt and to his whole country;
what he did to the Egyptian army, to its horses and chariots, how he overwhelmed them with the waters of the Red Sea as they were pursuing you, and how the LORD brought lasting ruin on them.

De. 11:5 It was not your children who saw what he did for you in the desert until you arrived at this place, and what he did to Dathan and Abiram, sons of Eliab the Reubenite, when the earth opened its mouth right in the middle of all Israel and swallowed them up with their households, their tents and every living thing that belonged to them.

But it was your own eyes that saw all these great things the LORD has done.

Observe therefore all the commands I am giving you today, so that you may have the strength to go in and take over the land that you are crossing the Jordan to possess, and so that you may live long in the land that the LORD swore to your forefathers to give to them and their descendants, a land flowing with milk and honey.

The land you are entering to take over is not like the land of Egypt, from which you have come, where you planted your seed and irrigated it by foot as in a vegetable garden.

But the land you are crossing the Jordan to take possession of is a land of mountains and valleys that drinks rain from heaven.

It is a land the LORD your God cares for; the eyes of the LORD your God are continually on it from the beginning of the year to its end.

So if you faithfully obey the commands I am giving you today — to love the LORD your God and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul — then I will send rain on your land in its season, both autumn and spring rains, so that you may gather in your grain, new wine and oil.

I will provide grass in the fields for your cattle, and you will eat and be satisfied.

Be careful, or you will be enticed to turn away and worship other gods and bow down to them.

Then the LORD’s anger will burn against you, and he will shut the heavens so that it will not rain and the ground will yield no produce, and you will soon perish from the good land the LORD is giving you.

Fix these words of mine in your hearts and minds; tie them as symbols on your hands and bind them on your foreheads.

Teach them to your children, talking about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up.

Write them on the door-frames of your houses and on your gates,

so that your days and the days of your children may be many in the land that the LORD swore to give your forefathers, as many as the days that the heavens are above the earth.

If you carefully observe all these commands I am giving you to follow — to love the LORD your God, to walk in all his ways and to hold fast to him —

then the LORD will drive out all these nations before you, and you will dispossess nations larger and stronger than you.

Every place where you set your foot will be yours: Your territory will extend from the desert to Lebanon, and from the Euphrates River to the western sea.

No man will be able to stand against you. The LORD your God, as he promised you, will put the terror and fear of you on the whole land, wherever you go.
De. 11:26 See, I am setting before you today a blessing and a curse —

De. 11:27 the blessing if you obey the commands of the LORD your God that I am giving you today;

De. 11:28 the curse if you disobey the commands of the LORD your God and turn from the way that I command you today by following other gods, which you have not known.

De. 11:29 When the LORD your God has brought you into the land you are entering to possess, you are to proclaim on Mount Gerizim the blessings, and on Mount Ebal the curses.

De. 11:30 As you know, these mountains are across the Jordan, west of the road, towards the setting sun, near the great trees of Moreh, in the territory of those Canaanites living in the Arabah in the vicinity of Gilgal.

De. 11:31 You are about to cross the Jordan to enter and take possession of the land the LORD your God is giving you. When you have taken it over and are living there,

De. 11:32 be sure that you obey all the decrees and laws I am setting before you today.

CHAPTER 12

De. 12:1 These are the decrees and laws you must be careful to follow in the land that the LORD, the God of your fathers, has given you to possess — as long as you live in the land.

De. 12:2 Destroy completely all the places on the high mountains and on the hills and under every spreading tree where the nations you are dispossessing worship their gods.

De. 12:3 Break down their altars, smash their sacred stones and burn their Asherah poles in the fire; cut down the idols of their gods and wipe out their names from those places.

De. 12:4 You must not worship the LORD your God in their way.
De. 12:5 But you are to seek the place the LORD your God will choose from among all your tribes to put his Name there for his dwelling. To that place you must go;

De. 12:6 there bring your burnt offerings and sacrifices, your tithes and special gifts, what you have vowed to give and your freewill offerings, and the firstborn of your herds and flocks.

De. 12:7 There, in the presence of the LORD your God, you and your families shall eat and shall rejoice in everything you have put your hand to, because the LORD your God has blessed you.

De. 12:8 You are not to do as we do here today, everyone as he sees fit,

De. 12:9 since you have not yet reached the resting place and the inheritance the LORD your God is giving you.

De. 12:10 But you will cross the Jordan and settle in the land the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance, and he will give you rest from all your enemies around you so that you will live in safety.

De. 12:11 Then to the place the LORD your God will choose as a dwelling for his Name — there you are to bring everything I command you: your burnt offerings and sacrifices, your tithes and special gifts, and all the choice possessions you have vowed to the LORD.

De. 12:12 And there rejoice before the LORD your God, you, your sons and daughters, your menservants and maidservants, and the Levites from your towns, who have no allotment or inheritance of their own.

De. 12:13 Be careful not to sacrifice your burnt offerings anywhere you please.

De. 12:14 Offer them only at the place the LORD will choose in one of your tribes, and there observe everything I command you.

De. 12:15 Nevertheless, you may slaughter your animals in any of your towns and eat as much of the meat as you want, as if it were gazelle or deer, according to the blessing the LORD your God gives you. Both the ceremonially unclean and the clean may eat it.

De. 12:16 But you must not eat the blood; pour it out on the ground like water.

De. 12:17 You must not eat in your own towns the tithe of your grain and new wine and oil, or the firstborn of your herds and flocks, or whatever you have vowed to give, or your freewill offerings or special gifts.

De. 12:18 Instead, you are to eat them in the presence of the LORD your God at the place the LORD your God will choose — you, your sons and daughters, your menservants and maidservants, and the Levites from your towns — and you are to rejoice before the LORD your God in everything you put your hand to.

De. 12:19 Be careful not to neglect the Levites as long as you live in your land.

De. 12:20 When the LORD your God has enlarged your territory as he promised you, and you crave meat and say, “I would like some meat,” then you may eat as much of it as you want.

De. 12:21 If the place where the LORD your God chooses to put his Name is too far away from you, you may slaughter animals from the herds and flocks the LORD has given you, as I have commanded you, and in your own towns you may eat as much of them as you want.

De. 12:22 Eat them as you would gazelle or deer. Both the ceremonially unclean and the clean may eat.

De. 12:23 But be sure you do not eat the blood, because the blood is the life, and you must not eat the life with the meat.

De. 12:24 You must not eat the blood; pour it out on the ground like water.

De. 12:25 Do not eat it, so that it may go well with you and your children after you, because you will be doing what is right in the eyes of the LORD.
De. 12:26 But take your consecrated things and whatever you have vowed to give, and go to the place the LORD will choose.

De. 12:27 Present your burnt offerings on the altar of the LORD your God, both the meat and the blood. The blood of your sacrifices must be poured beside the altar of the LORD your God, but you may eat the meat.

De. 12:28 Be careful to obey all these regulations I am giving you, so that it may always go well with you and your children after you, because you will be doing what is good and right in the eyes of the LORD your God.

De. 12:29 The LORD your God will cut off before you the nations you are about to invade and dispossess. But when you have driven them out and settled in their land,

De. 12:30 and after they have been destroyed before you, be careful not to be ensnared by enquiring about their gods, saying, “How do these nations serve their gods? We will do the same.”

De. 12:31 You must not worship the LORD your God in their way, because in worshipping their gods, they do all kinds of detestable things the LORD hates. They even burn their sons and daughters in the fire as sacrifices to their gods.

De. 12:32 See that you do all I command you; do not add to it or take away from it.

CHAPTER 13

De. 13:1 If a prophet, or one who foretells by dreams, appears among you and announces to you a miraculous sign or wonder,

De. 13:2 and if the sign or wonder of which he has spoken takes place, and he says, “Let us follow other gods” (gods you have not known) “and let us worship them,”

De. 13:3 you must not listen to the words of that prophet or dreamer. The LORD your God is testing you to find out whether you love him with all your heart and with all your soul.
De. 13:4 It is the LORD your God you must follow, and him you must revere. Keep his commands and obey him; serve him and hold fast to him.

De. 13:5 That prophet or dreamer must be put to death, because he preached rebellion against the LORD your God, who brought you out of Egypt and redeemed you from the land of slavery; he has tried to turn you from the way the LORD your God commanded you to follow. You must purge the evil from among you.

De. 13:6 If your very own brother, or your son or daughter, or the wife you love, or your closest friend secretly entices you, saying, “Let us go and worship other gods” (gods that neither you nor your fathers have known,

De. 13:7 gods of the peoples around you, whether near or far, from one end of the land to the other),

De. 13:8 do not yield to him or listen to him. Show him no pity. Do not spare him or shield him.

De. 13:9 You must certainly put him to death. Your hand must be the first in putting him to death, and then the hands of all the people.

De. 13:10 Stone him to death, because he tried to turn you away from the LORD your God, who brought you out of Egypt, out of the land of slavery.

De. 13:11 Then all Israel will hear and be afraid, and no-one among you will do such an evil thing again.

De. 13:12 If you hear it said about one of the towns the LORD your God is giving you to live in

De. 13:13 that wicked men have arisen among you and have led the people of their town astray, saying, “Let us go and worship other gods” (gods you have not known),

De. 13:14 then you must enquire, probe and investigate it thoroughly. And if it is true and it has been proved that this detestable thing has been done among you,
De. 13:15 you must certainly put to the sword all who live in that town. Destroy it completely, both its people and its livestock.

De. 13:16 Gather all the plunder of the town into the middle of the public square and completely burn the town and all its plunder as a whole burnt offering to the LORD your God. It is to remain a ruin for ever, never to be rebuilt.

De. 13:17 None of those condemned things shall be found in your hands, so that the LORD will turn from his fierce anger; he will show you mercy, have compassion on you, and increase your numbers, as he promised on oath to your forefathers,

De. 13:18 because you obey the LORD your God, keeping all his commands that I am giving you today and doing what is right in his eyes.

CHAPTER 14

De. 14:1 You are the children of the LORD your God. Do not cut yourselves or shave the front of your heads for the dead,

De. 14:2 for you are a people holy to the LORD your God. Out of all the peoples on the face of the earth, the LORD has chosen you to be his treasured possession.

De. 14:3 Do not eat any detestable thing.

De. 14:4 These are the animals you may eat: the ox, the sheep, the goat,

De. 14:5 the deer, the gazelle, the roe deer, the wild goat, the ibex, the antelope and the mountain sheep.

De. 14:6 You may eat any animal that has a split hoof divided in two and that chews the cud.

De. 14:7 However, of those that chew the cud or that have a split hoof completely divided you may not eat the camel, the rabbit or the coney. Although they chew the cud, they do not have a split hoof; they are ceremonially unclean for you.
De. 14:8 The pig is also unclean; although it has a split hoof, it does not chew the cud. You are not to eat their meat or touch their carcasses.

De. 14:9 Of all the creatures living in the water, you may eat any that has fins and scales.

De. 14:10 But anything that does not have fins and scales you may not eat; for you it is unclean.

De. 14:11 You may eat any clean bird.

De. 14:12 But these you may not eat: the eagle, the vulture, the black vulture, the red kite, the black kite, any kind of falcon, any kind of raven, the hornded owl, the screech owl, the gull, any kind of hawk, the little owl, the great owl, the white owl, the desert owl, the osprey, the cormorant, the stork, any kind of heron, the hoopoe and the bat.

De. 14:13 All flying insects that swarm are unclean to you; do not eat them.

De. 14:14 But any winged creature that is clean you may eat.

De. 14:15 Do not eat anything you find already dead. You may give it to an alien living in any of your towns, and he may eat it, or you may sell it to a foreigner. But you are a people holy to the LORD your God. Do not cook a young goat in its mother’s milk.

De. 14:16 Be sure to set aside a tenth of all that your fields produce each year.

De. 14:17 Eat the tithe of your grain, new wine and oil, and the firstborn of your herds and flocks in the presence of the LORD your God at the place he will choose as a dwelling for his Name, so that you may learn to revere the LORD your God always.
De. 14:24 But if that place is too distant and you have been blessed by the LORD your God and cannot carry your tithe (because the place where the LORD will choose to put his Name is so far away),

De. 14:25 then exchange your tithe for silver, and take the silver with you and go to the place the LORD your God will choose.

De. 14:26 Use the silver to buy whatever you like: cattle, sheep, wine or other fermented drink, or anything you wish. Then you and your household shall eat there in the presence of the LORD your God and rejoice.

De. 14:27 And do not neglect the Levites living in your towns, for they have no allotment or inheritance of their own.

De. 14:28 At the end of every three years, bring all the tithes of that year’s produce and store it in your towns,

De. 14:29 so that the Levites (who have no allotment or inheritance of their own) and the aliens, the fatherless and the widows who live in your towns may come and eat and be satisfied, and so that the LORD your God may bless you in all the work of your hands.

CHAPTER 15

De. 15:1 At the end of every seven years you must cancel debts.

De. 15:2 This is how it is to be done: Every creditor shall cancel the loan he has made to his fellow Israelite. He shall not require payment from his fellow Israelite or brother, because the LORD’s time for cancelling debts has been proclaimed.

De. 15:3 You may require payment from a foreigner, but you must cancel any debt your brother owes you.

De. 15:4 However, there should be no poor among you, for in the land the LORD your God is giving you to possess as your inheritance, he will richly bless you,
De. 15:5 if only you fully obey the LORD your God and are careful to follow all these commands I am giving you today.

De. 15:6 For the LORD your God will bless you as he has promised, and you will lend to many nations but will borrow from none. You will rule over many nations but none will rule over you.

De. 15:7 If there is a poor man among your brothers in any of the towns of the land that the LORD your God is giving you, do not be hard-hearted or tight-fisted towards your poor brother.

De. 15:8 Rather be open-handed and freely lend him whatever he needs.

De. 15:9 Be careful not to harbour this wicked thought: “The seventh year, the year for cancelling debts, is near,” so that you do not show ill will towards your needy brother and give him nothing. He may then appeal to the LORD against you, and you will be found guilty of sin.

De. 15:10 Give generously to him and do so without a grudging heart; then because of this the LORD your God will bless you in all your work and in everything you put your hand to.

De. 15:11 There will always be poor people in the land. Therefore I command you to be open-handed towards your brothers and towards the poor and needy in your land.

De. 15:12 If a fellow Hebrew, a man or woman, sells himself to you and serves you six years, in the seventh year you must let him go free.

De. 15:13 And when you release him, do not send him away empty-handed.

De. 15:14 Supply him liberally from your flock, your threshing-floor and your winepress. Give to him as the LORD your God has blessed you.

De. 15:15 Remember that you were slaves in Egypt and the LORD your God redeemed you. That is why I give you this command today.
De. 15:16 But if your servant says to you, “I do not want to leave you,” because he loves you and your family and is well off with you,

De. 15:17 then take an awl and push it through his ear lobe into the door, and he will become your servant for life. Do the same for your maidservant.

De. 15:18 Do not consider it a hardship to set your servant free, because his service to you these six years has been worth twice as much as that of a hired hand. And the LORD your God will bless you in everything you do.

De. 15:19 Set apart for the LORD your God every firstborn male of your herds and flocks. Do not put the firstborn of your oxen to work, and do not shear the firstborn of your sheep.

De. 15:20 Each year you and your family are to eat them in the presence of the LORD your God at the place he will choose.

De. 15:21 If an animal has a defect, is lame or blind, or has any serious flaw, you must not sacrifice it to the LORD your God.

De. 15:22 You are to eat it in your own towns. Both the ceremonially unclean and the clean may eat it, as if it were gazelle or deer.

De. 15:23 But you must not eat the blood; pour it out on the ground like water.

CHAPTER 16

De. 16:1 Observe the month of Abib and celebrate the Passover of the LORD your God, because in the month of Abib he brought you out of Egypt by night.

De. 16:2 Sacrifice as the Passover to the LORD your God an animal from your flock or herd at the place the LORD will choose as a dwelling for his Name.

De. 16:3 Do not eat it with bread made with yeast, but for seven days eat unleavened bread, the bread of affliction, because you left Egypt in haste — so that all the days of your life you may remember the time of your departure from Egypt.

De. 16:4  Let no yeast be found in your possession in all your land for seven days. Do not let any of the meat you sacrifice on the evening of the first day remain until morning.

De. 16:5  You must not sacrifice the Passover in any town the LORD your God gives you except in the place he will choose as a dwelling for his Name. There you must sacrifice the Passover in the evening, when the sun goes down, on the anniversary of your departure from Egypt.

De. 16:7  Roast it and eat it at the place the LORD your God will choose. Then in the morning return to your tents.

De. 16:8  For six days eat unleavened bread and on the seventh day hold an assembly to the LORD your God and do no work.

De. 16:9  Count off seven weeks from the time you begin to put the sickle to the standing corn.

De. 16:10 Then celebrate the Feast of Weeks to the LORD your God by giving a freewill offering in proportion to the blessings the LORD your God has given you.

De. 16:11 And rejoice before the LORD your God at the place he will choose as a dwelling for his Name — you, your sons and daughters, your menservants and maidservants, the Levites in your towns, and the aliens, the fatherless and the widows living among you.

De. 16:12 Remember that you were slaves in Egypt, and follow carefully these decrees.

De. 16:13 Celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles for seven days after you have gathered the produce of your threshing-floor and your winepress.

De. 16:14 Be joyful at your Feast — you, your sons and daughters, your menservants and maidservants, and the Levites, the aliens, the fatherless and the widows who live in your towns.
De. 16:15 For seven days celebrate the Feast to the LORD your God at the place the LORD will choose. For the LORD your God will bless you in all your harvest and in all the work of your hands, and your joy will be complete.

De. 16:16 Three times a year all your men must appear before the LORD your God at the place he will choose: at the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the Feast of Weeks and the Feast of Tabernacles. No man should appear before the LORD empty-handed:

De. 16:17 Each of you must bring a gift in proportion to the way the LORD your God has blessed you.

De. 16:18 Appoint judges and officials for each of your tribes in every town the LORD your God is giving you, and they shall judge the people fairly.

De. 16:19 Do not pervert justice or show partiality. Do not accept a bribe, for a bribe blinds the eyes of the wise and twists the words of the righteous.

De. 16:20 Follow justice and justice alone, so that you may live and possess the land the LORD your God is giving you.

De. 16:21 Do not set up any wooden Asherah pole beside the altar you build to the LORD your God,

De. 16:22 and do not erect a sacred stone, for these the LORD your God hates.

CHAPTER 17

De. 17:1 Do not sacrifice to the LORD your God an ox or a sheep that has any defect or flaw in it, for that would be detestable to him.

De. 17:2 If a man or woman living among you in one of the towns the LORD gives you is found doing evil in the eyes of the LORD your God in violation of his covenant,
De. 17:3 and contrary to my command has worshipped other gods, bowing down to them or to the sun or the moon or the stars of the sky,

De. 17:4 and this has been brought to your attention, then you must investigate it thoroughly. If it is true and it has been proved that this detestable thing has been done in Israel,

De. 17:5 take the man or woman who has done this evil deed to your city gate and stone that person to death.

De. 17:6 On the testimony of two or three witnesses a man shall be put to death, but no-one shall be put to death on the testimony of only one witness.

De. 17:7 The hands of the witnesses must be the first in putting him to death, and then the hands of all the people. You must purge the evil from among you.

De. 17:8 If cases come before your courts that are too difficult for you to judge — whether bloodshed, lawsuits or assaults — take them to the place the LORD your God will choose.

De. 17:9 Go to the priests, who are Levites, and to the judge who is in office at that time. Enquire of them and they will give you the verdict.

De. 17:10 You must act according to the decisions they give you at the place the LORD will choose. Be careful to do everything they direct you to do.

De. 17:11 Act according to the law they teach you and the decisions they give you. Do not turn aside from what they tell you, to the right or to the left.

De. 17:12 The man who shows contempt for the judge or for the priest who stands ministering there to the LORD your God must be put to death. You must purge the evil from Israel.

De. 17:13 All the people will hear and be afraid, and will not be contemptuous again.
De. 17:14 When you enter the land the LORD your God is giving you and have taken possession of it and settled in it, and you say, "Let us set a king over us like all the nations around us,"

De. 17:15 be sure to appoint over you the king the LORD your God chooses. He must be from among your own brothers. Do not place a foreigner over you, one who is not a brother Israelite.

De. 17:16 The king, moreover, must not acquire great numbers of horses for himself or make the people return to Egypt to get more of them, for the LORD has told you, "You are not to go back that way again."

De. 17:17 He must not take many wives, or his heart will be led astray. He must not accumulate large amounts of silver and gold.

De. 17:18 When he takes the throne of his kingdom, he is to write for himself on a scroll a copy of this law, taken from that of the priests, who are Levites.

De. 17:19 It is to be with him, and he is to read it all the days of his life so that he may learn to revere the LORD his God and follow carefully all the words of this law and these decrees

De. 17:20 and not consider himself better than his brothers and turn from the law to the right or to the left. Then he and his descendants will reign a long time over his kingdom in Israel.

CHAPTER 18

De. 18:1 The priests, who are Levites — indeed the whole tribe of Levi — are to have no allotment or inheritance with Israel. They shall live on the offerings made to the LORD by fire, for that is their inheritance.

De. 18:2 They shall have no inheritance among their brothers; the LORD is their inheritance, as he promised them.

De. 18:3 This is the share due to the priests from the people who sacrifice a bull or a sheep: the shoulder, the jowls and the inner parts.
De. 18:4 You are to give them the firstfruits of your grain, new wine and oil, and the first wool from the shearing of your sheep,

De. 18:5 for the LORD your God has chosen them and their descendants out of all your tribes to stand and minister in the LORD’s name always.

De. 18:6 If a Levite moves from one of your towns anywhere in Israel where he is living, and comes in all earnestness to the place the LORD will choose,

De. 18:7 he may minister in the name of the LORD his God like all his fellow Levites who serve there in the presence of the LORD.

De. 18:8 He is to share equally in their benefits even though he has received money from the sale of family possessions.

De. 18:9 When you enter the land the LORD your God is giving you, do not learn to imitate the detestable ways of the nations there.

De. 18:10 Let no-one be found among you who sacrifices his son or daughter in the fire, who practises divination or sorcery, interprets omens, engages in witchcraft,

De. 18:11 or casts spells, or who is a medium or spiritist or who consults the dead.

De. 18:12 Anyone who does these things is detestable to the LORD, and because of these detestable practices the LORD your God will drive out those nations before you.

De. 18:13 You must be blameless before the LORD your God.

De. 18:14 The nations you will dispossess listen to those who practise sorcery or divination. But as for you, the LORD your God has not permitted you to do so.

De. 18:15 The LORD your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your own brothers. You must listen to him.

De. 18:16 For this is what you asked of the LORD your God at Horeb on the day of the assembly when you said, “Let us not hear the voice of the LORD our God nor see this great fire any more, or we will die.”

De. 18:17 The LORD said to me: “What they say is good.

De. 18:18 I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their brothers; I will put my words in his mouth, and he will tell them everything I command him.

De. 18:19 If anyone does not listen to my words that the prophet speaks in my name, I myself will call him to account.

De. 18:20 But a prophet who presumes to speak in my name anything I have not commanded him to say, or a prophet who speaks in the name of other gods, must be put to death.”

De. 18:21 You may say to yourselves, “How can we know when a message has not been spoken by the LORD?”

De. 18:22 If what a prophet proclaims in the name of the LORD does not take place or come true, that is a message the LORD has not spoken. That prophet has spoken presumptuously. Do not be afraid of him.

CHAPTER 19

De. 19:1 When the LORD your God has destroyed the nations whose land he is giving you, and when you have driven them out and settled in their towns and houses,

De. 19:2 then set aside for yourselves three cities centrally located in the land the LORD your God is giving you to possess.

De. 19:3 Build roads to them and divide into three parts the land the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance, so that anyone who kills a man may flee there.

De. 19:4 This is the rule concerning the man who kills another and flees there to save his life — one who kills his neighbour unintentionally, without malice aforethought.
De. 19:5 For instance, a man may go into the forest with his neighbour to cut wood, and as he swings his axe to fell a tree, the head may fly off and hit his neighbour and kill him. That man may flee to one of these cities and save his life.

De. 19:6 Otherwise, the avenger of blood might pursue him in a rage, overtake him if the distance is too great, and kill him even though he is not deserving of death, since he did it to his neighbour without malice aforethought.

De. 19:7 This is why I command you to set aside for yourselves three cities.

De. 19:8 If the LORD your God enlarges your territory, as he promised on oath to your forefathers, and gives you the whole land he promised them,

De. 19:9 because you carefully follow all these laws I command you today — to love the LORD your God and to walk always in his ways — then you are to set aside three more cities.

De. 19:10 Do this so that innocent blood will not be shed in your land, which the LORD your God is giving you as your inheritance, and so that you will not be guilty of bloodshed.

De. 19:11 But if a man hates his neighbour and lies in wait for him, assaults and kills him, and then flees to one of these cities,

De. 19:12 the elders of his town shall send for him, bring him back from the city, and hand him over to the avenger of blood to die.

De. 19:13 Show him no pity. You must purge from Israel the guilt of shedding innocent blood, so that it may go well with you.

De. 19:14 Do not move your neighbour’s boundary stone set up by your predecessors in the inheritance you receive in the land the LORD your God is giving you to possess.

De. 19:15 One witness is not enough to convict a man accused of any crime or offence he may have committed. A matter must be established by the testimony of two or three witnesses.

De. 19:16 If a malicious witness takes the stand to accuse a man of a crime,
De. 19:17 the two men involved in the dispute must stand in the presence of the LORD before the priests and the judges who are in office at the time.

De. 19:18 The judges must make a thorough investigation, and if the witness proves to be a liar, giving false testimony against his brother,

De. 19:19 then do to him as he intended to do to his brother. You must purge the evil from among you.

De. 19:20 The rest of the people will hear of this and be afraid, and never again will such an evil thing be done among you.

De. 19:21 Show no pity: life for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.

CHAPTER 20

De. 20:1 When you go to war against your enemies and see horses and chariots and an army greater than yours, do not be afraid of them, because the LORD your God, who brought you up out of Egypt, will be with you.

De. 20:2 When you are about to go into battle, the priest shall come forward and address the army.

De. 20:3 He shall say: “Hear, O Israel, today you are going into battle against your enemies. Do not be faint-hearted or afraid; do not be terrified or give way to panic before them.

De. 20:4 For the LORD your God is the one who goes with you to fight for you against your enemies to give you victory.”

De. 20:5 The officers shall say to the army: “Has anyone built a new house and not dedicated it? Let him go home, or he may die in battle and someone else may dedicate it.

De. 20:6 Has anyone planted a vineyard and not begun to enjoy it? Let him go home, or he may die in battle and someone else enjoy it.
De. 20:7 Has anyone become pledged to a woman and not married her? Let him go home, or he may die in battle and someone else marry her.”

De. 20:8 Then the officers shall add, “Is any man afraid or faint-hearted? Let him go home so that his brothers will not become disheartened too.”

De. 20:9 When the officers have finished speaking to the army, they shall appoint commanders over it.

De. 20:10 When you march up to attack a city, make its people an offer of peace.

De. 20:11 If they accept and open their gates, all the people in it shall be subject to forced labour and shall work for you.

De. 20:12 If they refuse to make peace and they engage you in battle, lay siege to that city.

De. 20:13 When the LORD your God delivers it into your hand, put to the sword all the men in it.

De. 20:14 As for the women, the children, the livestock and everything else in the city, you may take these as plunder for yourselves. And you may use the plunder the LORD your God gives you from your enemies.

De. 20:15 This is how you are to treat all the cities that are at a distance from you and do not belong to the nations nearby.

De. 20:16 However, in the cities of the nations the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance, do not leave alive anything that breathes.

De. 20:17 Completely destroy them — the Hittites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites — as the LORD your God has commanded you.

De. 20:18 Otherwise, they will teach you to follow all the detestable things they do in worshipping their gods, and you will sin against the LORD your God.
De. 20:19 When you lay siege to a city for a long time, fighting against it to capture it, do not destroy its trees by putting an axe to them, because you can eat their fruit. Do not cut them down. Are the trees of the field people, that you should besiege them?

De. 20:20 However, you may cut down trees that you know are not fruit trees and use them to build siege works until the city at war with you falls.

CHAPTER 21

De. 21:1 If a man is found slain, lying in a field in the land the LORD your God is giving you to possess, and it is not known who killed him,

De. 21:2 your elders and judges shall go out and measure the distance from the body to the neighbouring towns.

De. 21:3 Then the elders of the town nearest the body shall take a heifer that has never been worked and has never worn a yoke

De. 21:4 and lead her down to a valley that has not been ploughed or planted and where there is a flowing stream. There in the valley they are to break the heifer’s neck.

De. 21:5 The priests, the sons of Levi, shall step forward, for the LORD your God has chosen them to minister and to pronounce blessings in the name of the LORD and to decide all cases of dispute and assault.

De. 21:6 Then all the elders of the town nearest the body shall wash their hands over the heifer whose neck was broken in the valley,

De. 21:7 and they shall declare: “Our hands did not shed this blood, nor did our eyes see it done.

De. 21:8 Accept this atonement for your people Israel, whom you have redeemed, O LORD, and do not hold your people guilty of the blood of an innocent man.” And the bloodshed will be atoned for.

De. 21:9  So you will purge from yourselves the guilt of shedding innocent blood, since you have done what is right in the eyes of the LORD.

De. 21:10  When you go to war against your enemies and the LORD your God delivers them into your hands and you take captives,

De. 21:11  if you notice among the captives a beautiful woman and are attracted to her, you may take her as your wife.

De. 21:12  Bring her into your home and make her shave her head, trim her nails

De. 21:13  and put aside the clothes she was wearing when captured. After she has lived in your house and mourned her father and mother for a full month, then you may go to her and be her husband and she shall be your wife.

De. 21:14  If you are not pleased with her, let her go wherever she wishes. You must not sell her or treat her as a slave, since you have dishonoured her.

De. 21:15  If a man has two wives, and he loves one but not the other, and both bear him sons but the firstborn is the son of the wife he does not love,

De. 21:16  when he wills his property to his sons, he must not give the rights of the firstborn to the son of the wife he loves in preference to his actual firstborn, the son of the wife he does not love.

De. 21:17  He must acknowledge the son of his unloved wife as the firstborn by giving him a double share of all he has. That son is the first sign of his father’s strength. The right of the firstborn belongs to him.

De. 21:18  If a man has a stubborn and rebellious son who does not obey his father and mother and will not listen to them when they discipline him,
De. 21:19 his father and mother shall take hold of him and bring him to the elders at the gate of his town.

De. 21:20 They shall say to the elders, “This son of ours is stubborn and rebellious. He will not obey us. He is a profligate and a drunkard.”

De. 21:21 Then all the men of his town shall stone him to death. You must purge the evil from among you. All Israel will hear of it and be afraid.

De. 21:22 If a man guilty of a capital offence is put to death and his body is hung on a tree,

De. 21:23 you must not leave his body on the tree overnight. Be sure to bury him that same day, because anyone who is hung on a tree is under God’s curse. You must not desecrate the land the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance.

CHAPTER 22

De. 22:1 If you see your brother’s ox or sheep straying, do not ignore it but be sure to take it back to him.

De. 22:2 If the brother does not live near you or if you do not know who he is, take it home with you and keep it until he comes looking for it. Then give it back to him.

De. 22:3 Do the same if you find your brother’s donkey or his cloak or anything he loses. Do not ignore it.

De. 22:4 If you see your brother’s donkey or his ox fallen on the road, do not ignore it. Help him to get it to its feet.

De. 22:5 A woman must not wear men’s clothing, nor a man wear women’s clothing, for the LORD your God detests anyone who does this.

De. 22:6 If you come across a bird’s nest beside the road, either in a tree or on the ground, and the mother is sitting on the young or on the eggs, do not take the mother with the young.
You may take the young, but be sure to let the mother go, so that it may go well with you and you may have a long life.

When you build a new house, make a parapet around your roof so that you may not bring the guilt of bloodshed on your house if someone falls from the roof.

Do not plant two kinds of seed in your vineyard; if you do, not only the crops you plant but also the fruit of the vineyard will be defiled.

Do not plough with an ox and a donkey yoked together.

Do not wear clothes of wool and linen woven together.

Make tassels on the four corners of the cloak you wear.

If a man takes a wife and, after lying with her, dislikes her and slanders her and gives her a bad name, saying, “I married this woman, but when I approached her, I did not find proof of her virginity,” then the girl’s father and mother shall bring proof that she was a virgin to the town elders at the gate.

The girl’s father will say to the elders, “I gave my daughter in marriage to this man, but he dislikes her.

Now he has slandered her and said, ‘I did not find your daughter to be a virgin.’ But here is the proof of my daughter’s virginity.” Then her parents shall display the cloth before the elders of the town, and the elders shall take the man and punish him.

They shall fine him a hundred shekels of silver and give them to the girl’s father, because this man has given an Israelite virgin a bad name. She shall continue to be his wife; he must not divorce her as long as he lives.

If, however, the charge is true and no proof of the girl’s virginity can be found,
De. 22:21 she shall be brought to the door of her father’s house and there the men of her town shall stone her to death. She has done a disgraceful thing in Israel by being promiscuous while still in her father’s house. You must purge the evil from among you.

De. 22:22 If a man is found sleeping with another man’s wife, both the man who slept with her and the woman must die. You must purge the evil from Israel.

De. 22:23 If a man happens to meet in a town a virgin pledged to be married and he sleeps with her,

De. 22:24 you shall take both of them to the gate of that town and stone them to death — the girl because she was in a town and did not scream for help, and the man because he violated another man’s wife. You must purge the evil from among you.

De. 22:25 But if out in the country a man happens to meet a girl pledged to be married and rapes her, only the man who has done this shall die.

De. 22:26 Do nothing to the girl; she has committed no sin deserving death. This case is like that of someone who attacks and murders his neighbour,

De. 22:27 for the man found the girl out in the country, and though the betrothed girl screamed, there was no-one to rescue her.

De. 22:28 If a man happens to meet a virgin who is not pledged to be married and rapes her and they are discovered,

De. 22:29 he shall pay the girl’s father fifty shekels of silver. He must marry the girl, for he has violated her. He can never divorce her as long as he lives.

De. 22:30 A man is not to marry his father’s wife; he must not dishonour his father’s bed.
De. 23:1 No-one who has been emasculated by crushing or cutting may enter the assembly of the LORD.

De. 23:2 No-one born of a forbidden marriage nor any of his descendants may enter the assembly of the LORD, even down to the tenth generation.

De. 23:3 No Ammonite or Moabite or any of his descendants may enter the assembly of the LORD, even down to the tenth generation.

De. 23:4 For they did not come to meet you with bread and water on your way when you came out of Egypt, and they hired Balaam son of Beor from Pethor in Aram Naharaim to pronounce a curse on you.

De. 23:5 However, the LORD your God would not listen to Balaam but turned the curse into a blessing for you, because the LORD your God loves you.

De. 23:6 Do not seek a treaty of friendship with them as long as you live.

De. 23:7 Do not abhor an Edomite, for he is your brother. Do not abhor an Egyptian, because you lived as an alien in his country.

De. 23:8 The third generation of children born to them may enter the assembly of the LORD.

De. 23:9 When you are encamped against your enemies, keep away from everything impure.

De. 23:10 If one of your men is unclean because of a nocturnal emission, he is to go outside the camp and stay there.

De. 23:11 But as evening approaches he is to wash himself, and at sunset he may return to the camp.

De. 23:12 Designate a place outside the camp where you can go to relieve yourself.
De. 23:13 As part of your equipment have something to dig with, and when you relieve yourself, dig a hole and cover up your excrement.

De. 23:14 For the LORD your God moves about in your camp to protect you and to deliver your enemies to you. Your camp must be holy, so that he will not see among you anything indecent and turn away from you.

De. 23:15 If a slave has taken refuge with you, do not hand him over to his master.

De. 23:16 Let him live among you wherever he likes and in whatever town he chooses. Do not oppress him.

De. 23:17 No Israelite man or woman is to become a shrine-prostitute.

De. 23:18 You must not bring the earnings of a female prostitute or of a male prostitute into the house of the LORD your God to pay any vow, because the LORD your God detests them both.

De. 23:19 Do not charge your brother interest, whether on money or food or anything else that may earn interest.

De. 23:20 You may charge a foreigner interest, but not a brother Israelite, so that the LORD your God may bless you in everything you put your hand to in the land you are entering to possess.

De. 23:21 If you make a vow to the LORD your God, do not be slow to pay it, for the LORD your God will certainly demand it of you and you will be guilty of sin.

De. 23:22 But if you refrain from making a vow, you will not be guilty.

De. 23:23 Whatever your lips utter you must be sure to do, because you made your vow freely to the LORD your God with your own mouth.

De. 23:24 If you enter your neighbour’s vineyard, you may eat all the grapes you want, but do not put any in your basket.
De. 23:25 If you enter your neighbour’s cornfield, you may pick the ears with your hands, but you must not put a sickle to his standing corn.

CHAPTER 24

De. 24:1 If a man marries a woman who becomes displeasing to him because he finds something indecent about her, and he writes her a certificate of divorce, gives it to her and sends her from his house,

De. 24:2 and if after she leaves his house she becomes the wife of another man,

De. 24:3 and her second husband dislikes her and writes her a certificate of divorce, gives it to her and sends her from his house, or if he dies,

De. 24:4 then her first husband, who divorced her, is not allowed to marry her again after she has been defiled. That would be detestable in the eyes of the LORD. Do not bring sin upon the land the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance.

De. 24:5 If a man has recently married, he must not be sent to war or have any other duty laid on him. For one year he is to be free to stay at home and bring happiness to the wife he has married.

De. 24:6 Do not take a pair of millstones — not even the upper one — as security for a debt, because that would be taking a man’s livelihood as security.

De. 24:7 If a man is caught kidnapping one of his brother Israelites and treats him as a slave or sells him, the kidnapper must die. You must purge the evil from among you.

De. 24:8 In cases of leprous diseases be very careful to do exactly as the priests, who are Levites, instruct you. You must follow carefully what I have commanded them.
De. 24:9 Remember what the LORD your God did to Miriam along the way after you came out of Egypt.

De. 24:10 When you make a loan of any kind to your neighbour, do not go into his house to get what he is offering as a pledge.

De. 24:11 Stay outside and let the man to whom you are making the loan bring the pledge out to you.

De. 24:12 If the man is poor, do not go to sleep with his pledge in your possession.

De. 24:13 Return his cloak to him by sunset so that he may sleep in it. Then he will thank you, and it will be regarded as a righteous act in the sight of the LORD your God.

De. 24:14 Do not take advantage of a hired man who is poor and needy, whether he is a brother Israelite or an alien living in one of your towns.

De. 24:15 Pay him his wages each day before sunset, because he is poor and is counting on it. Otherwise he may cry to the LORD against you, and you will be guilty of sin.

De. 24:16 Fathers shall not be put to death for their children, nor children put to death for their fathers; each is to die for his own sin.

De. 24:17 Do not deprive the alien or the fatherless of justice, or take the cloak of the widow as a pledge.

De. 24:18 Remember that you were slaves in Egypt and the LORD your God redeemed you from there. That is why I command you to do this.

De. 24:19 When you are harvesting in your field and you overlook a sheaf, do not go back to get it. Leave it for the alien, the fatherless and the widow, so that the LORD your God may bless you in all the work of your hands.

De. 24:20 When you beat the olives from your trees, do not go over the branches a second time. Leave what remains for the alien, the fatherless and the widow.
De. 24:21 When you harvest the grapes in your vineyard, do not go over the vines again. Leave what remains for the alien, the fatherless and the widow.

De. 24:22 Remember that you were slaves in Egypt. That is why I command you to do this.

CHAPTER 25

De. 25:1 When men have a dispute, they are to take it to court and the judges will decide the case, acquitting the innocent and condemning the guilty.

De. 25:2 If the guilty man deserves to be beaten, the judge shall make him lie down and have him flogged in his presence with the number of lashes his crime deserves,

De. 25:3 but he must not give him more than forty lashes. If he is flogged more than that, your brother will be degraded in your eyes.

De. 25:4 Do not muzzle an ox while it is treading out the grain.

De. 25:5 If brothers are living together and one of them dies without a son, his widow must not marry outside the family. Her husband’s brother shall take her and marry her and fulfil the duty of a brother-in-law to her.

De. 25:6 The first son she bears shall carry on the name of the dead brother so that his name will not be blotted out from Israel.

De. 25:7 However, if a man does not want to marry his brother’s wife, she shall go to the elders at the town gate and say, “My husband’s brother refuses to carry on his brother’s name in Israel. He will not fulfil the duty of a brother-in-law to me.”

De. 25:8 Then the elders of his town shall summon him and talk to him. If he persists in saying, “I do not want to marry her,”

De. 25:9 his brother’s widow shall go up to him in the presence of the elders, take off one of his sandals, spit in his face and say,
“This is what is done to the man who will not build up his brother’s family line.”

De. 25:10 That man’s line shall be known in Israel as The Family of the Unsandalled.

De. 25:11 If two men are fighting and the wife of one of them comes to rescue her husband from his assailant, and she reaches out and seizes him by his private parts,

De. 25:12 you shall cut off her hand. Show her no pity.

De. 25:13 Do not have two differing weights in your bag — one heavy, one light.

De. 25:14 Do not have two differing measures in your house — one large, one small.

De. 25:15 You must have accurate and honest weights and measures, so that you may live long in the land the LORD your God is giving you.

De. 25:16 For the LORD your God detests anyone who does these things, anyone who deals dishonestly.

De. 25:17 Remember what the Amalekites did to you along the way when you came out of Egypt.

De. 25:18 When you were weary and worn out, they met you on your journey and cut off all who were lagging behind; they had no fear of God.

De. 25:19 When the LORD your God gives you rest from all the enemies around you in the land he is giving you to possess as an inheritance, you shall blot out the memory of Amalek from under heaven. Do not forget!

CHAPTER 26

De. 26:1 When you have entered the land that the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance and have taken possession of it and settled in it,
De. 26:2 take some of the firstfruits of all that you produce from the soil of the land that the LORD your God is giving you and put them in a basket. Then go to the place that the LORD your God will choose as a dwelling for his Name

De. 26:3 and say to the priest in office at the time, “I declare today to the LORD your God that I have come to the land that the LORD swore to our forefathers to give us.”

De. 26:4 The priest shall take the basket from your hands and set it down in front of the altar of the LORD your God.

De. 26:5 Then you shall declare before the LORD your God: “My father was a wandering Aramean, and he went down into Egypt with a few people and lived there and became a great nation, powerful and numerous.

De. 26:6 But the Egyptians ill-treated us and made us suffer, putting us to hard labour.

De. 26:7 Then we cried out to the LORD, the God of our fathers, and the LORD heard our voice and saw our misery, toil and oppression.

De. 26:8 So the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, with great terror and with miraculous signs and wonders.

De. 26:9 He brought us to this place and gave us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey;

De. 26:10 and now I bring the firstfruits of the soil that you, O LORD, have given me.” Place the basket before the LORD your God and bow down before him.

De. 26:11 And you and the Levites and the aliens among you shall rejoice in all the good things the LORD your God has given to you and your household.

De. 26:12 When you have finished setting aside a tenth of all your produce in the third year, the year of the tithe, you shall give it to the Levite, the alien, the fatherless and the widow, so that they may eat in your towns and be satisfied.
De. 26:13 Then say to the LORD your God: “I have removed from my house the sacred portion and have given it to the Levite, the alien, the fatherless and the widow, according to all you commanded. I have not turned aside from your commands nor have I forgotten any of them.

De. 26:14 I have not eaten any of the sacred portion while I was in mourning, nor have I removed any of it while I was unclean, nor have I offered any of it to the dead. I have obeyed the LORD my God; I have done everything you commanded me.

De. 26:15 Look down from heaven, your holy dwelling-place, and bless your people Israel and the land you have given us as you promised on oath to our forefathers, a land flowing with milk and honey.”

De. 26:16 The LORD your God commands you this day to follow these decrees and laws; carefully observe them with all your heart and with all your soul.

De. 26:17 You have declared this day that the LORD is your God and that you will walk in his ways, that you will keep his decrees, commands and laws, and that you will obey him.

De. 26:18 And the LORD has declared this day that you are his people, his treasured possession as he promised, and that you are to keep all his commands.

De. 26:19 He has declared that he will set you in praise, fame and honour high above all the nations he has made and that you will be a people holy to the LORD your God, as he promised.

CHAPTER 27

De. 27:1 Moses and the elders of Israel commanded the people: “Keep all these commands that I give you today.

De. 27:2 When you have crossed the Jordan into the land the LORD your God is giving you, set up some large stones and coat them with plaster.
De. 27:3 Write on them all the words of this law when you have crossed over to enter the land the LORD your God is giving you, a land flowing with milk and honey, just as the LORD, the God of your fathers, promised you.

De. 27:4 And when you have crossed the Jordan, set up these stones on Mount Ebal, as I command you today, and coat them with plaster.

De. 27:5 Build there an altar to the LORD your God, an altar of stones. Do not use any iron tool upon them.

De. 27:6 Build the altar of the LORD your God with stones from the field and offer burnt offerings on it to the LORD your God.

De. 27:7 Sacrifice fellowship offerings there, eating them and rejoicing in the presence of the LORD your God.

De. 27:8 And you shall write very clearly all the words of this law on these stones you have set up.”

De. 27:9 Then Moses and the priests, who are Levites, said to all Israel, “Be silent, O Israel, and listen! You have now become the people of the LORD your God.

De. 27:10 Obey the LORD your God and follow his commands and decrees that I give you today.”

De. 27:11 On the same day Moses commanded the people:

De. 27:12 When you have crossed the Jordan, these tribes shall stand on Mount Gerizim to bless the people: Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Joseph and Benjamin.

De. 27:13 And these tribes shall stand on Mount Ebal to pronounce curses: Reuben, Gad, Asher, Zebulun, Dan and Naphtali.

De. 27:14 The Levites shall recite to all the people of Israel in a loud voice:

De. 27:15 “Cursed is the man who carves an image or casts an idol — a thing detestable to the LORD, the work of the craftsman’s hands — and sets it up in secret.” Then all the people shall say, “Amen!”
De. 27:16 “Cursed is the man who dishonours his father or his mother.” Then all the people shall say, “Amen!”

De. 27:17 “Cursed is the man who moves his neighbour’s boundary stone.” Then all the people shall say, “Amen!”

De. 27:18 “Cursed is the man who leads the blind astray on the road.” Then all the people shall say, “Amen!”

De. 27:19 “Cursed is the man who withholds justice from the alien, the fatherless or the widow.” Then all the people shall say, “Amen!”

De. 27:20 “Cursed is the man who sleeps with his father’s wife, for he dishonours his father’s bed.” Then all the people shall say, “Amen!”

De. 27:21 “Cursed is the man who has sexual relations with any animal.” Then all the people shall say, “Amen!”

De. 27:22 “Cursed is the man who sleeps with his sister, the daughter of his father or the daughter of his mother.” Then all the people shall say, “Amen!”

De. 27:23 “Cursed is the man who kills his neighbour secretly.” Then all the people shall say, “Amen!”

De. 27:24 “Cursed is the man who accepts a bribe to kill an innocent person.” Then all the people shall say, “Amen!”

De. 27:25 “Cursed is the man who does not uphold the words of this law by carrying them out.” Then all the people shall say, “Amen!”

CHAPTER 28

De. 28:1 If you fully obey the LORD your God and carefully follow all his commands that I give you today, the LORD your God will set you high above all the nations on earth.
De. 28:2 All these blessings will come upon you and accompany you if you obey the LORD your God:

De. 28:3 You will be blessed in the city and blessed in the country.

De. 28:4 The fruit of your womb will be blessed, and the crops of your land and the young of your livestock — the calves of your herds and the lambs of your flocks.

De. 28:5 Your basket and your kneading trough will be blessed.

De. 28:6 You will be blessed when you come in and blessed when you go out.

De. 28:7 The LORD will grant that the enemies who rise up against you will be defeated before you. They will come at you from one direction but flee from you in seven.

De. 28:8 The LORD will send a blessing on your barns and on everything you put your hand to. The LORD your God will bless you in the land he is giving you.

De. 28:9 The LORD will establish you as his holy people, as he promised you on oath, if you keep the commands of the LORD your God and walk in his ways.

De. 28:10 Then all the peoples on earth will see that you are called by the name of the LORD, and they will fear you.

De. 28:11 The LORD will grant you abundant prosperity — in the fruit of your womb, the young of your livestock and the crops of your ground — in the land he swore to your forefathers to give you.

De. 28:12 The LORD will open the heavens, the storehouse of his bounty, to send rain on your land in season and to bless all the work of your hands. You will lend to many nations but will borrow from none.

De. 28:13 The LORD will make you the head, not the tail. If you pay attention to the commands of the LORD your God that I give you this day and carefully follow them, you will always be at the top, never at the bottom.
De. 28:14  Do not turn aside from any of the commands I give you today, to the right or to the left, following other gods and serving them.

De. 28:15  However, if you do not obey the LORD your God and do not carefully follow all his commands and decrees I am giving you today, all these curses will come upon you and overtake you:

De. 28:16  You will be cursed in the city and cursed in the country.

De. 28:17  Your basket and your kneading trough will be cursed.

De. 28:18  The fruit of your womb will be cursed, and the crops of your land, and the calves of your herds and the lambs of your flocks.

De. 28:19  You will be cursed when you come in and cursed when you go out.

De. 28:20  The LORD will send on you curses, confusion and rebuke in everything you put your hand to, until you are destroyed and come to sudden ruin because of the evil you have done in forsaking him.

De. 28:21  The LORD will plague you with diseases until he has destroyed you from the land you are entering to possess.

De. 28:22  The LORD will strike you with wasting disease, with fever and inflammation, with scorching heat and drought, with blight and mildew, which will plague you until you perish.

De. 28:23  The sky over your head will be bronze, the ground beneath you iron.

De. 28:24  The LORD will turn the rain of your country into dust and powder; it will come down from the skies until you are destroyed.

De. 28:25  The LORD will cause you to be defeated before your enemies. You will come at them from one direction but flee from them in seven, and you will become a thing of horror to all the kingdoms on earth.
De. 28:26 Your carcasses will be food for all the birds of the air and the beasts of the earth, and there will be no-one to frighten them away.

De. 28:27 The LORD will afflict you with the boils of Egypt and with tumours, festering sores and the itch, from which you cannot be cured.

De. 28:28 The LORD will afflict you with madness, blindness and confusion of mind.

De. 28:29 At midday you will grope about like a blind man in the dark. You will be unsuccessful in everything you do; day after day you will be oppressed and robbed, with no-one to rescue you.

De. 28:30 You will be pledged to be married to a woman, but another will take her and ravish her. You will build a house, but you will not live in it. You will plant a vineyard, but you will not even begin to enjoy its fruit.

De. 28:31 Your ox will be slaughtered before your eyes, but you will eat none of it. Your donkey will be forcibly taken from you and will not be returned. Your sheep will be given to your enemies, and no-one will rescue them.

De. 28:32 Your sons and daughters will be given to another nation, and you will wear out your eyes watching for them day after day, powerless to lift a hand.

De. 28:33 A people that you do not know will eat what your land and labour produce, and you will have nothing but cruel oppression all your days.

De. 28:34 The sights you see will drive you mad.

De. 28:35 The LORD will afflict your knees and legs with painful boils that cannot be cured, spreading from the soles of your feet to the top of your head.

De. 28:36 The LORD will drive you and the king you set over you to a nation unknown to you or your fathers. There you will worship other gods, gods of wood and stone.
De. 28:37 You will become a thing of horror and an object of scorn and ridicule to all the nations where the LORD will drive you.

De. 28:38 You will sow much seed in the field but you will harvest little, because locusts will devour it.

De. 28:39 You will plant vineyards and cultivate them but you will not drink the wine or gather the grapes, because worms will eat them.

De. 28:40 You will have olive trees throughout your country but you will not use the oil, because the olives will drop off.

De. 28:41 You will have sons and daughters but you will not keep them, because they will go into captivity.

De. 28:42 Swarms of locusts will take over all your trees and the crops of your land.

De. 28:43 The alien who lives among you will rise above you higher and higher, but you will sink lower and lower.

De. 28:44 He will lend to you, but you will not lend to him. He will be the head, but you will be the tail.

De. 28:45 All these curses will come upon you. They will pursue you and overtake you until you are destroyed, because you did not obey the LORD your God and observe the commands and decrees he gave you.

De. 28:46 They will be a sign and a wonder to you and your descendants for ever.

De. 28:47 Because you did not serve the LORD your God joyfully and gladly in the time of prosperity,

De. 28:48 therefore in hunger and thirst, in nakedness and dire poverty, you will serve the enemies the LORD sends against you. He will put an iron yoke on your neck until he has destroyed you.

De. 28:49 The LORD will bring a nation against you from far away, from the ends of the earth, like an eagle swooping down, a nation whose language you will not understand,
De. 28:50 a fierce-looking nation without respect for the old or pity for the young.

De. 28:51 They will devour the young of your livestock and the crops of your land until you are destroyed. They will leave you no grain, new wine or oil, nor any calves of your herds or lambs of your flocks until you are ruined.

De. 28:52 They will lay siege to all the cities throughout your land until the high fortified walls in which you trust fall down. They will besiege all the cities throughout the land the LORD your God is giving you.

De. 28:53 Because of the suffering that your enemy will inflict on you during the siege, you will eat the fruit of the womb, the flesh of the sons and daughters the LORD your God has given you.

De. 28:54 Even the most gentle and sensitive man among you will have no compassion on his own brother or the wife he loves or his surviving children,

De. 28:55 and he will not give to one of them any of the flesh of his children that he is eating. It will be all he has left because of the suffering that your enemy will inflict on you during the siege of all your cities.

De. 28:56 The most gentle and sensitive woman among you — so sensitive and gentle that she would not venture to touch the ground with the sole of her foot — will begrudge the husband she loves and her own son or daughter the afterbirth from her womb and the children she bears. For she intends to eat them secretly during the siege and in the distress that your enemy will inflict on you in your cities.

De. 28:57 If you do not carefully follow all the words of this law, which are written in this book, and do not revere this glorious and awesome name — the LORD your God —

De. 28:58 the LORD will send fearful plagues on you and your descendants, harsh and prolonged disasters, and severe and lingering illnesses.
De. 28:60  He will bring upon you all the diseases of Egypt that you dreaded, and they will cling to you.

De. 28:61  The LORD will also bring on you every kind of sickness and disaster not recorded in this Book of the Law, until you are destroyed.

De. 28:62  You who were as numerous as the stars in the sky will be left but few in number, because you did not obey the LORD your God.

De. 28:63  Just as it pleased the LORD to make you prosper and increase in number, so it will please him to ruin and destroy you. You will be uprooted from the land you are entering to possess.

De. 28:64  Then the LORD will scatter you among all nations, from one end of the earth to the other. There you will worship other gods — gods of wood and stone, which neither you nor your fathers have known.

De. 28:65  Among those nations you will find no repose, no resting place for the sole of your foot. There the LORD will give you an anxious mind, eyes weary with longing, and a despairing heart.

De. 28:66  You will live in constant suspense, filled with dread both night and day, never sure of your life.

De. 28:67  In the morning you will say, “If only it were evening!” and in the evening, “If only it were morning!” — because of the terror that will fill your hearts and the sights that your eyes will see.

De. 28:68  The LORD will send you back in ships to Egypt on a journey I said you should never make again. There you will offer yourselves for sale to your enemies as male and female slaves, but no-one will buy you.
De. 29:1 These are the terms of the covenant the LORD commanded Moses to make with the Israelites in Moab, in addition to the covenant he had made with them at Horeb.

De. 29:2 Moses summoned all the Israelites and said to them: Your eyes have seen all that the LORD did in Egypt to Pharaoh, to all his officials and to all his land.

De. 29:3 With your own eyes you saw those great trials, those miraculous signs and great wonders.

De. 29:4 But to this day the LORD has not given you a mind that understands or eyes that see or ears that hear.

De. 29:5 During the forty years that I led you through the desert, your clothes did not wear out, nor did the sandals on your feet.

De. 29:6 You ate no bread and drank no wine or other fermented drink. I did this so that you might know that I am the LORD your God.

De. 29:7 When you reached this place, Sihon king of Heshbon and Og king of Bashan came out to fight against us, but we defeated them.

De. 29:8 We took their land and gave it as an inheritance to the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh.

De. 29:9 Carefully follow the terms of this covenant, so that you may prosper in everything you do.

De. 29:10 All of you are standing today in the presence of the LORD your God — your leaders and chief men, your elders and officials, and all the other men of Israel,

De. 29:11 together with your children and your wives, and the aliens living in your camps who chop your wood and carry your water.
De. 29:12 You are standing here in order to enter into a covenant with the LORD your God, a covenant the LORD is making with you this day and sealing with an oath,

De. 29:13 to confirm you this day as his people, that he may be your God as he promised you and as he swore to your fathers, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

De. 29:14 I am making this covenant, with its oath, not only with you

De. 29:15 who are standing here with us today in the presence of the LORD our God but also with those who are not here today.

De. 29:16 You yourselves know how we lived in Egypt and how we passed through the countries on the way here.

De. 29:17 You saw among them their detestable images and idols of wood and stone, of silver and gold.

De. 29:18 Make sure there is no man or woman, clan or tribe among you today whose heart turns away from the LORD our God to go and worship the gods of those nations; make sure there is no root among you that produces such bitter poison.

De. 29:19 When such a person hears the words of this oath, he invokes a blessing on himself and therefore thinks, “I will be safe, even though I persist in going my own way.” This will bring disaster on the watered land as well as the dry.

De. 29:20 The LORD will never be willing to forgive him; his wrath and zeal will burn against that man. All the curses written in this book will fall upon him, and the LORD will blot out his name from under heaven.

De. 29:21 The LORD will single him out from all the tribes of Israel for disaster, according to all the curses of the covenant written in this Book of the Law.

De. 29:22 Your children who follow you in later generations and foreigners who come from distant lands will see the calamities that have fallen on the land and the diseases with which the LORD has afflicted it.
De. 29:23 The whole land will be a burning waste of salt and sulphur — nothing planted, nothing sprouting, no vegetation growing on it. It will be like the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboiim, which the LORD overthrew in fierce anger.

De. 29:24 All the nations will ask: “Why has the LORD done this to this land? Why this fierce, burning anger?”

De. 29:25 And the answer will be: “It is because this people abandoned the covenant of the LORD, the God of their fathers, the covenant he made with them when he brought them out of Egypt.

De. 29:26 They went off and worshipped other gods and bowed down to them, gods they did not know, gods he had not given them.

De. 29:27 Therefore the LORD’s anger burned against this land, so that he brought on it all the curses written in this book.

De. 29:28 In furious anger and in great wrath the LORD uprooted them from their land and thrust them into another land, as it is now.”

De. 29:29 The secret things belong to the LORD our God, but the things revealed belong to us and to our children for ever, that we may follow all the words of this law.

CHAPTER 30

De. 30:1 When all these blessings and curses I have set before you come upon you and you take them to heart wherever the LORD your God disperses you among the nations,

De. 30:2 and when you and your children return to the LORD your God and obey him with all your heart and with all your soul according to everything I command you today,
De. 30:3 then the LORD your God will restore your fortunes and have compassion on you and gather you again from all the nations where he scattered you.

De. 30:4 Even if you have been banished to the most distant land under the heavens, from there the LORD your God will gather you and bring you back.

De. 30:5 He will bring you to the land that belonged to your fathers, and you will take possession of it. He will make you more prosperous and numerous than your fathers.

De. 30:6 The LORD your God will circumcise your hearts and the hearts of your descendants, so that you may love him with all your heart and with all your soul, and live.

De. 30:7 The LORD your God will put all these curses on your enemies who hate and persecute you.

De. 30:8 You will again obey the LORD and follow all his commands I am giving you today.

De. 30:9 Then the LORD your God will make you most prosperous in all the work of your hands and in the fruit of your womb, the young of your livestock and the crops of your land. The LORD will again delight in you and make you prosperous, just as he delighted in your fathers.

De. 30:10 if you obey the LORD your God and keep his commands and decrees that are written in this Book of the Law and turn to the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

De. 30:11 Now what I am commanding you today is not too difficult for you or beyond your reach.

De. 30:12 It is not up in heaven, so that you have to ask, “Who will ascend into heaven to get it and proclaim it to us so that we may obey it?”

De. 30:13 Nor is it beyond the sea, so that you have to ask, “Who will cross the sea to get it and proclaim it to us so that we may obey it?”
De. 30:14 No, the word is very near you; it is in your mouth and in your heart so that you may obey it.

De. 30:15 See, I set before you today life and prosperity, death and destruction.

De. 30:16 For I command you today to love the LORD your God, to walk in his ways, and to keep his commands, decrees and laws; then you will live and increase, and the LORD your God will bless you in the land you are entering to possess.

De. 30:17 But if your heart turns away and you are not obedient, and if you are drawn away to bow down to other gods and worship them,

De. 30:18 I declare to you this day that you will certainly be destroyed. You will not live long in the land you are crossing the Jordan to enter and possess.

De. 30:19 This day I call heaven and earth as witnesses against you that I have set before you life and death, blessings and curses. Now choose life, so that you and your children may live

De. 30:20 and that you may love the LORD your God, listen to his voice, and hold fast to him. For the LORD is your life, and he will give you many years in the land he swore to give to your fathers, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

CHAPTER 31

De. 31:1 Then Moses went out and spoke these words to all Israel:

De. 31:2 ‘I am now a hundred and twenty years old and I am no longer able to lead you. The LORD has said to me, ‘You shall not cross the Jordan.’

De. 31:3 The LORD your God himself will cross over ahead of you. He will destroy these nations before you, and you will take possession of their land. Joshua also will cross over ahead of you, as the LORD said.
De. 31:4 And the LORD will do to them what he did to Sihon and Og, the kings of the Amorites, whom he destroyed along with their land.

De. 31:5 The LORD will deliver them to you, and you must do to them all that I have commanded you.

De. 31:6 Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid or terrified because of them, for the LORD your God goes with you; he will never leave you nor forsake you.”

De. 31:7 Then Moses summoned Joshua and said to him in the presence of all Israel, “Be strong and courageous, for you must go with this people into the land that the LORD swore to their forefathers to give them, and you must divide it among them as their inheritance.

De. 31:8 The LORD himself goes before you and will be with you; he will never leave you nor forsake you. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged.”

De. 31:9 So Moses wrote down this law and gave it to the priests, the sons of Levi, who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and to all the elders of Israel.

De. 31:10 Then Moses commanded them: “At the end of every seven years, in the year for cancelling debts, during the Feast of Tabernacles,

De. 31:11 when all Israel comes to appear before the LORD your God at the place he will choose, you shall read this law before them in their hearing.

De. 31:12 Assemble the people — men, women and children, and the aliens living in your towns — so that they can listen and learn to fear the LORD your God and follow carefully all the words of this law.

De. 31:13 Their children, who do not know this law, must hear it and learn to fear the LORD your God as long as you live in the land you are crossing the Jordan to possess.”
De. 31:14 The LORD said to Moses, “Now the day of your death is near. Call Joshua and present yourselves at the Tent of Meeting, where I will commission him.” So Moses and Joshua came and presented themselves at the Tent of Meeting.

De. 31:15 Then the LORD appeared at the Tent in a pillar of cloud, and the cloud stood over the entrance to the Tent.

De. 31:16 And the LORD said to Moses: “You are going to rest with your fathers, and these people will soon prostitute themselves to the foreign gods of the land they are entering. They will forsake me and break the covenant I made with them.

De. 31:17 On that day I will become angry with them and forsake them; I will hide my face from them, and they will be destroyed. Many disasters and difficulties will come upon them, and on that day they will ask, ‘Have not these disasters come upon us because our God is not with us?’

De. 31:18 And I will certainly hide my face on that day because of all their wickedness in turning to other gods.

De. 31:19 “Now write down for yourselves this song and teach it to the Israelites and make them sing it, so that it may be a witness for me against them.

De. 31:20 When I have brought them into the land flowing with milk and honey, the land I promised on oath to their forefathers, and when they eat their fill and thrive, they will turn to other gods and worship them, rejecting me and breaking my covenant.

De. 31:21 And when many disasters and difficulties come upon them, this song will testify against them, because it will not be forgotten by their descendants. I know what they are disposed to do, even before I bring them into the land I promised them on oath.”

De. 31:22 So Moses wrote down this song that day and taught it to the Israelites.
De. 31:23 The LORD gave this command to Joshua son of Nun: “Be strong and courageous, for you will bring the Israelites into the land I promised them on oath, and I myself will be with you.”

De. 31:24 After Moses finished writing in a book the words of this law from beginning to end,

De. 31:25 he gave this command to the Levites who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD:

De. 31:26 “Take this Book of the Law and place it beside the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God. There it will remain as a witness against you.

De. 31:27 For I know how rebellious and stiff-necked you are. If you have been rebellious against the LORD while I am still alive and with you, how much more will you rebel after I die!

De. 31:28 Assemble before me all the elders of your tribes and all your officials, so that I can speak these words in their hearing and call heaven and earth to testify against them.

De. 31:29 For I know that after my death you are sure to become utterly corrupt and to turn from the way I have commanded you. In days to come, disaster will fall upon you because you will do evil in the sight of the LORD and provoke him to anger by what your hands have made.”

De. 31:30 And Moses recited the words of this song from beginning to end in the hearing of the whole assembly of Israel:

CHAPTER 32

De. 32:1 Listen, O heavens, and I will speak; hear, O earth, the words of my mouth.

De. 32:2 Let my teaching fall like rain and my words descend like dew, like showers on new grass, like abundant rain on tender plants.
De. 32:3 I will proclaim the name of the LORD. Oh, praise the greatness of our God!

De. 32:4 He is the Rock, his works are perfect, and all his ways are just. A faithful God who does no wrong, upright and just is he.

De. 32:5 They have acted corruptly towards him; to their shame they are no longer his children, but a warped and crooked generation.

De. 32:6 Is this the way you repay the LORD, O foolish and unwise people? Is he not your Father, your Creator, who made you and formed you?

De. 32:7 Remember the days of old; consider the generations long past. Ask your father and he will tell you, your elders, and they will explain to you.

De. 32:8 When the Most High gave the nations their inheritance, when he divided all mankind, he set up boundaries for the peoples according to the number of the sons of Israel.

De. 32:9 For the LORD’s portion is his people, Jacob his allotted inheritance.

De. 32:10 In a desert land he found him, in a barren and howling waste. He shielded him and cared for him; he guarded him as the apple of his eye,

De. 32:11 like an eagle that stirs up its nest and hovers over its young, that spreads its wings to catch them and carries them on its pinions.

De. 32:12 The LORD alone led him; no foreign god was with him.

De. 32:13 He made him ride on the heights of the land and fed him with the fruit of the fields. He nourished him with honey from the rock, and with oil from the flinty crag,

De. 32:14 with curds and milk from herd and flock and with fattened lambs and goats, with choice rams of Bashan and the finest grains of wheat. You drank the foaming blood of the grape.
De. 32:15 Jeshurun grew fat and kicked; filled with food, he became heavy and sleek. He abandoned the God who made him and rejected the Rock his Saviour.

De. 32:16 They made him jealous with their foreign gods and angered him with their detestable idols.

De. 32:17 They sacrificed to demons, which are not God — gods they had not known, gods that recently appeared, gods your fathers did not fear.

De. 32:18 You deserted the Rock, who fathered you; you forgot the God who gave you birth.

De. 32:19 The LORD saw this and rejected them because he was angered by his sons and daughters.

De. 32:20 “I will hide my face from them,” he said, “and see what their end will be; for they are a perverse generation, children who are unfaithful.

De. 32:21 They made me jealous by what is no god and angered me with their worthless idols. I will make them envious by those who are not a people; I will make them angry by a nation that has no understanding.

De. 32:22 For a fire has been kindled by my wrath, one that burns to the realm of death below. It will devour the earth and its harvests and set on fire the foundations of the mountains.

De. 32:23 “I will heap calamities upon them and expend my arrows against them.

De. 32:24 I will send wasting famine against them, consuming pestilence and deadly plague; I will send against them the fangs of wild beasts, the venom of vipers that glide in the dust.

De. 32:25 In the street the sword will make them childless; in their homes terror will reign. Young men and young women will perish, infants and grey-haired men.

De. 32:26 I said I would scatter them and blot out their memory from mankind,
De. 32:27  but I dreaded the taunt of the enemy, lest the adversary misunderstand and say, "Our hand has triumphed; the LORD has not done all this.""

De. 32:28  They are a nation without sense, there is no discernment in them.

De. 32:29  If only they were wise and would understand this and discern what their end will be!

De. 32:30  How could one man chase a thousand, or two put ten thousand to flight, unless their Rock had sold them, unless the LORD had given them up?

De. 32:31  For their rock is not like our Rock, as even our enemies concede.

De. 32:32  Their vine comes from the vine of Sodom and from the fields of Gomorrah. Their grapes are filled with poison, and their clusters with bitterness.

De. 32:33  Their wine is the venom of serpents, the deadly poison of cobras.

De. 32:34  “Have I not kept this in reserve and sealed it in my vaults?

De. 32:35  It is mine to avenge; I will repay. In due time their foot will slip; their day of disaster is near and their doom rushes upon them.”

De. 32:36  The LORD will judge his people and have compassion on his servants when he sees their strength is gone and no-one is left, slave or free.

De. 32:37  He will say: “Now where are their gods, the rock they took refuge in,

De. 32:38  the gods who ate the fat of their sacrifices and drank the wine of their drink offerings? Let them rise up to help you! Let them give you shelter!

De. 32:39  “See now that I myself am He! There is no god besides me. I put to death and I bring to life, I have wounded and I will heal, and no-one can deliver out of my hand.
De. 32:40 I lift my hand to heaven and declare: As surely as I live for ever,

De. 32:41 when I sharpen my flashing sword and my hand grasps it in judgment, I will take vengeance on my adversaries and repay those who hate me.

De. 32:42 I will make my arrows drunk with blood, while my sword devours flesh: the blood of the slain and the captives, the heads of the enemy leaders.”

De. 32:43 Rejoice, O nations, with his people, for he will avenge the blood of his servants; he will take vengeance on his enemies and make atonement for his land and people.

De. 32:44 Moses came with Joshua son of Nun and spoke all the words of this song in the hearing of the people.

De. 32:45 When Moses finished reciting all these words to all Israel, De. 32:46 he said to them, “Take to heart all the words I have solemnly declared to you this day, so that you may command your children to obey carefully all the words of this law.

De. 32:47 They are not just idle words for you — they are your life. By them you will live long in the land you are crossing the Jordan to possess.”

De. 32:48 On that same day the LORD told Moses,

De. 32:49 “Go up into the Abarim Range to Mount Nebo in Moab, across from Jericho, and view Canaan, the land I am giving the Israelites as their own possession.

De. 32:50 There on the mountain that you have climbed you will die and be gathered to your people, just as your brother Aaron died on Mount Hor and was gathered to his people.

De. 32:51 This is because both of you broke faith with me in the presence of the Israelites at the waters of Meribah Kadesh in the Desert of Zin and because you did not uphold my holiness among the Israelites.
CHAPTER 33

De. 32:52 Therefore, you will see the land only from a distance; you will not enter the land I am giving to the people of Israel.”

De. 33:1 This is the blessing that Moses the man of God pronounced on the Israelites before his death.

De. 33:2 He said: “The LORD came from Sinai and dawned over them from Seir; he shone forth from Mount Paran. He came with myriads of holy ones from the south, from his mountain slopes.

De. 33:3 Surely it is you who love the people; all the holy ones are in your hand. At your feet they all bow down, and from you receive instruction,

De. 33:4 the law that Moses gave us, the possession of the assembly of Jacob.

De. 33:5 He was king over Jeshurun when the leaders of the people assembled, along with the tribes of Israel.

De. 33:6 “Let Reuben live and not die, nor his men be few.”

De. 33:7 And this he said about Judah: “Hear, O LORD, the cry of Judah; bring him to his people. With his own hands he defends his cause. Oh, be his help against his foes!”

De. 33:8 About Levi he said: “Your Thummim and Urim belong to the man you favoured. You tested him at Massah; you contended with him at the waters of Meribah.

De. 33:9 He said of his father and mother, `I have no regard for them.’ He did not recognise his brothers or acknowledge his own children, but he watched over your word and guarded your covenant.

De. 33:10 He teaches your precepts to Jacob and your law to Israel. He offers incense before you and whole burnt offerings on your altar.
De. 33:11  Bless all his skills, O LORD, and be pleased with the work of his hands. Smite the loins of those who rise up against him; strike his foes till they rise no more.”

De. 33:12  About Benjamin he said: “Let the beloved of the LORD rest secure in him, for he shields him all day long, and the one the LORD loves rests between his shoulders.”

De. 33:13  About Joseph he said: “May the LORD bless his land with the precious dew from heaven above and with the deep waters that lie below;

De. 33:14  with the best the sun brings forth and the finest the moon can yield;

De. 33:15  with the choicest gifts of the ancient mountains and the fruitfulness of the everlasting hills;

De. 33:16  with the best gifts of the earth and its fulness and the favour of him who dwelt in the burning bush. Let all these rest on the head of Joseph, on the brow of the prince among his brothers.

De. 33:17  In majesty he is like a firstborn bull; his horns are the horns of a wild ox. With them he will gore the nations, even those at the ends of the earth. Such are the ten thousands of Ephraim; such are the thousands of Manasseh.”

De. 33:18  About Zebulun he said: “Rejoice, Zebulun, in your going out, and you, Issachar, in your tents.

De. 33:19  They will summon peoples to the mountain and there offer sacrifices of righteousness; they will feast on the abundance of the seas, on the treasures hidden in the sand.”

De. 33:20  About Gad he said: “Blessed is he who enlarges Gad’s domain! Gad lives there like a lion, tearing at arm or head.

De. 33:21  He chose the best land for himself; the leader’s portion was kept for him. When the heads of the people assembled, he carried out the LORD’s righteous will, and his judgments concerning Israel.”
De. 33:22 About Dan he said: “Dan is a lion’s cub, springing out of Bashan.”

De. 33:23 About Naphtali he said: “Naphtali is abounding with the favour of the LORD and is full of his blessing; he will inherit southward to the lake.”

De. 33:24 About Asher he said: “Most blessed of sons is Asher; let him be favoured by his brothers, and let him bathe his feet in oil.

De. 33:25 The bolts of your gates will be iron and bronze, and your strength will equal your days.

De. 33:26 “There is no-one like the God of Jeshurun, who rides on the heavens to help you and on the clouds in his majesty.

De. 33:27 The eternal God is your refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms. He will drive out your enemy before you, saying, ‘Destroy him!’

De. 33:28 So Israel will live in safety alone; Jacob’s spring is secure in a land of grain and new wine, where the heavens drop dew.

De. 33:29 Blessed are you, O Israel! Who is like you, a people saved by the LORD? He is your shield and helper and your glorious sword. Your enemies will cower before you, and you will trample down their high places.”

CHAPTER 34

De. 34:1 Then Moses climbed Mount Nebo from the plains of Moab to the top of Pisgah, across from Jericho. There the LORD showed him the whole land — from Gilead to Dan,

De. 34:2 all of Naphtali, the territory of Ephraim and Manasseh, all the land of Judah as far as the western sea,

De. 34:3 the Negev and the whole region from the Valley of Jericho, the City of Palms, as far as Zoar.

De. 34:4 Then the LORD said to him, “This is the land I promised on oath to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob when I said, ‘I will give it to your descendants.’ I have let you see it with your eyes, but you will not cross over into it.”

De. 34:5 And Moses the servant of the LORD died there in Moab, as the LORD had said.

De. 34:6 He buried him in Moab, in the valley opposite Beth Peor, but to this day no-one knows where his grave is.

De. 34:7 Moses was a hundred and twenty years old when he died, yet his eyes were not weak nor his strength gone.

De. 34:8 The Israelites grieved for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days, until the time of weeping and mourning was over.

De. 34:9 Now Joshua son of Nun was filled with the spirit of wisdom because Moses had laid his hands on him. So the Israelites listened to him and did what the LORD had commanded Moses.

De. 34:10 Since then, no prophet has risen in Israel like Moses, whom the LORD knew face to face,

De. 34:11 who did all those miraculous signs and wonders the LORD sent him to do in Egypt — to Pharaoh and to all his officials and to his whole land.

De. 34:12 For no-one has ever shown the mighty power or performed the awesome deeds that Moses did in the sight of all Israel.
After the death of Moses the servant of the LORD, the LORD said to Joshua son of Nun, Moses’ assistant:

Moses my servant is dead. Now then, you and all these people, get ready to cross the Jordan River into the land I am about to give to them — to the Israelites.

I will give you every place where you set your foot, as I promised Moses.

Your territory will extend from the desert to Lebanon, and from the great river, the Euphrates — all the Hittite country — to the Great Sea on the west.

No-one will be able to stand up against you all the days of your life. As I was with Moses, so I will be with you; I will never leave you nor forsake you.

“Be strong and courageous, because you will lead these people to inherit the land I swore to their forefathers to give them.

Be strong and very courageous. Be careful to obey all the law my servant Moses gave you; do not turn from it to the right or to the left, that you may be successful wherever you go.

Do not let this Book of the Law depart from your mouth; meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do everything written in it. Then you will be prosperous and successful.

Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be terrified; do not be discouraged, for the LORD your God will be with you wherever you go.”

So Joshua ordered the officers of the people:
Jo. 1:11 “Go through the camp and tell the people, ‘Get your supplies ready. Three days from now you will cross the Jordan here to go in and take possession of the land the LORD your God is giving you for your own.’"

Jo. 1:12 But to the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh, Joshua said,

Jo. 1:13 “Remember the command that Moses the servant of the LORD gave you: ‘The LORD your God is giving you rest and has granted you this land.’

Jo. 1:14 Your wives, your children and your livestock may stay in the land that Moses gave you east of the Jordan, but all your fighting men, fully armed, must cross over ahead of your brothers. You are to help your brothers until the LORD gives them rest, as he has done for you, and until they too have taken possession of the land that the LORD your God is giving them. After that, you may go back and occupy your own land, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave you east of the Jordan towards the sunrise.”

Jo. 1:16 Then they answered Joshua, “Whatever you have commanded us we will do, and wherever you send us we will go.

Jo. 1:17 Just as we fully obeyed Moses, so we will obey you. Only may the LORD your God be with you as he was with Moses.

Jo. 1:18 Whoever rebels against your word and does not obey your words, whatever you may command them, will be put to death. Only be strong and courageous!”

CHAPTER 2

Jo. 2:1 Then Joshua son of Nun secretly sent two spies from Shittim. “Go, look over the land,” he said, “especially Jericho.” So they went and entered the house of a prostitute named Rahab and stayed there.
The king of Jericho was told, “Look! Some of the Israelites have come here tonight to spy out the land.”

So the king of Jericho sent this message to Rahab: “Bring out the men who came to you and entered your house, because they have come to spy out the whole land.”

But the woman had taken the two men and hidden them. She said, “Yes, the men came to me, but I did not know where they had come from.

At dusk, when it was time to close the city gate, the men left. I don’t know which way they went. Go after them quickly. You may catch up with them.”

(But she had taken them up to the roof and hidden them under the stalks of flax she had laid out on the roof.)

So the men set out in pursuit of the spies on the road that leads to the fords of the Jordan, and as soon as the pursuers had gone out, the gate was shut.

Before the spies lay down for the night, she went up on the roof and said to them, “I know that the LORD has given this land to you and that a great fear of you has fallen on us, so that all who live in this country are melting in fear because of you.

We have heard how the LORD dried up the water of the Red Sea for you when you came out of Egypt, and what you did to Sihon and Og, the two kings of the Amorites east of the Jordan, whom you completely destroyed.

When we heard of it, our hearts sank and everyone’s courage failed because of you, for the LORD your God is God in heaven above and on the earth below.

Now then, please swear to me by the LORD that you will show kindness to my family, because I have shown kindness to you. Give me a sure sign that you will spare the lives of my father and mother, my brothers and sisters, and all who belong to them, and that you will save us from death.”

“Our lives for your lives!” the men assured her. “If you don’t tell what we are doing, we will treat you kindly and faithfully when the LORD gives us the land.”

So she let them down by a rope through the window, for the house she lived in was part of the city wall.

Now she had said to them, “Go to the hills so that the pursuers will not find you. Hide yourselves there three days until they return, and then go on your way.”

The men said to her, “This oath you made us swear will not be binding on us

unless, when we enter the land, you have tied this scarlet cord in the window through which you let us down, and unless you have brought your father and mother, your brothers and all your family into your house.

If anyone goes outside your house into the street, his blood will be on his own head; we will not be responsible. As for anyone who is in the house with you, his blood will be on our head if a hand is laid on him.

“Agreed,” she replied. “Let it be as you say.” So she sent them away and they departed. And she tied the scarlet cord in the window.

When they left, they went into the hills and stayed there three days, until the pursuers had searched all along the road and returned without finding them.

Then the two men started back. They went down out of the hills, forded the river and came to Joshua son of Nun and told him everything that had happened to them.
They said to Joshua, “The LORD has surely given the whole land into our hands; all the people are melting in fear because of us.”

CHAPTER 3

Early in the morning Joshua and all the Israelites set out from Shittim and went to the Jordan, where they camped before crossing over.

After three days the officers went throughout the camp, giving orders to the people: “When you see the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, and the priests, who are Levites, carrying it, you are to move out from your positions and follow it.

Then you will know which way to go, since you have never been this way before. But keep a distance of about a thousand yards between you and the ark; do not go near it.”

Joshua told the people, “Consecrate yourselves, for tomorrow the LORD will do amazing things among you.”

Joshua said to the priests, “Take up the ark of the covenant and pass on ahead of the people.” So they took it up and went ahead of them.

And the LORD said to Joshua, “Today I will begin to exalt you in the eyes of all Israel, so that they may know that I am with you as I was with Moses.

Tell the priests who carry the ark of the covenant: ‘When you reach the edge of the Jordan’s waters, go and stand in the river.’” Joshua said to the Israelites, “Come here and listen to the words of the LORD your God.

This is how you will know that the living God is among you and that he will certainly drive out before you the Canaanites, Hittites, Hivites, Perizzites, Girgashites, Amorites and Jebusites.

Jo. 3:11 See, the ark of the covenant of the Lord of all the earth will go into the Jordan ahead of you.

Jo. 3:12 Now then, choose twelve men from the tribes of Israel, one from each tribe.

Jo. 3:13 And as soon as the priests who carry the ark of the L ORD — the Lord of all the earth — set foot in the Jordan, its waters flowing downstream will be cut off and stand up in a heap.”

Jo. 3:14 So when the people broke camp to cross the Jordan, the priests carrying the ark of the covenant went ahead of them.

Jo. 3:15 Now the Jordan is in flood all during harvest. Yet as soon as the priests who carried the ark reached the Jordan and their feet touched the water’s edge, Jo. 3:16 the water from upstream stopped flowing. It piled up in a heap a great distance away, at a town called Adam in the vicinity of Zarethan, while the water flowing down to the Sea of the Arabah (the Salt Sea) was completely cut off. So the people crossed over opposite Jericho.

Jo. 3:17 The priests who carried the ark of the covenant of the L ORD stood firm on dry ground in the middle of the Jordan, while all Israel passed by until the whole nation had completed the crossing on dry ground.

CHAPTER 4

Jo. 4:1 When the whole nation had finished crossing the Jordan, the L ORD said to Joshua,

Jo. 4:2 “Choose twelve men from among the people, one from each tribe,

Jo. 4:3 and tell them to take up twelve stones from the middle of the Jordan from right where the priests stood and to carry them over with you and put them down at the place where you stay tonight.”

So Joshua called together the twelve men he had appointed from the Israelites, one from each tribe, and said to them, “Go over before the ark of the LORD your God into the middle of the Jordan. Each of you is to take up a stone on his shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of the Israelites, to serve as a sign among you. In the future, when your children ask you, ‘What do these stones mean?’

tell them that the flow of the Jordan was cut off before the ark of the covenant of the LORD. When it crossed the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan were cut off. These stones are to be a memorial to the people of Israel for ever.”

So the Israelites did as Joshua commanded them. They took twelve stones from the middle of the Jordan, according to the number of the tribes of the Israelites, as the LORD had told Joshua; and they carried them over with them to their camp, where they put them down.

Joshua set up the twelve stones that had been in the middle of the Jordan at the spot where the priests who carried the ark of the covenant had stood. And they are there to this day.

Now the priests who carried the ark remained standing in the middle of the Jordan until everything the LORD had commanded Joshua was done by the people, just as Moses had directed Joshua. The people hurried over, and as soon as all of them had crossed, the ark of the LORD and the priests came to the other side while the people watched.

The men of Reuben, Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh crossed over, armed, in front of the Israelites, as Moses had directed them.
Jo. 4:13 About forty thousand armed for battle crossed over before the LORD to the plains of Jericho for war.

Jo. 4:14 That day the LORD exalted Joshua in the sight of all Israel; and they revered him all the days of his life, just as they had revered Moses.

Jo. 4:15 Then the LORD said to Joshua,

Jo. 4:16 “Command the priests carrying the ark of the Testimony to come up out of the Jordan.”

Jo. 4:17 So Joshua commanded the priests, “Come up out of the Jordan.”

Jo. 4:18 And the priests came up out of the river carrying the ark of the covenant of the LORD. No sooner had they set their feet on the dry ground than the waters of the Jordan returned to their place and ran in flood as before.

Jo. 4:19 On the tenth day of the first month the people went up from the Jordan and camped at Gilgal on the eastern border of Jericho.

Jo. 4:20 And Joshua set up at Gilgal the twelve stones they had taken out of the Jordan.

Jo. 4:21 He said to the Israelites, “In the future when your descendants ask their fathers, `What do these stones mean?’

Jo. 4:22 tell them, `Israel crossed the Jordan on dry ground.’

Jo. 4:23 For the LORD your God dried up the Jordan before you until you had crossed over. The LORD your God did to the Jordan just what he had done to the Red Sea when he dried it up before us until we had crossed over.

Jo. 4:24 He did this so that all the peoples of the earth might know that the hand of the LORD is powerful and so that you might always fear the LORD your God.”
Jo. 5:1 Now when all the Amorite kings west of the Jordan and all the Canaanite kings along the coast heard how the LORD had dried up the Jordan before the Israelites until we had crossed over, their hearts sank and they no longer had the courage to face the Israelites.

Jo. 5:2 At that time the LORD said to Joshua, “Make flint knives and circumcise the Israelites again.”

Jo. 5:3 So Joshua made flint knives and circumcised the Israelites at Gibeath Haaraloth.

Jo. 5:4 Now this is why he did so: All those who came out of Egypt — all the men of military age — died in the desert on the way after leaving Egypt.

Jo. 5:5 All the people that came out had been circumcised, but all the people born in the desert during the journey from Egypt had not.

Jo. 5:6 The Israelites had moved about in the desert forty years until all the men who were of military age when they left Egypt had died, since they had not obeyed the LORD. For the LORD had sworn to them that they would not see the land that he had solemnly promised their fathers to give us, a land flowing with milk and honey.

Jo. 5:7 So he raised up their sons in their place, and these were the ones Joshua circumcised. They were still uncircumcised because they had not been circumcised on the way.

Jo. 5:8 And after the whole nation had been circumcised, they remained where they were in camp until they were healed.

Jo. 5:9 Then the LORD said to Joshua, “Today I have rolled away the reproach of Egypt from you.” So the place has been called Gilgal to this day.
On the evening of the fourteenth day of the month, while camped at Gilgal on the plains of Jericho, the Israelites celebrated the Passover.

The day after the Passover, that very day, they ate some of the produce of the land: unleavened bread and roasted grain.

The manna stopped the day after they ate this food from the land; there was no longer any manna for the Israelites, but that year they ate of the produce of Canaan.

Now when Joshua was near Jericho, he looked up and saw a man standing in front of him with a drawn sword in his hand. Joshua went up to him and asked, “Are you for us or for our enemies?”

“Neither,” he replied, “but as commander of the army of the LORD I have now come.” Then Joshua fell face down to the ground in reverence, and asked him, “What message does my Lord have for his servant?”

The commander of the LORD’s army replied, “Take off your sandals, for the place where you are standing is holy.” And Joshua did so.

CHAPTER 6

Now Jericho was tightly shut up because of the Israelites. No-one went out and no-one came in.

Then the LORD said to Joshua, “See, I have delivered Jericho into your hands, along with its king and its fighting men.

March around the city once with all the armed men. Do this for six days.

Make seven priests carry trumpets of rams’ horns in front of the ark. On the seventh day, march around the city seven times, with the priests blowing the trumpets.
Jo. 6:5 When you hear them sound a long blast on the trumpets, make all the people give a loud shout; then the wall of the city will collapse and the people will go up, every man straight in.”

Jo. 6:6 So Joshua son of Nun called the priests and said to them, “Take up the ark of the covenant of the LORD and make seven priests carry trumpets in front of it.”

Jo. 6:7 And he ordered the people, “Advance! March around the city, with the armed guard going ahead of the ark of the LORD.”

Jo. 6:8 When Joshua had spoken to the people, the seven priests carrying the seven trumpets before the LORD went forward, blowing their trumpets, and the ark of the LORD’s covenant followed them.

Jo. 6:9 The armed guard marched ahead of the priests who blew the trumpets, and the rear guard followed the ark. All this time the trumpets were sounding.

Jo. 6:10 But Joshua had commanded the people, “Do not give a war cry, do not raise your voices, do not say a word until the day I tell you to shout. Then shout!”

Jo. 6:11 So he had the ark of the LORD carried around the city, circling it once. Then the people returned to camp and spent the night there.

Jo. 6:12 Joshua got up early the next morning and the priests took up the ark of the LORD.

Jo. 6:13 The seven priests carrying the seven trumpets went forward, marching before the ark of the LORD and blowing the trumpets. The armed men went ahead of them and the rear guard followed the ark of the LORD, while the trumpets kept sounding.

Jo. 6:14 So on the second day they marched around the city once and returned to the camp. They did this for six days.
On the seventh day, they got up at daybreak and marched around the city seven times in the same manner, except that on that day they circled the city seven times.

The seventh time around, when the priests sounded the trumpet blast, Joshua commanded the people, “Shout! For the LORD has given you the city!

The city and all that is in it are to be devoted to the LORD. Only Rahab the prostitute and all who are with her in her house shall be spared, because she hid the spies we sent.

But keep away from the devoted things, so that you will not bring about your own destruction by taking any of them. Otherwise you will make the camp of Israel liable to destruction and bring trouble on it.

All the silver and gold and the articles of bronze and iron are sacred to the LORD and must go into his treasury.”

When the trumpets sounded, the people shouted, and at the sound of the trumpet, when the people gave a loud shout, the wall collapsed; so every man charged straight in, and they took the city.

They devoted the city to the LORD and destroyed with the sword every living thing in it — men and women, young and old, cattle, sheep and donkeys.

Joshua said to the two men who had spied out the land, “Go into the prostitute’s house and bring her out and all who belong to her, in accordance with your oath to her.”

So the young men who had done the spying went in and brought out Rahab, her father and mother and brothers and all who belonged to her. They brought out her entire family and put them in a place outside the camp of Israel.

Then they burned the whole city and everything in it, but they put the silver and gold and the articles of bronze and iron into the treasury of the LORD’s house.
But Joshua spared Rahab the prostitute, with her family and all who belonged to her, because she hid the men Joshua had sent as spies to Jericho — and she lives among the Israelites to this day.

At that time Joshua pronounced this solemn oath: “Cursed before the LORD is the man who undertakes to rebuild this city, Jericho: “At the cost of his firstborn son will he lay its foundations; at the cost of his youngest will he set up its gates.”

So the LORD was with Joshua, and his fame spread throughout the land.

CHAPTER 7

But the Israelites acted unfaithfully in regard to the devoted things; Achan son of Carmi, the son of Zimri, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took some of them. So the LORD’s anger burned against Israel.

Now Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, which is near Beth Aven to the east of Bethel, and told them, “Go up and spy out the region.” So the men went up and spied out Ai.

When they returned to Joshua, they said, “Not all the people will have to go up against Ai. Send two or three thousand men to take it and do not weary all the people, for only a few men are there.”

So about three thousand men went up; but they were routed by the men of Ai, who killed about thirty-six of them. They chased the Israelites from the city gate as far as the stone quarries and struck them down on the slopes. At this the hearts of the people melted and became like water.

Then Joshua tore his clothes and fell face down to the ground before the ark of the LORD, remaining there till evening. The elders of Israel did the same, and sprinkled dust on their heads.

Jo. 7:7 And Joshua said, “Ah, Sovereign LORD, why did you ever bring this people across the Jordan to deliver us into the hands of the Amorites to destroy us? If only we had been content to stay on the other side of the Jordan!

Jo. 7:8 Lord, what can I say, now that Israel has been routed by its enemies?

Jo. 7:9 The Canaanites and the other people of the country will hear about this and they will surround us and wipe out our name from the earth. What then will you do for your own great name?”

Jo. 7:10 The LORD said to Joshua, “Stand up! What are you doing down on your face?

Jo. 7:11 Israel has sinned; they have violated my covenant, which I commanded them to keep. They have taken some of the devoted things; they have stolen, they have lied, they have put them with their own possessions.

Jo. 7:12 That is why the Israelites cannot stand against their enemies; they turn their backs and run because they have been made liable to destruction. I will not be with you any more unless you destroy whatever among you is devoted to destruction.

Jo. 7:13 “Go, consecrate the people. Tell them, ‘Consecrate yourselves in preparation for tomorrow; for this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: That which is devoted is among you, O Israel. You cannot stand against your enemies until you remove it.

Jo. 7:14 “In the morning, present yourselves tribe by tribe. The tribe that the LORD takes shall come forward clan by clan; the clan that the LORD takes shall come forward family by family; and the family that the LORD takes shall come forward man by man.

Jo. 7:15 He who is caught with the devoted things shall be destroyed by fire, along with all that belongs to him. He has violated the covenant of the LORD and has done a disgraceful thing in Israel!”

Jo. 7:16 Early the next morning Joshua had Israel come forward by tribes, and Judah was taken.

Jo. 7:17 The clans of Judah came forward, and he took the Zerahites. He had the clan of the Zerahites come forward by families, and Zimri was taken.

Jo. 7:18 Joshua had his family come forward man by man, and Achan son of Carmi, the son of Zimri, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, was taken.

Jo. 7:19 Then Joshua said to Achan, “My son, give glory to the LORD, the God of Israel, and give him the praise. Tell me what you have done; do not hide it from me.”

Jo. 7:20 Achan replied, “It is true! I have sinned against the LORD, the God of Israel. This is what I have done:

Jo. 7:21 When I saw in the plunder a beautiful robe from Babylonia, two hundred shekels of silver and a wedge of gold weighing fifty shekels, I coveted them and took them. They are hidden in the ground inside my tent, with the silver underneath.”

Jo. 7:22 So Joshua sent messengers, and they ran to the tent, and there it was, hidden in his tent, with the silver underneath.

Jo. 7:23 They took the things from the tent, brought them to Joshua and all the Israelites and spread them out before the LORD.

Jo. 7:24 Then Joshua, together with all Israel, took Achan son of Zerah, the silver, the robe, the gold wedge, his sons and daughters, his cattle, donkeys and sheep, his tent and all that he had, to the Valley of Achor.

Jo. 7:25 Joshua said, “Why have you brought this trouble on us? The LORD will bring trouble on you today.” Then all Israel stoned him, and after they had stoned the rest, they burned them.

Jo. 7:26 Over Achan they heaped up a large pile of rocks, which remains to this day. Then the LORD turned from his fierce anger. Therefore that place has been called the Valley of Achor ever since.

CHAPTER 8

Jo. 8:1 Then the LORD said to Joshua, “Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged. Take the whole army with you, and go up and attack Ai. For I have delivered into your hands the king of Ai, his people, his city and his land.

Jo. 8:2 You shall do to Ai and its king as you did to Jericho and its king, except that you may carry off their plunder and livestock for yourselves. Set an ambush behind the city.”

Jo. 8:3 So Joshua and the whole army moved out to attack Ai. He chose thirty thousand of his best fighting men and sent them out at night with these orders: “Listen carefully. You are to set an ambush behind the city. Don’t go very far from it. All of you be on the alert.

Jo. 8:5 I and all those with me will advance on the city, and when the men come out against us, as they did before, we will flee from them.

Jo. 8:6 They will pursue us until we have lured them away from the city, for they will say, ´They are running away from us as they did before.’ So when we flee from them, you are to rise up from ambush and take the city. The LORD your God will give it into your hand.

Jo. 8:8 When you have taken the city, set it on fire. Do what the LORD has commanded. See to it; you have my orders.”

Jo. 8:9 Then Joshua sent them off, and they went to the place of ambush and lay in wait between Bethel and Ai, to the west of Ai — but Joshua spent that night with the people.

Jo. 8:10 Early the next morning Joshua mustered his men, and he and the leaders of Israel marched before them to Ai.
The entire force that was with him marched up and approached the city and arrived in front of it. They set up camp north of Ai, with the valley between them and the city.

Joshua had taken about five thousand men and set them in ambush between Bethel and Ai, to the west of the city.

They had the soldiers take up their positions — all those in the camp to the north of the city and the ambush to the west of it. That night Joshua went into the valley.

When the king of Ai saw this, he and all the men of the city hurried out early in the morning to meet Israel in battle at a certain place overlooking the Arabah. But he did not know that an ambush had been set against him behind the city.

Joshua and all Israel let themselves be driven back before them, and they fled towards the desert.

All the men of Ai were called to pursue them, and they pursued Joshua and were lured away from the city.

Not a man remained in Ai or Bethel who did not go after Israel. They left the city open and went in pursuit of Israel.

Then the LORD said to Joshua, “Hold out towards Ai the javelin that is in your hand, for into your hand I will deliver the city.” So Joshua held out his javelin towards Ai.

As soon as he did this, the men in the ambush rose quickly from their position and rushed forward. They entered the city and captured it and quickly set it on fire.

The men of Ai looked back and saw the smoke of the city rising against the sky, but they had no chance to escape in any direction, for the Israelites who had been fleeing towards the desert had turned back against their pursuers.

For when Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had taken the city and that smoke was going up from the city, they turned round and attacked the men of Ai.

The men of the ambush also came out of the city against them, so that they were caught in the middle, with Israelites... on both sides. Israel cut them down, leaving them neither survivors nor fugitives.

Jo. 8:23 But they took the king of Ai alive and brought him to Joshua.

Jo. 8:24 When Israel had finished killing all the men of Ai in the fields and in the desert where they had chased them, and when every one of them had been put to the sword, all the Israelites returned to Ai and killed those who were in it.

Jo. 8:25 Twelve thousand men and women fell that day — all the people of Ai.

Jo. 8:26 For Joshua did not draw back the hand that held out his javelin until he had destroyed all who lived in Ai.

Jo. 8:27 But Israel did carry off for themselves the livestock and plunder of this city, as the LORD had instructed Joshua.

Jo. 8:28 So Joshua burned Ai and made it a permanent heap of ruins, a desolate place to this day.

Jo. 8:29 He hung the king of Ai on a tree and left him there until evening. At sunset, Joshua ordered them to take his body from the tree and throw it down at the entrance of the city gate. And they raised a large pile of rocks over it, which remains to this day.

Jo. 8:30 Then Joshua built on Mount Ebal an altar to the LORD, the God of Israel,

Jo. 8:31 as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded the Israelites. He built it according to what is written in the Book of the Law of Moses — an altar of uncut stones, on which no iron tool had been used. On it they offered to the LORD burnt offerings and sacrificed fellowship offerings.

Jo. 8:32 There, in the presence of the Israelites, Joshua copied on stones the law of Moses, which he had written.

Jo. 8:33 All Israel, aliens and citizens alike, with their elders, officials and judges, were standing on both sides of the ark of the covenant of the LORD, facing those who carried it — the priests, who were Levites. Half of the people stood in front of Mount Gerizim and half of them in front of Mount Ebal, as Moses the servant of the LORD had formerly commanded when he gave instructions to bless the people of Israel.

Jo. 8:34 Afterwards, Joshua read all the words of the law — the blessings and the curses — just as it is written in the Book of the Law.

Jo. 8:35 There was not a word of all that Moses had commanded that Joshua did not read to the whole assembly of Israel, including the women and children, and the aliens who lived among them.

CHAPTER 9

Jo. 9:1 Now when all the kings west of the Jordan heard about these things — those in the hill country, in the western foothills, and along the entire coast of the Great Sea as far as Lebanon (the kings of the Hittites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites) —

Jo. 9:2 they came together to make war against Joshua and Israel.

Jo. 9:3 However, when the people of Gibeon heard what Joshua had done to Jericho and Ai,

Jo. 9:4 they resorted to a ruse: They went as a delegation whose donkeys were loaded with worn-out sacks and old wineskins, cracked and mended.

Jo. 9:5 The men put worn and patched sandals on their feet and wore old clothes. All the bread of their food supply was dry and mouldy.

Jo. 9:6 Then they went to Joshua in the camp at Gilgal and said to him and the men of Israel, “We have come from a distant country; make a treaty with us.”

Jo. 9:7 The men of Israel said to the Hivites, “But perhaps you live near us. How then can we make a treaty with you?”
“We are your servants,” they said to Joshua. But Joshua asked, “Who are you and where do you come from?”

They answered: “Your servants have come from a very distant country because of the fame of the LORD your God. For we have heard reports of him: all that he did in Egypt, and all that he did to the two kings of the Amorites east of the Jordan — Sihon king of Heshbon, and Og king of Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth.

And our elders and all those living in our country said to us, ‘Take provisions for your journey; go and meet them and say to them, “We are your servants; make a treaty with us.”’

This bread of ours was warm when we packed it at home on the day we left to come to you. But now see how dry and mouldy it is.

And these wineskins that we filled were new, but see how cracked they are. And our clothes and sandals are worn out by the very long journey.”

The men of Israel sampled their provisions but did not enquire of the LORD.

Then Joshua made a treaty of peace with them to let them live, and the leaders of the assembly ratified it by oath.

Three days after they made the treaty with the Gibeonites, the Israelites heard that they were neighbours, living near them.

But the Israelites did not attack them, because the leaders of the assembly had sworn an oath to them by the LORD, the God of Israel. The whole assembly grumbled against the leaders, but all the leaders answered, “We have given them our oath by the LORD, the God of Israel, and we cannot touch them now.

This is what we will do to them: We will let them live, so that wrath will not fall on us for breaking the oath we swore to them.”

They continued, “Let them live, but let them be woodcutters and water-carriers for the entire community.” So the leaders’ promise to them was kept.

Then Joshua summoned the Gibeonites and said, “Why did you deceive us by saying, ‘We live a long way from you,’ while actually you live near us?

You are now under a curse: You will never cease to serve as woodcutters and water-carriers for the house of my God.”

They answered Joshua, “Your servants were clearly told how the LORD your God had commanded his servant Moses to give you the whole land and to wipe out all its inhabitants from before you. So we feared for our lives because of you, and that is why we did this.

We are now in your hands. Do to us whatever seems good and right to you.”

So Joshua saved them from the Israelites, and they did not kill them.

That day he made the Gibeonites woodcutters and water-carriers for the community and for the altar of the LORD at the place the LORD would choose. And that is what they are to this day.

CHAPTER 10

Now Adoni-Zedek king of Jerusalem heard that Joshua had taken Ai and totally destroyed it, doing to Ai and its king as he had done to Jericho and its king, and that the people of Gibeon had made a treaty of peace with Israel and were living near them.
Jo. 10:2 He and his people were very much alarmed at this, because Gibeon was an important city, like one of the royal cities; it was larger than Ai, and all its men were good fighters.

Jo. 10:3 So Adoni-Zedek king of Jerusalem appealed to Hoham king of Hebron, Piram king of Jarmuth, Japhia king of Lachish and Debir king of Eglon.

Jo. 10:4 “Come up and help me attack Gibeon,” he said, “because it has made peace with Joshua and the Israelites.”

Jo. 10:5 Then the five kings of the Amorites — the kings of Jerusalem, Hebron, Jarmuth, Lachish and Eglon — joined forces. They moved up with all their troops and took up positions against Gibeon and attacked it.

Jo. 10:6 The Gibeonites then sent word to Joshua in the camp at Gilgal: “Do not abandon your servants. Come up to us quickly and save us! Help us, because all the Amorite kings from the hill country have joined forces against us.”

Jo. 10:7 So Joshua marched up from Gilgal with his entire army, including all the best fighting men.

Jo. 10:8 The LORD said to Joshua, “Do not be afraid of them; I have given them into your hand. Not one of them will be able to withstand you.”

Jo. 10:9 After an all-night march from Gilgal, Joshua took them by surprise.

Jo. 10:10 The LORD threw them into confusion before Israel, who defeated them in a great victory at Gibeon. Israel pursued them along the road going up to Beth Horon and cut them down all the way to Azekah and Makkedah.

Jo. 10:11 As they fled before Israel on the road down from Beth Horon to Azekah, the LORD hurled large hailstones down on them from the sky, and more of them died from the hailstones than were killed by the swords of the Israelites.
On the day the LORD gave the Amorites over to Israel, Joshua said to the LORD in the presence of Israel: “O sun, stand still over Gibeon, O moon, over the Valley of Aijalon.”

So the sun stood still, and the moon stopped, till the nation avenged itself on its enemies, as it is written in the Book of Jashar. The sun stopped in the middle of the sky and delayed going down about a full day.

There has never been a day like it before or since, a day when the LORD listened to a man. Surely the LORD was fighting for Israel!

Then Joshua returned with all Israel to the camp at Gilgal.

Now the five kings had fled and hidden in the cave at Makkedah.

When Joshua was told that the five kings had been found hiding in the cave at Makkedah, he said, “Roll large rocks up to the mouth of the cave, and post some men there to guard it.”

But don’t stop! Pursue your enemies, attack them from the rear and don’t let them reach their cities, for the LORD your God has given them into your hand.”

So Joshua and the Israelites destroyed them completely — almost to a man — but the few who were left reached their fortified cities.

The whole army then returned safely to Joshua in the camp at Makkedah, and no-one uttered a word against the Israelites.

Joshua said, “Open the mouth of the cave and bring those five kings out to me.”

So they brought the five kings out of the cave — the kings of Jerusalem, Hebron, Jarmuth, Lachish and Eglon.

When they had brought these kings to Joshua, he summoned all the men of Israel and said to the army commanders who had come with him, “Come here and put your feet on the necks of these kings.” So they came forward and placed their feet on their necks.

Joshua said to them, “Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged. Be strong and courageous. This is what the LORD will do to all the enemies you are going to fight.”

Then Joshua struck and killed the kings and hung them on five trees, and they were left hanging on the trees until evening.

At sunset Joshua gave the order and they took them down from the trees and threw them into the cave where they had been hiding. At the mouth of the cave they placed large rocks, which are there to this day.

That day Joshua took Makkedah. He put the city and its king to the sword and totally destroyed everyone in it. He left no survivors. And he did to the king of Makkedah as he had done to the king of Jericho.

Then Joshua and all Israel with him moved on from Makkedah to Libnah and attacked it.

The LORD also gave that city and its king into Israel’s hand. The city and everyone in it Joshua put to the sword. He left no survivors there. And he did to its king as he had done to the king of Jericho.

Then Joshua and all Israel with him moved on from Libnah to Lachish; he took up positions against it and attacked it.

The LORD handed Lachish over to Israel, and Joshua took it on the second day. The city and everyone in it he put to the sword, just as he had done to Libnah.

Meanwhile, Horam king of Gezer had come up to help Lachish, but Joshua defeated him and his army — until no survivors were left.

Then Joshua and all Israel with him moved on from Lachish to Eglon; they took up positions against it and attacked it.
They captured it that same day and put it to the sword and totally destroyed everyone in it, just as they had done to Lachish.

Then Joshua and all Israel with him went up from Eglon to Hebron and attacked it.

They took the city and put it to the sword, together with its king, its villages and everyone in it. They left no survivors. Just as at Eglon, they totally destroyed it and everyone in it.

Then Joshua and all Israel with him turned round and attacked Debir.

They took the city, its king and its villages, and put them to the sword. Everyone in it they totally destroyed. They left no survivors. They did to Debir and its king as they had done to Libnah and its king and to Hebron.

So Joshua subdued the whole region, including the hill country, the Negev, the western foothills and the mountain slopes, together with all their kings. He left no survivors. He totally destroyed all who breathed, just as the LORD, the God of Israel, had commanded.

Joshua subdued them from Kadesh Barnea to Gaza and from the whole region of Goshen to Gibeon.

All these kings and their lands Joshua conquered in one campaign, because the LORD, the God of Israel, fought for Israel.

Then Joshua returned with all Israel to the camp at Gilgal.

CHAPTER 11

When Jabin king of Hazor heard of this, he sent word to Jobab king of Madon, to the kings of Shimron and Acshaph, and to the northern kings who were in the mountains, in the Arabah south of Kinnereth, in the western foothills and in Naphoth Dor on the west;
Jo. 11:3 to the Canaanites in the east and west; to the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites and Jebusites in the hill country; and to the Hivites below Hermon in the region of Mizpah.

Jo. 11:4 They came out with all their troops and a large number of horses and chariots — a huge army, as numerous as the sand on the seashore.

Jo. 11:5 All these kings joined forces and made camp together at the Waters of Merom, to fight against Israel.

Jo. 11:6 The LORD said to Joshua, “Do not be afraid of them, because by this time tomorrow I will hand all of them over to Israel, slain. You are to hamstring their horses and burn their chariots.”

Jo. 11:7 So Joshua and his whole army came against them suddenly at the Waters of Merom and attacked them,

Jo. 11:8 and the LORD gave them into the hand of Israel. They defeated them and pursued them all the way to Greater Sidon, to Misrephoth Maim, and to the Valley of Mizpah on the east, until no survivors were left.

Jo. 11:9 Joshua did to them as the LORD had directed: He hamstrung their horses and burned their chariots.

Jo. 11:10 At that time Joshua turned back and captured Hazor and put its king to the sword. (Hazor had been the head of all these kingdoms.)

Jo. 11:11 Everyone in it they put to the sword. They totally destroyed them, not sparing anything that breathed, and he burned up Hazor itself.

Jo. 11:12 Joshua took all these royal cities and their kings and put them to the sword. He totally destroyed them, as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded.

Jo. 11:13 Yet Israel did not burn any of the cities built on their mounds — except Hazor, which Joshua burned.

Jo. 11:14 The Israelites carried off for themselves all the plunder and livestock of these cities, but all the people they put to the sword until they completely destroyed them, not sparing anyone that breathed.

Jo. 11:15 As the LORD commanded his servant Moses, so Moses commanded Joshua, and Joshua did it; he left nothing undone of all that the LORD commanded Moses.

Jo. 11:16 So Joshua took this entire land: the hill country, all the Negev, the whole region of Goshen, the western foothills, the Arabah and the mountains of Israel with their foothills,

Jo. 11:17 from Mount Halak, which rises towards Seir, to Baal Gad in the Valley of Lebanon below Mount Hermon. He captured all their kings and struck them down, putting them to death.

Jo. 11:18 Joshua waged war against all these kings for a long time.

Jo. 11:19 Except for the Hivites living in Gibeon, not one city made a treaty of peace with the Israelites, who took them all in battle.

Jo. 11:20 For it was the LORD himself who hardened their hearts to wage war against Israel, so that he might destroy them totally, exterminating them without mercy, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Jo. 11:21 At that time Joshua went and destroyed the Anakites from the hill country: from Hebron, Debir and Anab, from all the hill country of Judah, and from all the hill country of Israel. Joshua totally destroyed them and their towns.

Jo. 11:22 No Anakites were left in Israelite territory; only in Gaza, Gath and Ashdod did any survive.

Jo. 11:23 So Joshua took the entire land, just as the LORD had directed Moses, and he gave it as an inheritance to Israel according to their tribal divisions. Then the land had rest from war.
CHAPTER 12

Jo. 12:1 These are the kings of the land whom the Israelites had defeated and whose territory they took over east of the Jordan, from the Arnon Gorge to Mount Hermon, including all the eastern side of the Arabah:

Jo. 12:2 Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon. He ruled from Aroer on the rim of the Arnon Gorge — from the middle of the gorge — to the Jabbok River, which is the border of the Ammonites. This included half of Gilead.

Jo. 12:3 He also ruled over the eastern Arabah from the Sea of Kinnereth to the Sea of the Arabah (the Salt Sea), to Beth Jeshimoth, and then southward below the slopes of Pisgah.

Jo. 12:4 And the territory of Og king of Bashan, one of the last of the Rephaites, who reigned in Ashtaroth and Edrei.

Jo. 12:5 He ruled over Mount Hermon, Salecah, all of Bashan to the border of the people of Geshur and Maacah, and half of Gilead to the border of Sihon king of Heshbon.

Jo. 12:6 Moses, the servant of the LORD, and the Israelites conquered them. And Moses the servant of the LORD gave their land to the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh to be their possession.

Jo. 12:7 These are the kings of the land that Joshua and the Israelites conquered on the west side of the Jordan, from Baal Gad in the Valley of Lebanon to Mount Halak, which rises towards Seir (their lands Joshua gave as an inheritance to the tribes of Israel according to their tribal divisions —

Jo. 12:8 the hill country, the western foothills, the Arabah, the mountain slopes, the desert and the Negev — the lands of the Hittites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites):

Jo. 12:9 the king of Jericho one the king of Ai (near Bethel) one

Jo. 12:10 the king of Jerusalem one the king of Hebron one
Jo. 12:11  the king of Jarmuth one the king of Lachish one
Jo. 12:12  the king of Eglon one the king of Gezer one
Jo. 12:13  the king of Debir one the king of Geder one
Jo. 12:14  the king of Hormah one the king of Arad one
Jo. 12:15  the king of Libnah one the king of Adullam one
Jo. 12:16  the king of Makkedah one the king of Bethel one
Jo. 12:17  the king of Tappuah one the king of Heper one
Jo. 12:18  the king of Aphek one the king of Lasharon one
Jo. 12:19  the king of Madon one the king of Hazor one
Jo. 12:20  the king of Shimron Meron one the king of Acshaph one
Jo. 12:21  the king of Taanach one the king of Megiddo one
Jo. 12:22  the king of Kedesh one the king of Jokneam in Carmel one
Jo. 12:23  the king of Dor (in Naphoth Dor) one the king of Goyim in Gilgal one
Jo. 12:24  the king of Tirzah one thirty-one kings in all.

CHAPTER 13

Jo. 13:1  When Joshua was old and well advanced in years, the LORD said to him, “You are very old, and there are still very large areas of land to be taken over.

Jo. 13:2  “This is the land that remains: all the regions of the Philistines and Geshurites:

Jo. 13:3  from the Shihor River on the east of Egypt to the territory of Ekron on the north, all of it counted as Canaanite (the territory of the five Philistine rulers in Gaza, Ashdod, Ashkelon, Gath and Ekron — that of the Avvites);

Jo. 13:4  from the south, all the land of the Canaanites, from Arah of the Sidonians as far as Aphek, the region of the Amorites, the area of the Gebalites; and all Lebanon to the east, from Baal Gad below Mount Hermon to Lebo Hamath.

"As for all the inhabitants of the mountain regions from Lebanon to Misrephoth Maim, that is, all the Sidonians, I myself will drive them out before the Israelites. Be sure to allocate this land to Israel for an inheritance, as I have instructed you, and divide it as an inheritance among the nine tribes and half of the tribe of Manasseh.”

The other half of Manasseh, the Reubenites and the Gadites had received the inheritance that Moses had given them east of the Jordan, as he, the servant of the LORD, had assigned it to them.

It extended from Aroer on the rim of the Arnon Gorge, and from the town in the middle of the gorge, and included the whole plateau of Medeba as far as Dibon, and all the towns of Sihon king of the Amorites, who ruled in Heshbon, out to the border of the Ammonites.

It also included Gilead, the territory of the people of Geshur and Maacah, all of Mount Hermon and all Bashan as far as Salecah — that is, the whole kingdom of Og in Bashan, who had reigned in Ashtaroth and Edrei and had survived as one of the last of the Rephaites. Moses had defeated them and taken over their land.

But the Israelites did not drive out the people of Geshur and Maacah, so they continue to live among the Israelites to this day.

But to the tribe of Levi he gave no inheritance, since the offerings made by fire to the LORD, the God of Israel, are their inheritance, as he promised them.

This is what Moses had given to the tribe of Reuben, clan by clan:
The territory from Aroer on the rim of the Arnon Gorge, and from the town in the middle of the gorge, and the whole plateau past Medeba to Heshbon and all its towns on the plateau, including Dibon, Bamoth Baal, Beth Baal Meon, Jahaz, Kedemoth, Mephaath, Kiriathaim, Sibmah, Zereth Shahar on the hill in the valley, Beth Peor, the slopes of Pisgah, and Beth Jeshimoth — all the towns on the plateau and the entire realm of Sihon king of the Amorites, who ruled at Heshbon. Moses had defeated him and the Midianite chiefs, Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur and Reba — princes allied with Sihon — who lived in that country.

In addition to those slain in battle, the Israelites had put to the sword Balaam son of Beor, who practised divination. The boundary of the Reubenites was the bank of the Jordan. These towns and their villages were the inheritance of the Reubenites, clan by clan.

This is what Moses had given to the tribe of Gad, clan by clan:

The territory of Jazer, all the towns of Gilead and half the Ammonite country as far as Aroer, near Rabbah; and from Heshbon to Ramath Mizpah and Betonim, and from Mahanaim to the territory of Debir; and in the valley, Beth Haram, Beth Nimrah, Succoth and Zaphon with the rest of the realm of Sihon king of Heshbon (the east side of the Jordan, the territory up to the end of the Sea of Kinnereth).

These towns and their villages were the inheritance of the Gadites, clan by clan.
Jo. 13:29 This is what Moses had given to the half-tribe of Manasseh, that is, to half the family of the descendants of Manasseh, clan by clan:

Jo. 13:30 The territory extending from Mahanaim and including all of Bashan, the entire realm of Og king of Bashan — all the settlements of Jair in Bashan, sixty towns,

Jo. 13:31 half of Gilead, and Ashtaroth and Edrei (the royal cities of Og in Bashan). This was for the descendants of Makir son of Manasseh — for half of the sons of Makir, clan by clan.

Jo. 13:32 This is the inheritance Moses had given when he was in the plains of Moab across the Jordan east of Jericho.

Jo. 13:33 But to the tribe of Levi, Moses had given no inheritance; the LORD, the God of Israel, is their inheritance, as he promised them.

CHAPTER 14

Jo. 14:1 Now these are the areas the Israelites received as an inheritance in the land of Canaan, which Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun and the heads of the tribal clans of Israel allotted to them.

Jo. 14:2 Their inheritances were assigned by lot to the nine-and-a-half tribes, as the LORD had commanded through Moses.

Jo. 14:3 Moses had granted the two-and-a-half tribes their inheritance east of the Jordan but had not granted the Levites an inheritance among the rest,

Jo. 14:4 for the sons of Joseph had become two tribes — Manasseh and Ephraim. The Levites received no share of the land but only towns to live in, with pasture-lands for their flocks and herds.

Jo. 14:5 So the Israelites divided the land, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.
Jo. 14:6 Now the men of Judah approached Joshua at Gilgal, and Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite said to him, “You know what the LORD said to Moses the man of God at Kadesh Barnea about you and me.

Jo. 14:7 I was forty years old when Moses the servant of the LORD sent me from Kadesh Barnea to explore the land. And I brought him back a report according to my convictions, Jo. 14:8 but my brothers who went up with me made the hearts of the people sink. I, however, followed the LORD my God wholeheartedly.

Jo. 14:9 So on that day Moses swore to me, ‘The land on which your feet have walked will be your inheritance and that of your children for ever, because you have followed the LORD my God wholeheartedly.’

Jo. 14:10 “Now then, just as the LORD promised, he has kept me alive for forty-five years since the time he said this to Moses, while Israel moved about in the desert. So here I am today, eighty-five years old!

Jo. 14:11 I am still as strong today as the day Moses sent me out; I’m just as vigorous to go out to battle now as I was then.

Jo. 14:12 Now give me this hill country that the LORD promised me that day. You yourself heard then that the Anakites were there and their cities were large and fortified, but, the LORD helping me, I will drive them out just as he said.”

Jo. 14:13 Then Joshua blessed Caleb son of Jephunneh and gave him Hebron as his inheritance.

Jo. 14:14 So Hebron has belonged to Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite ever since, because he followed the LORD, the God of Israel, wholeheartedly.

Jo. 14:15 (Hebron used to be called Kiriath Arba after Arba, who was the greatest man among the Anakites.) Then the land had rest from war.
CHAPTER 15

Jo. 15:1 The allotment for the tribe of Judah, clan by clan, extended down to the territory of Edom, to the Desert of Zin in the extreme south.

Jo. 15:2 Their southern boundary started from the bay at the southern end of the Salt Sea,

Jo. 15:3 crossed south of Scorpion Pass, continued on to Zin and went over to the south of Kadesh Barnea. Then it ran past Hezron up to Addar and curved around to Karka.

Jo. 15:4 It then passed along to Azmon and joined the Wadi of Egypt, ending at the sea. This is their southern boundary.

Jo. 15:5 The eastern boundary is the Salt Sea as far as the mouth of the Jordan. The northern boundary started from the bay of the sea at the mouth of the Jordan, Jo. 15:6 went up to Beth Hoglah and continued north of Beth Arabah to the Stone of Bohan son of Reuben.

Jo. 15:7 The boundary then went up to Debir from the Valley of Achor and turned north to Gilgal, which faces the Pass of Adummim south of the gorge. It continued along to the waters of En Shemesh and came out at En Rogel.

Jo. 15:8 Then it ran up the Valley of Ben Hinnom along the southern slope of the Jebusite city (that is, Jerusalem). From there it climbed to the top of the hill west of the Hinnom Valley at the northern end of the Valley of Rephaim.

Jo. 15:9 From the hilltop the boundary headed towards the spring of the waters of Nephtoah, came out at the towns of Mount Ephron and went down towards Baalah (that is, Kiriath Jearim).

Jo. 15:10 Then it curved westward from Baalah to Mount Seir, ran along the northern slope of Mount Jearim (that is, Kesalon), continued down to Beth Shemesh and crossed to Timnah.
Jo. 15:11 It went to the northern slope of Ekron, turned towards Shikkeron, passed along to Mount Baalah and reached Jabneel. The boundary ended at the sea.

Jo. 15:12 The western boundary is the coastline of the Great Sea. These are the boundaries around the people of Judah by their clans.

Jo. 15:13 In accordance with the LORD’s command to him, Joshua gave to Caleb son of Jephunneh a portion in Judah — Kiriath Arba, that is, Hebron. (Arba was the forefather of Anak.)

Jo. 15:14 From Hebron Caleb drove out the three Anakites — Sheshai, Ahiman and Talmai — descendants of Anak.

Jo. 15:15 From there he marched against the people living in Debir (formerly called Kiriath Sepher).

Jo. 15:16 And Caleb said, “I will give my daughter Acsah in marriage to the man who attacks and captures Kiriath Sepher.”

Jo. 15:17 Othniel son of Kenaz, Caleb’s brother, took it; so Caleb gave his daughter Acsah to him in marriage.

Jo. 15:18 One day when she came to Othniel, she urged him to ask her father for a field. When she got off her donkey, Caleb asked her, “What can I do for you?”

Jo. 15:19 She replied, “Do me a special favour. Since you have given me land in the Negev, give me also springs of water.” So Caleb gave her the upper and lower springs.

Jo. 15:20 This is the inheritance of the tribe of Judah, clan by clan:

Jo. 15:21 The southernmost towns of the tribe of Judah in the Negev towards the boundary of Edom were: Kabzeel, Eder, Jagur, Kinah, Dimonah, Adadah,

Jo. 15:22 Kedesh, Hazor, Ithnan,

Jo. 15:23 Ziph, Telem, Bealoth,

Jo. 15:24 Hazor Hadattah, Kerioth Hezron (that is, Hazor),

Jo. 15:25 Amam, Shema, Moladah,
Hazrat Gaddah, Heshmon, Beth Pelet, Hazar Shual, Beersheba, Biziothiah, towns and their villages.

In the western foothills: Eshtaol, Zorah, Ashnah, Zanoah, En Gannim, Tappuah, Enam,

Ekron, with its surrounding settlements and villages;
west of Ekron, all that were in the vicinity of Ashdod, together with their villages;
Ashdod, its surrounding settlements and villages; and Gaza, its settlements and villages, as far as the Wadi of Egypt and the coastline of the Great Sea.
Jo. 15:48 In the hill country: Shamir, Jattir, Socoh,
Jo. 15:49 Dannah, Kiriath Sannah (that is, Debir),
Jo. 15:50 Anab, Eshtemoh, Anim,
Jo. 15:51 Goshen, Holon and Giloh — eleven towns and their villages.
Jo. 15:52 Arab, Dumah, Eshan,
Jo. 15:53 Janim, Beth Tappuah, Aphekah,
Jo. 15:54 Humtah, Kiriath Arba (that is, Hebron) and Zior — nine towns and their villages.
Jo. 15:55 Maon, Carmel, Ziph, Juttah,
Jo. 15:56 Jezreel, Jokdeam, Zanoah,
Jo. 15:57 Kain, Gibeah and Timnah — ten towns and their villages.
Jo. 15:58 Halhul, Beth Zur, Gedor,
Jo. 15:59 Maarath, Beth Anoth and Eltekon — six towns and their villages.
Jo. 15:60 Kiriath Baal (that is, Kiriath Jearim) and Rabbah — two towns and their villages.
Jo. 15:61 In the desert: Beth Arabah, Middin, Secacah,
Jo. 15:62 Nibshan, the City of Salt and En Gedi — six towns and their villages.
Jo. 15:63 Judah could not dislodge the Jebusites, who were living in Jerusalem; to this day the Jebusites live there with the people of Judah.

CHAPTER 16

Jo. 16:1 The allotment for Joseph began at the Jordan of Jericho, east of the waters of Jericho, and went up from there through the desert into the hill country of Bethel.
Jo. 16:2 It went on from Bethel (that is, Luz), crossed over to the territory of the Arkites in Ataroth, Jo. 16:3 descended westward to the territory of the Japhletites as far as the region of Lower Beth Horon and on to Gezer, ending at the sea.

Jo. 16:4 So Manasseh and Ephraim, the descendants of Joseph, received their inheritance.

Jo. 16:5 This was the territory of Ephraim, clan by clan: The boundary of their inheritance went from Ataroth Addar in the east to Upper Beth Horon

Jo. 16:6 and continued to the sea. From Micmethath on the north it curved eastward to Taanath Shiloh, passing by it to Janoah on the east.

Jo. 16:7 Then it went down from Janoah to Ataroth and Naarah, touched Jericho and came out at the Jordan.

Jo. 16:8 From Tappuah the border went west to the Kanah Ravine and ended at the sea. This was the inheritance of the tribe of the Ephraimites, clan by clan.

Jo. 16:9 It also included all the towns and their villages that were set aside for the Ephraimites within the inheritance of the Manassites.

Jo. 16:10 They did not dislodge the Canaanites living in Gezer; to this day the Canaanites live among the people of Ephraim but are required to do forced labour.

CHAPTER 17

Jo. 17:1 This was the allotment for the tribe of Manasseh as Joseph’s firstborn, that is, for Makir, Manasseh’s firstborn. Makir was the ancestor of the Gileadites, who had received Gilead and Bashan because the Makirites were great soldiers.

Jo. 17:2 So this allotment was for the rest of the people of Manasseh — the clans of Abiezer, Helek, Asriel, Shechem, Hepher and Shemida. These are the other male descendants of Manasseh son of Joseph by their clans.

Jo. 17:3 Now Zelophehad son of Hepher, the son of Gilead, the son of Makir, the son of Manasseh, had no sons but only daughters, whose names were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah and Tirzah.

Jo. 17:4 They went to Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun, and the leaders and said, “The LORD commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our brothers.” So Joshua gave them an inheritance along with the brothers of their father, according to the LORD’s command.

Jo. 17:5 Manasseh’s share consisted of ten tracts of land besides Gilead and Bashan east of the Jordan,

Jo. 17:6 because the daughters of the tribe of Manasseh received an inheritance among the sons. The land of Gilead belonged to the rest of the descendants of Manasseh.

Jo. 17:7 The territory of Manasseh extended from Asher to Micmethath east of Shechem. The boundary ran southward from there to include the people living at En Tappuah.

Jo. 17:8 (Manasseh had the land of Tappuah, but Tappuah itself, on the boundary of Manasseh, belonged to the Ephraimites.)

Jo. 17:9 Then the boundary continued south to the Kanah Ravine. There were towns belonging to Ephraim lying among the towns of Manasseh, but the boundary of Manasseh was the northern side of the ravine and ended at the sea.

Jo. 17:10 On the south the land belonged to Ephraim, on the north to Manasseh. The territory of Manasseh reached the sea and bordered Asher on the north and Issachar on the east.

Jo. 17:11 Within Issachar and Asher, Manasseh also had Beth Shan, Ibleam and the people of Dor, Endor, Taanach and Megiddo, together with their surrounding settlements (the third in the list is Naphoth).
Yet the Manassites were not able to occupy these towns, for the Canaanites were determined to live in that region.

However, when the Israelites grew stronger, they subjected the Canaanites to forced labour but did not drive them out completely.

The people of Joseph said to Joshua, “Why have you given us only one allotment and one portion for an inheritance? We are a numerous people and the LORD has blessed us abundantly.”

“If you are so numerous,” Joshua answered, “and if the hill country of Ephraim is too small for you, go up into the forest and clear land for yourselves there in the land of the Perizzites and Rephaites.”

The people of Joseph replied, “The hill country is not enough for us, and all the Canaanites who live in the plain have iron chariots, both those in Beth Shan and its settlements and those in the Valley of Jezreel.”

But Joshua said to the house of Joseph — to Ephraim and Manasseh — ”you are numerous and very powerful. You will have not only one allotment but the forested hill country as well. Clear it, and its farthest limits will be yours; though the Canaanites have iron chariots and though they are strong, you can drive them out.”

CHAPTER 18

The whole assembly of the Israelites gathered at Shiloh and set up the Tent of Meeting there. The country was brought under their control, but there were still seven Israelite tribes who had not yet received their inheritance.

Joshua said to the Israelites: “How long will you wait before you begin to take possession of the land that the LORD, the God of your fathers, has given you?

Appoint three men from each tribe. I will send them out to make a survey of the land and to write a description of it, according to the inheritance of each. Then they will return to me.

You are to divide the land into seven parts. Judah is to remain in its territory on the south and the house of Joseph in its territory on the north.

After you have written descriptions of the seven parts of the land, bring them here to me and I will cast lots for you in the presence of the LORD our God.

The Levites, however, do not get a portion among you, because the priestly service of the LORD is their inheritance. And Gad, Reuben and the half-tribe of Manasseh have already received their inheritance on the east side of the Jordan. Moses the servant of the LORD gave it to them.”

As the men started on their way to map out the land, Joshua instructed them, “Go and make a survey of the land and write a description of it. Then return to me, and I will cast lots for you here at Shiloh in the presence of the LORD.”

So the men left and went through the land. They wrote its description on a scroll, town by town, in seven parts, and returned to Joshua in the camp at Shiloh.

Joshua then cast lots for them in Shiloh in the presence of the LORD, and there he distributed the land to the Israelites according to their tribal divisions.

The lot came up for the tribe of Benjamin, clan by clan. Their allotted territory lay between the tribes of Judah and Joseph:

On the north side their boundary began at the Jordan, passed the northern slope of Jericho and headed west into the hill country, coming out at the desert of Beth Aven.
Jo. 18:13 From there it crossed to the south slope of Luz (that is, Bethel) and went down to Ataroth Addar on the hill south of Lower Beth Horon.

Jo. 18:14 From the hill facing Beth Horon on the south the boundary turned south along the western side and came out at Kiriath Baal (that is, Kiriath Jearim), a town of the people of Judah. This was the western side.

Jo. 18:15 The southern side began at the outskirts of Kiriath Jearim on the west, and the boundary came out at the spring of the waters of Nephtoah.

Jo. 18:16 The boundary went down to the foot of the hill facing the Valley of Ben Hinnom, north of the Valley of Rephaim. It continued down the Hinnom Valley along the southern slope of the Jebusite city and so to En Rogel.

Jo. 18:17 It then curved north, went to En Shemesh, continued to Geliloth, which faces the Pass of Adummim, and ran down to the Stone of Bohan son of Reuben.

Jo. 18:18 It continued to the northern slope of Beth Arabah and on down into the Arabah.

Jo. 18:19 It then went to the northern slope of Beth Hoglah and came out at the northern bay of the Salt Sea, at the mouth of the Jordan in the south. This was the southern boundary.

Jo. 18:20 The Jordan formed the boundary on the eastern side. These were the boundaries that marked out the inheritance of the clans of Benjamin on all sides.

Jo. 18:21 The tribe of Benjamin, clan by clan, had the following cities: Jericho, Beth Hoglah, Emek Keziz,

Jo. 18:22 Beth Arabah, Zemaraim, Bethel,

Jo. 18:23 Avvim, Parah, Ophrah,

Jo. 18:24 Kephar Ammoni, Ophni and Geba — twelve towns and their villages.

Jo. 18:25 Gibeon, Ramah, Beeroth,
Jo. 18:26  Mizpah, Kephirah, Mozah,
Jo. 18:27  Rekem, Irpeel, Taralah,
Jo. 18:28  Zelah, Haeleph, the Jebusite city (that is, Jerusalem), Gibeah and Kiriath — fourteen towns and their villages. This was the inheritance of Benjamin for its clans.

CHAPTER 19

Jo. 19:1  The second lot came out for the tribe of Simeon, clan by clan. Their inheritance lay within the territory of Judah.

Jo. 19:2  It included: Beersheba (or Sheba), Moladah,
Jo. 19:3  Hazar Shual, Balah, Ezem,
Jo. 19:4  Eltolad, Bethul, Hormah,
Jo. 19:5  Ziklag, Beth Marcaboth, Hazar Susah,
Jo. 19:6  Beth Lebaoth and Sharuhen — thirteen towns and their villages;
Jo. 19:7  Ain, Rimmon, Ether and Ashan — four towns and their villages —
Jo. 19:8  and all the villages around these towns as far as Baalath Beer (Ramah in the Negev). This was the inheritance of the tribe of the Simeonites, clan by clan.

Jo. 19:9  The inheritance of the Simeonites was taken from the share of Judah, because Judah’s portion was more than they needed. So the Simeonites received their inheritance within the territory of Judah.

Jo. 19:10  The third lot came up for Zebulun, clan by clan: The boundary of their inheritance went as far as Sarid.

Jo. 19:11  Going west it ran to Maralah, touched Dabbesheth, and extended to the ravine near Jokneam.
Jo. 19:12  It turned east from Sarid towards the sunrise to the territory of Kisloth Tabor and went on to Daberath and up to Japhia.
Then it continued eastward to Gath Hepher and Eth Kazin; it came out at Rimmon and turned towards Neah.

There the boundary went round on the north to Hannathon and ended at the Valley of Iphtah El.

Included were Kattath, Nahalal, Shimron, Idalah and Bethlehem. There were twelve towns and their villages.

These towns and their villages were the inheritance of Zebulun, clan by clan.

The fourth lot came out for Issachar, clan by clan.

Their territory included: Jezreel, Kesulloth, Shunem, Hapharaim, Shion, Anaharath,

Rabbith, Kishion, Ebez,

Remeth, En Gannim, En Haddah and Beth Pazzez.

The boundary touched Tabor, Shahazumah and Beth Shemesh, and ended at the Jordan. There were sixteen towns and their villages.

These towns and their villages were the inheritance of the tribe of Issachar, clan by clan.

The fifth lot came out for the tribe of Asher, clan by clan.

Their territory included: Helkath, Hali, Beten, Acshaph, Allammelech, Amad and Mishal. On the west the boundary touched Carmel and Shihor Libnath.

It then turned east towards Beth Dagon, touched Zebulun and the Valley of Iphtah El, and went north to Beth Emek and Neiel, passing Cabul on the left.

It went to Abdon, Rehob, Hammon and Kanah, as far as Greater Sidon.

The boundary then turned back towards Ramah and went to the fortified city of Tyre, turned towards Hosah and came out at the sea in the region of Aczib,
Jo. 19:30 Ummah, Aphek and Rehob. There were twenty-two towns and their villages.

Jo. 19:31 These towns and their villages were the inheritance of the tribe of Asher, clan by clan.

Jo. 19:32 The sixth lot came out for Naphtali, clan by clan:

Jo. 19:33 Their boundary went from Heleph and the large tree in Zaanannim, passing Adami Nekeb and Jabneel to Lakkum and ending at the Jordan.

Jo. 19:34 The boundary ran west through Aznoth Tabor and came out at Hukkok. It touched Zebulun on the south, Asher on the west and the Jordan on the east.

Jo. 19:35 The fortified cities were Ziddim, Zer, Hammath, Rakkath, Kinnereth, Jo. 19:36 Adamah, Ramah, Hazor,

Jo. 19:37 Kedesh, Edrei, En Hazor,

Jo. 19:38 Iron, Migdal El, Horem, Beth Anath and Beth Shemesh. There were nineteen towns and their villages.

Jo. 19:39 These towns and their villages were the inheritance of the tribe of Naphtali, clan by clan.

Jo. 19:40 The seventh lot came out for the tribe of Dan, clan by clan.

Jo. 19:41 The territory of their inheritance included: Zorah, Eshtaol, Ir Shemesh,

Jo. 19:42 Shaalabbin, Aijalon, Ithlah,

Jo. 19:43 Elon, Timnah, Ekron,

Jo. 19:44 Eltekeh, Gibbethon, Baalath,

Jo. 19:45 Jehud, Bene Berak, Gath Rimmon,

Jo. 19:46 Me Jarkon and Rakkon, with the area facing Joppa.

Jo. 19:47 (But the Danites had difficulty taking possession of their territory, so they went up and attacked Leshem, took it, put it to the sword and occupied it. They settled in Leshem and named it Dan after their forefather.)

Jo. 19:48 These towns and their villages were the inheritance of the tribe of Dan, clan by clan.

Jo. 19:49 When they had finished dividing the land into its allotted portions, the Israelites gave Joshua son of Nun an inheritance among them,

Jo. 19:50 as the LORD had commanded. They gave him the town he asked for — Timnath Serah in the hill country of Ephraim. And he built up the town and settled there.

Jo. 19:51 These are the territories that Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun and the heads of the tribal clans of Israel assigned by lot at Shiloh in the presence of the LORD at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting. And so they finished dividing the land.

CHAPTER 20

Jo. 20:1 Then the LORD said to Joshua:

Jo. 20:2 “Tell the Israelites to designate the cities of refuge, as I instructed you through Moses,

Jo. 20:3 so that anyone who kills a person accidentally and unintentionally may flee there and find protection from the avenger of blood.

Jo. 20:4 “When he flees to one of these cities, he is to stand in the entrance of the city gate and state his case before the elders of that city. Then they are to admit him into their city and give him a place to live with them.

Jo. 20:5 If the avenger of blood pursues him, they must not surrender the one accused, because he killed his neighbour unintentionally and without malice aforethought.

Jo. 20:6 He is to stay in that city until he has stood trial before the assembly and until the death of the high priest who is serving at that time. Then he may go back to his own home in the town from which he fled.”

Jo. 20:7 So they set apart Kedesh in Galilee in the hill country of Naphtali, Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim, and Kiriath Arba (that is, Hebron) in the hill country of Judah.

Jo. 20:8 On the east side of the Jordan of Jericho they designated Bezer in the desert on the plateau in the tribe of Reuben, Ramoth in Gilead in the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan in the tribe of Manasseh.

Jo. 20:9 Any of the Israelites or any alien living among them who killed someone accidentally could flee to these designated cities and not be killed by the avenger of blood prior to standing trial before the assembly.

CHAPTER 21

Jo. 21:1 Now the family heads of the Levites approached Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun, and the heads of the other tribal families of Israel

Jo. 21:2 at Shiloh in Canaan and said to them, “The LORD commanded through Moses that you give us towns to live in, with pasture-lands for our livestock.”

Jo. 21:3 So, as the LORD had commanded, the Israelites gave the Levites the following towns and pasture-lands out of their own inheritance:

Jo. 21:4 The first lot came out for the Kohathites, clan by clan. The Levites who were descendants of Aaron the priest were allotted thirteen towns from the tribes of Judah, Simeon and Benjamin.

Jo. 21:5 The rest of Kohath’s descendants were allotted ten towns from the clans of the tribes of Ephraim, Dan and half of Manasseh.
The descendants of Gershon were allotted thirteen towns from the clans of the tribes of Issachar, Asher, Naphtali and the half-tribe of Manasseh in Bashan.

The descendants of Merari, clan by clan, received twelve towns from the tribes of Reuben, Gad and Zebulun.

So the Israelites allotted to the Levites these towns and their pasture-lands, as the LORD had commanded through Moses.

From the tribes of Judah and Simeon they allotted the following towns by name

(these towns were assigned to the descendants of Aaron who were from the Kohathite clans of the Levites, because the first lot fell to them):

They gave them Kiriath Arba (that is, Hebron), with its surrounding pasture-land, in the hill country of Judah. (Arba was the forefather of Anak.)

But the fields and villages around the city they had given to Caleb son of Jephunneh as his possession.

So to the descendants of Aaron the priest they gave Hebron (a city of refuge for one accused of murder), Libnah,

Jattir, Eshtemoa,

Jalon, Debir,

Ain, Juttah and Beth Shemesh, together with their pasture-lands — nine towns from these two tribes.

And from the tribe of Benjamin they gave them Gibeon, Geba, Anathoth and Almon, together with their pasture-lands — four towns.

All the towns for the priests, the descendants of Aaron, were thirteen, together with their pasture-lands.

The rest of the Kohathite clans of the Levites were allotted towns from the tribe of Ephraim:
In the hill country of Ephraim they were given Shechem (a city of refuge for one accused of murder) and Gezer, Kibzaim and Beth Horon, together with their pasture-lands — four towns.

Also from the tribe of Dan they received Eltekeh, Gibbethon, Aijalon and Gath Rimmon, together with their pasture-lands — four towns.

From half the tribe of Manasseh they received Taanach and Gath Rimmon, together with their pasture-lands — two towns.

All these ten towns and their pasture-lands were given to the rest of the Kohathite clans.

The Levite clans of the Gershonites were given: from the half-tribe of Manasseh, Golan in Bashan (a city of refuge for one accused of murder) and Be Eshtarah, together with their pasture-lands — two towns; from the tribe of Issachar, Kishion, Daberath,

Jarmuth and En Gannim, together with their pasture-lands — four towns; from the tribe of Asher, Mishal, Abdon,

Helkath and Rehob, together with their pasture-lands — four towns; from the tribe of Naphtali, Kedesh in Galilee (a city of refuge for one accused of murder), Hammoth Dor and Kartan, together with their pasture-lands — three towns.

All the towns of the Gershonite clans were thirteen, together with their pasture-lands.

The Merarite clans (the rest of the Levites) were given: from the tribe of Zebulun, Jokneam, Kartah, Dimnah and Nahalal, together with their pasture-lands — four towns;

Jo. 21:36 from the tribe of Reuben, Bezer, Jahaz,
Jo. 21:37 Kedemoth and Mephaath, together with their pasture-lands — four towns;
Jo. 21:38 from the tribe of Gad, Ramoth in Gilead (a city of refuge for one accused of murder), Mahanaim,
Jo. 21:39 Heshbon and Jazer, together with their pasture-lands — four towns in all.
Jo. 21:40 All the towns allotted to the Merarite clans, who were the rest of the Levites, were twelve.
Jo. 21:41 The towns of the Levites in the territory held by the Israelites were forty-eight in all, together with their pasture-lands.
Jo. 21:42 Each of these towns had pasture-lands surrounding it; this was true for all these towns.
Jo. 21:43 So the LORD gave Israel all the land he had sworn to give their forefathers, and they took possession of it and settled there.
Jo. 21:44 The LORD gave them rest on every side, just as he had sworn to their forefathers. Not one of their enemies withstood them; the LORD handed all their enemies over to them.
Jo. 21:45 Not one of all the LORD’s good promises to the house of Israel failed; every one was fulfilled.

CHAPTER 22

Jo. 22:1 Then Joshua summoned the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh
Jo. 22:2 and said to them, “You have done all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded, and you have obeyed me in everything I commanded.
Jo. 22:3  For a long time now — to this very day — you have not deserted your brothers but have carried out the mission the LORD your God gave you.

Jo. 22:4  Now that the LORD your God has given your brothers rest as he promised, return to your homes in the land that Moses the servant of the LORD gave you on the other side of the Jordan.

Jo. 22:5  But be very careful to keep the commandment and the law that Moses the servant of the LORD gave you: to love the LORD your God, to walk in all his ways, to obey his commands, to hold fast to him and to serve him with all your heart and all your soul.”

Jo. 22:6  Then Joshua blessed them and sent them away, and they went to their homes.

Jo. 22:7  (To the half-tribe of Manasseh Moses had given land in Bashan, and to the other half of the tribe Joshua gave land on the west side of the Jordan with their brothers.) When Joshua sent them home, he blessed them,

Jo. 22:8  saying, “Return to your homes with your great wealth — with large herds of livestock, with silver, gold, bronze and iron, and a great quantity of clothing — and divide with your brothers the plunder from your enemies.”

Jo. 22:9  So the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh left the Israelites at Shiloh in Canaan to return to Gilead, their own land, which they had acquired in accordance with the command of the LORD through Moses.

Jo. 22:10  When they came to Geliloth near the Jordan in the land of Canaan, the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh built an imposing altar there by the Jordan.

Jo. 22:11  And when the Israelites heard that they had built the altar on the border of Canaan at Geliloth near the Jordan on the Israelite side, Jo. 22:12  the whole assembly of Israel gathered at Shiloh to go to war against them.

Jo. 22:13 So the Israelites sent Phinehas son of Eleazar, the priest, to the land of Gilead — to Reuben, Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh.

Jo. 22:14 With him they sent ten of the chief men, one for each of the tribes of Israel, each the head of a family division among the Israelite clans.

Jo. 22:15 When they went to Gilead — to Reuben, Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh — they said to them:

Jo. 22:16 “The whole assembly of the LORD says: ‘How could you break faith with the God of Israel like this? How could you turn away from the LORD and build yourselves an altar in rebellion against him now?

Jo. 22:17 Was not the sin of Peor enough for us? Up to this very day we have not cleansed ourselves from that sin, even though a plague fell on the community of the LORD!

Jo. 22:18 And are you now turning away from the LORD? ‘If you rebel against the LORD today, tomorrow he will be angry with the whole community of Israel.

Jo. 22:19 If the land you possess is defiled, come over to the LORD’s land, where the LORD’s tabernacle stands, and share the land with us. But do not rebel against the LORD or against us by building an altar for yourselves, other than the altar of the LORD our God.

Jo. 22:20 When Achan son of Zerah acted unfaithfully regarding the devoted things, did not wrath come upon the whole community of Israel? He was not the only one who died for his sin.’

Jo. 22:21 Then Reuben, Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh replied to the heads of the clans of Israel:

Jo. 22:22 “The Mighty One, God, the LORD! The Mighty One, God, the LORD! He knows! And let Israel know! If this has been in rebellion or disobedience to the LORD, do not spare us this day.
Jo. 22:23 If we have built our own altar to turn away from the LORD and to offer burnt offerings and grain offerings, or to sacrifice fellowship offerings on it, may the LORD himself call us to account.

Jo. 22:24 ‘No! We did it for fear that some day your descendants might say to ours, `What do you have to do with the LORD, the God of Israel?'

Jo. 22:25 The LORD has made the Jordan a boundary between us and you — you Reubenites and Gadites! You have no share in the LORD.’ So your descendants might cause ours to stop fearing the LORD.

Jo. 22:26 ‘That is why we said, `Let us get ready and build an altar — but not for burnt offerings or sacrifices.’

Jo. 22:27 On the contrary, it is to be a witness between us and you and the generations that follow, that we will worship the LORD at his sanctuary with our burnt offerings, sacrifices and fellowship offerings. Then in the future your descendants will not be able to say to ours, `You have no share in the LORD.’

Jo. 22:28 ‘And we said, ‘If they ever say this to us, or to our descendants, we will answer: Look at the replica of the LORD’s altar, which our fathers built, not for burnt offerings and sacrifices, but as a witness between us and you.’

Jo. 22:29 ‘Far be it from us to rebel against the LORD and turn away from him today by building an altar for burnt offerings, grain offerings and sacrifices, other than the altar of the LORD our God that stands before his tabernacle.”

Jo. 22:30 When Phinehas the priest and the leaders of the community — the heads of the clans of the Israelites — heard what Reuben, Gad and Manasseh had to say, they were pleased.

Jo. 22:31 And Phinehas son of Eleazar, the priest, said to Reuben, Gad and Manasseh, “Today we know that the LORD is with us, because you have not acted unfaithfully towards the LORD in this matter. Now you have rescued the Israelites from the LORD’s hand.”
Jo. 22:32 Then Phinehas son of Eleazar, the priest, and the leaders returned to Canaan from their meeting with the Reubenites and Gadites in Gilead and reported to the Israelites.

Jo. 22:33 They were glad to hear the report and praised God. And they talked no more about going to war against them to devastate the country where the Reubenites and the Gadites lived.

Jo. 22:34 And the Reubenites and the Gadites gave the altar this name: A Witness Between Us that the LORD is God.

CHAPTER 23

Jo. 23:1 After a long time had passed and the LORD had given Israel rest from all their enemies around them, Joshua, by then old and well advanced in years,

Jo. 23:2 summoned all Israel — their elders, leaders, judges and officials — and said to them: “I am old and well advanced in years.

Jo. 23:3 You yourselves have seen everything the LORD your God has done to all these nations for your sake; it was the LORD your God who fought for you.

Jo. 23:4 Remember how I have allotted as an inheritance for your tribes all the land of the nations that remain — the nations I conquered — between the Jordan and the Great Sea in the west.

Jo. 23:5 The LORD your God himself will drive them out of your way. He will push them out before you, and you will take possession of their land, as the LORD your God promised you.

Jo. 23:6 “Be very strong; be careful to obey all that is written in the Book of the Law of Moses, without turning aside to the right or to the left.
Jo. 23:7  Do not associate with these nations that remain among you; do not invoke the names of their gods or swear by them. You must not serve them or bow down to them.

Jo. 23:8  But you are to hold fast to the LORD your God, as you have until now.

Jo. 23:9  “The LORD has driven out before you great and powerful nations; to this day no-one has been able to withstand you.

Jo. 23:10 One of you routs a thousand, because the LORD your God fights for you, just as he promised.

Jo. 23:11 So be very careful to love the LORD your God.

Jo. 23:12 “But if you turn away and ally yourselves with the survivors of these nations that remain among you and if you intermarry with them and associate with them,

Jo. 23:13 then you may be sure that the LORD your God will no longer drive out these nations before you. Instead, they will become snares and traps for you, whips on your backs and thorns in your eyes, until you perish from this good land, which the LORD your God has given you.

Jo. 23:14 “Now I am about to go the way of all the earth. You know with all your heart and soul that not one of all the good promises the LORD your God gave you has failed. Every promise has been fulfilled; not one has failed.

Jo. 23:15 But just as every good promise of the LORD your God has come true, so the LORD will bring on you all the evil he has threatened, until he has destroyed you from this good land he has given you.

Jo. 23:16 If you violate the covenant of the LORD your God, which he commanded you, and go and serve other gods and bow down to them, the LORD’s anger will burn against you, and you will quickly perish from the good land he has given you.”
Then Joshua assembled all the tribes of Israel at Shechem. He summoned the elders, leaders, judges and officials of Israel, and they presented themselves before God.

Joshua said to all the people, “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: ‘Long ago your forefathers, including Terah the father of Abraham and Nahor, lived beyond the River and worshipped other gods.

But I took your father Abraham from the land beyond the River and led him throughout Canaan and gave him many descendants. I gave him Isaac, and to Isaac I gave Jacob and Esau. I assigned the hill country of Seir to Esau, but Jacob and his sons went down to Egypt.

“Then I sent Moses and Aaron, and I afflicted the Egyptians by what I did there, and I brought you out.

When I brought your fathers out of Egypt, you came to the sea, and the Egyptians pursued them with chariots and horsemen as far as the Red Sea.

But they cried to the LORD for help, and he put darkness between you and the Egyptians; he brought the sea over them and covered them. You saw with your own eyes what I did to the Egyptians. Then you lived in the desert for a long time.

“The brought you to the land of the Amorites who lived east of the Jordan. They fought against you, but I gave them into your hands. I destroyed them from before you, and you took possession of their land.

When Balak son of Zippor, the king of Moab, prepared to fight against Israel, he sent for Balaam son of Beor to put a curse on you.

But I would not listen to Balaam, so he blessed you again and again, and I delivered you out of his hand.
Jo. 24:11 “Then you crossed the Jordan and came to Jericho. The citizens of Jericho fought against you, as did also the Amorites, Perizzites, Canaanites, Hittites, Girgashites, Hivites and Jebusites, but I gave them into your hands.

Jo. 24:12 I sent the hornet ahead of you, which drove them out before you — also the two Amorite kings. You did not do it with your own sword and bow.

Jo. 24:13 So I gave you a land on which you did not toil and cities you did not build; and you live in them and eat from vineyards and olive groves that you did not plant.’

Jo. 24:14 “Now fear the LORD and serve him with all faithfulness. Throw away the gods your forefathers worshipped beyond the River and in Egypt, and serve the LORD.

Jo. 24:15 But if serving the LORD seems undesirable to you, then choose for yourselves this day whom you will serve, whether the gods your forefathers served beyond the River, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you are living. But as for me and my household, we will serve the LORD.”

Jo. 24:16 Then the people answered, “Far be it from us to forsake the LORD to serve other gods!

Jo. 24:17 It was the LORD our God himself who brought us and our fathers up out of Egypt, from that land of slavery, and performed those great signs before our eyes. He protected us on our entire journey and among all the nations through which we travelled.

Jo. 24:18 And the LORD drove out before us all the nations, including the Amorites, who lived in the land. We too will serve the LORD, because he is our God.”

Jo. 24:19 Joshua said to the people, “You are not able to serve the LORD. He is a holy God; he is a jealous God. He will not forgive your rebellion and your sins.

Jo. 24:20 If you forsake the LORD and serve foreign gods, he will turn and bring disaster on you and make an end of you, after he has been good to you.”
But the people said to Joshua, “No! We will serve the LORD.”

Then Joshua said, “You are witnesses against yourselves that you have chosen to serve the LORD.” “Yes, we are witnesses,” they replied.

“Now then,” said Joshua, “throw away the foreign gods that are among you and yield your hearts to the LORD, the God of Israel.”

And the people said to Joshua, “We will serve the LORD our God and obey him.”

On that day Joshua made a covenant for the people, and there at Shechem he drew up for them decrees and laws.

And Joshua recorded these things in the Book of the Law of God. Then he took a large stone and set it up there under the oak near the holy place of the LORD.

“See!” he said to all the people. “This stone will be a witness against us. It has heard all the words the LORD has said to us. It will be a witness against you if you are untrue to your God.”

Then Joshua sent the people away, each to his own inheritance.

After these things, Joshua son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died at the age of a hundred and ten.

And they buried him in the land of his inheritance, at Timnath Serah in the hill country of Ephraim, north of Mount Gaash.

Israel served the LORD throughout the lifetime of Joshua and of the elders who outlived him and who had experienced everything the LORD had done for Israel.

And Joseph’s bones, which the Israelites had brought up from Egypt, were buried at Shechem in the tract of land that Jacob bought for a hundred pieces of silver from the sons of Hamor, the father of Shechem. This became the inheritance of Joseph’s descendants.
Jo. 24:33 And Eleazar son of Aaron died and was buried at Gibeah, which had been allotted to his son Phinehas in the hill country of Ephraim.
Ju. 1:1 After the death of Joshua, the Israelites asked the LORD, “Who will be the first to go up and fight for us against the Canaanites?”

Ju. 1:2 The LORD answered, “Judah is to go; I have given the land into their hands.”

Ju. 1:3 Then the men of Judah said to the Simeonites their brothers, “Come up with us into the territory allotted to us, to fight against the Canaanites. We in turn will go with you into yours.” So the Simeonites went with them.

Ju. 1:4 When Judah attacked, the LORD gave the Canaanites and Perizzites into their hands and they struck down ten thousand men at Bezek.

Ju. 1:5 It was there that they found Adoni-Bezek and fought against him, putting to rout the Canaanites and Perizzites.

Ju. 1:6 Adoni-Bezek fled, but they chased him and caught him, and cut off his thumbs and big toes.

Ju. 1:7 Then Adoni-Bezek said, “Seventy kings with their thumbs and big toes cut off have picked up scraps under my table. Now God has paid me back for what I did to them.” They brought him to Jerusalem, and he died there.

Ju. 1:8 The men of Judah attacked Jerusalem also and took it. They put the city to the sword and set it on fire.

Ju. 1:9 After that, the men of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanites living in the hill country, the Negev and the western foothills.
They advanced against the Canaanites living in Hebron (formerly called Kiriath Arba) and defeated Sheshai, Ahiman and Talmai.

From there they advanced against the people living in Debir (formerly called Kiriath Sepher).

And Caleb said, “I will give my daughter Acsah in marriage to the man who attacks and captures Kiriath Sepher.”

Othniel son of Kenaz, Caleb’s younger brother, took it; so Caleb gave his daughter Acsah to him in marriage.

One day when she came to Othniel, she urged him to ask her father for a field. When she got off her donkey, Caleb asked her, “What can I do for you?”

She replied, “Do me a special favour. Since you have given me land in the Negev, give me also springs of water.” Then Caleb gave her the upper and lower springs.

The descendants of Moses’ father-in-law, the Kenite, went up from the City of Palms with the men of Judah to live among the people of the Desert of Judah in the Negev near Arad.

Then the men of Judah went with the Simeonites their brothers and attacked the Canaanites living in Zephath, and they totally destroyed the city. Therefore it was called Hormah.

The men of Judah also took Gaza, Ashkelon and Ekron — each city with its territory.

The LORD was with the men of Judah. They took possession of the hill country, but they were unable to drive the people from the plains, because they had iron chariots.

As Moses had promised, Hebron was given to Caleb, who drove from it the three sons of Anak.

The Benjamites, however, failed to dislodge the Jebusites, who were living in Jerusalem; to this day the Jebusites live there with the Benjamites.
Now the house of Joseph attacked Bethel, and the LORD was with them.

When they sent men to spy out Bethel (formerly called Luz), the spies saw a man coming out of the city and they said to him, “Show us how to get into the city and we will see that you are treated well.”

So he showed them, and they put the city to the sword but spared the man and his whole family.

He then went to the land of the Hittites, where he built a city and called it Luz, which is its name to this day.

But Manasseh did not drive out the people of Beth Shan or Taanach or Dor or Ibleam or Megiddo and their surrounding settlements, for the Canaanites were determined to live in that land.

When Israel became strong, they pressed the Canaanites into forced labour but never drove them out completely.

Nor did Ephraim drive out the Canaanites living in Gezer, but the Canaanites continued to live there among them.

Neither did Zebulun drive out the Canaanites living in Kitron or Nahalol, who remained among them; but they did subject them to forced labour.

Nor did Asher drive out those living in Acco or Sidon or Ahlab or Aczib or Helbah or Aphek or Rehob, and because of this the people of Asher lived among the Canaanite inhabitants of the land.

Neither did Naphtali drive out those living in Beth Shemesh or Beth Anath; but the Naphtalites too lived among the Canaanite inhabitants of the land, and those living in Beth Shemesh and Beth Anath became forced labourers for them.

The Amorites confined the Danites to the hill country, not allowing them to come down into the plain.
Ju. 1:35 And the Amorites were determined also to hold out in Mount Heres, Aijalon and Shaalbim, but when the power of the house of Joseph increased, they too were pressed into forced labour.

Ju. 1:36 The boundary of the Amorites was from Scorpion Pass to Sela and beyond.

CHAPTER 2

Ju. 2:1 The angel of the LORD went up from Gilgal to Bokim and said, “I brought you up out of Egypt and led you into the land that I swore to give to your forefathers. I said, `I will never break my covenant with you, Ju. 2:2 and you shall not make a covenant with the people of this land, but you shall break down their altars.’ Yet you have disobeyed me. Why have you done this?

Ju. 2:3 Now therefore I tell you that I will not drive them out before you; they will be thorns in your sides and their gods will be a snare to you.”

Ju. 2:4 When the angel of the LORD had spoken these things to all the Israelites, the people wept aloud, Ju. 2:5 and they called that place Bokim. There they offered sacrifices to the LORD.

Ju. 2:6 After Joshua had dismissed the Israelites, they went to take possession of the land, each to his own inheritance.

Ju. 2:7 The people served the LORD throughout the lifetime of Joshua and of the elders who outlived him and who had seen all the great things the LORD had done for Israel.

Ju. 2:8 Joshua son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died at the age of a hundred and ten.

Ju. 2:9 And they buried him in the land of his inheritance, at Timnath Heres in the hill country of Ephraim, north of Mount Gaash.
After that whole generation had been gathered to their fathers, another generation grew up, who knew neither the LORD nor what he had done for Israel.

Then the Israelites did evil in the eyes of the LORD and served the Baals.

They forsook the LORD, the God of their fathers, who had brought them out of Egypt. They followed and worshipped various gods of the peoples around them. They provoked the LORD to anger because they forsook him and served Baal and the Ashtoreths.

In his anger against Israel the LORD handed them over to raiders who plundered them. He sold them to their enemies all around, whom they were no longer able to resist.

Whenever Israel went out to fight, the hand of the LORD was against them to defeat them, just as he had sworn to them. They were in great distress.

Then the LORD raised up judges, who saved them out of the hands of these raiders.

Yet they would not listen to their judges but prostituted themselves to other gods and worshipped them. Unlike their fathers, they quickly turned from the way in which their fathers had walked, the way of obedience to the LORD’s commands.

Whenever the LORD raised up a judge for them, he was with the judge and saved them out of the hands of their enemies as long as the judge lived; for the LORD had compassion on them as they groaned under those who oppressed and afflicted them.

But when the judge died, the people returned to ways even more corrupt than those of their fathers, following other gods and serving and worshipping them. They refused to give up their evil practices and stubborn ways.
Ju. 2:20 Therefore the LORD was very angry with Israel and said, “Because this nation has violated the covenant that I laid down for their forefathers and has not listened to me,

Ju. 2:21 I will no longer drive out before them any of the nations Joshua left when he died.

Ju. 2:22 I will use them to test Israel and see whether they will keep the way of the LORD and walk in it as their forefathers did.”

Ju. 2:23 The LORD had allowed those nations to remain; he did not drive them out at once by giving them into the hands of Joshua.

CHAPTER 3

Ju. 3:1 These are the nations the LORD left to test all those Israelites who had not experienced any of the wars in Canaan

Ju. 3:2 (he did this only to teach warfare to the descendants of the Israelites who had not had previous battle experience):

Ju. 3:3 the five rulers of the Philistines, all the Canaanites, the Sidonians, and the Hivites living in the Lebanon mountains from Mount Baal Hermon to Lebo Hamath.

Ju. 3:4 They were left to test the Israelites to see whether they would obey the LORD’s commands, which he had given their forefathers through Moses.

Ju. 3:5 The Israelites lived among the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites.

Ju. 3:6 They took their daughters in marriage and gave their own daughters to their sons, and served their gods.

Ju. 3:7 The Israelites did evil in the eyes of the LORD; they forgot the LORD their God and served the Baals and the Asherahs.

Ju. 3:8 The anger of the LORD burned against Israel so that he sold them into the hands of Cushan-Rishathaim king of Aram Naharaim, to whom the Israelites were subject for eight years.

Ju. 3:9  But when they cried out to the LORD, he raised up for them a deliverer, Othniel son of Kenaz, Caleb’s younger brother, who saved them.

Ju. 3:10 The Spirit of the LORD came upon him, so that he became Israel’s judge and went to war. The LORD gave Cushan-Rishathaim king of Aram into the hands of Othniel, who overpowered him.

Ju. 3:11 So the land had peace for forty years, until Othniel son of Kenaz died.

Ju. 3:12 Once again the Israelites did evil in the eyes of the LORD, and because they did this evil the LORD gave Eglon king of Moab power over Israel.

Ju. 3:13 Getting the Ammonites and Amalekites to join him, Eglon came and attacked Israel, and they took possession of the City of Palms.

Ju. 3:14 The Israelites were subject to Eglon king of Moab for eighteen years.

Ju. 3:15 Again the Israelites cried out to the LORD, and he gave them a deliverer — Ehud, a left-handed man, the son of Gera the Benjamite. The Israelites sent him with tribute to Eglon king of Moab.

Ju. 3:16 Now Ehud had made a double-edged sword about a foot and a half long, which he strapped to his right thigh under his clothing.

Ju. 3:17 He presented the tribute to Eglon king of Moab, who was a very fat man.

Ju. 3:18 After Ehud had presented the tribute, he sent on their way the men who had carried it.

Ju. 3:19 At the idols near Gilgal he himself turned back and said, “I have a secret message for you, O king.” The king said, “Quiet!” And all his attendants left him.
Ju. 3:20 Ehud then approached him while he was sitting alone in the upper room of his summer palace and said, “I have a message from God for you.” As the king rose from his seat,

Ju. 3:21 Ehud reached with his left hand, drew the sword from his right thigh and plunged it into the king’s belly.

Ju. 3:22 Even the handle sank in after the blade, which came out of his back. Ehud did not pull the sword out, and the fat closed in over it.

Ju. 3:23 Then Ehud went out to the porch; he shut the doors of the upper room behind him and locked them.

Ju. 3:24 After he had gone, the servants came and found the doors of the upper room locked. They said, “He must be relieving himself in the inner room of the house.”

Ju. 3:25 They waited to the point of embarrassment, but when he did not open the doors of the room, they took a key and unlocked them. There they saw their lord fallen to the floor, dead.

Ju. 3:26 While they waited, Ehud got away. He passed by the idols and escaped to Seirah.

Ju. 3:27 When he arrived there, he blew a trumpet in the hill country of Ephraim, and the Israelites went down with him from the hills, with him leading them.

Ju. 3:28 “Follow me,” he ordered, “for the LORD has given Moab, your enemy, into your hands.” So they followed him down and, taking possession of the fords of the Jordan that led to Moab, they allowed no-one to cross over.

Ju. 3:29 At that time they struck down about ten thousand Moabites, all vigorous and strong; not a man escaped.

Ju. 3:30 That day Moab was made subject to Israel, and the land had peace for eighty years.

Ju. 3:31 After Ehud came Shamgar son of Anath, who struck down six hundred Philistines with an ox-goad. He too saved Israel.
CHAPTER 4

Ju. 4:1 After Ehud died, the Israelites once again did evil in the eyes of the LORD.

Ju. 4:2 So the LORD sold them into the hands of Jabin, a king of Canaan, who reigned in Hazor. The commander of his army was Sisera, who lived in Harosheth Haggoyim.

Ju. 4:3 Because he had nine hundred iron chariots and had cruelly oppressed the Israelites for twenty years, they cried to the LORD for help.

Ju. 4:4 Deborah, a prophetess, the wife of Lappidoth, was leading Israel at that time.

Ju. 4:5 She held court under the Palm of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in the hill country of Ephraim, and the Israelites came to her to have their disputes decided.

Ju. 4:6 She sent for Barak son of Abinoam from Kedesh in Naphtali and said to him, “The LORD, the God of Israel, commands you: ‘Go, take with you ten thousand men of Naphtali and Zebulun and lead the way to Mount Tabor.’

Ju. 4:7 I will lure Sisera, the commander of Jabin’s army, with his chariots and his troops to the Kishon River and give him into your hands.’“

Ju. 4:8 Barak said to her, “If you go with me, I will go; but if you don’t go with me, I won’t go.”

Ju. 4:9 “Very well,” Deborah said, “I will go with you. But because of the way you are going about this, the honour will not be yours, for the LORD will hand Sisera over to a woman.” So Deborah went with Barak to Kedesh, Ju. 4:10 where he summoned Zebulun and Naphtali. Ten thousand men followed him, and Deborah also went with him.

Ju. 4:11 Now Heber the Kenite had left the other Kenites, the descendants of Hobab, Moses’ brother-in-law, and pitched his tent by the great tree in Zaanannim near Kedesh.
Ju. 4:12 When they told Sisera that Barak son of Abinoam had gone up to Mount Tabor, Ju. 4:13 Sisera gathered together his nine hundred iron chariots and all the men with him, from Harosheth Haggoym to the Kishon River.

Ju. 4:14 Then Deborah said to Barak, “Go! This is the day the LORD has given Sisera into your hands. Has not the LORD gone ahead of you?” So Barak went down Mount Tabor, followed by ten thousand men.

Ju. 4:15 At Barak’s advance, the LORD routed Sisera and all his chariots and army by the sword, and Sisera abandoned his chariot and fled on foot.

Ju. 4:16 But Barak pursued the chariots and army as far as Harosheth Haggoym. All the troops of Sisera fell by the sword; not a man was left.

Ju. 4:17 Sisera, however, fled on foot to the tent of Jael, the wife of Heber the Kenite, because there were friendly relations between Jabin king of Hazor and the clan of Heber the Kenite.

Ju. 4:18 Jael went out to meet Sisera and said to him, “Come, my lord, come right in. Don’t be afraid.” So he entered her tent, and she put a covering over him.

Ju. 4:19 “I’m thirsty,” he said. “Please give me some water.” She opened a skin of milk, gave him a drink, and covered him up.

Ju. 4:20 “Stand in the doorway of the tent,” he told her. “If someone comes by and asks you, `Is anyone here?’ say `No.’“

Ju. 4:21 But Jael, Heber’s wife, picked up a tent peg and a hammer and went quietly to him while he lay fast asleep, exhausted. She drove the peg through his temple into the ground, and he died.

Ju. 4:22 Barak came by in pursuit of Sisera, and Jael went out to meet him. “Come,” she said, “I will show you the man you’re looking for.” So he went in with her, and there lay Sisera with the tent peg through his temple — dead.

Ju. 4:23 On that day God subdued Jabin, the Canaanite king, before the Israelites.

Ju. 4:24 And the hand of the Israelites grew stronger and stronger against Jabin, the Canaanite king, until they destroyed him.

CHAPTER 5

Ju. 5:1 On that day Deborah and Barak son of Abinoam sang this song:

Ju. 5:2 “When the princes in Israel take the lead, when the people willingly offer themselves — praise the LORD!

Ju. 5:3 “Hear this, you kings! Listen, you rulers! I will sing to the LORD, I will sing; I will make music to the LORD, the God of Israel.

Ju. 5:4 “O LORD, when you went out from Seir, when you marched from the land of Edom, the earth shook, the heavens poured, the clouds poured down water.

Ju. 5:5 The mountains quaked before the LORD, the One of Sinai, before the LORD, the God of Israel.

Ju. 5:6 “In the days of Shamgar son of Anath, in the days of Jael, the roads were abandoned; travellers took to winding paths.

Ju. 5:7 Village life in Israel ceased, ceased until I, Deborah, arose, arose a mother in Israel.

Ju. 5:8 When they chose new gods, war came to the city gates, and not a shield or spear was seen among forty thousand in Israel.

Ju. 5:9 My heart is with Israel’s princes, with the willing volunteers among the people. Praise the LORD!

Ju. 5:10 “You who ride on white donkeys, sitting on your saddle blankets, and you who walk along the road, consider the voice of the singers at the watering places. They recite the righteous acts of the LORD, the righteous acts of his warriors in Israel. “Then the people of the LORD went down to the city gates.

`Wake up, wake up, Deborah! Wake up, wake up, break out in song! Arise, O Barak! Take captive your captives, O son of Abinoam.’

“Then the people of the LORD came to me with the mighty.

Some came from Ephraim, whose roots were in Amalek; Benjamin was with the people who followed you. From Makir captains came down, from Zebulun those who bear a commander’s staff.

The princes of Issachar were with Deborah; yes, Issachar was with Barak, rushing after him into the valley. In the districts of Reuben there was much searching of heart.

Why did you stay among the campfires to hear the whistling for the flocks? In the districts of Reuben there was much searching of heart.

Gilead stayed beyond the Jordan. And Dan, why did he linger by the ships? Asher remained on the coast and stayed in his coves.

The people of Zebulun risked their very lives; so did Naphtali on the heights of the field.

“Kings came, they fought; the kings of Canaan fought at Taanach by the waters of Megiddo, but they carried off no silver, no plunder.

From the heavens the stars fought, from their courses they fought against Sisera.

The river Kishon swept them away, the age-old river, the river Kishon. March on, my soul; be strong!

Then thundered the horses’ hoofs — galloping, galloping go his mighty steeds.
Ju. 5:23  `Curse Meroz,’ said the angel of the LORD. `Curse its people bitterly, because they did not come to help the LORD, to help the LORD against the mighty.’

Ju. 5:24  “Most blessed of women be Jael, the wife of Heber the Kenite, most blessed of tent-dwelling women.

Ju. 5:25  He asked for water, and she gave him milk; in a bowl fit for nobles she brought him curdled milk.

Ju. 5:26  Her hand reached for the tent peg, her right hand for the workman’s hammer. She struck Sisera, she crushed his head, she shattered and pierced his temple.

Ju. 5:27  At her feet he sank, he fell; there he lay. At her feet he sank, he fell; where he sank, there he fell — dead.

Ju. 5:28  “Through the window peered Sisera’s mother; behind the lattice she cried out, `Why is his chariot so long in coming? Why is the clatter of his chariots delayed?’

Ju. 5:29  The wisest of her ladies answer her; indeed, she keeps saying to herself,

Ju. 5:30  `Are they not finding and dividing the spoils: a girl or two for each man, colourful garments as plunder for Sisera, colourful garments embroidered, highly embroidered garments for my neck — all this as plunder?’

Ju. 5:31  “So may all your enemies perish, O LORD! But may they who love you be like the sun when it rises in its strength.” Then the land had peace for forty years.

CHAPTER 6

Ju. 6:1  Again the Israelites did evil in the eyes of the LORD, and for seven years he gave them into the hands of the Midianites.

Ju. 6:2  Because the power of Midian was so oppressive, the Israelites prepared shelters for themselves in mountain clefts, caves and strongholds.
Whenever the Israelites planted their crops, the Midianites, Amalekites and other eastern peoples invaded the country.

They camped on the land and ruined the crops all the way to Gaza and did not spare a living thing for Israel, neither sheep nor cattle nor donkeys.

They came up with their livestock and their tents like swarms of locusts. It was impossible to count the men and their camels; they invaded the land to ravage it.

Midian so impoverished the Israelites that they cried out to the LORD for help.

When the Israelites cried to the LORD because of Midian, he sent them a prophet, who said, “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: I brought you up out of Egypt, out of the land of slavery.

I snatched you from the power of Egypt and from the hand of all your oppressors. I drove them from before you and gave you their land.

The angel of the LORD came and sat down under the oak in Ophrah that belonged to Joash the Abiezrite, where his son Gideon was threshing wheat in a winepress to keep it from the Midianites.

When the angel of the LORD appeared to Gideon, he said, “The LORD is with you, mighty warrior.”

“But sir,” Gideon replied, “if the LORD is with us, why has all this happened to us? Where are all his wonders that our fathers told us about when they said, `Did not the LORD bring us up out of Egypt?’ But now the LORD has abandoned us and put us into the hand of Midian.”
Ju. 6:14 The LORD turned to him and said, “Go in the strength you have and save Israel out of Midian’s hand. Am I not sending you?”

Ju. 6:15 “But Lord,” Gideon asked, “how can I save Israel? My clan is the weakest in Manasseh, and I am the least in my family.”

Ju. 6:16 The LORD answered, “I will be with you, and you will strike down all the Midianites together.”

Ju. 6:17 Gideon replied, “If now I have found favour in your eyes, give me a sign that it is really you talking to me.

Ju. 6:18 Please do not go away until I come back and bring my offering and set it before you.” And the LORD said, “I will wait until you return.”

Ju. 6:19 Gideon went in, prepared a young goat, and from an ephah of flour he made bread without yeast. Putting the meat in a basket and its broth in a pot, he brought them out and offered them to him under the oak.

Ju. 6:20 The angel of God said to him, “Take the meat and the unleavened bread, place them on this rock, and pour out the broth.” And Gideon did so.

Ju. 6:21 With the tip of the staff that was in his hand, the angel of the LORD touched the meat and the unleavened bread. Fire flared from the rock, consuming the meat and the bread. And the angel of the LORD disappeared.

Ju. 6:22 When Gideon realised that it was the angel of the LORD, he exclaimed, “Ah, Sovereign LORD! I have seen the angel of the LORD face to face!”

Ju. 6:23 But the LORD said to him, “Peace! Do not be afraid. You are not going to die.”

Ju. 6:24 So Gideon built an altar to the LORD there and called it The LORD is Peace. To this day it stands in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

Ju. 6:25 That same night the LORD said to him, “Take the second bull from your father’s herd, the one seven years old. Tear down your father’s altar to Baal and cut down the Asherah pole beside it.

Ju. 6:26 Then build a proper kind of altar to the LORD your God on the top of this height. Using the wood of the Asherah pole that you cut down, offer the second bull as a burnt offering.”

Ju. 6:27 So Gideon took ten of his servants and did as the LORD told him. But because he was afraid of his family and the men of the town, he did it at night rather than in the daytime.

Ju. 6:28 In the morning when the men of the town got up, there was Baal’s altar, demolished, with the Asherah pole beside it cut down and the second bull sacrificed on the newly-built altar!

Ju. 6:29 They asked each other, “Who did this?” When they carefully investigated, they were told, “Gideon son of Joash did it.”

Ju. 6:30 The men of the town demanded of Joash, “Bring out your son. He must die, because he has broken down Baal’s altar and cut down the Asherah pole beside it.”

Ju. 6:31 But Joash replied to the hostile crowd around him, “Are you going to plead Baal’s cause? Are you trying to save him? Whoever fights for him shall be put to death by morning! If Baal really is a god, he can defend himself when someone breaks down his altar.”

Ju. 6:32 So that day they called Gideon “Jerub-Baal,” saying, “Let Baal contend with him,” because he broke down Baal’s altar.

Ju. 6:33 Now all the Midianites, Amalekites and other eastern peoples joined forces and crossed over the Jordan and camped in the Valley of Jezreel.

Ju. 6:34 Then the Spirit of the LORD came upon Gideon, and he blew a trumpet, summoning the Abiezrites to follow him.

Ju. 6:35 He sent messengers throughout Manasseh, calling them to arms, and also into Asher, Zebulun and Naphtali, so that they too went up to meet them.

Ju. 6:36 Gideon said to God, “If you will save Israel by my hand as you have promised —
Ju. 6:37 look, I will place a wool fleece on the threshing-floor. If there is dew only on the fleece and all the ground is dry, then I will know that you will save Israel by my hand, as you said.”

Ju. 6:38 And that is what happened. Gideon rose early the next day; he squeezed the fleece and wrung out the dew — a bowlful of water.

Ju. 6:39 Then Gideon said to God, “Do not be angry with me. Let me make just one more request. Allow me one more test with the fleece. This time make the fleece dry and the ground covered with dew.”

Ju. 6:40 That night God did so. Only the fleece was dry; all the ground was covered with dew.

CHAPTER 7

Ju. 7:1 Early in the morning, Jerub-Baal (that is, Gideon) and all his men camped at the spring of Harod. The camp of Midian was north of them in the valley near the hill of Moreh.

Ju. 7:2 The LORD said to Gideon, “You have too many men for me to deliver Midian into their hands. In order that Israel may not boast against me that her own strength has saved her, announce now to the people, ‘Anyone who trembles with fear may turn back and leave Mount Gilead.’” So twenty-two thousand men left, while ten thousand remained.

Ju. 7:4 But the LORD said to Gideon, “There are still too many men. Take them down to the water, and I will sift them out for you there. If I say, ‘This one shall go with you,’ he shall go; but if I say, ‘This one shall not go with you,’ he shall not go.”

Ju. 7:5 So Gideon took the men down to the water. There the LORD told him, “Separate those who lap the water with their tongues like a dog from those who kneel down to drink.”

Ju. 7:6 Three hundred men lapped with their hands to their mouths. All the rest got down on their knees to drink.
Ju. 7:7 The LORD said to Gideon, “With the three hundred men that lapped I will save you and give the Midianites into your hands. Let all the other men go, each to his own place.”

Ju. 7:8 So Gideon sent the rest of the Israelites to their tents but kept the three hundred, who took over the provisions and trumpets of the others. Now the camp of Midian lay below him in the valley.

Ju. 7:9 During that night the LORD said to Gideon, “Get up, go down against the camp, because I am going to give it into your hands.

Ju. 7:10 If you are afraid to attack, go down to the camp with your servant Purah and listen to what they are saying. Afterwards, you will be encouraged to attack the camp.” So he and Purah his servant went down to the outposts of the camp.

Ju. 7:11 The Midianites, the Amalekites and all the other eastern peoples had settled in the valley, thick as locusts. Their camels could no more be counted than the sand on the seashore.

Ju. 7:12 Gideon arrived just as a man was telling a friend his dream. “I had a dream,” he was saying. “A round loaf of barley bread came tumbling into the Midianite camp. It struck the tent with such force that the tent overturned and collapsed.”

Ju. 7:13 His friend responded, “This can be nothing other than the sword of Gideon son of Joash, the Israelite. God has given the Midianites and the whole camp into his hands.”

Ju. 7:14 When Gideon heard the dream and its interpretation, he worshipped God. He returned to the camp of Israel and called out, “Get up! The LORD has given the Midianite camp into your hands.”

Ju. 7:15 Dividing the three hundred men into three companies, he placed trumpets and empty jars in the hands of all of them, with torches inside.
Ju. 7:17 “Watch me,” he told them. “Follow my lead. When I get to the edge of the camp, do exactly as I do.

Ju. 7:18 When I and all who are with me blow our trumpets, then from all around the camp blow yours and shout, `For the LORD and for Gideon.’”

Ju. 7:19 Gideon and the hundred men with him reached the edge of the camp at the beginning of the middle watch, just after they had changed the guard. They blew their trumpets and broke the jars that were in their hands.

Ju. 7:20 The three companies blew the trumpets and smashed the jars. Grasping the torches in their left hands and holding in their right hands the trumpets they were to blow, they shouted, “A sword for the LORD and for Gideon!”

Ju. 7:21 While each man held his position around the camp, all the Midianites ran, crying out as they fled.

Ju. 7:22 When the three hundred trumpets sounded, the LORD caused the men throughout the camp to turn on each other with their swords. The army fled to Beth Shittah towards Zererah as far as the border of Abel Meholah near Tabbath.

Ju. 7:23 Israelites from Naphtali, Asher and all Manasseh were called out, and they pursued the Midianites.

Ju. 7:24 Gideon sent messengers throughout the hill country of Ephraim, saying, “Come down against the Midianites and seize the waters of the Jordan ahead of them as far as Beth Barah.” So all the men of Ephraim were called out and they took the waters of the Jordan as far as Beth Barah.

Ju. 7:25 They also captured two of the Midianite leaders, Oreb and Zeeb. They killed Oreb at the rock of Oreb, and Zeeb at the winepress of Zeeb. They pursued the Midianites and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon, who was by the Jordan.
Chapter 8

Ju. 8:1 Now the Ephraimites asked Gideon, “Why have you treated us like this? Why didn’t you call us when you went to fight Midian?” And they criticised him sharply.

Ju. 8:2 But he answered them, “What have I accomplished compared to you? Aren’t the gleanings of Ephraim’s grapes better than the full grape harvest of Abiezer?

Ju. 8:3 God gave Oreb and Zeeb, the Midianite leaders, into your hands. What was I able to do compared to you?” At this, their resentment against him subsided.

Ju. 8:4 Gideon and his three hundred men, exhausted yet keeping up the pursuit, came to the Jordan and crossed it.

Ju. 8:5 He said to the men of Succoth, “Give my troops some bread; they are worn out, and I am still pursuing Zebah and Zalmunna, the kings of Midian.”

Ju. 8:6 But the officials of Succoth said, “Do you already have the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna in your possession? Why should we give bread to your troops?”

Ju. 8:7 Then Gideon replied, “Just for that, when the LORD has given Zebah and Zalmunna into my hand, I will tear your flesh with desert thorns and briers.”

Ju. 8:8 From there he went up to Peniel and made the same request of them, but they answered as the men of Succoth had.

Ju. 8:9 So he said to the men of Peniel, “When I return in triumph, I will tear down this tower.”

Ju. 8:10 Now Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor with a force of about fifteen thousand men, all that were left of the armies of the eastern peoples; a hundred and twenty thousand swordsmen had fallen.

Ju. 8:11 Gideon went up by the route of the nomads east of Nobah and Jogbehah and fell upon the unsuspecting army.
Ju. 8:12 Zebah and Zalmunna, the two kings of Midian, fled, but he pursued them and captured them, routing their entire army.

Ju. 8:13 Gideon son of Joash then returned from the battle by the Pass of Heres.

Ju. 8:14 He caught a young man of Succoth and questioned him, and the young man wrote down for him the names of the seventy-seven officials of Succoth, the elders of the town.

Ju. 8:15 Then Gideon came and said to the men of Succoth, “Here are Zebah and Zalmunna, about whom you taunted me by saying, ‘Do you already have the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna in your possession? Why should we give bread to your exhausted men?’”

Ju. 8:16 He took the elders of the town and taught the men of Succoth a lesson by punishing them with desert thorns and briers.

Ju. 8:17 He also pulled down the tower of Peniel and killed the men of the town.

Ju. 8:18 Then he asked Zebah and Zalmunna, “What kind of men did you kill at Tabor?” “Men like you,” they answered, “each one with the bearing of a prince.”

Ju. 8:19 Gideon replied, “Those were my brothers, the sons of my own mother. As surely as the LORD lives, if you had spared their lives, I would not kill you.”

Ju. 8:20 Turning to Jether, his oldest son, he said, “Kill them!” But Jether did not draw his sword, because he was only a boy and was afraid.

Ju. 8:21 Zebah and Zalmunna said, “Come, do it yourself. ‘As is the man, so is his strength.’” So Gideon stepped forward and killed them, and took the ornaments off their camels’ necks.

Ju. 8:22 The Israelites said to Gideon, “Rule over us — you, your son and your grandson — because you have saved us out of the hand of Midian.”
But Gideon told them, “I will not rule over you, nor will my son rule over you. The LORD will rule over you.”

And he said, “I do have one request, that each of you give me an ear-ring from your share of the plunder.” (It was the custom of the Ishmaelites to wear gold ear-rings.)

They answered, “We’ll be glad to give them.” So they spread out a garment, and each man threw a ring from his plunder onto it.

The weight of the gold rings he asked for came to seventeen hundred shekels, not counting the ornaments, the pendants and the purple garments worn by the kings of Midian or the chains that were on their camels’ necks.

Gideon made the gold into an ephod, which he placed in Ophrah, his town. All Israel prostituted themselves by worshipping it there, and it became a snare to Gideon and his family.

Thus Midian was subdued before the Israelites and did not raise its head again. During Gideon’s lifetime, the land enjoyed peace for forty years.

Jerub-Baal son of Joash went back home to live.

He had seventy sons of his own, for he had many wives.

His concubine, who lived in Shechem, also bore him a son, whom he named Abimelech.

Gideon son of Joash died at a good old age and was buried in the tomb of his father Joash in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

No sooner had Gideon died than the Israelites again prostituted themselves to the Baals. They set up Baal-Berith as their god and did not remember the LORD their God, who had rescued them from the hands of all their enemies on every side.

They also failed to show kindness to the family of Jerub-Baal (that is, Gideon) for all the good things he had done for them.
Ju. 9:1 Abimelech son of Jerub-Baal went to his mother’s brothers in Shechem and said to them and to all his mother’s clan,

Ju. 9:2 “Ask all the citizens of Shechem, ‘Which is better for you: to have all seventy of Jerub-Baal’s sons rule over you, or just one man?’ Remember, I am your flesh and blood.”

Ju. 9:3 When the brothers repeated all this to the citizens of Shechem, they were inclined to follow Abimelech, for they said, “He is our brother.”

Ju. 9:4 They gave him seventy shekels of silver from the temple of Baal-Berith, and Abimelech used it to hire reckless adventurers, who became his followers.

Ju. 9:5 He went to his father’s home in Ophrah and on one stone murdered his seventy brothers, the sons of Jerub-Baal. But Jotham, the youngest son of Jerub-Baal, escaped by hiding.

Ju. 9:6 Then all the citizens of Shechem and Beth Millo gathered beside the great tree at the pillar in Shechem to crown Abimelech king.

Ju. 9:7 When Jotham was told about this, he climbed up on the top of Mount Gerizim and shouted to them, “Listen to me, citizens of Shechem, so that God may listen to you.

Ju. 9:8 One day the trees went out to anoint a king for themselves. They said to the olive tree, ‘Be our king.’

Ju. 9:9 “But the olive tree answered, ‘Should I give up my oil, by which both gods and men are honoured, to hold sway over the trees?’

Ju. 9:10 “Next, the trees said to the fig-tree, ‘Come and be our king.’

Ju. 9:11 “But the fig-tree replied, ‘Should I give up my fruit, so good and sweet, to hold sway over the trees?’

Ju. 9:12 “Then the trees said to the vine, ‘Come and be our king.’
But the vine answered, 'Should I give up my wine, which cheers both gods and men, to hold sway over the trees?'

Finally all the trees said to the thornbush, 'Come and be our king.'

The thornbush said to the trees, 'If you really want to anoint me king over you, come and take refuge in my shade; but if not, then let fire come out of the thornbush and consume the cedars of Lebanon!'

Now if you have acted honourably and in good faith when you made Abimelech king, and if you have been fair to Jerub-Baal and his family, and if you have treated him as he deserves — and to think that my father fought for you, risked his life to rescue you from the hand of Midian but today you have revolted against my father’s family, murdered his seventy sons on a single stone, and made Abimelech, the son of his slave girl, king over the citizens of Shechem because he is your brother) —

if then you have acted honourably and in good faith towards Jerub-Baal and his family today, may Abimelech be your joy, and may you be his, too!

But if you have not, let fire come out from Abimelech and consume you, citizens of Shechem and Beth Millo, and let fire come out from you, citizens of Shechem and Beth Millo, and consume Abimelech!

Then Jotham fled, escaping to Beer, and he lived there because he was afraid of his brother Abimelech.

After Abimelech had governed Israel for three years,

God sent an evil spirit between Abimelech and the citizens of Shechem, who acted treacherously against Abimelech.

God did this in order that the crime against Jerub-Baal’s seventy sons, the shedding of their blood, might be avenged.
on their brother Abimelech and on the citizens of Shechem, who had helped him murder his brothers.

In opposition to him these citizens of Shechem set men on the hilltops to ambush and rob everyone who passed by, and this was reported to Abimelech.

Now Gaal son of Ebed moved with his brothers into Shechem, and its citizens put their confidence in him.

After they had gone out into the fields and gathered the grapes and trodden them, they held a festival in the temple of their god. While they were eating and drinking, they cursed Abimelech.

Then Gaal son of Ebed said, “Who is Abimelech, and who is Shechem, that we should be subject to him? Isn’t he Jerub-Baal’s son, and isn’t Zebul his deputy? Serve the men of Hamor, Shechem’s father! Why should we serve Abimelech?

If only this people were under my command! Then I would get rid of him. I would say to Abimelech, ‘Call out your whole army!’

When Zebul the governor of the city heard what Gaal son of Ebed said, he was very angry.

Under cover he sent messengers to Abimelech, saying, “Gaal son of Ebed and his brothers have come to Shechem and are stirring up the city against you.

Now then, during the night you and your men should come and lie in wait in the fields.

In the morning at sunrise, advance against the city. When Gaal and his men come out against you, do whatever your hand finds to do.”

So Abimelech and all his troops set out by night and took up concealed positions near Shechem in four companies.

Now Gaal son of Ebed had gone out and was standing at the entrance to the city gate just as Abimelech and his soldiers came out from their hiding-place.
When Gaal saw them, he said to Zebul, “Look, people are coming down from the tops of the mountains!” Zebul replied, “You mistake the shadows of the mountains for men.”

But Gaal spoke up again: “Look, people are coming down from the centre of the land, and a company is coming from the direction of the soothsayers’ tree.”

Then Zebul said to him, “Where is your big talk now, you who said, ‘Who is Abimelech that we should be subject to him?’ Aren’t these the men you ridiculed? Go out and fight them!”

So Gaal led out the citizens of Shechem and fought Abimelech.

Abimelech chased him, and many fell wounded in the flight — all the way to the entrance to the gate.

Abimelech stayed in Arumah, and Zebul drove Gaal and his brothers out of Shechem.

The next day the people of Shechem went out to the fields, and this was reported to Abimelech.

So he took his men, divided them into three companies and set an ambush in the fields. When he saw the people coming out of the city, he rose to attack them.

Abimelech and the companies with him rushed forward to a position at the entrance to the city gate. Then two companies rushed upon those in the fields and struck them down.

All that day Abimelech pressed his attack against the city until he had captured it and killed its people. Then he destroyed the city and scattered salt over it.

On hearing this, the citizens in the tower of Shechem went into the stronghold of the temple of El-Berith.

When Abimelech heard that they had assembled there, he and all his men went up Mount Zalmon. He took an axe and cut off some branches, which he lifted to his shoulders.
He ordered the men with him, “Quick! Do what you have seen me do!”

Ju. 9:49 So all the men cut branches and followed Abimelech. They piled them against the stronghold and set it on fire over the people inside. So all the people in the tower of Shechem, about a thousand men and women, also died.

Ju. 9:50 Next Abimelech went to Thebez and besieged it and captured it.

Ju. 9:51 Inside the city, however, was a strong tower, to which all the men and women — all the people of the city — fled. They locked themselves in and climbed up on the tower roof.

Ju. 9:52 Abimelech went to the tower and stormed it. But as he approached the entrance to the tower to set it on fire,

Ju. 9:53 a woman dropped an upper millstone on his head and cracked his skull.

Ju. 9:54 Hurriedly he called to his armour-bearer, “Draw your sword and kill me, so that they can’t say, ‘A woman killed him.’” So his servant ran him through, and he died.

Ju. 9:55 When the Israelites saw that Abimelech was dead, they went home.

Ju. 9:56 Thus God repaid the wickedness that Abimelech had done to his father by murdering his seventy brothers.

Ju. 9:57 God also made the men of Shechem pay for all their wickedness. The curse of Jotham son of Jerub-Baal came on them.

CHAPTER 10

Ju. 10:1 After the time of Abimelech a man of Issachar, Tola son of Puah, the son of Dodo, rose to save Israel. He lived in Shamir, in the hill country of Ephraim.
Ju. 10:2 He led Israel for twenty-three years; then he died, and was buried in Shamir.

Ju. 10:3 He was followed by Jair of Gilead, who led Israel for twenty-two years.

Ju. 10:4 He had thirty sons, who rode thirty donkeys. They controlled thirty towns in Gilead, which to this day are called Havvoth Jair.

Ju. 10:5 When Jair died, he was buried in Kamon.

Ju. 10:6 Again the Israelites did evil in the eyes of the LORD. They served the Baals and the Ashtoreths, and the gods of Aram, the gods of Sidon, the gods of Moab, the gods of the Ammonites and the gods of the Philistines. And because the Israelites forsook the LORD and no longer served him,

Ju. 10:7 he became angry with them. He sold them into the hands of the Philistines and the Ammonites, Ju. 10:8 who that year shattered and crushed them. For eighteen years they oppressed all the Israelites on the east side of the Jordan in Gilead, the land of the Amorites.

Ju. 10:9 The Ammonites also crossed the Jordan to fight against Judah, Benjamin and the house of Ephraim; and Israel was in great distress.

Ju. 10:10 Then the Israelites cried out to the LORD, “We have sinned against you, forsaking our God and serving the Baals.”

Ju. 10:11 The LORD replied, “When the Egyptians, the Amorites, the Ammonites, the Philistines, Ju. 10:12 the Sidonians, the Amalekites and the Maonites oppressed you and you cried to me for help, did I not save you from their hands?

Ju. 10:13 But you have forsaken me and served other gods, so I will no longer save you.

Ju. 10:14 Go and cry out to the gods you have chosen. Let them save you when you are in trouble!”
Ju. 10:15 But the Israelites said to the LORD, “We have sinned. Do with us whatever you think best, but please rescue us now.”

Ju. 10:16 Then they got rid of the foreign gods among them and served the LORD. And he could bear Israel’s misery no longer.

Ju. 10:17 When the Ammonites were called to arms and camped in Gilead, the Israelites assembled and camped at Mizpah.

Ju. 10:18 The leaders of the people of Gilead said to each other, “Whoever will launch the attack against the Ammonites will be the head of all those living in Gilead.”

CHAPTER 11

Ju. 11:1 Jephthah the Gileadite was a mighty warrior. His father was Gilead; his mother was a prostitute.

Ju. 11:2 Gilead’s wife also bore him sons, and when they were grown up, they drove Jephthah away. “You are not going to get any inheritance in our family,” they said, “because you are the son of another woman.”

Ju. 11:3 So Jephthah fled from his brothers and settled in the land of Tob, where a group of adventurers gathered around him and followed him.

Ju. 11:4 Some time later, when the Ammonites made war on Israel,

Ju. 11:5 the elders of Gilead went to get Jephthah from the land of Tob.

Ju. 11:6 “Come,” they said, “be our commander, so we can fight the Ammonites.”

Ju. 11:7 Jephthah said to them, “Didn’t you hate me and drive me from my father’s house? Why do you come to me now, when you’re in trouble?”

Ju. 11:8 The elders of Gilead said to him, “Nevertheless, we are turning to you now; come with us to fight the Ammonites, and you will be our head over all who live in Gilead.”
Ju. 11:9 Jephthah answered, “Suppose you take me back to fight the Ammonites and the LORD gives them to me — will I really be your head?”

Ju. 11:10 The elders of Gilead replied, “The LORD is our witness; we will certainly do as you say.”

Ju. 11:11 So Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and commander over them. And he repeated all his words before the LORD in Mizpah.

Ju. 11:12 Then Jephthah sent messengers to the Ammonite king with the question: “What do you have against us that you have attacked our country?”

Ju. 11:13 The king of the Ammonites answered Jephthah’s messengers, “When Israel came up out of Egypt, they took away my land from the Arnon to the Jabbok, all the way to the Jordan. Now give it back peaceably.”

Ju. 11:14 Jephthah sent back messengers to the Ammonite king, saying: “This is what Jephthah says: Israel did not take the land of Moab or the land of the Ammonites.

Ju. 11:15 But when they came up out of Egypt, Israel went through the desert to the Red Sea and on to Kadesh.

Ju. 11:16 Then Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom, saying, ‘Give us permission to go through your country,’ but the king of Edom would not listen. They sent also to the king of Moab, and he refused. So Israel stayed at Kadesh.

Ju. 11:17 ‘Next they travelled through the desert, skirted the lands of Edom and Moab, passed along the eastern side of the country of Moab, and camped on the other side of the Arnon. They did not enter the territory of Moab, for the Arnon was its border.

Ju. 11:18 ‘Then Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, who ruled in Heshbon, and said to him, ‘Let us pass through your country to our own place.’
Ju. 11:20 Sihon, however, did not trust Israel to pass through his territory. He mustered all his men and encamped at Jahaz and fought with Israel.

Ju. 11:21 “Then the LORD, the God of Israel, gave Sihon and all his men into Israel’s hands, and they defeated them. Israel took over all the land of the Amorites who lived in that country, capturing all of it from the Arnon to the Jabbok and from the desert to the Jordan.

Ju. 11:22 “Now since the LORD, the God of Israel, has driven the Amorites out before his people Israel, what right have you to take it over?

Ju. 11:23 Will you not take what your god Chemosh gives you? Likewise, whatever the LORD our God has given us, we will possess.

Ju. 11:24 Are you better than Balak son of Zippor, king of Moab? Did he ever quarrel with Israel or fight with them?

Ju. 11:25 For three hundred years Israel occupied Heshbon, Aroer, the surrounding settlements and all the towns along the Arnon. Why didn’t you retake them during that time?

Ju. 11:26 I have not wronged you, but you are doing me wrong by waging war against me. Let the LORD, the Judge, decide the dispute this day between the Israelites and the Ammonites.”

Ju. 11:28 The king of Ammon, however, paid no attention to the message Jephthah sent him.

Ju. 11:29 Then the Spirit of the LORD came upon Jephthah. He crossed Gilead and Manasseh, passed through Mizpah of Gilead, and from there he advanced against the Ammonites.

Ju. 11:30 And Jephthah made a vow to the LORD: “If you give the Ammonites into my hands, Ju. 11:31 whatever comes out of the door of my house to meet me when I return in triumph from the Ammonites will be the LORD’s, and I will sacrifice it as a burnt offering.”

Ju. 11:32 Then Jephthah went over to fight the Ammonites, and the LORD gave them into his hands.

Ju. 11:33 He devastated twenty towns from Aroer to the vicinity of Minnith, as far as Abel Keramim. Thus Israel subdued Ammon.

Ju. 11:34 When Jephthah returned to his home in Mizpah, who should come out to meet him but his daughter, dancing to the sound of tambourines! She was an only child. Except for her he had neither son nor daughter.

Ju. 11:35 When he saw her, he tore his clothes and cried, “Oh! My daughter! You have made me miserable and wretched, because I have made a vow to the LORD that I cannot break.”

Ju. 11:36 “My father,” she replied, “you have given your word to the LORD. Do to me just as you promised, now that the LORD has avenged you of your enemies, the Ammonites.

Ju. 11:37 But grant me this one request,” she said. “Give me two months to roam the hills and weep with my friends, because I will never marry.”

Ju. 11:38 “You may go,” he said. And he let her go for two months. She and the girls went into the hills and wept because she would never marry.

Ju. 11:39 After the two months, she returned to her father and he did to her as he had vowed. And she was a virgin. From this comes the Israelite custom that each year the young women of Israel go out for four days to commemorate the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite.

CHAPTER 12

Ju. 12:1 The men of Ephraim called out their forces, crossed over to Zaphon and said to Jephthah, “Why did you go to fight the Ammonites without calling us to go with you? We’re going to burn down your house over your head.”

Ju. 12:2 Jephthah answered, “I and my people were engaged in a great struggle with the Ammonites, and although I called, you didn’t save me out of their hands.

Ju. 12:3 When I saw that you wouldn’t help, I took my life in my hands and crossed over to fight the Ammonites, and the LORD gave me the victory over them. Now why have you come up today to fight me?”

Ju. 12:4 Jephthah then called together the men of Gilead and fought against Ephraim. The Gileadites struck them down because the Ephraimites had said, “You Gileadites are renegades from Ephraim and Manasseh.”

Ju. 12:5 They said, “All right, say `Shibboleth’.” If he said, “Sibboleth”, because he could not pronounce the word correctly, they seized him and killed him at the fords of the Jordan. Forty-two thousand Ephraimites were killed at that time.

Ju. 12:6 Jephthah led Israel for six years. Then Jephthah the Gileadite died, and was buried in a town in Gilead.

Ju. 12:7 After him, Ibzan of Bethlehem led Israel.

Ju. 12:8 He had thirty sons and thirty daughters. He gave his daughters away in marriage to those outside his clan, and for his sons he brought in thirty young women as wives from outside his clan. Ibzan led Israel for seven years.

Ju. 12:10 Then Ibzan died, and was buried in Bethlehem.

Ju. 12:11 After him, Elon the Zebulunite led Israel for ten years.

Ju. 12:12 Then Elon died, and was buried in Aijalon in the land of Zebulun.
After him, Abdon son of Hillel, from Pirathon, led Israel.

He had forty sons and thirty grandsons, who rode on seventy donkeys. He led Israel for eight years.

Then Abdon son of Hillel died, and was buried at Pirathon in Ephraim, in the hill country of the Amalekites.

CHAPTER 13

Again the Israelites did evil in the eyes of the LORD, so the LORD delivered them into the hands of the Philistines for forty years.

A certain man of Zorah, named Manoah, from the clan of the Danites, had a wife who was sterile and remained childless.

The angel of the LORD appeared to her and said, “You are sterile and childless, but you are going to conceive and have a son.

Now see to it that you drink no wine or other fermented drink and that you do not eat anything unclean, because you will conceive and give birth to a son. No razor may be used on his head, because the boy is to be a Nazirite, set apart to God from birth, and he will begin the deliverance of Israel from the hands of the Philistines.”

Then the woman went to her husband and told him, “A man of God came to me. He looked like an angel of God, very awesome. I didn’t ask him where he came from, and he didn’t tell me his name.

But he said to me, ‘You will conceive and give birth to a son. Now then, drink no wine or other fermented drink and do not eat anything unclean, because the boy will be a Nazirite of God from birth until the day of his death.’

Then Manoah prayed to the LORD: “O Lord, I beg you, let the man of God you sent to us come again to teach us how to bring up the boy who is to be born.”
God heard Manoah, and the angel of God came again to the woman while she was out in the field; but her husband Manoah was not with her.

The woman hurried to tell her husband, “He’s here! The man who appeared to me the other day!”

Manoah got up and followed his wife. When he came to the man, he said, “Are you the one who talked to my wife?” “I am,” he said.

So Manoah asked him, “When your words are fulfilled, what is to be the rule for the boy’s life and work?”

The angel of the LORD answered, “Your wife must do all that I have told her.

She must not eat anything that comes from the grapevine, nor drink any wine or other fermented drink nor eat anything unclean. She must do everything I have commanded her.”

Manoah said to the angel of the LORD, “We would like you to stay until we prepare a young goat for you.”

The angel of the LORD replied, “Even though you detain me, I will not eat any of your food. But if you prepare a burnt offering, offer it to the LORD.” (Manoah did not realise that it was the angel of the LORD.)

Then Manoah enquired of the angel of the LORD, “What is your name, so that we may honour you when your word comes true?”

He replied, “Why do you ask my name? It is beyond understanding.”

Then Manoah took a young goat, together with the grain offering, and sacrificed it on a rock to the LORD. And the LORD did an amazing thing while Manoah and his wife watched:

As the flame blazed up from the altar towards heaven, the angel of the LORD ascended in the flame. Seeing this, Manoah and his wife fell with their faces to the ground.
Ju. 13:21 When the angel of the LORD did not show himself again to Manoah and his wife, Manoah realised that it was the angel of the LORD.

Ju. 13:22 “We are doomed to die!” he said to his wife. “We have seen God!”

Ju. 13:23 But his wife answered, “If the LORD had meant to kill us, he would not have accepted a burnt offering and grain offering from our hands, nor shown us all these things or now told us this.”

Ju. 13:24 The woman gave birth to a boy and named him Samson. He grew and the LORD blessed him,

Ju. 13:25 and the Spirit of the LORD began to stir him while he was in Mahaneh Dan, between Zorah and Eshtaol.

CHAPTER 14

Ju. 14:1 Samson went down to Timnah and saw there a young Philistine woman.

Ju. 14:2 When he returned, he said to his father and mother, “I have seen a Philistine woman in Timnah; now get her for me as my wife.”

Ju. 14:3 His father and mother replied, “Isn’t there an acceptable woman among your relatives or among all our people? Must you go to the uncircumcised Philistines to get a wife?” But Samson said to his father, “Get her for me. She’s the right one for me.”

Ju. 14:4 (His parents did not know that this was from the LORD, who was seeking an occasion to confront the Philistines; for at that time they were ruling over Israel.)

Ju. 14:5 Samson went down to Timnah together with his father and mother. As they approached the vineyards of Timnah, suddenly a young lion came roaring towards him.
Ju. 14:6 The Spirit of the LORD came upon him in power so that he tore the lion apart with his bare hands as he might have torn a young goat. But he told neither his father nor his mother what he had done.

Ju. 14:7 Then he went down and talked with the woman, and he liked her.

Ju. 14:8 Some time later, when he went back to marry her, he turned aside to look at the lion’s carcass. In it was a swarm of bees and some honey, Ju. 14:9 which he scooped out with his hands and ate as he went along. When he rejoined his parents, he gave them some, and they too ate it. But he did not tell them that he had taken the honey from the lion’s carcass.

Ju. 14:10 Now his father went down to see the woman. And Samson made a feast there, as was customary for bridegrooms.

Ju. 14:11 When he appeared, he was given thirty companions.

Ju. 14:12 “Let me tell you a riddle,” Samson said to them. “If you can give me the answer within the seven days of the feast, I will give you thirty linen garments and thirty sets of clothes.

Ju. 14:13 If you can’t tell me the answer, you must give me thirty linen garments and thirty sets of clothes.” “Tell us your riddle,” they said. “Let’s hear it.”

Ju. 14:14 He replied, “Out of the eater, something to eat; out of the strong, something sweet.” For three days they could not give the answer.

Ju. 14:15 On the fourth day, they said to Samson’s wife, “Coax your husband into explaining the riddle for us, or we will burn you and your father’s household to death. Did you invite us here to rob us?”

Ju. 14:16 Then Samson’s wife threw herself on him, sobbing, “You hate me! You don’t really love me. You’ve given my people a riddle, but you haven’t told me the answer.” “I haven’t even explained it to my father or mother,” he replied, “so why should I explain it to you?”

Ju. 14:17 She cried the whole seven days of the feast. So on the seventh day he finally told her, because she continued to press him. She in turn explained the riddle to her people.

Ju. 14:18 Before sunset on the seventh day the men of the town said to him, “What is sweeter than honey? What is stronger than a lion?” Samson said to them, “If you had not ploughed with my heifer, you would not have solved my riddle.”

Ju. 14:19 Then the Spirit of the LORD came upon him in power. He went down to Ashkelon, struck down thirty of their men, stripped them of their belongings and gave their clothes to those who had explained the riddle. Burning with anger, he went up to his father’s house.

Ju. 14:20 And Samson’s wife was given to the friend who had attended him at his wedding.

CHAPTER 15

Ju. 15:1 Later on, at the time of wheat harvest, Samson took a young goat and went to visit his wife. He said, “I’m going to my wife’s room.” But her father would not let him go in.

Ju. 15:2 “I was so sure you thoroughly hated her,” he said, “that I gave her to your friend. Isn’t her younger sister more attractive? Take her instead.”

Ju. 15:3 Samson said to them, “This time I have a right to get even with the Philistines; I will really harm them.”

Ju. 15:4 So he went out and caught three hundred foxes and tied them tail to tail in pairs. He then fastened a torch to every pair of tails,

Ju. 15:5 lit the torches and let the foxes loose in the standing corn of the Philistines. He burned up the shocks and standing corn, together with the vineyards and olive groves.
Ju. 15:6 When the Philistines asked, “Who did this?” they were told, “Samson, the Timnite’s son-in-law, because his wife was given to his friend.” So the Philistines went up and burned her and her father to death.

Ju. 15:7 Samson said to them, “Since you’ve acted like this, I won’t stop until I get my revenge on you.”

Ju. 15:8 He attacked them viciously and slaughtered many of them. Then he went down and stayed in a cave in the rock of Etam.

Ju. 15:9 The Philistines went up and camped in Judah, spreading out near Lehi.

Ju. 15:10 The men of Judah asked, “Why have you come to fight us?” “We have come to take Samson prisoner,” they answered, “to do to him as he did to us.”

Ju. 15:11 Then three thousand men from Judah went down to the cave in the rock of Etam and said to Samson, “Don’t you realise that the Philistines are rulers over us? What have you done to us?” He answered, “I merely did to them what they did to me.”

Ju. 15:12 They said to him, “We’ve come to tie you up and hand you over to the Philistines.” Samson said, “Swear to me that you won’t kill me yourselves.”

Ju. 15:13 “Agreed,” they answered. “We will only tie you up and hand you over to them. We will not kill you.” So they bound him with two new ropes and led him up from the rock.

Ju. 15:14 As he approached Lehi, the Philistines came towards him shouting. The Spirit of the LORD came upon him in power. The ropes on his arms became like charred flax, and the bindings dropped from his hands.

Ju. 15:15 Finding a fresh jaw-bone of a donkey, he grabbed it and struck down a thousand men.

Ju. 15:16 Then Samson said, “With a donkey’s jaw-bone I have made donkeys of them. With a donkey’s jaw-bone I have killed a thousand men.”
Ju. 15:17 When he finished speaking, he threw away the jaw-bone; and the place was called Ramath Lehi.

Ju. 15:18 Because he was very thirsty, he cried out to the LORD, “You have given your servant this great victory. Must I now die of thirst and fall into the hands of the uncircumcised?”

Ju. 15:19 Then God opened up the hollow place in Lehi, and water came out of it. When Samson drank, his strength returned and he revived. So the spring was called En Hakkore, and it is still there in Lehi.

Ju. 15:20 Samson led Israel for twenty years in the days of the Philistines.

CHAPTER 16

Ju. 16:1 One day Samson went to Gaza, where he saw a prostitute. He went in to spend the night with her.

Ju. 16:2 The people of Gaza were told, “Samson is here!” So they surrounded the place and lay in wait for him all night at the city gate. They made no move during the night, saying, “At dawn we’ll kill him.”

Ju. 16:3 But Samson lay there only until the middle of the night. Then he got up and took hold of the doors of the city gate, together with the two posts, and tore them loose, bar and all. He lifted them to his shoulders and carried them to the top of the hill that faces Hebron.

Ju. 16:4 Some time later, he fell in love with a woman in the Valley of Sorek whose name was Delilah.

Ju. 16:5 The rulers of the Philistines went to her and said, “See if you can lure him into showing you the secret of his great strength and how we can overpower him so that we may tie him up and subdue him. Each one of us will give you eleven hundred shekels of silver.”
So Delilah said to Samson, “Tell me the secret of your great strength and how you can be tied up and subdued.”

Ju. 16:7 Samson answered her, “If anyone ties me with seven fresh thongs that have not been dried, I’ll become as weak as any other man.”

Ju. 16:8 Then the rulers of the Philistines brought her seven fresh thongs that had not been dried, and she tied him with them.

Ju. 16:9 With men hidden in the room, she called to him, “Samson, the Philistines are upon you!” But he snapped the thongs as easily as a piece of string snaps when it comes close to a flame. So the secret of his strength was not discovered.

Ju. 16:10 Then Delilah said to Samson, “You have made a fool of me; you lied to me. Come now, tell me how you can be tied.”

Ju. 16:11 He said, “If anyone ties me securely with new ropes that have never been used, I’ll become as weak as any other man.”

Ju. 16:12 So Delilah took new ropes and tied him with them. Then, with men hidden in the room, she called to him, “Samson, the Philistines are upon you!” But he snapped the ropes off his arms as if they were threads.

Ju. 16:13 Delilah then said to Samson, “Until now, you have been making a fool of me and lying to me. Tell me how you can be tied.” He replied, “If you weave the seven braids of my head into the fabric on the loom and tighten it with the pin, I’ll become as weak as any other man.” So while he was sleeping, Delilah took the seven braids of his head, wove them into the fabric and tightened it with the pin. Again she called to him, “Samson, the Philistines are upon you!” He awoke from his sleep and pulled up the pin and the loom, with the fabric.

Ju. 16:15 Then she said to him, “How can you say, ‘I love you,’ when you won’t confide in me? This is the third time you have made a fool of me and haven’t told me the secret of your great strength.”
With such nagging she prodded him day after day until he was tired to death.

So he told her everything. “No razor has ever been used on my head,” he said, “because I have been a Nazirite set apart to God since birth. If my head were shaved, my strength would leave me, and I would become as weak as any other man.”

When Delilah saw that he had told her everything, she sent word to the rulers of the Philistines, “Come back once more; he has told me everything.” So the rulers of the Philistines returned with the silver in their hands.

Having put him to sleep on her lap, she called a man to shave off the seven braids of his hair, and so began to subdue him. And his strength left him.

Then she called, “Samson, the Philistines are upon you!” He awoke from his sleep and thought, “I’ll go out as before and shake myself free.” But he did not know that the LORD had left him.

Then the Philistines seized him, gouged out his eyes and took him down to Gaza. Binding him with bronze shackles, they set him to grinding in the prison.

But the hair on his head began to grow again after it had been shaved.

Now the rulers of the Philistines assembled to offer a great sacrifice to Dagon their god and to celebrate, saying, “Our god has delivered Samson, our enemy, into our hands.”

When the people saw him, they praised their god, saying, “Our god has delivered our enemy into our hands, the one who laid waste our land and multiplied our slain.”

While they were in high spirits, they shouted, “Bring out Samson to entertain us.” So they called Samson out of the prison, and he performed for them. When they stood him among the pillars,
Ju. 16:26 Samson said to the servant who held his hand, “Put me where I can feel the pillars that support the temple, so that I may lean against them.”

Ju. 16:27 Now the temple was crowded with men and women; all the rulers of the Philistines were there, and on the roof were about three thousand men and women watching Samson perform.

Ju. 16:28 Then Samson prayed to the LORD, “O Sovereign LORD, remember me. O God, please strengthen me just once more, and let me with one blow get revenge on the Philistines for my two eyes.”

Ju. 16:29 Then Samson reached towards the two central pillars on which the temple stood. Bracing himself against them, his right hand on the one and his left hand on the other,

Ju. 16:30 Samson said, “Let me die with the Philistines!” Then he pushed with all his might, and down came the temple on the rulers and all the people in it. Thus he killed many more when he died than while he lived.

Ju. 16:31 Then his brothers and his father’s whole family went down to get him. They brought him back and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol in the tomb of Manoah his father. He had led Israel for twenty years.

CHAPTER 17

Ju. 17:1 Now a man named Micah from the hill country of Ephraim

Ju. 17:2 said to his mother, “The eleven hundred shekels of silver that were taken from you and about which I heard you utter a curse — I have that silver with me; I took it.” Then his mother said, “The LORD bless you, my son!”

Ju. 17:3 When he returned the eleven hundred shekels of silver to his mother, she said, “I solemnly consecrate my silver to the LORD for my son to make a carved image and a cast idol. I will give it back to you.”
Ju. 17:4 So he returned the silver to his mother, and she took two hundred shekels of silver and gave them to a silversmith, who made them into the image and the idol. And they were put in Micah’s house.

Ju. 17:5 Now this man Micah had a shrine, and he made an ephod and some idols and installed one of his sons as his priest.

Ju. 17:6 In those days Israel had no king; everyone did as he saw fit.

Ju. 17:7 A young Levite from Bethlehem in Judah, who had been living within the clan of Judah, Ju. 17:8 left that town in search of some other place to stay. On his way he came to Micah’s house in the hill country of Ephraim.

Ju. 17:9 Micah asked him, “Where are you from?” “I’m a Levite from Bethlehem in Judah,” he said, “and I’m looking for a place to stay.”

Ju. 17:10 Then Micah said to him, “Live with me and be my father and priest, and I’ll give you ten shekels of silver a year, your clothes and your food.”

Ju. 17:11 So the Levite agreed to live with him, and the young man was to him like one of his sons.

Ju. 17:12 Then Micah installed the Levite, and the young man became his priest and lived in his house.

Ju. 17:13 And Micah said, “Now I know that the LORD will be good to me, since this Levite has become my priest.”

CHAPTER 18

Ju. 18:1 In those days Israel had no king. And in those days the tribe of the Danites was seeking a place of their own where they might settle, because they had not yet come into an inheritance among the tribes of Israel.

Ju. 18:2 So the Danites sent five warriors from Zorah and Eshtaol to spy out the land and explore it. These men represented all their clans. They told them, “Go, explore the land.” The men entered the hill country of Ephraim and came to the house of Micah, where they spent the night.

Ju. 18:3 When they were near Micah’s house, they recognised the voice of the young Levite; so they turned in there and asked him, “Who brought you here? What are you doing in this place? Why are you here?”

Ju. 18:4 He told them what Micah had done for him, and said, “He has hired me and I am his priest.”

Ju. 18:5 Then they said to him, “Please enquire of God to learn whether our journey will be successful.”

Ju. 18:6 The priest answered them, “Go in peace. Your journey has the LORD’s approval.”

Ju. 18:7 So the five men left and came to Laish, where they saw that the people were living in safety, like the Sidonians, unsuspecting and secure. And since their land lacked nothing, they were prosperous. Also, they lived a long way from the Sidonians and had no relationship with anyone else.

Ju. 18:8 When they returned to Zorah and Eshtaol, their brothers asked them, “How did you find things?”

Ju. 18:9 They answered, “Come on, let’s attack them! We have seen that the land is very good. Aren’t you going to do something? Don’t hesitate to go there and take it over.”

Ju. 18:10 When you get there, you will find an unsuspecting people and a spacious land that God has put into your hands, a land that lacks nothing whatever.”

Ju. 18:11 Then six hundred men from the clan of the Danites, armed for battle, set out from Zorah and Eshtaol.

Ju. 18:12 On their way they set up camp near Kiriath Jearim in Judah. This is why the place west of Kiriath Jearim is called Mahaneh Dan to this day.

Ju. 18:13 From there they went on to the hill country of Ephraim and came to Micah’s house.
Then the five men who had spied out the land of Laish said to their brothers, “Do you know that one of these houses has an ephod, other household gods, a carved image and a cast idol? Now you know what to do.”

So they turned in there and went to the house of the young Levite at Micah’s place and greeted him.

The six hundred Danites, armed for battle, stood at the entrance to the gate.

The five men who had spied out the land went inside and took the carved image, the ephod, the other household gods and the cast idol while the priest and the six hundred armed men stood at the entrance to the gate.

When these men went into Micah’s house and took the carved image, the ephod, the other household gods and the cast idol, the priest said to them, “What are you doing?”

They answered him, “Be quiet! Don’t say a word. Come with us, and be our father and priest. Isn’t it better that you serve a tribe and clan in Israel as priest rather than just one man’s household?”

Then the priest was glad. He took the ephod, the other household gods and the carved image and went along with the people.

Putting their little children, their livestock and their possessions in front of them, they turned away and left.

When they had gone some distance from Micah’s house, the men who lived near Micah were called together and overtook the Danites.

As they shouted after them, the Danites turned and said to Micah, “What’s the matter with you that you called out your men to fight?”

He replied, “You took the gods I made, and my priest, and went away. What else do I have? How can you ask, ‘What’s the matter with you?’”
Ju. 18:25 The Danites answered, “Don’t argue with us, or some hot-tempered men will attack you, and you and your family will lose your lives.”

Ju. 18:26 So the Danites went their way, and Micah, seeing that they were too strong for him, turned round and went back home.

Ju. 18:27 Then they took what Micah had made, and his priest, and went on to Laish, against a peaceful and unsuspecting people. They attacked them with the sword and burned down their city.

Ju. 18:28 There was no-one to rescue them because they lived a long way from Sidon and had no relationship with anyone else. The city was in a valley near Beth Rehob. The Danites rebuilt the city and settled there.

Ju. 18:29 They named it Dan after their forefather Dan, who was born to Israel — though the city used to be called Laish.

Ju. 18:30 There the Danites set up for themselves the idols, and Jonathan son of Gershom, the son of Moses, and his sons were priests for the tribe of Dan until the time of the captivity of the land.

Ju. 18:31 They continued to use the idols Micah had made, all the time the house of God was in Shiloh.

CHAPTER 19

Ju. 19:1 In those days Israel had no king. Now a Levite who lived in a remote area in the hill country of Ephraim took a concubine from Bethlehem in Judah.

Ju. 19:2 But she was unfaithful to him. She left him and went back to her father’s house in Bethlehem, Judah. After she had been there for four months,

Ju. 19:3 her husband went to her to persuade her to return. He had with him his servant and two donkeys. She took him into her father’s house, and when her father saw him, he gladly welcomed him.

Ju. 19:4  His father-in-law, the girl’s father, prevailed upon him to stay; so he remained with him three days, eating and drinking, and sleeping there.

Ju. 19:5  On the fourth day they got up early and he prepared to leave, but the girl’s father said to his son-in-law, “Refresh yourself with something to eat; then you can go.”

Ju. 19:6  So the two of them sat down to eat and drink together. Afterwards the girl’s father said, “Please stay tonight and enjoy yourself.”

Ju. 19:7  And when the man got up to go, his father-in-law persuaded him, so he stayed there that night.

Ju. 19:8  On the morning of the fifth day, when he rose to go, the girl’s father said, “Refresh yourself. Wait till afternoon!” So the two of them ate together.

Ju. 19:9  Then when the man, with his concubine and his servant, got up to leave, his father-in-law, the girl’s father, said, “Now look, it’s almost evening. Spend the night here; the day is nearly over. Stay and enjoy yourself. Early tomorrow morning you can get up and be on your way home.”

Ju. 19:10 But, unwilling to stay another night, the man left and went towards Jebus (that is, Jerusalem), with his two saddled donkeys and his concubine.

Ju. 19:11 When they were near Jebus and the day was almost gone, the servant said to his master, “Come, let’s stop at this city of the Jebusites and spend the night.”

Ju. 19:12 His master replied, “No. We won’t go into an alien city, whose people are not Israelites. We will go on to Gibeah.”

Ju. 19:13 He added, “Come, let’s try to reach Gibeah or Ramah and spend the night in one of those places.”

Ju. 19:14 So they went on, and the sun set as they neared Gibeah in Benjamin.
Ju. 19:15 There they stopped to spend the night. They went and sat in the city square, but no-one took them into his home for the night.

Ju. 19:16 That evening an old man from the hill country of Ephraim, who was living in Gibeah (the men of the place were Benjamites), came in from his work in the fields.

Ju. 19:17 When he looked and saw the traveller in the city square, the old man asked, “Where are you going? Where did you come from?”

Ju. 19:18 He answered, “We are on our way from Bethlehem in Judah to a remote area in the hill country of Ephraim where I live. I have been to Bethlehem in Judah and now I am going to the house of the LORD. No-one has taken me into his house.

Ju. 19:19 We have both straw and fodder for our donkeys and bread and wine for ourselves your servants — me, your maidservant, and the young man with us. We don’t need anything.”

Ju. 19:20 “You are welcome at my house,” the old man said. “Let me supply whatever you need. Only don’t spend the night in the square.”

Ju. 19:21 So he took him into his house and fed his donkeys. After they had washed their feet, they had something to eat and drink.

Ju. 19:22 While they were enjoying themselves, some of the wicked men of the city surrounded the house. Pounding on the door, they shouted to the old man who owned the house, “Bring out the man who came to your house so we can have sex with him.”

Ju. 19:23 The owner of the house went outside and said to them, “No, my friends, don’t be so vile. Since this man is my guest, don’t do this disgraceful thing.

Ju. 19:24 Look, here is my virgin daughter, and his concubine. I will bring them out to you now, and you can use them and do to them whatever you wish. But to this man, don’t do such a disgraceful thing.”
Ju. 19:25 But the men would not listen to him. So the man took his concubine and sent her outside to them, and they raped her and abused her throughout the night, and at dawn they let her go.

Ju. 19:26 At daybreak the woman went back to the house where her master was staying, fell down at the door and lay there until daylight.

Ju. 19:27 When her master got up in the morning and opened the door of the house and stepped out to continue on his way, there lay his concubine, fallen in the doorway of the house, with her hands on the threshold.

Ju. 19:28 He said to her, “Get up; let’s go.” But there was no answer. Then the man put her on his donkey and set out for home.

Ju. 19:29 When he reached home, he took a knife and cut up his concubine, limb by limb, into twelve parts and sent them into all the areas of Israel.

Ju. 19:30 Everyone who saw it said, “Such a thing has never been seen or done, not since the day the Israelites came up out of Egypt. Think about it! Consider it! Tell us what to do!”

CHAPTER 20

Ju. 20:1 Then all the Israelites from Dan to Beersheba and from the land of Gilead came out as one man and assembled before the LORD in Mizpah.

Ju. 20:2 The leaders of all the people of the tribes of Israel took their places in the assembly of the people of God, four hundred thousand soldiers armed with swords.

Ju. 20:3 (The Benjamites heard that the Israelites had gone up to Mizpah.) Then the Israelites said, “Tell us how this awful thing happened.”
Ju. 20:4 So the Levite, the husband of the murdered woman, said, “I and my concubine came to Gibeah in Benjamin to spend the night.

Ju. 20:5 During the night the men of Gibeah came after me and surrounded the house, intending to kill me. They raped my concubine, and she died.

Ju. 20:6 I took my concubine, cut her into pieces and sent one piece to each region of Israel’s inheritance, because they committed this lewd and disgraceful act in Israel.

Ju. 20:7 Now, all you Israelites, speak up and give your verdict.”

Ju. 20:8 All the people rose as one man, saying, “None of us will go home. No, not one of us will return to his house.

Ju. 20:9 But now this is what we’ll do to Gibeah: We’ll go up against it as the lot directs.

Ju. 20:10 We’ll take ten men out of every hundred from all the tribes of Israel, and a hundred from a thousand, and a thousand from ten thousand, to get provisions for the army. Then, when the army arrives at Gibeah in Benjamin, it can give them what they deserve for all this vileness done in Israel.”

Ju. 20:11 So all the men of Israel got together and united as one man against the city.

Ju. 20:12 The tribes of Israel sent men throughout the tribe of Benjamin, saying, “What about this awful crime that was committed among you?

Ju. 20:13 Now surrender those wicked men of Gibeah so that we may put them to death and purge the evil from Israel.” But the Benjamites would not listen to their fellow Israelites.

Ju. 20:14 From their towns they came together at Gibeah to fight against the Israelites.

Ju. 20:15 At once the Benjamites mobilised twenty-six thousand swordsmen from their towns, in addition to seven hundred chosen men from those living in Gibeah.
Among all these soldiers there were seven hundred chosen men who were left-handed, each of whom could sling a stone at a hair and not miss.

Israel, apart from Benjamin, mustered four hundred thousand swordsmen, all of them fighting men.

The Israelites went up to Bethel and enquired of God. They said, “Who of us shall go first to fight against the Benjamites?” The LORD replied, “Judah shall go first.”

The next morning the Israelites got up and pitched camp near Gibeah.

The men of Israel went out to fight the Benjamites and took up battle positions against them at Gibeah.

The Benjamites came out of Gibeah and cut down twenty-two thousand Israelites on the battlefield that day.

But the men of Israel encouraged one another and again took up their positions where they had stationed themselves the first day.

The Israelites went up and wept before the LORD until evening, and they enquired of the LORD. They said, “Shall we go up again to battle against the Benjamites, our brothers?” The LORD answered, “Go up against them.”

Then the Israelites drew near to Benjamin the second day.

This time, when the Benjamites came out from Gibeah to oppose them, they cut down another eighteen thousand Israelites, all of them armed with swords.

Then the Israelites, all the people, went up to Bethel, and there they sat weeping before the LORD. They fasted that day until evening and presented burnt offerings and fellowship offerings to the LORD.

And the Israelites enquired of the LORD. (In those days the ark of the covenant of God was there, with Phinehas son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, ministering before it.) They asked, “Shall we go up again to battle with Benjamin our brother, or not?” The LORD responded, “Go, for tomorrow I will give them into your hands.”

Then Israel set an ambush around Gibeah.

They went up against the Benjamites on the third day and took up positions against Gibeah as they had done before.

The Benjamites came out to meet them and were drawn away from the city. They began to inflict casualties on the Israelites as before, so that about thirty men fell in the open field and on the roads — the one leading to Bethel and the other to Gibeah.

While the Benjamites were saying, “We are defeating them as before,” the Israelites were saying, “Let’s retreat and draw them away from the city to the roads.”

All the men of Israel moved from their places and took up positions at Baal Tamar, and the Israelite ambush charged out of its place on the west of Gibeah.

Then ten thousand of Israel’s finest men made a frontal attack on Gibeah. The fighting was so heavy that the Benjamites did not realise how near disaster was.

The LORD defeated Benjamin before Israel, and on that day the Israelites struck down 25,100 Benjamites, all armed with swords.

Then the Benjamites saw that they were beaten. Now the men of Israel had given way before Benjamin, because they relied on the ambush they had set near Gibeah.

The men who had been in ambush made a sudden dash into Gibeah, spread out and put the whole city to the sword.

The men of Israel had arranged with the ambush that they should send up a great cloud of smoke from the city, and then the men of Israel would turn in the battle. The Benjamites had begun to inflict casualties on the men of Israel
(about thirty), and they said, “We are defeating them as in the first battle.”

Ju. 20:40 But when the column of smoke began to rise from the city, the Benjamites turned and saw the smoke of the whole city going up into the sky.

Ju. 20:41 Then the men of Israel turned on them, and the men of Benjamin were terrified, because they realised that disaster had come upon them.

Ju. 20:42 So they fled before the Israelites in the direction of the desert, but they could not escape the battle. And the men of Israel who came out of the towns cut them down there.

Ju. 20:43 They surrounded the Benjamites, chased them and easily overran them in the vicinity of Gibeah on the east.

Ju. 20:44 Eighteen thousand Benjamites fell, all of them valiant fighters.

Ju. 20:45 As they turned and fled towards the desert to the rock of Rimmon, the Israelites cut down five thousand men along the roads. They kept pressing after the Benjamites as far as Gidom and struck down two thousand more.

Ju. 20:46 On that day twenty-five thousand Benjamite swordsmen fell, all of them valiant fighters.

Ju. 20:47 But six hundred men turned and fled into the desert to the rock of Rimmon, where they stayed for four months.

Ju. 20:48 The men of Israel went back to Benjamin and put all the towns to the sword, including the animals and everything else they found. All the towns they came across they set on fire.

CHAPTER 21

Ju. 21:1 The men of Israel had taken an oath at Mizpah: “Not one of us will give his daughter in marriage to a Benjamite.”
Ju. 21:2 The people went to Bethel, where they sat before God until evening, raising their voices and weeping bitterly.

Ju. 21:3 “O LORD, the God of Israel,” they cried, “why has this happened to Israel? Why should one tribe be missing from Israel today?”

Ju. 21:4 Early the next day the people built an altar and presented burnt offerings and fellowship offerings.

Ju. 21:5 Then the Israelites asked, “Who from all the tribes of Israel has failed to assemble before the LORD?” For they had taken a solemn oath that anyone who failed to assemble before the LORD at Mizpah should certainly be put to death.

Ju. 21:6 Now the Israelites grieved for their brothers, the Benjamites. “Today one tribe is cut off from Israel,” they said.

Ju. 21:7 “How can we provide wives for those who are left, since we have taken an oath by the LORD not to give them any of our daughters in marriage?”

Ju. 21:8 Then they asked, “Which one of the tribes of Israel failed to assemble before the LORD at Mizpah?” They discovered that no-one from Jabesh Gilead had come to the camp for the assembly.

Ju. 21:9 For when they counted the people, they found that none of the people of Jabesh Gilead were there.

Ju. 21:10 So the assembly sent twelve thousand fighting men with instructions to go to Jabesh Gilead and put to the sword those living there, including the women and children.

Ju. 21:11 “This is what you are to do,” they said. “Kill every male and every woman who is not a virgin.”

Ju. 21:12 They found among the people living in Jabesh Gilead four hundred young women who had never slept with a man, and they took them to the camp at Shiloh in Canaan.

Ju. 21:13 Then the whole assembly sent an offer of peace to the Benjamites at the rock of Rimmon.
Ju. 21:14 So the Benjamites returned at that time and were given the women of Jabesh Gilead who had been spared. But there were not enough for all of them.

Ju. 21:15 The people grieved for Benjamin, because the LORD had made a gap in the tribes of Israel.

Ju. 21:16 And the elders of the assembly said, “With the women of Benjamin destroyed, how shall we provide wives for the men who are left?

Ju. 21:17 The Benjamite survivors must have heirs,” they said, “so that a tribe of Israel will not be wiped out.

Ju. 21:18 We can’t give them our daughters as wives, since we Israelites have taken this oath: ‘Cursed be anyone who gives a wife to a Benjamite.’

Ju. 21:19 But look, there is the annual festival of the LORD in Shiloh, to the north of Bethel, and east of the road that goes from Bethel to Shechem, and to the south of Lebonah.”

Ju. 21:20 So they instructed the Benjamites, saying, “Go and hide in the vineyards and watch. When the girls of Shiloh come out to join in the dancing, then rush from the vineyards and each of you seize a wife from the girls of Shiloh and go to the land of Benjamin.

Ju. 21:22 When their fathers or brothers complain to us, we will say to them, ‘Do us a kindness by helping them, because we did not get wives for them during the war, and you are innocent, since you did not give your daughters to them.’”

Ju. 21:23 So that is what the Benjamites did. While the girls were dancing, each man caught one and carried her off to be his wife. Then they returned to their inheritance and rebuilt the towns and settled in them.

Ju. 21:24 At that time the Israelites left that place and went home to their tribes and clans, each to his own inheritance.

Ju. 21:25 In those days Israel had no king; everyone did as he saw fit.
In the days when the judges ruled, there was a famine in the land, and a man from Bethlehem in Judah, together with his wife and two sons, went to live for a while in the country of Moab.

The man’s name was Elimelech, his wife’s name Naomi, and the names of his two sons were Mahlon and Kilion. They were Ephrathites from Bethlehem, Judah. And they went to Moab and lived there.

Now Elimelech, Naomi’s husband, died, and she was left with her two sons.

They married Moabite women, one named Orpah and the other Ruth. After they had lived there about ten years, both Mahlon and Kilion also died, and Naomi was left without her two sons and her husband.

When she heard in Moab that the LORD had come to the aid of his people by providing food for them, Naomi and her daughters-in-law prepared to return home from there.

With her two daughters-in-law she left the place where she had been living and set out on the road that would take them back to the land of Judah.

Then Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, “Go back, each of you, to your mother’s home. May the LORD show kindness to you, as you have shown to your dead and to me.

May the LORD grant that each of you will find rest in the home of another husband.” Then she kissed them and they wept aloud and said to her, “We will go back with you to your people.”

Ru. 1:11 But Naomi said, “Return home, my daughters. Why would you come with me? Am I going to have any more sons, who could become your husbands?”

Ru. 1:12 Return home, my daughters; I am too old to have another husband. Even if I thought there was still hope for me — even if I had a husband tonight and then gave birth to sons —

Ru. 1:13 would you wait until they grew up? Would you remain unmarried for them? No, my daughters. It is more bitter for me than for you, because the LORD’s hand has gone out against me!”

Ru. 1:14 At this they wept again. Then Orpah kissed her mother-in-law good-bye, but Ruth clung to her.

Ru. 1:15 “Look,” said Naomi, “your sister-in-law is going back to her people and her gods. Go back with her.”

Ru. 1:16 But Ruth replied, “Don’t urge me to leave you or to turn back from you. Where you go I will go, and where you stay I will stay. Your people will be my people and your God my God.

Ru. 1:17 Where you die I will die, and there I will be buried. May the LORD deal with me, be it ever so severely, if anything but death separates you and me.”

Ru. 1:18 When Naomi realised that Ruth was determined to go with her, she stopped urging her.

Ru. 1:19 So the two women went on until they came to Bethlehem. When they arrived in Bethlehem, the whole town was stirred because of them, and the women exclaimed, “Can this be Naomi?”

Ru. 1:20 “Don’t call me Naomi,” she told them. “Call me Mara, because the Almighty has made my life very bitter.

Ru. 1:21 I went away full, but the LORD has brought me back empty. Why call me Naomi? The LORD has afflicted me; the Almighty has brought misfortune upon me.”
Ru. 1:22 So Naomi returned from Moab accompanied by Ruth the Moabitess, her daughter-in-law, arriving in Bethlehem as the barley harvest was beginning.

CHAPTER 2

Ru. 2:1 Now Naomi had a relative on her husband’s side, from the clan of Elimelech, a man of standing, whose name was Boaz.

Ru. 2:2 And Ruth the Moabitess said to Naomi, “Let me go to the fields and pick up the leftover grain behind anyone in whose eyes I find favour.” Naomi said to her, “Go ahead, my daughter.”

Ru. 2:3 So she went out and began to glean in the fields behind the harvesters. As it turned out, she found herself working in a field belonging to Boaz, who was from the clan of Elimelech.

Ru. 2:4 Just then Boaz arrived from Bethlehem and greeted the harvesters, “The LORD be with you!” “The LORD bless you!” they called back.

Ru. 2:5 Boaz asked the foreman of his harvesters, “Whose young woman is that?”

Ru. 2:6 The foreman replied, “She is the Moabitess who came back from Moab with Naomi.

Ru. 2:7 She said, ‘Please let me glean and gather among the sheaves behind the harvesters.’ She went into the field and has worked steadily from morning till now, except for a short rest in the shelter.”

Ru. 2:8 So Boaz said to Ruth, “My daughter, listen to me. Don’t go and glean in another field and don’t go away from here. Stay here with my servant girls.

Ru. 2:9 Watch the field where the men are harvesting, and follow along after the girls. I have told the men not to touch you. And whenever you are thirsty, go and get a drink from the water jars the men have filled.”
At this, she bowed down with her face to the ground. She exclaimed, “Why have I found such favour in your eyes that you notice me — a foreigner?”

Boaz replied, “I’ve been told all about what you have done for your mother-in-law since the death of your husband — how you left your father and mother and your homeland and came to live with a people you did not know before.

May the LORD repay you for what you have done. May you be richly rewarded by the LORD, the God of Israel, under whose wings you have come to take refuge.”

“May I continue to find favour in your eyes, my lord,” she said. “You have given me comfort and have spoken kindly to your servant — though I do not have the standing of one of your servant girls.”

At mealtime Boaz said to her, “Come over here. Have some bread and dip it in the wine vinegar.” When she sat down with the harvesters, he offered her some roasted grain. She ate all she wanted and had some left over.

As she got up to glean, Boaz gave orders to his men, “Even if she gathers among the sheaves, don’t embarrass her.

Rather, pull out some stalks for her from the bundles and leave them for her to pick up, and don’t rebuke her.”

So Ruth gleaned in the field until evening. Then she threshed the barley she had gathered, and it amounted to about an ephah.

She carried it back to town, and her mother-in-law saw how much she had gathered. Ruth also brought out and gave her what she had left over after she had eaten enough.

Her mother-in-law asked her, “Where did you glean today? Where did you work? Blessed be the man who took notice of you!” Then Ruth told her mother-in-law about the one at whose place she had been working. “The name of the man I worked with today is Boaz,” she said.
Ru. 2:20 “The LORD bless him!” Naomi said to her daughter-in-law. “He has not stopped showing his kindness to the living and the dead.” She added, “That man is our close relative; he is one of our kinsman-redeemers.”

Ru. 2:21 Then Ruth the Moabitess said, “He even said to me, ‘Stay with my workers until they finish harvesting all my grain.’”

Ru. 2:22 Naomi said to Ruth her daughter-in-law, “It will be good for you, my daughter, to go with his girls, because in someone else’s field you might be harmed.”

Ru. 2:23 So Ruth stayed close to the servant girls of Boaz to glean until the barley and wheat harvests were finished. And she lived with her mother-in-law.

CHAPTER 3

Ru. 3:1 One day Naomi her mother-in-law said to her, “My daughter, should I not try to find a home for you, where you will be well provided for?

Ru. 3:2 Is not Boaz, with whose servant girls you have been, a kinsman of ours? Tonight he will be winnowing barley on the threshing-floor.

Ru. 3:3 Wash and perfume yourself, and put on your best clothes. Then go down to the threshing-floor, but don’t let him know you are there until he has finished eating and drinking.

Ru. 3:4 When he lies down, note the place where he is lying. Then go and uncover his feet and lie down. He will tell you what to do.”

Ru. 3:5 “I will do whatever you say,” Ruth answered.

Ru. 3:6 So she went down to the threshing-floor and did everything her mother-in-law told her to do.

Ru. 3:7 When Boaz had finished eating and drinking and was in good spirits, he went over to lie down at the far end of the grain pile. Ruth approached quietly, uncovered his feet and lay down.

Ru. 3:8 In the middle of the night something startled the man, and he turned and discovered a woman lying at his feet.

Ru. 3:9 “Who are you?” he asked. “I am your servant Ruth,” she said. “Spread the corner of your garment over me, since you are a kinsman-redeemer.”

Ru. 3:10 “The LORD bless you, my daughter,” he replied. “This kindness is greater than that which you showed earlier: You have not run after the younger men, whether rich or poor.

Ru. 3:11 And now, my daughter, don’t be afraid. I will do for you all you ask. All my fellow townsmen know that you are a woman of noble character.

Ru. 3:12 Although it is true that I am near of kin, there is a kinsman-redeemer nearer than I.

Ru. 3:13 Stay here for the night, and in the morning if he wants to redeem, good; let him redeem. But if he is not willing, as surely as the LORD lives I will do it. Lie here until morning.”

Ru. 3:14 So she lay at his feet until morning, but got up before anyone could be recognised; and he said, “Don’t let it be known that a woman came to the threshing-floor.”

Ru. 3:15 He also said, “Bring me the shawl you are wearing and hold it out.” When she did so, he poured into it six measures of barley and put it on her. Then he went back to town.

Ru. 3:16 When Ruth came to her mother-in-law, Naomi asked, “How did it go, my daughter?” Then she told her everything Boaz had done for her and added, “He gave me these six measures of barley, saying, `Don’t go back to your mother-in-law empty-handed.’”

Ru. 3:18 Then Naomi said, “Wait, my daughter, until you find out what happens. For the man will not rest until the matter is settled today.”
Meanwhile Boaz went up to the town gate and sat there. When the kinsman-redeemer he had mentioned came along, Boaz said, “Come over here, my friend, and sit down.” So he went over and sat down.

Boaz took ten of the elders of the town and said, “Sit here,” and they did so.

Then he said to the kinsman-redeemer, “Naomi, who has come back from Moab, is selling the piece of land that belonged to our brother Elimelech.

I thought I should bring the matter to your attention and suggest that you buy it in the presence of these seated here and in the presence of the elders of my people. If you will redeem it, do so. But if you will not, tell me, so I will know. For no-one has the right to do it except you, and I am next in line.” “I will redeem it,” he said.

Then Boaz said, “On the day you buy the land from Naomi and from Ruth the Moabitess, you acquire the dead man’s widow, in order to maintain the name of the dead with his property.”

At this, the kinsman-redeemer said, “Then I cannot redeem it because I might endanger my own estate. You redeem it yourself. I cannot do it.”

(Now in earlier times in Israel, for the redemption and transfer of property to become final, one party took off his sandal and gave it to the other. This was the method of legalising transactions in Israel.)

So the kinsman-redeemer said to Boaz, “Buy it yourself.” And he removed his sandal.

Then Boaz announced to the elders and all the people, “Today you are witnesses that I have bought from Naomi all the property of Elimelech, Kilion and Mahlon.
I have also acquired Ruth the Moabitess, Mahlon’s widow, as my wife, in order to maintain the name of the dead with his property, so that his name will not disappear from among his family or from the town records. Today you are witnesses!”

Then the elders and all those at the gate said, “We are witnesses. May the LORD make the woman who is coming into your home like Rachel and Leah, who together built up the house of Israel. May you have standing in Ephrathah and be famous in Bethlehem.

Through the offspring the LORD gives you by this young woman, may your family be like that of Perez, whom Tamar bore to Judah.”

So Boaz took Ruth and she became his wife. Then he went to her, and the LORD enabled her to conceive, and she gave birth to a son.

The women said to Naomi: “Praise be to the LORD, who this day has not left you without a kinsman-redeemer. May he become famous throughout Israel!

He will renew your life and sustain you in your old age. For your daughter-in-law, who loves you and who is better to you than seven sons, has given him birth.”

Then Naomi took the child, laid him in her lap and cared for him.

The women living there said, “Naomi has a son.” And they named him Obed. He was the father of Jesse, the father of David.

This, then, is the family line of Perez: Perez was the father of Hezron, Hezron the father of Ram, Ram the father of Amminadab,

Amminadab the father of Nahshon, Nahshon the father of Salmon,

Salmon the father of Boaz, Boaz the father of Obed,
Ru. 4:22 Obed the father of Jesse, and Jesse the father of David.
1 SAMUEL

CHAPTER 1

1Sa. 1:1 There was a certain man from Ramathaim, a Zuphite [Or from Ramathaim Zuphim] from the hill country of Ephraim, whose name was Elkanah son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ephraimite.

1Sa. 1:2 He had two wives; one was called Hannah and the other Peninnah. Peninnah had children, but Hannah had none.

1Sa. 1:3 Year after year this man went up from his town to worship and sacrifice to the LORD Almighty at Shiloh, where Hophni and Phinehas, the two sons of Eli, were priests of the LORD.

1Sa. 1:4 Whenever the day came for Elkanah to sacrifice, he would give portions of the meat to his wife Peninnah and to all her sons and daughters.

1Sa. 1:5 But to Hannah he gave a double portion because he loved her, and the LORD had closed her womb.

1Sa. 1:6 And because the LORD had closed her womb, her rival kept provoking her in order to irritate her.

1Sa. 1:7 This went on year after year. Whenever Hannah went up to the house of the LORD, her rival provoked her till she wept and would not eat.

1Sa. 1:8 Elkanah her husband would say to her, “Hannah, why are you weeping? Why don’t you eat? Why are you downhearted? Don’t I mean more to you than ten sons?”

1Sa. 1:9 Once when they had finished eating and drinking in Shiloh, Hannah stood up. Now Eli the priest was sitting on a chair by the doorpost of the LORD’s temple. [That is, tabernacle]

1Sa. 1:10 In bitterness of soul Hannah wept much and prayed to the LORD.
And she made a vow, saying, “O LORD Almighty, if you will only look upon your servant’s misery and remember me, and not forget your servant but give her a son, then I will give him to the LORD for all the days of his life, and no razor will ever be used on his head.”

As she kept on praying to the LORD, Eli observed her mouth.

Hannah was praying in her heart, and her lips were moving but her voice was not heard. Eli thought she was drunk and said to her, “How long will you keep on getting drunk? Get rid of your wine.”

“Not so, my lord,” Hannah replied, “I am a woman who is deeply troubled. I have not been drinking wine or beer; I was pouring out my soul to the LORD.

Do not take your servant for a wicked woman; I have been praying here out of my great anguish and grief.”

Eli answered, “Go in peace, and may the God of Israel grant you what you have asked of him.”

She said, “May your servant find favour in your eyes.” Then she went her way and ate something, and her face was no longer downcast.

Early the next morning they arose and worshipped before the LORD and then went back to their home at Ramah. Elkanah lay with Hannah his wife, and the LORD remembered her.

So in the course of time Hannah conceived and gave birth to a son. She named him Samuel, [Samuel sounds like the Hebrew for heard of God.] saying, “Because I asked the LORD for him.”

When the man Elkanah went up with all his family to offer the annual sacrifice to the LORD and to fulfil his vow,

Hannah did not go. She said to her husband, “After the boy is weaned, I will take him and present him before the LORD, and he will live there always.”
1Sa. 1:23 “Do what seems best to you,” Elkanah her husband told her. “Stay here until you have weaned him; only may the LORD make good his [Masoretic Text; Dead Sea Scrolls, Septuagint and Syriac your] word.” So the woman stayed at home and nursed her son until she had weaned him.

1Sa. 1:24 After he was weaned, she took the boy with her, young as he was, along with a three-year-old bull, [Dead Sea Scrolls, Septuagint and Syriac; Masoretic Text with three bulls] an ephah [That is, probably about 3/5 bushel (about 22 litres)] of flour and a skin of wine, and brought him to the house of the LORD at Shiloh.

1Sa. 1:25 When they had slaughtered the bull, they brought the boy to Eli, 1Sa. 1:26 and she said to him, “As surely as you live, my lord, I am the woman who stood here beside you praying to the LORD.

1Sa. 1:27 I prayed for this child, and the LORD has granted me what I asked of him.

1Sa. 1:28 So now I give him to the LORD. For his whole life he shall be given over to the LORD.” And he worshipped the LORD there.

CHAPTER 2

1Sa. 2:1 Then Hannah prayed and said: “My heart rejoices in the LORD; in the LORD my horn [Horn here symbolises strength; also in verse 10.] is lifted high. My mouth boasts over my enemies, for I delight in your deliverance.

1Sa. 2:2 “There is no-one holy [Or no Holy One] like the LORD; there is no-one besides you; there is no Rock like our God.

1Sa. 2:3 “Do not keep talking so proudly or let your mouth speak such arrogance, for the LORD is a God who knows, and by him deeds are weighed.
1Sa. 2:4 “The bows of the warriors are broken, but those who stumbled are armed with strength.

1Sa. 2:5 Those who were full hire themselves out for food, but those who were hungry hunger no more. She who was barren has borne seven children, but she who has had many sons pines away.

1Sa. 2:6 “The LORD brings death and makes alive; he brings down to the grave [Hebrew Sheol] and raises up.

1Sa. 2:7 The LORD sends poverty and wealth; he humbles and he exalts.

1Sa. 2:8 He raises the poor from the dust and lifts the needy from the ash heap; he seats them with princes and has them inherit a throne of honour. “For the foundations of the earth are the LORD’s; upon them he has set the world.

1Sa. 2:9 He will guard the feet of his saints, but the wicked will be silenced in darkness. “It is not by strength that one prevails;

1Sa. 2:10 those who oppose the LORD will be shattered. He will thunder against them from heaven; the LORD will judge the ends of the earth. “He will give strength to his king and exalt the horn of his anointed.”

1Sa. 2:11 Then Elkanah went home to Ramah, but the boy ministered before the LORD under Eli the priest.

1Sa. 2:12 Eli’s sons were wicked men; they had no regard for the LORD.

1Sa. 2:13 Now it was the practice of the priests with the people that whenever anyone offered a sacrifice and while the meat was being boiled, the servant of the priest would come with a three-pronged fork in his hand.

1Sa. 2:14 He would plunge it into the pan or kettle or cauldron or pot, and the priest would take for himself whatever the fork brought up. This is how they treated all the Israelites who came to Shiloh.
But even before the fat was burned, the servant of the priest would come and say to the man who was sacrificing, “Give the priest some meat to roast; he won’t accept boiled meat from you, but only raw.”

If the man said to him, “Let the fat be burned up first, and then take whatever you want,” the servant would then answer, “No, hand it over now; if you don’t, I’ll take it by force.”

This sin of the young men was very great in the LORD’s sight, for they [Or men] were treating the LORD’s offering with contempt.

But Samuel was ministering before the LORD — a boy wearing a linen ephod.

Each year his mother made him a little robe and took it to him when she went up with her husband to offer the annual sacrifice.

Eli would bless Elkanah and his wife, saying, “May the LORD give you children by this woman to take the place of the one she prayed for and gave to the LORD.” Then they would go home.

And the LORD was gracious to Hannah; she conceived and gave birth to three sons and two daughters. Meanwhile, the boy Samuel grew up in the presence of the LORD.

Now Eli, who was very old, heard about everything his sons were doing to all Israel and how they slept with the women who served at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

So he said to them, “Why do you do such things? I hear from all the people about these wicked deeds of yours.

No, my sons; it is not a good report that I hear spreading among the LORD’s people.

If a man sins against another man, God [Or the judges] may mediate for him; but if a man sins against the LORD, who will intercede for him?” His sons, however, did not listen to their father’s rebuke, for it was the LORD’s will to put them to death.

1Sa. 2:26 And the boy Samuel continued to grow in stature and in favour with the LORD and with men.

1Sa. 2:27 Now a man of God came to Eli and said to him, “This is what the LORD says: ‘Did I not clearly reveal myself to your father’s house when they were in Egypt under Pharaoh? I chose your father out of all the tribes of Israel to be my priest, to go up to my altar, to burn incense, and to wear an ephod in my presence. I also gave your father’s house all the offerings made with fire by the Israelites.

1Sa. 2:29 ‘Why do you [The Hebrew is plural.] scorn my sacrifice and offering that I prescribed for my dwelling? Why do you honour your sons more than me by fattening yourselves on the choice parts of every offering made by my people Israel?’

1Sa. 2:30 ‘Therefore the LORD, the God of Israel, declares: ‘I promised that your house and your father’s house would minister before me for ever.’ But now the LORD declares: ‘Far be it from me! Those who honour me I will honour, but those who despise me will be disdained.

1Sa. 2:31 The time is coming when I will cut short your strength and the strength of your father’s house, so that there will not be an old man in your family line and you will see distress in my dwelling. Although good will be done to Israel, in your family line there will never be an old man.

1Sa. 2:33 Every one of you that I do not cut off from my altar will be spared only to blind your eyes with tears and to grieve your heart, and all your descendants will die in the prime of life.

1Sa. 2:34 “And what happens to your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, will be a sign to you — they will both die on the same day.

1Sa. 2:35 I will raise up for myself a faithful priest, who will do according to what is in my heart and mind. I will firmly establish his house, and he will minister before my anointed one always.

1Sa. 2:36 Then everyone left in your family line will come and bow down before him for a piece of silver and a crust of bread and plead, “Appoint me to some priestly office so that I can have food to eat.”

CHAPTER 3

1Sa. 3:1 The boy Samuel ministered before the LORD under Eli. In those days the word of the LORD was rare; there were not many visions.

1Sa. 3:2 One night Eli, whose eyes were becoming so weak that he could barely see, was lying down in his usual place.

1Sa. 3:3 The lamp of God had not yet gone out, and Samuel was lying down in the temple [That is, tabernacle] of the LORD, where the ark of God was.

1Sa. 3:4 Then the LORD called Samuel. Samuel answered, “Here I am.”

1Sa. 3:5 And he ran to Eli and said, “Here I am; you called me.” But Eli said, “I did not call; go back and lie down.” So he went and lay down.

1Sa. 3:6 Again the LORD called, “Samuel!” And Samuel got up and went to Eli and said, “Here I am; you called me.” “My son,” Eli said, “I did not call; go back and lie down.”

1Sa. 3:7 Now Samuel did not yet know the LORD: The word of the LORD had not yet been revealed to him.

1Sa. 3:8 The LORD called Samuel a third time, and Samuel got up and went to Eli and said, “Here I am; you called me.” Then Eli realised that the LORD was calling the boy.

1Sa. 3:9 So Eli told Samuel, “Go and lie down, and if he calls you, say, ‘Speak, LORD, for your servant is listening.’” So Samuel went and lay down in his place.
The LORD came and stood there, calling as at the other times, “Samuel! Samuel!” Then Samuel said, “Speak, for your servant is listening.”

And the LORD said to Samuel: “See, I am about to do something in Israel that will make the ears of everyone who hears of it tingle.

At that time I will carry out against Eli everything I spoke against his family — from beginning to end.

For I told him that I would judge his family for ever because of the sin he knew about; his sons made themselves contemptible, [Masoretic Text; an ancient Hebrew scribal tradition and Septuagint sons blasphemed God] and he failed to restrain them.

Therefore, I swore to the house of Eli, ‘The guilt of Eli’s house will never be atoned for by sacrifice or offering.’

Samuel lay down until morning and then opened the doors of the house of the LORD. He was afraid to tell Eli the vision, but Eli called him and said, “Samuel, my son.” Samuel answered, “Here I am.”

“What was it he said to you?” Eli asked. “Do not hide it from me. May God deal with you, be it ever so severely, if you hide from me anything he told you.”

So Samuel told him everything, hiding nothing from him. Then Eli said, “He is the LORD; let him do what is good in his eyes.”

The LORD was with Samuel as he grew up, and he let none of his words fall to the ground.

And all Israel from Dan to Beersheba recognised that Samuel was attested as a prophet of the LORD.

The LORD continued to appear at Shiloh, and there he revealed himself to Samuel through his word.
And Samuel’s word came to all Israel. Now the Israelites went out to fight against the Philistines. The Israelites camped at Ebenezer, and the Philistines at Aphek.

The Philistines deployed their forces to meet Israel, and as the battle spread, Israel was defeated by the Philistines, who killed about four thousand of them on the battlefield.

When the soldiers returned to camp, the elders of Israel asked, “Why did the LORD bring defeat upon us today before the Philistines? Let us bring the ark of the LORD’s covenant from Shiloh, so that it [Or he] may go with us and save us from the hand of our enemies.”

So the people sent men to Shiloh, and they brought back the ark of the covenant of the LORD Almighty, who is enthroned between the cherubim. And Eli’s two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God.

When the ark of the LORD’s covenant came into the camp, all Israel raised such a great shout that the ground shook.

Hearing the uproar, the Philistines asked, “What’s all this shouting in the Hebrew camp?” When they learned that the ark of the LORD had come into the camp, the Philistines were afraid. “A god has come into the camp,” they said. “We’re in trouble! Nothing like this has happened before.

Woe to us! Who will deliver us from the hand of these mighty gods? They are the gods who struck the Egyptians with all kinds of plagues in the desert.

Be strong, Philistines! Be men, or you will be subject to the Hebrews, as they have been to you. Be men, and fight!”

So the Philistines fought, and the Israelites were defeated and every man fled to his tent. The slaughter was very great; Israel lost thirty thousand foot soldiers.
The ark of God was captured, and Eli’s two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, died.

That same day a Benjamite ran from the battle line and went to Shiloh, his clothes torn and dust on his head.

When he arrived, there was Eli sitting on his chair by the side of the road, watching, because his heart feared for the ark of God. When the man entered the town and told what had happened, the whole town sent up a cry.

Eli heard the outcry and asked, “What is the meaning of this uproar?” The man hurried over to Eli, who was ninety-eight years old and whose eyes were set so that he could not see.

He told Eli, “I have just come from the battle line; I fled from it this very day.” Eli asked, “What happened, my son?”

The man who brought the news replied, “Israel fled before the Philistines, and the army has suffered heavy losses. Also your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, are dead, and the ark of God has been captured.”

When he mentioned the ark of God, Eli fell backwards off his chair by the side of the gate. His neck was broken and he died, for he was an old man and heavy. He had led [Traditionally judged] Israel for forty years.

His daughter-in-law, the wife of Phinehas, was pregnant and near the time of delivery. When she heard the news that the ark of God had been captured and that her father-in-law and her husband were dead, she went into labour and gave birth, but was overcome by her labour pains.

As she was dying, the women attending her said, “Don’t despair; you have given birth to a son.” But she did not respond or pay any attention.

She named the boy Ichabod, [Ichabod means no glory.] saying, “The glory has departed from Israel” — because of 1Sa. 4:22 She said, “The glory has departed from Israel, for the ark of God has been captured.”

CHAPTER 5

1Sa. 5:1 After the Philistines had captured the ark of God, they took it from Ebenezer to Ashdod.

1Sa. 5:2 Then they carried the ark into Dagon’s temple and set it beside Dagon.

1Sa. 5:3 When the people of Ashdod rose early the next day, there was Dagon, fallen on his face on the ground before the ark of the LORD! They took Dagon and put him back in his place.

1Sa. 5:4 But the following morning when they rose, there was Dagon, fallen on his face on the ground before the ark of the LORD! His head and hands had been broken off and were lying on the threshold; only his body remained.

1Sa. 5:5 That is why to this day neither the priests of Dagon nor any others who enter Dagon’s temple at Ashdod step on the threshold.

1Sa. 5:6 The LORD’s hand was heavy upon the people of Ashdod and its vicinity; he brought devastation upon them and afflicted them with tumours. [Hebrew; Septuagint and Vulgate tumours. And rats appeared in their land, and death and destruction were throughout the city]

1Sa. 5:7 When the men of Ashdod saw what was happening, they said, “The ark of the god of Israel must not stay here with us, because his hand is heavy upon us and upon Dagon our god.”

1Sa. 5:8 So they called together all the rulers of the Philistines and asked them, “What shall we do with the ark of the god of Israel?” They answered, “Have the ark of the god of Israel moved to Gath.” So they moved the ark of the God of Israel.
But after they had moved it, the LORD’s hand was against that city, throwing it into a great panic. He afflicted the people of the city, both young and old, with an outbreak of tumours. [Or with tumours in the groin (see Septuagint)]

So they sent the ark of God to Ekron. As the ark of God was entering Ekron, the people of Ekron cried out, “They have brought the ark of the god of Israel round to us to kill us and our people.”

So they called together all the rulers of the Philistines and said, “Send the ark of the god of Israel away; let it go back to its own place, or it [Or he] will kill us and our people.” For death had filled the city with panic; God’s hand was very heavy upon it.

Those who did not die were afflicted with tumours, and the outcry of the city went up to heaven.

CHAPTER 6

When the ark of the LORD had been in Philistine territory for seven months, the Philistines called for the priests and the diviners and said, “What shall we do with the ark of the LORD? Tell us how we should send it back to its place.”

They answered, “If you return the ark of the god of Israel, do not send it away empty, but by all means send a guilt offering to him. Then you will be healed, and you will know why his hand has not been lifted from you.”

The Philistines asked, “What guilt offering should we send to him?” They replied, “Five gold tumours and five gold rats, according to the number of the Philistine rulers, because the same plague has struck both you and your rulers.

Make models of the tumours and of the rats that are destroying the country, and pay honour to Israel’s god.
Perhaps he will lift his hand from you and your gods and your land.

1Sa. 6:6 Why do you harden your hearts as the Egyptians and Pharaoh did? When he [That is, God] treated them harshly, did they not send the Israelites out so that they could go on their way?

1Sa. 6:7 “Now then, get a new cart ready, with two cows that have calved and have never been yoked. Hitch the cows to the cart, but take their calves away and pen them up.

1Sa. 6:8 Take the ark of the LORD and put it on the cart, and in a chest beside it put the gold objects you are sending back to him as a guilt offering. Send it on its way,

1Sa. 6:9 but keep watching it. If it goes up to its own territory, towards Beth Shemesh, then the LORD has brought this great disaster on us. But if it does not, then we shall know that it was not his hand that struck us and that it happened to us by chance.”

1Sa. 6:10 So they did this. They took two such cows and hitched them to the cart and penned up their calves.

1Sa. 6:11 They placed the ark of the LORD on the cart and along with it the chest containing the gold rats and the models of the tumours.

1Sa. 6:12 Then the cows went straight up towards Beth Shemesh, keeping on the road and lowing all the way; they did not turn to the right or to the left. The rulers of the Philistines followed them as far as the border of Beth Shemesh.

1Sa. 6:13 Now the people of Beth Shemesh were harvesting their wheat in the valley, and when they looked up and saw the ark, they rejoiced at the sight.

1Sa. 6:14 The cart came to the field of Joshua of Beth Shemesh, and there it stopped beside a large rock. The people chopped up the wood of the cart and sacrificed the cows as a burnt offering to the LORD.
1Sa. 6:15 The Levites took down the ark of the LORD, together with the chest containing the gold objects, and placed them on the large rock. On that day the people of Beth Shemesh offered burnt offerings and made sacrifices to the LORD.

1Sa. 6:16 The five rulers of the Philistines saw all this and then returned that same day to Ekron.

1Sa. 6:17 These are the gold tumours the Philistines sent as a guilt offering to the LORD — one each for Ashdod, Gaza, Ashkelon, Gath and Ekron.

1Sa. 6:18 And the number of the gold rats was according to the number of Philistine towns belonging to the five rulers — the fortified towns with their country villages. The large rock, on which [A few Hebrew manuscripts (see also Septuagint); most Hebrew manuscripts villages as far as Greater Abel, where] they set the ark of the LORD, is a witness to this day in the field of Joshua of Beth Shemesh.

1Sa. 6:19 But God struck down some of the men of Beth Shemesh, putting seventy [A few Hebrew manuscripts; most Hebrew manuscripts and Septuagint 50,070] of them to death because they had looked into the ark of the LORD. The people mourned because of the heavy blow the LORD had dealt them,

1Sa. 6:20 and the men of Beth Shemesh asked, “Who can stand in the presence of the LORD, this holy God? To whom will the ark go up from here?”

1Sa. 6:21 Then they sent messengers to the people of Kiriath Jearim, saying, “The Philistines have returned the ark of the LORD. Come down and take it up to your place.”

CHAPTER 7

1Sa. 7:1 So the men of Kiriath Jearim came and took up the ark of the LORD. They took it to Abinadab’s house on the hill and consecrated Eleazar his son to guard the ark of the LORD.
1Sa. 7:2 It was a long time, twenty years in all, that the ark remained at Kiriath Jearim, and all the people of Israel mourned and sought after the LORD.

1Sa. 7:3 And Samuel said to the whole house of Israel, “If you are returning to the LORD with all your hearts, then rid yourselves of the foreign gods and the Ashtoreths and commit yourselves to the LORD and serve him only, and he will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines.”

1Sa. 7:4 So the Israelites put away their Baals and Ashtoreths, and served the LORD only.

1Sa. 7:5 Then Samuel said, “Assemble all Israel at Mizpah and I will intercede with the LORD for you.”

1Sa. 7:6 When they had assembled at Mizpah, they drew water and poured it out before the LORD. On that day they fasted and there they confessed, “We have sinned against the LORD.” And Samuel was leader [Traditionally judge] of Israel at Mizpah.

1Sa. 7:7 When the Philistines heard that Israel had assembled at Mizpah, the rulers of the Philistines came up to attack them. And when the Israelites heard of it, they were afraid because of the Philistines.

1Sa. 7:8 They said to Samuel, “Do not stop crying out to the LORD our God for us, that he may rescue us from the hand of the Philistines.”

1Sa. 7:9 Then Samuel took a suckling lamb and offered it up as a whole burnt offering to the LORD. He cried out to the LORD on Israel’s behalf, and the LORD answered him.

1Sa. 7:10 While Samuel was sacrificing the burnt offering, the Philistines drew near to engage Israel in battle. But that day the LORD thundered with loud thunder against the Philistines and threw them into such a panic that they were routed before the Israelites.
1Sa. 7:11  The men of Israel rushed out of Mizpah and pursued the Philistines, slaughtering them along the way to a point below Beth Car.

1Sa. 7:12  Then Samuel took a stone and set it up between Mizpah and Shen. He named it Ebenezer, [Ebenezer means stone of help.] saying, “Thus far has the LORD helped us.”

1Sa. 7:13  So the Philistines were subdued and did not invade Israelite territory again. Throughout Samuel’s lifetime, the hand of the LORD was against the Philistines.

1Sa. 7:14  The towns from Ekron to Gath that the Philistines had captured from Israel were restored to her, and Israel delivered the neighbouring territory from the power of the Philistines. And there was peace between Israel and the Amorites.

1Sa. 7:15  Samuel continued as judge over Israel all the days of his life.

1Sa. 7:16  From year to year he went on a circuit from Bethel to Gilgal to Mizpah, judging Israel in all those places.

1Sa. 7:17  But he always went back to Ramah, where his home was, and there he also judged Israel. And he built an altar there to the LORD.

CHAPTER 8

1Sa. 8:1  When Samuel grew old, he appointed his sons as judges for Israel.

1Sa. 8:2  The name of his firstborn was Joel and the name of his second was Abijah, and they served at Beersheba.

1Sa. 8:3  But his sons did not walk in his ways. They turned aside after dishonest gain and accepted bribes and perverted justice.

1Sa. 8:4  So all the elders of Israel gathered together and came to Samuel at Ramah.
They said to him, “You are old, and your sons do not walk in your ways; now appoint a king to lead [Traditionally judge; also in verses 6 and 20] us, such as all the other nations have.”

But when they said, “Give us a king to lead us,” this displeased Samuel; so he prayed to the LORD.

And the LORD told him: “Listen to all that the people are saying to you; it is not you they have rejected, but they have rejected me as their king.

As they have done from the day I brought them up out of Egypt until this day, forsaking me and serving other gods, so they are doing to you.

Now listen to them; but warn them solemnly and let them know what the king who will reign over them will do.”

Samuel told all the words of the LORD to the people who were asking him for a king.

He said, “This is what the king who will reign over you will do: He will take your sons and make them serve with his chariots and horses, and they will run in front of his chariots.

Some he will assign to be commanders of thousands and commanders of fifties, and others to plough his ground and reap his harvest, and still others to make weapons of war and equipment for his chariots.

He will take your daughters to be perfumers and cooks and bakers.

He will take the best of your fields and vineyards and olive groves and give them to his attendants.

He will take a tenth of your grain and of your vintage and give it to his officials and attendants.

Your menservants and maidservants and the best of your cattle [Septuagint; Hebrew young men] and donkeys he will take for his own use.
1Sa. 8:17  He will take a tenth of your flocks, and you yourselves will become his slaves.

1Sa. 8:18  When that day comes, you will cry out for relief from the king you have chosen, and the LORD will not answer you in that day.”

1Sa. 8:19  But the people refused to listen to Samuel. “No!” they said. “We want a king over us.

1Sa. 8:20  Then we shall be like all the other nations, with a king to lead us and to go out before us and fight our battles.”

1Sa. 8:21  When Samuel heard all that the people said, he repeated it before the LORD.

1Sa. 8:22  The LORD answered, “Listen to them and give them a king.” Then Samuel said to the men of Israel, “Everyone is to go back to his town.”

CHAPTER 9

1Sa. 9:1  There was a Benjamite, a man of standing, whose name was Kish son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Becorath, the son of Aphiah of Benjamin.

1Sa. 9:2  He had a son named Saul, an impressive young man without equal among the Israelites — a head taller than any of the others.

1Sa. 9:3  Now the donkeys belonging to Saul’s father Kish were lost, and Kish said to his son Saul, “Take one of the servants with you and go and look for the donkeys.”

1Sa. 9:4  So he passed through the hill country of Ephraim and through the area around Shalisha, but they did not find them. They went on into the district of Shaalim, but the donkeys were not there. Then he passed through the territory of Benjamin, but they did not find them.

1Sa. 9:5  When they reached the district of Zuph, Saul said to the servant who was with him, “Come, let’s go back, or my
But the servant replied, “Look, in this town there is a man of God; he is highly respected, and everything he says comes true. Let’s go there now. Perhaps he will tell us what way to take.”

Saul said to his servant, “If we go, what can we give the man? The food in our sacks is gone. We have no gift to take to the man of God. What do we have?”

The servant answered him again. “Look,” he said, “I have a quarter of a shekel [That is, about 1/10 ounce (about 3 grams)] of silver. I will give it to the man of God so that he will tell us what way to take.”

(Formerly in Israel, if a man went to enquire of God, he would say, “Come, let us go to the seer,” because the prophet of today used to be called a seer.)

“Good,” Saul said to his servant. “Come, let’s go.” So they set out for the town where the man of God was.

As they were going up the hill to the town, they met some girls coming out to draw water, and they asked them, “Is the seer here?”

“He is,” they answered. “He’s ahead of you. Hurry now; he has just come to our town today, for the people have a sacrifice at the high place.

As soon as you enter the town, you will find him before he goes up to the high place to eat. The people will not begin eating until he comes, because he must bless the sacrifice; afterwards, those who are invited will eat. Go up now; you should find him about this time.”

They went up to the town, and as they were entering it, there was Samuel, coming towards them on his way up to the high place.
Now the day before Saul came, the LORD had revealed this to Samuel:

“About this time tomorrow I will send you a man from the land of Benjamin. Anoint him leader over my people Israel; he will deliver my people from the hand of the Philistines. I have looked upon my people, for their cry has reached me.”

When Samuel caught sight of Saul, the LORD said to him, “This is the man I spoke to you about; he will govern my people.”

Saul approached Samuel in the gateway and asked, “Would you please tell me where the seer’s house is?”

“I am the seer,” Samuel replied. “Go up ahead of me to the high place, for today you are to eat with me, and in the morning I will let you go and will tell you all that is in your heart.

As for the donkeys you lost three days ago, do not worry about them; they have been found. And to whom is all the desire of Israel turned, if not to you and all your father’s family?”

Then Samuel brought Saul and his servant into the hall and seated them at the head of those who were invited — about thirty in number.

Samuel said to the cook, “Bring the piece of meat I gave you, the one I told you to lay aside.”

So the cook took up the leg with what was on it and set it in front of Saul. Samuel said, “Here is what has been kept for you. Eat, because it was set aside for you for this occasion, from the time I said, ‘I have invited guests.’” And Saul dined with Samuel that day.
After they came down from the high place to the town, Samuel talked with Saul on the roof of his house.

They rose about daybreak and Samuel called to Saul on the roof, “Get ready, and I will send you on your way.” When Saul got ready, he and Samuel went outside together.

As they were going down to the edge of the town, Samuel said to Saul, “Tell the servant to go on ahead of us” — and the servant did so — ”but you stay here awhile, so that I may give you a message from God.”

CHAPTER 10

Then Samuel took a flask of oil and poured it on Saul’s head and kissed him, saying, “Has not the LORD anointed you leader over his inheritance? [Hebrew; Septuagint and Vulgate over his people Israel? You will reign over the LORD’s people and save them from the power of their enemies round about. And this will be a sign to you that the LORD has anointed you leader over his inheritance:]

When you leave me today, you will meet two men near Rachel’s tomb, at Zelzah on the border of Benjamin. They will say to you, `The donkeys you set out to look for have been found. And now your father has stopped thinking about them and is worried about you. He is asking, “What shall I do about my son?”’

They will greet you and offer you two loaves of bread, which you will accept from them.

“After that you will go to Gibeah of God, where there is a Philistine outpost. As you approach the town, you will meet a procession of prophets coming down from the high place. with lyres, tambourines, flutes and harps being played before them, and they will be prophesying.

1Sa. 10:6 The Spirit of the LORD will come upon you in power, and you will prophesy with them; and you will be changed into a different person.

1Sa. 10:7 Once these signs are fulfilled, do whatever your hand finds to do, for God is with you.

1Sa. 10:8 “Go down ahead of me to Gilgal. I will surely come down to you to sacrifice burnt offerings and fellowship offerings, [Traditionally peace offerings] but you must wait seven days until I come to you and tell you what you are to do.”

1Sa. 10:9 As Saul turned to leave Samuel, God changed Saul’s heart, and all these signs were fulfilled that day.

1Sa. 10:10 When they arrived at Gibeah, a procession of prophets met him; the Spirit of God came upon him in power, and he joined in their prophesying.

1Sa. 10:11 When all those who had formerly known him saw him prophesying with the prophets, they asked each other, “What is this that has happened to the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets?”

1Sa. 10:12 A man who lived there answered, “And who is their father?” So it became a saying: “Is Saul also among the prophets?”

1Sa. 10:13 After Saul stopped prophesying, he went to the high place.

1Sa. 10:14 Now Saul’s uncle asked him and his servant, “Where have you been?” “Looking for the donkeys,” he said. “But when we saw they were not to be found, we went to Samuel.”

1Sa. 10:15 Saul’s uncle said, “Tell me what Samuel said to you.”

1Sa. 10:16 Saul replied, “He assured us that the donkeys had been found.” But he did not tell his uncle what Samuel had said about the kingship.

1Sa. 10:17 Samuel summoned the people of Israel to the LORD at Mizpah and said to them, “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: ‘I brought Israel up out of Egypt, and I delivered you from the power of Egypt and all the kingdoms that oppressed you.’

But you have now rejected your God, who saves you out of all your calamities and distresses. And you have said, ‘No, set a king over us.’ So now present yourselves before the LORD by your tribes and clans.”

When Samuel brought all the tribes of Israel near, the tribe of Benjamin was chosen.

Then he brought forward the tribe of Benjamin, clan by clan, and Matri’s clan was chosen. Finally Saul son of Kish was chosen. But when they looked for him, he was not to be found.

So they enquired further of the LORD, “Has the man come here yet?” And the LORD said, “Yes, he has hidden himself among the baggage.”

They ran and brought him out, and as he stood among the people he was a head taller than any of the others.

Samuel said to all the people, “Do you see the man the LORD has chosen? There is no-one like him among all the people.” Then the people shouted, “Long live the king!”

Samuel explained to the people the regulations of the kingship. He wrote them down on a scroll and deposited it before the LORD. Then Samuel dismissed the people, each to his own home.

Saul also went to his home in Gibeah, accompanied by valiant men whose hearts God had touched.

But some troublemakers said, “How can this fellow save us?” They despised him and brought him no gifts. But Saul kept silent.
Nahash the Ammonite went up and besieged Jabesh Gilead. And all the men of Jabesh said to him, “Make a treaty with us, and we will be subject to you.”

But Nahash the Ammonite replied, “I will make a treaty with you only on the condition that I gouge out the right eye of every one of you and so bring disgrace on all Israel.”

The elders of Jabesh said to him, “Give us seven days so that we can send messengers throughout Israel; if no-one comes to rescue us, we will surrender to you.”

When the messengers came to Gibeah of Saul and reported these terms to the people, they all wept aloud.

Just then Saul was returning from the fields, behind his oxen, and he asked, “What is wrong with the people? Why are they weeping?” Then they repeated to him what the men of Jabesh had said.

When Saul heard their words, the Spirit of God came upon him in power, and he burned with anger.

He took a pair of oxen, cut them into pieces, and sent the pieces by messengers throughout Israel, proclaiming, “This is what will be done to the oxen of anyone who does not follow Saul and Samuel.” Then the terror of the LORD fell on the people, and they turned out as one man.

When Saul mustered them at Bezek, the men of Israel numbered three hundred thousand and the men of Judah thirty thousand.

They told the messengers who had come, “Say to the men of Jabesh Gilead, ‘By the time the sun is hot tomorrow, you will be delivered.’” When the messengers went and reported this to the men of Jabesh, they were elated.

They said to the Ammonites, “Tomorrow we will surrender to you, and you can do to us whatever seems good to you.”
1Sa. 11:11 The next day Saul separated his men into three divisions; during the last watch of the night they broke into the camp of the Ammonites and slaughtered them until the heat of the day. Those who survived were scattered, so that no two of them were left together.

1Sa. 11:12 The people then said to Samuel, “Who was it that asked, ‘Shall Saul reign over us?’ Bring these men to us and we will put them to death.”

1Sa. 11:13 But Saul said, “No-one shall be put to death today, for this day the LORD has rescued Israel.”

1Sa. 11:14 Then Samuel said to the people, “Come, let us go to Gilgal and there reaffirm the kingship.”

1Sa. 11:15 So all the people went to Gilgal and confirmed Saul as king in the presence of the LORD. There they sacrificed fellowship offerings [Traditionally peace offerings] before the LORD, and Saul and all the Israelites held a great celebration.

CHAPTER 12

1Sa. 12:1 Samuel said to all Israel, “I have listened to everything you said to me and have set a king over you.

1Sa. 12:2 Now you have a king as your leader. As for me, I am old and grey, and my sons are here with you. I have been your leader from my youth until this day.

1Sa. 12:3 Here I stand. Testify against me in the presence of the LORD and his anointed. Whose ox have I taken? Whose donkey have I taken? Whom have I cheated? Whom have I oppressed? From whose hand have I accepted a bribe to make me shut my eyes? If I have done any of these, I will make it right.”

1Sa. 12:4 “You have not cheated or oppressed us,” they replied. “You have not taken anything from anyone’s hand.”
1Sa. 12:5 Samuel said to them, “The LORD is witness against you, and also his anointed is witness this day, that you have not found anything in my hand.” “He is witness,” they said.

1Sa. 12:6 Then Samuel said to the people, “It is the LORD who appointed Moses and Aaron and brought your forefathers up out of Egypt.

1Sa. 12:7 Now then, stand here, because I am going to confront you with evidence before the LORD as to all the righteous acts performed by the LORD for you and your fathers.

1Sa. 12:8 “After Jacob entered Egypt, they cried to the LORD for help, and the LORD sent Moses and Aaron, who brought your forefathers out of Egypt and settled them in this place.

1Sa. 12:9 “But they forgot the LORD their God; so he sold them into the hands of Sisera, the commander of the army of Hazor, and into the hands of the Philistines and the king of Moab, who fought against them.

1Sa. 12:10 They cried out to the LORD and said, ‘We have sinned; we have forsaken the LORD and served the Baals and the Ashtoreths. But now deliver us from the hands of our enemies, and we will serve you.’

1Sa. 12:11 Then the LORD sent Jerub-Baal, [Also called Gideon] Barak, [Some Septuagint manuscripts and Syriac; Hebrew Bedan] Jephthah and Samuel, [Hebrew; some Septuagint manuscripts and Syriac Samson] and he delivered you from the hands of your enemies on every side, so that you lived securely.

1Sa. 12:12 “But when you saw that Nahash king of the Ammonites was moving against you, you said to me, ‘No, we want a king to rule over us’ — even though the LORD your God was your king.

1Sa. 12:13 Now here is the king you have chosen, the one you asked for; see, the LORD has set a king over you.

1Sa. 12:14 If you fear the LORD and serve and obey him and do not rebel against his commands, and if both you and the king who reigns over you follow the LORD your God — good!
1Sa. 12:15 But if you do not obey the LORD, and if you rebel against his commands, his hand will be against you, as it was against your fathers.

1Sa. 12:16 “Now then, stand still and see this great thing the LORD is about to do before your eyes!

1Sa. 12:17 Is it not wheat harvest now? I will call upon the LORD to send thunder and rain. And you will realise what an evil thing you did in the eyes of the LORD when you asked for a king.”

1Sa. 12:18 Then Samuel called upon the LORD, and that same day the LORD sent thunder and rain. So all the people stood in awe of the LORD and of Samuel.

1Sa. 12:19 The people all said to Samuel, “Pray to the LORD your God for your servants so that we will not die, for we have added to all our other sins the evil of asking for a king.”

1Sa. 12:20 “Do not be afraid,” Samuel replied. “You have done all this evil; yet do not turn away from the LORD, but serve the LORD with all your heart.

1Sa. 12:21 Do not turn away after useless idols. They can do you no good, nor can they rescue you, because they are useless.

1Sa. 12:22 For the sake of his great name the LORD will not reject his people, because the LORD was pleased to make you his own.

1Sa. 12:23 As for me, far be it from me that I should sin against the LORD by failing to pray for you. And I will teach you the way that is good and right.

1Sa. 12:24 But be sure to fear the LORD and serve him faithfully with all your heart; consider what great things he has done for you.

1Sa. 12:25 Yet if you persist in doing evil, both you and your king will be swept away.”
1Sa. 13:1 Saul was thirty [A few late manuscripts of the Septuagint; Hebrew does not have thirty.] years old when he became king, and he reigned over Israel for forty-[See the round number in Acts 13:21; Hebrew does not have forty-.]two years.

1Sa. 13:2 Saul [Or and when he had reigned over Israel for two years, 2 he] chose three thousand men from Israel; two thousand were with him at Michmash and in the hill country of Bethel, and a thousand were with Jonathan at Gibeah in Benjamin. The rest of the men he sent back to their homes.

1Sa. 13:3 Jonathan attacked the Philistine outpost at Geba, and the Philistines heard about it. Then Saul had the trumpet blown throughout the land and said, “Let the Hebrews hear!”

1Sa. 13:4 So all Israel heard the news: “Saul has attacked the Philistine outpost, and now Israel has become an offence to the Philistines.” And the people were summoned to join Saul at Gilgal.

1Sa. 13:5 The Philistines assembled to fight Israel, with three thousand [Some Septuagint manuscripts and Syriac; Hebrew thirty thousand] chariots, six thousand charioteers, and soldiers as numerous as the sand on the seashore. They went up and camped at Michmash, east of Beth Aven.

1Sa. 13:6 When the men of Israel saw that their situation was critical and that their army was hard pressed, they hid in caves and thickets, among the rocks, and in pits and cisterns.

1Sa. 13:7 Some Hebrews even crossed the Jordan to the land of Gad and Gilead. Saul remained at Gilgal, and all the troops with him were quaking with fear.

1Sa. 13:8 He waited for seven days, the time set by Samuel; but Samuel did not come to Gilgal, and Saul’s men began to scatter.
So he said, “Bring me the burnt offering and the fellowship offerings.” [Traditionally peace offerings] And Saul offered up the burnt offering.

Just as he finished making the offering, Samuel arrived, and Saul went out to greet him.

“What have you done?” asked Samuel. Saul replied, “When I saw that the men were scattering, and that you did not come at the set time, and that the Philistines were assembling at Michmash,

I thought, ‘Now the Philistines will come down against me at Gilgal, and I have not sought the LORD’s favour.’ So I felt compelled to offer the burnt offering.”

“You acted foolishly,” Samuel said. “You have not kept the command the LORD your God gave you; if you had, he would have established your kingdom over Israel for all time.

But now your kingdom will not endure; the LORD has sought out a man after his own heart and appointed him leader of his people, because you have not kept the LORD’s command.”

Then Samuel left Gilgal [Hebrew; Septuagint Gilgal and went his way; the rest of the people went after Saul to meet the army, and they went out of Gilgal] and went up to Gibeah in Benjamin, and Saul counted the men who were with him. They numbered about six hundred.

Saul and his son Jonathan and the men with them were staying in Gibeah [Two Hebrew manuscripts; most Hebrew manuscripts Geba, a variant of Gibeah] of Benjamin, while the Philistines camped at Michmash.

Raiding parties went out from the Philistine camp in three detachments. One turned towards Ophrah in the vicinity of Shual, another towards Beth Horon, and the third towards the borderland overlooking the Valley of Zeboim facing the desert.

1Sa. 13:19 Not a blacksmith could be found in the whole land of Israel, because the Philistines had said, “Otherwise the Hebrews will make swords or spears!”

1Sa. 13:20 So all Israel went down to the Philistines to have their ploughshares, mattocks, axes and sickles [Septuagint; Hebrew ploughshares] sharpened.

1Sa. 13:21 The price was two thirds of a shekel [Hebrew pim; that is, about 1/4 ounce (about 8 grams)] for sharpening ploughshares and mattocks, and a third of a shekel [That is, about 1/8 ounce (about 4 grams)] for sharpening forks and axes and for repointing goads.

1Sa. 13:22 So on the day of the battle not a soldier with Saul and Jonathan had a sword or spear in his hand; only Saul and his son Jonathan had them.

1Sa. 13:23 Now a detachment of Philistines had gone out to the pass at Michmash.

CHAPTER 14

1Sa. 14:1 One day Jonathan son of Saul said to the young man bearing his armour, “Come, let’s go over to the Philistine outpost on the other side.” But he did not tell his father.

1Sa. 14:2 Saul was staying on the outskirts of Gibeah under a pomegranate tree in Migron. With him were about six hundred men, 1Sa. 14:3 among whom was Ahijah, who was wearing an ephod. He was a son of Ichabod’s brother Ahitub son of Phinehas, the son of Eli, the LORD’s priest in Shiloh. No-one was aware that Jonathan had left.

1Sa. 14:4 On each side of the pass that Jonathan intended to cross to reach the Philistine outpost was a cliff; one was called Bozez, and the other Seneh.
One cliff stood to the north towards Michmash, the other to the south towards Geba.

Jonathan said to his young armour-bearer, “Come, let’s go over to the outpost of those uncircumcised fellows. Perhaps the LORD will act on our behalf. Nothing can hinder the LORD from saving, whether by many or by few.”

“Do all that you have in mind,” his armour-bearer said. “Go ahead; I am with you heart and soul.”

Jonathan said, “Come, then; we will cross over towards the men and let them see us.

If they say to us, `Wait there until we come to you,’ we will stay where we are and not go up to them.

But if they say, `Come up to us,’ we will climb up, because that will be our sign that the LORD has given them into our hands.”

So both of them showed themselves to the Philistine outpost. “Look!” said the Philistines. “The Hebrews are crawling out of the holes they were hiding in.”

The men of the outpost shouted to Jonathan and his armour-bearer, “Come up to us and we’ll teach you a lesson.” So Jonathan said to his armour-bearer, “Climb up after me; the LORD has given them into the hand of Israel.”

Jonathan climbed up, using his hands and feet, with his armour-bearer right behind him. The Philistines fell before Jonathan, and his armour-bearer followed and killed behind him.

In that first attack Jonathan and his armour-bearer killed some twenty men in an area of about half an acre. [Hebrew half a yoke; a “yoke” was the land ploughed by a yoke of oxen in one day.]

Then panic struck the whole army — those in the camp and field, and those in the outposts and raiding parties — and the
It was a panic sent by God. [Or a terrible panic]

1Sa. 14:16 Saul’s lookouts at Gibeah in Benjamin saw the army melting away in all directions.

1Sa. 14:17 Then Saul said to the men who were with him, “Muster the forces and see who has left us.” When they did, it was Jonathan and his armour-bearer who were not there.

1Sa. 14:18 Saul said to Ahijah, “Bring the ark of God.” (At that time it was with the Israelites.) [Hebrew; Septuagint “Bring the ephod.” (At that time he wore the ephod before the Israelites.)]

1Sa. 14:19 While Saul was talking to the priest, the tumult in the Philistine camp increased more and more. So Saul said to the priest, “Withdraw your hand.”

1Sa. 14:20 Then Saul and all his men assembled and went to the battle. They found the Philistines in total confusion, striking each other with their swords.

1Sa. 14:21 Those Hebrews who had previously been with the Philistines and had gone up with them to their camp went over to the Israelites who were with Saul and Jonathan.

1Sa. 14:22 When all the Israelites who had hidden in the hill country of Ephraim heard that the Philistines were on the run, they joined the battle in hot pursuit.

1Sa. 14:23 So the LORD rescued Israel that day, and the battle moved on beyond Beth Aven.

1Sa. 14:24 Now the men of Israel were in distress that day, because Saul had bound the people under an oath, saying, “Cursed be any man who eats food before evening comes, before I have avenged myself on my enemies!” So none of the troops tasted food.

1Sa. 14:25 The entire army [Or Now all the people of the land] entered the woods, and there was honey on the ground.
1Sa. 14:26 When they went into the woods, they saw the honey oozing out, yet no-one put his hand to his mouth, because they feared the oath.

1Sa. 14:27 But Jonathan had not heard that his father had bound the people with the oath, so he reached out the end of the staff that was in his hand and dipped it into the honeycomb. He raised his hand to his mouth, and his eyes brightened. [Or his strength was renewed]

1Sa. 14:28 Then one of the soldiers told him, “Your father bound the army under a strict oath, saying, ‘Cursed be any man who eats food today!’ That is why the men are faint.”

1Sa. 14:29 Jonathan said, “My father has made trouble for the country. See how my eyes brightened [Or my strength was renewed] when I tasted a little of this honey.

1Sa. 14:30 How much better it would have been if the men had eaten today some of the plunder they took from their enemies. Would not the slaughter of the Philistines have been even greater?”

1Sa. 14:31 That day, after the Israelites had struck down the Philistines from Michmash to Aijalon, they were exhausted.

1Sa. 14:32 They pounced on the plunder and, taking sheep, cattle and calves, they butchered them on the ground and ate them, together with the blood.

1Sa. 14:33 Then someone said to Saul, “Look, the men are sinning against the LORD by eating meat that has blood in it.” “You have broken faith,” he said. “Roll a large stone over here at once.”

1Sa. 14:34 Then he said, “Go out among the men and tell them, ‘Each of you bring me your cattle and sheep, and slaughter them here and eat them. Do not sin against the LORD by eating meat with blood still in it.’” So everyone brought his ox that night and slaughtered it there.

1Sa. 14:35 Then Saul built an altar to the LORD; it was the first time he had done this.
Saul said, “Let us go down after the Philistines by night and plunder them till dawn, and let us not leave one of them alive.” “Do whatever seems best to you,” they replied. But the priest said, “Let us enquire of God here.”

So Saul asked God, “Shall I go down after the Philistines? Will you give them into Israel’s hand?” But God did not answer him that day.

Saul therefore said, “Come here, all you who are leaders of the army, and let us find out what sin has been committed today.

As surely as the LORD who rescues Israel lives, even if it lies with my son Jonathan, he must die.” But not one of the men said a word.

Saul then said to all the Israelites, “You stand over there; I and Jonathan my son will stand over here.” “Do what seems best to you,” the men replied.

Then Saul prayed to the LORD, the God of Israel, “Give me the right answer.” [Hebrew; Septuagint “Why have you not answered your servant today? If the fault is in me or my son Jonathan, respond with Urim, but if the men of Israel are at fault, respond with Thummim.”] And Jonathan and Saul were taken by lot, and the men were cleared.

Saul said, “Cast the lot between me and Jonathan my son.” And Jonathan was taken.

Then Saul said to Jonathan, “Tell me what you have done.” So Jonathan told him, “I merely tasted a little honey with the end of my staff. And now must I die?”

Saul said, “May God deal with me, be it ever so severely, if you do not die, Jonathan.”

But the men said to Saul, “Should Jonathan die — he who has brought about this great deliverance in Israel? Never! As surely as the LORD lives, not a hair of his head shall fall to the ground, for he did this today with God’s help.” So the men rescued Jonathan, and he was not put to death.
Then Saul stopped pursuing the Philistines, and they withdrew to their own land.

After Saul had assumed rule over Israel, he fought against their enemies on every side: Moab, the Ammonites, Edom, the kings [Masoretic Text; Dead Sea Scrolls and Septuagint king] of Zobah, and the Philistines. Wherever he turned, he inflicted punishment on them. [Hebrew; Septuagint he was victorious]

He fought valiantly and defeated the Amalekites, delivering Israel from the hands of those who had plundered them.

Saul’s sons were Jonathan, Ishvi and Malki-Shua. The name of his older daughter was Merab, and that of the younger was Michal.

His wife’s name was Ahinoam daughter of Ahimaaz. The name of the commander of Saul’s army was Abner son of Ner, and Ner was Saul’s uncle.

Saul’s father Kish and Abner’s father Ner were sons of Abiel.

All the days of Saul there was bitter war with the Philistines, and whenever Saul saw a mighty or brave man, he took him into his service.

CHAPTER 15

Samuel said to Saul, “I am the one the LORD sent to anoint you king over his people Israel; so listen now to the message from the LORD.

This is what the LORD Almighty says: ‘I will punish the Amalekites for what they did to Israel when they waylaid them as they came up from Egypt.

Now go, attack the Amalekites and totally destroy [The Hebrew term refers to the irrevocable giving of things or persons to the LORD, often by totally destroying them; also in verses 8, 9, 15, 18, 20 and 21.] everything that belongs to them. Do not spare them; put to death men and women, children and infants, cattle and sheep, camels and donkeys.”

1Sa. 15:4 So Saul summoned the men and mustered them at Telaim — two hundred thousand foot soldiers and ten thousand men from Judah.

1Sa. 15:5 Saul went to the city of Amalek and set an ambush in the ravine.

1Sa. 15:6 Then he said to the Kenites, “Go away, leave the Amalekites so that I do not destroy you along with them; for you showed kindness to all the Israelites when they came up out of Egypt.” So the Kenites moved away from the Amalekites.

1Sa. 15:7 Then Saul attacked the Amalekites all the way from Havilah to Shur, to the east of Egypt.

1Sa. 15:8 He took Agag king of the Amalekites alive, and all his people he totally destroyed with the sword.

1Sa. 15:9 But Saul and the army spared Agag and the best of the sheep and cattle, the fat calves [Or the grown bulls; the meaning of the Hebrew for this phrase is uncertain.] and lambs — everything that was good. These they were unwilling to destroy completely, but everything that was despised and weak they totally destroyed.

1Sa. 15:10 Then the word of the LORD came to Samuel:

1Sa. 15:11 “I am grieved that I have made Saul king, because he has turned away from me and has not carried out my instructions.” Samuel was troubled, and he cried out to the LORD all that night.

1Sa. 15:12 Early in the morning Samuel got up and went to meet Saul, but he was told, “Saul has gone to Carmel. There he has set up a monument in his own honour and has turned and gone on down to Gilgal.”

1Sa. 15:13 When Samuel reached him, Saul said, “The LORD bless you! I have carried out the LORD’s instructions.”
But Samuel said, “What then is this bleating of sheep in my ears? What is this lowing of cattle that I hear?”

Saul answered, “The soldiers brought them from the Amalekites; they spared the best of the sheep and cattle to sacrifice to the LORD your God, but we totally destroyed the rest.”

“Stop!” Samuel said to Saul. “Let me tell you what the LORD said to me last night.” “Tell me,” Saul replied.

Samuel said, “Although you were once small in your own eyes, did you not become the head of the tribes of Israel? The LORD anointed you king over Israel.

And he sent you on a mission, saying, ‘Go and completely destroy those wicked people, the Amalekites; make war on them until you have wiped them out.’

Why did you not obey the LORD? Why did you pounce on the plunder and do evil in the eyes of the LORD?”

“But I did obey the LORD,” Saul said. “I went on the mission the LORD assigned me. I completely destroyed the Amalekites and brought back Agag their king.

The soldiers took sheep and cattle from the plunder, the best of what was devoted to God, in order to sacrifice them to the LORD your God at Gilgal.”

But Samuel replied: “Does the LORD delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices as much as in obeying the voice of the LORD? To obey is better than sacrifice, and to heed is better than the fat of rams.

For rebellion is like the sin of divination, and arrogance like the evil of idolatry. Because you have rejected the word of the LORD, he has rejected you as king.”

Then Saul said to Samuel, “I have sinned. I violated the LORD’s command and your instructions. I was afraid of the people and so I gave in to them.”
1Sa. 15:25 Now I beg you, forgive my sin and come back with me, so that I may worship the LORD.”

1Sa. 15:26 But Samuel said to him, “I will not go back with you. You have rejected the word of the LORD, and the LORD has rejected you as king over Israel!”

1Sa. 15:27 As Samuel turned to leave, Saul caught hold of the hem of his robe, and it tore.

1Sa. 15:28 Samuel said to him, “The LORD has torn the kingdom of Israel from you today and has given it to one of your neighbours — to one better than you.

1Sa. 15:29 He who is the Glory of Israel does not lie or change his mind; for he is not a man, that he should change his mind.”

1Sa. 15:30 Saul replied, “I have sinned. But please honour me before the elders of my people and before Israel; come back with me, so that I may worship the LORD your God.”

1Sa. 15:31 So Samuel went back with Saul, and Saul worshipped the LORD.

1Sa. 15:32 Then Samuel said, “Bring me Agag king of the Amalekites.” Agag came to him confidently, [Or him trembling, yet] thinking, “Surely the bitterness of death is past.”

1Sa. 15:33 But Samuel said, “As your sword has made women childless, so will your mother be childless among women.” And Samuel put Agag to death before the LORD at Gilgal.

1Sa. 15:34 Then Samuel left for Ramah, but Saul went up to his home in Gibeah of Saul.

1Sa. 15:35 Until the day Samuel died, he did not go to see Saul again, though Samuel mourned for him. And the LORD was grieved that he had made Saul king over Israel.
The LORD said to Samuel, “How long will you mourn for Saul, since I have rejected him as king over Israel? Fill your horn with oil and be on your way; I am sending you to Jesse of Bethlehem. I have chosen one of his sons to be king.”

But Samuel said, “How can I go? Saul will hear about it and kill me.” The LORD said, “Take a heifer with you and say, ‘I have come to sacrifice to the LORD.’

Invite Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will show you what to do. You are to anoint for me the one I indicate.”

Samuel did what the LORD said. When he arrived at Bethlehem, the elders of the town trembled when they met him. They asked, “Do you come in peace?”

Samuel replied, “Yes, in peace; I have come to sacrifice to the LORD. Consecrate yourselves and come to the sacrifice with me.” Then he consecrated Jesse and his sons and invited them to the sacrifice.

When they arrived, Samuel saw Eliab and thought, “Surely the LORD’s anointed stands here before the LORD.”

But the LORD said to Samuel, “Do not consider his appearance or his height, for I have rejected him. The LORD does not look at the things man looks at. Man looks at the outward appearance, but the LORD looks at the heart.”

Then Jesse called Abinadab and made him pass in front of Samuel. But Samuel said, “The LORD has not chosen this one either.”

Jesse then made Shammah pass by, but Samuel said, “Nor has the LORD chosen this one.”

Jesse made seven of his sons pass before Samuel, but Samuel said to him, “The LORD has not chosen these.”

So he asked Jesse, “Are these all the sons you have?” “There is still the youngest,” Jesse answered, “but he is tending the sheep.” Samuel said, “Send for him; we will not sit down until he arrives.”

1Sa. 16:12 So he sent and had him brought in. He was ruddy, with a fine appearance and handsome features. Then the LORD said, “Rise and anoint him; he is the one.”

1Sa. 16:13 So Samuel took the horn of oil and anointed him in the presence of his brothers, and from that day on the Spirit of the LORD came upon David in power. Samuel then went to Ramah.

1Sa. 16:14 Now the Spirit of the LORD had departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from the LORD tormented him.

1Sa. 16:15 Saul’s attendants said to him, “See, an evil spirit from God is tormenting you.

1Sa. 16:16 Let our lord command his servants here to search for someone who can play the harp. He will play when the evil spirit from God comes upon you, and you will feel better.”

1Sa. 16:17 So Saul said to his attendants, “Find someone who plays well and bring him to me.”

1Sa. 16:18 One of the servants answered, “I have seen a son of Jesse of Bethlehem who knows how to play the harp. He is a brave man and a warrior. He speaks well and is a fine-looking man. And the LORD is with him.”

1Sa. 16:19 Then Saul sent messengers to Jesse and said, “Send me your son David, who is with the sheep.”

1Sa. 16:20 So Jesse took a donkey loaded with bread, a skin of wine and a young goat and sent them with his son David to Saul.

1Sa. 16:21 David came to Saul and entered his service. Saul liked him very much, and David became one of his armour-bearers.

1Sa. 16:22 Then Saul sent word to Jesse, saying, “Allow David to remain in my service, for I am pleased with him.”
Whenever the spirit from God came upon Saul, David would take his harp and play. Then relief would come to Saul; he would feel better, and the evil spirit would leave him.

CHAPTER 17

Now the Philistines gathered their forces for war and assembled at Socoh in Judah. They pitched camp at Ephes Dammim, between Socoh and Azekah.

Saul and the Israelites assembled and camped in the Valley of Elah and drew up their battle line to meet the Philistines.

The Philistines occupied one hill and the Israelites another, with the valley between them.

A champion named Goliath, who was from Gath, came out of the Philistine camp. He was over nine feet [Hebrew was six cubits and a span (about 3 metres)] tall.

He had a bronze helmet on his head and wore a coat of scale armour of bronze weighing five thousand shekels; [That is, about 125 pounds (about 57 kilograms)] on his legs he wore bronze greaves, and a bronze javelin was slung on his back.

His spear shaft was like a weaver’s rod, and its iron point weighed six hundred shekels. [That is, about 15 pounds (about 7 kilograms)] His shield-bearer went ahead of him.

Goliath stood and shouted to the ranks of Israel, “Why do you come out and line up for battle? Am I not a Philistine, and are you not the servants of Saul? Choose a man and have him come down to me.

If he is able to fight and kill me, we will become your subjects; but if I overcome him and kill him, you will become our subjects and serve us.”

Then the Philistine said, “This day I defy the ranks of Israel! Give me a man and let us fight each other.”
On hearing the Philistine’s words, Saul and all the Israelites were dismayed and terrified.

Now David was the son of an Ephrathite named Jesse, who was from Bethlehem in Judah. Jesse had eight sons, and in Saul’s time he was old and well advanced in years.

Jesse’s three oldest sons had followed Saul to the war: The firstborn was Eliab; the second, Abinadab; and the third, Shammah.

David was the youngest. The three oldest followed Saul, but David went back and forth from Saul to tend his father’s sheep at Bethlehem.

For forty days the Philistine came forward every morning and evening and took his stand.

Now Jesse said to his son David, “Take this ephah [That is, probably about 3/5 bushel (about 22 litres)] of roasted grain and these ten loaves of bread for your brothers and hurry to their camp.

Take along these ten cheeses to the commander of their unit. [Hebrew thousand] See how your brothers are and bring back some assurance [Or some token; or some pledge of spoils] from them.

They are with Saul and all the men of Israel in the Valley of Elah, fighting against the Philistines.”

Early in the morning David left the flock with a shepherd, loaded up and set out, as Jesse had directed. He reached the camp as the army was going out to its battle positions, shouting the war cry.

Israel and the Philistines were drawing up their lines facing each other.

David left his things with the keeper of supplies, ran to the battle lines and greeted his brothers.
As he was talking with them, Goliath, the Philistine champion from Gath, stepped out from his lines and shouted his usual defiance, and David heard it.

When the Israelites saw the man, they all ran from him in great fear.

Now the Israelites had been saying, “Do you see how this man keeps coming out? He comes out to defy Israel. The king will give great wealth to the man who kills him. He will also give him his daughter in marriage and will exempt his father’s family from taxes in Israel.”

David asked the men standing near him, “What will be done for the man who kills this Philistine and removes this disgrace from Israel? Who is this uncircumcised Philistine that he should defy the armies of the living God?”

They repeated to him what they had been saying and told him, “This is what will be done for the man who kills him.”

When Eliab, David’s oldest brother, heard him speaking with the men, he burned with anger at him and asked, “Why have you come down here? And with whom did you leave those few sheep in the desert? I know how conceited you are and how wicked your heart is; you came down only to watch the battle.”

“Now what have I done?” said David. “Can’t I even speak?”

He then turned away to someone else and brought up the same matter, and the men answered him as before.

What David said was overheard and reported to Saul, and Saul sent for him.

David said to Saul, “Let no-one lose heart on account of this Philistine; your servant will go and fight him.”

Saul replied, “You are not able to go out against this Philistine and fight him; you are only a boy, and he has been a fighting man from his youth.”
But David said to Saul, “Your servant has been keeping his father’s sheep. When a lion or a bear came and carried off a sheep from the flock,

I went after it, struck it and rescued the sheep from its mouth. When it turned on me, I seized it by its hair, struck it and killed it.

Your servant has killed both the lion and the bear; this uncircumcised Philistine will be like one of them, because he has defied the armies of the living God.

The LORD who delivered me from the paw of the lion and the paw of the bear will deliver me from the hand of this Philistine.” Saul said to David, “Go, and the LORD be with you.”

Then Saul dressed David in his own tunic. He put a coat of armour on him and a bronze helmet on his head.

David fastened on his sword over the tunic and tried walking around, because he was not used to them. “I cannot go in these,” he said to Saul, “because I am not used to them.” So he took them off.

Then he took his staff in his hand, chose five smooth stones from the stream, put them in the pouch of his shepherd’s bag and, with his sling in his hand, approached the Philistine.

Meanwhile, the Philistine, with his shield-bearer in front of him, kept coming closer to David.

He looked David over and saw that he was only a boy, ruddy and handsome, and he despised him.

“Come here,” he said, “and I’ll give your flesh to the birds of the air and the beasts of the field!”

David said to the Philistine, “You come against me with sword and spear and javelin, but I come against you in the name of the LORD Almighty, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have defied.

1Sa. 17:46 This day the LORD will hand you over to me, and I’ll strike you down and cut off your head. Today I will give the carcasses of the Philistine army to the birds of the air and the beasts of the earth, and the whole world will know that there is a God in Israel.

1Sa. 17:47 All those gathered here will know that it is not by sword or spear that the LORD saves; for the battle is the LORD’s, and he will give all of you into our hands.”

1Sa. 17:48 As the Philistine moved closer to attack him, David ran quickly towards the battle line to meet him.

1Sa. 17:49 Reaching into his bag and taking out a stone, he slung it and struck the Philistine on the forehead. The stone sank into his forehead, and he fell face down on the ground.

1Sa. 17:50 So David triumphed over the Philistine with a sling and a stone; without a sword in his hand he struck down the Philistine and killed him.

1Sa. 17:51 David ran and stood over him. He took hold of the Philistine’s sword and drew it from the scabbard. After he killed him, he cut off his head with the sword. When the Philistines saw that their hero was dead, they turned and ran.

1Sa. 17:52 Then the men of Israel and Judah surged forward with a shout and pursued the Philistines to the entrance of Gath [Some Septuagint manuscripts; Hebrew a valley] and to the gates of Ekron. Their dead were strewn along the Shaaraim road to Gath and Ekron.

1Sa. 17:53 When the Israelites returned from chasing the Philistines, they plundered their camp.

1Sa. 17:54 David took the Philistine’s head and brought it to Jerusalem, and he put the Philistine’s weapons in his own tent.

1Sa. 17:55 As Saul watched David going out to meet the Philistine, he said to Abner, commander of the army, “Abner, whose son is that young man?” Abner replied, “As surely as you live, O king, I don’t know.”

1Sa. 17:56 The king said, “Find out whose son this young man is.”

1Sa. 17:57 As soon as David returned from killing the Philistine, Abner took him and brought him before Saul, with David still holding the Philistine’s head.

1Sa. 17:58 “Whose son are you, young man?” Saul asked him. David said, “I am the son of your servant Jesse of Bethlehem.”

CHAPTER 18

1Sa. 18:1 After David had finished talking with Saul, Jonathan became one in spirit with David, and he loved him as himself.

1Sa. 18:2 From that day Saul kept David with him and did not let him return to his father’s house.

1Sa. 18:3 And Jonathan made a covenant with David because he loved him as himself.

1Sa. 18:4 Jonathan took off the robe he was wearing and gave it to David, along with his tunic, and even his sword, his bow and his belt.

1Sa. 18:5 Whatever Saul sent him to do, David did it so successfully [Or wisely] that Saul gave him a high rank in the army. This pleased all the people, and Saul’s officers as well.

1Sa. 18:6 When the men were returning home after David had killed the Philistine, the women came out from all the towns of Israel to meet King Saul with singing and dancing, with joyful songs and with tambourines and lutes.

1Sa. 18:7 As they danced, they sang: “Saul has slain his thousands, and David his tens of thousands.”

1Sa. 18:8 Saul was very angry; this refrain galled him. “They have credited David with tens of thousands,” he thought, “but me with only thousands. What more can he get but the kingdom?”

1Sa. 18:9 And from that time on Saul kept a jealous eye on David.

1Sa. 18:10 The next day an evil [Or injurious] spirit from God came forcefully upon Saul. He was prophesying in his house, while David was playing the harp, as he usually did. Saul had a spear in his hand

1Sa. 18:11 and he hurled it, saying to himself, “I’ll pin David to the wall.” But David eluded him twice.

1Sa. 18:12 Saul was afraid of David, because the LORD was with David but had left Saul.

1Sa. 18:13 So he sent David away from him and gave him command over a thousand men, and David led the troops in their campaigns.

1Sa. 18:14 In everything he did he had great success, [Or he was very wise] because the LORD was with him.

1Sa. 18:15 When Saul saw how successful [Or wise] he was, he was afraid of him.

1Sa. 18:16 But all Israel and Judah loved David, because he led them in their campaigns.

1Sa. 18:17 Saul said to David, “Here is my older daughter Merab. I will give her to you in marriage; only serve me bravely and fight the battles of the LORD.” For Saul said to himself, “I will not raise a hand against him. Let the Philistines do that!”

1Sa. 18:18 But David said to Saul, “Who am I, and what is my family or my father’s clan in Israel, that I should become the king’s son-in-law?”

1Sa. 18:19 So [Or However,] when the time came for Merab, Saul’s daughter, to be given to David, she was given in marriage to Adriel of Meholah.

1Sa. 18:20 Now Saul’s daughter Michal was in love with David, and when they told Saul about it, he was pleased.
“I will give her to him,” he thought, “so that she may be a snare to him and so that the hand of the Philistines may be against him.” So Saul said to David, “Now you have a second opportunity to become my son-in-law.”

Then Saul ordered his attendants: “Speak to David privately and say, ‘Look, the king is pleased with you, and his attendants all like you; now become his son-in-law.’”

They repeated these words to David. But David said, “Do you think it is a small matter to become the king’s son-in-law? I’m only a poor man and little known.”

When Saul’s servants told him what David had said,

Saul replied, “Say to David, ‘The king wants no other price for the bride than a hundred Philistine foreskins, to take revenge on his enemies.’” Saul’s plan was to have David fall by the hands of the Philistines.

When the attendants told David these things, he was pleased to become the king’s son-in-law. So before the allotted time elapsed,

David and his men went out and killed two hundred Philistines. He brought their foreskins and presented the full number to the king so that he might become the king’s son-in-law. Then Saul gave him his daughter Michal in marriage.

When Saul realised that the LORD was with David and that his daughter Michal loved David, Saul became still more afraid of him, and he remained his enemy for the rest of his days.

The Philistine commanders continued to go out to battle, and as often as they did, David met with more success [Or David acted more wisely] than the rest of Saul’s officers, and his name became well known.
Saul told his son Jonathan and all the attendants to kill David. But Jonathan was very fond of David and warned him, “My father Saul is looking for a chance to kill you. Be on your guard tomorrow morning; go into hiding and stay there.

Jonathan spoke well of David to Saul his father and said to him, “Let not the king do wrong to his servant David; he has not wronged you, and what he has done has benefited you greatly.

He took his life in his hands when he killed the Philistine. The LORD won a great victory for all Israel, and you saw it and were glad. Why then would you do wrong to an innocent man like David by killing him for no reason?”

Saul listened to Jonathan and took this oath: “As surely as the LORD lives, David will not be put to death.”

So Jonathan called David and told him the whole conversation. He brought him to Saul, and David was with Saul as before.

Once more war broke out, and David went out and fought the Philistines. He struck them with such force that they fled before him.

But an evil [Or injurious] spirit from the LORD came upon Saul as he was sitting in his house with his spear in his hand. While David was playing the harp, Saul tried to pin him to the wall with his spear, but David eluded him as Saul drove the spear into the wall. That night David made good his escape.
Saul sent men to David’s house to watch it and to kill him in the morning. But Michal, David’s wife, warned him, “If you don’t run for your life tonight, tomorrow you’ll be killed.”

So Michal let David down through a window, and he fled and escaped.

Then Michal took an idol [Hebrew teraphim; also in verse 16] and laid it on the bed, covering it with a garment and putting some goats’ hair at the head.

When Saul sent the men to capture David, Michal said, “He is ill.”

Then Saul sent the men back to see David and told them, “Bring him up to me in his bed so that I may kill him.”

But when the men entered, there was the idol in the bed, and at the head was some goats’ hair.

Saul said to Michal, “Why did you deceive me like this and send my enemy away so that he escaped?” Michal told him, “He said to me, ‘Let me get away. Why should I kill you?’”

When David had fled and made his escape, he went to Samuel at Ramah and told him all that Saul had done to him. Then he and Samuel went to Naioth and stayed there.

Word came to Saul: “David is in Naioth at Ramah”; so he sent men to capture him. But when they saw a group of prophets prophesying, with Samuel standing there as their leader, the Spirit of God came upon Saul’s men and they also prophesied.

Saul was told about it, and he sent more men, and they prophesied too. Saul sent men a third time, and they also prophesied.

Finally, he himself left for Ramah and went to the great cistern at Secu. And he asked, “Where are Samuel and David?” “Over in Naioth at Ramah,” they said.
1Sa. 19:23 So Saul went to Naioth at Ramah. But the Spirit of God came even upon him, and he walked along prophesying until he came to Naioth.

1Sa. 19:24 He stripped off his robes and also prophesied in Samuel’s presence. He lay that way all that day and night. This is why people say, “Is Saul also among the prophets?”

CHAPTER 20

1Sa. 20:1 Then David fled from Naioth at Ramah and went to Jonathan and asked, “What have I done? What is my crime? How have I wronged your father, that he is trying to take my life?”

1Sa. 20:2 “Never!” Jonathan replied. “You are not going to die! Look, my father doesn’t do anything, great or small, without confiding in me. Why should he hide this from me? It’s not so!”

1Sa. 20:3 But David took an oath and said, “Your father knows very well that I have found favour in your eyes, and he has said to himself, ‘Jonathan must not know this or he will be grieved.’ Yet as surely as the LORD lives and as you live, there is only a step between me and death.”

1Sa. 20:4 Jonathan said to David, “Whatever you want me to do, I’ll do for you.”

1Sa. 20:5 So David said, “Look, tomorrow is the New Moon festival, and I am supposed to dine with the king; but let me go and hide in the field until the evening of the day after tomorrow.

1Sa. 20:6 If your father misses me at all, tell him, ‘David earnestly asked my permission to hurry to Bethlehem, his home town, because an annual sacrifice is being made there for his whole clan.’

1Sa. 20:7 If he says, ‘Very well,’ then your servant is safe. But if he loses his temper, you can be sure that he is determined to harm me.
As for you, show kindness to your servant, for you have brought him into a covenant with you before the LORD. If I am guilty, then kill me yourself! Why hand me over to your father?”

“Never!” Jonathan said. “If I had the least inkling that my father was determined to harm you, wouldn’t I tell you?”

David asked, “Who will tell me if your father answers you harshly?”

“Come,” Jonathan said, “let’s go out into the field.” So they went there together.

Then Jonathan said to David: “By the LORD, the God of Israel, I will surely sound out my father by this time the day after tomorrow! If he is favourably disposed towards you, will I not send you word and let you know?

But if my father is inclined to harm you, may the LORD deal with me, be it ever so severely, if I do not let you know and send you away safely. May the LORD be with you as he has been with my father.

But show me unfailing kindness like that of the LORD as long as I live, so that I may not be killed, and do not ever cut off your kindness from my family — not even when the LORD has cut off every one of David’s enemies from the face of the earth.”

So Jonathan made a covenant with the house of David, saying, “May the LORD call David’s enemies to account.”

And Jonathan made David reaffirm his oath out of love for him, because he loved him as he loved himself.

Then Jonathan said to David: “Tomorrow is the New Moon festival. You will be missed, because your seat will be empty.

The day after tomorrow, towards evening, go to the place where you hid when this trouble began, and wait by the stone Ezel.
I will shoot three arrows to the side of it, as though I were shooting at a target.

Then I will send a boy and say, ‘Go, find the arrows.’ If I say to him, ‘Look, the arrows are on this side of you; bring them here,’ then come, because, as surely as the LORD lives, you are safe; there is no danger.

But if I say to the boy, ‘Look, the arrows are beyond you,’ then you must go, because the LORD has sent you away.

And about the matter you and I discussed — remember, the LORD is witness between you and me for ever.”

So David hid in the field, and when the New Moon festival came, the king sat down to eat.

He sat in his customary place by the wall, opposite Jonathan, [Septuagint; Hebrew wall. Jonathan arose] and Abner sat next to Saul, but David’s place was empty.

Saul said nothing that day, for he thought, “Something must have happened to David to make him ceremonially unclean — surely he is unclean.”

But the next day, the second day of the month, David’s place was empty again. Then Saul said to his son Jonathan, “Why hasn’t the son of Jesse come to the meal, either yesterday or today?”

Jonathan answered, “David earnestly asked me for permission to go to Bethlehem.

He said, ‘Let me go, because our family is observing a sacrifice in the town and my brother has ordered me to be there. If I have found favour in your eyes, let me go to see my brothers.’ That is why he has not come to the king’s table.”

Saul’s anger flared up at Jonathan and he said to him, “You son of a perverse and rebellious woman! Don’t I know that you have sided with the son of Jesse to your own shame and to the shame of the mother who bore you?
As long as the son of Jesse lives on this earth, neither you nor your kingdom will be established. Now send and bring him to me, for he must die!"

"Why should he be put to death? What has he done?"
Jonathan asked his father.

But Saul hurled his spear at him to kill him. Then Jonathan knew that his father intended to kill David.

Jonathan got up from the table in fierce anger; on that second day of the month he did not eat, because he was grieved at his father’s shameful treatment of David.

In the morning Jonathan went out to the field for his meeting with David. He had a small boy with him, and he said to the boy, “Run and find the arrows I shoot.” As the boy ran, he shot an arrow beyond him.

When the boy came to the place where Jonathan’s arrow had fallen, Jonathan called out after him, “Isn’t the arrow beyond you?”

Then he shouted, “Hurry! Go quickly! Don’t stop!” The boy picked up the arrow and returned to his master.

(The boy knew nothing of all this; only Jonathan and David knew.)

Then Jonathan gave his weapons to the boy and said, “Go, carry them back to town.”

After the boy had gone, David got up from the south side of the stone and bowed down before Jonathan three times, with his face to the ground. Then they kissed each other and wept together — but David wept the most.

Jonathan said to David, “Go in peace, for we have sworn friendship with each other in the name of the LORD, saying, ‘The LORD is witness between you and me, and between your descendants and my descendants for ever.’” Then David left, and Jonathan went back to the town.
David went to Nob, to Ahimelech the priest. Ahimelech trembled when he met him, and asked, “Why are you alone? Why is no-one with you?”

David answered Ahimelech the priest, “The king charged me with a certain matter and said to me, ‘No-one is to know anything about your mission and your instructions.’ As for my men, I have told them to meet me at a certain place.

Now then, what have you to hand? Give me five loaves of bread, or whatever you can find.”

But the priest answered David, “I don’t have any ordinary bread to hand; however, there is some consecrated bread here — provided the men have kept themselves from women.”

David replied, “Indeed women have been kept from us, as usual whenever [Or from us in the past few days since] I set out. The men’s things [Or bodies] are holy even on missions that are not holy. How much more so today!”

So the priest gave him the consecrated bread, since there was no bread there except the bread of the Presence that had been removed from before the LORD and replaced by hot bread on the day it was taken away.

Now one of Saul’s servants was there that day, detained before the LORD; he was Doeg the Edomite, Saul’s head shepherd.

David asked Ahimelech, “Don’t you have a spear or sword here? I haven’t brought my sword or any other weapon, because the king’s business was urgent.”

The priest replied, “The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom you killed in the Valley of Elah, is here; it is wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod. If you want it, take it; there is no sword here but that one.” David said, “There is none like it; give it to me.”
1Sa. 21:10 That day David fled from Saul and went to Achish king of Gath.

1Sa. 21:11 But the servants of Achish said to him, “Isn’t this David, the king of the land? Isn’t he the one they sing about in their dances: ‘Saul has slain his thousands, and David his tens of thousands’?”

1Sa. 21:12 David took these words to heart and was very much afraid of Achish king of Gath.

1Sa. 21:13 So he feigned insanity in their presence; and while he was in their hands he acted like a madman, making marks on the doors of the gate and letting saliva run down his beard.

1Sa. 21:14 Achish said to his servants, “Look at the man! He is insane! Why bring him to me?

1Sa. 21:15 Am I so short of madmen that you have to bring this fellow here to carry on like this in front of me? Must this man come into my house?”

CHAPTER 22

1Sa. 22:1 David left Gath and escaped to the cave of Adullam. When his brothers and his father’s household heard about it, they went down to him there.

1Sa. 22:2 All those who were in distress or in debt or discontented gathered round him, and he became their leader. About four hundred men were with him.

1Sa. 22:3 From there David went to Mizpah in Moab and said to the king of Moab, “Would you let my father and mother come and stay with you until I learn what God will do for me?”

1Sa. 22:4 So he left them with the king of Moab, and they stayed with him as long as David was in the stronghold.

1Sa. 22:5 But the prophet Gad said to David, “Do not stay in the stronghold. Go into the land of Judah.” So David left and went to the forest of Hereth.
Now Saul heard that David and his men had been discovered. And Saul, spear in hand, was seated under the tamarisk tree on the hill at Gibeah, with all his officials standing round him.

Saul said to them, “Listen, men of Benjamin! Will the son of Jesse give all of you fields and vineyards? Will he make all of you commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds?

Is that why you have all conspired against me? No-one tells me when my son makes a covenant with the son of Jesse. None of you is concerned about me or tells me that my son has incited my servant to lie in wait for me, as he does today.”

But Doeg the Edomite, who was standing with Saul’s officials, said, “I saw the son of Jesse come to Ahimelech son of Ahitub at Nob.

Ahimelech enquired of the LORD for him; he also gave him provisions and the sword of Goliath the Philistine.”

Then the king sent for the priest Ahimelech son of Ahitub and his father’s whole family, who were the priests at Nob, and they all came to the king.

Saul said, “Listen now, son of Ahitub.” “Yes, my lord,” he answered.

Saul said to him, “Why have you conspired against me, you and the son of Jesse, giving him bread and a sword and enquiring of God for him, so that he has rebelled against me and lies in wait for me, as he does today?”

Ahimelech answered the king, “Who of all your servants is as loyal as David, the king’s son-in-law, captain of your bodyguard and highly respected in your household?

Was that day the first time I enquired of God for him? Of course not! Let not the king accuse your servant or any of his father’s family, for your servant knows nothing at all about this whole affair.”
But the king said, “You shall surely die, Ahimelech, you and your father’s whole family.”

Then the king ordered the guards at his side: “Turn and kill the priests of the LORD, because they too have sided with David. They knew he was fleeing, yet they did not tell me.” But the king’s officials were not willing to raise a hand to strike the priests of the LORD.

The king then ordered Doeg, “You turn and strike down the priests.” So Doeg the Edomite turned and struck them down. That day he killed eighty-five men who wore the linen ephod.

He also put to the sword Nob, the town of the priests, with its men and women, its children and infants, and its cattle, donkeys and sheep.

But Abiathar, son of Ahimelech son of Ahitub, escaped and fled to join David.

He told David that Saul had killed the priests of the LORD.

Then David said to Abiathar: “That day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, I knew he would be sure to tell Saul. I am responsible for the death of your father’s whole family.

Stay with me; don’t be afraid; the man who is seeking your life is seeking mine also. You will be safe with me.”

CHAPTER 23

When David was told, “Look, the Philistines are fighting against Keilah and are looting the threshing-floors,” he enquired of the LORD, saying, “Shall I go and attack these Philistines?” The LORD answered him, “Go, attack the Philistines and save Keilah.”

But David’s men said to him, “Here in Judah we are afraid. How much more, then, if we go to Keilah against the Philistine forces!”
1Sa. 23:4  Once again David enquired of the LORD, and the LORD answered him, “Go down to Keilah, for I am going to give the Philistines into your hand.”

1Sa. 23:5  So David and his men went to Keilah, fought the Philistines and carried off their livestock. He inflicted heavy losses on the Philistines and saved the people of Keilah.

1Sa. 23:6  (Now Abiathar son of Ahimelech had brought the ephod down with him when he fled to David at Keilah.)

1Sa. 23:7  Saul was told that David had gone to Keilah, and he said, “God has handed him over to me, for David has imprisoned himself by entering a town with gates and bars.”

1Sa. 23:8  And Saul called up all his forces for battle, to go down to Keilah to besiege David and his men.

1Sa. 23:9  When David learned that Saul was plotting against him, he said to Abiathar the priest, “Bring the ephod.”

1Sa. 23:10  David said, “O LORD, God of Israel, your servant has heard definitely that Saul plans to come to Keilah and destroy the town on account of me.

1Sa. 23:11  Will the citizens of Keilah surrender me to him? Will Saul come down, as your servant has heard? O LORD, God of Israel, tell your servant.” And the LORD said, “He will.”

1Sa. 23:12  Again David asked, “Will the citizens of Keilah surrender me and my men to Saul?” And the LORD said, “They will.”

1Sa. 23:13  So David and his men, about six hundred in number, left Keilah and kept moving from place to place. When Saul was told that David had escaped from Keilah, he did not go there.

1Sa. 23:14  David stayed in the desert strongholds and in the hills of the Desert of Ziph. Day after day Saul searched for him, but God did not give David into his hands.

1Sa. 23:15  While David was at Horesh in the Desert of Ziph, he learned that Saul had come out to take his life.
And Saul’s son Jonathan went to David at Horesh and helped him to find strength in God.

“Don’t be afraid,” he said. “My father Saul will not lay a hand on you. You shall be king over Israel, and I will be second to you. Even my father Saul knows this.”

The two of them made a covenant before the LORD. Then Jonathan went home, but David remained at Horesh.

The Ziphites went up to Saul at Gibeah and said, “Is not David hiding among us in the strongholds at Horesh, on the hill of Hakilah, south of Jeshimon?

Now, O king, come down whenever it pleases you to do so, and we will be responsible for handing him over to the king.”

Saul replied, “The LORD bless you for your concern for me.

Go and make further preparation. Find out where David usually goes and who has seen him there. They tell me he is very crafty.

Find out about all the hiding-places he uses and come back to me with definite information. [Or me at Nacon] Then I will go with you; if he is in the area, I will track him down among all the clans of Judah.”

So they set out and went to Ziph ahead of Saul. Now David and his men were in the Desert of Maon, in the Arabah south of Jeshimon.

Saul and his men began the search, and when David was told about it, he went down to the rock and stayed in the Desert of Maon. When Saul heard this, he went into the Desert of Maon in pursuit of David.

Saul was going along one side of the mountain, and David and his men were on the other side, hurrying to get away from Saul. As Saul and his forces were closing in on David and his men to capture them, a messenger came to Saul, saying, “Come quickly! The Philistines are raiding the land.”

689

Then Saul broke off his pursuit of David and went to meet the Philistines. That is why they call this place Sela Hammahlekoth. [Sela Hammahlekoth means rock of parting.]

And David went up from there and lived in the strongholds of En Gedi.

CHAPTER 24

After Saul returned from pursuing the Philistines, he was told, “David is in the Desert of En Gedi.”

So Saul took three thousand chosen men from all Israel and set out to look for David and his men near the Crags of the Wild Goats.

He came to the sheep pens along the way; a cave was there, and Saul went in to relieve himself. David and his men were far back in the cave.

The men said, “This is the day the LORD spoke of when he said [Or “Today the LORD is saying] to you, ‘I will give your enemy into your hands for you to deal with as you wish.’” Then David crept up unnoticed and cut off a corner of Saul’s robe.

Afterwards, David was conscience-stricken for having cut off a corner of his robe.

He said to his men, “The LORD forbid that I should do such a thing to my master, the LORD’s anointed, or lift my hand against him; for he is the anointed of the LORD.”

With these words David rebuked his men and did not allow them to attack Saul. And Saul left the cave and went his way.

Then David went out of the cave and called out to Saul, “My lord the king!” When Saul looked behind him, David bowed down and prostrated himself with his face to the ground.

He said to Saul, “Why do you listen when men say, ‘David is bent on harming you’?”
This day you have seen with your own eyes how the LORD gave you into my hands in the cave. Some urged me to kill you, but I spared you; I said, `I will not lift my hand against my master, because he is the LORD’s anointed.’

See, my father, look at this piece of your robe in my hand! I cut off the corner of your robe but did not kill you. Now understand and recognise that I am not guilty of wrongdoing or rebellion. I have not wronged you, but you are hunting me down to take my life.

May the LORD judge between you and me. And may the LORD avenge the wrongs you have done to me, but my hand will not touch you.

As the old saying goes, `From evildoers come evil deeds,’ so my hand will not touch you.

“Against whom has the king of Israel come out? Whom are you pursuing? A dead dog? A flea?

May the LORD be our judge and decide between us. May he consider my cause and uphold it; may he vindicate me by delivering me from your hand.”

When David finished saying this, Saul asked, “Is that your voice, David my son?” And he wept aloud.

“You are more righteous than I,” he said. “You have treated me well, but I have treated you badly.

You have just now told me of the good you did to me; the LORD gave me into your hands, but you did not kill me.

When a man finds his enemy, does he let him get away unharmed? May the LORD reward you well for the way you treated me today.

I know that you will surely be king and that the kingdom of Israel will be established in your hands.

Now swear to me by the LORD that you will not cut off my descendants or wipe out my name from my father’s family.”
1Sa. 24:22 So David gave his oath to Saul. Then Saul returned home, but David and his men went up to the stronghold.

CHAPTER 25

1Sa. 25:1 Now Samuel died, and all Israel assembled and mourned for him; and they buried him at his home in Ramah. Then David moved down into the Desert of Maon. [Some Septuagint manuscripts; Hebrew Paran]

1Sa. 25:2 A certain man in Maon, who had property there at Carmel, was very wealthy. He had a thousand goats and three thousand sheep, which he was shearing in Carmel.

1Sa. 25:3 His name was Nabal and his wife’s name was Abigail. She was an intelligent and beautiful woman, but her husband, a Calebite, was surly and mean in his dealings.

1Sa. 25:4 While David was in the desert, he heard that Nabal was shearing sheep.

1Sa. 25:5 So he sent ten young men and said to them, “Go up to Nabal at Carmel and greet him in my name.

1Sa. 25:6 Say to him: `Long life to you! Good health to you and your household! And good health to all that is yours!

1Sa. 25:7 “Now I hear that it is sheep-shearing time. When your shepherds were with us, we did not ill-treat them, and the whole time they were at Carmel nothing of theirs was missing. Ask your own servants and they will tell you. Therefore be favourable towards my young men, since we come at a festive time. Please give your servants and your son David whatever you can find for them.’“

1Sa. 25:8 When David’s men arrived, they gave Nabal this message in David’s name. Then they waited.
Nabal answered David’s servants, “Who is this David? Who is this son of Jesse? Many servants are breaking away from their masters these days.”

Why should I take my bread and water, and the meat I have slaughtered for my shearers, and give it to men coming from who knows where?”

David’s men turned round and went back. When they arrived, they reported every word.

David said to his men, “Put on your swords!” So they put on their swords, and David put on his. About four hundred men went up with David, while two hundred stayed with the supplies.

One of the servants told Nabal’s wife Abigail: “David sent messengers from the desert to give our master his greetings, but he hurled insults at them.

Yet these men were very good to us. They did not ill-treat us, and the whole time we were out in the fields near them nothing was missing.

Night and day they were a wall around us all the time we were herding our sheep near them.

Now think it over and see what you can do, because disaster is hanging over our master and his whole household. He is such a wicked man that no-one can talk to him.”

Abigail lost no time. She took two hundred loaves of bread, two skins of wine, five dressed sheep, five seahs [That is, probably about a bushel (about 37 litres)] of roasted grain, a hundred cakes of raisins and two hundred cakes of pressed figs, and loaded them on donkeys.

Then she told her servants, “Go on ahead; I’ll follow you.” But she did not tell her husband Nabal.

As she came riding her donkey into a mountain ravine, there were David and his men descending towards her, and she met them.
1Sa. 25:21 David had just said, “It’s been useless — all my watching over this fellow’s property in the desert so that nothing of his was missing. He has paid me back evil for good.

1Sa. 25:22 May God deal with David, [Some Septuagint manuscripts; Hebrew with David’s enemies] be it ever so severely, if by morning I leave alive one male of all who belong to him!”

1Sa. 25:23 When Abigail saw David, she quickly got off her donkey and bowed down before David with her face to the ground.

1Sa. 25:24 She fell at his feet and said: “My lord, let the blame be on me alone. Please let your servant speak to you; hear what your servant has to say.

1Sa. 25:25 May my lord pay no attention to that wicked man Nabal. He is just like his name — his name is Fool, and folly goes with him. But as for me, your servant, I did not see the men my master sent.

1Sa. 25:26 “Now since the LORD has kept you, my master, from bloodshed and from avenging yourself with your own hands, as surely as the LORD lives and as you live, may your enemies and all who intend to harm my master be like Nabal.

1Sa. 25:27 And let this gift, which your servant has brought to my master, be given to the men who follow you.

1Sa. 25:28 Please forgive your servant’s offence, for the LORD will certainly make a lasting dynasty for my master, because he fights the LORD’s battles. Let no wrongdoing be found in you as long as you live.

1Sa. 25:29 Even though someone is pursuing you to take your life, the life of my master will be bound securely in the bundle of the living by the LORD your God. But the lives of your enemies he will hurl away as from the pocket of a sling.

1Sa. 25:30 When the LORD has done for my master every good thing he promised concerning him and has appointed him leader over Israel,
1Sa. 25:31 my master will not have on his conscience the staggering burden of needless bloodshed or of having avenged himself. And when the LORD has brought my master success, remember your servant.”

1Sa. 25:32 David said to Abigail, “Praise be to the LORD, the God of Israel, who has sent you today to meet me.

1Sa. 25:33 May you be blessed for your good judgment and for keeping me from bloodshed this day and from avenging myself with my own hands.

1Sa. 25:34 Otherwise, as surely as the LORD, the God of Israel, lives, who has kept me from harming you, if you had not come quickly to meet me, not one male belonging to Nabal would have been left alive by daybreak.”

1Sa. 25:35 Then David accepted from her hand what she had brought to him and said, “Go home in peace. I have heard your words and granted your request.”

1Sa. 25:36 When Abigail went to Nabal, he was in the house holding a banquet like that of a king. He was in high spirits and very drunk. So she told him nothing until daybreak.

1Sa. 25:37 Then in the morning, when Nabal was sober, his wife told him all these things, and his heart failed him and he became like a stone.

1Sa. 25:38 About ten days later, the LORD struck Nabal and he died.

1Sa. 25:39 When David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, “Praise be to the LORD, who has upheld my cause against Nabal for treating me with contempt. He has kept his servant from doing wrong and has brought Nabal’s wrongdoing down on his own head.” Then David sent word to Abigail, asking her to become his wife.

1Sa. 25:40 His servants went to Carmel and said to Abigail, “David has sent us to you to take you to become his wife.”
She bowed down with her face to the ground and said, “Here is your maidservant, ready to serve you and wash the feet of my master’s servants.”

Abigail quickly got on a donkey and, attended by her five maids, went with David’s messengers and became his wife.

David had also married Ahinoam of Jezreel, and they both were his wives.

But Saul had given his daughter Michal, David’s wife, to Paltiel [Hebrew Palti, a variant of Paltiel] son of Laish, who was from Gallim.

CHAPTER 26

The Ziphites went to Saul at Gibeah and said, “Is not David hiding on the hill of Hakilah, which faces Jeshimon?”

So Saul went down to the Desert of Ziph, with his three thousand chosen men of Israel, to search there for David.

Saul made his camp beside the road on the hill of Hakilah facing Jeshimon, but David stayed in the desert. When he saw that Saul had followed him there, he sent out scouts and learned that Saul had definitely arrived. [Or had come to Nacon]

Then David set out and went to the place where Saul had camped. He saw where Saul and Abner son of Ner, the commander of the army, had lain down. Saul was lying inside the camp, with the army encamped around him.

David then asked Ahimelech the Hittite and Abishai son of Zeruiah, Joab’s brother, “Who will go down into the camp with me to Saul?” “I’ll go with you,” said Abishai.

So David and Abishai went to the army by night, and there was Saul, lying asleep inside the camp with his spear stuck in the ground near his head. Abner and the soldiers were lying round him.
Abishai said to David, “Today God has given your enemy into your hands. Now let me pin him to the ground with one thrust of my spear; I won’t strike him twice.”

But David said to Abishai, “Don’t destroy him! Who can lay a hand on the LORD’s anointed and be guiltless?

As surely as the LORD lives,” he said, “the LORD himself will strike him; either his time will come and he will die, or he will go into battle and perish.

But the LORD forbid that I should lay a hand on the LORD’s anointed. Now get the spear and water jug that are near his head, and let’s go.”

So David took the spear and water jug near Saul’s head, and they left. No-one saw or knew about it, nor did anyone wake up. They were all sleeping, because the LORD had put them into a deep sleep.

Then David crossed over to the other side and stood on top of the hill some distance away; there was a wide space between them.

He called out to the army and to Abner son of Ner, “Aren’t you going to answer me, Abner?” Abner replied, “Who are you who calls to the king?”

David said, “You’re a man, aren’t you? And who is like you in Israel? Why didn’t you guard your lord the king? Someone came to destroy your lord the king.

What you have done is not good. As surely as the LORD lives, you and your men deserve to die, because you did not guard your master, the LORD’s anointed. Look around you. Where are the king’s spear and water jug that were near his head?”

Saul recognised David’s voice and said, “Is that your voice, David my son?” David replied, “Yes it is, my lord the king.”

And he added, “Why is my lord pursuing his servant? What have I done, and what wrong am I guilty of?
Now let my lord the king listen to his servant’s words. If the LORD has incited you against me, then may he accept an offering. If, however, men have done it, may they be cursed before the LORD! They have now driven me from my share in the LORD’s inheritance and have said, ‘Go, serve other gods.’

Now do not let my blood fall to the ground far from the presence of the LORD. The king of Israel has come out to look for a flea — as one hunts a partridge in the mountains.”

Then Saul said, “I have sinned. Come back, David my son. Because you considered my life precious today, I will not try to harm you again. Surely I have acted like a fool and have erred greatly.”

“Here is the king’s spear,” David answered. “Let one of your young men come over and get it.

The LORD rewards every man for his righteousness and faithfulness. The LORD gave you into my hands today, but I would not lay a hand on the LORD’s anointed.

As surely as I valued your life today, so may the LORD value my life and deliver me from all trouble.”

Then Saul said to David, “May you be blessed, my son David; you will do great things and surely triumph.” So David went on his way, and Saul returned home.

CHAPTER 27

But David thought to himself, “One of these days I shall be destroyed by the hand of Saul. The best thing I can do is to escape to the land of the Philistines. Then Saul will give up searching for me anywhere in Israel, and I will slip out of his hand.”

So David and the six hundred men with him left and went over to Achish son of Maoch king of Gath.
1Sa. 27:3 David and his men settled in Gath with Achish. Each man had his family with him, and David had his two wives: Ahinoam of Jezreel and Abigail of Carmel, the widow of Nabal.

1Sa. 27:4 When Saul was told that David had fled to Gath, he no longer searched for him.

1Sa. 27:5 Then David said to Achish, “If I have found favour in your eyes, let a place be assigned to me in one of the country towns, that I may live there. Why should your servant live in the royal city with you?”

1Sa. 27:6 So on that day Achish gave him Ziklag, and it has belonged to the kings of Judah ever since.

1Sa. 27:7 David lived in Philistine territory for a year and four months.

1Sa. 27:8 Now David and his men went up and raided the Geshurites, the Girzites and the Amalekites. (From ancient times these peoples had lived in the land extending to Shur and Egypt.)

1Sa. 27:9 Whenever David attacked an area, he did not leave a man or woman alive, but took sheep and cattle, donkeys and camels, and clothes. Then he returned to Achish.

1Sa. 27:10 When Achish asked, “Where did you go raiding today?” David would say, “Against the Negev of Judah” or “Against the Negev of Jerahmeel” or “Against the Negev of the Kenites.”

1Sa. 27:11 He did not leave a man or woman alive to be brought to Gath, for he thought, “They might inform on us and say, ‘This is what David did.’” And such was his practice as long as he lived in Philistine territory.

1Sa. 27:12 Achish trusted David and said to himself, “He has become so odious to his people, the Israelites, that he will be my servant for ever.”
In those days the Philistines gathered their forces to fight against Israel. Achish said to David, “You must understand that you and your men will accompany me in the army.”

David said, “Then you will see for yourself what your servant can do.” Achish replied, “Very well, I will make you my bodyguard for life.”

Now Samuel was dead, and all Israel had mourned for him and buried him in his own town of Ramah. Saul had expelled the mediums and spiritists from the land.

The Philistines assembled and came and set up camp at Shunem, while Saul gathered all the Israelites and set up camp at Gilboa.

When Saul saw the Philistine army, he was afraid; terror filled his heart.

He enquired of the LORD, but the LORD did not answer him by dreams or Urim or prophets.

Saul then said to his attendants, “Find me a woman who is a medium, so that I may go and enquire of her.” “There is one in Endor,” they said.

So Saul disguised himself, putting on other clothes, and at night he and two men went to the woman. “Consult a spirit for me,” he said, “and bring up for me the one I name.”

But the woman said to him, “Surely you know what Saul has done. He has cut off the mediums and spiritists from the land. Why have you set a trap for my life to bring about my death?”

Saul swore to her by the LORD, “As surely as the LORD lives, you will not be punished for this.”

Then the woman asked, “Whom shall I bring up for you?” “Bring up Samuel,” he said.
When the woman saw Samuel, she cried out at the top of her voice and said to Saul, “Why have you deceived me? You are Saul!”

The king said to her, “Don’t be afraid. What do you see?” The woman said, “I see a spirit [Or see spirits; or see gods] coming up out of the ground.”

“What does he look like?” he asked. “An old man wearing a robe is coming up,” she said. Then Saul knew it was Samuel, and he bowed down and prostrated himself with his face to the ground.

Samuel said to Saul, “Why have you disturbed me by bringing me up?” “I am in great distress,” Saul said. “The Philistines are fighting against me, and God has turned away from me. He no longer answers me, either by prophets or by dreams. So I have called on you to tell me what to do.”

Samuel said, “Why do you consult me, now that the LORD has turned away from you and become your enemy?

The LORD has done what he predicted through me. The LORD has torn the kingdom out of your hands and given it to one of your neighbours — to David.

Because you did not obey the LORD or carry out his fierce wrath against the Amalekites, the LORD has done this to you today.

The LORD will hand over both Israel and you to the Philistines, and tomorrow you and your sons will be with me. The LORD will also hand over the army of Israel to the Philistines.”

Immediately Saul fell full length on the ground, filled with fear because of Samuel’s words. His strength was gone, for he had eaten nothing all that day and night.

When the woman came to Saul and saw that he was greatly shaken, she said, “Look, your maidservant has obeyed you. I took my life in my hands and did what you told me to do.
1Sa. 28:22 Now please listen to your servant and let me give you some food so that you may eat and have the strength to go on your way.”

1Sa. 28:23 He refused and said, “I will not eat.” But his men joined the woman in urging him, and he listened to them. He got up from the ground and sat on the couch.

1Sa. 28:24 The woman had a fattened calf at the house, which she slaughtered at once. She took some flour, kneaded it and baked bread without yeast.

1Sa. 28:25 Then she set it before Saul and his men, and they ate. That same night they got up and left.

CHAPTER 29

1Sa. 29:1 The Philistines gathered all their forces at Aphek, and Israel camped by the spring in Jezreel.

1Sa. 29:2 As the Philistine rulers marched with their units of hundreds and thousands, David and his men were marching at the rear with Achish.

1Sa. 29:3 The commanders of the Philistines asked, “What about these Hebrews?” Achish replied, “Is this not David, who was an officer of Saul king of Israel? He has already been with me for over a year, and from the day he left Saul until now, I have found no fault in him.”

1Sa. 29:4 But the Philistine commanders were angry with him and said, “Send the man back, that he may return to the place you assigned him. He must not go with us into battle, or he will turn against us during the fighting. How better could he regain his master’s favour than by taking the heads of our own men?”

1Sa. 29:5 Isn’t this the David they sang about in their dances: “Saul has slain his thousands, and David his tens of thousands’?”
1Sa. 29:6 So Achish called David and said to him, “As surely as the LORD lives, you have been reliable, and I would be pleased to have you serve with me in the army. From the day you came to me until now, I have found no fault in you, but the rulers don’t approve of you.

1Sa. 29:7 Turn back and go in peace; do nothing to displease the Philistine rulers.”

1Sa. 29:8 “But what have I done?” asked David. “What have you found against your servant from the day I came to you until now? Why can’t I go and fight against the enemies of my lord the king?”

1Sa. 29:9 Achish answered, “I know that you have been as pleasing in my eyes as an angel of God; nevertheless, the Philistine commanders have said, ‘He must not go up with us into battle.’

1Sa. 29:10 Now get up early, along with your master’s servants who have come with you, and leave in the morning as soon as it is light.”

1Sa. 29:11 So David and his men got up early in the morning to go back to the land of the Philistines, and the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

CHAPTER 30

1Sa. 30:1 David and his men reached Ziklag on the third day. Now the Amalekites had raided the Negev and Ziklag. They had attacked Ziklag and burned it, 1Sa. 30:2 and had taken captive the women and all who were in it, both young and old. They killed none of them, but carried them off as they went on their way.

1Sa. 30:3 When David and his men came to Ziklag, they found it destroyed by fire and their wives and sons and daughters taken captive.
So David and his men wept aloud until they had no strength left to weep.

David’s two wives had been captured — Ahinoam of Jezreel and Abigail, the widow of Nabal of Carmel.

David was greatly distressed because the men were talking of stoning him; each one was bitter in spirit because of his sons and daughters. But David found strength in the LORD his God.

Then David said to Abiathar the priest, the son of Ahimelech, “Bring me the ephod.” Abiathar brought it to him, and David enquired of the LORD, “Shall I pursue this raiding party? Will I overtake them?” “Pursue them,” he answered. “You will certainly overtake them and succeed in the rescue.”

David and the six hundred men with him came to the Besor Ravine, where some stayed behind, for two hundred men were too exhausted to cross the ravine. But David and four hundred men continued the pursuit.

They found an Egyptian in a field and brought him to David. They gave him water to drink and food to eat — part of a cake of pressed figs and two cakes of raisins. He ate and was revived, for he had not eaten any food or drunk any water for three days and three nights.

David asked him, “To whom do you belong, and where do you come from?” He said, “I am an Egyptian, the slave of an Amalekite. My master abandoned me when I became ill three days ago.

We raided the Negev of the Kerethites and the territory belonging to Judah and the Negev of Caleb. And we burned Ziklag.”

David asked him, “Can you lead me down to this raiding party?” He answered, “Swear to me before God that you will not kill me or hand me over to my master, and I will take you down to them.”
He led David down, and there they were, scattered over the countryside, eating, drinking and revelling because of the great amount of plunder they had taken from the land of the Philistines and from Judah.

David fought them from dusk until the evening of the next day, and none of them got away, except four hundred young men who rode off on camels and fled.

David recovered everything the Amalekites had taken, including his two wives.

Nothing was missing: young or old, boy or girl, plunder or anything else they had taken. David brought everything back.

He took all the flocks and herds, and his men drove them ahead of the other livestock, saying, “This is David’s plunder.”

Then David came to the two hundred men who had been too exhausted to follow him and who were left behind at the Besor Ravine. They came out to meet David and the people with him. As David and his men approached, he greeted them.

But all the evil men and troublemakers among David’s followers said, “Because they did not go out with us, we will not share with them the plunder we recovered. However, each man may take his wife and children and go.”

David replied, “No, my brothers, you must not do that with what the LORD has given us. He has protected us and handed over to us the forces that came against us.

Who will listen to what you say? The share of the man who stayed with the supplies is to be the same as that of him who went down to the battle. All shall share alike.”

David made this a statute and ordinance for Israel from that day to this.
When David arrived in Ziklag, he sent some of the plunder to the elders of Judah, who were his friends, saying, “Here is a present for you from the plunder of the LORD's enemies.”

He sent it to those who were in Bethel, Ramoth Negev and Jattir; to those in Aroer, Siphmoth, Eshtemoa and Racal; to those in the towns of the Jerahmeelites and the Kenites; to those in Hormah, Bor Ashan, Athach and Hebron; and to those in all the other places where David and his men had roamed.

CHAPTER 31

Now the Philistines fought against Israel; the Israelites fled before them, and many fell slain on Mount Gilboa.

The Philistines pressed hard after Saul and his sons, and they killed his sons Jonathan, Abinadab and Malki-Shua.

The fighting grew fierce around Saul, and when the archers overtook him, they wounded him critically.

Saul said to his armour-bearer, “Draw your sword and run me through, or these uncircumcised fellows will come and run me through and abuse me.” But the armour-bearer was terrified and would not do it; so Saul took his own sword and fell on it.

When the armour-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he too fell on his sword and died with him.

So Saul and his three sons and his armour-bearer and all his men died together that same day.

When the Israelites along the valley and those across the Jordan saw that the Israelite army had fled and that Saul and his sons had died, they abandoned their towns and fled. And the Philistines came and occupied them.

1Sa. 31:8 The next day, when the Philistines came to strip the dead, they found Saul and his three sons fallen on Mount Gilboa.

1Sa. 31:9 They cut off his head and stripped off his armour, and they sent messengers throughout the land of the Philistines to proclaim the news in the temple of their idols and among their people.

1Sa. 31:10 They put his armour in the temple of the Ashtoreths and fastened his body to the wall of Beth Shan.

1Sa. 31:11 When the people of Jabesh Gilead heard of what the Philistines had done to Saul, 1Sa. 31:12 all their valiant men journeyed through the night to Beth Shan. They took down the bodies of Saul and his sons from the wall of Beth Shan and went to Jabesh, where they burned them.

1Sa. 31:13 Then they took their bones and buried them under a tamarisk tree at Jabesh, and they fasted seven days.
After the death of Saul, David returned from defeating the Amalekites and stayed in Ziklag two days.

On the third day a man arrived from Saul’s camp, with his clothes torn and with dust on his head. When he came to David, he fell to the ground to pay him honour.

“Where have you come from?” David asked him. He answered, “I have escaped from the Israelite camp.”

“What happened?” David asked. “Tell me.” He said, “The men fled from the battle. Many of them fell and died. And Saul and his son Jonathan are dead.”

Then David said to the young man who brought him the report, “How do you know that Saul and his son Jonathan are dead?”

“I happened to be on Mount Gilboa,” the young man said, “and there was Saul, leaning on his spear, with the chariots and riders almost upon him.

When he turned round and saw me, he called out to me, and I said, ‘What can I do?’

“He asked me, ‘Who are you?’ “‘An Amalekite,’ I answered.

“Then he said to me, ‘Stand over me and kill me! I am in the throes of death, but I’m still alive.’

“So I stood over him and killed him, because I knew that after he had fallen he could not survive. And I took the crown that was on his head and the band on his arm and have brought them here to my lord.”
Then David and all the men with him took hold of their clothes and tore them.

They mourned and wept and fasted till evening for Saul and his son Jonathan, and for the army of the LORD and the house of Israel, because they had fallen by the sword.

David said to the young man who brought him the report, “Where are you from?” “I am the son of an alien, an Amalekite,” he answered.

David asked him, “Why were you not afraid to lift your hand to destroy the LORD’s anointed?”

Then David called one of his men and said, “Go, strike him down!” So he struck him down, and he died.

For David had said to him, “Your blood be on your own head. Your own mouth testified against you when you said, ‘I killed the LORD’s anointed.’”

David took up this lament concerning Saul and his son Jonathan, and ordered that the men of Judah be taught this lament of the bow (it is written in the Book of Jashar):

“Your glory, O Israel, lies slain on your heights. How the mighty have fallen!

“Tell it not in Gath, proclaim it not in the streets of Ashkelon, lest the daughters of the Philistines be glad, lest the daughters of the uncircumcised rejoice.

“O mountains of Gilboa, may you have neither dew nor rain, nor fields that yield offerings of grain. For there the shield of the mighty was defiled, the shield of Saul — no longer rubbed with oil.

From the blood of the slain, from the flesh of the mighty, the bow of Jonathan did not turn back, the sword of Saul did not return unsatisfied.
2Sa. 1:23 “Saul and Jonathan — in life they were loved and gracious, and in death they were not parted. They were swifter than eagles, they were stronger than lions.

2Sa. 1:24 “O daughters of Israel, weep for Saul, who clothed you in scarlet and finery, who adorned your garments with ornaments of gold.

2Sa. 1:25 “How the mighty have fallen in battle! Jonathan lies slain on your heights.

2Sa. 1:26 I grieve for you, Jonathan my brother; you were very dear to me. Your love for me was wonderful, more wonderful than that of women.

2Sa. 1:27 “How the mighty have fallen! The weapons of war have perished!”

CHAPTER 2

2Sa. 2:1 In the course of time, David enquired of the LORD. “Shall I go up to one of the towns of Judah?” he asked. The LORD said, “Go up.” David asked, “Where shall I go?” “To Hebron,” the LORD answered.

2Sa. 2:2 So David went up there with his two wives, Ahinoam of Jezreel and Abigail, the widow of Nabal of Carmel.

2Sa. 2:3 David also took the men who were with him, each with his family, and they settled in Hebron and its towns.

2Sa. 2:4 Then the men of Judah came to Hebron and there they anointed David king over the house of Judah. When David was told that it was the men of Jabesh Gilead who had buried Saul, 2Sa. 2:5 he sent messengers to the men of Jabesh Gilead to say to them, “The LORD bless you for showing this kindness to Saul your master by burying him.

May the LORD now show you kindness and faithfulness, and I too will show you the same favour because you have done this.

Now then, be strong and brave, for Saul your master is dead, and the house of Judah has anointed me king over them.”

Meanwhile, Abner son of Ner, the commander of Saul’s army, had taken Ish-Bosheth son of Saul and brought him over to Mahanaim.

He made him king over Gilead, Ashuri [Or Asher] and Jezreel, and also over Ephraim, Benjamin and all Israel.

Ish-Bosheth son of Saul was forty years old when he became king over Israel, and he reigned two years. The house of Judah, however, followed David.

The length of time David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months.

Abner son of Ner, together with the men of Ish-Bosheth son of Saul, left Mahanaim and went to Gibeon.

Joab son of Zeruiah and David’s men went out and met them at the pool of Gibeon. One group sat down on one side of the pool and one group on the other side.

Then Abner said to Joab, “Let’s have some of the young men get up and fight hand to hand in front of us.” “All right, let them do it,” Joab said.

So they stood up and were counted off — twelve men for Benjamin and Ish-Bosheth son of Saul, and twelve for David.

Then each man grabbed his opponent by the head and thrust his dagger into his opponent’s side, and they fell down together. So that place in Gibeon was called Helkath Hazzurim. [Helkath Hazzurim means field of daggers or field of hostilities.]

The battle that day was very fierce, and Abner and the men of Israel were defeated by David’s men.
2Sa. 2:18 The three sons of Zeruiah were there: Joab, Abishai and Asahel. Now Asahel was as fleet-footed as a wild gazelle.

2Sa. 2:19 He chased Abner, turning neither to the right nor to the left as he pursued him.

2Sa. 2:20 Abner looked behind him and asked, “Is that you, Asahel?” “It is,” he answered.

2Sa. 2:21 Then Abner said to him, “Turn aside to the right or to the left; take on one of the young men and strip him of his weapons.” But Asahel would not stop chasing him.

2Sa. 2:22 Again Abner warned Asahel, “Stop chasing me! Why should I strike you down? How could I look your brother Joab in the face?”

2Sa. 2:23 But Asahel refused to give up the pursuit; so Abner thrust the butt of his spear into Asahel’s stomach, and the spear came out through his back. He fell there and died on the spot. And every man stopped when he came to the place where Asahel had fallen and died.

2Sa. 2:24 But Joab and Abishai pursued Abner, and as the sun was setting, they came to the hill of Ammah, near Giah on the way to the wasteland of Gibeon.

2Sa. 2:25 Then the men of Benjamin rallied behind Abner. They formed themselves into a group and took their stand on top of a hill.

2Sa. 2:26 Abner called out to Joab, “Must the sword devour for ever? Don’t you realise that this will end in bitterness? How long before you order your men to stop pursuing their brothers?”

2Sa. 2:27 Joab answered, “As surely as God lives, if you had not spoken, the men would have continued the pursuit of their brothers until morning.” [Or spoken this morning, the men would not have taken up the pursuit of their brothers; or spoken, the men would have given up the pursuit of their brothers by morning]

2Sa. 2:28 So Joab blew the trumpet, and all the men came to a halt; they no longer pursued Israel, nor did they fight any more.
All that night Abner and his men marched through the Arabah. They crossed the Jordan, continued through the whole Bithron [Or morning; or ravine; the meaning of the Hebrew for this word is uncertain.] and came to Mahanaim.

Then Joab returned from pursuing Abner and assembled all his men. Besides Asahel, nineteen of David’s men were found missing.

But David’s men had killed 360 Benjamites who were with Abner.

They took Asahel and buried him in his father’s tomb at Bethlehem. Then Joab and his men marched all night and arrived at Hebron by daybreak.

CHAPTER 3

The war between the house of Saul and the house of David lasted a long time. David grew stronger and stronger, while the house of Saul grew weaker and weaker.

Sons were born to David in Hebron: His firstborn was Amnon the son of Ahinoam of Jezreel; his second, Kileab the son of Abigail the widow of Nabal of Carmel; the third, Absalom the son of Maacah daughter of Talmai king of Geshur;

the fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith; the fifth, Shephatiah the son of Abital; and the sixth, Ithream the son of David’s wife Eglah. These were born to David in Hebron.

During the war between the house of Saul and the house of David, Abner had been strengthening his own position in the house of Saul.

Now Saul had had a concubine named Rizpah daughter of Aiah. And Ish-Bosheth said to Abner, “Why did you sleep with my father’s concubine?”
Abner was very angry because of what Ish-Bosheth said and he answered, “Am I a dog’s head — on Judah’s side? This very day I am loyal to the house of your father Saul and to his family and friends. I haven’t handed you over to David. Yet now you accuse me of an offence involving this woman!

May God deal with Abner, be it ever so severely, if I do not do for David what the LORD promised him on oath and transfer the kingdom from the house of Saul and establish David’s throne over Israel and Judah from Dan to Beersheba.”

Ish-Bosheth did not dare to say another word to Abner, because he was afraid of him.

Then Abner sent messengers on his behalf to say to David, “Whose land is it? Make an agreement with me, and I will help you bring all Israel over to you.”

“Good,” said David. “I will make an agreement with you. But I demand one thing of you: Do not come into my presence unless you bring Michal daughter of Saul when you come to see me.”

Then David sent messengers to Ish-Bosheth son of Saul, demanding, “Give me my wife Michal, whom I betrothed to myself for the price of a hundred Philistine foreskins.”

So Ish-Bosheth gave orders and had her taken away from her husband Paltiel son of Laish.

Her husband, however, went with her, weeping behind her all the way to Bahurim. Then Abner said to him, “Go back home!” So he went back.

Abner conferred with the elders of Israel and said, “For some time you have wanted to make David your king.

Now do it! For the LORD promised David, ‘By my servant David I will rescue my people Israel from the hand of the Philistines and from the hand of all their enemies.’“
Abner also spoke to the Benjamites in person. Then he went to Hebron to tell David everything that Israel and the whole house of Benjamin wanted to do.

When Abner, who had twenty men with him, came to David at Hebron, David prepared a feast for him and his men.

Then Abner said to David, “Let me go at once and assemble all Israel for my lord the king, so that they may make a compact with you, and that you may rule over all that your heart desires.” So David sent Abner away, and he went in peace.

Just then David’s men and Joab returned from a raid and brought with them a great deal of plunder. But Abner was no longer with David in Hebron, because David had sent him away, and he had gone in peace.

When Joab and all the soldiers with him arrived, he was told that Abner son of Ner had come to the king and that the king had sent him away and that he had gone in peace.

So Joab went to the king and said, “What have you done? Look, Abner came to you. Why did you let him go? Now he is gone!

You know Abner son of Ner; he came to deceive you and observe your movements and find out everything you are doing.”

Joab then left David and sent messengers after Abner, and they brought him back from the well of Sirah. But David did not know it.

Now when Abner returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside into the gateway, as though to speak with him privately. And there, to avenge the blood of his brother Asahel, Joab stabbed him in the stomach, and he died.

Later, when David heard about this, he said, “I and my kingdom are for ever innocent before the LORD concerning the blood of Abner son of Ner.
May his blood fall upon the head of Joab and upon all his father’s house! May Joab’s house never be without someone who has a running sore or leprosy [The Hebrew word was used for various diseases affecting the skin — not necessarily leprosy.] or who leans on a crutch or who falls by the sword or who lacks food.”

(Joab and his brother Abishai murdered Abner because he had killed their brother Asahel in the battle of Gibeon.)

Then David said to Joab and all the people with him, “Tear your clothes and put on sackcloth and walk in mourning in front of Abner.” King David himself walked behind the bier.

They buried Abner in Hebron, and the king wept aloud at Abner’s tomb. All the people wept also.

The king sang this lament for Abner: “Should Abner have died as the lawless die?”

Your hands were not bound, your feet were not fettered. You fell as one falls before wicked men.” And all the people wept over him again.

Then they all came and urged David to eat something while it was still day; but David took an oath, saying, “May God deal with me, be it ever so severely, if I taste bread or anything else before the sun sets!”

All the people took note and were pleased; indeed, everything the king did pleased them.

So on that day all the people and all Israel knew that the king had no part in the murder of Abner son of Ner.

Then the king said to his men, “Do you not realise that a prince and a great man has fallen in Israel this day?

And today, though I am the anointed king, I am weak, and these sons of Zeruiah are too strong for me. May the LORD repay the evildoer according to his evil deeds!”
CHAPTER 4

2Sa. 4:1 When Ish-Bosheth son of Saul heard that Abner had died in Hebron, he lost courage, and all Israel became alarmed.

2Sa. 4:2 Now Saul’s son had two men who were leaders of raiding bands. One was named Baanah and the other Recab; they were sons of Rimmon the Beerothite from the tribe of Benjamin — Beeroth is considered part of Benjamin, because the people of Beeroth fled to Gittaim and have lived there as aliens to this day.

2Sa. 4:3 (Jonathan son of Saul had a son who was lame in both feet. He was five years old when the news about Saul and Jonathan came from Jezreel. His nurse picked him up and fled, but as she hurried to leave, he fell and became crippled. His name was Mephibosheth.)

2Sa. 4:4 Now Recab and Baanah, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, set out for the house of Ish-Bosheth, and they arrived there in the heat of the day while he was taking his noonday rest.

2Sa. 4:5 They went into the inner part of the house as if to get some wheat, and they stabbed him in the stomach. Then Recab and his brother Baanah slipped away.

2Sa. 4:6 They had gone into the house while he was lying on the bed in his bedroom. After they stabbed and killed him, they cut off his head. Taking it with them, they travelled all night by way of the Arabah.

2Sa. 4:7 They brought the head of Ish-Bosheth to David at Hebron and said to the king, “Here is the head of Ish-Bosheth son of Saul, your enemy, who tried to take your life. This day the LORD has avenged my lord the king against Saul and his offspring.”

2Sa. 4:8 David answered Recab and his brother Baanah, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, “As surely as the LORD lives, who has delivered me out of all trouble, when a man told me, `Saul is dead,’ and thought he was bringing good news, I seized him and put him to death in Ziklag. That was the reward I gave him for his news!

How much more — when wicked men have killed an innocent man in his own house and on his own bed — should I not now demand his blood from your hand and rid the earth of you!”

So David gave an order to his men, and they killed them. They cut off their hands and feet and hung the bodies by the pool in Hebron. But they took the head of Ish-Bosheth and buried it in Abner’s tomb at Hebron.

CHAPTER 5

All the tribes of Israel came to David at Hebron and said, “We are your own flesh and blood.

In the past, while Saul was king over us, you were the one who led Israel on their military campaigns. And the LORD said to you, ‘You shall shepherd my people Israel, and you shall become their ruler.’“

When all the elders of Israel had come to King David at Hebron, the king made a compact with them at Hebron before the LORD, and they anointed David king over Israel.

David was thirty years old when he became king, and he reigned for forty years.

In Hebron he reigned over Judah for seven years and six months, and in Jerusalem he reigned over all Israel and Judah for thirty-three years.

The king and his men marched to Jerusalem to attack the Jebusites, who lived there. The Jebusites said to David, “You will not get in here; even the blind and the lame can ward you off.” They thought, “David cannot get in here.”
Nevertheless, David captured the fortress of Zion, the City of David.

On that day, David said, “Anyone who conquers the Jebusites will have to use the water shaft [Or use scaling hooks] to reach those ‘lame and blind’ who are David’s enemies.” [Or are hated by David] That is why they say, “The ‘blind and lame’ will not enter the palace.”

David then took up residence in the fortress and called it the City of David. He built up the area around it, from the supporting terraces [Or the Millo] inward.

And he became more and more powerful, because the LORD God Almighty was with him.

Now Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, along with cedar logs and carpenters and stonemasons, and they built a palace for David.

And David knew that the LORD had established him as king over Israel and had exalted his kingdom for the sake of his people Israel.

After he left Hebron, David took more concubines and wives in Jerusalem, and more sons and daughters were born to him.

These are the names of the children born to him there: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon,

Ibhar, Elishua, Nepheg, Japhia,

Elishama, Eliada and Eliphelet.

When the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over Israel, they went up in full force to search for him, but David heard about it and went down to the stronghold.

Now the Philistines had come and spread out in the Valley of Rephaim;

so David enquired of the LORD, “Shall I go and attack the Philistines? Will you hand them over to me?” The LORD answered him, “Go, for I will surely hand the Philistines over to you.”

2Sa. 5:20 So David went to Baal Perazim, and there he defeated them. He said, “As waters break out, the LORD has broken out against my enemies before me.” So that place was called Baal Perazim. [Baal Perazim means the lord who breaks out.]

2Sa. 5:21 The Philistines abandoned their idols there, and David and his men carried them off.

2Sa. 5:22 Once more the Philistines came up and spread out in the Valley of Rephaim;

2Sa. 5:23 so David enquired of the LORD, and he answered, “Do not go straight up, but circle round behind them and attack them in front of the balsam trees.

2Sa. 5:24 As soon as you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the balsam trees, move quickly, because that will mean the LORD has gone out in front of you to strike the Philistine army.”

2Sa. 5:25 So David did as the LORD commanded him, and he struck down the Philistines all the way from Gibeon [Septuagint (see also 1 Chron. 14:16); Hebrew Geba] to Gezer.

CHAPTER 6

2Sa. 6:1 David again brought together out of Israel chosen men, thirty thousand in all.

2Sa. 6:2 He and all his men set out from Baalah of Judah [That is, Kiriath Jearim; Hebrew Baale Judah, a variant of Baalah of Judah] to bring up from there the ark of God, which is called by the Name, [Hebrew; Septuagint and Vulgate do not have the Name.] the name of the LORD Almighty, who is enthroned between the cherubim that are on the ark.
They set the ark of God on a new cart and brought it from the house of Abinadab, which was on the hill. Uzzah and Ahio, sons of Abinadab, were guiding the new cart.

David and the whole house of Israel were celebrating with all their might before the LORD, with songs and with harps, lyres, tambourines, sistrums and cymbals.

When they came to the threshing-floor of Nacon, Uzzah reached out and took hold of the ark of God, because the oxen stumbled.

The LORD’s anger burned against Uzzah because of his irreverent act; therefore God struck him down and he died there beside the ark of God.

Then David was angry because the LORD’s wrath had broken out against Uzzah, and to this day that place is called Perez Uzzah. [Perez Uzzah means the outbreak against Uzzah.]

David was afraid of the LORD that day and said, “How can the ark of the LORD ever come to me?”

He was not willing to take the ark of the LORD to be with him in the City of David. Instead, he took it aside to the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite.

The ark of the LORD remained in the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite for three months, and the LORD blessed him and his entire household.

Now King David was told, “The LORD has blessed the household of Obed-Edom and everything he has, because of the ark of God.” So David went down and brought up the ark. of God from the house of Obed-Edom to the City of David with rejoicing.

2Sa. 6:13 When those who were carrying the ark of the LORD had taken six steps, he sacrificed a bull and a fattened calf.

2Sa. 6:14 David, wearing a linen ephod, danced before the LORD with all his might,

2Sa. 6:15 while he and the entire house of Israel brought up the ark of the LORD with shouts and the sound of trumpets.

2Sa. 6:16 As the ark of the LORD was entering the City of David, Michal daughter of Saul watched from a window. And when she saw King David leaping and dancing before the LORD, she despised him in her heart.

2Sa. 6:17 They brought the ark of the LORD and set it in its place inside the tent that David had pitched for it, and David sacrificed burnt offerings and fellowship offerings [Traditionally peace offerings; also in verse 18] before the LORD.

2Sa. 6:18 After he had finished sacrificing the burnt offerings and fellowship offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD Almighty.

2Sa. 6:19 Then he gave a loaf of bread, a cake of dates and a cake of raisins to each person in the whole crowd of Israelites, both men and women. And all the people went to their homes.

2Sa. 6:20 When David returned home to bless his household, Michal daughter of Saul came out to meet him and said, “How the king of Israel has distinguished himself today, disrobing in the sight of the slave girls of his servants as any vulgar fellow would.”

2Sa. 6:21 David said to Michal, “It was before the LORD, who chose me rather than your father or anyone from his house when he appointed me ruler over the LORD’s people Israel — I will celebrate before the LORD.
2Sa. 6:22 I will become even more undignified than this, and I will be humiliated in my own eyes. But by these slave girls you spoke of, I will be held in honour.”

2Sa. 6:23 And Michal daughter of Saul had no children to the day of her death.

CHAPTER 7

2Sa. 7:1 After the king was settled in his palace and the LORD had given him rest from all his enemies around him,

2Sa. 7:2 he said to Nathan the prophet, “Here I am, living in a palace of cedar, while the ark of God remains in a tent.”

2Sa. 7:3 Nathan replied to the king, “Whatever you have in mind, go ahead and do it, for the LORD is with you.”

2Sa. 7:4 That night the word of the LORD came to Nathan, saying:

2Sa. 7:5 “Go and tell my servant David, ‘This is what the LORD says: Are you the one to build me a house to dwell in?’

2Sa. 7:6 I have not dwelt in a house from the day I brought the Israelites up out of Egypt to this day. I have been moving from place to place with a tent as my dwelling.

2Sa. 7:7 Wherever I have moved with all the Israelites, did I ever say to any of their rulers whom I commanded to shepherd my people Israel, “Why have you not built me a house of cedar?”

2Sa. 7:8 “Now then, tell my servant David, ‘This is what the LORD Almighty says: I took you from the pasture and from following the flock to be ruler over my people Israel.

2Sa. 7:9 I have been with you wherever you have gone, and I have cut off all your enemies from before you. Now I will make your name great, like the names of the greatest men of the earth.

2Sa. 7:10 And I will provide a place for my people Israel and will plant them so that they can have a home of their own and no longer be disturbed. Wicked people shall not oppress them any more, as they did at the beginning and have done ever since the time I appointed leaders [Traditionally judges] over my people Israel. I will also give you rest from all your enemies. “The LORD declares to you that the LORD himself will establish a house for you:

When your days are over and you rest with your fathers, I will raise up your offspring to succeed you, who will come from your own body, and I will establish his kingdom.

He is the one who will build a house for my Name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom for ever.

I will be his father, and he shall be my son. When he does wrong, I will punish him with the rod of men, with floggings inflicted by men.

But my love will never be taken away from him, as I took it away from Saul, whom I removed from before you.

Your house and your kingdom shall endure for ever before me; [Some Hebrew manuscripts and Septuagint; most Hebrew manuscripts you] your throne shall be established for ever.”

Nathan reported to David all the words of this entire revelation.

Then King David went in and sat before the LORD, and he said: “Who am I, O Sovereign LORD, and what is my family, that you have brought me this far?

And as if this were not enough in your sight, O Sovereign LORD, you have also spoken about the future of the house of your servant. Is this your usual way of dealing with man, O Sovereign LORD?

“What more can David say to you? For you know your servant, O Sovereign LORD.
For the sake of your word and according to your will, you have done this great thing and made it known to your servant.

“How great you are, O Sovereign LORD! There is no-one like you, and there is no God but you, as we have heard with our own ears.

And who is like your people Israel — the one nation on earth that God went out to redeem as a people for himself, and to make a name for himself, and to perform great and awesome wonders by driving out nations and their gods from before your people, whom you redeemed from Egypt? [See Septuagint and 1 Chron. 17:21; Hebrew wonders for your land and before your people, whom you redeemed from Egypt, from the nations and their gods.]

You have established your people Israel as your very own for ever, and you, O LORD, have become their God.

“And now, LORD God, keep for ever the promise you have made concerning your servant and his house. Do as you promised, so that your name will be great for ever. Then men will say, ‘The LORD Almighty is God over Israel!’ And the house of your servant David will be established before you.

“O LORD Almighty, God of Israel, you have revealed this to your servant, saying, ‘I will build a house for you.’ So your servant has found courage to offer you this prayer.

Sovereign LORD, you are God! Your words are trustworthy, and you have promised these good things to your servant.

Now be pleased to bless the house of your servant, that it may continue for ever in your sight; for you, O Sovereign LORD, have spoken, and with your blessing the house of your servant will be blessed for ever.”
In the course of time, David defeated the Philistines and subdued them, and he took Metheg Ammah from the control of the Philistines.

David also defeated the Moabites. He made them lie down on the ground and measured them off with a length of cord. Every two lengths of them were put to death, and the third length was allowed to live. So the Moabites became subject to David and brought tribute.

Moreover, David fought Hadadezer son of Rehob, king of Zobah, when he went to restore his control along the Euphrates River.

David captured a thousand of his chariots, seven thousand charioteers [Septuagint (see also Dead Sea Scrolls and 1 Chron. 18:4); Masoretic Text captured seventeen hundred of his charioteers] and twenty thousand foot soldiers. He hamstrung all but a hundred of the chariot horses.

When the Arameans of Damascus came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah, David struck down twenty-two thousand of them.

He put garrisons in the Aramean kingdom of Damascus, and the Arameans became subject to him and brought tribute. The LORD gave David victory wherever he went.

David took the gold shields that belonged to the officers of Hadadezer and brought them to Jerusalem.

From Tebah [See some Septuagint manuscripts (see also 1 Chron. 18:8); Hebrew Betah.] and Berothai, towns that belonged to Hadadezer, King David took a great quantity of bronze.

When Tou [Hebrew Toi, a variant of Tou; also in verse 10] king of Hamath heard that David had defeated the entire army of Hadadezer, he sent his son Joram [A variant of Hadoram] to King David to greet him and congratulate him on his victory in battle over Hadadezer, who had been at war with Tou. Joram brought with him articles of silver and gold and bronze.

King David dedicated these articles to the LORD, as he had done with the silver and gold from all the nations he had subdued:

Edom [Some Hebrew manuscripts, Septuagint and Syriac (see also 1 Chron. 18:11); most Hebrew manuscripts Aram] and Moab, the Ammonites and the Philistines, and Amalek. He also dedicated the plunder taken from Hadadezer son of Rehob, king of Zobah.

And David became famous after he returned from striking down eighteen thousand Edomites [A few Hebrew manuscripts, Septuagint and Syriac (see also 1 Chron. 18:12); most Hebrew manuscripts Aram (that is, Arameans)] in the Valley of Salt.

He put garrisons throughout Edom, and all the Edomites became subject to David. The LORD gave David victory wherever he went.

David reigned over all Israel, doing what was just and right for all his people.

Joab son of Zeruiah was over the army; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was recorder;

Zadok son of Ahitub and Ahimelech son of Abiathar were priests; Seraiah was secretary;

Benaiah son of Jehoiada was over the Kerethites and Pelethites; and David’s sons were royal advisers. [Or were priests]
David asked, “Is there anyone still left of the house of Saul to whom I can show kindness for Jonathan’s sake?”

Now there was a servant of Saul’s household named Ziba. They called him to appear before David, and the king said to him, “Are you Ziba?” “Your servant,” he replied.

The king asked, “Is there no-one still left of the house of Saul to whom I can show God’s kindness?” Ziba answered the king, “There is still a son of Jonathan; he is crippled in both feet.”

“Where is he?” the king asked. Ziba answered, “He is at the house of Makir son of Ammiel in Lo Debar.”

So King David had him brought from Lo Debar, from the house of Makir son of Ammiel.

When Mephibosheth son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, came to David, he bowed down to pay him honour. David said, “Mephibosheth!” “Your servant,” he replied.

“Don’t be afraid,” David said to him, “for I will surely show you kindness for the sake of your father Jonathan. I will restore to you all the land that belonged to your grandfather Saul, and you will always eat at my table.”

Mephibosheth bowed down and said, “What is your servant, that you should notice a dead dog like me?”

Then the king summoned Ziba, Saul’s servant, and said to him, “I have given your master’s grandson everything that belonged to Saul and his family. And Mephibosheth, grandson of your master, will always eat at my table.” (Now Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants.)
Then Ziba said to the king, “Your servant will do whatever my lord the king commands his servant to do.” So Mephibosheth ate at David’s [Septuagint; Hebrew my] table like one of the king’s sons.

Mephibosheth had a young son named Mica, and all the members of Ziba’s household were servants of Mephibosheth.

And Mephibosheth lived in Jerusalem, because he always ate at the king’s table, and he was crippled in both feet.

CHAPTER 10

In the course of time, the king of the Ammonites died, and his son Hanun succeeded him as king.

David thought, “I will show kindness to Hanun son of Nahash, just as his father showed kindness to me.” So David sent a delegation to express his sympathy to Hanun concerning his father. When David’s men came to the land of the Ammonites, the Ammonite nobles said to Hanun their lord, “Do you think David is honouring your father by sending men to you to express sympathy? Hasn’t David sent them to you to explore the city and spy it out and overthrow it?”

So Hanun seized David’s men, shaved off half of each man’s beard, cut off their garments in the middle at the buttocks, and sent them away.

When David was told about this, he sent messengers to meet the men, for they were greatly humiliated. The king said, “Stay at Jericho till your beards have grown, and then come back.”

When the Ammonites realised that they had become an offence to David’s nostrils, they hired twenty thousand Aramean foot soldiers from Beth Rehob and Zobah, as well as the king of Maacah with a thousand men, and also twelve thousand men from Tob.

2Sa. 10:7 On hearing this, David sent Joab out with the entire army of fighting men.

2Sa. 10:8 The Ammonites came out and drew up in battle formation at the entrance to their city gate, while the Arameans of Zobah and Rehob and the men of Tob and Maacah were by themselves in the open country.

2Sa. 10:9 Joab saw that there were battle lines in front of him and behind him; so he selected some of the best troops in Israel and deployed them against the Arameans.

2Sa. 10:10 He put the rest of the men under the command of Abishai his brother and deployed them against the Ammonites.

2Sa. 10:11 Joab said, “If the Arameans are too strong for me, then you are to come to my rescue; but if the Ammonites are too strong for you, then I will come to rescue you.

2Sa. 10:12 Be strong and let us fight bravely for our people and the cities of our God. The LORD will do what is good in his sight.”

2Sa. 10:13 Then Joab and the troops with him advanced to fight the Arameans, and they fled before him.

2Sa. 10:14 When the Ammonites saw that the Arameans were fleeing, they fled before Abishai and went inside the city. So Joab returned from fighting the Ammonites and came to Jerusalem.

2Sa. 10:15 After the Arameans saw that they had been routed by Israel, they regrouped.

2Sa. 10:16 Hadadezer had Arameans brought from beyond the River; [That is, the Euphrates] they went to Helam, with Shobach the commander of Hadadezer’s army leading them.

2Sa. 10:17 When David was told of this, he gathered all Israel, crossed the Jordan and went to Helam. The Arameans formed their battle lines to meet David and fought against him.
But they fled before Israel, and David killed seven hundred of their charioteers and forty thousand of their foot soldiers. [Some Septuagint manuscripts (see also 1 Chron. 19:18); Hebrew horsemen] He also struck down Shobach the commander of their army, and he died there.

When all the kings who were vassals of Hadadezer saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they made peace with the Israelites and became subject to them. So the Arameans were afraid to help the Ammonites any more.

CHAPTER 11

In the spring, at the time when kings go off to war, David sent Joab out with the king’s men and the whole Israelite army. They destroyed the Ammonites and besieged Rabbah. But David remained in Jerusalem.

One evening David got up from his bed and walked around on the roof of the palace. From the roof he saw a woman bathing. The woman was very beautiful, and David sent someone to find out about her. The man said, “Isn’t this Bathsheba, the daughter of Eliam and the wife of Uriah the Hittite?”

Then David sent messengers to get her. She came to him, and he slept with her. (She had purified herself from her uncleanness.) Then [Or with her. When she purified herself from her uncleanness,] she went back home.

The woman conceived and sent word to David, saying, “I am pregnant.”

So David sent this word to Joab: “Send me Uriah the Hittite.” And Joab sent him to David.

When Uriah came to him, David asked him how Joab was, how the soldiers were and how the war was going.
Then David said to Uriah, “Go down to your house and wash your feet.” So Uriah left the palace, and a gift from the king was sent after him.

But Uriah slept at the entrance to the palace with all his master’s servants and did not go down to his house.

When David was told, “Uriah did not go home,” he asked him, “Haven’t you just come from a distance? Why didn’t you go home?”

Uriah said to David, “The ark and Israel and Judah are staying in tents, and my master Joab and my lord’s men are camped in the open fields. How could I go to my house to eat and drink and lie with my wife? As surely as you live, I will not do such a thing!”

Then David said to him, “Stay here one more day, and tomorrow I will send you back.” So Uriah remained in Jerusalem that day and the next.

At David’s invitation, he ate and drank with him, and David made him drunk. But in the evening Uriah went out to sleep on his mat among his master’s servants; he did not go home.

In the morning David wrote a letter to Joab and sent it with Uriah.

In it he wrote, “Put Uriah in the front line where the fighting is fiercest. Then withdraw from him so that he will be struck down and die.”

So while Joab had the city under siege, he put Uriah at a place where he knew the strongest defenders were.

When the men of the city came out and fought against Joab, some of the men in David’s army fell; moreover, Uriah the Hittite died.

Joab sent David a full account of the battle.

He instructed the messenger: “When you have finished giving the king this account of the battle,
2Sa. 11:20 the king’s anger may flare up, and he may ask you, ‘Why did you get so close to the city to fight? Didn’t you know they would shoot arrows from the wall?’

2Sa. 11:21 Who killed Abimelech son of Jerub-Besheth? [Also known as Jerub-Baal (that is, Gideon)] Didn’t a woman throw an upper millstone on him from the wall, so that he died in Thebez? Why did you get so close to the wall?’ If he asks you this, then say to him, ‘Also, your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead.’“

2Sa. 11:22 The messenger set out, and when he arrived he told David everything Joab had sent him to say.

2Sa. 11:23 The messenger said to David, “The men overpowered us and came out against us in the open, but we drove them back to the entrance to the city gate.

2Sa. 11:24 Then the archers shot arrows at your servants from the wall, and some of the king’s men died. Moreover, your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead.”

2Sa. 11:25 David told the messenger, “Say this to Joab: ‘Don’t let this upset you; the sword devours one as well as another. Press the attack against the city and destroy it.’ Say this to encourage Joab.”

2Sa. 11:26 When Uriah’s wife heard that her husband was dead, she mourned for him.

2Sa. 11:27 After the time of mourning was over, David had her brought to his house, and she became his wife and bore him a son. But the thing David had done displeased the LORD.

CHAPTER 12

2Sa. 12:1 The LORD sent Nathan to David. When he came to him, he said, “There were two men in a certain town, one rich and the other poor.

2Sa. 12:2 The rich man had a very large number of sheep and cattle, but the poor man had nothing except one little ewe lamb that he had bought. He raised it, and it grew up with him and his children. It shared his food, drank from his cup and even slept in his arms. It was like a daughter to him.

“Now a traveller came to the rich man, but the rich man refrained from taking one of his own sheep or cattle to prepare a meal for the traveller who had come to him. Instead, he took the ewe lamb that belonged to the poor man and prepared it for the one who had come to him.”

David burned with anger against the man and said to Nathan, “As surely as the LORD lives, the man who did this deserves to die!

He must pay for that lamb four times over, because he did such a thing and had no pity.”

Then Nathan said to David, “You are the man! This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: `I anointed you king over Israel, and I delivered you from the hand of Saul.

I gave your master’s house to you, and your master’s wives into your arms. I gave you the house of Israel and Judah. And if all this had been too little, I would have given you even more.

Why did you despise the word of the LORD by doing what is evil in his eyes? You struck down Uriah the Hittite with the sword and took his wife to be your own. You killed him with the sword of the Ammonites.

Now, therefore, the sword shall never depart from your house, because you despised me and took the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be your own.’

“This is what the LORD says: `Out of your own household I am going to bring calamity upon you. Before your very eyes I will take your wives and give them to one who is close to you, and he will lie with your wives in broad daylight.

You did it in secret, but I will do this thing in broad daylight before all Israel.’“
Then David said to Nathan, “I have sinned against the LORD.” Nathan replied, “The LORD has taken away your sin. You are not going to die.

But because by doing this you have made the enemies of the LORD show utter contempt, [Masoretic Text; an ancient Hebrew scribal tradition this you have shown utter contempt for the LORD] the son born to you will die.”

After Nathan had gone home, the LORD struck the child that Uriah’s wife had borne to David, and he became ill.

David pleaded with God for the child. He fasted and went into his house and spent the nights lying on the ground.

The elders of his household stood beside him to get him up from the ground, but he refused, and he would not eat any food with them.

On the seventh day the child died. David’s servants were afraid to tell him that the child was dead, for they thought, “While the child was still living, we spoke to David but he would not listen to us. How can we tell him the child is dead? He may do something desperate.”

David noticed that his servants were whispering among themselves and he realised that the child was dead. “Is the child dead?” he asked. “Yes,” they replied, “he is dead.”

Then David got up from the ground. After he had washed, put on lotions and changed his clothes, he went into the house of the LORD and worshipped. Then he went to his own house, and at his request they served him food, and he ate.

His servants asked him, “Why are you acting in this way? While the child was alive, you fasted and wept, but now that the child is dead, you get up and eat!”

He answered, “While the child was still alive, I fasted and wept. I thought, ‘Who knows? The LORD may be gracious to me and let the child live.’
But now that he is dead, why should I fast? Can I bring him back again? I will go to him, but he will not return to me.”

Then David comforted his wife Bathsheba, and he went to her and lay with her. She gave birth to a son, and they named him Solomon. The LORD loved him; and because the LORD loved him, he sent word through Nathan the prophet to name him Jedidiah. [Jedidiah means loved by the LORD.]

Meanwhile Joab fought against Rabbah of the Ammonites and captured the royal citadel.

Joab then sent messengers to David, saying, “I have fought against Rabbah and taken its water supply.

Now muster the rest of the troops and besiege the city and capture it. Otherwise I shall take the city, and it will be named after me.”

So David mustered the entire army and went to Rabbah, and attacked and captured it.

He took the crown from the head of their king — [Or of Milcom (that is, Molech)] its weight was a talent [That is, about 75 pounds (about 34 kilograms)] of gold, and it was set with precious stones — and it was placed on David’s head. He took a great quantity of plunder from the city and brought out the people who were there, consigning them to labour with saws and with iron picks and axes, and he made them work at brickmaking. [The meaning of the Hebrew for this clause is uncertain.] He did this to all the Ammonite towns. Then David and his entire army returned to Jerusalem.

CHAPTER 13

In the course of time, Amnon son of David fell in love with Tamar, the beautiful sister of Absalom son of David.
2Sa. 13:2 Amnon became frustrated to the point of illness on account of his sister Tamar, for she was a virgin, and it seemed impossible for him to do anything to her.

2Sa. 13:3 Now Amnon had a friend named Jonadab son of Shimeah, David’s brother. Jonadab was a very shrewd man.

2Sa. 13:4 He asked Amnon, “Why do you, the king’s son, look so haggard morning after morning? Won’t you tell me?” Amnon said to him, “I’m in love with Tamar, my brother Absalom’s sister.”

2Sa. 13:5 “Go to bed and pretend to be ill,” Jonadab said. “When your father comes to see you, say to him, ‘I would like my sister Tamar to come and give me something to eat. Let her prepare the food in my sight so that I may watch her and then eat it from her hand.’”

2Sa. 13:6 So Amnon lay down and pretended to be ill. When the king came to see him, Amnon said to him, “I would like my sister Tamar to come and make some special bread in my sight, so that I may eat from her hand.”

2Sa. 13:7 David sent word to Tamar at the palace: “Go to the house of your brother Amnon and prepare some food for him.”

2Sa. 13:8 So Tamar went to the house of her brother Amnon, who was lying down. She took some dough, kneaded it, made the bread in his sight and baked it.

2Sa. 13:9 Then she took the pan and served him the bread, but he refused to eat. “Send everyone out of here,” Amnon said. So everyone left him.

2Sa. 13:10 Then Amnon said to Tamar, “Bring the food here into my bedroom so that I may eat from your hand.” And Tamar took the bread she had prepared and brought it to her brother Amnon in his bedroom.

2Sa. 13:11 But when she took it to him to eat, he grabbed her and said, “Come to bed with me, my sister.”
“Don’t, my brother!” she said to him. “Don’t force me. Such a thing should not be done in Israel! Don’t do this wicked thing.

What about me? Where could I get rid of my disgrace? And what about you? You would be like one of the wicked fools in Israel. Please speak to the king; he will not keep me from being married to you.”

But he refused to listen to her, and since he was stronger than she, he raped her.

Then Amnon hated her with intense hatred. In fact, he hated her more than he had loved her. Amnon said to her, “Get up and get out!”

“He called his personal servant and said, “Get this woman out of here and bolt the door after her.”

So his servant put her out and bolted the door after her. She was wearing a richly ornamented [The meaning of the Hebrew for this phrase is uncertain; also in verse 19.] robe, for this was the kind of garment the virgin daughters of the king wore.

Tamar put ashes on her head and tore the ornamented robe she was wearing. She put her hand on her head and went away, weeping aloud as she went.

Her brother Absalom said to her, “Has that Amnon, your brother, been with you? Be quiet now, my sister; he is your brother. Don’t take this thing to heart.” And Tamar lived in her brother Absalom’s house, a desolate woman.

When King David heard all this, he was furious.

Absalom never said a word to Amnon, either good or bad; he hated Amnon because he had disgraced his sister Tamar.
Two years later, when Absalom’s sheep-shearers were at Baal Hazor near the border of Ephraim, he invited all the king’s sons to come there.

Absalom went to the king and said, “Your servant has had shearsers come. Will the king and his officials please join me?”

“No, my son,” the king replied. “All of us should not go; we would only be a burden to you.” Although Absalom urged him, he still refused to go, but gave him his blessing.

Then Absalom said, “If not, please let my brother Amnon come with us.” The king asked him, “Why should he go with you?”

But Absalom urged him, so he sent with him Amnon and the rest of the king’s sons.

Absalom ordered his men, “Listen! When Amnon is in high spirits from drinking wine and I say to you, ‘Strike Amnon down,’ then kill him. Don’t be afraid. Have not I given you this order? Be strong and brave.”

So Absalom’s men did to Amnon what Absalom had ordered. Then all the king’s sons got up, mounted their mules and fled.

While they were on their way, the report came to David: “Absalom has struck down all the king’s sons; not one of them is left.”

The king stood up, tore his clothes and lay down on the ground; and all his servants stood by with their clothes torn.

But Jonadab son of Shimeah, David’s brother, said, “My lord should not think that they killed all the princes; only Amnon is dead. This has been Absalom’s expressed intention ever since the day that Amnon raped his sister Tamar.

My lord the king should not be concerned about the report that all the king’s sons are dead. Only Amnon is dead.”

Meanwhile, Absalom had fled. Now the man standing watch looked up and saw many people on the road west of him, coming down the side of the hill. The watchman went and told the king, “I see men in the direction of Horonaim, on the side of the hill.” [Septuagint; Hebrew does not have this sentence.]

2Sa. 13:35 Jonadab said to the king, “See, the king’s sons are here; it has happened just as your servant said.”

2Sa. 13:36 As he finished speaking, the king’s sons came in, wailing loudly. The king, too, and all his servants wept very bitterly.

2Sa. 13:37 Absalom fled and went to Talmai son of Ammihud, the king of Geshur. But King David mourned for his son every day.

2Sa. 13:38 After Absalom fled and went to Geshur, he stayed there for three years.

2Sa. 13:39 And the spirit of the king [Dead Sea Scrolls and some Septuagint manuscripts; Masoretic Text But the spirit of David the king] longed to go to Absalom, for he was consoled concerning Amnon’s death.

CHAPTER 14

2Sa. 14:1 Joab son of Zeruiah knew that the king’s heart longed for Absalom.

2Sa. 14:2 So Joab sent someone to Tekoa and had a wise woman brought from there. He said to her, “Pretend you are in mourning. Dress in mourning clothes, and don’t use any cosmetic lotions. Act like a woman who has spent many days grieving for the dead.

2Sa. 14:3 Then go to the king and speak these words to him.” And Joab put the words in her mouth.

2Sa. 14:4 When the woman from Tekoa went [Many Hebrew manuscripts, Septuagint, Vulgate and Syriac; most Hebrew manuscripts spoke] to the king, she fell with her face to the ground to pay him honour, and she said, “Help me, O king!”

2Sa. 14:5 The king asked her, “What is troubling you?” She said, “I am indeed a widow; my husband is dead.
I your servant had two sons. They got into a fight with each other in the field, and no-one was there to separate them. One struck the other and killed him.

Now the whole clan has risen up against your servant; they say, ‘Hand over the one who struck his brother down, so that we may put him to death for the life of his brother whom he killed; then we will get rid of the heir as well.’ They would put out the only burning coal I have left, leaving my husband neither name nor descendant on the face of the earth.”

The king said to the woman, “Go home, and I will issue an order on your behalf.”

But the woman from Tekoa said to him, “My lord the king, let the blame rest on me and on my father’s family, and let the king and his throne be without guilt.”

The king replied, “If anyone says anything to you, bring him to me, and he will not bother you again.”

She said, “Then let the king invoke the LORD his God to prevent the avenger of blood from adding to the destruction, so that my son shall not be destroyed.” “As surely as the LORD lives,” he said, “not one hair of your son’s head will fall to the ground.”

Then the woman said, “Let your servant speak a word to my lord the king.” “Speak,” he replied.

The woman said, “Why then have you devised a thing like this against the people of God? When the king says this, does he not convict himself, for the king has not brought back his banished son?

Like water spilled on the ground, which cannot be recovered, so we must die. But God does not take away life; instead, he devises ways so that a banished person may not remain estranged from him.

“And now I have come to say this to my lord the king because the people have made me afraid. Your servant thought, `I will speak to the king; perhaps he will do what his servant asks.'

2Sa. 14:16 Perhaps the king will agree to deliver his servant from the hand of the man who is trying to cut off both me and my son from the inheritance God gave us.’

2Sa. 14:17 “And now your servant says, `May the word of my lord the king bring me rest, for my lord the king is like an angel of God in discerning good and evil. May the LORD your God be with you.’”

2Sa. 14:18 Then the king said to the woman, “Do not keep from me the answer to what I am going to ask you.” “Let my lord the king speak,” the woman said.

2Sa. 14:19 The king asked, “Isn’t the hand of Joab with you in all this?” The woman answered, “As surely as you live, my lord the king, no-one can turn to the right or to the left from anything my lord the king says. Yes, it was your servant Joab who instructed me to do this and who put all these words into the mouth of your servant.

2Sa. 14:20 Your servant Joab did this to change the present situation. My lord has wisdom like that of an angel of God — he knows everything that happens in the land.”

2Sa. 14:21 The king said to Joab, “Very well, I will do it. Go, bring back the young man Absalom.”

2Sa. 14:22 Joab fell with his face to the ground to pay him honour, and he blessed the king. Joab said, “Today your servant knows that he has found favour in your eyes, my lord the king, because the king has granted his servant’s request.”

2Sa. 14:23 Then Joab went to Geshur and brought Absalom back to Jerusalem.

2Sa. 14:24 But the king said, “He must go to his own house; he must not see my face.” So Absalom went to his own house and did not see the face of the king.
In all Israel there was not a man so highly praised for his handsome appearance as Absalom. From the top of his head to the sole of his foot there was no blemish in him.

Whenever he cut the hair of his head — he used to cut his hair from time to time when it became too heavy for him — he would weigh it, and its weight was two hundred shekels [That is, about 5 pounds (about 2.3 kilograms)] by the royal standard.

Three sons and a daughter were born to Absalom. The daughter’s name was Tamar, and she became a beautiful woman.

Absalom lived for two years in Jerusalem without seeing the king’s face.

Then Absalom sent for Joab in order to send him to the king, but Joab refused to come to him. So he sent a second time, but he refused to come.

Then he said to his servants, “Look, Joab’s field is next to mine, and he has barley there. Go and set it on fire.” So Absalom’s servants set the field on fire.

Absalom said to Joab, “Look, I sent word to you and said, ‘Come here so that I can send you to the king to ask, ‘Why have I come from Geshur? It would be better for me if I were still there!’’ Now then, I want to see the king’s face, and if I am guilty of anything, let him put me to death.”

So Joab went to the king and told him this. Then the king summoned Absalom, and he came in and bowed down with his face to the ground before the king. And the king kissed Absalom.
2Sa. 15:1 In the course of time, Absalom provided himself with a chariot and horses and with fifty men to run ahead of him.

2Sa. 15:2 He would get up early and stand by the side of the road leading to the city gate. Whenever anyone came with a complaint to be placed before the king for a decision, Absalom would call out to him, “What town are you from?” He would answer, “Your servant is from one of the tribes of Israel.”

2Sa. 15:3 Then Absalom would say to him, “Look, your claims are valid and proper, but there is no representative of the king to hear you.”

2Sa. 15:4 And Absalom would add, “If only I were appointed judge in the land! Then everyone who has a complaint or case could come to me and I would see that he receives justice.”

2Sa. 15:5 Also, whenever anyone approached him to bow down before him, Absalom would reach out his hand, take hold of him and kiss him.

2Sa. 15:6 Absalom behaved in this way towards all the Israelites who came to the king asking for justice, and so he stole the hearts of the men of Israel.

2Sa. 15:7 At the end of four [Some Septuagint manuscripts, Syriac and Josephus; Hebrew forty] years, Absalom said to the king, “Let me go to Hebron and fulfil a vow I made to the LORD.

2Sa. 15:8 While your servant was living at Geshur in Aram, I made this vow: ‘If the LORD takes me back to Jerusalem, I will worship the LORD in Hebron.’” [Some Septuagint manuscripts; Hebrew does not have in Hebron.]

2Sa. 15:9 The king said to him, “Go in peace.” So he went to Hebron.

2Sa. 15:10 Then Absalom sent secret messengers throughout the tribes of Israel to say, “As soon as you hear the sound of the trumpets, then say, ‘Absalom is king in Hebron.’”
Two hundred men from Jerusalem had accompanied Absalom. They had been invited as guests and went quite innocently, knowing nothing about the matter.

While Absalom was offering sacrifices, he also sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite, David’s counsellor, to come from Giloh, his home town. And so the conspiracy gained strength, and Absalom’s following kept on increasing.

A messenger came and told David, “The hearts of the men of Israel are with Absalom.”

Then David said to all his officials who were with him in Jerusalem, “Come! We must flee, or none of us will escape from Absalom. We must leave immediately, or he will move quickly to overtake us and bring ruin upon us and put the city to the sword.”

The king’s officials answered him, “Your servants are ready to do whatever our lord the king chooses.”

The king set out, with his entire household following him; but he left ten concubines to take care of the palace.

So the king set out, with all the people following him, and they halted at a place some distance away.

All his men marched past him, along with all the Kerethites and Pelethites; and all the six hundred Gittites who had accompanied him from Gath marched before the king.

The king said to Ittai the Gittite, “Why should you come along with us? Go back and stay with King Absalom. You are a foreigner, an exile from your homeland.

You came only yesterday. And today shall I make you wander about with us, when I do not know where I am going? Go back, and take your countrymen. May kindness and faithfulness be with you.”

But Ittai replied to the king, “As surely as the LORD lives, and as my lord the king lives, wherever my lord the king may be, whether it means life or death, there will your servant be.”
David said to Ittai, “Go ahead, march on.” So Ittai the Gittite marched on with all his men and the families that were with him.

The whole countryside wept aloud as all the people passed by. The king also crossed the Kidron Valley, and all the people moved on towards the desert.

Zadok was there, too, and all the Levites who were with him were carrying the ark of the covenant of God. They set down the ark of God, and Abiathar offered sacrifices [Or Abiathar went up] until all the people had finished leaving the city.

Then the king said to Zadok, “Take the ark of God back into the city. If I find favour in the LORD’s eyes, he will bring me back and let me see it and his dwelling-place again.

But if he says, ‘I am not pleased with you,’ then I am ready; let him do to me whatever seems good to him.”

The king also said to Zadok the priest, “Aren’t you a seer? Go back to the city in peace, with your son Ahimaaz and Jonathan son of Abiathar. You and Abiathar take your two sons with you.

I will wait at the fords in the desert until word comes from you to inform me.”

So Zadok and Abiathar took the ark of God back to Jerusalem and stayed there.

But David continued up the Mount of Olives, weeping as he went; his head was covered and he was barefoot. All the people with him covered their heads too and were weeping as they went up.

Now David had been told, “Ahithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom.” So David prayed, “O LORD, turn Ahithophel’s counsel into foolishness.”

When David arrived at the summit, where people used to worship God, Hushai the Arkite was there to meet him, his robe torn and dust on his head.
2Sa. 15:33 David said to him, “If you go with me, you will be a burden to me.

2Sa. 15:34 But if you return to the city and say to Absalom, ‘I will be your servant, O king; I was your father’s servant in the past, but now I will be your servant,’ then you can help me by frustrating Ahithophel’s advice.

2Sa. 15:35 Won’t the priests Zadok and Abiathar be there with you? Tell them anything you hear in the king’s palace.

2Sa. 15:36 Their two sons, Ahimaaz son of Zadok and Jonathan son of Abiathar, are there with them. Send them to me with anything you hear.”

2Sa. 15:37 So David’s friend Hushai arrived at Jerusalem as Absalom was entering the city.

CHAPTER 16

2Sa. 16:1 When David had gone a short distance beyond the summit, there was Ziba, the steward of Mephibosheth, waiting to meet him. He had a string of donkeys saddled and loaded with two hundred loaves of bread, a hundred cakes of raisins, a hundred cakes of figs and a skin of wine.

2Sa. 16:2 The king asked Ziba, “Why have you brought these?” Ziba answered, “The donkeys are for the king’s household to ride on, the bread and fruit are for the men to eat, and the wine is to refresh those who become exhausted in the desert.”

2Sa. 16:3 The king then asked, “Where is your master’s grandson?” Ziba said to him, “He is staying in Jerusalem, because he thinks, ‘Today the house of Israel will give me back my grandfather’s kingdom.’”

2Sa. 16:4 Then the king said to Ziba, “All that belonged to Mephibosheth is now yours.” “I humbly bow,” Ziba said. “May I find favour in your eyes, my lord the king.”
As King David approached Bahurim, a man from the same clan as Saul’s family came out from there. His name was Shimei son of Gera, and he cursed as he came out.

He pelted David and all the king’s officials with stones, though all the troops and the special guard were on David’s right and left.

As he cursed, Shimei said, “Get out, get out, you man of blood, you scoundrel!”

The LORD has repaid you for all the blood you shed in the household of Saul, in whose place you have reigned. The LORD has handed the kingdom over to your son Absalom. You have come to ruin because you are a man of blood!”

Then Abishai son of Zeruiah said to the king, “Why should this dead dog curse my lord the king? Let me go over and cut off his head.”

But the king said, “What do you and I have in common, you sons of Zeruiah? If he is cursing because the LORD said to him, ‘Curse David,’ who can ask, ‘Why do you do this?’”

David then said to Abishai and all his officials, “My son, who is of my own flesh, is trying to take my life. How much more, then, this Benjamite! Leave him alone; let him curse, for the LORD has told him to.

It may be that the LORD will see my distress and repay me with good for the cursing I am receiving today.”

So David and his men continued along the road while Shimei was going along the hillside opposite him, cursing as he went and throwing stones at him and showering him with dirt.

The king and all the people with him arrived at their destination exhausted. And there he refreshed himself.

Meanwhile, Absalom and all the men of Israel came to Jerusalem, and Ahithophel was with him.

Then Hushai the Arkite, David’s friend, went to Absalom and said to him, “Long live the king! Long live the king!”
Absalom asked Hushai, “Is this the love you show your friend? Why didn’t you go with your friend?”

Hushai said to Absalom, “No, the one chosen by the LORD, by these people and by all the men of Israel — his I will be, and I will remain with him.

Furthermore, whom should I serve? Should I not serve the son? Just as I served your father, so I will serve you.”

Absalom said to Ahithophel, “Give us your advice. What should we do?”

Ahithophel answered, “Lie with your father’s concubines whom he left to take care of the palace. Then all Israel will hear that you have made yourself an offence to your father’s nostrils, and the hands of everyone with you will be strengthened.”

So they pitched a tent for Absalom on the roof, and he lay with his father’s concubines in the sight of all Israel.

Now in those days the advice Ahithophel gave was like that of one who enquires of God. That was how both David and Absalom regarded all of Ahithophel’s advice.

CHAPTER 17

Ahithophel said to Absalom, “I would [Or Let me] choose twelve thousand men and set out tonight in pursuit of David.

I would [Or will] attack him while he is weary and weak. I would [Or will] strike him with terror, and then all the people with him will flee. I would [Or will] strike down only the king and bring all the people back to you. The death of the man you seek will mean the return of all; all the people will be unharmed.”

This plan seemed good to Absalom and to all the elders of Israel.
But Absalom said, “Summon also Hushai the Arkite, so that we can hear what he has to say.”

When Hushai came to him, Absalom said, “Ahithophel has given this advice. Should we do what he says? If not, give us your opinion.”

Hushai replied to Absalom, “The advice Ahithophel has given is not good this time.

You know your father and his men; they are fighters, and as fierce as a wild bear robbed of her cubs. Besides, your father is an experienced fighter; he will not spend the night with the troops.

Even now, he is hidden in a cave or some other place. If he should attack your troops first, [Or When some of the men fall at the first attack] whoever hears about it will say, ‘There has been a slaughter among the troops who follow Absalom.’

“So I advise you: Let all Israel, from Dan to Beersheba — as numerous as the sand on the seashore — be gathered to you, with you yourself leading them into battle.

Then we will attack him wherever he may be found, and we will fall on him as dew settles on the ground. Neither he nor any of his men will be left alive.

If he withdraws into a city, then all Israel will bring ropes to that city, and we will drag it down to the valley until not even a piece of it can be found.”

Absalom and all the men of Israel said, “The advice of Hushai the Arkite is better than that of Ahithophel.” For the LORD had determined to frustrate the good advice of Ahithophel in order to bring disaster on Absalom.
Hushai told Zadok and Abiathar, the priests, “Ahithophel has advised Absalom and the elders of Israel to do such and such, but I have advised them to do so and so.

Now send a message immediately and tell David, ‘Do not spend the night at the fords in the desert; cross over without fail, or the king and all the people with him will be swallowed up.’

Jonathan and Ahimaaz were staying at En Rogel. A servant girl was to go and inform them, and they were to go and tell King David, for they could not risk being seen entering the city.

His wife took a covering and spread it out over the opening of the well and scattered grain over it. No-one knew anything about it.

When Absalom’s men came to the woman at the house, they asked, “Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan?” The woman answered them, “They crossed over the brook.” [Or “They passed by the sheep pen towards the water.”] The men searched but found no-one, so they returned to Jerusalem.

So David and all the people with him set out and crossed the Jordan. By daybreak, no-one was left who had not crossed the Jordan.

When Ahithophel saw that his advice had not been followed, he saddled his donkey and set out for his house in his hometown. He put his house in order and then hanged himself. So he died and was buried in his father’s tomb.
David went to Mahanaim, and Absalom crossed the Jordan with all the men of Israel.

Absalom had appointed Amasa over the army in place of Joab. Amasa was the son of a man named Jether, [Hebrew Ithra, a variant of Jether] an Israelite [Hebrew and some Septuagint manuscripts; other Septuagint manuscripts (see also 1 Chron. 2:17) Ishmaelite or Jezreelite] who had married Abigail, [Hebrew Abigal, a variant of Abigail] the daughter of Nahash and sister of Zeruiah the mother of Joab.

The Israelites and Absalom camped in the land of Gilead.

When David came to Mahanaim, Shobi son of Nahash from Rabbah of the Ammonites, and Makir son of Ammiel from Lo Debar, and Barzillai the Gileadite from Rogelim brought bedding and bowls and articles of pottery. They also brought wheat and barley, flour and roasted grain, beans and lentils, [Most Septuagint manuscripts and Syriac; Hebrew lentils, and roasted grain] honey and curds, sheep, and cheese from cows’ milk for David and his people to eat. For they said, “The people have become hungry and tired and thirsty in the desert.”

CHAPTER 18

David mustered the men who were with him and appointed over them commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds.

David sent the troops out — a third under the command of Joab, a third under Joab’s brother Abishai son of Zeruiah, and a third under Ittai the Gittite. The king told the troops, “I myself will surely march out with you.”

But the men said, “You must not go out; if we are forced to flee, they won’t care about us. Even if half of us die, they won’t care; but you are worth ten thousand of us. [Two Hebrew manuscripts, some Septuagint manuscripts and Vulgate; most Hebrew manuscripts care; for now there are ten thousand like us] It would be better now for you to give us support from the city.”

2Sa. 18:4 The king answered, “I will do whatever seems best to you.”
So the king stood beside the gate while all the men marched out in units of hundreds and of thousands.

2Sa. 18:5 The king commanded Joab, Abishai and Ittai, “Be gentle with the young man Absalom for my sake.” And all the troops heard the king giving orders concerning Absalom to each of the commanders.

2Sa. 18:6 The army marched into the field to fight Israel, and the battle took place in the forest of Ephraim.

2Sa. 18:7 There the army of Israel was defeated by David’s men, and the casualties that day were great — twenty thousand men.

2Sa. 18:8 The battle spread out over the whole countryside, and the forest claimed more lives that day than the sword.

2Sa. 18:9 Now Absalom happened to meet David’s men. He was riding his mule, and as the mule went under the thick branches of a large oak, Absalom’s head got caught in the tree. He was left hanging in mid-air, while the mule he was riding kept on going.

2Sa. 18:10 When one of the men saw this, he told Joab, “I have just seen Absalom hanging in an oak tree.”

2Sa. 18:11 Joab said to the man who had told him this, “What! You saw him? Why didn’t you strike him to the ground right there?
Then I would have had to give you ten shekels [That is, about 4 ounces (about 115 grams)] of silver and a warrior’s belt.”

2Sa. 18:12 But the man replied, “Even if a thousand shekels [That is, about 25 pounds (about 11 kilograms)] were weighed out into my hands, I would not lift my hand against the king’s son. In our hearing the king commanded you and Abishai and Ittai, ‘ Protect the young man Absalom for my sake.’ [A few Hebrew manuscripts, Septuagint, Vulgate and Syriac; most Hebrew manuscripts may be translated Absalom, whoever you may be.]

2Sa. 18:13 And if I had put my life in jeopardy — [Or Otherwise, if I had acted treacherously towards him] and nothing is hidden from the king — you would have kept your distance from me.”

2Sa. 18:14 Joab said, “I am not going to wait like this for you.” So he took three javelins in his hand and plunged them into Absalom’s heart while Absalom was still alive in the oak tree.

2Sa. 18:15 And ten of Joab’s armour-bearers surrounded Absalom, struck him and killed him.

2Sa. 18:16 Then Joab sounded the trumpet, and the troops stopped pursuing Israel, for Joab halted them.

2Sa. 18:17 They took Absalom, threw him into a big pit in the forest and piled up a large heap of rocks over him. Meanwhile, all the Israelites fled to their homes.

2Sa. 18:18 During his life-time Absalom had taken a pillar and erected it in the King’s Valley as a monument to himself, for he thought, “I have no son to carry on the memory of my name.” He named the pillar after himself, and it is called Absalom’s Monument to this day.

2Sa. 18:19 Now Ahimaaz son of Zadok said, “Let me run and take the news to the king that the LORD has delivered him from the hand of his enemies.”

2Sa. 18:20 “You are not the one to take the news today,” Joab told him. “You may take the news another time, but you must not do so today, because the king’s son is dead.”

2Sa. 18:21 Then Joab said to a Cushite, “Go, tell the king what you have seen.” The Cushite bowed down before Joab and ran off.

2Sa. 18:22 Ahimaaz son of Zadok again said to Joab, “Come what may, please let me run behind the Cushite.” But Joab replied, “My son, why do you want to go? You don’t have any news that will bring you a reward.”
He said, “Come what may, I want to run.” So Joab said, “Run!” Then Ahimaaz ran by way of the plain [That is, the plain of the Jordan] and outran the Cushite.

While David was sitting between the inner and outer gates, the watchman went up to the roof of the gateway by the wall. As he looked out, he saw a man running alone.

The watchman called out to the king and reported it. The king said, “If he is alone, he must have good news.” And the man came closer and closer.

Then the watchman saw another man running, and he called down to the gatekeeper, “Look, another man running alone!” The king said, “He must be bringing good news, too.”

The watchman said, “It seems to me that the first one runs like Ahimaaz son of Zadok.” “He’s a good man,” the king said. “He comes with good news.”

Then Ahimaaz called out to the king, “All is well!” He bowed down before the king with his face to the ground and said, “Praise be to the LORD your God! He has delivered up the men who lifted their hands against my lord the king.”

The king asked, “Is the young man Absalom safe?” Ahimaaz answered, “I saw great confusion just as Joab was about to send the king’s servant and me, your servant, but I don’t know what it was.”

The king said, “Stand aside and wait here.” So he stepped aside and stood there.

Then the Cushite arrived and said, “My lord the king, hear the good news! The LORD has delivered you today from all who rose up against you.”

The king asked the Cushite, “Is the young man Absalom safe?” The Cushite replied, “May the enemies of my lord the king and all who rise up to harm you be like that young man.”

The king was shaken. He went up to the room over the gateway and wept. As he went, he said: “O my son Absalom!
My son, my son Absalom! If only I had died instead of you — O Absalom, my son, my son!”

CHAPTER 19

2Sa. 19:1 Joab was told, “The king is weeping and mourning for Absalom.”

2Sa. 19:2 And for the whole army the victory that day was turned into mourning, because on that day the troops heard it said, “The king is grieving for his son.”

2Sa. 19:3 The men stole into the city that day as men steal in who are ashamed when they flee from battle.

2Sa. 19:4 The king covered his face and cried aloud, “O my son Absalom! O Absalom, my son, my son!”

2Sa. 19:5 Then Joab went into the house to the king and said, “Today you have humiliated all your men, who have just saved your life and the lives of your sons and daughters and the lives of your wives and concubines.

2Sa. 19:6 You love those who hate you and hate those who love you. You have made it clear today that the commanders and their men mean nothing to you. I see that you would be pleased if Absalom were alive today and all of us were dead.

2Sa. 19:7 Now go out and encourage your men. I swear by the LORD that if you don’t go out, not a man will be left with you by nightfall. This will be worse for you than all the calamities that have come upon you from your youth till now.”

2Sa. 19:8 So the king got up and took his seat in the gateway. When the men were told, “The king is sitting in the gateway,” they all came before him. Meanwhile, the Israelites had fled to their homes.

2Sa. 19:9 Throughout the tribes of Israel, the people were all arguing with each other, saying, “The king delivered us from the hand of our enemies; he is the one who rescued us from the hand of the Philistines. But now he has fled the country because of Absalom;

2Sa. 19:10 and Absalom, whom we anointed to rule over us, has died in battle. So why do you say nothing about bringing the king back?”

2Sa. 19:11 King David sent this message to Zadok and Abiathar, the priests: “Ask the elders of Judah, ‘Why should you be the last to bring the king back to his palace, since what is being said throughout Israel has reached the king at his quarters?

2Sa. 19:12 You are my brothers, my own flesh and blood. So why should you be the last to bring back the king?”

2Sa. 19:13 And say to Amasa, ‘Are you not my own flesh and blood? May God deal with me, be it ever so severely, if from now on you are not the commander of my army in place of Joab.’ “

2Sa. 19:14 He won over the hearts of all the men of Judah as though they were one man. They sent word to the king, “Return, you and all your men.”

2Sa. 19:15 Then the king returned and went as far as the Jordan. Now the men of Judah had come to Gilgal to go out and meet the king and bring him across the Jordan.

2Sa. 19:16 Shimei son of Gera, the Benjamite from Bahurim, hurried down with the men of Judah to meet King David.

2Sa. 19:17 With him were a thousand Benjamites, along with Ziba, the steward of Saul’s household, and his fifteen sons and twenty servants. They rushed to the Jordan, where the king was.

2Sa. 19:18 They crossed at the ford to take the king’s household over and to do whatever he wished. When Shimei son of Gera crossed the Jordan, he fell prostrate before the king

2Sa. 19:19 and said to him, “May my lord not hold me guilty. Do not remember how your servant did wrong on the day my lord the king left Jerusalem. May the king put it out of his mind.
For I your servant know that I have sinned, but today I have come here as the first of the whole house of Joseph to come down and meet my lord the king.”

Then Abishai son of Zeruiah said, “Shouldn’t Shimei be put to death for this? He cursed the LORD’s anointed.”

David replied, “What do you and I have in common, you sons of Zeruiah? This day you have become my adversaries! Should anyone be put to death in Israel today? Do I not know that today I am king over Israel?”

So the king said to Shimei, “You shall not die.” And the king promised him on oath.

Mephibosheth, Saul’s grandson, also went down to meet the king. He had not taken care of his feet or trimmed his moustache or washed his clothes from the day the king left until the day he returned safely.

When he came from Jerusalem to meet the king, the king asked him, “Why didn’t you go with me, Mephibosheth?”

He said, “My lord the king, since I your servant am lame, I said, ‘I will have my donkey saddled and will ride on it, so that I can go with the king.’ But Ziba my servant betrayed me.

And he has slandered your servant to my lord the king. My lord the king is like an angel of God; so do whatever pleases you.

All my grandfather’s descendants deserved nothing but death from my lord the king, but you gave your servant a place among those who eat at your table. So what right do I have to make any more appeals to the king?”

The king said to him, “Why say more? I order you and Ziba to divide the fields.”

Mephibosheth said to the king, “Let him take everything, now that my lord the king has arrived home safely.”
Barzillai the Gileadite also came down from Rogelim to cross the Jordan with the king and to send him on his way from there.

Now Barzillai was a very old man, eighty years of age. He had provided for the king during his stay in Mahanaim, for he was a very wealthy man.

The king said to Barzillai, “Cross over with me and stay with me in Jerusalem, and I will provide for you.”

But Barzillai answered the king, “How many more years shall I live, that I should go up to Jerusalem with the king?

I am now eighty years old. Can I tell the difference between what is good and what is not? Can your servant taste what he eats and drinks? Can I still hear the voices of men and women singers? Why should your servant be an added burden to my lord the king?

Your servant will cross over the Jordan with the king for a short distance, but why should the king reward me in this way?

Let your servant return, that I may die in my own town near the tomb of my father and mother. But here is your servant Kimham. Let him cross over with my lord the king. Do for him whatever pleases you.”

The king said, “Kimham shall cross over with me, and I will do for him whatever pleases you. And anything you desire from me I will do for you.”

So all the people crossed the Jordan, and then the king crossed over. The king kissed Barzillai and gave him his blessing, and Barzillai returned to his home.

When the king crossed over to Gilgal, Kimham crossed with him. All the troops of Judah and half the troops of Israel had taken the king over.

Soon all the men of Israel were coming to the king and saying to him, “Why did our brothers, the men of Judah, steal the king away and bring him and his household across the Jordan, together with all his men?”

2Sa. 19:42 All the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, “We did this because the king is closely related to us. Why are you angry about it? Have we eaten any of the king’s provisions? Have we taken anything for ourselves?”

2Sa. 19:43 Then the men of Israel answered the men of Judah, “We have ten shares in the king; and besides, we have a greater claim on David than you have. So why do you treat us with contempt? Were we not the first to speak of bringing back our king?” But the men of Judah responded even more harshly than the men of Israel.

CHAPTER 20

2Sa. 20:1 Now a troublemaker named Sheba son of Bicri, a Benjamite, happened to be there. He sounded the trumpet and shouted, “We have no share in David, no part in Jesse’s son! Every man to his tent, O Israel!”

2Sa. 20:2 So all the men of Israel deserted David to follow Sheba son of Bicri. But the men of Judah stayed by their king all the way from the Jordan to Jerusalem.

2Sa. 20:3 When David returned to his palace in Jerusalem, he took the ten concubines he had left to take care of the palace and put them in a house under guard. He provided for them, but did not lie with them. They were kept in confinement till the day of their death, living as widows.

2Sa. 20:4 Then the king said to Amasa, “Summon the men of Judah to come to me within three days, and be here yourself.”

2Sa. 20:5 But when Amasa went to summon Judah, he took longer than the time the king had set for him.

2Sa. 20:6 David said to Abishai, “Now Sheba son of Bicri will do us more harm than Absalom did. Take your master’s men and pursue him, or he will find fortified cities and escape from us.”

2Sa. 20:7 So Joab’s men and the Kerethites and Pelethites and all the mighty warriors went out under the command of Abishai. They marched out from Jerusalem to pursue Sheba son of Bicri.

2Sa. 20:8 While they were at the great rock in Gibeon, Amasa came to meet them. Joab was wearing his military tunic, and strapped over it at his waist was a belt with a dagger in its sheath. As he stepped forward, it dropped out of its sheath.

2Sa. 20:9 Joab said to Amasa, “How are you, my brother?” Then Joab took Amasa by the beard with his right hand to kiss him.

2Sa. 20:10 Amasa was not on his guard against the dagger in Joab’s hand, and Joab plunged it into his belly, and his intestines spilled out on the ground. Without being stabbed again, Amasa died. Then Joab and his brother Abishai pursued Sheba son of Bicri.

2Sa. 20:11 One of Joab’s men stood beside Amasa and said, “Whoever favours Joab, and whoever is for David, let him follow Joab!”

2Sa. 20:12 Amasa lay wallowing in his blood in the middle of the road, and the man saw that all the troops came to a halt there. When he realised that everyone who came up to Amasa stopped, he dragged him from the road into a field and threw a garment over him.

2Sa. 20:13 After Amasa had been removed from the road, all the men went on with Joab to pursue Sheba son of Bicri.

2Sa. 20:14 Sheba passed through all the tribes of Israel to Abel Beth Maacah [Or Abel, even Beth Maacah; also in verse 15] and through the entire region of the Berites, who gathered together and followed him.

2Sa. 20:15 All the troops with Joab came and besieged Sheba in Abel Beth Maacah. They built a siege ramp up to the city, and it stood against the outer fortifications. While they were battering the wall to bring it down, a wise woman called from the city, “Listen! Listen! Tell Joab to come here so that I can speak to him.”

He went towards her, and she asked, “Are you Joab?” “I am,” he answered. She said, “Listen to what your servant has to say.” “I’m listening,” he said.

She continued, “Long ago they used to say, ‘Get your answer at Abel,’ and that settled it.

We are the peaceful and faithful in Israel. You are trying to destroy a city that is a mother in Israel. Why do you want to swallow up the LORD’s inheritance?”

“Far be it from me!” Joab replied, “Far be it from me to swallow up or destroy!

That is not the case. A man named Sheba son of Bicri, from the hill country of Ephraim, has lifted up his hand against the king, against David. Hand over this one man, and I’ll withdraw from the city.” The woman said to Joab, “His head will be thrown to you from the wall.”

Then the woman went to all the people with her wise advice, and they cut off the head of Sheba son of Bicri and threw it to Joab. So he sounded the trumpet, and his men dispersed from the city, each returning to his home. And Joab went back to the king in Jerusalem.

Joab was over Israel’s entire army; Benaiah son of Jehoiada was over the Kerethites and Pelethites;

Adoniram [Some Septuagint manuscripts (see also 1 Kings 4:6 and 5:14); Hebrew Adoram] was in charge of forced labour; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was recorder;

Sheva was secretary; Zadok and Abiathar were priests; and Ira the Jairite was David’s priest.

2Sa. 21:1 During the reign of David, there was a famine for three successive years; so David sought the face of the LORD. The LORD said, “It is on account of Saul and his blood-stained house; it is because he put the Gibeonites to death.”

2Sa. 21:2 The king summoned the Gibeonites and spoke to them. (Now the Gibeonites were not a part of Israel but were survivors of the Amorites; the Israelites had sworn to spare them, but Saul in his zeal for Israel and Judah had tried to annihilate them.)

2Sa. 21:3 David asked the Gibeonites, “What shall I do for you? How shall I make amends so that you will bless the LORD’s inheritance?”

2Sa. 21:4 The Gibeonites answered him, “We have no right to demand silver or gold from Saul or his family, nor do we have the right to put anyone in Israel to death.” “What do you want me to do for you?” David asked.

2Sa. 21:5 They answered the king, “As for the man who destroyed us and plotted against us so that we have been decimated and have no place anywhere in Israel,

2Sa. 21:6 let seven of his male descendants be given to us to be killed and exposed before the LORD at Gibeah of Saul — the LORD’s chosen one.” So the king said, “I will give them to you.”

2Sa. 21:7 The king spared Mephibosheth son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, because of the oath before the LORD between David and Jonathan son of Saul.

2Sa. 21:8 But the king took Armoni and Mephibosheth, the two sons of Aiah’s daughter Rizpah, whom she had borne to Saul, together with the five sons of Saul’s daughter Merab, [Two Hebrew manuscripts, some Septuagint manuscripts and Syriac (see also 1 Samuel 18:19); most Hebrew and Septuagint manuscripts Michal] whom she had borne to Adriel son of Barzillai the Meholathite.
He handed them over to the Gibeonites, who killed and exposed them on a hill before the LORD. All seven of them fell together; they were put to death during the first days of harvest, just as the barley harvest was beginning.

Rizpah daughter of Aiah took sackcloth and spread it out for herself on a rock. From the beginning of the harvest till the rain poured down from the heavens on the bodies, she did not let the birds of the air touch them by day or the wild animals by night.

When David was told what Aiah’s daughter Rizpah, Saul’s concubine, had done, he went and took the bones of Saul and his son Jonathan from the citizens of Jabesh Gilead. (They had taken them secretly from the public square at Beth Shan, where the Philistines had hung them after they struck Saul down on Gilboa.)

David brought the bones of Saul and his son Jonathan from there, and the bones of those who had been killed and exposed were gathered up.

They buried the bones of Saul and his son Jonathan in the tomb of Saul’s father Kish, at Zela in Benjamin, and did everything the king commanded. After that, God answered prayer on behalf of the land.

Once again there was a battle between the Philistines and Israel. David went down with his men to fight against the Philistines, and he became exhausted.

And Ishbi-Benob, one of the descendants of Rapha, whose bronze spearhead weighed three hundred shekels [That is, about 7 1/2 pounds (about 3.5 kilograms)] and who was armed with a new sword, said he would kill David.

But Abishai son of Zeruiah came to David’s rescue; he struck the Philistine down and killed him. Then David’s men swore to him, saying, “Never again will you go out with us to battle, so that the lamp of Israel will not be extinguished.”
In the course of time, there was another battle with the Philistines, at Gob. At that time Sibbecai the Hushathite killed Saph, one of the descendants of Rapha.

In another battle with the Philistines at Gob, Elhanan son of Jaare-Oregim [Or son of Jair the weaver] the Bethlehemite killed Goliath [Hebrew and Septuagint; 1 Chron. 20:5 son of Jair killed Lahmi the brother of Goliath] the Gittite, who had a spear with a shaft like a weaver’s rod.

In still another battle, which took place at Gath, there was a huge man with six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot — twenty-four in all. He also was descended from Rapha. When he taunted Israel, Jonathan son of Shimeah, David’s brother, killed him.

These four were descendants of Rapha in Gath, and they fell at the hands of David and his men.

CHAPTER 22

David sang to the LORD the words of this song when the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies and from the hand of Saul.

He said: “The LORD is my rock, my fortress and my deliverer; my God is my rock, in whom I take refuge, my shield and the horn [Horn here symbolises strength.] of my salvation. He is my stronghold, my refuge and my saviour — from violent men you save me.

I call to the LORD, who is worthy of praise, and I am saved from my enemies.

“The waves of death swirled about me; the torrents of destruction overwhelmed me.
The cords of the grave [Hebrew Sheol] coiled around me; the snares of death confronted me.

In my distress I called to the LORD; I called out to my God. From his temple he heard my voice; my cry came to his ears.

“The earth trembled and quaked, the foundations of the heavens [Hebrew; Vulgate and Syriac (see also Psalm 18:7) mountains] shook; they trembled because he was angry.

Smoke rose from his nostrils; consuming fire came from his mouth, burning coals blazed out of it.

He parted the heavens and came down; dark clouds were under his feet.

He mounted the cherubim and flew; he soared [Many Hebrew manuscripts (see also Psalm 18:10); most Hebrew manuscripts appeared] on the wings of the wind.

Out of the brightness of his presence bolts of lightning blazed forth.

The LORD thundered from heaven; the voice of the Most High resounded.

He shot arrows and scattered the enemies, bolts of lightning and routed them.

The valleys of the sea were exposed and the foundations of the earth laid bare at the rebuke of the LORD, at the blast of breath from his nostrils.

“He reached down from on high and took hold of me; he drew me out of deep waters.

He rescued me from my powerful enemy, from my foes, who were too strong for me.

They confronted me in the day of my disaster, but the LORD was my support.
He brought me out into a spacious place; he rescued me because he delighted in me.

“The LORD has dealt with me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands he has rewarded me.

For I have kept the ways of the LORD; I have not done evil by turning from my God.

All his laws are before me; I have not turned away from his decrees.

I have been blameless before him and have kept myself from sin.

The LORD has rewarded me according to my righteousness, according to my cleanness [Hebrew; Septuagint and Vulgate (see also Psalm 18:24) to the cleanness of my hands] in his sight.

“To the faithful you show yourself faithful, to the blameless you show yourself blameless, to the pure you show yourself pure, but to the crooked you show yourself shrewd.

You save the humble, but your eyes are on the haughty to bring them low.

You are my lamp, O LORD; the LORD turns my darkness into light.

With your help I can advance against a troop; [Or can run through a barricade] with my God I can scale a wall.

“As for God, his way is perfect; the word of the LORD is flawless. He is a shield for all who take refuge in him.

For who is God besides the LORD? And who is the Rock except our God?

It is God who arms me with strength [Dead Sea Scrolls, some Septuagint manuscripts, Vulgate and Syriac (see also Psalm 18:32); Masoretic Text who is my strong refuge] and makes my way perfect.

2Sa. 22:34 He makes my feet like the feet of a deer; he enables me to stand on the heights.

2Sa. 22:35 He trains my hands for battle; my arms can bend a bow of bronze.

2Sa. 22:36 You give me your shield of victory; you stoop down to make me great.

2Sa. 22:37 You broaden the path beneath me, so that my ankles do not turn over.

2Sa. 22:38 “I pursued my enemies and crushed them; I did not turn back till they were destroyed.

2Sa. 22:39 I crushed them completely, and they could not rise; they fell beneath my feet.

2Sa. 22:40 You armed me with strength for battle; you made my adversaries bow at my feet.

2Sa. 22:41 You made my enemies turn their backs in flight, and I destroyed my foes.

2Sa. 22:42 They cried for help, but there was no-one to save them — to the LORD, but he did not answer.

2Sa. 22:43 I beat them as fine as the dust of the earth; I pounded and trampled them like mud in the streets.

2Sa. 22:44 “You have delivered me from the attacks of my people; you have preserved me as the head of nations. People I did not know are subject to me,

2Sa. 22:45 and foreigners come cringing to me; as soon as they hear me, they obey me.

2Sa. 22:46 They all lose heart; they come trembling [Some Septuagint manuscripts and Vulgate (see also Psalm 18:45); Masoretic Text they arm themselves.] from their strongholds.
“The LORD lives! Praise be to my Rock! Exalted be God, the Rock, my Saviour!

He is the God who avenges me, who puts the nations under me, who sets me free from my enemies. You exalted me above my foes; from violent men you rescued me.

Therefore I will praise you, O LORD, among the nations; I will sing praises to your name.

He gives his king great victories; he shows unfailing kindness to his anointed, to David and his descendants for ever.”

CHAPTER 23

These are the last words of David: “The oracle of David son of Jesse, the oracle of the man exalted by the Most High, the man anointed by the God of Jacob, Israel’s singer of songs: [Or Israel’s beloved singer]

“The Spirit of the LORD spoke through me; his word was on my tongue.

The God of Israel spoke, the Rock of Israel said to me: ‘When one rules over men in righteousness, when he rules in the fear of God, he is like the light of morning at sunrise on a cloudless morning, like the brightness after rain that brings the grass from the earth.’

Is not my house right with God? Has he not made with me an everlasting covenant, arranged and secured in every part? Will he not bring to fruition my salvation and grant me my every desire?

But evil men are all to be cast aside like thorns, which are not gathered with the hand.
2Sa. 23:7 Whoever touches thorns uses a tool of iron or the shaft of a spear; they are burned up where they lie.”

2Sa. 23:8 These are the names of David’s mighty men: Josheb-Basshebeth, [Hebrew; some Septuagint manuscripts suggest Ish-Bosheth, that is, Esh-Baal (see also 1 Chron. 11:11 Jashobeam).] a Tahkemonite, [Probably a variant of Hacmonite (see 1 Chron. 11:11)] was chief of the Three; he raised his spear against eight hundred men, whom he killed [Some Septuagint manuscripts (see also 1 Chron. 11:11); Hebrew and other Septuagint manuscripts Three; it was Adino the Eznite who killed eight hundred men] in one encounter.

2Sa. 23:9 Next to him was Eleazar son of Dodai the Ahohite. As one of the three mighty men, he was with David when they taunted the Philistines gathered at Pas Dammim [See 1 Chron. 11:13; Hebrew gathered there.] for battle. Then the men of Israel retreated, 2Sa. 23:10 but he stood his ground and struck down the Philistines till his hand grew tired and froze to the sword. The LORD brought about a great victory that day. The troops returned to Eleazar, but only to strip the dead.

2Sa. 23:11 Next to him was Shammah son of Agee the Hararite. When the Philistines banded together at a place where there was a field full of lentils, Israel’s troops fled from them.

2Sa. 23:12 But Shammah took his stand in the middle of the field. He defended it and struck the Philistines down, and the LORD brought about a great victory.

2Sa. 23:13 During harvest time, three of the thirty chief men came down to David at the cave of Adullam, while a band of Philistines was encamped in the Valley of Rephaim.

2Sa. 23:14 At that time David was in the stronghold, and the Philistine garrison was at Bethlehem.
David longed for water and said, "Oh, that someone would get me a drink of water from the well near the gate of Bethlehem!"

So the three mighty men broke through the Philistine lines, drew water from the well near the gate of Bethlehem and carried it back to David. But he refused to drink it; instead, he poured it out before the LORD.

"Far be it from me, O LORD, to do this!" he said. "Is it not the blood of men who went at the risk of their lives?" And David would not drink it. Such were the exploits of the three mighty men.

Abishai the brother of Joab son of Zeruiah was chief of the Three. [Most Hebrew manuscripts (see also 1 Chron. 11:20); two Hebrew manuscripts and Syriac Thirty] He raised his spear against three hundred men, whom he killed, and so he became as famous as the Three.

Was he not held in greater honour than the Three? He became their commander, even though he was not included among them.

Benaiah son of Jehoiada was a valiant fighter from Kabzeel, who performed great exploits. He struck down two of Moab’s best men. He also went down into a pit on a snowy day and killed a lion.

And he struck down a huge Egyptian. Although the Egyptian had a spear in his hand, Benaiah went against him with a club. He snatched the spear from the Egyptian’s hand and killed him with his own spear.

Such were the exploits of Benaiah son of Jehoiada; he too was as famous as the three mighty men.

He was held in greater honour than any of the Thirty, but he was not included among the Three. And David put him in charge of his bodyguard.

Among the Thirty were: Asahel the brother of Joab, Elhanan son of Dodo from Bethlehem,
Shammah the Harodite, Elika the Harodite,
Helez the Paltite, Ira son of Ikkesh from Tekoa,
Abiezer from Anathoth, Mebunnai [Hebrew; some Septuagint manuscripts (see also 1 Chron. 11:29) Sibbecai] the Hushathite, Zalmon the Alohite, Maharai the Netophathite,
Heled [Some Hebrew manuscripts and Vulgate (see also 1 Chron. 11:30); most Hebrew manuscripts Heleb] son of Baanah the Netophathite, Ithai son of Ribai from Gibeah in Benjamin,
Benaiah the Pirathonite, Hiddai [Hebrew; some Septuagint manuscripts (see also 1 Chron. 11:32) Hurai] from the ravines of Gaash,
Abi-Albon the Arbathite, Azmaveth the Barhumite, Eliahab the Shaalbonite, the sons of Jashen, Jonathan son of [Some Septuagint manuscripts (see also 1 Chron. 11:34); Hebrew does not have son of.] Shammah the Hararite, Ahiam son of Sharar [Hebrew; some Septuagint manuscripts (see also 1 Chron. 11:35) Sacar] the Hararite, Eliphelet son of Ahasbai the Maacathite, Eliam son of Ahithophel the Gilonite, Hezro the Carmelite, Paarai the Arbite,
Igal son of Nathan from Zobah, the son of Hagri, [Some Septuagint manuscripts (see also 1 Chron. 11:38); Hebrew Haggadi]
Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Beerothite, the armour-bearer of Joab son of Zeruiah, Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite and Uriah the Hittite. There were thirty-seven in all.
Again the anger of the LORD burned against Israel, and he incited David against them, saying, “Go and take a census of Israel and Judah.”

So the king said to Joab and the army commanders [Septuagint (see also verse 4 and 1 Chron. 21:2); Hebrew Joab the army commander] with him, “Go throughout the tribes of Israel from Dan to Beersheba and enrol the fighting men, so that I may know how many there are.”

But Joab replied to the king, “May the LORD your God multiply the troops a hundred times over, and may the eyes of my lord the king see it. But why does my lord the king want to do such a thing?”

The king’s word, however, overruled Joab and the army commanders; so they left the presence of the king to enrol the fighting men of Israel.

After crossing the Jordan, they camped near Aroer, south of the town in the gorge, and then went through Gad and on to Jazer.

They went to Gilead and the region of Tahtim Hodshi, and on to Dan Jaan and around towards Sidon.

Then they went towards the fortress of Tyre and all the towns of the Hivites and Canaanites. Finally, they went on to Beersheba in the Negev of Judah.

After they had gone through the entire land, they came back to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days.

Joab reported the number of the fighting men to the king: In Israel there were eight hundred thousand able-bodied men who could handle a sword, and in Judah five hundred thousand.

David was conscience-stricken after he had counted the fighting men, and he said to the LORD, “I have sinned greatly in what I have done. Now, O LORD, I beg you, take away the guilt of your servant. I have done a very foolish thing.”

2Sa. 24:11 Before David got up the next morning, the word of the LORD had come to Gad the prophet, David’s seer:

2Sa. 24:12 “Go and tell David, ‘This is what the LORD says: I am giving you three options. Choose one of them for me to carry out against you.’”

2Sa. 24:13 So Gad went to David and said to him, “Shall there come upon you three [Septuagint (see also 1 Chron. 21:12); Hebrew seven] years of famine in your land? Or three months of fleeing from your enemies while they pursue you? Or three days of plague in your land? Now then, think it over and decide how I should answer the one who sent me.”

2Sa. 24:14 David said to Gad, “I am in deep distress. Let us fall into the hands of the LORD, for his mercy is great; but do not let me fall into the hands of men.”

2Sa. 24:15 So the LORD sent a plague on Israel from that morning until the end of the time designated, and seventy thousand of the people from Dan to Beersheba died.

2Sa. 24:16 When the angel stretched out his hand to destroy Jerusalem, the LORD was grieved because of the calamity and said to the angel who was afflicting the people, “Enough! Withdraw your hand.” The angel of the LORD was then at the threshing-floor of Araunah the Jebusite.

2Sa. 24:17 When David saw the angel who was striking down the people, he said to the LORD, “I am the one who has sinned and done wrong. These are but sheep. What have they done? Let your hand fall upon me and my family.”

2Sa. 24:18 On that day Gad went to David and said to him, “Go up and build an altar to the LORD on the threshing-floor of Araunah the Jebusite.”

2Sa. 24:19 So David went up, as the LORD had commanded through Gad.
When Araunah looked and saw the king and his men coming towards him, he went out and bowed down before the king with his face to the ground.

Araunah said, “Why has my lord the king come to his servant?” “To buy your threshing-floor,” David answered, “so that I can build an altar to the LORD, that the plague on the people may be stopped.”

Araunah said to David, “Let my lord the king take whatever pleases him and offer it up. Here are oxen for the burnt offering, and here are threshing-sledges and ox yokes for the wood.

king, Araunah gives all this to the king.” Araunah also said to him, “May the LORD your God accept you.”

But the king replied to Araunah, “No, I insist on paying you for it. I will not sacrifice to the LORD my God burnt offerings that cost me nothing.” So David bought the threshing-floor and the oxen and paid fifty shekels [That is, about 1 1/4 pounds (about 0.6 kilogram)] of silver for them.

David built an altar to the LORD there and sacrificed burnt offerings and fellowship offerings. [Traditionally peace offerings] Then the LORD answered prayer on behalf of the land, and the plague on Israel was stopped.
When King David was old and well advanced in years, he could not keep warm even when they put covers over him.

So his servants said to him, “Let us look for a young virgin to attend the king and take care of him. She can lie beside him so that our lord the king may keep warm.”

Then they searched throughout Israel for a beautiful girl and found Abishag, a Shunammite, and brought her to the king. The girl was very beautiful; she took care of the king and waited on him, but the king had no intimate relations with her.

Now Adonijah, whose mother was Haggith, put himself forward and said, “I will be king.” So he got chariots and horses [Or charioteers] ready, with fifty men to run ahead of him.

(His father had never interfered with him by asking, “Why do you behave as you do?” He was also very handsome and was born next after Absalom.)

Adonijah conferred with Joab son of Zeruiah and with Abiathar the priest, and they gave him their support.

But Zadok the priest, Benaiah son of Jehoiada, Nathan the prophet, Shimei and Rei [Or and his friends] and David’s special guard did not join Adonijah.

Adonijah then sacrificed sheep, cattle and fattened calves at the Stone of Zoheleth near En Rogel. He invited all his brothers, the king’s sons, and all the men of Judah who were royal officials, but he did not invite Nathan the prophet or Benaiah or the special guard or his brother Solomon.

Then Nathan asked Bathsheba, Solomon’s mother, “Have you not heard that Adonijah, the son of Haggith, has become king without our lord David’s knowing it?

Now then, let me advise you how you can save your own life and the life of your son Solomon.

Go in to King David and say to him, ‘My lord the king, did you not swear to me your servant: “Surely Solomon your son shall be king after me, and he will sit on my throne”? Why then has Adonijah become king?’

While you are still there talking to the king, I will come in and confirm what you have said.”

So Bathsheba went to see the aged king in his room, where Abishag the Shunammite was attending him.

Bathsheba bowed low and knelt before the king. “What is it you want?” the king asked.

She said to him, “My lord, you yourself swore to me your servant by the LORD your God: ‘Solomon your son shall become king after me, and he will sit on my throne.’

But now Adonijah has become king, and you, my lord the king, do not know about it.

He has sacrificed great numbers of cattle, fattened calves, and sheep, and has invited all the king’s sons, Abiathar the priest and Joab the commander of the army, but he has not invited Solomon your servant.

My lord the king, the eyes of all Israel are on you, to learn from you who will sit on the throne of my lord the king after him.

Otherwise, as soon as my lord the king is laid to rest with his fathers, I and my son Solomon will be treated as criminals.”
While she was still speaking with the king, Nathan the prophet arrived.

And they told the king, “Nathan the prophet is here.” So he went before the king and bowed with his face to the ground.

Nathan said, “Have you, my lord the king, declared that Adonijah shall be king after you, and that he will sit on your throne?

Today he has gone down and sacrificed great numbers of cattle, fattened calves, and sheep. He has invited all the king’s sons, the commanders of the army and Abiathar the priest. At this very moment they are eating and drinking with him and saying, ‘Long live King Adonijah!’

But me your servant, and Zadok the priest, and Benaiah son of Jehoiada, and your servant Solomon he did not invite.

Is this something my lord the king has done without letting his servants know who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him?”

Then King David said, “Call in Bathsheba.” So she came into the king’s presence and stood before him.

The king then took an oath: “As surely as the LORD lives, who has delivered me out of every trouble,

I will surely carry out today what I swore to you by the LORD, the God of Israel: Solomon your son shall be king after me, and he will sit on my throne in my place.”

Then Bathsheba bowed low with her face to the ground and, kneeling before the king, said, “May my lord King David live for ever!”

King David said, “Call in Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet and Benaiah son of Jehoiada.” When they came before the king, he said to them: “Take your lord’s servants with you and set Solomon my son on my own mule and take him down to Gihon.

1Kg. 1:34  There shall Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet anoint him king over Israel. Blow the trumpet and shout, `Long live King Solomon!'

1Kg. 1:35  Then you are to go up with him, and he is to come and sit on my throne and reign in my place. I have appointed him ruler over Israel and Judah.”

1Kg. 1:36  Benaiyah son of Jehoiada answered the king, “Amen! May the LORD, the God of my lord the king, so declare it.

1Kg. 1:37  As the LORD was with my lord the king, so may he be with Solomon to make his throne even greater than the throne of my lord King David!”

1Kg. 1:38  So Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benaiyah son of Jehoiada, the Kerethites and the Pelethites went down and put Solomon on King David’s mule and escorted him to Gihon.

1Kg. 1:39  Zadok the priest took the horn of oil from the sacred tent and anointed Solomon. Then they sounded the trumpet and all the people shouted, “Long live King Solomon!”

1Kg. 1:40  And all the people went up after him, playing flutes and rejoicing greatly, so that the ground shook with the sound.

1Kg. 1:41  Adonijah and all the guests who were with him heard it as they were finishing their feast. On hearing the sound of the trumpet, Joab asked, “What’s the meaning of all the noise in the city?”

1Kg. 1:42  Even as he was speaking, Jonathan son of Abiathar the priest arrived. Adonijah said, “Come in. A worthy man like you must be bringing good news.”

1Kg. 1:43  “Not at all!” Jonathan answered. “Our lord King David has made Solomon king.

1Kg. 1:44  The king has sent with him Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benaiyah son of Jehoiada, the Kerethites and the Pelethites, and they have put him on the king’s mule, and Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king at Gihon. From there they have gone up cheering, and the city resounds with it. That’s the noise you hear.

Moreover, Solomon has taken his seat on the royal throne.

Also, the royal officials have come to congratulate our lord King David, saying, ‘May your God make Solomon’s name more famous than yours and his throne greater than yours!’

And the king bowed in worship on his bed and said, ‘Praise be to the LORD, the God of Israel, who has allowed my eyes to see a successor on my throne today.’“

At this, all Adonijah’s guests rose in alarm and dispersed.

But Adonijah, in fear of Solomon, went and took hold of the horns of the altar.

Then Solomon was told, “Adonijah is afraid of King Solomon and is clinging to the horns of the altar. He says, ‘Let King Solomon swear to me today that he will not put his servant to death with the sword.’”

Solomon replied, “If he shows himself to be a worthy man, not a hair of his head will fall to the ground; but if evil is found in him, he will die.”

Then King Solomon sent men, and they brought him down from the altar. And Adonijah came and bowed down to King Solomon, and Solomon said, “Go to your home.”

CHAPTER 2

When the time drew near for David to die, he gave a charge to Solomon his son.

“I am about to go the way of all the earth,” he said. “So be strong, show yourself a man, and observe what the LORD your God requires: Walk in his ways, and keep his decrees and commands, his laws and requirements, as written in the Law of Moses, so that you may prosper in all you do and wherever you go,

1Kg. 2:4 and that the LORD may keep his promise to me: ‘If your descendants watch how they live, and if they walk faithfully before me with all their heart and soul, you will never fail to have a man on the throne of Israel.’

1Kg. 2:5 “Now you yourself know what Joab son of Zeruiah did to me — what he did to the two commanders of Israel’s armies, Abner son of Ner and Amasa son of Jether. He killed them, shedding their blood in peacetime as if in battle, and with that blood stained the belt round his waist and the sandals on his feet.

1Kg. 2:6 Deal with him according to your wisdom, but do not let his grey head go down to the grave [Hebrew Sheol; also in verse 9] in peace.

1Kg. 2:7 “But show kindness to the sons of Barzillai of Gilead and let them be among those who eat at your table. They stood by me when I fled from your brother Absalom.

1Kg. 2:8 “And remember, you have with you Shimei son of Gera, the Benjamite from Bahurim, who called down bitter curses on me the day I went to Mahanaim. When he came down to meet me at the Jordan, I swore to him by the LORD: ‘I will not put you to death by the sword.’

1Kg. 2:9 But now, do not consider him innocent. You are a man of wisdom; you will know what to do to him. Bring his grey head down to the grave in blood.”

1Kg. 2:10 Then David rested with his fathers and was buried in the City of David.

1Kg. 2:11 He had reigned for forty years over Israel — seven years in Hebron and thirty-three in Jerusalem.

1Kg. 2:12 So Solomon sat on the throne of his father David, and his rule was firmly established.
Now Adonijah, the son of Haggith, went to Bathsheba, Solomon’s mother. Bathsheba asked him, “Do you come peacefully?” He answered, “Yes, peacefully.”

Then he added, “I have something to say to you.” “You may say it,” she replied.

“As you know,” he said, “the kingdom was mine. All Israel looked to me as their king. But things changed, and the kingdom has gone to my brother; for it has come to him from the LORD.

Now I have one request to make of you. Do not refuse me.” “You may make it,” she said.

So he continued, “Please ask King Solomon — he will not refuse you — to give me Abishag the Shunammite as my wife.”

“Very well,” Bathsheba replied, “I will speak to the king for you.”

When Bathsheba went to King Solomon to speak to him for Adonijah, the king stood up to meet her, bowed down to her and sat down on his throne. He had a throne brought for the king’s mother, and she sat down at his right hand.

“I have one small request to make of you,” she said. “Do not refuse me.” The king replied, “Make it, my mother; I will not refuse you.”

So she said, “Let Abishag the Shunammite be given in marriage to your brother Adonijah.”

King Solomon answered his mother, “Why do you request Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? You might as well request the kingdom for him — after all, he is my older brother — yes, for him and for Abiathar the priest and Joab son of Zeruiah!”

Then King Solomon swore by the LORD: “May God deal with me, be it ever so severely, if Adonijah does not pay with his life for this request!”
And now, as surely as the LORD lives — he who has established me securely on the throne of my father David and has founded a dynasty for me as he promised — Adonijah shall be put to death today!

So King Solomon gave orders to Benaiah son of Jehoiada, and he struck down Adonijah and he died.

To Abiathar the priest the king said, “Go back to your fields in Anathoth. You deserve to die, but I will not put you to death now, because you carried the ark of the Sovereign LORD before my father David and shared all my father’s hardships.”

So Solomon removed Abiathar from the priesthood of the LORD, fulfilling the word the LORD had spoken at Shiloh about the house of Eli.

When the news reached Joab, who had conspired with Adonijah though not with Absalom, he fled to the tent of the LORD and took hold of the horns of the altar.

King Solomon was told that Joab had fled to the tent of the LORD and was beside the altar. Then Solomon ordered Benaiah son of Jehoiada, “Go, strike him down!”

So Benaiah entered the tent of the LORD and said to Joab, “The king says, ‘Come out!’“ But he answered, “No, I will die here.” Benaiah reported to the king, “This is how Joab answered me.”

Then the king commanded Benaiah, “Do as he says. Strike him down and bury him, and so clear me and my father’s house of the guilt of the innocent blood that Joab shed.

The LORD will repay him for the blood he shed, because without the knowledge of my father David he attacked two men and killed them with the sword. Both of them — Abner son of Ner, commander of Israel’s army, and Amasa son of Jether, commander of Judah’s army — were better men and more upright than he.
May the guilt of their blood rest on the head of Joab and his descendants for ever. But on David and his descendants, his house and his throne, may there be the LORD’s peace for ever.”

So Benaiah son of Jehoiada went up and struck down Joab and killed him, and he was buried on his own land [Or buried in his tomb] in the desert.

The king put Benaiah son of Jehoiada over the army in Joab’s position and replaced Abiathar with Zadok the priest.

Then the king sent for Shimei and said to him, “Build yourself a house in Jerusalem and live there, but do not go anywhere else.

The day you leave and cross the Kidron Valley, you can be sure you will die; your blood will be on your own head.”

Shimei answered the king, “What you say is good. Your servant will do as my lord the king has said.” And Shimei stayed in Jerusalem for a long time.

But three years later, two of Shimei’s slaves ran off to Achish son of Maacah, king of Gath, and Shimei was told, “Your slaves are in Gath.”

At this, he saddled his donkey and went to Achish at Gath in search of his slaves. So Shimei went away and brought the slaves back from Gath.

When Solomon was told that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath and had returned, the king summoned Shimei and said to him, “Did I not make you swear by the LORD and warn you, ‘On the day you leave to go anywhere else, you can be sure you will die’? At that time you said to me, ‘What you say is good. I will obey.’

Why then did you not keep your oath to the LORD and obey the command I gave you?”
1Kg. 2:44 The king also said to Shimei, “You know in your heart all the wrong you did to my father David. Now the LORD will repay you for your wrongdoing.

1Kg. 2:45 But King Solomon will be blessed, and David’s throne will remain secure before the LORD for ever.”

1Kg. 2:46 Then the king gave the order to Benaiah son of Jehoiada, and he went out and struck Shimei down and killed him. The kingdom was now firmly established in Solomon’s hands.

CHAPTER 3

1Kg. 3:1 Solomon made an alliance with Pharaoh king of Egypt and married his daughter. He brought her to the City of David until he finished building his palace and the temple of the LORD, and the wall around Jerusalem.

1Kg. 3:2 The people, however, were still sacrificing at the high places, because a temple had not yet been built for the Name of the LORD.

1Kg. 3:3 Solomon showed his love for the LORD by walking according to the statutes of his father David, except that he offered sacrifices and burned incense on the high places.

1Kg. 3:4 The king went to Gibeon to offer sacrifices, for that was the most important high place, and Solomon offered a thousand burnt offerings on that altar.

1Kg. 3:5 At Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon during the night in a dream, and God said, “Ask for whatever you want me to give you.”

1Kg. 3:6 Solomon answered, “You have shown great kindness to your servant, my father David, because he was faithful to you and righteous and upright in heart. You have continued this great kindness to him and have given him a son to sit on his throne this very day.
“Now, O LORD my God, you have made your servant king in place of my father David. But I am only a little child and do not know how to carry out my duties.

Your servant is here among the people you have chosen, a great people, too numerous to count or number.

So give your servant a discerning heart to govern your people and to distinguish between right and wrong. For who is able to govern this great people of yours?”

The Lord was pleased that Solomon had asked for this.

So God said to him, “Since you have asked for this and not for long life or wealth for yourself, nor have asked for the death of your enemies but for discernment in administering justice,

I will do what you have asked. I will give you a wise and discerning heart, so that there will never have been anyone like you, nor will there ever be.

Moreover, I will give you what you have not asked for — both riches and honour — so that in your lifetime you will have no equal among kings.

And if you walk in my ways and obey my statutes and commands as David your father did, I will give you a long life.”

Then Solomon awoke — and he realised it had been a dream. He returned to Jerusalem, stood before the ark of the Lord’s covenant and sacrificed burnt offerings and fellowship offerings. [Traditionally peace offerings] Then he gave a feast for all his court.

Now two prostitutes came to the king and stood before him.

One of them said, “My lord, this woman and I live in the same house. I had a baby while she was there with me.

The third day after my child was born, this woman also had a baby. We were alone; there was no-one in the house but the two of us.
1Kg. 3:19 “During the night this woman’s son died because she lay on him.

1Kg. 3:20 So she got up in the middle of the night and took my son from my side while I your servant was asleep. She put him by her breast and put her dead son by my breast.

1Kg. 3:21 The next morning, I got up to nurse my son — and he was dead! But when I looked at him closely in the morning light, I saw that it wasn’t the son I had borne.”

1Kg. 3:22 The other woman said, “No! The living one is my son; the dead one is yours.” But the first one insisted, “No! The dead one is yours; the living one is mine.” And so they argued before the king.

1Kg. 3:23 The king said, “This one says, ‘My son is alive and your son is dead,’ while that one says, ‘No! Your son is dead and mine is alive.’”

1Kg. 3:24 Then the king said, “Bring me a sword.” So they brought a sword for the king.

1Kg. 3:25 He then gave an order: “Cut the living child in two and give half to one and half to the other.”

1Kg. 3:26 The woman whose son was alive was filled with compassion for her son and said to the king, “Please, my lord, give her the living baby! Don’t kill him!” But the other said, “Neither I nor you shall have him. Cut him in two!”

1Kg. 3:27 Then the king gave his ruling: “Give the living baby to the first woman. Do not kill him; she is his mother.”

1Kg. 3:28 When all Israel heard the verdict the king had given, they held the king in awe, because they saw that he had wisdom from God to administer justice.

CHAPTER 4

1Kg. 4:1 So King Solomon ruled over all Israel.
And these were his chief officials: Azariah son of Zadok — the priest;

Elihoreph and Ahijah, sons of Shisha — secretaries;
Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud — recorder;

Benaiah son of Jehoiada — commander-in-chief; Zadok and Abiathar — priests;

Azariah son of Nathan — in charge of the district officers;
Zabud son of Nathan — a priest and personal adviser to the king;

Ahishar — in charge of the palace; Adoniram son of Abda — in charge of forced labour.

Solomon also had twelve district governors over all Israel, who supplied provisions for the king and the royal household. Each one had to provide supplies for one month in the year.

Ben-Hur — in the hill country of Ephraim;

Ben-Deker — in Makaz, Shaalbim, Beth Shemesh and Elon Bethhanan;

Ben-Hesed — in Arubboth (Socoh and all the land of Hepher were his);

Ben-Abinadab — in Naphoth Dor [Or in the heights of Dor] (he was married to Taphath daughter of Solomon);

Baana son of Ahilud — in Taanach and Megiddo, and in all of Beth Shan next to Zarethan below Jezreel, from Beth Shan to Abel Meholah across to Jokmeam;

Ben-Geber — in Ramoth Gilead (the settlements of Jair son of Manasseh in Gilead were his, as well as the district of Argob in Bashan and its sixty large walled cities with bronze gate bars);

Ahinadab son of Iddo — in Mahanaim;

Ahimaaz — in Naphtali (he had married Basemath daughter of Solomon);
Baana son of Hushai — in Asher and in Aloth;

Jehoshaphat son of Paruah — in Issachar;

Shimei son of Ela — in Benjamin;

Geber son of Uri — in Gilead (the country of Sihon king of the Amorites and the country of Og king of Bashan). He was the only governor over the district.

The people of Judah and Israel were as numerous as the sand on the seashore; they ate, they drank and they were happy.

And Solomon ruled over all the kingdoms from the River [That is, the Euphrates; also in verse 24] to the land of the Philistines, as far as the border of Egypt. These countries brought tribute and were Solomon’s subjects all his life.

Solomon’s daily provisions were thirty cors [That is, probably about 180 bushels (about 6.6 kilolitres)] of fine flour and sixty cors [That is, probably about 365 bushels (about 13.2 kilolitres)] of meal, ten head of stall-fed cattle, twenty of pasture-fed cattle and a hundred sheep and goats, as well as deer, gazelles, roebucks and choice fowl.

For he ruled over all the kingdoms west of the River, from Tiphsah to Gaza, and had peace on all sides.

During Solomon’s lifetime Judah and Israel, from Dan to Beersheba, lived in safety, each man under his own vine and fig-tree.

Solomon had four [Some Septuagint manuscripts (see also 2 Chron. 9:25); Hebrew forty] thousand stalls for chariot horses, and twelve thousand horses. [Or charioteers]

The district officers, each in his month, supplied provisions for King Solomon and all who came to the king’s table. They saw to it that nothing was lacking.

They also brought to the proper place their quotas of barley and straw for the chariot horses and the other horses.
God gave Solomon wisdom and very great insight, and a breadth of understanding as measureless as the sand on the seashore.

Solomon’s wisdom was greater than the wisdom of all the men of the East, and greater than all the wisdom of Egypt.

He was wiser than any other man, including Ethan the Ezrahite — wiser than Heman, Calcol and Darda, the sons of Mahol. And his fame spread to all the surrounding nations.

He spoke three thousand proverbs and his songs numbered a thousand and five.

He described plant life, from the cedar of Lebanon to the hyssop that grows out of walls. He also taught about animals and birds, reptiles and fish.

Men of all nations came to listen to Solomon’s wisdom, sent by all the kings of the world, who had heard of his wisdom.

CHAPTER 5

When Hiram king of Tyre heard that Solomon had been anointed king to succeed his father David, he sent his envoys to Solomon, because he had always been on friendly terms with David.

Solomon sent back this message to Hiram:

“You know that because of the wars waged against my father David from all sides, he could not build a temple for the Name of the LORD his God until the LORD put his enemies under his feet.

But now the LORD my God has given me rest on every side, and there is no adversary or disaster.

I intend, therefore, to build a temple for the Name of the LORD my God, as the LORD told my father David, when he said, ‘Your son whom I will put on the throne in your place will build the temple for my Name.’
1Kg. 5:6  “So give orders that cedars of Lebanon be cut for me. My men will work with yours, and I will pay you for your men whatever wages you set. You know that we have no-one so skilled in felling timber as the Sidonians.”

1Kg. 5:7  When Hiram heard Solomon’s message, he was greatly pleased and said, “Praise be to the LORD today, for he has given David a wise son to rule over this great nation.”

1Kg. 5:8  So Hiram sent word to Solomon: “I have received the message you sent me and will do all you want in providing the cedar and pine logs.

1Kg. 5:9  My men will haul them down from Lebanon to the sea, and I will float them in rafts by sea to the place you specify. There I will separate them and you can take them away. And you are to grant my wish by providing food for my royal household.”

1Kg. 5:10  In this way Hiram kept Solomon supplied with all the cedar and pine logs he wanted,

CHAPTER 5

1Kg. 5:11  and Solomon gave Hiram twenty thousand cors [That is, probably about 121,000 bushels (about 4,400 kilolitres)] of wheat as food for his household, in addition to twenty thousand baths [Septuagint (see also 2 Chron. 2:10); Hebrew twenty cors] [That is, about 97,000 gallons (about 440 kilolitres)] of pressed olive oil. Solomon continued to do this for Hiram year after year.

1Kg. 5:12  The LORD gave Solomon wisdom, just as he had promised him. There were peaceful relations between Hiram and Solomon, and the two of them made a treaty.

1Kg. 5:13  King Solomon conscripted labourers from all Israel — thirty thousand men.

1Kg. 5:14  He sent them off to Lebanon in shifts of ten thousand a month, so that they spent one month in Lebanon and two months at home. Adoniram was in charge of the forced labour.

1Kg. 5:15 Solomon had seventy thousand carriers and eighty thousand stonecutters in the hills, as well as thirty-three hundred [Hebrew; some Septuagint manuscripts (see also 2 Chron. 2:2, 18) thirty-six hundred] foremen who supervised the project and directed the workmen.

1Kg. 5:17 At the king’s command they removed from the quarry large blocks of quality stone to provide a foundation of dressed stone for the temple.

1Kg. 5:18 The craftsmen of Solomon and Hiram and the men of Gebal [That is, Byblos] cut and prepared the timber and stone for the building of the temple.

CHAPTER 6

1Kg. 6:1 In the four hundred and eightieth [Hebrew; Septuagint four hundred and fortieth] year after the Israelites had come out of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon’s reign over Israel, in the month of Ziv, the second month, he began to build the temple of the LORD.

1Kg. 6:2 The temple that King Solomon built for the LORD was sixty cubits long, twenty wide and thirty high. [That is, about 90 feet (about 27 metres) long and 30 feet (about 9 metres) wide and 45 feet (about 13.5 metres) high]

1Kg. 6:3 The portico at the front of the main hall of the temple extended the width of the temple, that is twenty cubits. [That is, about 30 feet (about 9 metres)] and projected ten cubits [That is, about 15 feet (about 4.5 metres)] from the front of the temple.

1Kg. 6:4 He made narrow clerestory windows in the temple.
Against the walls of the main hall and inner sanctuary he built a structure around the building, in which there were side rooms.

The lowest floor was five cubits [That is, about 7 1/2 feet (about 2.3 metres); also in verses 10 and 24] wide, the middle floor six cubits [That is, about 9 feet (about 2.7 metres)] and the third floor seven. [That is, about 10 1/2 feet (about 3.2 metres)] He made offset ledges around the outside of the temple so that nothing would be inserted into the temple walls.

In building the temple, only blocks dressed at the quarry were used, and no hammer, chisel or any other iron tool was heard at the temple site while it was being built.

The entrance to the lowest [Septuagint; Hebrew middle] floor was on the south side of the temple; a stairway led up to the middle level and from there to the third.

So he built the temple and completed it, roofing it with beams and cedar planks.

And he built the side rooms all along the temple. The height of each was five cubits, and they were attached to the temple by beams of cedar.

The word of the LORD came to Solomon:

“As for this temple you are building, if you follow my decrees, carry out my regulations and keep all my commands and obey them, I will fulfil through you the promise I gave to David your father.”

So Solomon built the temple and completed it.

He lined its interior walls with cedar boards, panelling them from the floor of the temple to the ceiling, and covered the floor of the temple with planks of pine.
He partitioned off twenty cubits [That is, about 30 feet (about 9 metres)] at the rear of the temple with cedar boards from floor to ceiling to form within the temple an inner sanctuary, the Most Holy Place.

The main hall in front of this room was forty cubits [That is, about 60 feet (about 18 metres)] long.

The inside of the temple was cedar, carved with gourds and open flowers. Everything was cedar; no stone was to be seen.

He prepared the inner sanctuary within the temple to set the ark of the covenant of the LORD there.

The inner sanctuary was twenty cubits long, twenty wide and twenty high. [That is, about 30 feet (about 9 metres) long, wide and high] He overlaid the inside with pure gold, and he also overlaid the altar of cedar.

Solomon covered the inside of the temple with pure gold, and he extended gold chains across the front of the inner sanctuary, which was overlaid with gold.

So he overlaid the whole interior with gold. He also overlaid with gold the altar that belonged to the inner sanctuary.

In the inner sanctuary he made a pair of cherubim of olive wood, each ten cubits [That is, about 15 feet (about 4.5 metres)] high.

One wing of the first cherub was five cubits long, and the other wing five cubits — ten cubits from wing tip to wing tip.

The second cherub also measured ten cubits, for the two cherubim were identical in size and shape.

The height of each cherub was ten cubits.

He placed the cherubim inside the innermost room of the temple, with their wings spread out. The wing of one cherub touched one wall, while the wing of the other touched the other wall, and their wings touched each other in the middle of the room.
He overlaid the cherubim with gold.

On the walls all round the temple, in both the inner and outer rooms, he carved cherubim, palm trees and open flowers.

He also covered the floors of both the inner and outer rooms of the temple with gold.

For the entrance of the inner sanctuary he made doors of olive wood with five-sided jambs.

And on the two olive wood doors he carved cherubim, palm trees and open flowers, and overlaid the cherubim and palm trees with beaten gold.

In the same way he made four-sided jambs of olive wood for the entrance to the main hall.

He also made two pine doors, each having two leaves that turned in sockets.

He carved cherubim, palm trees and open flowers on them and overlaid them with gold hammered evenly over the carvings.

And he built the inner courtyard of three courses of dressed stone and one course of trimmed cedar beams.

The foundation of the temple of the LORD was laid in the fourth year, in the month of Ziv.

In the eleventh year in the month of Bul, the eighth month, the temple was finished in all its details according to its specifications. He had spent seven years building it.

CHAPTER 7

It took Solomon thirteen years, however, to complete the construction of his palace.

He built the Palace of the Forest of Lebanon a hundred cubits long, fifty wide and thirty high, [That is, about 150 feet (about 46 metres) long, 75 feet (about 23 metres) wide and 45 feet (about 13.5 metres) high] with four rows of cedar columns supporting trimmed cedar beams.

1Kg. 7:3 It was roofed with cedar above the beams that rested on the columns — forty-five beams, fifteen to a row.

1Kg. 7:4 Its windows were placed high in sets of three, facing each other. [The meaning of the Hebrew for this verse is uncertain.]

1Kg. 7:5 All the doorways had rectangular frames; they were in the front part in sets of three, facing each other. [That is, about 15 feet (about 4.5 metres) long and 45 feet (about 13.5 metres) wide] In front of it was a portico, and in front of that were pillars and an overhanging roof.

1Kg. 7:6 He made a colonnade fifty cubits long and thirty wide. [That is, about 75 feet (about 23 metres) long and 45 feet (about 13.5 metres) wide] In front of it was a portico, and in front of that were pillars and an overhanging roof.

1Kg. 7:7 He built the throne hall, the Hall of Justice, where he was to judge, and he covered it with cedar from floor to ceiling. [Vulgate and Syriac; Hebrew floor]

1Kg. 7:8 And the palace in which he was to live, set farther back, was similar in design. Solomon also made a palace like this hall for Pharaoh’s daughter, whom he had married.

1Kg. 7:9 All these structures, from the outside to the great courtyard and from foundation to eaves, were made of blocks of high-grade stone cut to size and trimmed with a saw on their inner and outer faces.

1Kg. 7:10 The foundations were laid with large stones of good quality, some measuring ten cubits [That is, about 15 feet (about 4.5 metres)] and some eight. [That is, about 12 feet (about 3.7 metres)]

1Kg. 7:11 Above were high-grade stones, cut to size, and cedar beams.

1Kg. 7:12 The great courtyard was surrounded by a wall of three courses of dressed stone and one course of trimmed cedar beams, as was the inner courtyard of the temple of the LORD with its portico.
King Solomon sent to Tyre and brought Huram, [Hebrew Hiram, a variant of Huram; also in verses 40 and 45] whose mother was a widow from the tribe of Naphtali and whose father was a man of Tyre and a craftsman in bronze. Huram was highly skilled and experienced in all kinds of bronze work. He came to King Solomon and did all the work assigned to him.

He cast two bronze pillars, each eighteen cubits high and twelve cubits round, [That is, about 27 feet (about 8.2 metres) high and 18 feet (about 5.5 metres) round] by line.

He also made two capitals of cast bronze to set on the tops of the pillars; each capital was five cubits [That is, about 7 1/2 feet (about 2.3 metres); also in verse 23] high.

A network of interwoven chains festooned the capitals on top of the pillars, seven for each capital.

He made pomegranates in two rows [Two Hebrew manuscripts and Septuagint; most Hebrew manuscripts made the pillars, and there were two rows] encircling each network to decorate the capitals on top of the pillars. [Many Hebrew manuscripts and Syriac; most Hebrew manuscripts pomegranates] He did the same for each capital.

The capitals on top of the pillars in the portico were in the shape of lilies, four cubits [That is, about 6 feet (about 1.8 metres); also in verse 38] high.

On the capitals of both pillars, above the bowl-shaped part next to the network, were the two hundred pomegranates in rows all around.

He erected the pillars at the portico of the temple. The pillar to the south he named Jakin [Jakin probably means he establishes.] and the one to the north Boaz. [Boaz probably means in him is strength.]

The capitals on top were in the shape of lilies. And so the work on the pillars was completed.
He made the Sea of cast metal, circular in shape, measuring ten cubits [That is, about 15 feet (about 4.5 metres)] from rim to rim and five cubits high. It took a line of thirty cubits [That is, about 45 feet (about 13.7 metres)] to measure round it.

Below the rim, gourds encircled it — ten to a cubit. The gourds were cast in two rows in one piece with the Sea.

The Sea stood on twelve bulls, three facing north, three facing west, three facing south and three facing east. The Sea rested on top of them, and their hindquarters were towards the centre.

It was a handbreadth [That is, about 3 inches (about 8 centimetres)] in thickness, and its rim was like the rim of a cup, like a lily blossom. It held two thousand baths. [That is, probably about 9,700 gallons (about 44 kilolitres); the Septuagint does not have this sentence.]

He also made ten movable stands of bronze; each was four cubits long, four wide and three high. [That is, about 6 feet (about 1.8 metres) long and wide and about 4 1/2 feet (about 1.4 metres) high]

This is how the stands were made: They had side panels attached to uprights.

On the panels between the uprights were lions, bulls and cherubim — and on the uprights as well. Above and below the lions and bulls were wreaths of hammered work.

Each stand had four bronze wheels with bronze axles, and each had a basin resting on four supports, cast with wreaths on each side.

On the inside of the stand there was an opening that had a circular frame one cubit [That is, about 1 1/2 feet (about 0.5 metre)] deep. This opening was round, and with its basework it measured a cubit and a half. [That is, about 2 1/4 feet (about 0.7 metre); also in verse 32] Around its opening there was engraving. The panels of the stands were square, not round.

1Kg. 7:32 The four wheels were under the panels, and the axles of the wheels were attached to the stand. The diameter of each wheel was a cubit and a half.

1Kg. 7:33 The wheels were made like chariot wheels; the axles, rims, spokes and hubs were all of cast metal.

1Kg. 7:34 Each stand had four handles, one on each corner, projecting from the stand.

1Kg. 7:35 At the top of the stand there was a circular band half a cubit [That is, about 3/4 foot (about 0.2 metre)] deep. The supports and panels were attached to the top of the stand.

1Kg. 7:36 He engraved cherubim, lions and palm trees on the surfaces of the supports and on the panels, in every available space, with wreaths all around.

1Kg. 7:37 This is the way he made the ten stands. They were all cast in the same moulds and were identical in size and shape.

1Kg. 7:38 He then made ten bronze basins, each holding forty baths [That is, about 195 gallons (about 880 litres)] and measuring four cubits across, one basin to go on each of the ten stands.

1Kg. 7:39 He placed five of the stands on the south side of the temple and five on the north. He placed the Sea on the south side, at the south-east corner of the temple.

1Kg. 7:40 He also made the basins and shovels and sprinkling bowls. So Huram finished all the work he had undertaken for King Solomon in the temple of the LORD:

1Kg. 7:41 the two pillars; the two bowl-shaped capitals on top of the pillars; the two sets of network decorating the two bowl-shaped capitals on top of the pillars;

1Kg. 7:42 the four hundred pomegranates for the two sets of network (two rows of pomegranates for each network, decorating the bowl-shaped capitals on top of the pillars);
the ten stands with their ten basins;

the Sea and the twelve bulls under it;

the pots, shovels and sprinkling bowls. All these objects that Huram made for King Solomon for the temple of the LORD were of burnished bronze.

The king had them cast in clay moulds in the plain of the Jordan between Succoth and Zarethan.

Solomon left all these things unweighed, because there were so many; the weight of the bronze was not determined.

Solomon also made all the furnishings that were in the LORD’s temple: the golden altar; the golden table on which was the bread of the Presence; the lampstands of pure gold (five on the right and five on the left, in front of the inner sanctuary); the gold floral work and lamps and tongs;

the pure gold dishes, wick trimmers, sprinkling bowls, dishes and censers; and the gold sockets for the doors of the innermost room, the Most Holy Place, and also for the doors of the main hall of the temple.

When all the work King Solomon had done for the temple of the LORD was finished, he brought in the things his father David had dedicated — the silver and gold and the furnishings — and he placed them in the treasuries of the LORD’s temple.

CHAPTER 8

Then King Solomon summoned into his presence at Jerusalem the elders of Israel, all the heads of the tribes and the chiefs of the Israelite families, to bring up the ark of the LORD’s covenant from Zion, the City of David.
When all the elders of Israel had arrived, the priests took up the ark, and they brought up the ark of the LORD and the Tent of Meeting and all the sacred furnishings in it. The priests and Levites carried them up, and King Solomon and the entire assembly of Israel that had gathered about him were before the ark, sacrificing so many sheep and cattle that they could not be recorded or counted.

The priests then brought the ark of the LORD’s covenant to its place in the inner sanctuary of the temple, the Most Holy Place, and put it beneath the wings of the cherubim.

The cherubim spread their wings over the place of the ark and overshadowed the ark and its carrying poles.

These poles were so long that their ends could be seen from the Holy Place in front of the inner sanctuary, but not from outside the Holy Place; and they are still there today.

There was nothing in the ark except the two stone tablets that Moses had placed in it at Horeb, where the LORD made a covenant with the Israelites after they came out of Egypt.

When the priests withdrew from the Holy Place, the cloud filled the temple of the LORD.

And the priests could not perform their service because of the cloud, for the glory of the LORD filled his temple.

Then Solomon said, “The LORD has said that he would dwell in a dark cloud; I have indeed built a magnificent temple for you, a place for you to dwell for ever.”

While the whole assembly of Israel was standing there, the king turned round and blessed them.
Then he said: “Praise be to the LORD, the God of Israel, who with his own hand has fulfilled what he promised with his own mouth to my father David. For he said,

‘Since the day I brought my people Israel out of Egypt, I have not chosen a city in any tribe of Israel to have a temple built for my Name to be there, but I have chosen David to rule my people Israel.’

“My father David had it in his heart to build a temple for the Name of the LORD, the God of Israel.

But the LORD said to my father David, ‘Because it was in your heart to build a temple for my Name, you did well to have this in your heart.

Nevertheless, you are not the one to build the temple, but your son, who is your own flesh and blood — he is the one who will build the temple for my Name.’

The LORD has kept the promise he made: I have succeeded David my father and now I sit on the throne of Israel, just as the LORD promised, and I have built the temple for the Name of the LORD, the God of Israel.

I have provided a place there for the ark, in which is the covenant of the LORD that he made with our fathers when he brought them out of Egypt.”

Then Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in front of the whole assembly of Israel, spread out his hands towards heaven and said: “O LORD, God of Israel, there is no God like you in heaven above or on earth below — you who keep your covenant of love with your servants who continue wholeheartedly in your way.

You have kept your promise to your servant David my father; with your mouth you have promised and with your hand you have fulfilled it — as it is today.
“Now LORD, God of Israel, keep for your servant David my father the promises you made to him when you said, ‘You shall never fail to have a man to sit before me on the throne of Israel, if only your sons are careful in all they do to walk before me as you have done.’

And now, O God of Israel, let your word that you promised your servant David my father come true.

‘But will God really dwell on earth? The heavens, even the highest heaven, cannot contain you. How much less this temple I have built!

Yet give attention to your servant’s prayer and his plea for mercy, O LORD my God. Hear the cry and the prayer that your servant is praying in your presence this day.

May your eyes be open towards this temple night and day, this place of which you said, ‘My Name shall be there,’ so that you will hear the prayer your servant prays towards this place.

Hear the supplication of your servant and of your people Israel when they pray towards this place. Hear from heaven, your dwelling-place, and when you hear, forgive.

“When a man wrongs his neighbour and is required to take an oath and he comes and swears the oath before your altar in this temple, then hear from heaven and act. Judge between your servants, condemning the guilty and bringing down on his own head what he has done. Declare the innocent not guilty, and so establish his innocence.

“When your people Israel have been defeated by an enemy because they have sinned against you, and when they turn back to you and confess your name, praying and making supplication to you in this temple, then hear from heaven and forgive the sin of your people Israel and bring them back to the land you gave to their fathers.

“When the heavens are shut up and there is no rain because your people have sinned against you, and when they pray towards this place and confess your name and turn from their sin because you have afflicted them, then hear from heaven and forgive the sin of your servants, your people Israel. Teach them the right way to live, and send rain on the land you gave your people for an inheritance.

“When famine or plague comes to the land, or blight or mildew, locusts or grasshoppers, or when an enemy besieges them in any of their cities, whatever disaster or disease may come, and when a prayer or plea is made by any of your people Israel — each one aware of the afflictions of his own heart, and spreading out his hands towards this temple — then hear from heaven, your dwelling-place. Forgive and act; deal with each man according to all he does, since you know his heart (for you alone know the hearts of all men), so that they will fear you all the time they live in the land you gave our fathers.

“As for the foreigner who does not belong to your people Israel but has come from a distant land because of your name — for men will hear of your great name and your mighty hand and your outstretched arm — when he comes and prays towards this temple, then hear from heaven, your dwelling-place, and do whatever the foreigner asks of you, so that all the peoples of the earth may know your name and fear you, as do your own people Israel, and may know that this house I have built bears your Name.

“When your people go to war against their enemies, wherever you send them, and when they pray to the LORD towards the city you have chosen and the temple I have built for your Name,
1Kg. 8:45 then hear from heaven their prayer and their plea, and uphold their cause.

1Kg. 8:46 “When they sin against you — for there is no-one who does not sin — and you become angry with them and give them over to the enemy, who takes them captive to his own land, far away or near;

1Kg. 8:47 and if they have a change of heart in the land where they are held captive, and repent and plead with you in the land of their conquerors and say, ‘We have sinned, we have done wrong, we have acted wickedly’;

1Kg. 8:48 and if they turn back to you with all their heart and soul in the land of their enemies who took them captive, and pray to you towards the land you gave their fathers, towards the city you have chosen and the temple I have built for your Name;

1Kg. 8:49 then from heaven, your dwelling-place, hear their prayer and their plea, and uphold their cause.

1Kg. 8:50 And forgive your people, who have sinned against you; forgive all the offences they have committed against you, and cause their conquerors to show them mercy;

1Kg. 8:51 for they are your people and your inheritance, whom you brought out of Egypt, out of that iron-smelting furnace.

1Kg. 8:52 “May your eyes be open to your servant’s plea and to the plea of your people Israel, and may you listen to them whenever they cry out to you.

1Kg. 8:53 For you singled them out from all the nations of the world to be your own inheritance, just as you declared through your servant Moses when you, O Sovereign LORD, brought our fathers out of Egypt.”

1Kg. 8:54 When Solomon had finished all these prayers and supplications to the LORD, he rose from before the altar of the LORD, where he had been kneeling with his hands spread out towards heaven.
He stood and blessed the whole assembly of Israel in a loud voice, saying:

“Praise be to the LORD, who has given rest to his people Israel just as he promised. Not one word has failed of all the good promises he gave through his servant Moses.

May the LORD our God be with us as he was with our fathers; may he never leave us nor forsake us.

May he turn our hearts to him, to walk in all his ways and to keep the commands, decrees and regulations he gave our fathers.

And may these words of mine, which I have prayed before the LORD, be near to the LORD our God day and night, that he may uphold the cause of his servant and the cause of his people Israel according to each day’s need, so that all the peoples of the earth may know that the LORD is God and that there is no other.

But your hearts must be fully committed to the LORD our God, to live by his decrees and obey his commands, as at this time.”

Then the king and all Israel with him offered sacrifices before the LORD.

Solomon offered a sacrifice of fellowship offerings [Traditionally peace offerings; also in verse 64] to the LORD: twenty-two thousand cattle and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep and goats. So the king and all the Israelites dedicated the temple of the LORD.

On that same day the king consecrated the middle part of the courtyard in front of the temple of the LORD, and there he offered burnt offerings, grain offerings and the fat of the fellowship offerings, because the bronze altar before the LORD was too small to hold the burnt offerings, the grain offerings and the fat of the fellowship offerings.
So Solomon observed the festival at that time, and all Israel with him — a vast assembly, people from Lebo [Or from the entrance to] Hamath to the Wadi of Egypt. They celebrated it before the LORD our God for seven days and seven days more, fourteen days in all.

On the following day he sent the people away. They blessed the king and then went home, joyful and glad in heart for all the good things the LORD had done for his servant David and his people Israel.

CHAPTER 9

When Solomon had finished building the temple of the LORD and the royal palace, and had achieved all he had desired to do, the LORD appeared to him a second time, as he had appeared to him at Gibeon.

The LORD said to him: “I have heard the prayer and plea you have made before me; I have consecrated this temple, which you have built, by putting my Name there for ever. My eyes and my heart will always be there.

“As for you, if you walk before me in integrity of heart and uprightness, as David your father did, and do all I command and observe my decrees and laws,

I will establish your royal throne over Israel for ever, as I promised David your father when I said, ‘You shall never fail to have a man on the throne of Israel.’

“But if you [The Hebrew is plural.] or your sons turn away from me and do not observe the commands and decrees I have given you [The Hebrew is plural.] and go off to serve other gods and worship them, then I will cut off Israel from the land I have given them and will reject this temple I have consecrated for my Name. Israel will then become a byword and an object of ridicule among all peoples.

1Kg. 9:8 And though this temple is now imposing, all who pass by will be appalled and will scoff and say, `Why has the LORD done such a thing to this land and to this temple?'

1Kg. 9:9 People will answer, `Because they have forsaken the LORD their God, who brought their fathers out of Egypt, and have embraced other gods, worshipping and serving them — that is why the LORD brought all this disaster on them.'

1Kg. 9:10 At the end of twenty years, during which Solomon built these two buildings — the temple of the LORD and the royal palace —

1Kg. 9:11 King Solomon gave twenty towns in Galilee to Hiram king of Tyre, because Hiram had supplied him with all the cedar and pine and gold he wanted.

1Kg. 9:12 But when Hiram went from Tyre to see the towns that Solomon had given him, he was not pleased with them.

1Kg. 9:13 “What kind of towns are these you have given me, my brother?” he asked. And he called them the Land of Cabul, [Cabul sounds like the Hebrew for good-for-nothing.] a name they have to this day.

1Kg. 9:14 Now Hiram had sent to the king 120 talents [That is, about 4 tons (about 4 metric tons)] of gold.

1Kg. 9:15 Here is the account of the forced labour King Solomon conscripted to build the LORD’s temple, his own palace, the supporting terraces, [Or the Millo; also in verse 24] the wall of Jerusalem, and Hazor, Megiddo and Gezer.

1Kg. 9:16 (Pharaoh king of Egypt had attacked and captured Gezer. He had set it on fire. He killed its Canaanite inhabitants and then gave it as a wedding gift to his daughter, Solomon’s wife.

1Kg. 9:17 And Solomon rebuilt Gezer.) He built up Lower Beth Horon, Baalath, and Tadmor [The Hebrew may also be read Tamar.] in the desert, within his land, as well as all his store cities and the towns for his chariots and for his horses —  [Or charioteers] whatever he desired to build in Jerusalem, in Lebanon and throughout all the territory he ruled.

All the people left from the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites (these peoples were not Israelites), that is, their descendants remaining in the land, whom the Israelites could not exterminate —  [The Hebrew term refers to the irrevocable giving over of things or persons to the LORD, often by totally destroying them.] these Solomon conscripted for his slave labour force, as it is to this day.

But Solomon did not make slaves of any of the Israelites; they were his fighting men, his government officials, his officers, his captains, and the commanders of his chariots and charioteers.

They were also the chief officials in charge of Solomon’s projects — 550 officials supervising the men who did the work.

After Pharaoh’s daughter had come up from the City of David to the palace Solomon had built for her, he constructed the supporting terraces.

Three times a year Solomon sacrificed burnt offerings and fellowship offerings [Traditionally peace offerings] on the altar he had built for the LORD, burning incense before the LORD along with them, and so fulfilled the temple obligations.

And Hiram sent his men — sailors who knew the sea — to serve in the fleet with Solomon’s men.

They sailed to Ophir and brought back 420 talents [That is, about 14 tons (about 14.5 metric tons)] of gold, which they delivered to King Solomon.
CHAPTER 10

1Kg. 10:1 When the queen of Sheba heard about the fame of Solomon and his relation to the name of the LORD, she came to test him with hard questions.

1Kg. 10:2 Arriving at Jerusalem with a very great caravan — with camels carrying spices, large quantities of gold, and precious stones — she came to Solomon and talked with him about all that she had on her mind.

1Kg. 10:3 Solomon answered all her questions; nothing was too hard for the king to explain to her.

1Kg. 10:4 When the queen of Sheba saw all the wisdom of Solomon and the palace he had built,

1Kg. 10:5 the food on his table, the seating of his officials, the attending servants in their robes, his cupbearers, and the burnt offerings he made at [Or the ascent by which he went up to] the temple of the LORD, she was overwhelmed.

1Kg. 10:6 She said to the king, “The report I heard in my own country about your achievements and your wisdom is true.

1Kg. 10:7 But I did not believe these things until I came and saw with my own eyes. Indeed, not even half was told me; in wisdom and wealth you have far exceeded the report I heard.

1Kg. 10:8 How happy your men must be! How happy your officials, who continually stand before you and hear your wisdom!

1Kg. 10:9 Praise be to the LORD your God, who has delighted in you and placed you on the throne of Israel. Because of the LORD’s eternal love for Israel, he has made you king, to maintain justice and righteousness.”

1Kg. 10:10 And she gave the king 120 talents [That is, about 4 tons (about 4 metric tons)] of gold, large quantities of spices, and precious stones. Never again were so many spices brought in as those the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.
1Kg. 10:11 (Hiram’s ships brought gold from Ophir; and from there they brought great cargoes of almug-wood [Probably a variant of algum-wood; also in verse 12] and precious stones.

1Kg. 10:12 The king used the almug-wood to make supports for the temple of the LORD and for the royal palace, and to make harps and lyres for the musicians. So much almug-wood has never been imported or seen since that day.)

1Kg. 10:13 King Solomon gave the queen of Sheba all she desired and asked for, besides what he had given her out of his royal bounty. Then she left and returned with her retinue to her own country.

1Kg. 10:14 The weight of the gold that Solomon received yearly was 666 talents, [That is, about 22 1/2 tons (about 23 metric tons)] not including the revenues from merchants and traders and from all the Arabian kings and the governors of the land.

1Kg. 10:15 King Solomon made two hundred large shields of hammered gold; six hundred bekas [That is, about 7 1/2 pounds (about 3.5 kilograms)] of gold went into each shield.

1Kg. 10:16 He also made three hundred small shields of hammered gold, with three minas [That is, about 3 3/4 pounds (about 1.7 kilograms)] of gold in each shield. The king put them in the Palace of the Forest of Lebanon.

1Kg. 10:17 Then the king made a great throne inlaid with ivory and overlaid with fine gold.

1Kg. 10:18 The throne had six steps, and its back had a rounded top. On both sides of the seat were armrests, with a lion standing beside each of them.

1Kg. 10:19 Twelve lions stood on the six steps, one at either end of each step. Nothing like it had ever been made for any other kingdom.

1Kg. 10:20 All King Solomon’s goblets were gold, and all the household articles in the Palace of the Forest of Lebanon were pure gold. Nothing was made of silver, because silver was considered of little value in Solomon’s days.

1Kg. 10:22 The king had a fleet of trading ships [Hebrew of ships of Tarshish] at sea along with the ships of Hiram. Once every three years it returned carrying gold, silver and ivory, and apes and baboons.

1Kg. 10:23 King Solomon was greater in riches and wisdom than all the other kings of the earth.

1Kg. 10:24 The whole world sought audience with Solomon to hear the wisdom God had put in his heart.

1Kg. 10:25 Year after year, everyone who came brought a gift — articles of silver and gold, robes, weapons and spices, and horses and mules.

1Kg. 10:26 Solomon accumulated chariots and horses; he had fourteen hundred chariots and twelve thousand horses, [Or charioteers] which he kept in the chariot cities and also with him in Jerusalem.

1Kg. 10:27 The king made silver as common in Jerusalem as stones, and cedar as plentiful as sycamore-fig trees in the foothills.

1Kg. 10:28 Solomon’s horses were imported from Egypt — [Or possibly Muzur, a region in Cilicia; also in verse 29] and from Kue [Probably Cilicia] the royal merchants purchased them from Kue. [Probably Cilicia]

1Kg. 10:29 They imported a chariot from Egypt for six hundred shekels [That is, about 15 pounds (about 7 kilograms)] of silver, and a horse for a hundred and fifty. [That is, about 3 3/4 pounds (about 1.7 kilograms)] They also exported them to all the kings of the Hittites and of the Arameans.
1Kg. 11:1 King Solomon, however, loved many foreign women besides Pharaoh’s daughter — Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Sidonians and Hittites.

1Kg. 11:2 They were from nations about which the LORD had told the Israelites, “You must not intermarry with them, because they will surely turn your hearts after their gods.” Nevertheless, Solomon held fast to them in love.

1Kg. 11:3 He had seven hundred wives of royal birth and three hundred concubines, and his wives led him astray.

1Kg. 11:4 As Solomon grew old, his wives turned his heart after other gods, and his heart was not fully devoted to the LORD his God, as the heart of David his father had been.

1Kg. 11:5 He followed Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, and Molech [Hebrew Milcom; also in verse 33] the detestable god of the Ammonites.

1Kg. 11:6 So Solomon did evil in the eyes of the LORD; he did not follow the LORD completely, as David his father had done.

1Kg. 11:7 On a hill east of Jerusalem, Solomon built a high place for Chemosh the detestable god of Moab, and for Molech the detestable god of the Ammonites.

1Kg. 11:8 He did the same for all his foreign wives, who burned incense and offered sacrifices to their gods.

1Kg. 11:9 The LORD became angry with Solomon because his heart had turned away from the LORD, the God of Israel, who had appeared to him twice.

1Kg. 11:10 Although he had forbidden Solomon to follow other gods, Solomon did not keep the LORD’s command.

1Kg. 11:11 So the LORD said to Solomon, “Since this is your attitude and you have not kept my covenant and my decrees, which I commanded you, I will most certainly tear the kingdom away from you and give it to one of your subordinates.
Nevertheless, for the sake of David your father, I will not do it during your lifetime. I will tear it out of the hand of your son.

Yet I will not tear the whole kingdom from him, but will give him one tribe for the sake of David my servant and for the sake of Jerusalem, which I have chosen.”

Then the LORD raised up against Solomon an adversary, Hadad the Edomite, from the royal line of Edom.

Earlier when David was fighting with Edom, Joab the commander of the army, who had gone up to bury the dead, had struck down all the men in Edom.

Joab and all the Israelites stayed there for six months, until they had destroyed all the men in Edom.

But Hadad, still only a boy, fled to Egypt with some Edomite officials who had served his father.

They set out from Midian and went to Paran. Then taking men from Paran with them, they went to Egypt, to Pharaoh king of Egypt, who gave Hadad a house and land and provided him with food.

Pharaoh was so pleased with Hadad that he gave him a sister of his own wife, Queen Tahpenes, in marriage.

The sister of Tahpenes bore him a son named Genubath, whom Tahpenes brought up in the royal palace. There Genubath lived with Pharaoh’s own children.

While he was in Egypt, Hadad heard that David rested with his fathers and that Joab the commander of the army was also dead. Then Hadad said to Pharaoh, “Let me go, so that I may return to my own country.”

“What have you lacked here that you want to go back to your own country?” Pharaoh asked. “Nothing,” Hadad replied, “but do let me go!”
And God raised up against Solomon another adversary, Rezon son of Eliada, who had fled from his master, Hadadezer king of Zobah.

He gathered men around him and became the leader of a band of rebels when David destroyed the forces [Hebrew destroyed them] of Zobah; the rebels went to Damascus, where they settled and took control.

Rezon was Israel’s adversary as long as Solomon lived, adding to the trouble caused by Hadad. So Rezon ruled in Aram and was hostile towards Israel.

Also, Jeroboam son of Nebat rebelled against the king. He was one of Solomon’s officials, an Ephraimite from Zeredah, and his mother was a widow named Zeruah.

Here is the account of how he rebelled against the king: Solomon had built the supporting terraces [Or the Millo] and had filled in the gap in the wall of the city of David his father.

Now Jeroboam was a man of standing, and when Solomon saw how well the young man did his work, he put him in charge of the whole labour force of the house of Joseph.

About that time Jeroboam was going out of Jerusalem, and Ahijah the prophet of Shiloh met him on the way, wearing a new cloak. The two of them were alone out in the country, and Ahijah took hold of the new cloak he was wearing and tore it into twelve pieces.

Then he said to Jeroboam, “Take ten pieces for yourself, for this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: `See, I am going to tear the kingdom out of Solomon’s hand and give you ten tribes.

But for the sake of my servant David and the city of Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, he will have one tribe.

I will do this because they have [Hebrew; Septuagint, Vulgate and Syriac because he has] forsaken me and worshipped Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, Chemosh the god of the Moabites, and Molech the god of the Ammonites, and have not walked in my ways, nor done what is right in my eyes, nor kept my statutes and laws as David, Solomon’s father, did.

1Kg. 11:34 “But I will not take the whole kingdom out of Solomon’s hand; I have made him ruler all the days of his life for the sake of David my servant, whom I chose and who observed my commands and statutes.

1Kg. 11:35 I will take the kingdom from his son’s hands and give you ten tribes.

1Kg. 11:36 I will give one tribe to his son so that David my servant may always have a lamp before me in Jerusalem, the city where I chose to put my Name.

1Kg. 11:37 However, as for you, I will take you, and you will rule over all that your heart desires; you will be king over Israel.

1Kg. 11:38 If you do whatever I command you and walk in my ways and do what is right in my eyes by keeping my statutes and commands, as David my servant did, I will be with you. I will build you a dynasty as enduring as the one I built for David and will give Israel to you.

1Kg. 11:39 I will humble David’s descendants because of this, but not for ever.’“

1Kg. 11:40 Solomon tried to kill Jeroboam, but Jeroboam fled to Egypt, to Shishak the king, and stayed there until Solomon’s death.

1Kg. 11:41 As for the other events of Solomon’s reign — all he did and the wisdom he displayed — are they not written in the book of the annals of Solomon?

1Kg. 11:42 Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel for forty years.

1Kg. 11:43 Then he rested with his fathers and was buried in the city of David his father. And Rehoboam his son succeeded him as king.
CHAPTER 12

1Kg. 12:1 Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all the Israelites had gone there to make him king.

1Kg. 12:2 When Jeroboam son of Nebat heard this (he was still in Egypt, where he had fled from King Solomon), he returned from [Or he remained in] Egypt.

1Kg. 12:3 So they sent for Jeroboam, and he and the whole assembly of Israel went to Rehoboam and said to him:

1Kg. 12:4 “Your father put a heavy yoke on us, but now lighten the harsh labour and the heavy yoke he put on us, and we will serve you.”

1Kg. 12:5 Rehoboam answered, “Go away for three days and then come back to me.” So the people went away.

1Kg. 12:6 Then King Rehoboam consulted the elders who had served his father Solomon during his lifetime. “How would you advise me to answer these people?” he asked.

1Kg. 12:7 They replied, “If today you will be a servant to these people and serve them and give them a favourable answer, they will always be your servants.”

1Kg. 12:8 But Rehoboam rejected the advice the elders gave him and consulted the young men who had grown up with him and were serving him.

1Kg. 12:9 He asked them, “What is your advice? How should we answer these people who say to me, `Lighten the yoke your father put on us’?”

1Kg. 12:10 The young men who had grown up with him replied, “Tell these people who have said to you, `Your father put a heavy yoke on us, but make our yoke lighter’ — tell them, `My little finger is thicker than my father’s waist. My father laid on you a heavy yoke; I will make it even heavier. My father scourged you with whips; I will scourge you with scorpions.’”
Three days later Jeroboam and all the people returned to Rehoboam, as the king had said, “Come back to me in three days.”

The king answered the people harshly. Rejecting the advice given him by the elders, he followed the advice of the young men and said, “My father made your yoke heavy; I will make it even heavier. My father scourged you with whips; I will scourge you with scorpions.”

So the king did not listen to the people, for this turn of events was from the LORD, to fulfil the word the LORD had spoken to Jeroboam son of Nebat through Ahijah the Shilonite.

When all Israel saw that the king refused to listen to them, they answered the king: “What share do we have in David, what part in Jesse’s son? To your tents, O Israel! Look after your own house, O David!” So the Israelites went home.

But as for the Israelites who were living in the towns of Judah, Rehoboam still ruled over them.

King Rehoboam sent out Adoniram, [Some Septuagint manuscripts and Syriac (see also 1 Kings 4:6 and 5:14); Hebrew Adoram] who was in charge of forced labour, but all Israel stoned him to death. King Rehoboam, however, managed to get into his chariot and escape to Jerusalem.

So Israel has been in rebellion against the house of David to this day.

When all the Israelites heard that Jeroboam had returned, they sent and called him to the assembly and made him king over all Israel. Only the tribe of Judah remained loyal to the house of David.

When Rehoboam arrived in Jerusalem, he mustered the whole house of Judah and the tribe of Benjamin — a hundred and eighty thousand fighting men — to make war against the house of Israel and to regain the kingdom for Rehoboam son of Solomon.
1Kg. 12:22 But this word of God came to Shemaiah the man of God:

1Kg. 12:23 “Say to Rehoboam son of Solomon king of Judah, to the whole house of Judah and Benjamin, and to the rest of the people,

1Kg. 12:24 ‘This is what the LORD says: Do not go up to fight against your brothers, the Israelites. Go home, every one of you, for this is my doing.’ So they obeyed the word of the LORD and went home again, as the LORD had ordered.

1Kg. 12:25 Then Jeroboam fortified Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim and lived there. From there he went out and built up Peniel. [Hebrew Penuel, a variant of Peniel]

1Kg. 12:26 Jeroboam thought to himself, “The kingdom is now likely to revert to the house of David.

1Kg. 12:27 If these people go up to offer sacrifices at the temple of the LORD in Jerusalem, they will again give their allegiance to their lord, Rehoboam king of Judah. They will kill me and return to King Rehoboam.”

1Kg. 12:28 After seeking advice, the king made two golden calves. He said to the people, “It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem. Here are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of Egypt.”

1Kg. 12:29 One he set up in Bethel, and the other in Dan.

1Kg. 12:30 And this thing became a sin; the people went even as far as Dan to worship the one there.

1Kg. 12:31 Jeroboam built shrines on high places and appointed priests from all sorts of people, even though they were not Levites.

1Kg. 12:32 He instituted a festival on the fifteenth day of the eighth month, like the festival held in Judah, and offered sacrifices on the altar. This he did in Bethel, sacrificing to the calves he had made. And at Bethel he also installed priests at the high places he had made.

1Kg. 12:33 On the fifteenth day of the eighth month, a month of his own choosing, he offered sacrifices on the altar he had built at Bethel. So he instituted the festival for the Israelites and went up to the altar to make offerings.

CHAPTER 13

1Kg. 13:1 By the word of the LORD a man of God came from Judah to Bethel, as Jeroboam was standing by the altar to make an offering.

1Kg. 13:2 He cried out against the altar by the word of the LORD: “O altar, altar! This is what the LORD says: ‘A son named Josiah will be born to the house of David. On you he will sacrifice the priests of the high places who now make offerings here, and human bones will be burned on you.’”

1Kg. 13:3 That same day the man of God gave a sign: “This is the sign the LORD has declared: The altar will be split apart and the ashes on it will be poured out.”

1Kg. 13:4 When King Jeroboam heard what the man of God cried out against the altar at Bethel, he stretched out his hand from the altar and said, “Seize him!” But the hand he stretched out towards the man shrivelled up, so that he could not pull it back.

1Kg. 13:5 Also, the altar was split apart and its ashes poured out according to the sign given by the man of God by the word of the LORD.

1Kg. 13:6 Then the king said to the man of God, “Intercede with the LORD your God and pray for me that my hand may be restored.” So the man of God interceded with the LORD, and the king’s hand was restored and became as it was before.

1Kg. 13:7 The king said to the man of God, “Come home with me and have something to eat, and I will give you a gift.”

1Kg. 13:8 But the man of God answered the king, “Even if you were to give me half your possessions, I would not go with you, nor would I eat bread or drink water here.
For I was commanded by the word of the LORD: `You must not eat bread or drink water or return by the way you came.' “

So he took another road and did not return by the way he had come to Bethel.

Now there was a certain old prophet living in Bethel, whose sons came and told him all that the man of God had done there that day. They also told their father what he had said to the king.

Their father asked them, “Which way did he go?” And his sons showed him which road the man of God from Judah had taken.

So he said to his sons, “Saddle the donkey for me.” And when they had saddled the donkey for him, he mounted it and rode after the man of God. He found him sitting under an oak tree and asked, “Are you the man of God who came from Judah?” “I am,” he replied.

So the prophet said to him, “Come home with me and eat.”

The man of God said, “I cannot turn back and go with you, nor can I eat bread or drink water with you in this place.

I have been told by the word of the LORD: `You must not eat bread or drink water there or return by the way you came.’”

The old prophet answered, “I too am a prophet, as you are. And an angel said to me by the word of the LORD: `Bring him back with you to your house so that he may eat bread and drink water.’” (But he was lying to him.)

So the man of God returned with him and ate and drank in his house.

While they were sitting at the table, the word of the LORD came to the old prophet who had brought him back. He cried out to the man of God who had come from Judah, “This is what the LORD says: `You have defied the word of the LORD and have not kept the command the LORD your God gave you.

1Kg. 13:22 You came back and ate bread and drank water in the place where he told you not to eat or drink. Therefore your body will not be buried in the tomb of your fathers.”

1Kg. 13:23 When the man of God had finished eating and drinking, the prophet who had brought him back saddled his donkey for him.

1Kg. 13:24 As he went on his way, a lion met him on the road and killed him, and his body was thrown down on the road, with both the donkey and the lion standing beside it.

1Kg. 13:25 Some people who passed by saw the body thrown down there, with the lion standing beside the body, and they went and reported it in the city where the old prophet lived.

1Kg. 13:26 When the prophet who had brought him back from his journey heard of it, he said, “It is the man of God who defied the word of the LORD. The LORD has given him over to the lion, which has mauled him and killed him, as the word of the LORD had warned him.”

1Kg. 13:27 The prophet said to his sons, “Saddle the donkey for me,” and they did so.

1Kg. 13:28 Then he went out and found the body thrown down on the road, with the donkey and the lion standing beside it. The lion had neither eaten the body nor mauled the donkey.

1Kg. 13:29 So the prophet picked up the body of the man of God, laid it on the donkey, and brought it back to his own city to mourn for him and bury him.

1Kg. 13:30 Then he laid the body in his own tomb, and they mourned over him and said, “Oh, my brother!”

1Kg. 13:31 After burying him, he said to his sons, “When I die, bury me in the grave where the man of God is buried; lay my bones beside his bones.”
For the message he declared by the word of the LORD against the altar in Bethel and against all the shrines on the high places in the towns of Samaria will certainly come true.”

Even after this, Jeroboam did not change his evil ways, but once more appointed priests for the high places from all sorts of people. Anyone who wanted to become a priest he consecrated for the high places.

This was the sin of the house of Jeroboam that led to its downfall and to its destruction from the face of the earth.

CHAPTER 14

At that time Abijah son of Jeroboam became ill, and Jeroboam said to his wife, “Go, disguise yourself, so that you won’t be recognised as the wife of Jeroboam. Then go to Shiloh. Ahijah the prophet is there — the one who told me I would be king over this people.

Take ten loaves of bread with you, some cakes and a jar of honey, and go to him. He will tell you what will happen to the boy.”

So Jeroboam’s wife did what he said and went to Ahijah’s house in Shiloh. Now Ahijah could not see; his sight was gone because of his age.

But the LORD had told Ahijah, “Jeroboam’s wife is coming to ask you about her son, for he is ill, and you are to give her such and such an answer. When she arrives, she will pretend to be someone else.”

So when Ahijah heard the sound of her footsteps at the door, he said, “Come in, wife of Jeroboam. Why this pretence? I have been sent to you with bad news.

Go, tell Jeroboam that this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: `I raised you up from among the people and made you a leader over my people Israel.
1Kg. 14:8 I tore the kingdom away from the house of David and gave it to you, but you have not been like my servant David, who kept my commands and followed me with all his heart, doing only what was right in my eyes.

1Kg. 14:9 You have done more evil than all who lived before you. You have made for yourself other gods, idols made of metal; you have provoked me to anger and thrust me behind your back.

1Kg. 14:10 “Because of this, I am going to bring disaster on the house of Jeroboam. I will cut off from Jeroboam every last male in Israel — slave or free. I will burn up the house of Jeroboam as one burns dung, until it is all gone.

1Kg. 14:11 Dogs will eat those belonging to Jeroboam who die in the city, and the birds of the air will feed on those who die in the country. The LORD has spoken!”

1Kg. 14:12 “As for you, go back home. When you set foot in your city, the boy will die.

1Kg. 14:13 All Israel will mourn for him and bury him. He is the only one belonging to Jeroboam who will be buried, because he is the only one in the house of Jeroboam in whom the LORD, the God of Israel, has found anything good.

1Kg. 14:14 “The LORD will raise up for himself a king over Israel who will cut off the family of Jeroboam. This is the day! What? Yes, even now. [The meaning of the Hebrew for this sentence is uncertain.]

1Kg. 14:15 And the LORD will strike Israel, so that it will be like a reed swaying in the water. He will uproot Israel from this good land that he gave to their forefathers and scatter them beyond the River, [That is, the Euphrates] because they provoked the LORD to anger by making Asherah poles. [That is, symbols of the goddess Asherah; here and elsewhere in 1 Kings]

1Kg. 14:16 And he will give Israel up because of the sins Jeroboam has committed and has caused Israel to commit.”
Then Jeroboam’s wife got up and left and went to Tirzah. As soon as she stepped over the threshold of the house, the boy died.

They buried him, and all Israel mourned for him, as the LORD had said through his servant the prophet Ahijah.

The other events of Jeroboam’s reign, his wars and how he ruled, are written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel.

He reigned for twenty-two years and then rested with his fathers. And Nadab his son succeeded him as king.

Rehoboam son of Solomon was king in Judah. He was forty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned for seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel in which to put his Name. His mother’s name was Naamah; she was an Ammonite.

Judah did evil in the eyes of the LORD. By the sins they committed they stirred up his jealous anger more than their fathers had done.

They also set up for themselves high places, sacred stones and Asherah poles on every high hill and under every spreading tree.

In the fifth year of King Rehoboam, Shishak king of Egypt attacked Jerusalem.

He carried off the treasures of the temple of the LORD and the treasures of the royal palace. He took everything, including all the gold shields Solomon had made.

So King Rehoboam made bronze shields to replace them and assigned these to the commanders of the guard on duty at the entrance to the royal palace.
Whenever the king went to the LORD’s temple, the guards bore the shields, and afterwards they returned them to the guardroom.

As for the other events of Rehoboam’s reign, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah?

There was continual warfare between Rehoboam and Jeroboam.

And Rehoboam rested with his fathers and was buried with them in the City of David. His mother’s name was Naamah; she was an Ammonite. And Abijah [Some Hebrew manuscripts and Septuagint (see also 2 Chron. 12:16); most Hebrew manuscripts Abijam] his son succeeded him as king.

CHAPTER 15

In the eighteenth year of the reign of Jeroboam son of Nebat, Abijah [Some Hebrew manuscripts and Septuagint (see also 2 Chron. 12:16); most Hebrew manuscripts Abijam; also in verses 7 and 8] became king of Judah, and he reigned in Jerusalem for three years. His mother’s name was Maacah daughter of Abishalom. [A variant of Absalom; also in verse 10]

He committed all the sins his father had done before him; his heart was not fully devoted to the LORD his God, as the heart of David his forefather had been.

Nevertheless, for David’s sake the LORD his God gave him a lamp in Jerusalem by raising up a son to succeed him and by making Jerusalem strong.

For David had done what was right in the eyes of the LORD and had not failed to keep any of the LORD’s commands all the days of his life — except in the case of Uriah the Hittite.
There was war between Rehoboam [Most Hebrew manuscripts; some Hebrew manuscripts and Syriac Abijam (that is, Abijah)] and Jeroboam throughout Abijah’s lifetime.

As for the other events of Abijah’s reign, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah? There was war between Abijah and Jeroboam.

And Abijah rested with his fathers and was buried in the City of David. And Asa his son succeeded him as king.

In the twentieth year of Jeroboam king of Israel, Asa became king of Judah, and he reigned in Jerusalem for forty-one years. His grandmother’s name was Maacah daughter of Abishalom.

Asa did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, as his father David had done.

He expelled the male shrine-prostitutes from the land and got rid of all the idols his fathers had made.

He even deposed his grandmother Maacah from her position as queen mother, because she had made a repulsive Asherah pole. Asa cut the pole down and burned it in the Kidron Valley.

Although he did not remove the high places, Asa’s heart was fully committed to the LORD all his life.

He brought into the temple of the LORD the silver and gold and the articles that he and his father had dedicated.

There was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel throughout their reigns.

Baasha king of Israel went up against Judah and fortified Ramah to prevent anyone from leaving or entering the territory of Asa king of Judah.

Asa then took all the silver and gold that was left in the treasuries of the LORD’s temple and of his own palace. He entrusted it to his officials and sent them to Ben-Hadad son of Tabrimmon, the son of Hezion, the king of Aram, who was ruling in Damascus.

1Kg. 15:19 “Let there be a treaty between me and you,” he said, “as there was between my father and your father. See, I am sending you a gift of silver and gold. Now break your treaty with Baasha king of Israel so that he will withdraw from me.”

1Kg. 15:20 Ben-Hadad agreed with King Asa and sent the commanders of his forces against the towns of Israel. He conquered Ijon, Dan, Abel Beth Maacah and all Kinnereth in addition to Naphtali.

1Kg. 15:21 When Baasha heard this, he stopped building Ramah and withdrew to Tirzah.

1Kg. 15:22 Then King Asa issued an order to all Judah — no-one was exempt — and they carried away from Ramah the stones and timber Baasha had been using there. With them King Asa built up Geba in Benjamin, and also Mizpah.

1Kg. 15:23 As for all the other events of Asa’s reign, all his achievements, all he did and the cities he built, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah? In his old age, however, his feet became diseased.

1Kg. 15:24 Then Asa rested with his fathers and was buried with them in the city of his father David. And Jehoshaphat his son succeeded him as king.

1Kg. 15:25 Nadab son of Jeroboam became king of Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah, and he reigned over Israel for two years.

1Kg. 15:26 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, walking in the ways of his father and in his sin, which he had caused Israel to commit.

1Kg. 15:27 Baasha son of Ahijah of the house of Issachar plotted against him, and he struck him down at Gibbethon, a Philistine town, while Nadab and all Israel were besieging it.
Baasha killed Nadab in the third year of Asa king of Judah and succeeded him as king.

As soon as he began to reign, he killed Jeroboam’s whole family. He did not leave Jeroboam anyone that breathed, but destroyed them all, according to the word of the LORD given through his servant Ahijah the Shilonite — because of the sins Jeroboam had committed and had caused Israel to commit, and because he provoked the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger.

As for the other events of Nadab’s reign, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?

There was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel throughout their reigns.

In the third year of Asa king of Judah, Baasha son of Ahijah became king of all Israel in Tirzah, and he reigned for twenty-four years.

He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, walking in the ways of Jeroboam and in his sin, which he had caused Israel to commit.

CHAPTER 16

Then the word of the LORD came to Jehu son of Hanani against Baasha:

“I lifted you up from the dust and made you leader of my people Israel, but you walked in the ways of Jeroboam and caused my people Israel to sin and to provoke me to anger by their sins.

So I am about to consume Baasha and his house, and I will make your house like that of Jeroboam son of Nebat.

1Kg. 16:4 Dogs will eat those belonging to Baasha who die in the city, and the birds of the air will feed on those who die in the country.”

1Kg. 16:5 As for the other events of Baasha’s reign, what he did and his achievements, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?

1Kg. 16:6 Baasha rested with his fathers and was buried in Tirzah. And Elah his son succeeded him as king.

1Kg. 16:7 Moreover, the word of the LORD came through the prophet Jehu son of Hanani to Baasha and his house, because of all the evil he had done in the eyes of the LORD, provoking him to anger by the things he did, and becoming like the house of Jeroboam — and also because he destroyed it.

1Kg. 16:8 In the twenty-sixth year of Asa king of Judah, Elah son of Baasha became king of Israel, and he reigned in Tirzah for two years.

1Kg. 16:9 Zimri, one of his officials, who had command of half his chariots, plotted against him. Elah was in Tirzah at the time, getting drunk in the home of Arza, the man in charge of the palace at Tirzah.

1Kg. 16:10 Zimri came in, struck him down and killed him in the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah. Then he succeeded him as king.

1Kg. 16:11 As soon as he began to reign and was seated on the throne, he killed off Baasha’s whole family. He did not spare a single male, whether relative or friend.

1Kg. 16:12 So Zimri destroyed the whole family of Baasha, in accordance with the word of the LORD spoken against Baasha through the prophet Jehu —

1Kg. 16:13 because of all the sins Baasha and his son Elah had committed and had caused Israel to commit, so that they provoked the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger by their worthless idols.
As for the other events of Elah’s reign, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?

In the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, Zimri reigned in Tirzah for seven days. The army was encamped near Gibbethon, a Philistine town.

When the Israelites in the camp heard that Zimri had plotted against the king and murdered him, they proclaimed Omri, the commander of the army, king over Israel that very day there in the camp.

Then Omri and all the Israelites with him withdrew from Gibbethon and laid siege to Tirzah.

When Zimri saw that the city was taken, he went into the citadel of the royal palace and set the palace on fire around him. So he died, because of the sins he had committed, doing evil in the eyes of the LORD and walking in the ways of Jeroboam and in the sin he had committed and had caused Israel to commit.

As for the other events of Zimri’s reign, and the rebellion he carried out, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?

Then the people of Israel were split into two factions; half supported Tibni son of Ginath for king, and the other half supported Omri.

But Omri’s followers proved stronger than those of Tibni son of Ginath. So Tibni died and Omri became king.

In the thirty-first year of Asa king of Judah, Omri became king of Israel, and he reigned for twelve years, six of them in Tirzah.

He bought the hill of Samaria from Shemer for two talents [That is, about 150 pounds (about 70 kilograms)] of silver and built a city on the hill, calling it Samaria, after Shemer, the name of the former owner of the hill.
1Kg. 16:25 But Omri did evil in the eyes of the LORD and sinned more than all those before him.

1Kg. 16:26 He walked in all the ways of Jeroboam son of Nebat and in his sin, which he had caused Israel to commit, so that they provoked the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger by their worthless idols.

1Kg. 16:27 As for the other events of Omri’s reign, what he did and the things he achieved, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?

1Kg. 16:28 Omri rested with his fathers and was buried in Samaria. And Ahab his son succeeded him as king.

1Kg. 16:29 In the thirty-eighth year of Asa king of Judah, Ahab son of Omri became king of Israel, and he reigned in Samaria over Israel for twenty-two years.

1Kg. 16:30 Ahab son of Omri did more evil in the eyes of the LORD than any of those before him.

1Kg. 16:31 He not only considered it trivial to commit the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, but he also married Jezebel daughter of Ethbaal king of the Sidonians, and began to serve Baal and worship him.

1Kg. 16:32 He set up an altar for Baal in the temple of Baal that he built in Samaria.

1Kg. 16:33 Ahab also made an Asherah pole and did more to provoke the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger than did all the kings of Israel before him.

1Kg. 16:34 In Ahab’s time, Hiel of Bethel rebuilt Jericho. He laid its foundations at the cost of his firstborn son Abiram, and he set up its gates at the cost of his youngest son Segub, in accordance with the word of the LORD spoken by Joshua son of Nun.
CHAPTER 17

1Kg. 17:1 Now Elijah the Tishbite, from Tishbe [Or Tishbite, of the settlers] in Gilead, said to Ahab, “As the LORD, the God of Israel, lives, whom I serve, there will be neither dew nor rain in the next few years except at my word.”

1Kg. 17:2 Then the word of the LORD came to Elijah:

1Kg. 17:3 “Leave here, turn eastward and hide in the Kerith Ravine, east of the Jordan.

1Kg. 17:4 You will drink from the brook, and I have ordered the ravens to feed you there.”

1Kg. 17:5 So he did what the LORD had told him. He went to the Kerith Ravine, east of the Jordan, and stayed there.

1Kg. 17:6 The ravens brought him bread and meat in the morning and bread and meat in the evening, and he drank from the brook.

1Kg. 17:7 Some time later the brook dried up because there had been no rain in the land.

1Kg. 17:8 Then the word of the LORD came to him:

1Kg. 17:9 “Go at once to Zarephath of Sidon and stay there. I have commanded a widow in that place to supply you with food.”

1Kg. 17:10 So he went to Zarephath. When he came to the town gate, a widow was there gathering sticks. He called to her and asked, “Would you bring me a little water in a jar so I may have a drink?”

1Kg. 17:11 As she was going to get it, he called, “And bring me, please, a piece of bread.”

1Kg. 17:12 “As surely as the LORD your God lives,” she replied, “I don’t have any bread — only a handful of flour in a jar and a little oil in a jug. I am gathering a few sticks to take home and make a meal for myself and my son, that we may eat it — and die.”
Elijah said to her, “Don’t be afraid. Go home and do as you have said. But first make a small cake of bread for me from what you have and bring it to me, and then make something for yourself and your son.

For this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: ‘The jar of flour will not be used up and the jug of oil will not run dry until the day the LORD gives rain on the land.’

She went away and did as Elijah had told her. So there was food every day for Elijah and for the woman and her family.

For the jar of flour was not used up and the jug of oil did not run dry, in keeping with the word of the LORD spoken by Elijah.

Some time later the son of the woman who owned the house became ill. He grew worse and worse, and finally stopped breathing.

She said to Elijah, “What do you have against me, man of God? Did you come to remind me of my sin and kill my son?”

“Give me your son,” Elijah replied. He took him from her arms, carried him to the upper room where he was staying, and laid him on his bed.

Then he cried out to the LORD, “O LORD my God, have you brought tragedy also upon this widow I am staying with, by causing her son to die?”

Then he stretched himself out on the boy three times and cried to the LORD, “O LORD my God, let this boy’s life return to him!”

The LORD heard Elijah’s cry, and the boy’s life returned to him, and he lived.

Elijah picked up the child and carried him down from the room into the house. He gave him to his mother and said, “Look, your son is alive!”
Then the woman said to Elijah, “Now I know that you are a man of God and that the word of the LORD from your mouth is the truth.”

CHAPTER 18

After a long time, in the third year, the word of the LORD came to Elijah: “Go and present yourself to Ahab, and I will send rain on the land.”

So Elijah went to present himself to Ahab. Now the famine was severe in Samaria, and Ahab had summoned Obadiah, who was in charge of his palace. (Obadiah was a devout believer in the LORD.)

While Jezebel was killing off the LORD’s prophets, Obadiah had taken a hundred prophets and hidden them in two caves, fifty in each, and had supplied them with food and water.

Ahab had said to Obadiah, “Go through the land to all the springs and valleys. Maybe we can find some grass to keep the horses and mules alive so we will not have to kill any of our animals.”

So they divided the land they were to cover, Ahab going in one direction and Obadiah in another.

As Obadiah was walking along, Elijah met him. Obadiah recognised him, bowed down to the ground, and said, “Is it really you, my lord Elijah?”

“Yes,” he replied. “Go tell your master, ‘Elijah is here.’”

“What have I done wrong,” asked Obadiah, “that you are handing your servant over to Ahab to be put to death?

As surely as the LORD your God lives, there is not a nation or kingdom where my master has not sent someone to look for you. And whenever a nation or kingdom claimed you were not there, he made them swear they could not find you.
1Kg. 18:11 But now you tell me to go to my master and say, ‘Elijah is here.’

1Kg. 18:12 I don’t know where the Spirit of the LORD may carry you when I leave you. If I go and tell Ahab and he doesn’t find you, he will kill me. Yet I your servant have worshipped the LORD since my youth.

1Kg. 18:13 Haven’t you heard, my lord, what I did while Jezebel was killing the prophets of the LORD? I hid a hundred of the LORD’s prophets in two caves, fifty in each, and supplied them with food and water.

1Kg. 18:14 And now you tell me to go to my master and say, ‘Elijah is here.’ He will kill me!”

1Kg. 18:15 Elijah said, “As the LORD Almighty lives, whom I serve, I will surely present myself to Ahab today.”

1Kg. 18:16 So Obadiah went to meet Ahab and told him, and Ahab went to meet Elijah.

1Kg. 18:17 When he saw Elijah, he said to him, “Is that you, you troubler of Israel?”

1Kg. 18:18 “I have not made trouble for Israel,” Elijah replied. “But you and your father’s family have. You have abandoned the LORD’s commands and have followed the Baals.

1Kg. 18:19 Now summon the people from all over Israel to meet me on Mount Carmel. And bring the four hundred and fifty prophets of Baal and the four hundred prophets of Asherah, who eat at Jezebel’s table.”

1Kg. 18:20 So Ahab sent word throughout all Israel and assembled the prophets on Mount Carmel.

1Kg. 18:21 Elijah went before the people and said, “How long will you waver between two opinions? If the LORD is God, follow him; but if Baal is God, follow him.” But the people said nothing.

1Kg. 18:22 Then Elijah said to them, “I am the only one of the LORD’s prophets left, but Baal has four hundred and fifty prophets.
Get two bulls for us. Let them choose one for themselves, and let them cut it into pieces and put it on the wood but not set fire to it. I will prepare the other bull and put it on the wood but not set fire to it.

Then you call on the name of your god, and I will call on the name of the LORD. The god who answers by fire — he is God.” Then all the people said, “What you say is good.”

Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, “Choose one of the bulls and prepare it first, since there are so many of you. Call on the name of your god, but do not light the fire.”

So they took the bull given them and prepared it. Then they called on the name of Baal from morning till noon. “O Baal, answer us!” they shouted. But there was no response; no-one answered. And they danced around the altar they had made.

At noon Elijah began to taunt them. “Shout louder!” he said. “Surely he is a god! Perhaps he is deep in thought, or busy, or travelling. Maybe he is sleeping and must be awakened.”

So they shouted louder and slashed themselves with swords and spears, as was their custom, until their blood flowed.

Midday passed, and they continued their frantic prophesying until the time for the evening sacrifice. But there was no response, no-one answered, no-one paid attention.

Then Elijah said to all the people, “Come here to me.” They came to him, and he repaired the altar of the LORD, which was in ruins.

Elijah took twelve stones, one for each of the tribes descended from Jacob, to whom the word of the LORD had come, saying, “Your name shall be Israel.”

With the stones he built an altar in the name of the LORD, and he dug a trench round it large enough to hold two seahs [That is, probably about 26 pints (about 15 litres)] of seed.
1Kg. 18:33 He arranged the wood, cut the bull into pieces and laid it on the wood. Then he said to them, “Fill four large jars with water and pour it on the offering and on the wood.”

1Kg. 18:34 “Do it again,” he said, and they did it again. “Do it a third time,” he ordered, and they did it the third time.

1Kg. 18:35 The water ran down around the altar and even filled the trench.

1Kg. 18:36 At the time of sacrifice, the prophet Elijah stepped forward and prayed: “O LORD, God of Abraham, Isaac and Israel, let it be known today that you are God in Israel and that I am your servant and have done all these things at your command.

1Kg. 18:37 Answer me, O LORD, answer me, so these people will know that you, O LORD, are God, and that you are turning their hearts back again.”

1Kg. 18:38 Then the fire of the LORD fell and burned up the sacrifice, the wood, the stones and the soil, and also licked up the water in the trench.

1Kg. 18:39 When all the people saw this, they fell prostrate and cried, “The LORD — he is God! The LORD — he is God!”

1Kg. 18:40 Then Elijah commanded them, “Seize the prophets of Baal. Don’t let anyone get away!” They seized them, and Elijah had them brought down to the Kishon Valley and slaughtered there.

1Kg. 18:41 And Elijah said to Ahab, “Go, eat and drink, for there is the sound of a heavy rain.”

1Kg. 18:42 So Ahab went off to eat and drink, but Elijah climbed to the top of Carmel, bent down to the ground and put his face between his knees.

1Kg. 18:43 “Go and look towards the sea,” he told his servant. And he went up and looked. “There is nothing there,” he said. Seven times Elijah said, “Go back.”

1Kg. 18:44 The seventh time the servant reported, “A cloud as small as a man’s hand is rising from the sea.” So Elijah said, “Go and tell Ahab, `Hitch up your chariot and go down before the rain stops you.' “

1Kg. 18:45  Meanwhile, the sky grew black with clouds, the wind rose, a heavy rain came on and Ahab rode off to Jezreel.

1Kg. 18:46  The power of the LORD came upon Elijah and, tucking his cloak into his belt, he ran ahead of Ahab all the way to Jezreel.

CHAPTER 19

1Kg. 19:1  Now Ahab told Jezebel everything Elijah had done and how he had killed all the prophets with the sword.

1Kg. 19:2  So Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah to say, “May the gods deal with me, be it ever so severely, if by this time tomorrow I do not make your life like that of one of them.”

1Kg. 19:3  Elijah was afraid [Or Elijah saw] and ran for his life. When he came to Beersheba in Judah, he left his servant there,

1Kg. 19:4  while he himself went a day’s journey into the desert. He came to a broom tree, sat down under it and prayed that he might die. “I have had enough, LORD,” he said. “Take my life; I am no better than my ancestors.”

1Kg. 19:5  Then he lay down under the tree and fell asleep. All at once an angel touched him and said, “Get up and eat.”

1Kg. 19:6  He looked around, and there by his head was a cake of bread baked over hot coals, and a jar of water. He ate and drank and then lay down again.

1Kg. 19:7  The angel of the LORD came back a second time and touched him and said, “Get up and eat, for the journey is too much for you.”

1Kg. 19:8  So he got up and ate and drank. Strengthened by that food, he travelled for forty days and forty nights until he reached Horeb, the mountain of God.
There he went into a cave and spent the night. And the word of the LORD came to him: “What are you doing here, Elijah?”

He replied, “I have been very zealous for the LORD God Almighty. The Israelites have rejected your covenant, broken down your altars, and put your prophets to death with the sword. I am the only one left, and now they are trying to kill me too.”

The LORD said, “Go out and stand on the mountain in the presence of the LORD, for the LORD is about to pass by.” Then a great and powerful wind tore the mountains apart and shattered the rocks before the LORD, but the LORD was not in the wind. After the wind there was an earthquake, but the LORD was not in the earthquake.

After the earthquake came a fire, but the LORD was not in the fire. And after the fire came a gentle whisper.

When Elijah heard it, he pulled his cloak over his face and went out and stood at the mouth of the cave. Then a voice said to him, “What are you doing here, Elijah?”

He replied, “I have been very zealous for the LORD God Almighty. The Israelites have rejected your covenant, broken down your altars, and put your prophets to death with the sword. I am the only one left, and now they are trying to kill me too.”

The LORD said to him, “Go back the way you came, and go to the Desert of Damascus. When you get there, anoint Hazael king over Aram.

Also, anoint Jehu son of Nimshi king over Israel, and anoint Elisha son of Shaphat from Abel Meholah to succeed you as prophet.

Jehu will put to death any who escape the sword of Hazael, and Elisha will put to death any who escape the sword of Jehu.
Yet I reserve seven thousand in Israel — all whose knees have not bowed down to Baal and all whose mouths have not kissed him.”

So Elijah went from there and found Elisha son of Shaphat. He was ploughing with twelve yoke of oxen, and he himself was driving the twelfth pair. Elijah went up to him and threw his cloak around him.

Elisha then left his oxen and ran after Elijah. “Let me kiss my father and mother good-bye,” he said, “and then I will come with you.” “Go back,” Elijah replied. “What have I done to you?”

So Elisha left him and went back. He took his yoke of oxen and slaughtered them. He burned the ploughing equipment to cook the meat and gave it to the people, and they ate. Then he set out to follow Elijah and became his attendant.

CHAPTER 20

Now Ben-Hadad king of Aram mustered his entire army. Accompanied by thirty-two kings with their horses and chariots, he went up and besieged Samaria and attacked it.

He sent messengers into the city to Ahab king of Israel, saying, “This is what Ben-Hadad says:

`Your silver and gold are mine, and the best of your wives and children are mine.’“

The king of Israel answered, “Just as you say, my lord the king. I and all I have are yours.”

The messengers came again and said, “This is what Ben-Hadad says: ‘I sent to demand your silver and gold, your wives and your children.

But about this time tomorrow I am going to send my officials to search your palace and the houses of your officials. They will seize everything you value and carry it away.’“
The king of Israel summoned all the elders of the land and said to them, “See how this man is looking for trouble! When he sent for my wives and my children, my silver and my gold, I did not refuse him.”

The elders and the people all answered, “Don’t listen to him or agree to his demands.”

So he replied to Ben-Hadad’s messengers, “Tell my lord the king, ‘Your servant will do all you demanded the first time, but this demand I cannot meet.’” They left and took the answer back to Ben-Hadad.

Then Ben-Hadad sent another message to Ahab: “May the gods deal with me, be it ever so severely, if enough dust remains in Samaria to give each of my men a handful.”

The king of Israel answered, “Tell him: ‘One who puts on his armour should not boast like one who takes it off.’”

Ben-Hadad heard this message while he and the kings were drinking in their tents, [Or in Succoth; also in verse 16] and he ordered his men: “Prepare to attack.” So they prepared to attack the city.

Meanwhile a prophet came to Ahab king of Israel and announced, “This is what the LORD says: ‘Do you see this vast army? I will give it into your hand today, and then you will know that I am the LORD.’”

“But who will do this?” asked Ahab. The prophet replied, “This is what the LORD says: ‘The young officers of the provincial commanders will do it.’” “And who will start the battle?” he asked. The prophet answered, “You will.”

So Ahab summoned the young officers of the provincial commanders, 232 men. Then he assembled the rest of the Israelites, 7,000 in all.

They set out at noon while Ben-Hadad and the 32 kings allied with him were in their tents getting drunk.
1Kg. 20:17 The young officers of the provincial commanders went out first. Now Ben-Hadad had dispatched scouts, who reported, “Men are advancing from Samaria.”

1Kg. 20:18 He said, “If they have come out for peace, take them alive; if they have come out for war, take them alive.”

1Kg. 20:19 The young officers of the provincial commanders marched out of the city with the army behind them and each one struck down his opponent. At that, the Arameans fled, with the Israelites in pursuit. But Ben-Hadad king of Aram escaped on horseback with some of his horsemen.

1Kg. 20:20 The king of Israel advanced and overpowered the horses and chariots and inflicted heavy losses on the Arameans.

1Kg. 20:21 Afterwards, the prophet came to the king of Israel and said, “Strengthen your position and see what must be done, because next spring the king of Aram will attack you again.”

1Kg. 20:22 Meanwhile, the officials of the king of Aram advised him, “Their gods are gods of the hills. That is why they were too strong for us. But if we fight them on the plains, surely we will be stronger than they.”

1Kg. 20:23 He agreed with them and acted accordingly.

1Kg. 20:24 Do this: Remove all the kings from their commands and replace them with other officers.

1Kg. 20:25 You must also raise an army like the one you lost — horse for horse and chariot for chariot — so we can fight Israel on the plains. Then surely we will be stronger than they.” He agreed with them and acted accordingly.

1Kg. 20:26 The next spring Ben-Hadad mustered the Arameans and went up to Aphek to fight against Israel.

1Kg. 20:27 When the Israelites were also mustered and given provisions, they marched out to meet them. The Israelites camped opposite them like two small flocks of goats, while the Arameans covered the countryside.
The man of God came up and told the king of Israel, “This is what the LORD says: ‘Because the Arameans think the LORD is a god of the hills and not a god of the valleys, I will deliver this vast army into your hands, and you will know that I am the LORD.’”

For seven days they camped opposite each other, and on the seventh day the battle was joined. The Israelites inflicted a hundred thousand casualties on the Aramean foot soldiers in one day.

The rest of them escaped to the city of Aphek, where the wall collapsed on twenty-seven thousand of them. And Ben-Hadad fled to the city and hid in an inner room.

His officials said to him, “Look, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful. Let us go to the king of Israel with sackcloth round our waists and ropes round our heads. Perhaps he will spare your life.”

Wearing sackcloth round their waists and ropes round their heads, they went to the king of Israel and said, “Your servant Ben-Hadad says: ‘Please let me live.’” The king answered, “Is he still alive? He is my brother.”

The men took this as a good sign and were quick to pick up his word. “Yes, your brother Ben-Hadad!” they said. “Go and get him,” the king said. When Ben-Hadad came out, Ahab had him come up into his chariot.

“I will return the cities my father took from your father,” Ben-Hadad offered. “You may set up your own market areas in Damascus, as my father did in Samaria.” Ahab said, “On the basis of a treaty I will set you free.” So he made a treaty with him, and let him go.

By the word of the LORD one of the sons of the prophets said to his companion, “Strike me with your weapon,” but the man refused.
So the prophet said, “Because you have not obeyed the LORD, as soon as you leave me a lion will kill you.” And after the man went away, a lion found him and killed him.

The prophet found another man and said, “Strike me, please.” So the man struck him and wounded him.

Then the prophet went and stood by the road waiting for the king. He disguised himself with his headband down over his eyes.

As the king passed by, the prophet called out to him, “Your servant went into the thick of the battle, and someone came to me with a captive and said, ‘Guard this man. If he is missing, it will be your life for his life, or you must pay a talent [That is, about 75 pounds (about 34 kilograms)] of silver.’

While your servant was busy here and there, the man disappeared.” “That is your sentence,” the king of Israel said. “You have pronounced it yourself.”

Then the prophet quickly removed the headband from his eyes, and the king of Israel recognised him as one of the prophets.

He said to the king, “This is what the LORD says: ‘You have set free a man I had determined should die. [The Hebrew term refers to the irrevocable giving over of things or persons to the LORD, often by totally destroying them.] Therefore it is your life for his life, your people for his people.’ “

Sullen and angry, the king of Israel went to his palace in Samaria.

CHAPTER 21

Some time later there was an incident involving a vineyard belonging to Naboth the Jezreelite. The vineyard was in Jezreel, close to the palace of Ahab king of Samaria.
1Kg. 21:2 Ahab said to Naboth, “Let me have your vineyard to use for a vegetable garden, since it is close to my palace. In exchange I will give you a better vineyard or, if you prefer, I will pay you whatever it is worth.”

1Kg. 21:3 But Naboth replied, “The LORD forbid that I should give you the inheritance of my fathers.”

1Kg. 21:4 So Ahab went home, sullen and angry because Naboth the Jezreelite had said, “I will not give you the inheritance of my fathers.” He lay on his bed sulking and refused to eat.

1Kg. 21:5 His wife Jezebel came in and asked him, “Why are you so sullen? Why won’t you eat?”

1Kg. 21:6 He answered her, “Because I said to Naboth the Jezreelite, ‘Sell me your vineyard; or if you prefer, I will give you another vineyard in its place.’ But he said, ‘I will not give you my vineyard.’”

1Kg. 21:7 Jezebel his wife said, “Is this how you act as king over Israel? Get up and eat! Cheer up. I’ll get you the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite.”

1Kg. 21:8 So she wrote letters in Ahab’s name, placed his seal on them, and sent them to the elders and nobles who lived in Naboth’s city with him.

1Kg. 21:9 In those letters she wrote: “Proclaim a day of fasting and seat Naboth in a prominent place among the people.

1Kg. 21:10 But seat two scoundrels opposite him and have them testify that he has cursed both God and the king. Then take him out and stone him to death.”

1Kg. 21:11 So the elders and nobles who lived in Naboth’s city did as Jezebel directed in the letters she had written to them.

1Kg. 21:12 They proclaimed a fast and seated Naboth in a prominent place among the people.

1Kg. 21:13 Then two scoundrels came and sat opposite him and brought charges against Naboth before the people, saying, “Naboth has cursed both God and the king.” So they took him outside the city and stoned him to death.

1Kg. 21:14 Then they sent word to Jezebel: “Naboth has been stoned and is dead.”

1Kg. 21:15 As soon as Jezebel heard that Naboth had been stoned to death, she said to Ahab, “Get up and take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite that he refused to sell you. He is no longer alive, but dead.”

1Kg. 21:16 When Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, he got up and went down to take possession of Naboth’s vineyard.

1Kg. 21:17 Then the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite:

1Kg. 21:18 “Go down to meet Ahab king of Israel, who rules in Samaria. He is now in Naboth’s vineyard, where he has gone to take possession of it.

1Kg. 21:19 Say to him, ‘This is what the LORD says: Have you not murdered a man and seized his property?’ Then say to him, ‘This is what the LORD says: In the place where dogs licked up Naboth’s blood, dogs will lick up your blood — yes, yours!’

1Kg. 21:20 Ahab said to Elijah, “So you have found me, my enemy!” “I have found you,” he answered, “because you have sold yourself to do evil in the eyes of the LORD.

1Kg. 21:21 ‘I am going to bring disaster on you. I will consume your descendants and cut off from Ahab every last male in Israel — slave or free.

1Kg. 21:22 I will make your house like that of Jeroboam son of Nebat and that of Baasha son of Ahijah, because you have provoked me to anger and have caused Israel to sin.’

1Kg. 21:23 “And also concerning Jezebel the LORD says: ‘Dogs will devour Jezebel by the wall of [Most Hebrew manuscripts; a few Hebrew manuscripts, Vulgate and Syriac (see also 2 Kings 9:26) the plot of ground at] Jezreel.’
1Kg. 21:24  “Dogs will eat those belonging to Ahab who die in the city, and the birds of the air will feed on those who die in the country.”

1Kg. 21:25  (There was never a man like Ahab, who sold himself to do evil in the eyes of the LORD, urged on by Jezebel his wife.

1Kg. 21:26  He behaved in the vilest manner by going after idols, like the Amorites the LORD drove out before Israel.)

1Kg. 21:27  When Ahab heard these words, he tore his clothes, put on sackcloth and fasted. He lay in sackcloth and went around meekly.

1Kg. 21:28  Then the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite:

1Kg. 21:29  “Have you noticed how Ahab has humbled himself before me? Because he has humbled himself, I will not bring this disaster in his day, but I will bring it on his house in the days of his son.”

CHAPTER 22

1Kg. 22:1  For three years there was no war between Aram and Israel.

1Kg. 22:2  But in the third year Jehoshaphat king of Judah went down to see the king of Israel.

1Kg. 22:3  The king of Israel had said to his officials, “Don’t you know that Ramoth Gilead belongs to us and yet we are doing nothing to retake it from the king of Aram?”

1Kg. 22:4  So he asked Jehoshaphat, “Will you go with me to fight against Ramoth Gilead?” Jehoshaphat replied to the king of Israel, “I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses.”

1Kg. 22:5  But Jehoshaphat also said to the king of Israel, “First seek the counsel of the LORD.”

1Kg. 22:6  So the king of Israel brought together the prophets — about four hundred men — and asked them, “Shall I go to war against Ramoth Gilead, or shall I refrain?” “Go,” they answered, “for the Lord will give it into the king’s hand.”

1Kg. 22:7 But Jehoshaphat asked, “Is there not a prophet of the LORD here whom we can enquire of?”

1Kg. 22:8 The king of Israel answered Jehoshaphat, “There is still one man through whom we can enquire of the LORD, but I hate him because he never prophesies anything good about me, but always bad. He is Micaiah son of Imlah.” “The king should not say that,” Jehoshaphat replied.

1Kg. 22:9 So the king of Israel called one of his officials and said, “Bring Micaiah son of Imlah at once.”

1Kg. 22:10 Dressed in their royal robes, the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah were sitting on their thrones at the threshing-floor by the entrance of the gate of Samaria, with all the prophets prophesying before them.

1Kg. 22:11 Now Zedekiah son of Kenaanah had made iron horns and he declared, “This is what the LORD says: ‘With these you will gore the Arameans until they are destroyed.’ “

1Kg. 22:12 All the other prophets were prophesying the same thing. “Attack Ramoth Gilead and be victorious,” they said, “for the LORD will give it into the king’s hand.”

1Kg. 22:13 The messenger who had gone to summon Micaiah said to him, “Look, as one man the other prophets are predicting success for the king. Let your word agree with theirs, and speak favourably.”

1Kg. 22:14 But Micaiah said, “As surely as the LORD lives, I can tell him only what the LORD tells me.”

1Kg. 22:15 When he arrived, the king asked him, “Micaiah, shall we go to war against Ramoth Gilead, or shall I refrain?” “Attack and be victorious,” he answered, “for the LORD will give it into the king’s hand.”
1Kg. 22:16 The king said to him, “How many times must I make you swear to tell me nothing but the truth in the name of the LORD?”

1Kg. 22:17 Then Micaiah answered, “I saw all Israel scattered on the hills like sheep without a shepherd, and the LORD said, ‘These people have no master. Let each one go home in peace.’”

1Kg. 22:18 The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “Didn’t I tell you that he never prophesies anything good about me, but only bad?”

1Kg. 22:19 Micaiah continued, “Therefore hear the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on his throne with all the host of heaven standing round him on his right and on his left.

1Kg. 22:20 And the LORD said, ‘Who will entice Ahab into attacking Ramoth Gilead and going to his death there?’ “One suggested this, and another that.

1Kg. 22:21 Finally, a spirit came forward, stood before the LORD and said, ‘I will entice him.’

1Kg. 22:22 “‘By what means?’ the LORD asked. “‘I will go out and be a lying spirit in the mouths of all his prophets,’ he said. “‘You will succeed in enticing him,’ said the LORD. ‘Go and do it.’

1Kg. 22:23 “So now the LORD has put a lying spirit in the mouths of all these prophets of yours. The LORD has decreed disaster for you.”

1Kg. 22:24 Then Zedekiah son of Kenaanah went up and slapped Micaiah in the face. “Which way did the spirit from [Or Spirit of] the LORD go when he went from me to speak to you?” he asked.

1Kg. 22:25 Micaiah replied, “You will find out on the day you go to hide in an inner room.”

1Kg. 22:26 The king of Israel then ordered, “Take Micaiah and send him back to Amon the ruler of the city and to Joash the king’s son
1Kg. 22:27 and say, ‘This is what the king says: Put this fellow in prison and give him nothing but bread and water until I return safely.’”

1Kg. 22:28 Micaiah declared, “If you ever return safely, the LORD has not spoken through me.” Then he added, “Mark my words, all you people!”

1Kg. 22:29 So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah went up to Ramoth Gilead.

1Kg. 22:30 The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “I will enter the battle in disguise, but you wear your royal robes.” So the king of Israel disguised himself and went into battle.

1Kg. 22:31 Now the king of Aram had ordered his thirty-two chariot commanders, “Do not fight with anyone, small or great, except the king of Israel.”

1Kg. 22:32 When the chariot commanders saw Jehoshaphat, they thought, “Surely this is the king of Israel.” So they turned to attack him, but when Jehoshaphat cried out, the chariot commanders saw that he was not the king of Israel and stopped pursuing him.

1Kg. 22:33 But someone drew his bow at random and hit the king of Israel between the sections of his armour. The king told his chariot driver, “Wheel round and get me out of the fighting. I’ve been wounded.”

1Kg. 22:34 All day long the battle raged, and the king was propped up in his chariot facing the Arameans. The blood from his wound ran onto the floor of the chariot, and that evening he died.

1Kg. 22:35 As the sun was setting, a cry spread through the army: “Every man to his town; everyone to his land!”

1Kg. 22:36 So the king died and was brought to Samaria, and they buried him there.

1Kg. 22:37 They washed the chariot at a pool in Samaria (where the prostitutes bathed), [Or Samaria and cleaned the weapons] and the dogs licked up his blood, as the word of the LORD had declared.

1Kg. 22:39 As for the other events of Ahab’s reign, including all he did, the palace he built and inlaid with ivory, and the cities he fortified, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?

1Kg. 22:40 Ahab rested with his fathers. And Ahaziah his son succeeded him as king.

1Kg. 22:41 Jehoshaphat son of Asa became king of Judah in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israel.

1Kg. 22:42 Jehoshaphat was thirty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for twenty-five years. His mother’s name was Azubah daughter of Shilhi.

1Kg. 22:43 In everything he walked in the ways of his father Asa and did not stray from them; he did what was right in the eyes of the LORD. The high places, however, were not removed, and the people continued to offer sacrifices and burn incense there.

1Kg. 22:44 Jehoshaphat was also at peace with the king of Israel.

1Kg. 22:45 As for the other events of Jehoshaphat’s reign, the things he achieved and his military exploits, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah?

1Kg. 22:46 He rid the land of the rest of the male shrine-prostitutes who remained there even after the reign of his father Asa.

1Kg. 22:47 There was then no king in Edom; a deputy ruled.

1Kg. 22:48 Now Jehoshaphat built a fleet of trading ships [Hebrew of ships of Tarshish] to go to Ophir for gold, but they never set sail — they were wrecked at Ezion Geber.

1Kg. 22:49 At that time Ahaziah son of Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, “Let my men sail with your men,” but Jehoshaphat refused.

1Kg. 22:50 Then Jehoshaphat rested with his fathers and was buried with them in the city of David his father. And Jehoram his son succeeded him.
Ahaziah son of Ahab became king of Israel in Samaria in the seventeenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and he reigned over Israel for two years.

He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, because he walked in the ways of his father and mother and in the ways of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin.

He served and worshipped Baal and provoked the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger, just as his father had done.
2Kg. 1:1 After Ahab’s death, Moab rebelled against Israel.

2Kg. 1:2 Now Ahaziah had fallen through the lattice of his upper room in Samaria and injured himself. So he sent messengers, saying to them, “Go and consult Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron, to see if I will recover from this injury.”

2Kg. 1:3 But the angel of the LORD said to Elijah the Tishbite, “Go up and meet the messengers of the king of Samaria and ask them, ‘Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are going off to consult Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron?’

2Kg. 1:4 Therefore this is what the LORD says: ‘You will not leave the bed you are lying on. You will certainly die!’ So Elijah went.

2Kg. 1:5 When the messengers returned to the king, he asked them, “Why have you come back?”

2Kg. 1:6 “A man came to meet us,” they replied. “And he said to us, ‘Go back to the king who sent you and tell him, ‘This is what the LORD says: Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are sending men to consult Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron? Therefore you will not leave the bed you are lying on. You will certainly die!’’”

2Kg. 1:7 The king asked them, “What kind of man was it who came to meet you and told you this?”

2Kg. 1:8 They replied, “He was a man with a garment of hair and with a leather belt round his waist.” The king said, “That was Elijah the Tishbite.”

2Kg. 1:9 Then he sent to Elijah a captain with his company of fifty men. The captain went up to Elijah, who was sitting on the top of a hill, and said to him, “Man of God, the king says, `Come down!’“

2Kg. 1:10 Elijah answered the captain, “If I am a man of God, may fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty men!” Then the fire fell from heaven and consumed the captain and his men.

2Kg. 1:11 At this the king sent to Elijah another captain with his fifty men. The captain said to him, “Man of God, this is what the king says, `Come down at once!’“

2Kg. 1:12 “If I am a man of God,” Elijah replied, “may fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty men!” Then the fire of God fell from heaven and consumed him and his fifty men.

2Kg. 1:13 So the king sent a third captain with his fifty men. This third captain went up and fell on his knees before Elijah. “Man of God,” he begged, “please have respect for my life and the lives of these fifty men, your servants!

2Kg. 1:14 See, fire has fallen from heaven and consumed the first two captains and all their men. But now have respect for my life!”

2Kg. 1:15 The angel of the LORD said to Elijah, “Go down with him; do not be afraid of him.” So Elijah got up and went down with him to the king.

2Kg. 1:16 He told the king, “This is what the LORD says: Is it because there is no God in Israel for you to consult that you have sent messengers to consult Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron? Because you have done this, you will never leave the bed you are lying on. You will certainly die!”

2Kg. 1:17 So he died, according to the word of the LORD that Elijah had spoken. Because Ahaziah had no son, Joram [Hebrew Jehoram, a variant of Joram] succeeded him as king in the second year of Jehoram son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah.

2Kg. 1:18 As for all the other events of Ahaziah’s reign, and what he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?
CHAPTER 2

2Kg. 2:1 When the LORD was about to take Elijah up to heaven in a whirlwind, Elijah and Elisha were on their way from Gilgal.

2Kg. 2:2 Elijah said to Elisha, “Stay here; the LORD has sent me to Bethel.” But Elisha said, “As surely as the LORD lives and as you live, I will not leave you.” So they went down to Bethel.

2Kg. 2:3 The company of the prophets at Bethel came out to Elisha and asked, “Do you know that the LORD is going to take your master from you today?” “Yes, I know,” Elisha replied, “but do not speak of it.”

2Kg. 2:4 Then Elijah said to him, “Stay here, Elisha; the LORD has sent me to Jericho.” And he replied, “As surely as the LORD lives and as you live, I will not leave you.” So they went to Jericho.

2Kg. 2:5 The company of the prophets at Jericho went up to Elisha and asked him, “Do you know that the LORD is going to take your master from you today?” “Yes, I know,” he replied, “but do not speak of it.”

2Kg. 2:6 Then Elijah said to him, “Stay here; the LORD has sent me to the Jordan.” And he replied, “As surely as the LORD lives and as you live, I will not leave you.” So the two of them walked on.

2Kg. 2:7 Fifty men of the company of the prophets went and stood at a distance, facing the place where Elijah and Elisha had stopped at the Jordan.

2Kg. 2:8 Elijah took his cloak, rolled it up and struck the water with it. The water divided to the right and to the left, and the two of them crossed over on dry ground.

2Kg. 2:9 When they had crossed, Elijah said to Elisha, “Tell me, what can I do for you before I am taken from you?” “Let me inherit a double portion of your spirit,” Elisha replied.
2Kg. 2:10 “You have asked a difficult thing,” Elijah said, “yet if you see me when I am taken from you, it will be yours — otherwise not.”

2Kg. 2:11 As they were walking along and talking together, suddenly a chariot of fire and horses of fire appeared and separated the two of them, and Elijah went up to heaven in a whirlwind.

2Kg. 2:12 Elisha saw this and cried out, “My father! My father! The chariots and horsemen of Israel!” And Elisha saw him no more. Then he took hold of his own clothes and tore them apart.

2Kg. 2:13 He picked up the cloak that had fallen from Elijah and went back and stood on the bank of the Jordan.

2Kg. 2:14 Then he took the cloak that had fallen from him and struck the water with it. “Where now is the LORD, the God of Elijah?” he asked. When he struck the water, it divided to the right and to the left, and he crossed over.

2Kg. 2:15 The company of the prophets from Jericho, who were watching, said, “The spirit of Elijah is resting on Elisha.” And they went to meet him and bowed to the ground before him.

2Kg. 2:16 “Look,” they said, “we your servants have fifty able men. Let them go and look for your master. Perhaps the Spirit of the LORD has picked him up and set him down on some mountain or in some valley.” “No,” Elisha replied, “do not send them.”

2Kg. 2:17 But they persisted until he was too ashamed to refuse. So he said, “Send them.” And they sent fifty men, who searched for three days but did not find him.

2Kg. 2:18 When they returned to Elisha, who was staying in Jericho, he said to them, “Didn’t I tell you not to go?”

2Kg. 2:19 The men of the city said to Elisha, “Look, our lord, this town is well situated, as you can see, but the water is bad and the land is unproductive.”
“Bring me a new bowl,” he said, “and put salt in it.” So they brought it to him.

Then he went out to the spring and threw the salt into it, saying, “This is what the LORD says: ‘I have healed this water. Never again will it cause death or make the land unproductive.’”

And the water has remained wholesome to this day, according to the word Elisha had spoken.

From there Elisha went up to Bethel. As he was walking along the road, some youths came out of the town and jeered at him. “Go on up, you baldhead!” they said. “Go on up, you baldhead!”

He turned round, looked at them and called down a curse on them in the name of the LORD. Then two bears came out of the woods and mauled forty-two of the youths.

And he went on to Mount Carmel and from there returned to Samaria.

CHAPTER 3

Joram [Hebrew Jehoram, a variant of Joram; also in verse 6] son of Ahab became king of Israel in Samaria in the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and he reigned for twelve years.

He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, but not as his father and mother had done. He got rid of the sacred stone of Baal that his father had made.

Nevertheless he clung to the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he had caused Israel to commit; he did not turn away from them.

Now Mesha king of Moab raised sheep, and he had to supply the king of Israel with a hundred thousand lambs and with the wool of a hundred thousand rams.
But after Ahab died, the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel.

So at that time King Joram set out from Samaria and mobilised all Israel.

He also sent this message to Jehoshaphat king of Judah: “The king of Moab has rebelled against me. Will you go with me to fight against Moab?” “I will go with you,” he replied. “I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses.”

“By what route shall we attack?” he asked. “Through the Desert of Edom,” he answered.

So the king of Israel set out with the king of Judah and the king of Edom. After a roundabout march of seven days, the army had no more water for themselves or for the animals with them.

“What!” exclaimed the king of Israel. “Has the LORD called us three kings together only to hand us over to Moab?”

But Jehoshaphat asked, “Is there no prophet of the LORD here, that we may enquire of the LORD through him?” An officer of the king of Israel answered, “Elisha son of Shaphat is here. He used to pour water on the hands of Elijah.” [That is, he was Elijah’s personal servant.]

Jehoshaphat said, “The word of the LORD is with him.” So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went down to him.

Elisha said to the king of Israel, “What do we have to do with each other? Go to the prophets of your father and the prophets of your mother.” “No,” the king of Israel answered, “because it was the LORD who called us three kings together to hand us over to Moab.”

Elisha said, “As surely as the LORD Almighty lives, whom I serve, if I did not have respect for the presence of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, I would not look at you or even notice you.
But now bring me a harpist.” While the harpist was playing, the hand of the LORD came upon Elisha and he said, “This is what the LORD says: Make this valley full of ditches.

For this is what the LORD says: You will see neither wind nor rain, yet this valley will be filled with water, and you, your cattle and your other animals will drink.

This is an easy thing in the eyes of the LORD; he will also hand Moab over to you.

You will overthrow every fortified city and every major town. You will cut down every good tree, stop up all the springs, and ruin every good field with stones.”

The next morning, about the time for offering the sacrifice, there it was — water flowing from the direction of Edom! And the land was filled with water.

Now all the Moabites had heard that the kings had come to fight against them; so every man, young and old, who could bear arms was called up and stationed on the border.

When they got up early in the morning, the sun was shining on the water. To the Moabites across the way, the water looked red — like blood.

“That’s blood!” they said. “Those kings must have fought and slaughtered each other. Now to the plunder, Moab!”

But when the Moabites came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up and fought them until they fled. And the Israelites invaded the land and slaughtered the Moabites.

They destroyed the towns, and each man threw a stone on every good field until it was covered. They stopped up all the springs and cut down every good tree. Only Kir Hareseth was left with its stones in place, but men armed with slings surrounded it and attacked it as well.
When the king of Moab saw that the battle had gone against him, he took with him seven hundred swordsmen to break through to the king of Edom, but they failed.

Then he took his firstborn son, who was to succeed him as king, and offered him as a sacrifice on the city wall. The fury against Israel was great; they withdrew and returned to their own land.

CHAPTER 4

The wife of a man from the company of the prophets cried out to Elisha, “Your servant my husband is dead, and you know that he revered the LORD. But now his creditor is coming to take my two boys as his slaves.”

Elisha replied to her, “How can I help you? Tell me, what do you have in your house?” “Your servant has nothing there at all,” she said, “except a little oil.”

Elisha said, “Go round and ask all your neighbours for empty jars. Don’t ask for just a few.

Then go inside and shut the door behind you and your sons. Pour oil into all the jars, and as each is filled, put it to one side.”

She left him and afterwards shut the door behind her and her sons. They brought the jars to her and she kept pouring.

When all the jars were full, she said to her son, “Bring me another one.” But he replied, “There is not a jar left.” Then the oil stopped flowing.

She went and told the man of God, and he said, “Go, sell the oil and pay your debts. You and your sons can live on what is left.”

One day Elisha went to Shunem. And a well-to-do woman was there, who urged him to stay for a meal. So whenever he came by, he stopped there to eat.
She said to her husband, “I know that this man who often comes our way is a holy man of God.”

Let’s make a small room on the roof and put in it a bed and a table, a chair and a lamp for him. Then he can stay there whenever he comes to us.”

One day when Elisha came, he went up to his room and lay down there.

He said to his servant Gehazi, “Call the Shunammite.” So he called her, and she stood before him.

Elisha said to him, “Tell her, ‘You have gone to all this trouble for us. Now what can be done for you? Can we speak on your behalf to the king or the commander of the army?’ “She replied, “I have a home among my own people.”

“What can be done for her?” Elisha asked. Gehazi said, “Well, she has no son and her husband is old.”

Then Elisha said, “Call her.” So he called her, and she stood in the doorway.

“About this time next year,” Elisha said, “you will hold a son in your arms.” “No, my lord,” she objected. “Don’t mislead your servant, O man of God!”

But the woman became pregnant, and the next year about that same time she gave birth to a son, just as Elisha had told her.

The child grew, and one day he went out to his father, who was with the reapers.

“My head! My head!” he said to his father. His father told a servant, “Carry him to his mother.”

After the servant had lifted him up and carried him to his mother, the boy sat on her lap until noon, and then he died.

She went up and laid him on the bed of the man of God, then shut the door and went out.
She called her husband and said, “Please send me one of the servants and a donkey so I can go to the man of God quickly and return.”

“Why go to him today?” he asked. “It’s not the New Moon or the Sabbath.” “It’s all right,” she said.

She saddled the donkey and said to her servant, “Lead on; don’t slow down for me unless I tell you.”

So she set out and came to the man of God at Mount Carmel. When he saw her in the distance, the man of God said to his servant Gehazi, “Look! There’s the Shunammite!

Run to meet her and ask her, `Are you all right? Is your husband all right? Is your child all right?’“ “Everything is all right,” she said.

When she reached the man of God at the mountain, she took hold of his feet. Gehazi came over to push her away, but the man of God said, “Leave her alone! She is in bitter distress, but the LORD has hidden it from me and has not told me why.”

“Did I ask you for a son, my lord?” she said. “Didn’t I tell you, `Don’t raise my hopes’?”

Elisha said to Gehazi, “Tuck your cloak into your belt, take my staff in your hand and run. If you meet anyone, do not greet him, and if anyone greets you, do not answer. Lay my staff on the boy’s face.”

But the child’s mother said, “As surely as the LORD lives and as you live, I will not leave you.” So he got up and followed her.

Gehazi went on ahead and laid the staff on the boy’s face, but there was no sound or response. So Gehazi went back to meet Elisha and told him, “The boy has not awakened.”

When Elisha reached the house, there was the boy lying dead on his couch.
He went in, shut the door on the two of them and prayed to the LORD.

Then he got on the bed and lay upon the boy, mouth to mouth, eyes to eyes, hands to hands. As he stretched himself out upon him, the boy’s body grew warm.

Elisha turned away and walked back and forth in the room and then got onto the bed and stretched out upon him once more. The boy sneezed seven times and opened his eyes.

Elisha summoned Gehazi and said, “Call the Shunammite.” And he did. When she came, he said, “Take your son.”

She came in, fell at his feet and bowed to the ground. Then she took her son and went out.

Elisha returned to Gilgal and there was a famine in that region. While the company of the prophets was meeting with him, he said to his servant, “Put on the large pot and cook some stew for these men.”

One of them went out into the fields to gather herbs and found a wild vine. He gathered some of its gourds and filled the fold of his cloak. When he returned, he cut them up into the pot of stew, though no-one knew what they were.

The stew was poured out for the men, but as they began to eat it, they cried out, “O man of God, there is death in the pot!” And they could not eat it.

Elisha said, “Get some flour.” He put it into the pot and said, “Serve it to the people to eat.” And there was nothing harmful in the pot.

A man came from Baal Shalishah, bringing the man of God twenty loaves of barley bread baked from the first ripe corn, along with some ears of new corn. “Give it to the people to eat,” Elisha said.

“How can I set this before a hundred men?” his servant asked. But Elisha answered, “Give it to the people to eat. For this is what the LORD says: ‘They will eat and have some left over.’"

2Kg. 4:44 Then he set it before them, and they ate and had some left over, according to the word of the LORD.

CHAPTER 5

2Kg. 5:1 Now Naaman was commander of the army of the king of Aram. He was a great man in the sight of his master and highly regarded, because through him the LORD had given victory to Aram. He was a valiant soldier, but he had leprosy. [The Hebrew word was used for various diseases affecting the skin — not necessarily leprosy; also in verses 3, 6, 7, 11 and 27.]

2Kg. 5:2 Now bands from Aram had gone out and had taken captive a young girl from Israel, and she served Naaman’s wife.

2Kg. 5:3 She said to her mistress, “If only my master would see the prophet who is in Samaria! He would cure him of his leprosy.”

2Kg. 5:4 Naaman went to his master and told him what the girl from Israel had said.

2Kg. 5:5 “By all means, go,” the king of Aram replied. “I will send a letter to the king of Israel.” So Naaman left, taking with him ten talents [That is, about 750 pounds (about 340 kilograms)] of silver, six thousand shekels [That is, about 150 pounds (about 70 kilograms)] of gold and ten sets of clothing.

2Kg. 5:6 The letter that he took to the king of Israel read: “With this letter I am sending my servant Naaman to you so that you may cure him of his leprosy.”

2Kg. 5:7 As soon as the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his robes and said, “Am I God? Can I kill and bring back to life? Why does this fellow send someone to me to be cured of his leprosy? See how he is trying to pick a quarrel with me!”
When Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his robes, he sent him this message: “Why have you torn your robes? Make the man come to me and he will know that there is a prophet in Israel.”

So Naaman went with his horses and chariots and stopped at the door of Elisha’s house.

Elisha sent a messenger to say to him, “Go, wash yourself seven times in the Jordan, and your flesh will be restored and you will be cleansed.”

But Naaman went away angry and said, “I thought that he would surely come out to me and stand and call on the name of the LORD his God, wave his hand over the spot and cure me of my leprosy.

Are not Abana and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than any of the waters of Israel? Couldn’t I wash in them and be cleansed?” So he turned and went off in a rage.

Naaman’s servants went to him and said, “My father, if the prophet had told you to do some great thing, would you not have done it? How much more, then, when he tells you, ‘Wash and be cleansed’?”

So he went down and dipped himself in the Jordan seven times, as the man of God had told him, and his flesh was restored and became clean like that of a young boy.

Then Naaman and all his attendants went back to the man of God. He stood before him and said, “Now I know that there is no God in all the world except in Israel. Please accept now a gift from your servant.”

The prophet answered, “As surely as the LORD lives, whom I serve, I will not accept a thing.” And even though Naaman urged him, he refused.

“If you will not,” said Naaman, “please let me, your servant, be given as much earth as a pair of mules can carry, for your servant will never again make burnt offerings and sacrifices to any other god but the LORD.
But may the LORD forgive your servant for this one thing: When my master enters the temple of Rimmon to bow down and he is leaning on my arm and I bow there also — when I bow down in the temple of Rimmon, may the LORD forgive your servant for this.”

“Go in peace,” Elisha said. After Naaman had travelled some distance,

So Gehazi hurried after Naaman. When Naaman saw him running towards him, he got down from the chariot to meet him. “Is everything all right?” he asked.

“Everything is all right,” Gehazi answered. “My master sent me to say, ‘Two young men from the company of the prophets have just come to me from the hill country of Ephraim. Please give them a talent [That is, about 75 pounds (about 34 kilograms)] of silver and two sets of clothing.’“

“By all means, take two talents,” said Naaman. He urged Gehazi to accept them, and then tied up the two talents of silver in two bags, with two sets of clothing. He gave them to two of his servants, and they carried them ahead of Gehazi.

When Gehazi came to the hill, he took the things from the servants and put them away in the house. He sent the men away and they left.

Then he went in and stood before his master Elisha. “Where have you been, Gehazi?” Elisha asked. “Your servant didn’t go anywhere,” Gehazi answered.

But Elisha said to him, “Was not my spirit with you when the man got down from his chariot to meet you? Is this the time to take money, or to accept clothes, olive groves, vineyards, flocks, herds, or maidservants and menservants?
Naaman’s leprosy will cling to you and to your descendants for ever.” Then Gehazi went from Elisha’s presence and he was leprous, as white as snow.

CHAPTER 6

The company of the prophets said to Elisha, “Look, the place where we meet with you is too small for us.

Let us go to the Jordan, where each of us can get a pole; and let us build a place there for us to live.” And he said, “Go.”

Then one of them said, “Won’t you please come with your servants?” “I will,” Elisha replied.

And he went with them. They went to the Jordan and began to cut down trees.

As one of them was cutting down a tree, the iron axe-head fell into the water. “Oh, my lord,” he cried out, “it was borrowed!”

The man of God asked, “Where did it fall?” When he showed him the place, Elisha cut a stick and threw it there, and made the iron float.

“Lift it out,” he said. Then the man reached out his hand and took it.

Now the king of Aram was at war with Israel. After conferring with his officers, he said, “I will set up my camp in such and such a place.”

The man of God sent word to the king of Israel: “Beware of passing that place, because the Arameans are going down there.”

So the king of Israel checked on the place indicated by the man of God. Time and again Elisha warned the king, so that he was on his guard in such places.
This enraged the king of Aram. He summoned his officers and demanded of them, “Will you not tell me which of us is on the side of the king of Israel?”

“None of us, my lord the king,” said one of his officers, “but Elisha, the prophet who is in Israel, tells the king of Israel the very words you speak in your bedroom.”

“Go, find out where he is,” the king ordered, “so that I can send men and capture him.” The report came back: “He is in Dothan.”

Then he sent horses and chariots and a strong force there. They went by night and surrounded the city.

When the servant of the man of God got up and went out early the next morning, an army with horses and chariots had surrounded the city. “Oh, my lord, what shall we do?” the servant asked.

“Don’t be afraid,” the prophet answered. “Those who are with us are more than those who are with them.”

And Elisha prayed, “O LORD, open his eyes so that he may see.” Then the LORD opened the servant’s eyes, and he looked and saw the hills full of horses and chariots of fire all round Elisha.

As the enemy came down towards him, Elisha prayed to the LORD, “Strike these people with blindness.” So he struck them with blindness, as Elisha had asked.

Elisha told them, “This is not the road and this is not the city. Follow me, and I will lead you to the man you are looking for.” And he led them to Samaria.

After they entered the city, Elisha said, “LORD, open the eyes of these men so that they can see.” Then the LORD opened their eyes and they looked, and there they were, inside Samaria.

When the king of Israel saw them, he asked Elisha, “Shall I kill them, my father? Shall I kill them?”
“Do not kill them,” he answered. “Would you kill men you have captured with your own sword or bow? Set food and water before them so that they may eat and drink and then go back to their master.”

So he prepared a great feast for them, and after they had finished eating and drinking, he sent them away, and they returned to their master. So the bands from Aram stopped raiding Israel’s territory.

Some time later, Ben-Hadad king of Aram mobilised his entire army and marched up and laid siege to Samaria.

There was a great famine in the city; the siege lasted so long that a donkey’s head sold for eighty shekels [That is, about 2 pounds (about 1 kilogram)] of silver, and a quarter of a cab [That is, probably about 1/2 pint (about 0.3 litre)] of seed pods [Or of dove’s dung] for five shekels. [That is, about 2 ounces (about 55 grams)]

As the king of Israel was passing by on the wall, a woman cried to him, “Help me, my lord the king!”

The king replied, “If the LORD does not help you, where can I get help for you? From the threshing-floor? From the winepress?”

Then he asked her, “What’s the matter?” She answered, “This woman said to me, ‘Give up your son so that we may eat him today, and tomorrow we’ll eat my son.’

So we cooked my son and ate him. The next day I said to her, ‘Give up your son so that we may eat him,’ but she had hidden him.”

When the king heard the woman’s words, he tore his robes. As he went along the wall, the people looked, and there, underneath, he had sackcloth on his body.

He said, “May God deal with me, be it ever so severely, if the head of Elisha son of Shaphat remains on his shoulders today!”
Now Elisha was sitting in his house, and the elders were sitting with him. The king sent a messenger ahead, but before he arrived, Elisha said to the elders, “Don’t you see how this murderer is sending someone to cut off my head? Look, when the messenger comes, shut the door and hold it shut against him. Is not the sound of his master’s footsteps behind him?”

While he was still talking to them, the messenger came down to him. And the king said, “This disaster is from the LORD. Why should I wait for the LORD any longer?”

CHAPTER 7

Elisha said, “Hear the word of the LORD. This is what the LORD says: About this time tomorrow, a seah [That is, probably about 13 pints (about 7.3 litres); also in verses 16 and 18] of flour will sell for a shekel [That is, about 2/5 ounce (about 11 grams); also in verses 16 and 18] and two seahs [That is, probably about 13 quarts (about 15 litres); also in verses 16 and 18] of barley for a shekel at the gate of Samaria.”

The officer on whose arm the king was leaning said to the man of God, “Look, even if the LORD should open the floodgates of the heavens, could this happen?” “You will see it with your own eyes,” answered Elisha, “but you will not eat any of it!”

Now there were four men with leprosy [The Hebrew word is used for various diseases affecting the skin — not necessarily leprosy; also in verse 8.] at the entrance of the city gate. They said to each other, “Why stay here until we die?

If we say, ‘We’ll go into the city’ — the famine is there, and we will die. And if we stay here, we will die. So let’s go over to the camp of the Arameans and surrender. If they spare us, we live; if they kill us, then we die.”
At dusk they got up and went to the camp of the Arameans. When they reached the edge of the camp, not a man was there, for the Lord had caused the Arameans to hear the sound of chariots and horses and a great army, so that they said to one another, “Look, the king of Israel has hired the Hittite and Egyptian kings to attack us!”

So they got up and fled in the dusk and abandoned their tents and their horses and donkeys. They left the camp as it was and ran for their lives.

The men who had leprosy reached the edge of the camp and entered one of the tents. They ate and drank, and carried away silver, gold and clothes, and went off and hid them. They returned and entered another tent and took some things from it and hid them also.

Then they said to each other, “We’re not doing right. This is a day of good news and we are keeping it to ourselves. If we wait until daylight, punishment will overtake us. Let’s go at once and report this to the royal palace.”

So they went and called out to the city gatekeepers and told them, “We went into the Aramean camp and not a man was there — not a sound of anyone — only tethered horses and donkeys, and the tents left just as they were.”

The gatekeepers shouted the news, and it was reported within the palace.

One of his officers answered, “Make some men take five of the horses that are left in the city. Their plight will be like that of all the Israelites left here — yes, they will only be like all these Israelites who are doomed. So let us send them to find out what happened.”

2Kg. 7:14  So they selected two chariots with their horses, and the king sent them after the Aramean army. He commanded the drivers, “Go and find out what has happened.”

2Kg. 7:15  They followed them as far as the Jordan, and they found the whole road strewn with the clothing and equipment the Arameans had thrown away in their headlong flight. So the messengers returned and reported to the king.

2Kg. 7:16  Then the people went out and plundered the camp of the Arameans. So a seah of flour sold for a shekel, and two seahs of barley sold for a shekel, as the LORD had said.

2Kg. 7:17  Now the king had put the officer on whose arm he leaned in charge of the gate, and the people trampled him in the gateway, and he died, just as the man of God had foretold when the king came down to his house.

2Kg. 7:18  It happened as the man of God had said to the king: “About this time tomorrow, a seah of flour will sell for a shekel and two seahs of barley for a shekel at the gate of Samaria.”

2Kg. 7:19  The officer had said to the man of God, “Look, even if the LORD should open the floodgates of the heavens, could this happen?” The man of God had replied, “You will see it with your own eyes, but you will not eat any of it!”

2Kg. 7:20  And that is exactly what happened to him, for the people trampled him in the gateway, and he died.

CHAPTER 8

2Kg. 8:1  Now Elisha had said to the woman whose son he had restored to life, “Go away with your family and stay for a while wherever you can, because the LORD has decreed a famine in the land that will last seven years.”
2Kg. 8:2 The woman proceeded to do as the man of God said. She and her family went away and stayed in the land of the Philistines for seven years.

2Kg. 8:3 At the end of the seven years she came back from the land of the Philistines and went to the king to beg for her house and land.

2Kg. 8:4 The king was talking to Gehazi, the servant of the man of God, and had said, “Tell me about all the great things Elisha has done.”

2Kg. 8:5 Just as Gehazi was telling the king how Elisha had restored the dead to life, the woman whose son Elisha had brought back to life came to beg the king for her house and land. Gehazi said, “This is the woman, my lord the king, and this is her son whom Elisha restored to life.”

2Kg. 8:6 The king asked the woman about it, and she told him. Then he assigned an official to her case and said to him, “Give back everything that belonged to her, including all the income from her land from the day she left the country until now.”

2Kg. 8:7 Elisha went to Damascus, and Ben-Hadad king of Aram was ill. When the king was told, “The man of God has come all the way up here,”

2Kg. 8:8 he said to Hazael, “Take a gift with you and go to meet the man of God. Consult the LORD through him; ask him, ‘Will I recover from this illness?’”

2Kg. 8:9 Hazael went to meet Elisha, taking with him as a gift forty camel-loads of all the finest wares of Damascus. He went in and stood before him, and said, “Your son Ben-Hadad king of Aram has sent me to ask, ‘Will I recover from this illness?’”

2Kg. 8:10 Elisha answered, “Go and say to him, ‘You will certainly recover’; but [The Hebrew may also be read Go and say, ‘You will certainly not recover,’ for.] the LORD has revealed to me that he will in fact die.”
He stared at him with a fixed gaze until Hazael felt ashamed. Then the man of God began to weep.

“Why is my lord weeping?” asked Hazael. “Because I know the harm you will do to the Israelites,” he answered. “You will set fire to their fortified places, kill their young men with the sword, dash their little children to the ground, and rip open their pregnant women.”

Hazael said, “How could your servant, a mere dog, accomplish such a feat?” “The LORD has shown me that you will become king of Aram,” answered Elisha.

Then Hazael left Elisha and returned to his master. When Ben-Hadad asked, “What did Elisha say to you?” Hazael replied, “He told me that you would certainly recover.”

But the next day he took a thick cloth, soaked it in water and spread it over the king’s face, so that he died. Then Hazael succeeded him as king.

In the fifth year of Joram son of Ahab king of Israel, when Jehoshaphat was king of Judah, Jehoram son of Jehoshaphat began his reign as king of Judah.

He was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for eight years.

He walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, as the house of Ahab had done, for he married a daughter of Ahab. He did evil in the eyes of the LORD.

Nevertheless, for the sake of his servant David, the LORD was not willing to destroy Judah. He had promised to maintain a lamp for David and his descendants for ever.

In the time of Jehoram, Edom rebelled against Judah and set up its own king.

So Jehoram [Hebrew Joram, a variant of Jehoram; also in verses 23 and 24] went to Zair with all his chariots. The Edomites surrounded him and his chariot commanders, but he rose up and broke through by night; his army, however, fled back home.

2Kg. 8:22 To this day Edom has been in rebellion against Judah. Libnah revolted at the same time.

2Kg. 8:23 As for the other events of Jehoram’s reign, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah?

2Kg. 8:24 Jehoram rested with his fathers and was buried with them in the City of David. And Ahaziah his son succeeded him as king.

2Kg. 8:25 In the twelfth year of Joram son of Ahab king of Israel, Ahaziah son of Jehoram king of Judah began to reign.

2Kg. 8:26 Ahaziah was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for one year. His mother’s name was Athaliah, a granddaughter of Omri king of Israel.

2Kg. 8:27 He walked in the ways of the house of Ahab and did evil in the eyes of the LORD, as the house of Ahab had done, for he was related by marriage to Ahab’s family.

2Kg. 8:28 Ahaziah went with Joram son of Ahab to war against Hazael king of Aram at Ramoth Gilead. The Arameans wounded Joram;

2Kg. 8:29 so King Joram returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds the Arameans had inflicted on him at Ramoth [Hebrew Ramah, a variant of Ramoth] in his battle with Hazael king of Aram. Then Ahaziah son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to Jezreel to see Joram son of Ahab, because he had been wounded.

CHAPTER 9

2Kg. 9:1 The prophet Elisha summoned a man from the company of the prophets and said to him, “Tuck your cloak into your belt, take this flask of oil with you and go to Ramoth Gilead.
2Kg. 9:2 When you get there, look for Jehu son of Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi. Go to him, get him away from his companions and take him into an inner room.

2Kg. 9:3 Then take the flask and pour the oil on his head and declare, `This is what the LORD says: I anoint you king over Israel.' Then open the door and run; don’t delay!"

2Kg. 9:4 So the young man, the prophet, went to Ramoth Gilead.

2Kg. 9:5 When he arrived, he found the army officers sitting together. “I have a message for you, commander,” he said. “For which of us?” asked Jehu. “For you, commander,” he replied.

2Kg. 9:6 Jehu got up and went into the house. Then the prophet poured the oil on Jehu’s head and declared, “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: ‘I anoint you king over the LORD’s people Israel.

2Kg. 9:7 You are to destroy the house of Ahab your master, and I will avenge the blood of my servants the prophets and the blood of all the LORD’s servants shed by Jezebel.

2Kg. 9:8 The whole house of Ahab will perish. I will cut off from Ahab every last male in Israel — slave or free.

2Kg. 9:9 I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam son of Nebat and like the house of Baasha son of Ahijah.

2Kg. 9:10 As for Jezebel, dogs will devour her on the plot of ground at Jezreel, and no-one will bury her.” Then he opened the door and ran.

2Kg. 9:11 When Jehu went out to his fellow officers, one of them asked him, “Is everything all right? Why did this madman come to you?” “You know the man and the sort of things he says,” Jehu replied.

2Kg. 9:12 “That’s not true!” they said. “Tell us.” Jehu said, “Here is what he told me: ‘This is what the LORD says: I anoint you king over Israel.’"
They hurried and took their cloaks and spread them under him on the bare steps. Then they blew the trumpet and shouted, “Jehu is king!”

So Jehu son of Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi, conspired against Joram. (Now Joram and all Israel had been defending Ramoth Gilead against Hazael king of Aram, but King Joram [Hebrew Jehoram, a variant of Joram; also in verses 17 and 21-24] had returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds the Arameans had inflicted on him in the battle with Hazael king of Aram.) Jehu said, “If this is the way you feel, don’t let anyone slip out of the city to go and tell the news in Jezreel.”

Then he got into his chariot and rode to Jezreel, because Joram was resting there and Ahaziah king of Judah had gone down to see him.

When the lookout standing on the tower in Jezreel saw Jehu’s troops approaching, he called out, “I see some troops coming.” “Get a horseman,” Joram ordered. “Send him to meet them and ask, ‘Do you come in peace?’”

The horseman rode off to meet Jehu and said, “This is what the king says: ‘Do you come in peace?’” “What do you have to do with peace?” Jehu replied. “Fall in behind me.” The lookout reported, “The messenger has reached them, but he isn’t coming back.”

So the king sent out a second horseman. When he came to them he said, “This is what the king says: ‘Do you come in peace?’” “What do you have to do with peace? Fall in behind me.”

“Hitch up my chariot,” Joram ordered. And when it was hitched up, Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah rode out, each in his own chariot, to meet Jehu. They met him at the plot of ground that had belonged to Naboth the Jezreelite.

2Kg. 9:22 When Joram saw Jehu he asked, “Have you come in peace, Jehu?” “How can there be peace,” Jehu replied, “as long as all the idolatry and witchcraft of your mother Jezebel abound?”

2Kg. 9:23 Joram turned about and fled, calling out to Ahaziah, “Treachery, Ahaziah!”

2Kg. 9:24 Then Jehu drew his bow and shot Joram between the shoulders. The arrow pierced his heart and he slumped down in his chariot.

2Kg. 9:25 Jehu said to Bidkar, his chariot officer, “Pick him up and throw him on the field that belonged to Naboth the Jezreelite. Remember how you and I were riding together in chariots behind Ahab his father when the LORD made this prophecy about him:

2Kg. 9:26 ‘Yesterday I saw the blood of Naboth and the blood of his sons, declares the LORD, and I will surely make you pay for it on this plot of ground, declares the LORD.’ [See 1 Kings 21:19.] Now then, pick him up and throw him on that plot, in accordance with the word of the LORD.”

2Kg. 9:27 When Ahaziah king of Judah saw what had happened, he fled up the road to Beth Haggan. [Or fled by way of the garden house] Jehu chased him, shouting, “Kill him too!” They wounded him in his chariot on the way up to Gur near Ibleam, but he escaped to Megiddo and died there.

2Kg. 9:28 His servants took him by chariot to Jerusalem and buried him with his fathers in his tomb in the City of David.

2Kg. 9:29 (In the eleventh year of Joram son of Ahab, Ahaziah had become king of Judah.)

2Kg. 9:30 Then Jehu went to Jezreel. When Jezebel heard about it, she painted her eyes, arranged her hair and looked out of a window.
As Jehu entered the gate, she asked, “Have you come in peace, Zimri, you murderer of your master?” [Or “Did Zimri have peace, who murdered his master?”]

He looked up at the window and called out, “Who is on my side? Who?” Two or three eunuchs looked down at him.

“Throw her down!” Jehu said. So they threw her down, and some of her blood spattered the wall and the horses as they trampled her underfoot.

Jehu went in and ate and drank. “Take care of that cursed woman,” he said, “and bury her, for she was a king’s daughter.”

But when they went out to bury her, they found nothing except her skull, her feet and her hands.

They went back and told Jehu, who said, “This is the word of the LORD that he spoke through his servant Elijah the Tishbite: On the plot of ground at Jezreel dogs will devour Jezebel’s flesh. [See 1 Kings 21:23.]

Jezebel’s body will be like refuse on the ground in the plot at Jezreel, so that no-one will be able to say, `This is Jezebel.’

CHAPTER 10

Now there were in Samaria seventy sons of the house of Ahab. So Jehu wrote letters and sent them to Samaria: to the officials of Jezreel, [Hebrew; some Septuagint manuscripts and Vulgate of the city] to the elders and to the guardians of Ahab’s children. He said,

“As soon as this letter reaches you, since your master’s sons are with you and you have chariots and horses, a fortified city and weapons, choose the best and most worthy of your master’s sons and set him on his father’s throne. Then fight for your master’s house.”

But they were terrified and said, “If two kings could not resist him, how can we?”

So the palace administrator, the city governor, the elders and the guardians sent this message to Jehu: “We are your servants and we will do anything you say. We will not appoint anyone as king; you do whatever you think best.”

Then Jehu wrote them a second letter, saying, “If you are on my side and will obey me, take the heads of your master’s sons and come to me in Jezreel by this time tomorrow.” Now the royal princes, seventy of them, were with the leading men of the city, who were bringing them up.

When the letter arrived, these men took the princes and slaughtered all seventy of them. They put their heads in baskets and sent them to Jehu in Jezreel.

When the messenger arrived, he told Jehu, “They have brought the heads of the princes.” Then Jehu ordered, “Put them in two piles at the entrance of the city gate until morning.”

The next morning Jehu went out. He stood before all the people and said, “You are innocent. It was I who conspired against my master and killed him, but who killed all these?

Know then, that not a word the LORD has spoken against the house of Ahab will fail. The LORD has done what he promised through his servant Elijah.”

So Jehu killed everyone in Jezreel who remained of the house of Ahab, as well as all his chief men, his close friends and his priests, leaving him no survivor.

Jehu then set out and went towards Samaria. At Beth Eked of the Shepherds, he met some relatives of Ahaziah king of Judah and asked, “Who are you?” They said, “We are relatives of Ahaziah, and we have come down to greet the families of the king and of the queen mother.”

“Take them alive!” he ordered. So they took them alive and slaughtered them by the well of Beth Eked — forty-two men. He left no survivor.

After he left there, he came upon Jehonadab son of Recab, who was on his way to meet him. Jehu greeted him and said, “Are you in accord with me, as I am with you?” “I am,” Jehonadab answered. “If so,” said Jehu, “give me your hand.” So he did, and Jehu helped him up into the chariot.

Jehu said, “Come with me and see my zeal for the LORD.” Then he made him ride in his chariot.

When Jehu came to Samaria, he killed all who were left there of Ahab’s family; he destroyed them, according to the word of the LORD spoken to Elijah.

Then Jehu brought all the people together and said to them, “Ahab served Baal a little; Jehu will serve him much. Now summon all the prophets of Baal, all his ministers and all his priests. See that no-one is missing, because I am going to hold a great sacrifice for Baal. Anyone who fails to come will no longer live.” But Jehu was acting deceptively in order to destroy the ministers of Baal.

Jehu said, “Call an assembly in honour of Baal.” So they proclaimed it.

Then he sent word throughout Israel, and all the ministers of Baal came; not one stayed away. They crowded into the temple of Baal until it was full from one end to the other.

And Jehu said to the keeper of the wardrobe, “Bring robes for all the ministers of Baal.” So he brought out robes for them.

Then Jehu and Jehonadab son of Recab went into the temple of Baal. Jehu said to the ministers of Baal, “Look around and see that no servants of the LORD are here with you — only ministers of Baal.”
So they went in to make sacrifices and burnt offerings. Now Jehu had posted eighty men outside with this warning: “If one of you lets any of the men I am placing in your hands escape, it will be your life for his life.”

As soon as Jehu had finished making the burnt offering, he ordered the guards and officers: “Go in and kill them; let no-one escape.” So they cut them down with the sword. The guards and officers threw the bodies out and then entered the inner shrine of the temple of Baal.

They brought the sacred stone out of the temple of Baal and burned it.

They demolished the sacred stone of Baal and tore down the temple of Baal, and people have used it for a latrine to this day.

So Jehu destroyed Baal worship in Israel.

However, he did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he had caused Israel to commit — the worship of the golden calves at Bethel and Dan.

The LORD said to Jehu, “Because you have done well in accomplishing what is right in my eyes and have done to the house of Ahab all I had in mind to do, your descendants will sit on the throne of Israel to the fourth generation.”

Yet Jehu was not careful to keep the law of the LORD, the God of Israel, with all his heart. He did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam, which he had caused Israel to commit.

In those days the LORD began to reduce the size of Israel. Hazael overpowered the Israelites throughout their territory east of the Jordan in all the land of Gilead (the region of Gad, Reuben and Manasseh), from Aroer by the Arnon Gorge through Gilead to Bashan.

As for the other events of Jehu’s reign, all he did, and all his achievements, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?
When Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she proceeded to destroy the whole royal family.

But Jehosheba, the daughter of King Jehoram [Hebrew Joram, a variant of Jehoram] and sister of Ahaziah, took Joash son of Ahaziah and stole him away from among the royal princes, who were about to be murdered. She put him and his nurse in a bedroom to hide him from Athaliah; so he was not killed.

He remained hidden with his nurse at the temple of the LORD for six years while Athaliah ruled the land.

In the seventh year Jehoiada sent for the commanders of units of a hundred, the Carites and the guards and had them brought to him at the temple of the LORD. He made a covenant with them and put them under oath at the temple of the LORD. Then he showed them the king’s son.

He commanded them, saying, “This is what you are to do: You who are in the three companies that are going on duty on the Sabbath — a third of you guarding the royal palace, a third at the Sur Gate, and a third at the gate behind the guard, who take turns guarding the temple — and you who are in the other two companies that normally go off Sabbath duty are all to guard the temple for the king.

Station yourselves round the king, each man with his weapon in his hand. Anyone who approaches your ranks [Or approaches the precincts] must be put to death. Stay close to the king wherever he goes.”
The commanders of units of a hundred did just as Jehoiada the priest ordered. Each one took his men — those who were going on duty on the Sabbath and those who were going off duty — and came to Jehoiada the priest.

Then he gave the commanders the spears and shields that had belonged to King David and that were in the temple of the LORD.

The guards, each with his weapon in his hand, stationed themselves round the king — near the altar and the temple, from the south side to the north side of the temple.

Jehoiada brought out the king’s son and put the crown on him; he presented him with a copy of the covenant and proclaimed him king. They anointed him, and the people clapped their hands and shouted, “Long live the king!”

When Athaliah heard the noise made by the guards and the people, she went to the people at the temple of the LORD.

She looked and there was the king, standing by the pillar, as the custom was. The officers and the trumpeters were beside the king, and all the people of the land were rejoicing and blowing trumpets. Then Athaliah tore her robes and called out, “Treason! Treason!”

Jehoiada the priest ordered the commanders of units of a hundred, who were in charge of the troops: “Bring her out between the ranks [Or out from the precincts] and put to the sword anyone who follows her.” For the priest had said, “She must not be put to death in the temple of the LORD.”

So they seized her as she reached the place where the horses enter the palace grounds, and there she was put to death.

Jehoiada then made a covenant between the LORD and the king and people that they would be the LORD’s people. He also made a covenant between the king and the people.

All the people of the land went to the temple of Baal and tore it down. They smashed the altars and idols to pieces and killed Mattan the priest of Baal in front of the altars. Then Jehoiada the priest posted guards at the temple of the LORD.

2Kg. 11:19 He took with him the commanders of hundreds, the Carites, the guards and all the people of the land, and together they brought the king down from the temple of the LORD and went into the palace, entering by way of the gate of the guards. The king then took his place on the royal throne,

2Kg. 11:20 and all the people of the land rejoiced. And the city was quiet, because Athaliah had been slain with the sword at the palace.

2Kg. 11:21 Joash [Hebrew Jehoash, a variant of Joash] was seven years old when he began his reign.

CHAPTER 12

2Kg. 12:1 In the seventh year of Jehu, Joash [Hebrew Jehoash, a variant of Joash; also in verses 2, 4, 6, 7 and 18] became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for forty years. His mother’s name was Zibiah; she was from Beersheba.

2Kg. 12:2 Joash did what was right in the eyes of the LORD all the years Jehoiada the priest instructed him.

2Kg. 12:3 The high places, however, were not removed; the people continued to offer sacrifices and burn incense there.

2Kg. 12:4 Joash said to the priests, “Collect all the money that is brought as sacred offerings to the temple of the LORD — the money collected in the census, the money received from personal vows and the money brought voluntarily to the temple.

2Kg. 12:5 Let every priest receive the money from one of the treasurers, and let it be used to repair whatever damage is found in the temple.”

2Kg. 12:6 But by the twenty-third year of King Joash the priests still had not repaired the temple.
Therefore King Joash summoned Jehoiada the priest and the other priests and asked them, “Why aren’t you repairing the damage done to the temple? Take no more money from your treasurers, but hand it over for repairing the temple.”

The priests agreed that they would not collect any more money from the people and that they would not repair the temple themselves.

Jehoiada the priest took a chest and bored a hole in its lid. He placed it beside the altar, on the right side as one enters the temple of the LORD. The priests who guarded the entrance put into the chest all the money that was brought to the temple of the LORD.

Whenever they saw that there was a large amount of money in the chest, the royal secretary and the high priest came, counted the money that had been brought into the temple of the LORD and put it into bags.

When the amount had been determined, they gave the money to the men appointed to supervise the work on the temple. With it they paid those who worked on the temple of the LORD — the carpenters and builders.

The money brought into the temple was not spent for making silver basins, wick trimmers, sprinkling bowls, trumpets or any other articles of gold or silver for the temple of the LORD;

it was paid to the workmen, who used it to repair the temple.

They did not require an accounting from those to whom they gave the money to pay the workers, because they acted with complete honesty.

The money from the guilt offerings and sin offerings was not brought into the temple of the LORD; it belonged to the priests.
2Kg. 12:17 About this time Hazael king of Aram went up and attacked Gath and captured it. Then he turned to attack Jerusalem.

2Kg. 12:18 But Joash king of Judah took all the sacred objects dedicated by his fathers — Jehoshaphat, Jehoram and Ahaziah, the kings of Judah — and the gifts he himself had dedicated and all the gold found in the treasuries of the temple of the LORD and of the royal palace, and he sent them to Hazael king of Aram, who then withdrew from Jerusalem.

2Kg. 12:19 As for the other events of the reign of Joash, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah?

2Kg. 12:20 His officials conspired against him and assassinated him at Beth Millo, on the road down to Silla.

2Kg. 12:21 The officials who murdered him were Jozabad son of Shimeath and Jehozabad son of Shomer. He died and was buried with his fathers in the City of David. And Amaziah his son succeeded him as king.

CHAPTER 13

2Kg. 13:1 In the twenty-third year of Joash son of Ahaziah king of Judah, Jehoahaz son of Jehu became king of Israel in Samaria, and he reigned for seventeen years.

2Kg. 13:2 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD by following the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he had caused Israel to commit, and he did not turn away from them.

2Kg. 13:3 So the LORD’s anger burned against Israel, and for a long time he kept them under the power of Hazael king of Aram and Ben-Hadad his son.

2Kg. 13:4 Then Jehoahaz sought the LORD’s favour, and the LORD listened to him, for he saw how severely the king of Aram was oppressing Israel.
The LORD provided a deliverer for Israel, and they escaped from the power of Aram. So the Israelites lived in their own homes as they had before.

But they did not turn away from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, which he had caused Israel to commit; they continued in them. Also, the Asherah pole [That is, a symbol of the goddess Asherah; here and elsewhere in 2 Kings] remained standing in Samaria.

Nothing had been left of the army of Jehoahaz except fifty horsemen, ten chariots and ten thousand foot soldiers, for the king of Aram had destroyed the rest and made them like the dust at threshing time.

As for the other events of the reign of Jehoahaz, all he did and his achievements, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?

Jehoahaz rested with his fathers and was buried in Samaria. And Jehoash [Hebrew Joash, a variant of Jehoash; also in verses 12-14 and 25] his son succeeded him as king.

In the thirty-seventh year of Joash king of Judah, Jehoash son of Jehoahaz became king of Israel in Samaria, and he reigned for sixteen years.

He did evil in the eyes of the LORD and did not turn away from any of the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he had caused Israel to commit; he continued in them.

As for the other events of the reign of Jehoash, all he did and his achievements, including his war against Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?

Jehoash rested with his fathers, and Jeroboam succeeded him on the throne. Jehoash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.

Now Elisha was suffering from the illness from which he died. Jehoash king of Israel went down to see him and wept.
over him. “My father! My father!” he cried. “The chariots and horsemen of Israel!”

2Kg. 13:15 Elisha said, “Get a bow and some arrows,” and he did so.

2Kg. 13:16 “Take the bow in your hands,” he said to the king of Israel. When he had taken it, Elisha put his hands on the king’s hands.

2Kg. 13:17 “Open the east window,” he said, and he opened it. “Shoot!” Elisha said, and he shot. “The LORD’s arrow of victory, the arrow of victory over Aram!” Elisha declared. “You will completely destroy the Arameans at Aphek.”

2Kg. 13:18 Then he said, “Take the arrows,” and the king took them. Elisha told him, “Strike the ground.” He struck it three times and stopped.

2Kg. 13:19 The man of God was angry with him and said, “You should have struck the ground five or six times; then you would have defeated Aram and completely destroyed it. But now you will defeat it only three times.”

2Kg. 13:20 Elisha died and was buried. Now Moabite raiders used to enter the country every spring.

2Kg. 13:21 Once while some Israelites were burying a man, suddenly they saw a band of raiders; so they threw the man’s body into Elisha’s tomb. When the body touched Elisha’s bones, the man came to life and stood up on his feet.

2Kg. 13:22 Hazael king of Aram oppressed Israel throughout the reign of Jehoahaz.

2Kg. 13:23 But the LORD was gracious to them and had compassion and showed concern for them because of his covenant with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. To this day he has been unwilling to destroy them or banish them from his presence.

2Kg. 13:24 Hazael king of Aram died, and Ben-Hadad his son succeeded him as king.

2Kg. 13:25 Then Jehoash son of Jehoahaz recaptured from Ben-Hadad son of Hazael the towns he had taken in battle from his father.
Jehoahaz. Three times Jehoash defeated him, and so he recovered the Israelite towns.

CHAPTER 14

2Kg. 14:1 In the second year of Jehoash [Hebrew Joash, a variant of Jehoash; also in verses 13, 23 and 27] son of Jehoahaz king of Israel, Amaziah son of Joash king of Judah began to reign.

2Kg. 14:2 He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for twenty-nine years. His mother’s name was Jehoaddin; she was from Jerusalem.

2Kg. 14:3 He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, but not as his father David had done. In everything he followed the example of his father Joash.

2Kg. 14:4 The high places, however, were not removed; the people continued to offer sacrifices and burn incense there.

2Kg. 14:5 After the kingdom was firmly in his grasp, he executed the officials who had murdered his father the king.

2Kg. 14:6 Yet he did not put the sons of the assassins to death, in accordance with what is written in the Book of the Law of Moses where the LORD commanded: “Fathers shall not be put to death for their children, nor children put to death for their fathers; each is to die for his own sins.” [Deut. 24:16]

2Kg. 14:7 He was the one who defeated ten thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt and captured Sela in battle, calling it Joktheel, the name it has to this day.

2Kg. 14:8 Then Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, king of Israel, with the challenge: “Come, meet me face to face.”

2Kg. 14:9 But Jehoash king of Israel replied to Amaziah king of Judah: “A thistle in Lebanon sent a message to a cedar in Lebanon, ‘Give your daughter to my son in marriage.’ Then a wild beast in Lebanon came along and trampled the thistle underfoot.

2Kg. 14:10 You have indeed defeated Edom and now you are arrogant. Glory in your victory, but stay at home! Why ask for trouble and cause your own downfall and that of Judah also?”

2Kg. 14:11 Amaziah, however, would not listen, so Jehoash king of Israel attacked. He and Amaziah king of Judah faced each other at Beth Shemesh in Judah.

2Kg. 14:12 Judah was routed by Israel, and every man fled to his home.

2Kg. 14:13 Jehoash king of Israel captured Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash, the son of Ahaziah, at Beth Shemesh. Then Jehoash went to Jerusalem and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the Ephraim Gate to the Corner Gate — a section about six hundred feet long. [Hebrew four hundred cubits (about 180 metres)]

2Kg. 14:14 He took all the gold and silver and all the articles found in the temple of the LORD and in the treasuries of the royal palace. He also took hostages and returned to Samaria.

2Kg. 14:15 As for the other events of the reign of Jehoash, what he did and his achievements, including his war against Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?

2Kg. 14:16 Jehoash rested with his fathers and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel. And Jeroboam his son succeeded him as king.

2Kg. 14:17 Amaziah son of Joash king of Judah lived for fifteen years after the death of Jehoash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel.

2Kg. 14:18 As for the other events of Amaziah’s reign, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah?

2Kg. 14:19 They conspired against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish, but they sent men after him to Lachish and killed him there.
He was brought back by horse and was buried in Jerusalem with his fathers, in the City of David.

Then all the people of Judah took Azariah, [Also called Uzziah] who was sixteen years old, and made him king in place of his father Amaziah.

He was the one who rebuilt Elath and restored it to Judah after Amaziah rested with his fathers.

In the fifteenth year of Amaziah son of Joash king of Judah, Jeroboam son of Jehoash king of Israel became king in Samaria, and he reigned for forty-one years.

He did evil in the eyes of the LORD and did not turn away from any of the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he had caused Israel to commit.

He was the one who restored the boundaries of Israel from Lebo [Or from the entrance to] Hamath to the Sea of the Arabah, [That is, the Dead Sea] in accordance with the word of the LORD, the God of Israel, spoken through his servant Jonah son of Amittai, the prophet from Gath Hepher.

The LORD had seen how bitterly everyone in Israel, whether slave or free, was suffering; there was no-one to help them.

And since the LORD had not said he would blot out the name of Israel from under heaven, he saved them by the hand of Jeroboam son of Jehoash.

As for the other events of Jeroboam’s reign, all he did, and his military achievements, including how he recovered for Israel both Damascus and Hamath, which had belonged to Yaudi, [Or Judah] are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?

Jeroboam rested with his fathers, the kings of Israel. And Zechariah his son succeeded him as king.
In the twenty-seventh year of Jeroboam king of Israel, Azariah son of Amaziah king of Judah began to reign.

He was sixteen years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for fifty-two years. His mother’s name was Jecoliah; she was from Jerusalem.

He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, just as his father Amaziah had done.

The high places, however, were not removed; the people continued to offer sacrifices and burn incense there.

The LORD afflicted the king with leprosy [The Hebrew word was used for various diseases affecting the skin — not necessarily leprosy.] until the day he died, and he lived in a separate house. [Or in a house where he was relieved of responsibility] Jotham the king’s son had charge of the palace and governed the people of the land.

As for the other events of Azariah’s reign, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah?

Azariah rested with his fathers and was buried near them in the City of David. And Jotham his son succeeded him as king.

In the thirty-eighth year of Azariah king of Judah, Zechariah son of Jeroboam became king of Israel in Samaria, and he reigned for six months.

He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, as his fathers had done. He did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he had caused Israel to commit.

Shallum son of Jabesh conspired against Zechariah. He attacked him in front of the people, [Hebrew; some Septuagint manuscripts in Ibleam] assassinated him and succeeded him as king.
The other events of Zechariah’s reign are written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel.

So the word of the LORD spoken to Jehu was fulfilled: “Your descendants will sit on the throne of Israel to the fourth generation.” [2 Kings 10:30]

Shallum son of Jabesh became king in the thirty-ninth year of Uzziah king of Judah, and he reigned in Samaria for one month.

Then Menahem son of Gadi went from Tirzah up to Samaria. He attacked Shallum son of Jabesh in Samaria, assassinated him and succeeded him as king.

The other events of Shallum’s reign, and the conspiracy he led, are written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel.

At that time Menahem, starting out from Tirzah, attacked Tiphsah and everyone in the city and its vicinity, because they refused to open their gates. He sacked Tiphsah and ripped open all the pregnant women.

In the thirty-ninth year of Azariah king of Judah, Menahem son of Gadi became king of Israel, and he reigned in Samaria for ten years.

He did evil in the eyes of the LORD. During his entire reign he did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he had caused Israel to commit.

Then Pul [Also called Tiglath-Pileser] king of Assyria invaded the land, and Menahem gave him a thousand talents [That is, about 34 tons (about 34 metric tons)] of silver to gain his support and strengthen his own hold on the kingdom.

Menahem exacted this money from Israel. Every wealthy man had to contribute fifty shekels [That is, about 1 1/4 pounds (about 0.6 kilogram)] of silver to be given to the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria withdrew and stayed in the land no longer.
As for the other events of Menahem’s reign, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?

Menahem rested with his fathers. And Pekahiah his son succeeded him as king.

In the fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekahiah son of Menahem became king of Israel in Samaria, and he reigned for two years.

Pekahiah did evil in the eyes of the LORD. He did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he had caused Israel to commit.

One of his chief officers, Pekah son of Remaliah, conspired against him. Taking fifty men of Gilead with him, he assassinated Pekahiah, along with Argob and Arieh, in the citadel of the royal palace at Samaria. So Pekah killed Pekahiah and succeeded him as king.

The other events of Pekahiah’s reign, and all he did, are written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel.

In the fifty-second year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekah son of Remaliah became king of Israel in Samaria, and he reigned for twenty years.

He did evil in the eyes of the LORD. He did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he had caused Israel to commit.

In the time of Pekah king of Israel, Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria came and took Ijon, Abel Beth Maacah, Janoah, Kedesh and Hazor. He took Gilead and Galilee, including all the land of Naphtali, and deported the people to Assyria.

Then Hoshea son of Elah conspired against Pekah son of Remaliah. He attacked and assassinated him, and then succeeded him as king in the twentieth year of Jotham son of Uzziah.
2Kg. 15:31 As for the other events of Pekah’s reign, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?

2Kg. 15:32 In the second year of Pekah son of Remaliah king of Israel, Jotham son of Uzziah king of Judah began to reign.

2Kg. 15:33 He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for sixteen years. His mother’s name was Jerusha daughter of Zadok.

2Kg. 15:34 He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, just as his father Uzziah had done.

2Kg. 15:35 The high places, however, were not removed; the people continued to offer sacrifices and burn incense there. Jotham rebuilt the Upper Gate of the temple of the LORD.

2Kg. 15:36 As for the other events of Jotham’s reign, and what he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah?

2Kg. 15:37 (In those days the LORD began to send Rezin king of Aram and Pekah son of Remaliah against Judah.)

2Kg. 15:38 Jotham rested with his fathers and was buried with them in the City of David, the city of his father. And Ahaz his son succeeded him as king.

CHAPTER 16

2Kg. 16:1 In the seventeenth year of Pekah son of Remaliah, Ahaz son of Jotham king of Judah began to reign.

2Kg. 16:2 Ahaz was twenty years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for sixteen years. Unlike David his father, he did not do what was right in the eyes of the LORD his God.

2Kg. 16:3 He walked in the ways of the kings of Israel and even sacrificed his son in [Or even made his son pass through] the fire, following the detestable ways of the nations the LORD had driven out before the Israelites.

2Kg. 16:4 He offered sacrifices and burned incense at the high places, on the hilltops and under every spreading tree.

2Kg. 16:5 Then Rezin king of Aram and Pekah son of Remaliah king of Israel marched up to fight against Jerusalem and besieged Ahaz, but they could not overpower him.

2Kg. 16:6 At that time, Rezin king of Aram recovered Elath for Aram by driving out the men of Judah. Edomites then moved into Elath and have lived there to this day.

2Kg. 16:7 Ahaz sent messengers to say to Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria, “I am your servant and vassal. Come up and save me out of the hand of the king of Aram and of the king of Israel who are attacking me.”

2Kg. 16:8 And Ahaz took the silver and gold found in the temple of the LORD and in the treasuries of the royal palace and sent it as a gift to the king of Assyria.

2Kg. 16:9 The king of Assyria complied by attacking Damascus and capturing it. He deported its inhabitants to Kir and put Rezin to death.

2Kg. 16:10 Then King Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria. He saw an altar in Damascus and sent to Uriah the priest a sketch of the altar, with detailed plans for its construction.

2Kg. 16:11 So Uriah the priest built an altar in accordance with all the plans that King Ahaz had sent from Damascus and finished it before King Ahaz returned.

2Kg. 16:12 When the king came back from Damascus and saw the altar, he approached it and presented offerings [Or and went up] on it.

2Kg. 16:13 He offered up his burnt offering and grain offering, poured out his drink offering, and sprinkled the blood of his fellowship offerings [Traditionally peace offerings] on the altar.

2Kg. 16:14 The bronze altar that stood before the LORD he brought from the front of the temple — from between the new altar and the temple of the LORD — and put it on the north side of the new altar.

2Kg. 16:15 King Ahaz then gave these orders to Uriah the priest: “On the large new altar, offer the morning burnt offering and the evening grain offering, the king’s burnt offering and his grain offering, and the burnt offering of all the people of the land, and their grain offering and their drink offering. Sprinkle on the altar all the blood of the burnt offerings and sacrifices. But I will use the bronze altar for seeking guidance.”

2Kg. 16:16 And Uriah the priest did just as King Ahaz had ordered.

2Kg. 16:17 King Ahaz took away the side panels and removed the basins from the movable stands. He removed the Sea from the bronze bulls that supported it and set it on a stone base.

2Kg. 16:18 He took away the Sabbath canopy [Or the dais of his throne (see Septuagint)] that had been built at the temple and removed the royal entrance outside the temple of the LORD, in deference to the king of Assyria.

2Kg. 16:19 As for the other events of the reign of Ahaz, and what he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah?

2Kg. 16:20 Ahaz rested with his fathers and was buried with them in the City of David. And Hezekiah his son succeeded him as king.

CHAPTER 17

2Kg. 17:1 In the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah, Hoshea son of Elah became king of Israel in Samaria, and he reigned for nine years.
He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, but not like the kings of Israel who preceded him.

Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up to attack Hoshea, who had been Shalmaneser’s vassal and had paid him tribute.

But the king of Assyria discovered that Hoshea was a traitor, for he had sent envoys to So [Or to Sais, to the; So is possibly an abbreviation for Osorkon.] king of Egypt, and he no longer paid tribute to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year. Therefore Shalmaneser seized him and put him in prison.

The king of Assyria invaded the entire land, marched against Samaria and laid siege to it for three years.

In the ninth year of Hoshea, the king of Assyria captured Samaria and deported the Israelites to Assyria. He settled them in Halah, in Gozan on the Habor River and in the towns of the Medes.

All this took place because the Israelites had sinned against the LORD their God, who had brought them up out of Egypt from under the power of Pharaoh king of Egypt. They worshipped other gods and followed the practices of the nations the LORD had driven out before them, as well as the practices that the kings of Israel had introduced.

The Israelites secretly did things against the LORD their God that were not right. From watchtower to fortified city they built themselves high places in all their towns.

They set up sacred stones and Asherah poles on every high hill and under every spreading tree.

At every high place they burned incense, as the nations whom the LORD had driven out before them had done. They did wicked things that provoked the LORD to anger.

They worshipped idols, though the LORD had said, “You shall not do this.” [Exodus 20:4, 5]
The LORD warned Israel and Judah through all his prophets and seers: “Turn from your evil ways. Observe my commands and decrees, in accordance with the entire Law that I commanded your fathers to obey and that I delivered to you through my servants the prophets.”

But they would not listen and were as stiff-necked as their fathers, who did not trust in the LORD their God.

They rejected his decrees and the covenant he had made with their fathers and the warnings he had given them. They followed worthless idols and themselves became worthless. They imitated the nations around them although the LORD had ordered them, “Do not do as they do,” and they did the things the LORD had forbidden them to do.

They forsook all the commands of the LORD their God and made for themselves two idols cast in the shape of calves, and an Asherah pole. They bowed down to all the starry hosts, and they worshipped Baal.

So the LORD was very angry with Israel and removed them from his presence. Only the tribe of Judah was left, and even Judah did not keep the commands of the LORD their God. They followed the practices Israel had introduced.

Therefore the LORD rejected all the people of Israel; he afflicted them and gave them into the hands of plunderers, until he thrust them from his presence.

When he tore Israel away from the house of David, they made Jeroboam son of Nebat their king. Jeroboam enticed Israel away from following the LORD and caused them to commit a great sin.

The Israelites persisted in all the sins of Jeroboam and did not turn away from them. until the LORD removed them from his presence, as he had warned through all his servants the prophets. So the people of Israel were taken from their homeland into exile in Assyria, and they are still there.

The king of Assyria brought people from Babylon, Cuthah, Avva, Hamath and Sepharvaim and settled them in the towns of Samaria to replace the Israelites. They took over Samaria and lived in its towns.

When they first lived there, they did not worship the LORD; so he sent lions among them and they killed some of the people.

It was reported to the king of Assyria: “The people you deported and resettled in the towns of Samaria do not know what the god of that country requires. He has sent lions among them, which are killing them off, because the people do not know what he requires.”

Then the king of Assyria gave this order: “Make one of the priests you took captive from Samaria go back to live there and teach the people what the god of the land requires.”

So one of the priests who had been exiled from Samaria came to live in Bethel and taught them how to worship the LORD.

Nevertheless, each national group made its own gods in the several towns where they settled, and set them up in the shrines the people of Samaria had made at the high places.

The men from Babylon made Succoth Benoth, the men from Cuthah made Nergal, and the men from Hamath made Ashima; the Avvites made Nibhaz and Tartak, and the Sepharvites burned their children in the fire as sacrifices to Adrammelech and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim.

They worshipped the LORD, but they also appointed all sorts of their own people to officiate for them as priests in the shrines at the high places.
They worshipped the LORD, but they also served their own gods in accordance with the customs of the nations from which they had been brought.

To this day they persist in their former practices. They neither worship the LORD nor adhere to the decrees and ordinances, the laws and commands that the LORD gave the descendants of Jacob, whom he named Israel.

When the LORD made a covenant with the Israelites, he commanded them: “Do not worship any other gods or bow down to them, serve them or sacrifice to them.

But the LORD, who brought you up out of Egypt with mighty power and outstretched arm, is the one you must worship. To him you shall bow down and to him offer sacrifices.

You must always be careful to keep the decrees and ordinances, the laws and commands he wrote for you. Do not worship other gods.

Rather, worship the LORD your God; it is he who will deliver you from the hand of all your enemies.”

They would not listen, however, but persisted in their former practices.

Even while these people were worshipping the LORD, they were serving their idols. To this day their children and grandchildren continue to do as their fathers did.

CHAPTER 18

In the third year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, Hezekiah son of Ahaz king of Judah began to reign.

He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for twenty-nine years. His mother’s name was Abijah [Hebrew Abi, a variant of Abijah] daughter of Zechariah.

2Kg. 18:3 He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, just as his father David had done.

2Kg. 18:4 He removed the high places, smashed the sacred stones and cut down the Asherah poles. He broke into pieces the bronze snake Moses had made, for up to that time the Israelites had been burning incense to it. (It was called [Or He called it] Nehushtan.) [Nehushtan sounds like the Hebrew for bronze and snake and unclean thing.]

2Kg. 18:5 Hezekiah trusted in the LORD, the God of Israel. There was no-one like him among all the kings of Judah, either before him or after him.

2Kg. 18:6 He held fast to the LORD and did not cease to follow him; he kept the commands the LORD had given Moses.

2Kg. 18:7 And the LORD was with him; he was successful in whatever he undertook. He rebelled against the king of Assyria and did not serve him.

2Kg. 18:8 From watchtower to fortified city, he defeated the Philistines, as far as Gaza and its territory.

2Kg. 18:9 In King Hezekiah’s fourth year, which was the seventh year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, Shalmaneser king of Assyria marched against Samaria and laid siege to it.

2Kg. 18:10 At the end of three years the Assyrians took it. So Samaria was captured in Hezekiah’s sixth year, which was the ninth year of Hoshea king of Israel.

2Kg. 18:11 The king of Assyria deported Israel to Assyria and settled them in Halah, in Gozan on the Habor River, and in towns of the Medes.

2Kg. 18:12 This happened because they had not obeyed the LORD their God, but had violated his covenant — all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded. They neither listened to the commands nor carried them out.
In the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah’s reign, Sennacherib king of Assyria attacked all the fortified cities of Judah and captured them.

So Hezekiah king of Judah sent this message to the king of Assyria at Lachish: “I have done wrong. Withdraw from me, and I will pay whatever you demand of me.” The king of Assyria exacted from Hezekiah king of Judah three hundred talents [That is, about 10 tons (about 10 metric tons)] of silver and thirty talents [That is, about 1 ton (about 1 metric ton)] of gold.

So Hezekiah gave him all the silver that was found in the temple of the LORD and in the treasuries of the royal palace.

At this time Hezekiah king of Judah stripped off the gold with which he had covered the doors and doorposts of the temple of the LORD, and gave it to the king of Assyria.

The king of Assyria sent his supreme commander, his chief officer and his field commander with a large army, from Lachish to King Hezekiah at Jerusalem. They came up to Jerusalem and stopped at the aqueduct of the Upper Pool, on the road to the Washerman’s Field.

They called for the king; and Eliakim son of Hilkiah the palace administrator, Shebna the secretary, and Joah son of Asaph the recorder went out to them.

The field commander said to them, “Tell Hezekiah: “This is what the great king, the king of Assyria, says: On what are you basing this confidence of yours?

You say you have strategy and military strength — but you speak only empty words. On whom are you depending, that you rebel against me?

Look now, you are depending on Egypt, that splintered reed of a staff, which pierces a man’s hand and wounds him if he leans on it! Such is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who depend on him.
And if you say to me, “We are depending on the LORD our God”— isn’t he the one whose high places and altars Hezekiah removed, saying to Judah and Jerusalem, “You must worship before this altar in Jerusalem”?

“Come now, make a bargain with my master, the king of Assyria: I will give you two thousand horses — if you can put riders on them!

How can you repulse one officer of the least of my master’s officials, even though you are depending on Egypt for chariots and horsemen? [Or charioteers]

Furthermore, have I come to attack and destroy this place without word from the LORD? The LORD himself told me to march against this country and destroy it.”

Then Eliakim son of Hilkiah, and Shebna and Joah said to the field commander, “Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, since we understand it. Don’t speak to us in Hebrew in the hearing of the people on the wall.”

But the commander replied, “Was it only to your master and you that my master sent me to say these things, and not to the men sitting on the wall — who, like you, will have to eat their own filth and drink their own urine?”

Then the commander stood and called out in Hebrew: “Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria!

This is what the king says: Do not let Hezekiah deceive you. He cannot deliver you from my hand.

Do not let Hezekiah persuade you to trust in the LORD when he says, ‘The LORD will surely deliver us; this city will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.’

‘Do not listen to Hezekiah. This is what the king of Assyria says: Make peace with me and come out to me. Then every one of you will eat from his own vine and fig-tree and drink water from his own cistern,
906

2Kg. 18:32 until I come and take you to a land like your own, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of olive trees and honey. Choose life and not death! “Do not listen to Hezekiah, for he is misleading you when he says, ‘The LORD will deliver us.’

2Kg. 18:33 Has the god of any nation ever delivered his land from the hand of the king of Assyria?

2Kg. 18:34 Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena and Ivvah? Have they rescued Samaria from my hand?

2Kg. 18:35 Who of all the gods of these countries has been able to save his land from me? How then can the LORD deliver Jerusalem from my hand?”

2Kg. 18:36 But the people remained silent and said nothing in reply, because the king had commanded, “Do not answer him.”

2Kg. 18:37 Then Eliakim son of Hilkiah the palace administrator, Shebna the secretary and Joah son of Asaph the recorder went to Hezekiah, with their clothes torn, and told him what the field commander had said.

CHAPTER 19

2Kg. 19:1 When King Hezekiah heard this, he tore his clothes and put on sackcloth and went into the temple of the LORD.

2Kg. 19:2 He sent Eliakim the palace administrator, Shebna the secretary and the leading priests, all wearing sackcloth, to the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz.

2Kg. 19:3 They told him, “This is what Hezekiah says: This day is a day of distress and rebuke and disgrace, as when children come to the point of birth and there is no strength to deliver them.

2Kg. 19:4 It may be that the LORD your God will hear all the words of the field commander, whom his master, the king of Assyria, has sent to ridicule the living God, and that he will rebuke
When King Hezekiah’s officials came to Isaiah,

Isaiah said to them, “Tell your master, ‘This is what the LORD says: Do not be afraid of what you have heard — those words with which the underlings of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me.”

Listen! I am going to put such a spirit in him that when he hears a certain report, he will return to his own country, and there I will have him cut down with the sword.’

When the field commander heard that the king of Assyria had left Lachish, he withdrew and found the king fighting against Libnah.

Now Sennacherib received a report that Tirhakah, the Cushite [That is, from the upper Nile region] king of Egypt, was marching out to fight against him. So he again sent messengers to Hezekiah with this word:

‘Say to Hezekiah king of Judah: Do not let the god you depend on deceive you when he says, ‘Jerusalem will not be handed over to the king of Assyria.’

Surely you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all the countries, destroying them completely. And will you be delivered?

Did the gods of the nations that were destroyed by my forefathers deliver them: the gods of Gozan, Haran, Rezeph and the people of Eden who were in Tel Assar?

Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, the king of the city of Sepharvaim, or of Hena or Ivvah?”

Hezekiah received the letter from the messengers and read it. Then he went up to the temple of the LORD and spread it out before the LORD.

And Hezekiah prayed to the LORD: “O LORD, God of Israel, enthroned between the cherubim, you alone are God over all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made heaven and earth.

2Kg. 19:16 Give ear, O LORD, and hear; open your eyes, O LORD, and see; listen to the words Sennacherib has sent to insult the living God.

2Kg. 19:17 “It is true, O LORD, that the Assyrian kings have laid waste these nations and their lands.

2Kg. 19:18 They have thrown their gods into the fire and destroyed them, for they were not gods but only wood and stone, fashioned by men’s hands.

2Kg. 19:19 Now, O LORD our God, deliver us from his hand, so that all kingdoms on earth may know that you alone, O LORD, are God.”

2Kg. 19:20 Then Isaiah son of Amoz sent a message to Hezekiah: “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: I have heard your prayer concerning Sennacherib king of Assyria.

2Kg. 19:21 This is the word that the LORD has spoken against him: “The Virgin Daughter of Zion despises you and mocks you. The Daughter of Jerusalem tosses her head as you flee.

2Kg. 19:22 Who is it you have insulted and blasphemed? Against whom have you raised your voice and lifted your eyes in pride? Against the Holy One of Israel!

2Kg. 19:23 By your messengers you have heaped insults on the Lord. And you have said, “With my many chariots I have ascended the heights of the mountains, the utmost heights of Lebanon. I have cut down its tallest cedars, the choicest of its pines. I have reached its remotest parts, the finest of its forests.

2Kg. 19:24 I have dug wells in foreign lands and drunk the water there. With the soles of my feet I have dried up all the streams of Egypt.”

2Kg. 19:25 “Have you not heard? Long ago I ordained it. In days of old I planned it; now I have brought it to pass, that you have turned fortified cities into piles of stone.
Their people, drained of power, are dismayed and put to shame. They are like plants in the field, like tender green shoots, like grass sprouting on the roof, scorched before it grows up.

``But I know where you stay and when you come and go and how you rage against me.’

Because you rage against me and your insolence has reached my ears, I will put my hook in your nose and my bit in your mouth, and I will make you return by the way you came.’

“This will be the sign for you, O Hezekiah: This year you will eat what grows by itself, and the second year what springs from that. But in the third year sow and reap, plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

Once more a remnant of the house of Judah will take root below and bear fruit above.

For out of Jerusalem will come a remnant, and out of Mount Zion a band of survivors. The zeal of the LORD Almighty will accomplish this.

“Therefore this is what the LORD says concerning the king of Assyria: “He will not enter this city or shoot an arrow here. He will not come before it with shield or build a siege ramp against it.

By the way that he came he will return; he will not enter this city, declares the LORD.

I will defend this city and save it, for my sake and for the sake of David my servant.”

That night the angel of the LORD went out and put to death a hundred and eighty-five thousand men in the Assyrian camp. When the people got up the next morning — there were all the dead bodies!

So Sennacherib king of Assyria broke camp and withdrew. He returned to Nineveh and stayed there.
2Kg. 19:37 One day, while he was worshipping in the temple of his god Nisroch, his sons Adrammelech and Sharezer cut him down with the sword, and they escaped to the land of Ararat. And Esarhaddon his son succeeded him as king.

CHAPTER 20

2Kg. 20:1 In those days Hezekiah became ill and was at the point of death. The prophet Isaiah son of Amoz went to him and said, “This is what the LORD says: Put your house in order, because you are going to die; you will not recover.”

2Kg. 20:2 Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and prayed to the LORD,

2Kg. 20:3 “Remember, O LORD, how I have walked before you faithfully and with wholehearted devotion and have done what is good in your eyes.” And Hezekiah wept bitterly.

2Kg. 20:4 Before Isaiah had left the middle court, the word of the LORD came to him:

2Kg. 20:5 “Go back and tell Hezekiah, the leader of my people, `This is what the LORD, the God of your father David, says: I have heard your prayer and seen your tears; I will heal you. On the third day from now you will go up to the temple of the LORD.

2Kg. 20:6 I will add fifteen years to your life. And I will deliver you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria. I will defend this city for my sake and for the sake of my servant David.’

2Kg. 20:7 Then Isaiah said, “Prepare a poultice of figs.” They did so and applied it to the boil, and he recovered.

2Kg. 20:8 Hezekiah had asked Isaiah, “What will be the sign that the LORD will heal me and that I will go up to the temple of the LORD on the third day from now?”
Isaiah answered, “This is the LORD’s sign to you that the LORD will do what he has promised: Shall the shadow go forward ten steps, or shall it go back ten steps?”

“It is a simple matter for the shadow to go forward ten steps,” said Hezekiah. “Rather, have it go back ten steps.”

Then the prophet Isaiah called upon the LORD, and the LORD made the shadow go back the ten steps it had gone down on the stairway of Ahaz.

At that time Merodach-Baladan son of Baladan king of Babylon sent Hezekiah letters and a gift, because he had heard of Hezekiah’s illness.

Hezekiah received the messengers and showed them all that was in his storehouses — the silver, the gold, the spices and the fine oil — his armoury and everything found among his treasures. There was nothing in his palace or in all his kingdom that Hezekiah did not show them.

Then Isaiah the prophet went to King Hezekiah and asked, “What did those men say, and where did they come from?” “From a distant land,” Hezekiah replied. “They came from Babylon.”

Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, “Hear the word of the LORD: The time will surely come when everything in your palace, and all that your fathers have stored up until this day, will be carried off to Babylon. Nothing will be left, says the LORD.

And some of your descendants, your own flesh and blood, that will be born to you, will be taken away, and they will become eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.”

“The word of the LORD you have spoken is good,” Hezekiah replied. For he thought, “Will there not be peace and security in my lifetime?”
As for the other events of Hezekiah’s reign, all his achievements and how he made the pool and the tunnel by which he brought water into the city, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah?

Hezekiah rested with his fathers. And Manasseh his son succeeded him as king.

CHAPTER 21

Manasseh was twelve years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for fifty-five years. His mother’s name was Hephzibah.

He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, following the detestable practices of the nations the LORD had driven out before the Israelites.

He rebuilt the high places his father Hezekiah had destroyed; he also erected altars to Baal and made an Asherah pole, as Ahab king of Israel had done. He bowed down to all the starry hosts and worshipped them.

He built altars in the temple of the LORD, of which the LORD had said, “In Jerusalem I will put my Name.”

In both courts of the temple of the LORD, he built altars to all the starry hosts.

He sacrificed his own son in [Or He made his own son pass through] the fire, practised sorcery and divination, and consulted mediums and spiritists. He did much evil in the eyes of the LORD, provoking him to anger.

He took the carved Asherah pole he had made and put it in the temple, of which the LORD had said to David and to his son Solomon, “In this temple and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will put my Name for ever.
I will not again make the feet of the Israelites wander from the land I gave their forefathers, if only they will be careful to do everything I commanded them and will keep the whole Law that my servant Moses gave them.”

But the people did not listen. Manasseh led them astray, so that they did more evil than the nations the LORD had destroyed before the Israelites.

2Kg. 21:11 “Manasseh king of Judah has committed these detestable sins. He has done more evil than the Amorites who preceded him and has led Judah into sin with his idols.

2Kg. 21:12 Therefore this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: I am going to bring such disaster on Jerusalem and Judah that the ears of everyone who hears of it will tingle.

2Kg. 21:13 I will stretch out over Jerusalem the measuring line used against Samaria and the plumb-line used against the house of Ahab. I will wipe out Jerusalem as one wipes out a dish, wiping it and turning it upside-down.

2Kg. 21:14 I will forsake the remnant of my inheritance and hand them over to their enemies. They will be looted and plundered by all their foes,

2Kg. 21:15 because they have done evil in my eyes and have provoked me to anger from the day their forefathers came out of Egypt until this day.”

2Kg. 21:16 Moreover, Manasseh also shed so much innocent blood that he filled Jerusalem from end to end — besides the sin that he had caused Judah to commit, so that they did evil in the eyes of the LORD.

2Kg. 21:17 As for the other events of Manasseh’s reign, and all he did, including the sin he committed, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah?
2Kg. 21:18 Manasseh rested with his fathers and was buried in his palace garden, the garden of Uzza. And Amon his son succeeded him as king.

2Kg. 21:19 Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for two years. His mother’s name was Meshullemeth daughter of Haruz; she was from Jotbah.

2Kg. 21:20 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, as his father Manasseh had done.

2Kg. 21:21 He walked in all the ways of his father; he worshipped the idols his father had worshipped, and bowed down to them.

2Kg. 21:22 He forsook the LORD, the God of his fathers, and did not walk in the way of the LORD.

2Kg. 21:23 Amon’s officials conspired against him and assassinated the king in his palace.

2Kg. 21:24 Then the people of the land killed all who had plotted against King Amon, and they made Josiah his son king in his place.

2Kg. 21:25 As for the other events of Amon’s reign, and what he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah?

2Kg. 21:26 He was buried in his grave in the garden of Uzza. And Josiah his son succeeded him as king.

CHAPTER 22

2Kg. 22:1 Josiah was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for thirty-one years. His mother’s name was Jedidah daughter of Adaiah; she was from Bozkath.

2Kg. 22:2 He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD and walked in all the ways of his father David, not turning aside to the right or to the left.
In the eighteenth year of his reign, King Josiah sent the secretary, Shaphan son of Azaliah, the son of Meshullam, to the temple of the LORD. He said:

“Go up to Hilkiah the high priest and make him get ready the money that has been brought into the temple of the LORD, which the doorkeepers have collected from the people.

Make them entrust it to the men appointed to supervise the work on the temple. And make these men pay the workers who repair the temple of the LORD — the carpenters, the builders and the masons. Also make them purchase timber and dressed stone to repair the temple.

But they need not account for the money entrusted to them, because they are acting faithfully.”

Hilkiah the high priest said to Shaphan the secretary, “I have found the Book of the Law in the temple of the LORD.” He gave it to Shaphan, who read it.

Then Shaphan the secretary went to the king and reported to him: “Your officials have paid out the money that was in the temple of the LORD and have entrusted it to the workers and supervisors at the temple.”

When the king heard the words of the Book of the Law, he tore his robes.

He gave these orders to Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam son of Shaphan, Acbor son of Micaiah, Shaphan the secretary and Asaiah the king’s attendant:

“Go and enquire of the LORD for me and for the people and for all Judah about what is written in this book that has been found. Great is the LORD’s anger that burns against us because our fathers have not obeyed the words of this book; they have not acted in accordance with all that is written there concerning us.”

2Kg. 22:14 Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam, Acbor, Shaphan and Asaiah went to speak to the prophetess Huldah, who was the wife of Shallum son of Tikvah, the son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe. She lived in Jerusalem, in the Second District.

2Kg. 22:15 She said to them, “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Tell the man who sent you to me,

2Kg. 22:16 ‘This is what the LORD says: I am going to bring disaster on this place and its people, according to everything written in the book the king of Judah has read.

2Kg. 22:17 Because they have forsaken me and burned incense to other gods and provoked me to anger by all the idols their hands have made, [Or by everything they have done] my anger will burn against this place and will not be quenched.’

2Kg. 22:18 Tell the king of Judah, who sent you to enquire of the LORD, ‘This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says concerning the words you heard:

2Kg. 22:19 Because your heart was responsive and you humbled yourself before the LORD when you heard what I have spoken against this place and its people, that they would become accursed and laid waste, and because you tore your robes and wept in my presence, I have heard you, declares the LORD.

2Kg. 22:20 Therefore I will gather you to your fathers, and you will be buried in peace. Your eyes will not see all the disaster I am going to bring on this place.’“ So they took her answer back to the king.

CHAPTER 23

2Kg. 23:1 Then the king called together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.
He went up to the temple of the LORD with the men of Judah, the people of Jerusalem, the priests and the prophets — all the people from the least to the greatest. He read in their hearing all the words of the Book of the Covenant, which had been found in the temple of the LORD.

The king stood by the pillar and renewed the covenant in the presence of the LORD — to follow the LORD and keep his commands, regulations and decrees with all his heart and all his soul, thus confirming the words of the covenant written in this book. Then all the people pledged themselves to the covenant.

The king ordered Hilkiah the high priest, the priests next in rank and the doorkeepers to remove from the temple of the LORD all the articles made for Baal and Asherah and all the starry hosts. He burned them outside Jerusalem in the fields of the Kidron Valley and took the ashes to Bethel.

He did away with the pagan priests appointed by the kings of Judah to burn incense on the high places of the towns of Judah and on those around Jerusalem — those who burned incense to Baal, to the sun and moon, to the constellations and to all the starry hosts.

He took the Asherah pole from the temple of the LORD to the Kidron Valley outside Jerusalem and burned it there. He ground it to powder and scattered the dust over the graves of the common people.

He also tore down the quarters of the male shrine-prostitutes, which were in the temple of the LORD and where women did weaving for Asherah.

Josiah brought all the priests from the towns of Judah and desecrated the high places, from Geba to Beersheba, where the priests had burned incense. He broke down the shrines [Or high places] at the gates — at the entrance to the Gate of Joshua, the city governor, which is on the left of the city gate.
Although the priests of the high places did not serve at the altar of the LORD in Jerusalem, they ate unleavened bread with their fellow priests.

He desecrated Topheth, which was in the Valley of Ben Hinnom, so no-one could use it to sacrifice his son or daughter in [Or to make his son or daughter pass through] the fire to Molech.

He removed from the entrance to the temple of the LORD the horses that the kings of Judah had dedicated to the sun. They were in the court near the room of an official named Nathan-Melech. Josiah then burned the chariots dedicated to the sun.

He pulled down the altars the kings of Judah had erected on the roof near the upper room of Ahaz, and the altars Manasseh had built in the two courts of the temple of the LORD. He removed them from there, smashed them to pieces and threw the rubble into the Kidron Valley.

The king also desecrated the high places that were east of Jerusalem on the south of the Hill of Corruption — the ones Solomon king of Israel had built for Ashtoreth the vile goddess of the Sidonians, for Chemosh the vile god of Moab, and for Molech [Hebrew Milcom] the detestable god of the people of Ammon.

Josiah smashed the sacred stones and cut down the Asherah poles and covered the sites with human bones.

Even the altar at Bethel, the high place made by Jeroboam son of Nebat, who had caused Israel to sin — even that altar and high place he demolished. He burned the high place and ground it to powder, and burned the Asherah pole also.

Then Josiah looked around, and when he saw the tombs that were there on the hillside, he had the bones removed from them and burned on the altar to defile it, in accordance with the word of the LORD proclaimed by the man of God who foretold these things.
The king asked, “What is that tombstone I see?” The men of the city said, “It marks the tomb of the man of God who came from Judah and pronounced against the altar of Bethel the very things you have done to it.”

“Leave it alone,” he said. “Don’t let anyone disturb his bones.” So they spared his bones and those of the prophet who had come from Samaria.

Just as he had done at Bethel, Josiah removed and defiled all the shrines at the high places that the kings of Israel had built in the towns of Samaria that had provoked the LORD to anger.

Josiah slaughtered all the priests of those high places on the altars and burned human bones on them. Then he went back to Jerusalem.

The king gave this order to all the people: “Celebrate the Passover to the LORD your God, as it is written in this Book of the Covenant.”

Not since the days of the judges who led Israel, nor throughout the days of the kings of Israel and the kings of Judah, had any such Passover been observed.

But in the eighteenth year of King Josiah, this Passover was celebrated to the LORD in Jerusalem.

Furthermore, Josiah got rid of the mediums and spiritists, the household gods, the idols and all the other detestable things seen in Judah and Jerusalem. This he did to fulfil the requirements of the law written in the book that Hilkiah the priest had discovered in the temple of the LORD.

Neither before nor after Josiah was there a king like him who turned to the LORD as he did — with all his heart and with all his soul and with all his strength, in accordance with all the Law of Moses.

Nevertheless, the LORD did not turn away from the heat of his fierce anger, which burned against Judah because of all that Manasseh had done to provoke him to anger.
So the LORD said, “I will remove Judah also from my presence as I removed Israel, and I will reject Jerusalem, the city I chose, and this temple, about which I said, ‘There shall my Name be.’“ [1 Kings 8:29]

As for the other events of Josiah’s reign, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah?

While Josiah was king, Pharaoh Neco king of Egypt went up to the Euphrates River to help the king of Assyria. King Josiah marched out to meet him in battle, but Neco faced him and killed him at Megiddo.

Josiah’s servants brought his body in a chariot from Megiddo to Jerusalem and buried him in his own tomb. And the people of the land took Jehoahaz son of Josiah and anointed him and made him king in place of his father.

Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for three months. His mother’s name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah; she was from Libnah.

He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, just as his fathers had done.

Pharaoh Neco put him in chains at Riblah in the land of Hamath [Hebrew; Septuagint (see also 2 Chron. 36:3) Neco at Riblah in Hamath removed him] so that he might not reign in Jerusalem, and he imposed on Judah a levy of a hundred talents [That is, about 3 1/2 tons (about 3.4 metric tons)] of silver and a talent [That is, about 75 pounds (about 34 kilograms)] of gold.

Pharaoh Neco made Eliakim son of Josiah king in place of his father Josiah and changed Eliakim’s name to Jehoiakim. But he took Jehoahaz and carried him off to Egypt, and there he died.

Jehoiakim paid Pharaoh Neco the silver and gold he demanded. In order to do so, he taxed the land and exacted the silver and gold from the people of the land according to their assessments.

2Kg. 23:36 Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for eleven years. His mother’s name was Zebidah daughter of Pedaiah; she was from Rumah.

2Kg. 23:37 And he did evil in the eyes of the LORD, just as his fathers had done.

CHAPTER 24

2Kg. 24:1 During Jehoiakim’s reign, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon invaded the land, and Jehoiakim became his vassal for three years. But then he changed his mind and rebelled against Nebuchadnezzar.

2Kg. 24:2 The LORD sent Babylonian, [Or Chaldean] Aramean, Moabite and Ammonite raiders against him. He sent them to destroy Judah, in accordance with the word of the LORD proclaimed by his servants the prophets.

2Kg. 24:3 Surely these things happened to Judah according to the LORD’s command, in order to remove them from his presence because of the sins of Manasseh and all he had done,

2Kg. 24:4 including the shedding of innocent blood. For he had filled Jerusalem with innocent blood, and the LORD was not willing to forgive.

2Kg. 24:5 As for the other events of Jehoiakim’s reign, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah?

2Kg. 24:6 Jehoiakim rested with his fathers. And Jehoiachin his son succeeded him as king.
The king of Egypt did not march out from his own country again, because the king of Babylon had taken all his territory, from the Wadi of Egypt to the Euphrates River.

Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for three months. His mother’s name was Nehushta daughter of Elnathan; she was from Jerusalem.

He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, just as his father had done.

At that time the officers of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon advanced on Jerusalem and laid siege to it, and Nebuchadnezzar himself came up to the city while his officers were besieging it.

Jehoiachin king of Judah, his mother, his attendants, his nobles and his officials all surrendered to him. In the eighth year of the reign of the king of Babylon, he took Jehoiachin prisoner.

As the LORD had declared, Nebuchadnezzar removed all the treasures from the temple of the LORD and from the royal palace, and took away all the gold articles that Solomon king of Israel had made for the temple of the LORD.

He carried into exile all Jerusalem: all the officers and fighting men, and all the craftsmen and artisans — a total of ten thousand. Only the poorest people of the land were left.

Nebuchadnezzar took Jehoiachin captive to Babylon. He also took from Jerusalem to Babylon the king’s mother, his wives, his officials and the leading men of the land.

The king of Babylon also deported to Babylon the entire force of seven thousand fighting men, strong and fit for war, and a thousand craftsmen and artisans.

He made Mattaniah, Jehoiachin’s uncle, king in his place and changed his name to Zedekiah.

Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for eleven years. His mother’s name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah; she was from Libnah.

2Kg. 24:19 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, just as Jehoiakim had done.

2Kg. 24:20 It was because of the LORD’s anger that all this happened to Jerusalem and Judah, and in the end he thrust them from his presence. Now Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

CHAPTER 25

2Kg. 25:1 So in the ninth year of Zedekiah’s reign, on the tenth day of the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon marched against Jerusalem with his whole army. He encamped outside the city and built siege works all around it.

2Kg. 25:2 The city was kept under siege until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah.

2Kg. 25:3 By the ninth day of the fourth [See Jer. 52:6.] month the famine in the city had become so severe that there was no food for the people to eat.

2Kg. 25:4 Then the city wall was broken through, and the whole army fled at night through the gate between the two walls near the king’s garden, though the Babylonians [Or Chaldeans; also in verses 13, 25 and 26] were surrounding the city. They fled towards the Arabah, [Or the Jordan Valley]

2Kg. 25:5 but the Babylonian [Or Chaldean; also in verses 10 and 24] army pursued the king and overtook him in the plains of Jericho. All his soldiers were separated from him and scattered,

2Kg. 25:6 and he was captured. He was taken to the king of Babylon at Riblah, where sentence was pronounced on him.
They killed the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes. Then they put out his eyes, bound him with bronze shackles and took him to Babylon.

On the seventh day of the fifth month, in the nineteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, Nebuzaradan commander of the imperial guard, an official of the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem.

He set fire to the temple of the LORD, the royal palace and all the houses of Jerusalem. Every important building he burned down.

The whole Babylonian army, under the commander of the imperial guard, broke down the walls around Jerusalem.

Nebuzaradan the commander of the guard carried into exile the people who remained in the city, along with the rest of the populace and those who had gone over to the king of Babylon.

But the commander left behind some of the poorest people of the land to work the vineyards and fields.

The Babylonians broke up the bronze pillars, the movable stands and the bronze Sea that were at the temple of the LORD and they carried the bronze to Babylon.

They also took away the pots, shovels, wick trimmers, dishes and all the bronze articles used in the temple service.

The commander of the imperial guard took away the censers and sprinkling bowls — all that were made of pure gold or silver.

The bronze from the two pillars, the Sea and the movable stands, which Solomon had made for the temple of the LORD, was more than could be weighed.

Each pillar was twenty-seven feet [Hebrew eighteen cubits (about 8.2 metres)] high. The bronze capital on top of one pillar was four and a half feet [Hebrew three cubits (about 1.4 metres)] high and was decorated with a network and pomegranates of bronze all around. The other pillar, with its network, was similar.

2Kg. 25:18 The commander of the guard took as prisoners Seraiah the chief priest, Zephaniah the priest next in rank and the three doorkeepers.

2Kg. 25:19 Of those still in the city, he took the officer in charge of the fighting men and five royal advisers. He also took the secretary who was chief officer in charge of conscripting the people of the land and sixty of his men who were found in the city.

2Kg. 25:20 Nebuzaradan the commander took them all and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah.

2Kg. 25:21 There at Riblah, in the land of Hamath, the king had them executed. So Judah went into captivity, away from her land.

2Kg. 25:22 Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, to be over the people he had left behind in Judah.

2Kg. 25:23 When all the army officers and their men heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah as governor, they came to Gedaliah at Mizpah — Ishmael son of Nethaniah, Johanan son of Kareah, Seraiah son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, Jaazaniah the son of the Maacathite, and their men.

2Kg. 25:24 Gedaliah took an oath to reassure them and their men. “Do not be afraid of the Babylonian officials,” he said. “Settle down in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will go well with you.”

2Kg. 25:25 In the seventh month, however, Ishmael son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, who was of royal blood, came with ten men and assassinated Gedaliah and also the men of Judah and the Babylonians who were with him at Mizpah.

2Kg. 25:26 At this, all the people from the least to the greatest, together with the army officers, fled to Egypt for fear of the Babylonians.
2Kg. 25:27 In the thirty-seventh year of the exile of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the year Evil-Merodach [Also called Amel-Marduk] became king of Babylon, he released Jehoiachin from prison on the twenty-seventh day of the twelfth month.

2Kg. 25:28 He spoke kindly to him and gave him a seat of honour higher than those of the other kings who were with him in Babylon.

2Kg. 25:29 So Jehoiachin put aside his prison clothes and for the rest of his life ate regularly at the king’s table.

2Kg. 25:30 Day by day the king gave Jehoiachin a regular allowance as long as he lived.

the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel: Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron and Carmi.

The descendants of Joel: Shemaiah his son, Gog his son, Shimei his son,

Micah his son, Reaiah his son, Baal his son, and Beerah his son, whom Tiglath-Pileser [Hebrew Tilgath-Pilneser, a variant of Tiglath-Pileser; also in verse 26] king of Assyria took into exile. Beerah was a leader of the Reubenites.

Their relatives by clans, listed according to their genealogical records: Jeiel the chief, Zechariah, and Bela son of Azaz, the son of Shema, the son of Joel. They settled in the area from Aroer to Nebo and Baal Meon.

To the east they occupied the land up to the edge of the desert that extends to the Euphrates River, because their livestock had increased in Gilead.

During Saul’s reign they waged war against the Hagrites, who were defeated at their hands; they occupied the dwellings of the Hagrites throughout the entire region east of Gilead.

The Gadites lived next to them in Bashan, as far as Salecah:
Joel was the chief, Shapham the second, then Janai and Shaphat, in Bashan.

Their relatives, by families, were: Michael, Meshullam, Sheba, Jorai, Jacan, Zia and Eber — seven in all.

These were the sons of Abihail son of Huri, the son of Jaroah, the son of Gilead, the son of Michael, the son of Jeshishai, the son of Jahdo, the son of Buz.

Ahi son of Abdiel, the son of Guni, was head of their family.

The Gadites lived in Gilead, in Bashan and its outlying villages, and on all the pasture-lands of Sharon as far as they extended.

All these were entered in the genealogical records during the reigns of Jotham king of Judah and Jeroboam king of Israel.

The Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh had 44,760 men ready for military service — able-bodied men who could handle shield and sword, who could use a bow, and who were trained for battle.

They waged war against the Hagrites, Jetur, Naphish and Nodab.

They were helped in fighting them, and God handed the Hagrites and all their allies over to them, because they cried out to him during the battle. He answered their prayers, because they trusted in him.

They seized the livestock of the Hagrites — fifty thousand camels, two hundred and fifty thousand sheep and two thousand donkeys. They also took one hundred thousand people captive, and many others fell slain, because the battle was God’s. And they occupied the land until the exile.

The people of the half-tribe of Manasseh were numerous; they settled in the land from Bashan to Baal Hermon, that is, to Senir (Mount Hermon).
1Ch. 5:24 These were the heads of their families: Epher, Ishi, Eliel, Azriel, Jeremiah, Hodaviah and Jahdiel. They were brave warriors, famous men, and heads of their families.

1Ch. 5:25 But they were unfaithful to the God of their fathers and prostituted themselves to the gods of the peoples of the land, whom God had destroyed before them.

1Ch. 5:26 So the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of Pul king of Assyria (that is, Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria), who took the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh into exile. He took them to Halah, Habor, Hara and the river of Gozan, where they are to this day.

Their fellow Levites were assigned to all the other duties of the tabernacle, the house of God.

But Aaron and his descendants were the ones who presented offerings on the altar of burnt offering and on the altar of incense in connection with all that was done in the Most Holy Place, making atonement for Israel, in accordance with all that Moses the servant of God had commanded.

They were given Hebron in Judah with its surrounding pasture-lands.

But the fields and villages around the city were given to Caleb son of Jephunneh.

So the descendants of Aaron were given Hebron (a city of refuge), and Libnah, [See Joshua 21:13; Hebrew given the cities of refuge: Hebron, Libnah.] Jattir, Eshtemoa, Hilen, Debir,

Ashan, Juttah [Syriac (see also Septuagint and Joshua 21:16); Hebrew does not have Juttah.] and Beth Shemesh, together with their pasture-lands.

And from the tribe of Benjamin they were given Gibeon, [See Joshua 21:17; Hebrew does not have Gibeon.] Geba, Alemeth and Anathoth, together with their pasture-lands. These towns, which were distributed among the Kohathite clans, were thirteen in all.

The rest of Kohath’s descendants were allotted ten towns from the clans of half the tribe of Manasseh.

The descendants of Gershon, clan by clan, were allotted thirteen towns from the tribes of Issachar, Asher and Naphtali, and from the part of the tribe of Manasseh that is in Bashan.

So the Israelites gave the Levites these towns and their pasture-lands.

From the tribes of Judah, Simeon and Benjamin they allotted the previously named towns.

Some of the Kohathite clans were given as their territory towns from the tribe of Ephraim.

In the hill country of Ephraim they were given Shechem (a city of refuge), and Gezer, [See Joshua 21:21; Hebrew given the cities of refuge: Shechem, Gezer.]

Their father Ephraim mourned for them many days, and his relatives came to comfort him.

Then he lay with his wife again, and she became pregnant and gave birth to a son. He named him Beriah, [Beriah sounds like the Hebrew for misfortune.] because there had been misfortune in his family.

His daughter was Sheerah, who built Lower and Upper Beth Horon as well as Uzzen Sheerah.

CHAPTER 9

1Ch. 9:1 All Israel was listed in the genealogies in the book of the kings of Israel. The people of Judah were taken captive to Babylon because of their unfaithfulness.

1Ch. 9:2 Now the first to resettle on their own property in their own towns were some Israelites, priests, Levites and temple servants.

1Ch. 9:3 Those from Judah, from Benjamin, and from Ephraim and Manasseh who lived in Jerusalem were:

The gatekeepers: Shallum, Akkub, Talmon, Ahiman and their brothers, Shallum their chief being stationed at the King’s Gate on the east, up to the present time. These were the gatekeepers belonging to the camp of the Levites.

Shallum son of Kore, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, and his fellow gatekeepers from his family (the Korahites) were responsible for guarding the thresholds of the Tent [That is, the temple; also in verses 21 and 23] just as their fathers had been responsible for guarding the entrance to the dwelling of the LORD.

In earlier times Phinehas son of Eleazar was in charge of the gatekeepers, and the LORD was with him.

Zechariah son of Meshelemiah was the gatekeeper at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Altogether, those chosen to be gatekeepers at the thresholds numbered 212. They were registered by genealogy in their villages. The gatekeepers had been assigned to their positions of trust by David and Samuel the seer.
They and their descendants were in charge of guarding the gates of the house of the LORD — the house called the Tent.

The gatekeepers were on the four sides: east, west, north and south.

Their brothers in their villages had to come from time to time and share their duties for seven-day periods.

But the four principal gatekeepers, who were Levites, were entrusted with the responsibility for the rooms and treasuries in the house of God.

They would spend the night stationed round the house of God, because they had to guard it; and they had charge of the key for opening it each morning.

Some of them were in charge of the articles used in the temple service; they counted them when they were brought in and when they were taken out.

Others were assigned to take care of the furnishings and all the other articles of the sanctuary, as well as the flour and wine, and the oil, incense and spices.

But some of the priests took care of mixing the spices.

A Levite named Mattithiah, the firstborn son of Shallum the Korahite, was entrusted with the responsibility for baking the offering bread.

Some of their Kohathite brothers were in charge of preparing for every Sabbath the bread set out on the table.

Those who were musicians, heads of Levite families, stayed in the rooms of the temple and were exempt from other duties because they were responsible for the work day and night.

All these were heads of Levite families, chiefs as listed in their genealogy, and they lived in Jerusalem.
Jeiel the father [Father may mean civic leader or military leader.] of Gibeon lived in Gibeon. His wife’s name was Maacah, and his firstborn son was Abdon, followed by Zur, Kish, Baal, Ner, Nadab, Gedor, Ahio, Zechariah and Mikloth.

Mikloth was the father of Shimeam. They too lived near their relatives in Jerusalem.

Ner was the father of Kish, Kish the father of Saul, and Saul the father of Jonathan, Malki-Shua, Abinadab and Esh-Baal. [Also known as Ish-Bosheth]

The son of Jonathan: Merib-Baal, [Also known as Mephibosheth] who was the father of Micah.

Ahaz was the father of Jadah, Jadah [Some Hebrew manuscripts and Septuagint (see also 1 Chron. 8:36); most Hebrew manuscripts Jarah, Jarah] was the father of Alemeth, Azmaveth and Zimri, and Zimri was the father of Moza.

Moza was the father of Binea; Rephaiah was his son, Eleasah his son and Azel his son.

Azel had six sons, and these were their names: Azrikam, Bokeru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah and Hanan. These were the sons of Azel.

CHAPTER 10

Now the Philistines fought against Israel; the Israelites fled before them, and many fell slain on Mount Gilboa.

The Philistines pressed hard after Saul and his sons, and they killed his sons Jonathan, Abinadab and Malki-Shua.
The fighting grew fierce around Saul, and when the archers overtook him, they wounded him.

Saul said to his armour-bearer, “Draw your sword and run me through, or these uncircumcised fellows will come and abuse me.” But his armour-bearer was terrified and would not do it; so Saul took his own sword and fell on it.

When the armour-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he too fell on his sword and died.

So Saul and his three sons died, and all his house died together.

When all the Israelites in the valley saw that the army had fled and that Saul and his sons had died, they abandoned their towns and fled. And the Philistines came and occupied them.

The next day, when the Philistines came to strip the dead, they found Saul and his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa.

They stripped him and took his head and his armour, and sent messengers throughout the land of the Philistines to proclaim the news among their idols and their people.

They put his armour in the temple of their gods and hung up his head in the temple of Dagon.

When all the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead heard of everything the Philistines had done to Saul, all their valiant men went and took the bodies of Saul and his sons and brought them to Jabesh. Then they buried their bones under the great tree in Jabesh, and they fasted seven days.

Saul died because he was unfaithful to the LORD; he did not keep the word of the LORD, and even consulted a medium for guidance, and did not enquire of the LORD. So the LORD put him to death and turned the kingdom over to David son of Jesse.

1Ch. 11:1 All Israel came together to David at Hebron and said, “We are your own flesh and blood.

1Ch. 11:2 In the past, even while Saul was king, you were the one who led Israel on their military campaigns. And the LORD your God said to you, ‘You will shepherd my people Israel, and you will become their ruler.’”

1Ch. 11:3 When all the elders of Israel had come to King David at Hebron, he made a compact with them at Hebron before the LORD, and they anointed David king over Israel, as the LORD had promised through Samuel.

1Ch. 11:4 David and all the Israelites marched to Jerusalem (that is, Jebus). The Jebusites who lived there said to David, “You will not get in here.” Nevertheless, David captured the fortress of Zion, the City of David.

1Ch. 11:5 David had said, “Whoever leads the attack on the Jebusites will become commander-in-chief.” Joab son of Zeruiah went up first, and so he received the command.

1Ch. 11:6 David then took up residence in the fortress, and so it was called the City of David.

1Ch. 11:7 He built up the city around it, from the supporting terraces [Or the Millo] to the surrounding wall, while Joab restored the rest of the city.

1Ch. 11:8 And David became more and more powerful, because the LORD Almighty was with him.

1Ch. 11:9 These were the chiefs of David’s mighty men — they, together with all Israel, gave his kingship strong support to extend it over the whole land, as the LORD had promised —

1Ch. 11:10 this is the list of David’s mighty men: Jashobeam, [Possibly a variant of Jashob-Baal] a Hacmonite, was chief of the officers; [Or Thirty; some Septuagint manuscripts Three (see Next to him was Eleazar son of Dodai the Ahohite, one of the three mighty men.

He was with David at Pas Dammim when the Philistines gathered there for battle. At a place where there was a field full of barley, the troops fled from the Philistines.

But they took their stand in the middle of the field. They defended it and struck the Philistines down, and the LORD brought about a great victory.

Three of the thirty chiefs came down to David to the rock at the cave of Adullam, while a band of Philistines was encamped in the Valley of Rephaim.

At that time David was in the stronghold, and the Philistine garrison was at Bethlehem.

David longed for water and said, “Oh, that someone would get me a drink of water from the well near the gate of Bethlehem!”

So the Three broke through the Philistine lines, drew water from the well near the gate of Bethlehem and carried it back to David. But he refused to drink it; instead, he poured it out before the LORD.

“God forbid that I should do this!” he said. “Should I drink the blood of these men who went at the risk of their lives?” Because they risked their lives to bring it back, David would not drink it. Such were the exploits of the three mighty men.

Abishai the brother of Joab was chief of the Three. He raised his spear against three hundred men, whom he killed, and so he became as famous as the Three.

He was doubly honoured above the Three and became their commander, even though he was not included among them.

Benaiah son of Jehoiada was a valiant fighter from Kabzeel, who performed great exploits. He struck down two of Moab’s best men. He also went down into a pit on a snowy day and killed a lion.

1Ch. 11:23 And he struck down an Egyptian who was seven and a half feet [Hebrew five cubits (about 2.3 metres)] tall. Although the Egyptian had a spear like a weaver’s rod in his hand, Benaiah went against him with a club. He snatched the spear from the Egyptian’s hand and killed him with his own spear.

1Ch. 11:24 Such were the exploits of Benaiah son of Jehoiada; he too was as famous as the three mighty men.

1Ch. 11:25 He was held in greater honour than any of the Thirty, but he was not included among the Three. And David put him in charge of his bodyguard.

1Ch. 11:26 The mighty men were: Asahel the brother of Joab, Elhanan son of Dodo from Bethlehem,

1Ch. 11:27 Shammoth the Harorite, Helez the Pelonite,

1Ch. 11:28 Ira son of Ikkesh from Tekoa, Abiezer from Anathoth,

1Ch. 11:29 Sibbecai the Hushathite, Ilai the Ahohite,

1Ch. 11:30 Maharai the Netophathite, Heled son of Baanah the Netophathite,

1Ch. 11:31 Ithai son of Ribai from Gibeah in Benjamin, Benaiah the Pirathonite,

1Ch. 11:32 Hurai from the ravines of Gaash, Abiel the Arbathite,

1Ch. 11:33 Azmaveth the Baharumite, Eliahba the Shaalbonite,

1Ch. 11:34 the sons of Hashem the Gizonite, Jonathan son of Shagee the Hararite,

1Ch. 11:35 Ahiam son of Sacar the Hararite, Eliphal son of Ur,

1Ch. 11:36 Hepher the Mekerathite, Ahijah the Pelonite,

1Ch. 11:37 Hezro the Carmelite, Naarai son of Ezbai,

1Ch. 11:38 Joel the brother of Nathan, Mibhar son of Hagri,
1Ch. 11:39 Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Berothite, the armour-bearer of Joab son of Zeruiah,

1Ch. 11:40 Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite,

1Ch. 11:41 Uriah the Hittite, Zabad son of Ahlai,

1Ch. 11:42 Adina son of Shiza the Reubenite, who was chief of the Reubenites, and the thirty with him,

1Ch. 11:43 Hanan son of Maacah, Joshaphat the Mithnite,

1Ch. 11:44 Uzzia the Ashterathite, Shama and Jeiel the sons of Hotham the Aroerite,

1Ch. 11:45 Jediael son of Shimri, his brother Joha the Tizite,

1Ch. 11:46 Eliel the Mahavite, Jeribai and Joshaviah the sons of Elnaam, Ithmah the Moabite, 1Ch. 11:47 Eliel, Obed and Jaasiel the Mezobaite.

CHAPTER 12

1Ch. 12:1 These were the men who came to David at Ziklag, while he was banished from the presence of Saul son of Kish (they were among the warriors who helped him in battle;

1Ch. 12:2 they were armed with bows and were able to shoot arrows or to sling stones right-handed or left-handed; they were kinsmen of Saul from the tribe of Benjamin):

1Ch. 12:3 Ahiezer their chief and Joash the sons of Shemaah the Gibeathite; Jeziel and Pelet the sons of Azmaveth; Beracah, Jehu the Anathothite,

1Ch. 12:4 and Ishmaiah the Gibeonite, a mighty man among the Thirty, who was a leader of the Thirty; Jeremiah, Jahaziel, Johanan, Jozabad the Gederathite,

1Ch. 12:5 Eluzai, Jerimoth, Bealiah, Shemariah and Shephatiah the Haruphite;
1Ch. 12:6 Elkanah, Isshiah, Azarel, Joezer and Jashobeam the Korahites;

1Ch. 12:7 and Joelah and Zebadiah the sons of Jeroham from Gedor.

1Ch. 12:8 Some Gadites defected to David at his stronghold in the desert. They were brave warriors, ready for battle and able to handle the shield and spear. Their faces were the faces of lions, and they were as swift as gazelles in the mountains.

1Ch. 12:9 Ezer was the chief, Obadiah the second in command, Eliab the third,

1Ch. 12:10 Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth,

1Ch. 12:11 Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh,

1Ch. 12:12 Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth,

1Ch. 12:13 Jeremiah the tenth and Macbannai the eleventh.

1Ch. 12:14 These Gadites were army commanders; the least was a match for a hundred, and the greatest for a thousand.

1Ch. 12:15 It was they who crossed the Jordan in the first month when it was overflowing all its banks, and they put to flight everyone living in the valleys, to the east and to the west.

1Ch. 12:16 Other Benjamites and some men from Judah also came to David in his stronghold.

1Ch. 12:17 David went out to meet them and said to them, “If you have come to me in peace, to help me, I am ready to have you unite with me. But if you have come to betray me to my enemies when my hands are free from violence, may the God of our fathers see it and judge you.”

1Ch. 12:18 Then the Spirit came upon Amasai, chief of the Thirty, and he said: “We are yours, O David! We are with you, O son of Jesse! Success, success to you, and success to those who help you, for your God will help you.” So David received them and made them leaders of his raiding bands.

1Ch. 12:19 Some of the men of Manasseh defected to David when he went with the Philistines to fight against Saul. (He and his men did not help the Philistines because, after consultation, their rulers sent him away. They said, “It will cost us our heads if he deserts to his master Saul.”

1Ch. 12:20 When David went to Ziklag, these were the men of Manasseh who defected to him: Adnah, Jozabad, Jediael, Michael, Jozabad, Elihu and Zillethai, leaders of units of a thousand in Manasseh.

1Ch. 12:21 They helped David against raiding bands, for all of them were brave warriors, and they were commanders in his army.

1Ch. 12:22 Day after day men came to help David, until he had a great army, like the army of God. [Or a great and mighty army]

1Ch. 12:23 These are the numbers of the men armed for battle who came to David at Hebron to turn Saul’s kingdom over to him, as the LORD had said:

1Ch. 12:24 men of Judah, carrying shield and spear — 6,800 armed for battle;

1Ch. 12:25 men of Simeon, warriors ready for battle — 7,100;

1Ch. 12:26 men of Levi — 4,600,

1Ch. 12:27 including Jehoiada, leader of the family of Aaron with 3,700 men,

1Ch. 12:28 and Zadok, a brave young warrior, with 22 officers from his family;

1Ch. 12:29 men of Benjamin, Saul’s kinsmen — 3,000, most of whom had remained loyal to Saul’s house until then;

1Ch. 12:30 men of Ephraim, brave warriors, famous in their own clans — 20,800;

1Ch. 12:31 men of half the tribe of Manasseh, designated by name to come and make David king — 18,000;

1Ch. 12:32 men of Issachar, who understood the times and knew what Israel should do — 200 chiefs, with all their relatives under their command;
1Ch. 12:33 men of Zebulun, experienced soldiers prepared for battle with every type of weapon, to help David with undivided loyalty — 50,000;

1Ch. 12:34 men of Naphtali — 1,000 officers, together with 37,000 men carrying shields and spears;

1Ch. 12:35 men of Dan, ready for battle — 28,600;

1Ch. 12:36 men of Asher, experienced soldiers prepared for battle — 40,000;

1Ch. 12:37 and from east of the Jordan, men of Reuben, Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, armed with every type of weapon — 120,000.

1Ch. 12:38 All these were fighting men who volunteered to serve in the ranks. They came to Hebron fully determined to make David king over all Israel. All the rest of the Israelites were also of one mind to make David king.

1Ch. 12:39 The men spent three days there with David, eating and drinking, for their families had supplied provisions for them.

1Ch. 12:40 Also, their neighbours from as far away as Issachar, Zebulun and Naphtali came bringing food on donkeys, camels, mules and oxen. There were plentiful supplies of flour, fig cakes, raisin cakes, wine, oil, cattle and sheep, for there was joy in Israel.

1Ch. 13:1 David conferred with each of his officers, the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds.

1Ch. 13:2 He then said to the whole assembly of Israel, “If it seems good to you and if it is the will of the LORD our God, let us send word far and wide to the rest of our brothers throughout the territories of Israel, and also to the priests and Levites who are with them in their towns and pasture-lands, to come and join us.
1Ch. 13:3 Let us bring the ark of our God back to us, for we did not enquire of [Or we neglected] it [Or him] during the reign of Saul."

1Ch. 13:4 The whole assembly agreed to do this, because it seemed right to all the people.

1Ch. 13:5 So David assembled all the Israelites, from the Shihor River in Egypt to Lebo [Or to the entrance to] Hamath, to bring the ark of God from Kiriath Jearim.

1Ch. 13:6 David and all the Israelites with him went to Baalah of Judah (Kiriath Jearim) to bring up from there the ark of God the LORD, who is enthroned between the cherubim — the ark that is called by the Name.

1Ch. 13:7 They moved the ark of God from Abinadab’s house on a new cart, with Uzzah and Ahio guiding it.

1Ch. 13:8 David and all the Israelites were celebrating with all their might before God, with songs and with harps, lyres, tambourines, cymbals and trumpets.

1Ch. 13:9 When they came to the threshing-floor of Kidon, Uzzah reached out his hand to steady the ark, because the oxen stumbled.

1Ch. 13:10 The LORD’s anger burned against Uzzah, and he struck him down because he had put his hand on the ark. So he died there before God.

1Ch. 13:11 Then David was angry because the LORD’s wrath had broken out against Uzzah, and to this day that place is called Perez Uzzah. [Perez Uzzah means outbreak against Uzzah.]

1Ch. 13:12 David was afraid of God that day and asked, “How can I ever bring the ark of God to me?”

1Ch. 13:13 He did not take the ark to be with him in the City of David. Instead, he took it aside to the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite.
1Ch. 13:14 The ark of God remained with the family of Obed-Edom in his house for three months, and the LORD blessed his household and everything he had.

CHAPTER 14

1Ch. 14:1 Now Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, along with cedar logs, stonemasons and carpenters to build a palace for him.

1Ch. 14:2 And David knew that the LORD had established him as king over Israel and that his kingdom had been highly exalted for the sake of his people Israel.

1Ch. 14:3 In Jerusalem David took more wives and became the father of more sons and daughters.

1Ch. 14:4 These are the names of the children born to him there: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon,

1Ch. 14:5 Ibhar, Elishua, Elpelet,

1Ch. 14:6 Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia,

1Ch. 14:7 Elishama, Beeliada [A variant of Eliada] and Eliphelet.

1Ch. 14:8 When the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over all Israel, they went up in full force to search for him, but David heard about it and went out to meet them.

1Ch. 14:9 Now the Philistines had come and raided the Valley of Rephaim;

1Ch. 14:10 so David enquired of God: “Shall I go and attack the Philistines? Will you hand them over to me?” The LORD answered him, “Go, I will hand them over to you.”

1Ch. 14:11 So David and his men went up to Baal Perazim, and there he defeated them. He said, “As waters break out, God has broken out against my enemies by my hand.” So that place was called Baal Perazim. [Baal Perazim means the lord who breaks out.]
The Philistines had abandoned their gods there, and David gave orders to burn them in the fire.

Once more the Philistines raided the valley;

so David enquired of God again, and God answered him, “Do not go straight up, but circle round them and attack them in front of the balsam trees.

As soon as you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the balsam trees, move out to battle, because that will mean God has gone out in front of you to strike the Philistine army.”

So David did as God commanded him, and they struck down the Philistine army, all the way from Gibeon to Gezer.

So David’s fame spread throughout every land, and the LORD made all the nations fear him.

CHAPTER 15

After David had constructed buildings for himself in the City of David, he prepared a place for the ark of God and pitched a tent for it.

Then David said, “No-one but the Levites may carry the ark of God, because the LORD chose them to carry the ark of the LORD and to minister before him for ever.”

David assembled all Israel in Jerusalem to bring up the ark of the LORD to the place he had prepared for it.

He called together the descendants of Aaron and the Levites:

From the descendants of Kohath, Uriel the leader and 120 relatives; from the descendants of Merari, Asaiah the leader and 220 relatives; from the descendants of Gershon, [Hebrew Gershom, a variant of Gershon] Joel the leader and 130 relatives;

1Ch. 15:8 from the descendants of Elizaphan, Shemaiah the leader and 200 relatives;

1Ch. 15:9 from the descendants of Hebron, Eliel the leader and 80 relatives;

1Ch. 15:10 from the descendants of Uzziel, Amminadab the leader and 112 relatives.

1Ch. 15:11 Then David summoned Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel and Amminadab the Levites.

1Ch. 15:12 He said to them, “You are the heads of the Levitical families; you and your fellow Levites are to consecrate yourselves and bring up the ark of the LORD, the God of Israel, to the place I have prepared for it.

1Ch. 15:13 It was because you, the Levites, did not bring it up the first time that the LORD our God broke out in anger against us. We did not enquire of him about how to do it in the prescribed way.”

1Ch. 15:14 So the priests and Levites consecrated themselves in order to bring up the ark of the LORD, the God of Israel.

1Ch. 15:15 And the Levites carried the ark of God with the poles on their shoulders, as Moses had commanded in accordance with the word of the LORD.

1Ch. 15:16 David told the leaders of the Levites to appoint their brothers as singers to sing joyful songs, accompanied by musical instruments: lyres, harps and cymbals.

1Ch. 15:17 So the Levites appointed Heman son of Joel; from his brothers, Asaph son of Berekiah; and from their brothers the Merarites, Ethan son of Kushaiah;

1Ch. 15:18 and with them their brothers next in rank: Zechariah, [Three Hebrew manuscripts and most Septuagint manuscripts (see also verse 20 and 1 Chron. 16:5); most Hebrew manuscripts Zechariah son and or Zechariah, Ben and] Jaaziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, Obed-Edom and Jeiel, [Hebrew; Septuagint (see also verse 21) Jeiel and Azaziah] the gatekeepers.

1Ch. 15:19 The musicians Heman, Asaph and Ethan were to sound the bronze cymbals;

1Ch. 15:20 Zechariah, Aziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Maaseiah and Benaiah were to play the lyres according to alamoth, [Probably a musical term]

1Ch. 15:21 and Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, Obed-Edom, Jeiel and Azaziah were to play the harps, directing according to sheminith. [Probably a musical term]

1Ch. 15:22 Kenaniah the head Levite was in charge of the singing; that was his responsibility because he was skilful at it.

1Ch. 15:23 Berekiah and Elkanah were to be doorkeepers for the ark.

1Ch. 15:24 Shebaniah, Joshaphat, Nethanel, Amasai, Zechariah, Benaiah and Eliezer the priests were to blow trumpets before the ark of God. Obed-Edom and Jehiah were also to be doorkeepers for the ark.

1Ch. 15:25 So David and the elders of Israel and the commanders of units of a thousand went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD from the house of Obed-Edom, with rejoicing.

1Ch. 15:26 Because God had helped the Levites who were carrying the ark of the covenant of the LORD, seven bulls and seven rams were sacrificed.

1Ch. 15:27 Now David was clothed in a robe of fine linen, as were all the Levites who were carrying the ark, and as were the singers, and Kenaniah, who was in charge of the singing of the choirs. David also wore a linen ephod.

1Ch. 15:28 So all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the LORD with shouts, with the sounding of rams’ horns and trumpets, and of cymbals, and the playing of lyres and harps.

1Ch. 15:29 As the ark of the covenant of the LORD was entering the City of David, Michal daughter of Saul watched from a window. And when she saw King David dancing and celebrating, she despised him in her heart.

CHAPTER 16

1Ch. 16:1  They brought the ark of God and set it inside the tent that David had pitched for it, and they presented burnt offerings and fellowship offerings [Traditionally peace offerings; also in verse 2] before God.

1Ch. 16:2  After David had finished sacrificing the burnt offerings and fellowship offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD.

1Ch. 16:3  Then he gave a loaf of bread, a cake of dates and a cake of raisins to each Israelite man and woman.

1Ch. 16:4  He appointed some of the Levites to minister before the ark of the LORD, to make petition, to give thanks, and to praise the LORD, the God of Israel:

1Ch. 16:5  Asaph was the chief, Zechariah second, then Jeiel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Mattithiah, Eliab, Benaiah, Obed-Edom and Jeiel. They were to play the lyres and harps, Asaph was to sound the cymbals, 1Ch. 16:6  and Benaiah and Jahaziel the priests were to blow the trumpets regularly before the ark of the covenant of God.

1Ch. 16:7  That day David first committed to Asaph and his associates this psalm of thanks to the LORD:

1Ch. 16:8  Give thanks to the LORD, call on his name; make known among the nations what he has done.

1Ch. 16:9  Sing to him, sing praise to him; tell of all his wonderful acts.

1Ch. 16:10  Glory in his holy name; let the hearts of those who seek the LORD rejoice.

1Ch. 16:11  Look to the LORD and his strength; seek his face always.
Remember the wonders he has done, his miracles, and the judgments he pronounced, descendants of Israel his servant, O sons of Jacob, his chosen ones.

He is the LORD our God; his judgments are in all the earth.

He remembers [Some Septuagint manuscripts (see also Psalm 105:8); Hebrew Remember] his covenant for ever, the word he commanded, for a thousand generations, the covenant he made with Abraham, the oath he swore to Isaac.

He confirmed it to Jacob as a decree, to Israel as an everlasting covenant:

“To you I will give the land of Canaan as the portion you will inherit.”

When they were but few in number, few indeed, and strangers in it, they [One Hebrew manuscript, Septuagint and Vulgate (see also Psalm 105:12); most Hebrew manuscripts inherit, 16:19 though you are but few in number, few indeed, and strangers in it.” 16:20 They] wandered from nation to nation, from one kingdom to another.

He allowed no man to oppress them; for their sake he rebuked kings:

“Do not touch my anointed ones; do my prophets no harm.”

Sing to the LORD, all the earth; proclaim his salvation day after day.

Declare his glory among the nations, his marvellous deeds among all peoples.

For great is the LORD and most worthy of praise; he is to be feared above all gods.
For all the gods of the nations are idols, but the LORD made the heavens.

Splendour and majesty are before him; strength and joy in his dwelling-place.

Ascribe to the LORD, O families of nations, ascribe to the LORD glory and strength, Ascribe to the LORD the glory due to his name. Bring an offering and come before him; worship the LORD in the splendour of his [Or LORD with the splendour of] holiness.

Tremble before him, all the earth! The world is firmly established; it cannot be moved.

Let the heavens rejoice, let the earth be glad; let them say among the nations, “The LORD reigns!”

Let the sea resound, and all that is in it; let the fields be jubilant, and everything in them!

Then the trees of the forest will sing, they will sing for joy before the LORD, for he comes to judge the earth.

Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good; his love endures for ever.

Cry out, “Save us, O God our Saviour; gather us and deliver us from the nations, that we may give thanks to your holy name, that we may glory in your praise.”

Praise be to the LORD, the God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting. Then all the people said “Amen” and “Praise the LORD.”

David left Asaph and his associates before the ark of the covenant of the LORD to minister there regularly, according to each day’s requirements.

He also left Obed-Edom and his sixty-eight associates to minister with them. Obed-Edom son of Jeduthun, and also Hosah, were gatekeepers.
1Ch. 16:39 David left Zadok the priest and his fellow priests before the tabernacle of the LORD at the high place in Gibeon to present burnt offerings to the LORD on the altar of burnt offering regularly, morning and evening, in accordance with everything written in the Law of the LORD, which he had given Israel.

1Ch. 16:40 With them were Heman and Jeduthun and the rest of those chosen and designated by name to give thanks to the LORD, “for his love endures for ever.”

1Ch. 16:41 Heman and Jeduthun were responsible for the sounding of the trumpets and cymbals and for the playing of the other instruments for sacred song. The sons of Jeduthun were stationed at the gate.

1Ch. 16:42 Then all the people left, each for his own home, and David returned home to bless his family.

CHAPTER 17

1Ch. 17:1 After David was settled in his palace, he said to Nathan the prophet, “Here I am, living in a palace of cedar, while the ark of the covenant of the LORD is under a tent.”

1Ch. 17:2 Nathan replied to David, “Whatever you have in mind, do it, for God is with you.”

1Ch. 17:3 That night the word of God came to Nathan, saying:

1Ch. 17:4 “Go and tell my servant David, `This is what the LORD says: You are not the one to build me a house to dwell in.

1Ch. 17:5 Wherever I have moved with all the Israelites, did I ever say to any of their leaders [Traditionally judges; also in verse 10] whom I commanded to shepherd my people, “Why have you not built me a house of cedar?’”
1Ch. 17:7  “Now then, tell my servant David, `This is what the LORD Almighty says: I took you from the pasture and from following the flock, to be ruler over my people Israel.

1Ch. 17:8  I have been with you wherever you have gone, and I have cut off all your enemies from before you. Now I will make your name like the names of the greatest men of the earth.

1Ch. 17:9  And I will provide a place for my people Israel and will plant them so that they can have a home of their own and no longer be disturbed. Wicked people will not oppress them any more, as they did at the beginning

1Ch. 17:10 and have done ever since the time I appointed leaders over my people Israel. I will also subdue all your enemies. “I declare to you that the LORD will build a house for you:

1Ch. 17:11 When your days are over and you go to be with your fathers, I will raise up your offspring to succeed you, one of your own sons, and I will establish his kingdom.

1Ch. 17:12 He is the one who will build a house for me, and I will establish his throne for ever.

1Ch. 17:13 I will be his father, and he will be my son. I will never take my love away from him, as I took it away from your predecessor.

1Ch. 17:14 I will set him over my house and my kingdom for ever; his throne will be established for ever.”

1Ch. 17:15 Nathan reported to David all the words of this entire revelation.

1Ch. 17:16 Then King David went in and sat before the LORD, and he said: “Who am I, O LORD God, and what is my family, that you have brought me this far?

1Ch. 17:17 And as if this were not enough in your sight, O God, you have spoken about the future of the house of your servant. You have looked on me as though I were the most exalted of men, O LORD God.
“What more can David say to you for honouring your servant? For you know your servant, LORD. For the sake of your servant and according to your will, you have done this great thing and made known all these great promises.

“There is no-one like you, O LORD, and there is no God but you, as we have heard with our own ears.

And who is like your people Israel — the one nation on earth whose God went out to redeem a people for himself, and to make a name for yourself, and to perform great and awesome wonders by driving out nations from before your people, whom you redeemed from Egypt?

You made your people Israel your very own for ever, and you, O LORD, have become their God.

And now, LORD, let the promise you have made concerning your servant and his house be established for ever. Do as you promised, so that it will be established and that your name will be great for ever. Then men will say, ‘The LORD Almighty, the God over Israel, is Israel’s God!’ And the house of your servant David will be established before you.

“You, my God, have revealed to your servant that you will build a house for him. So your servant has found courage to pray to you.

LORD, you are God! You have promised these good things to your servant.

Now you have been pleased to bless the house of your servant, that it may continue for ever in your sight; for you, O LORD, have blessed it, and it will be blessed for ever.”
CHAPTER 18

1Ch. 18:1 In the course of time, David defeated the Philistines and subdued them, and he took Gath and its surrounding villages from the control of the Philistines.

1Ch. 18:2 David also defeated the Moabites, and they became subject to him and brought tribute.

1Ch. 18:3 Moreover, David fought Hadadezer king of Zobah, as far as Hamath, when he went to establish his control along the Euphrates River.

1Ch. 18:4 David captured a thousand of his chariots, seven thousand charioteers and twenty thousand foot soldiers. He hamstrung all but a hundred of the chariot horses.

1Ch. 18:5 When the Arameans of Damascus came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah, David struck down twenty-two thousand of them.

1Ch. 18:6 He put garrisons in the Aramean kingdom of Damascus, and the Arameans became subject to him and brought tribute. The LORD gave David victory everywhere he went.

1Ch. 18:7 David took the gold shields carried by the officers of Hadadezer and brought them to Jerusalem.

1Ch. 18:8 From Tebah [Hebrew Tibhath, a variant of Tebah] and Cun, towns that belonged to Hadadezer, David took a great quantity of bronze, which Solomon used to make the bronze Sea, the pillars and various bronze articles.

1Ch. 18:9 When Tou king of Hamath heard that David had defeated the entire army of Hadadezer king of Zobah, 1Ch. 18:10 he sent his son Hadoram to King David to greet him and congratulate him on his victory in battle over Hadadezer, who had been at war with Tou. Hadoram brought all kinds of articles of gold and silver and bronze.

1Ch. 18:11 King David dedicated these articles to the LORD, as he had done with the silver and gold he had taken from all these nations: Edom and Moab, the Ammonites and the Philistines, and Amalek.

1Ch. 18:12 Abishai son of Zeruiah struck down eighteen thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt.

1Ch. 18:13 He put garrisons in Edom, and all the Edomites became subject to David. The LORD gave David victory everywhere he went.

1Ch. 18:14 David reigned over all Israel, doing what was just and right for all his people.

1Ch. 18:15 Joab son of Zeruiah was over the army; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was recorder;

1Ch 18:16 Zadok son of Ahitub and Ahimelech [Some Hebrew manuscripts, Vulgate and Syriac (see also 2 Sam. 8:17); most Hebrew manuscripts Abimelech] son of Abiathar were priests; Shavsha was secretary;

1Ch. 18:17 Benaiah son of Jehoiada was over the Kerethites and Pelethites; and David’s sons were chief officials at the king’s side.

CHAPTER 19

1Ch. 19:1 In the course of time, Nahash king of the Ammonites died, and his son succeeded him as king.

1Ch. 19:2 David thought, “I will show kindness to Hanun son of Nahash, because his father showed kindness to me.” So David sent a delegation to express his sympathy to Hanun concerning his father. When David’s men came to Hanun in the land of the Ammonites to express sympathy to him,

1Ch. 19:3 the Ammonite nobles said to Hanun, “Do you think David is honouring your father by sending men to you to express sympathy? Haven’t his men come to you to explore and spy out the country and overthrow it?”
1Ch. 19:4 So Hanun seized David’s men, shaved them, cut off their garments in the middle at the buttocks, and sent them away.

1Ch. 19:5 When someone came and told David about the men, he sent messengers to meet them, for they were greatly humiliated. The king said, “Stay at Jericho till your beards have grown, and then come back.”

1Ch. 19:6 When the Ammonites realised that they had become an offence to David’s nostrils, Hanun and the Ammonites sent a thousand talents [That is, about 34 tons (about 34 metric tons)] of silver to hire chariots and charioteers from Aram Naharaim, [That is, North-west Mesopotamia] Aram Maacah and Zobah.

1Ch. 19:7 They hired thirty-two thousand chariots and charioteers, as well as the king of Maacah with his troops, who came and camped near Medeba, while the Ammonites were mustered from their towns and moved out for battle.

1Ch. 19:8 On hearing this, David sent Joab out with the entire army of fighting men.

1Ch. 19:9 The Ammonites came out and drew up in battle formation at the entrance to their city, while the kings who had come were by themselves in the open country.

1Ch. 19:10 Joab saw that there were battle lines in front of him and behind him; so he selected some of the best troops in Israel and deployed them against the Arameans.

1Ch. 19:11 He put the rest of the men under the command of Abishai his brother, and they were deployed against the Ammonites.

1Ch. 19:12 Joab said, “If the Arameans are too strong for me, then you are to rescue me; but if the Ammonites are too strong for you, then I will rescue you.

1Ch. 19:13 Be strong and let us fight bravely for our people and the cities of our God. The LORD will do what is good in his sight.”
1Ch. 19:14 Then Joab and the troops with him advanced to fight the Arameans, and they fled before him.

1Ch. 19:15 When the Ammonites saw that the Arameans were fleeing, they too fled before his brother Abishai and went inside the city. So Joab went back to Jerusalem.

1Ch. 19:16 After the Arameans saw that they had been routed by Israel, they sent messengers and had Arameans brought from beyond the River, [That is, the Euphrates] with Shophach the commander of Hadadezer’s army leading them.

1Ch. 19:17 When David was told of this, he gathered all Israel and crossed the Jordan; he advanced against them and formed his battle lines opposite them. David formed his lines to meet the Arameans in battle, and they fought against him.

1Ch. 19:18 But they fled before Israel, and David killed seven thousand of their charioteers and forty thousand of their foot soldiers. He also killed Shophach the commander of their army.

1Ch. 19:19 When the vassals of Hadadezer saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they made peace with David and became subject to him. So the Arameans were not willing to help the Ammonites any more.

CHAPTER 20

1Ch. 20:1 In the spring, at the time when kings go off to war, Joab led out the armed forces. He laid waste the land of the Ammonites and went to Rabbah and besieged it, but David remained in Jerusalem. Joab attacked Rabbah and left it in ruins.

1Ch. 20:2 David took the crown from the head of their king — [Or of Milcom, that is, Molech] its weight was found to be a talent [That is, about 75 pounds (about 34 kilograms)] of gold, and it was set with precious stones — and it was placed on David’s head. He took a great quantity of plunder from the city and brought out the people who were there, consigning them to labour with saws and with iron picks and axes. David did this to all the Ammonite towns. Then David and his entire army returned to Jerusalem.

In the course of time, war broke out with the Philistines, at Gezer. At that time Sibbecai the Hushathite killed Sippai, one of the descendants of the Rephaites, and the Philistines were subjugated.

In another battle with the Philistines, Elhanan son of Jair killed Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, who had a spear with a shaft like a weaver’s rod.

In still another battle, which took place at Gath, there was a huge man with six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot — twenty-four in all. He also was descended from Rapha.

When he taunted Israel, Jonathan son of Shimea, David’s brother, killed him.

These were descendants of Rapha in Gath, and they fell at the hands of David and his men.

Satan rose up against Israel and incited David to take a census of Israel.

So David said to Joab and the commanders of the troops, “Go and count the Israelites from Beersheba to Dan. Then report back to me so that I may know how many there are.”

But Joab replied, “May the LORD multiply his troops a hundred times over. My lord the king, are they not all my lord’s subjects? Why does my lord want to do this? Why should he bring guilt on Israel?”

The king’s word, however, overruled Joab; so Joab left and went throughout Israel and then came back to Jerusalem.
Joab reported the number of the fighting men to David: In all Israel there were one million one hundred thousand men who could handle a sword, including four hundred and seventy thousand in Judah.

But Joab did not include Levi and Benjamin in the numbering, because the king’s command was repulsive to him.

This command was also evil in the sight of God; so he punished Israel.

Then David said to God, “I have sinned greatly by doing this. Now, I beg you, take away the guilt of your servant. I have done a very foolish thing.”

The LORD said to Gad, David’s seer,

“Go and tell David, ‘This is what the LORD says: I am giving you three options. Choose one of them for me to carry out against you.’”

So Gad went to David and said to him, “This is what the LORD says: ‘Take your choice:

three years of famine, three months of being swept away [Hebrew; Septuagint and Vulgate (see also 2 Sam. 24:13) of fleeing] before your enemies, with their swords overtaking you, or three days of the sword of the LORD — days of plague in the land, with the angel of the LORD ravaging every part of Israel.’ Now then, decide how I should answer the one who sent me.”

David said to Gad, “I am in deep distress. Let me fall into the hands of the LORD, for his mercy is very great; but do not let me fall into the hands of men.”

So the LORD sent a plague on Israel, and seventy thousand men of Israel fell dead.

And God sent an angel to destroy Jerusalem. But as the angel was doing so, the LORD saw it and was grieved because of the calamity and said to the angel who was destroying the people, “Enough! Withdraw your hand.” The angel of the LORD was then standing at the threshing-floor of Araunah [Hebrew Ornan, a variant of Araunah; also in verses 18-28] the Jebusite.

1Ch. 21:16 David looked up and saw the angel of the LORD standing between heaven and earth, with a drawn sword in his hand extended over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders, clothed in sackcloth, fell face down.

1Ch. 21:17 David said to God, “Was it not I who ordered the fighting men to be counted? I am the one who has sinned and done wrong. These are but sheep. What have they done? O LORD my God, let your hand fall upon me and my family, but do not let this plague remain on your people.”

1Ch. 21:18 Then the angel of the LORD ordered Gad to tell David to go up and build an altar to the LORD on the threshing-floor of Araunah the Jebusite.

1Ch. 21:19 So David went up in obedience to the word that Gad had spoken in the name of the LORD.

1Ch. 21:20 While Araunah was threshing wheat, he turned and saw the angel; his four sons who were with him hid themselves.

1Ch. 21:21 Then David approached, and when Araunah looked and saw him, he left the threshing-floor and bowed down before David with his face to the ground.

1Ch. 21:22 David said to him, “Let me have the site of your threshing-floor so that I can build an altar to the LORD, that the plague on the people may be stopped. Sell it to me at the full price.”

1Ch. 21:23 Araunah said to David, “Take it! Let my lord the king do whatever pleases him. Look, I will give the oxen for the burnt offerings, the threshing-sledges for the wood, and the wheat for the grain offering. I will give all this.”

1Ch. 21:24 But King David replied to Araunah, “No, I insist on paying the full price. I will not take for the LORD what is yours, or sacrifice a burnt offering that costs me nothing.”
1Ch. 21:25 So David paid Araunah six hundred shekels [That is, about 15 pounds (about 7 kilograms)] of gold for the site.

1Ch. 21:26 David built an altar to the LORD there and sacrificed burnt offerings and fellowship offerings. [Traditionally peace offerings] He called on the LORD, and the LORD answered him with fire from heaven on the altar of burnt offering.

1Ch. 21:27 Then the LORD spoke to the angel, and he put his sword back into its sheath.

1Ch. 21:28 At that time, when David saw that the LORD had answered him on the threshing-floor of Araunah the Jebusite, he offered sacrifices there.

1Ch. 21:29 The tabernacle of the LORD, which Moses had made in the desert, and the altar of burnt offering were at that time on the high place at Gibeon.

1Ch. 21:30 But David could not go before it to enquire of God, because he was afraid of the sword of the angel of the LORD.

CHAPTER 22

1Ch. 22:1 Then David said, “The house of the LORD God is to be here, and also the altar of burnt offering for Israel.”

1Ch. 22:2 So David gave orders to assemble the aliens living in Israel, and from among them he appointed stonecutters to prepare dressed stone for building the house of God.

1Ch. 22:3 He provided a large amount of iron to make nails for the doors of the gateways and for the fittings, and more bronze than could be weighed.

1Ch. 22:4 He also provided more cedar logs than could be counted, for the Sidonians and Tyrians had brought large numbers of them to David.

1Ch. 22:5 David said, “My son Solomon is young and inexperienced, and the house to be built for the LORD should be of great magnificence and fame and splendour in the sight of all the nations. Therefore I will make preparations for it.” So David made extensive preparations before his death.

1Ch. 22:6 Then he called for his son Solomon and charged him to build a house for the LORD, the God of Israel.

1Ch. 22:7 David said to Solomon: “My son, I had it in my heart to build a house for the Name of the LORD my God.

1Ch. 22:8 But this word of the LORD came to me: ‘You have shed much blood and have fought many wars. You are not to build a house for my Name, because you have shed much blood on the earth in my sight.

1Ch. 22:9 But you will have a son who will be a man of peace and rest, and I will give him rest from all his enemies on every side. His name will be Solomon, [Solomon sounds like and may be derived from the Hebrew for peace.] and I will grant Israel peace and quiet during his reign.

1Ch. 22:10 He is the one who will build a house for my Name. He will be my son, and I will be his father. And I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel for ever.’

1Ch. 22:11 “Now, my son, the LORD be with you, and may you have success and build the house of the LORD your God, as he said you would.

1Ch. 22:12 May the LORD give you discretion and understanding when he puts you in command over Israel, so that you may keep the law of the LORD your God.

1Ch. 22:13 Then you will have success if you are careful to observe the decrees and laws that the LORD gave to Moses for Israel. Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid or discouraged.

1Ch. 22:14 “I have taken great pains to provide for the temple of the LORD a hundred thousand talents [That is, about 3,395 tons (about 3,450 metric tons)] of gold, a million talents [That is, about 33,950 tons (about 34,500 metric tons)] of silver, quantities of bronze and iron too great to be weighed, and wood and stone. And you may add to them.
1Ch. 22:15 You have many workmen: stonecutters, masons and carpenters, as well as men skilled in every kind of work

1Ch. 22:16 in gold and silver, bronze and iron — craftsmen beyond number. Now begin the work, and the LORD be with you.”

1Ch. 22:17 Then David ordered all the leaders of Israel to help his son Solomon.

1Ch. 22:18 He said to them, “Is not the LORD your God with you? And has he not granted you rest on every side? For he has handed the inhabitants of the land over to me, and the land is subject to the LORD and to his people.

1Ch. 22:19 Now devote your heart and soul to seeking the LORD your God. Begin to build the sanctuary of the LORD God, so that you may bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD and the sacred articles belonging to God into the temple that will be built for the Name of the LORD.”

CHAPTER 23

1Ch. 23:1 When David was old and full of years, he made his son Solomon king over Israel.

1Ch. 23:2 He also gathered together all the leaders of Israel, as well as the priests and Levites.

1Ch. 23:3 The Levites thirty years old or more were counted, and the total number of men was thirty-eight thousand.

1Ch. 23:4 David said, “Of these, twenty-four thousand are to supervise the work of the temple of the LORD and six thousand are to be officials and judges.

1Ch. 23:5 Four thousand are to be gatekeepers and four thousand are to praise the LORD with the musical instruments I have provided for that purpose.”

1Ch. 23:6 David divided the Levites into groups corresponding to the sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath and Merari.
Belonging to the Gershonites: Ladan and Shimei.

The sons of Ladan: Jehiel the first, Zetham and Joel — three in all.

The sons of Shimei: Shelomoth, Haziel and Haran — three in all. These were the heads of the families of Ladan.

And the sons of Shimei: Jahath, Ziza, [One Hebrew manuscript, Septuagint and Vulgate (see also verse 11); most Hebrew manuscripts Zina] Jeush and Beriah. These were the sons of Shimei — four in all.

Jahath was the first and Ziza the second, but Jeush and Beriah did not have many sons; so they were counted as one family with one assignment.

The sons of Kohath: Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel — four in all.

The sons of Amram: Aaron and Moses. Aaron was set apart, he and his descendants for ever, to consecrate the most holy things, to offer sacrifices before the LORD, to minister before him and to pronounce blessings in his name for ever.

The sons of Moses the man of God were counted as part of the tribe of Levi.

The sons of Moses: Gershom and Eliezer.

The descendants of Gershom: Shubael was the first.

The descendants of Eliezer: Rehabiah was the first. Eliezer had no other sons, but the sons of Rehabiah were very numerous.

The sons of Izhar: Shelomith was the first.

The sons of Hebron: Jeriah the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third and Jekameam the fourth.

The sons of Uzziel: Micah the first and Isshiah the second.

The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. The sons of Mahli: Eleazar and Kish.
Eleazar died without having sons: he had only daughters. Their cousins, the sons of Kish, married them.

The sons of Mushi: Mahli, Eder and Jerimoth — three in all.

These were the descendants of Levi by their families — the heads of families as they were registered under their names and counted individually, that is, the workers twenty years old or more who served in the temple of the LORD.

For David had said, “Since the LORD, the God of Israel, has granted rest to his people and has come to dwell in Jerusalem for ever, the Levites no longer need to carry the tabernacle or any of the articles used in its service.”

According to the last instructions of David, the Levites were counted from those twenty years old or more.

The duty of the Levites was to help Aaron’s descendants in the service of the temple of the LORD: to be in charge of the courtyards, the side rooms, the purification of all sacred things and the performance of other duties at the house of God.

They were in charge of the bread set out on the table, the flour for the grain offerings, the unleavened wafers, the baking and the mixing, and all measurements of quantity and size.

They were also to stand every morning to thank and praise the LORD. They were to do the same in the evening and whenever burnt offerings were presented to the LORD on Sabbaths and at New Moon festivals and at appointed feasts. They were to serve before the LORD regularly in the proper number and in the way prescribed for them.

And so the Levites carried out their responsibilities for the Tent of Meeting, for the Holy Place and, under their brothers the descendants of Aaron, for the service of the temple of the LORD.
These were the divisions of the sons of Aaron: The sons of Aaron were Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

But Nadab and Abihu died before their father did, and they had no sons; so Eleazar and Ithamar served as the priests.

With the help of Zadok a descendant of Eleazar and Ahimelech a descendant of Ithamar, David separated them into divisions for their appointed order of ministering.

A larger number of leaders were found among Eleazar’s descendants than among Ithamar’s, and they were divided accordingly: sixteen heads of families from Eleazar’s descendants and eight heads of families from Ithamar’s descendants.

They divided them impartially by drawing lots, for there were officials of the sanctuary and officials of God among the descendants of both Eleazar and Ithamar.

The scribe Shemaiah son of Nethanel, a Levite, recorded their names in the presence of the king and of the officials: Zadok the priest, Ahimelech son of Abiathar and the heads of families of the priests and of the Levites — one family being taken from Eleazar and then one from Ithamar.

The first lot fell to Jehoiarib, the second to Jedaiah, the third to Harim, the fourth to Seorim, the fifth to Malkijah, the sixth to Mijamin, the seventh to Hakkoz, the eighth to Abijah, the ninth to Jeshua, the tenth to Shecaniah, the eleventh to Eliashib, the twelfth to Jakim, the thirteenth to Huppah, the fourteenth to Jeshebeab, the fifteenth to Bilgah, the sixteenth to Immer, the seventeenth to Hezir, the eighteenth to Happizzez, the nineteenth to Pethahiah, the twentieth to Jehezkel, the twenty-first to Jakin, the twenty-second to Gamul, the twenty-third to Delaiah and the twenty-fourth to Maaziah.

This was their appointed order of ministering when they entered the temple of the LORD, according to the regulations prescribed for them by their forefather Aaron, as the LORD, the God of Israel, had commanded him.

As for the rest of the descendants of Levi: from the sons of Amram: Shubael; from the sons of Shubael: Jehdeiah.

As for Rehabiah, from his sons: Isshiah was the first.

From the Izharites: Shelomoth; from the sons of Shelomoth: Jahath.

The sons of Hebron: Jeriah the first, [Two Hebrew manuscripts and some Septuagint manuscripts (see also 1 Chron. 23:19); most Hebrew manuscripts The sons of Jeriah:] Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third and Jekameam the fourth.

The son of Uzziel: Micah; from the sons of Micah: Shamir.

The brother of Micah: Isshiah; from the sons of Isshiah: Zechariah.

The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. The son of Jaaziah: Beno.

The sons of Merari: from Jaaziah: Beno, Shoham, Zaccur and Ibri.

From Mahli: Eleazar, who had no sons.

From Kish: the son of Kish: Jerahmeel.

And the sons of Mushi: Mahli, Eder and Jerimoth. These were the Levites, according to their families.
1Ch. 24:31 They also cast lots, just as their brothers the descendants of Aaron did, in the presence of King David and of Zadok, Ahimelech, and the heads of families of the priests and of the Levites. The families of the oldest brother were treated the same as those of the youngest.

CHAPTER 25

1Ch. 25:1 David, together with the commanders of the army, set apart some of the sons of Asaph, Heman and Jeduthun for the ministry of prophesying, accompanied by harps, lyres and cymbals. Here is the list of the men who performed this service:

1Ch. 25:2 From the sons of Asaph: Zaccur, Joseph, Nethaniah and Asarelah. The sons of Asaph were under the supervision of Asaph, who prophesied under the king’s supervision.

1Ch. 25:3 As for Jeduthun, from his sons: Gedaliah, Zeri, Jeshaiah, Shimei, [One Hebrew manuscript and some Septuagint manuscripts (see also verse 17); most Hebrew manuscripts do not have Shimei.] Hashabiah and Mattithiah, six in all, under the supervision of their father Jeduthun, who prophesied, using the harp in thanking and praising the LORD.

1Ch. 25:4 As for Heman, from his sons: Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shubael and Jerimoth; Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti and Romamti-Ezer; Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir and Mahazioth.

1Ch. 25:5 All these were sons of Heman the king’s seer. They were given to him through the promises of God to exalt him. [Hebrew exalt the horn] God gave Heman fourteen sons and three daughters.

1Ch. 25:6 All these men were under the supervision of their fathers for the music of the temple of the LORD, with cymbals, lyres and harps, for the ministry at the house of God. Asaph, Jeduthun and Heman were under the supervision of the king.
Along with their relatives — all of them trained and skilled in music for the LORD — they numbered 288.

Young and old alike, teacher as well as student, cast lots for their duties.

The first lot, which was for Asaph, fell to Joseph, his sons and relatives, [See Septuagint; Hebrew does not have his sons and relatives.] 12 [See the total in verse 7; Hebrew does not have twelve.] the second to Gedaliah, he and his relatives and sons, 12

1Ch. 25:31  the twenty-fourth to Romamti-Ezer, his sons and relatives. 12

CHAPTER 26

1Ch. 26:1  The divisions of the gatekeepers: From the Korahites:
Meshelemiah son of Kore, one of the sons of Asaph.

1Ch. 26:2  Meshelemiah had sons: Zechariah the firstborn, Jediael the second, Zebadiah the third, Jathniel the fourth,

1Ch. 26:3  Elam the fifth, Jehohanan the sixth and Eliehoenai the seventh.

1Ch. 26:4  Obed-Edom also had sons: Shemaiah the firstborn, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, Sacar the fourth, Nethanel the fifth,

1Ch. 26:5  Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh and Peullethai the eighth. (For God had blessed Obed-Edom.)

1Ch. 26:6  His son Shemaiah also had sons, who were leaders in their father’s family because they were very capable men.

1Ch. 26:7  The sons of Shemaiah: Othni, Rephael, Obed and Elzabad; his relatives Elihu and Semakiah were also able men.

1Ch. 26:8  All these were descendants of Obed-Edom; they and their sons and their relatives were capable men with the strength to do the work — descendants of Obed-Edom, 62 in all.

1Ch. 26:9  Meshelemiah had sons and relatives, who were able men —
18 in all.
Hosah the Merarite had sons: Shimri the first (although he was not the firstborn, his father had appointed him the first),

Hilkiah the second, Tabaliah the third and Zechariah the fourth. The sons and relatives of Hosah were 13 in all.

These divisions of the gatekeepers, through their chief men, had duties for ministering in the temple of the LORD, just as their relatives had.

Lots were cast for each gate, according to their families, young and old alike.

The lot for the East Gate fell to Shelemiah. [A variant of Meshelemiah] Then lots were cast for his son Zechariah, a wise counsellor, and the lot for the North Gate fell to him.

The lot for the South Gate fell to Obed-Edom, and the lot for the storehouse fell to his sons.

The lots for the West Gate and the Shalleketh Gate on the upper road fell to Shuppim and Hosah. Guard was alongside guard:

There were six Levites a day on the east, four a day on the north, four a day on the south and two at a time at the storehouse.

As for the court to the west, there were four at the road and two at the court itself.

These were the divisions of the gatekeepers who were descendants of Korah and Merari.

Their fellow Levites were [Septuagint; Hebrew As for the Levites, Ahijah was] in charge of the treasuries of the house of God and the treasuries for the dedicated things.

The descendants of Ladan, who were Gershonites through Ladan and who were heads of families belonging to Ladan the Gershonite, were Jehieli, the sons of Jehieli, Zetham and his brother Joel. They were in charge of the treasuries of the temple of the LORD.

1Ch. 26:23 From the Amramites, the Izharites, the Hebronites and the Uzzielites:

1Ch. 26:24 Shubael, a descendant of Gershom son of Moses, was the officer in charge of the treasuries.

1Ch. 26:25 His relatives through Eliezer: Rehabiah his son, Jeshaiah his son, Joram his son, Zicri his son and Shelomith his son.

1Ch. 26:26 Shelomith and his relatives were in charge of all the treasuries for the things dedicated by King David, by the heads of families who were the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds, and by the other army commanders.

1Ch. 26:27 Some of the plunder taken in battle they dedicated for the repair of the temple of the LORD.

1Ch. 26:28 And everything dedicated by Samuel the seer and by Saul son of Kish, Abner son of Ner and Joab son of Zeruiah, and all the other dedicated things were in the care of Shelomith and his relatives.

1Ch. 26:29 From the Izharites: Kenaniah and his sons were assigned duties away from the temple, as officials and judges over Israel.

1Ch. 26:30 From the Hebronites: Hashabiah and his relatives — seventeen hundred able men — were responsible in Israel west of the Jordan for all the work of the LORD and for the king’s service.

1Ch. 26:31 As for the Hebronites, Jeriah was their chief according to the genealogical records of their families. In the fortieth year of David’s reign a search was made in the records, and capable men among the Hebronites were found at Jazer in Gilead.

1Ch. 26:32 Jeriah had two thousand seven hundred relatives, who were able men and heads of families, and King David put them in charge of the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh for every matter pertaining to God and for the affairs of the king.
CHAPTER 27

1Ch. 27:1 This is the list of the Israelites — heads of families, commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds, and their officers, who served the king in all that concerned the army divisions that were on duty month by month throughout the year. Each division consisted of 24,000 men.

1Ch. 27:2 In charge of the first division, for the first month, was Jashobeam son of Zabdiel. There were 24,000 men in his division.

1Ch. 27:3 He was a descendant of Perez and chief of all the army officers for the first month.

1Ch. 27:4 In charge of the division for the second month was Dodai the Ahohite; Mikloth was the leader of his division. There were 24,000 men in his division.

1Ch. 27:5 The third army commander, for the third month, was Benaiah son of Jehoiada the priest. He was chief and there were 24,000 men in his division.

1Ch. 27:6 This was the Benaiah who was a mighty man among the Thirty and was over the Thirty. His son Ammizabad was in charge of his division.

1Ch. 27:7 The fourth, for the fourth month, was Asahel the brother of Joab; his son Zebadiah was his successor. There were 24,000 men in his division.

1Ch. 27:8 The fifth, for the fifth month, was the commander Shamhuth the Izrahite. There were 24,000 men in his division.

1Ch. 27:9 The sixth, for the sixth month, was Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite. There were 24,000 men in his division.

1Ch. 27:10 The seventh, for the seventh month, was Helez the Pelonite, an Ephraimite. There were 24,000 men in his division.

1Ch. 27:11 The eighth, for the eighth month, was Sibbecai the Hushathite, a Zerahite. There were 24,000 men in his division.
1Ch. 27:12 The ninth, for the ninth month, was Abiezer the Anathothite, a Benjamite. There were 24,000 men in his division.

1Ch. 27:13 The tenth, for the tenth month, was Maharai the Netophathite, a Zerahite. There were 24,000 men in his division.

1Ch. 27:14 The eleventh, for the eleventh month, was Benaiah the Pirathonite, an Ephraimite. There were 24,000 men in his division.

1Ch. 27:15 The twelfth, for the twelfth month, was Heldai the Netophathite, from the family of Othniel. There were 24,000 men in his division.

1Ch. 27:16 The officers over the tribes of Israel: over the Reubenites: Eliezer son of Zicri; over the Simeonites: Shephatiah son of Maacah;

1Ch. 27:17 over Levi: Hashabiah son of Kemuel; over Aaron: Zadok;

1Ch. 27:18 over Judah: Elihu, a brother of David; over Issachar: Omri son of Michael;

1Ch. 27:19 over Zebulun: Ishmaiah son of Obadiah; over Naphtali: Jerimoth son of Azriel;

1Ch. 27:20 over the Ephraimites: Hoshea son of Azaziah; over half the tribe of Manasseh: Joel son of Pedaiah;

1Ch. 27:21 over the half-tribe of Manasseh in Gilead: Iddo son of Zechariah; over Benjamin: Jaasiel son of Abner;

1Ch. 27:22 over Dan: Azarel son of Jeroham. These were the officers over the tribes of Israel.

1Ch. 27:23 David did not take the number of the men twenty years old or less, because the LORD had promised to make Israel as numerous as the stars in the sky.

1Ch. 27:24 Joab son of Zeruiah began to count the men but did not finish. Wrath came on Israel on account of this numbering, and the number was not entered in the book [Septuagint; Hebrew number] of the annals of King David.
Azmaveth son of Adiel was in charge of the royal storehouses. Jonathan son of Uzziah was in charge of the storehouses in the outlying districts, in the towns, the villages and the watchtowers.

Ezri son of Kelub was in charge of the field workers who farmed the land.

Shimei the Ramathite was in charge of the vineyards. Zabdi the Shiphmite was in charge of the produce of the vineyards for the wine vats.

Baal-Hanan the Gederite was in charge of the olive and sycamore-fig trees in the western foothills. Joash was in charge of the supplies of olive oil.

Shitrai the Sharonite was in charge of the herds grazing in Sharon. Shaphat son of Adlai was in charge of the herds in the valleys.

Obil the Ishmaelite was in charge of the camels. Jehdei ah the Meronothite was in charge of the donkeys.

Jaziz the Hagrite was in charge of the flocks. All these were the officials in charge of King David’s property.

Jonathan, David’s uncle, was a counsellor, a man of insight and a scribe. Jehiel son of Hacmoni took care of the king’s sons.

Ahithophel was the king’s counsellor. Hushai the Arkite was the king’s friend.

Ahithophel was succeeded by Jehoiada son of Benaiah and by Abiathar. Joab was the commander of the royal army.

CHAPTER 28

David summoned all the officials of Israel to assemble at Jerusalem: the officers over the tribes, the commanders of the divisions in the service of the king, the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds, and the officials in charge of all the property and livestock belonging to the king and his sons, together with the palace officials, the mighty men and all the brave warriors.

1Ch. 28:2 King David rose to his feet and said: “Listen to me, my brothers and my people. I had it in my heart to build a house as a place of rest for the ark of the covenant of the LORD, for the footstool of our God, and I made plans to build it.

1Ch. 28:3 But God said to me, ‘You are not to build a house for my Name, because you are a warrior and have shed blood.’

1Ch. 28:4 “Yet the LORD, the God of Israel, chose me from my whole family to be king over Israel for ever. He chose Judah as leader, and from the house of Judah he chose my family, and from my father’s sons he was pleased to make me king over all Israel.

1Ch. 28:5 Of all my sons — and the LORD has given me many — he has chosen my son Solomon to sit on the throne of the kingdom of the LORD over Israel.

1Ch. 28:6 He said to me, ‘Solomon your son is the one who will build my house and my courts, for I have chosen him to be my son, and I will be his father.

1Ch. 28:7 I will establish his kingdom for ever if he is unswerving in carrying out my commands and laws, as is being done at this time.’

1Ch. 28:8 “So now I charge you in the sight of all Israel and of the assembly of the LORD, and in the hearing of our God: Be careful to follow all the commands of the LORD your God, that you may possess this good land and pass it on as an inheritance to your descendants for ever.

1Ch. 28:9 “And you, my son Solomon, acknowledge the God of your father, and serve him with wholehearted devotion and with a willing mind, for the LORD searches every heart and understands every motive behind the thoughts. If you seek him, he will be found by you; but if you forsake him, he will reject you for ever.
1Ch. 28:10 Consider now, for the LORD has chosen you to build a temple as a sanctuary. Be strong and do the work.”

1Ch. 28:11 Then David gave his son Solomon the plans for the portico of the temple, its buildings, its storerooms, its upper parts, its inner rooms and the place of atonement.

1Ch. 28:12 He gave him the plans of all that the Spirit had put in his mind for the courts of the temple of the LORD and all the surrounding rooms, for the treasuries of the temple of God and for the treasuries for the dedicated things.

1Ch. 28:13 He gave him instructions for the divisions of the priests and Levites, and for all the work of serving in the temple of the LORD, as well as for all the articles to be used in its service.

1Ch. 28:14 He designated the weight of gold for all the gold articles to be used in various kinds of service, and the weight of silver for all the silver articles to be used in various kinds of service:

1Ch. 28:15 the weight of gold for the gold lampstands and their lamps, with the weight for each lampstand and its lamps; and the weight of silver for each silver lampstand and its lamps, according to the use of each lampstand;

1Ch. 28:16 the weight of gold for each table for consecrated bread; the weight of silver for the silver tables;

1Ch. 28:17 the weight of pure gold for the forks, sprinkling bowls and pitchers; the weight of gold for each gold dish; the weight of silver for each silver dish;

1Ch. 28:18 and the weight of the refined gold for the altar of incense. He also gave him the plan for the chariot, that is, the cherubim of gold that spread their wings and shelter the ark of the covenant of the LORD.

1Ch. 28:19 “All this,” David said, “I have in writing from the hand of the LORD upon me, and he gave me understanding in all the details of the plan.”

1Ch. 28:20 David also said to Solomon his son, “Be strong and courageous, and do the work. Do not be afraid or discouraged, for the LORD God, my God, is with you. He will not fail you or forsake you until all the work for the service of the temple of the LORD is finished.

1Ch. 28:21 The divisions of the priests and Levites are ready for all the work on the temple of God, and every willing man skilled in any craft will help you in all the work. The officials and all the people will obey your every command.”

CHAPTER 29

1Ch. 29:1 Then King David said to the whole assembly: “My son Solomon, the one whom God has chosen, is young and inexperienced. The task is great, because this palatial structure is not for man but for the LORD God.

1Ch. 29:2 With all my resources I have provided for the temple of my God — gold for the gold work, silver for the silver, bronze for the bronze, iron for the iron and wood for the wood, as well as onyx for the settings, turquoise, [The meaning of the Hebrew for this word is uncertain.] stones of various colours, and all kinds of fine stone and marble — all of these in large quantities.

1Ch. 29:3 Besides, in my devotion to the temple of my God I now give my personal treasures of gold and silver for the temple of my God, over and above everything I have provided for this holy temple:

1Ch. 29:4 three thousand talents [That is, about 100 tons (about 100 metric tons)] of gold (gold of Ophir) and seven thousand talents [That is, about 240 tons (about 240 metric tons)] of refined silver, for the overlaying of the walls of the buildings,

1Ch. 29:5 for the gold work and the silver work, and for all the work to be done by the craftsmen. Now, who is willing to consecrate himself today to the LORD?”

1Ch. 29:6 Then the leaders of families, the officers of the tribes of Israel, the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds, and the officials in charge of the king’s work gave willingly.

They gave towards the work on the temple of God five thousand talents [That is, about 170 tons (about 170 metric tons)] and ten thousand darics [That is, about 185 pounds (about 84 kilograms)] of gold, ten thousand talents [That is, about 340 tons (about 345 metric tons)] of silver, eighteen thousand talents [That is, about 610 tons (about 620 metric tons)] of bronze and a hundred thousand talents [That is, about 3,400 tons (about 3,450 metric tons)] of iron.

Any who had precious stones gave them to the treasury of the temple of the LORD in the custody of Jehiel the Gershonite.

The people rejoiced at the willing response of their leaders, for they had given freely and wholeheartedly to the LORD. David the king also rejoiced greatly.

David praised the LORD in the presence of the whole assembly, saying, “Praise be to you, O LORD, God of our father Israel, from everlasting to everlasting.

Yours, O LORD, is the greatness and the power and the glory and the majesty and the splendour, for everything in heaven and earth is yours. Yours, O LORD, is the kingdom; you are exalted as head over all.

Wealth and honour come from you; you are the ruler of all things. In your hands are strength and power to exalt and give strength to all.

Now, our God, we give you thanks, and praise your glorious name.

“But who am I, and who are my people, that we should be able to give as generously as this? Everything comes from you, and we have given you only what comes from your hand.
1Ch. 29:15 We are aliens and strangers in your sight, as were all our forefathers. Our days on earth are like a shadow, without hope.

1Ch. 29:16 LORD our God, as for all this abundance that we have provided for building you a temple for your Holy Name, it comes from your hand, and all of it belongs to you.

1Ch. 29:17 I know, my God, that you test the heart and are pleased with integrity. All these things have I given willingly and with honest intent. And now I have seen with joy how willingly your people who are here have given to you.

1Ch. 29:18 LORD, God of our fathers Abraham, Isaac and Israel, keep this desire in the hearts of your people for ever, and keep their hearts loyal to you.

1Ch. 29:19 And give my son Solomon the wholehearted devotion to keep your commands, requirements and decrees and to do everything to build the palatial structure for which I have provided.”

1Ch. 29:20 Then David said to the whole assembly, “Praise the LORD your God.” So they all praised the LORD, the God of their fathers; they bowed low and fell prostrate before the LORD and the king.

1Ch. 29:21 The next day they made sacrifices to the LORD and presented burnt offerings to him: a thousand bulls, a thousand rams and a thousand male lambs, together with their drink offerings, and other sacrifices in abundance for all Israel.

1Ch. 29:22 They ate and drank with great joy in the presence of the LORD that day. Then they acknowledged Solomon son of David as king a second time, anointing him before the LORD to be ruler and Zadok to be priest.

1Ch. 29:23 So Solomon sat on the throne of the LORD as king in place of his father David. He prospered and all Israel obeyed him.

1Ch. 29:24 All the officers and mighty men, as well as all of King David’s sons, pledged their submission to King Solomon.
The LORD highly exalted Solomon in the sight of all Israel and bestowed on him royal splendour such as no king over Israel ever had before.

David son of Jesse was king over all Israel.

He ruled over Israel for forty years — seven in Hebron and thirty-three in Jerusalem.

He died at a good old age, having enjoyed long life, wealth and honour. His son Solomon succeeded him as king.

As for the events of King David’s reign, from beginning to end, they are written in the records of Samuel the seer, the records of Nathan the prophet and the records of Gad the seer, together with the details of his reign and power, and the circumstances that surrounded him and Israel and the kingdoms of all the other lands.
2CHRONICLES

CHAPTER 1

2Ch. 1:1 Solomon son of David established himself firmly over his kingdom, for the LORD his God was with him and made him exceedingly great.

2Ch. 1:2 Then Solomon spoke to all Israel — to the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds, to the judges and to all the leaders in Israel, the heads of families —

2Ch. 1:3 and Solomon and the whole assembly went to the high place at Gibeon, for God’s Tent of Meeting was there, which Moses the LORD’s servant had made in the desert.

2Ch. 1:4 Now David had brought up the ark of God from Kiriath Jearim to the place he had prepared for it, because he had pitched a tent for it in Jerusalem.

2Ch. 1:5 But the bronze altar that Bezalel son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made was in Gibeon in front of the tabernacle of the LORD; so Solomon and the assembly enquired of him there.

2Ch. 1:6 Solomon went up to the bronze altar before the LORD in the Tent of Meeting and offered a thousand burnt offerings on it.

2Ch. 1:7 That night God appeared to Solomon and said to him, “Ask for whatever you want me to give you.”

2Ch. 1:8 Solomon answered God, “You have shown great kindness to David my father and have made me king in his place.

2Ch. 1:9 Now, LORD God, let your promise to my father David be confirmed, for you have made me king over a people who are as numerous as the dust of the earth.

2Ch. 1:10 Give me wisdom and knowledge, that I may lead this people, for who is able to govern this great people of yours?”
God said to Solomon, “Since this is your heart’s desire and you have not asked for wealth, riches or honour, nor for the death of your enemies, and since you have not asked for a long life but for wisdom and knowledge to govern my people over whom I have made you king, Therefore wisdom and knowledge will be given you. And I will also give you wealth, riches and honour, such as no king who was before you ever had and none after you will have.”

Then Solomon went to Jerusalem from the high place at Gibeon, from before the Tent of Meeting. And he reigned over Israel.

Solomon accumulated chariots and horses; he had fourteen hundred chariots and twelve thousand horses, [Or charioteers] which he kept in the chariot cities and also with him in Jerusalem.

The king made silver and gold as common in Jerusalem as stones, and cedar as plentiful as sycamore-fig trees in the foothills.

Solomon’s horses were imported from Egypt — [Or possibly Muzur, a region in Cilicia; also in verse 17] and from Kue [Probably Cilicia] the royal merchants purchased them from Kue.

They imported a chariot from Egypt for six hundred shekels [That is, about 15 pounds (about 7 kilograms)] of silver, and a horse for a hundred and fifty. [That is, about 3 3/4 pounds (about 1.7 kilograms)] They also exported them to all the kings of the Hittites and of the Arameans.

CHAPTER 2

Solomon gave orders to build a temple for the Name of the LORD and a royal palace for himself.
2Ch. 2:2 He conscripted seventy thousand men as carriers and eighty thousand as stonecutters in the hills and thirty-six hundred as foremen over them.

2Ch. 2:3 Solomon sent this message to Hiram [Hebrew Huram, a variant of Hiram; also in verses 11 and 12] king of Tyre: “Send me cedar logs as you did for my father David when you sent him cedar to build a palace to live in.

2Ch. 2:4 Now I am about to build a temple for the Name of the LORD my God and to dedicate it to him for burning fragrant incense before him, for setting out the consecrated bread regularly, and for making burnt offerings every morning and evening and on Sabbaths and New Moons and at the appointed feasts of the LORD our God. This is a lasting ordinance for Israel.

2Ch. 2:5 “The temple I am going to build will be great, because our God is greater than all other gods.

2Ch. 2:6 But who is able to build a temple for him, since the heavens, even the highest heavens, cannot contain him? Who then am I to build a temple for him, except as a place to burn sacrifices before him?

2Ch. 2:7 “Send me, therefore, a man skilled to work in gold and silver, bronze and iron, and in purple, crimson and blue yarn, and experienced in the art of engraving, to work in Judah and Jerusalem with my skilled craftsmen, whom my father David provided.

2Ch. 2:8 “Send me also cedar, pine and almug [Probably a variant of almug; possibly juniper] logs from Lebanon, for I know that your men are skilled in cutting timber there. My men shall work with yours to provide me with plenty of timber, because the temple I build must be large and magnificent.

2Ch. 2:10 I will give your servants, the woodsmen who cut the timber, twenty thousand cors [That is, probably about 120,000 bushels (about 4,400 kilolitres)] of ground wheat, twenty thousand cors of barley, twenty thousand baths [That is, probably about 95,000 gallons (about 440 kilolitres) of wine and twenty thousand baths of olive oil.”

2Ch. 2:11 Hiram king of Tyre replied by letter to Solomon: “Because the LORD loves his people, he has made you their king.”

2Ch. 2:12 And Hiram added: “Praise be to the LORD, the God of Israel, who made heaven and earth! He has given King David a wise son, endowed with intelligence and discernment, who will build a temple for the LORD and a palace for himself.

2Ch. 2:13 “I am sending you Huram-Abi, a man of great skill,

2Ch. 2:14 whose mother was from Dan and whose father was from Tyre. He is trained to work in gold and silver, bronze and iron, stone and wood, and with purple and blue and crimson yarn and fine linen. He is experienced in all kinds of engraving and can execute any design given to him. He will work with your craftsmen and with those of my lord, David your father.

2Ch. 2:15 ‘Now let my lord send his servants the wheat and barley and the olive oil and wine he promised,

2Ch. 2:16 and we will cut all the logs from Lebanon that you need and will float them in rafts by sea down to Joppa. You can then take them up to Jerusalem.”

2Ch. 2:17 Solomon took a census of all the aliens who were in Israel, after the census his father David had taken; and they were found to be 153,600.

2Ch. 2:18 He assigned 70,000 of them to be carriers and 80,000 to be stonecutters in the hills, with 3,600 foremen over them to keep the people working.

CHAPTER 3

2Ch. 3:1 Then Solomon began to build the temple of the LORD in Jerusalem on Mount Moriah, where the LORD had appeared to his father David. It was on the threshing-floor of Araunah [Hebrew Ornan, a variant of Araunah] the Jebusite, the place provided by David.

2Ch. 3:2 He began building on the second day of the second month in the fourth year of his reign.

2Ch. 3:3 The foundation Solomon laid for building the temple of God was sixty cubits long and twenty cubits wide [That is, about 90 feet (about 27 metres) long and 30 feet (about 9 metres) wide] (using the cubit of the old standard).

2Ch. 3:4 The portico at the front of the temple was twenty cubits [That is, about 30 feet (about 9 metres); also in verses 8, 11 and 13] long across the width of the building and twenty cubits [Some Septuagint and Syriac manuscripts; Hebrew and a hundred and twenty] high. He overlaid the inside with pure gold.

2Ch. 3:5 He panelled the main hall with pine and covered it with fine gold and decorated it with palm tree and chain designs.

2Ch. 3:6 He adorned the temple with precious stones. And the gold he used was gold of Parvaim.

2Ch. 3:7 He overlaid the ceiling beams, door-frames, walls and doors of the temple with gold, and he carved cherubim on the walls.

2Ch. 3:8 He built the Most Holy Place, its length corresponding to the width of the temple — twenty cubits long and twenty cubits wide. He overlaid the inside with six hundred talents [That is, about 20 tons (about 21 metric tons)] of fine gold.

2Ch. 3:9 The gold nails weighed fifty shekels. [That is, about 1 1/4 pounds (about 0.6 kilogram)] He also overlaid the upper parts with gold.

2Ch. 3:10 In the Most Holy Place he made a pair of sculptured cherubim and overlaid them with gold.

2Ch. 3:11 The total wing-span of the cherubim was twenty cubits. One wing of the first cherub was five cubits [That is, about 7 1/2 feet (about 2.3 metres); also in verse 15] long and touched the temple wall, while its other wing, also five cubits long, touched the wing of the other cherub.

2Ch. 3:12 Similarly one wing of the second cherub was five cubits long and touched the other temple wall, and its other wing, also five cubits long, touched the wing of the first cherub.

2Ch. 3:13 The wings of these cherubim extended twenty cubits. They stood on their feet, facing the main hall. [Or facing inward]

2Ch. 3:14 He made the curtain of blue, purple and crimson yarn and fine linen, with cherubim worked into it.

2Ch. 3:15 In the front of the temple he made two pillars, which together were thirty-five cubits [That is, about 52 feet (about 16 metres)] long, each with a capital on top measuring five cubits.

2Ch. 3:16 He made interwoven chains [Or possibly made chains in the inner sanctuary; the meaning of the Hebrew for this phrase is uncertain.] and put them on top of the pillars. He also made a hundred pomegranates and attached them to the chains.

2Ch. 3:17 He erected the pillars in the front of the temple, one to the south and one to the north. The one to the south he named Jakin [Jakin probably means he establishes.] and the one to the north Boaz. [Boaz probably means in him is strength.]

CHAPTER 4

2Ch. 4:1 He made a bronze altar twenty cubits long, twenty cubits wide and ten cubits high. [That is, about 30 feet (about 9 metres) long and wide, and about 15 feet (about 4.5 metres) high]

2Ch. 4:2 He made the Sea of cast metal, circular in shape, measuring ten cubits from rim to rim and five cubits [That is, about 7 1/2 feet (about 2.3 metres)] high. It took a line of thirty cubits [That is, about 45 feet (about 13.5 metres)] to measure round it.
Below the rim, figures of bulls encircled it — ten to a cubit. [That is, about 1 1/2 feet (about 0.5 metre)] The bulls were cast in two rows in one piece with the Sea.

The Sea stood on twelve bulls, three facing north, three facing west, three facing south and three facing east. The Sea rested on top of them, and their hindquarters were towards the centre.

It was a handbreadth [That is, about 3 inches (about 8 centimetres)] in thickness, and its rim was like the rim of a cup, like a lily blossom. It held three thousand baths. [That is, about 14,500 gallons (about 66 kilolitres)]

He then made ten basins for washing and placed five on the south side and five on the north. In them the things to be used for the burnt offerings were rinsed, but the Sea was to be used by the priests for washing.

He made ten gold lampstands according to the specifications for them and placed them in the temple, five on the south side and five on the north. He also made a hundred gold sprinkling bowls.

He made the courtyard of the priests, and the large court and the doors for the court, and overlaid the doors with bronze.

He placed the Sea on the south side, at the south-east corner.

He also made the pots and shovels and sprinkling bowls. So Huram finished the work he had undertaken for King Solomon in the temple of God:

the two pillars; the two bowl-shaped capitals on top of the pillars; the two sets of network decorating the two bowl-shaped capitals on top of the pillars;

the four hundred pomegranates for the two sets of network (two rows of pomegranates for each network, decorating the bowl-shaped capitals on top of the pillars);
the stands with their basins;
the Sea and the twelve bulls under it;
the pots, shovels, meat forks and all related articles. All the objects that Huram-Abi made for King Solomon for the temple of the LORD were of polished bronze.
The king had them cast in clay moulds in the plain of the Jordan between Succoth and Zarethan. [Hebrew Zeredatha, a variant of Zarethan]
All these things that Solomon made amounted to so much that the weight of the bronze was not determined.
Solomon also made all the furnishings that were in God’s temple: the golden altar; the tables on which was the bread of the Presence;
the lampstands of pure gold with their lamps, to burn in front of the inner sanctuary as prescribed;
the gold floral work and lamps and tongs (they were solid gold);
the pure gold wick trimmers, sprinkling bowls, dishes and censers; and the gold doors of the temple: the inner doors to the Most Holy Place and the doors of the main hall.

CHAPTER 5

When all the work Solomon had done for the temple of the LORD was finished, he brought in the things his father David had dedicated — the silver and gold and all the furnishings — and he placed them in the treasuries of God’s temple.

Then Solomon summoned to Jerusalem the elders of Israel, all the heads of the tribes and the chiefs of the Israelite families, to bring up the ark of the LORD’s covenant from Zion, the City of David.
And all the men of Israel came together to the king at the time of the festival in the seventh month.

When all the elders of Israel had arrived, the Levites took up the ark,

and they brought up the ark and the Tent of Meeting and all the sacred furnishings in it. The priests, who were Levites, carried them up;

and King Solomon and the entire assembly of Israel that had gathered about him were before the ark, sacrificing so many sheep and cattle that they could not be recorded or counted.

The priests then brought the ark of the LORD’s covenant to its place in the inner sanctuary of the temple, the Most Holy Place, and put it beneath the wings of the cherubim.

The cherubim spread their wings over the place of the ark and covered the ark and its carrying poles.

These poles were so long that their ends, extending from the ark, could be seen from in front of the inner sanctuary, but not from outside the Holy Place; and they are still there today.

There was nothing in the ark except the two tablets that Moses had placed in it at Horeb, where the LORD made a covenant with the Israelites after they came out of Egypt.

The priests then withdrew from the Holy Place. All the priests who were there had consecrated themselves, regardless of their divisions.

All the Levites who were musicians — Asaph, Heman, Jeduthun and their sons and relatives — stood on the east side of the altar, dressed in fine linen and playing cymbals, harps and lyres. They were accompanied by 120 priests sounding trumpets.

The trumpeters and singers joined in unison, as with one voice, to give praise and thanks to the LORD. Accompanied by trumpets, cymbals and other instruments, they raised their voices in praise to the LORD and sang: “He is good; his love endures for ever.” Then the temple of the LORD was filled with a cloud, 2Ch. 5:14 and the priests could not perform their service because of the cloud, for the glory of the LORD filled the temple of God.

CHAPTER 6

2Ch. 6:1 Then Solomon said, “The LORD has said that he would dwell in a dark cloud;

2Ch. 6:2 I have built a magnificent temple for you, a place for you to dwell for ever.”

2Ch. 6:3 While the whole assembly of Israel was standing there, the king turned round and blessed them.

2Ch. 6:4 Then he said: “Praise be to the LORD, the God of Israel, who with his hands has fulfilled what he promised with his mouth to my father David. For he said,

2Ch. 6:5 ‘Since the day I brought my people out of Egypt, I have not chosen a city in any tribe of Israel to have a temple built for my Name to be there, nor have I chosen anyone to be the leader over my people Israel.

2Ch. 6:6 But now I have chosen Jerusalem for my Name to be there, and I have chosen David to rule my people Israel.’

2Ch. 6:7 ‘My father David had it in his heart to build a temple for the Name of the LORD, the God of Israel.

2Ch. 6:8 But the LORD said to my father David, `Because it was in your heart to build a temple for my Name, you did well to have this in your heart.

2Ch. 6:9 Nevertheless, you are not the one to build the temple, but your son, who is your own flesh and blood — he is the one who will build the temple for my Name.’
“The LORD has kept the promise he made. I have succeeded David my father and now I sit on the throne of Israel, just as the LORD promised, and I have built the temple for the Name of the LORD, the God of Israel.”

There I have placed the ark, in which is the covenant of the LORD that he made with the people of Israel.”

Then Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in front of the whole assembly of Israel and spread out his hands.

Now he had made a bronze platform, five cubits [That is, about 7 1/2 feet (about 2.3 metres)] long, five cubits wide and three cubits [That is, about 4 1/2 feet (about 1.4 metres)] high, and had placed it in the centre of the outer court. He stood on the platform and then knelt down before the whole assembly of Israel and spread out his hands towards heaven.

He said: “O LORD, God of Israel, there is no God like you in heaven or on earth — you who keep your covenant of love with your servants who continue wholeheartedly in your way.

You have kept your promise to your servant David my father; with your mouth you have promised and with your hand you have fulfilled it — as it is today.

Now LORD, God of Israel, keep for your servant David my father the promises you made to him when you said, ‘You shall never fail to have a man to sit before me on the throne of Israel, if only your sons are careful in all they do to walk before me according to my law, as you have done.’

And now, O LORD, God of Israel, let your word that you promised your servant David come true.

“But will God really dwell on earth with men? The heavens, even the highest heavens, cannot contain you. How much less this temple that I have built!

Yet give attention to your servant’s prayer and his plea for mercy, O LORD my God. Hear the cry and the prayer that your servant is praying in your presence.
2Ch. 6:20 May your eyes be open towards this temple day and night, this place of which you said you would put your Name there. May you hear the prayer your servant prays towards this place.

2Ch. 6:21 Hear the supplications of your servant and of your people Israel when they pray towards this place. Hear from heaven, your dwelling-place; and when you hear, forgive.

2Ch. 6:22 “When a man wrongs his neighbour and is required to take an oath and he comes and swears the oath before your altar in this temple,

2Ch. 6:23 then hear from heaven and act. Judge between your servants, repaying the guilty by bringing down on his own head what he has done. Declare the innocent not guilty and so establish his innocence.

2Ch. 6:24 “When your people Israel have been defeated by an enemy because they have sinned against you and when they turn back and confess your name, praying and making supplication before you in this temple,

2Ch. 6:25 then hear from heaven and forgive the sin of your people Israel and bring them back to the land you gave to them and their fathers.

2Ch. 6:26 “When the heavens are shut up and there is no rain because your people have sinned against you, and when they pray towards this place and confess your name and turn from their sin because you have afflicted them,

2Ch. 6:27 then hear from heaven and forgive the sin of your servants, your people Israel. Teach them the right way to live, and send rain on the land that you gave your people for an inheritance.

2Ch. 6:28 “When famine or plague comes to the land, or blight or mildew, locusts or grasshoppers, or when enemies besiege them in any of their cities, whatever disaster or disease may come, and when a prayer or plea is made by any of your people Israel — each one aware of his afflictions and pains, and spreading out his hands towards this temple — then hear from heaven, your dwelling-place. Forgive, and deal with each man according to all he does, since you know his heart (for you alone know the hearts of men), so that they will fear you and walk in your ways all the time they live in the land that you gave our fathers.

“As for the foreigner who does not belong to your people Israel but has come from a distant land because of your great name and your mighty hand and your outstretched arm — when he comes and prays towards this temple, then hear from heaven, your dwelling-place, and do whatever the foreigner asks of you, so that all the peoples of the earth may know your name and fear you, as do your own people Israel, and may know that this house that I have built bears your Name.

“When your people go to war against their enemies, wherever you send them, and when they pray to you towards this city you have chosen and the temple I have built for your Name, then hear from heaven their prayer and their plea, and uphold their cause.

“When they sin against you — for there is no-one who does not sin — and you become angry with them and give them over to the enemy, who takes them captive to a land far away or near;

and if they have a change of heart in the land where they are held captive, and repent and plead with you in the land of their captivity and say, ‘We have sinned, we have done wrong and acted wickedly’; and if they turn back to you with all their heart and soul in the land of their captivity where they were taken, and pray towards the land that you gave their fathers, towards the city you have chosen and towards the temple that I have built for your Name;

2Ch. 6:39 then from heaven, your dwelling-place, hear their prayer and their pleas, and uphold their cause. And forgive your people, who have sinned against you.

2Ch. 6:40 “Now, my God, may your eyes be open and your ears attentive to the prayers offered in this place.

2Ch. 6:41 “Now arise, O LORD God, and come to your resting place, you and the ark of your might. May your priests, O LORD God, be clothed with salvation, may your saints rejoice in your goodness.

2Ch. 6:42 LORD God, do not reject your anointed one. Remember the great love promised to David your servant.”

CHAPTER 7

2Ch. 7:1 When Solomon finished praying, fire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices, and the glory of the LORD filled the temple.

2Ch. 7:2 The priests could not enter the temple of the LORD because the glory of the LORD filled it.

2Ch. 7:3 When all the Israelites saw the fire coming down and the glory of the LORD above the temple, they knelt on the pavement with their faces to the ground, and they worshipped and gave thanks to the LORD, saying, “He is good; his love endures for ever.”

2Ch. 7:4 Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices before the LORD.

2Ch. 7:5 And King Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty-two thousand head of cattle and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep and goats. So the king and all the people dedicated the temple of God.
2Ch. 7:6 The priests took their positions, as did the Levites with the LORD’s musical instruments, which King David had made for praising the LORD and which were used when he gave thanks, saying, “His love endures for ever.” Opposite the Levites, the priests blew their trumpets, and all the Israelites were standing.

2Ch. 7:7 Solomon consecrated the middle part of the courtyard in front of the temple of the LORD, and there he offered burnt offerings and the fat of the fellowship offerings, [Traditionally peace offerings] because the bronze altar he had made could not hold the burnt offerings, the grain offerings and the fat portions.

2Ch. 7:8 So Solomon observed the festival at that time for seven days, and all Israel with him — a vast assembly, people from Lebo [Or from the entrance to] Hamath to the Wadi of Egypt.

2Ch. 7:9 On the eighth day they held an assembly, for they had celebrated the dedication of the altar for seven days and the festival for seven days more.

2Ch. 7:10 On the twenty-third day of the seventh month he sent the people to their homes, joyful and glad in heart for the good things the LORD had done for David and Solomon and for his people Israel.

2Ch. 7:11 When Solomon had finished the temple of the LORD and the royal palace, and had succeeded in carrying out all he had in mind to do in the temple of the LORD and in his own palace, 2Ch. 7:12 the LORD appeared to him at night and said: “I have heard your prayer and have chosen this place for myself as a temple for sacrifices.

2Ch. 7:13 “When I shut up the heavens so that there is no rain, or command locusts to devour the land or send a plague among my people,

2Ch. 7:14 if my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then will I hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and will heal their land.

2Ch. 7:15 Now my eyes will be open and my ears attentive to the prayers offered in this place.

2Ch. 7:16 I have chosen and consecrated this temple so that my Name may be there for ever. My eyes and my heart will always be there.

2Ch. 7:17 “As for you, if you walk before me as David your father did, and do all I command, and observe my decrees and laws,

2Ch. 7:18 I will establish your royal throne, as I covenanted with David your father when I said, ‘You shall never fail to have a man to rule over Israel.’

2Ch. 7:19 “But if you [The Hebrew is plural.] turn away and forsake the decrees and commands I have given you [The Hebrew is plural.] and go off to serve other gods and worship them,

2Ch. 7:20 then I will uproot Israel from my land, which I have given them, and will reject this temple which I have consecrated for my Name. I will make it a byword and an object of ridicule among all peoples.

2Ch. 7:21 And though this temple is now so imposing, all who pass by will be appalled and say, ‘Why has the LORD done such a thing to this land and to this temple?’

2Ch. 7:22 People will answer, “Because they have forsaken the LORD, the God of their fathers, who brought them out of Egypt, and have embraced other gods, worshipping and serving them — that is why he brought all this disaster on them.’“

2Ch. 8:1 At the end of twenty years, during which Solomon built the temple of the LORD and his own palace,
Solomon rebuilt the villages that Hiram [Hebrew Huram, a variant of Hiram; also in verse 18] had given him, and settled Israelites in them.

Solomon then went to Hamath Zobah and captured it.

He also built up Tadmor in the desert and all the store cities he had built in Hamath.

He rebuilt Upper Beth Horon and Lower Beth Horon as fortified cities, with walls and with gates and bars, as well as Baalath and all his store cities, and all the cities for his chariots and for his horses — [Or charioteers] whatever he desired to build in Jerusalem, in Lebanon and throughout all the territory that he ruled.

All the people left from the Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites (these peoples were not Israelites), that is, their descendants remaining in the land, whom the Israelites had not destroyed — these Solomon conscripted for his slave labour force, as it is to this day.

But Solomon did not make slaves of the Israelites for his work; they were his fighting men, commanders of his captains, and commanders of his chariots and charioteers.

They were also King Solomon’s chief officials — two hundred and fifty officials supervising the men.

Solomon brought Pharaoh’s daughter up from the City of David to the palace he had built for her, for he said, “My wife must not live in the palace of David king of Israel, because the places the ark of the LORD has entered are holy.”

On the altar of the LORD that he had built in front of the portico, Solomon sacrificed burnt offerings to the LORD, according to the daily requirement for offerings commanded by Moses for Sabbaths, New Moons and the three annual feasts — the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the Feast of Weeks and the Feast of Tabernacles.
In keeping with the ordinance of his father David, he appointed the divisions of the priests for their duties and the Levites to lead the praise and to assist the priests according to each day’s requirement. He also appointed the gatekeepers by divisions for the various gates, because this was what David the man of God had ordered.

They did not deviate from the king’s commands to the priests or to the Levites in any matter, including that of the treasuries.

All Solomon’s work was carried out, from the day the foundation of the temple of the LORD was laid until its completion. So the temple of the LORD was finished.

Then Solomon went to Ezion Geber and Elath on the coast of Edom.

And Hiram sent him ships commanded by his own officers, men who knew the sea. These, with Solomon’s men, sailed to Ophir and brought back four hundred and fifty talents [That is, about 17 tons (about 16 metric tons)] of gold, which they delivered to King Solomon.

CHAPTER 9

When the queen of Sheba heard of Solomon’s fame, she came to Jerusalem to test him with hard questions. Arriving with a very great caravan — with camels carrying spices, large quantities of gold, and precious stones — she came to Solomon and talked with him about all she had on her mind.

Solomon answered all her questions; nothing was too hard for him to explain to her.

When the queen of Sheba saw the wisdom of Solomon, as well as the palace he had built, the food on his table, the seating of his officials, the attending servants in their robes, the cupbearers in their robes and the burnt offerings he made at [Or the ascent by which he went up to] the temple of the LORD, she was overwhelmed.

2Ch. 9:5 She said to the king, “The report I heard in my own country about your achievements and your wisdom is true.

2Ch. 9:6 But I did not believe what they said until I came and saw with my own eyes. Indeed, not even half the greatness of your wisdom was told me; you have far exceeded the report I heard.

2Ch. 9:7 How happy your men must be! How happy your officials, who continually stand before you and hear your wisdom!

2Ch. 9:8 Praise be to the LORD your God, who has delighted in you and placed you on his throne as king to rule for the LORD your God. Because of the love of your God for Israel and his desire to uphold them for ever, he has made you king over them, to maintain justice and righteousness.”

2Ch. 9:9 Then she gave the king 120 talents [That is, about 4 tons (about 4 metric tons)] of gold, large quantities of spices, and precious stones. There had never been such spices as those the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.

2Ch. 9:10 (The men of Hiram and the men of Solomon brought gold from Ophir; they also brought algum-wood [Probably a variant of almug-wood] and precious stones.

2Ch. 9:11 The king used the algum-wood to make steps for the temple of the LORD and for the royal palace, and to make harps and lyres for the musicians. Nothing like them had ever been seen in Judah.)

2Ch. 9:12 King Solomon gave the queen of Sheba all she desired and asked for; he gave her more than she had brought to him. Then she left and returned with her retinue to her own country.

2Ch. 9:13 The weight of the gold that Solomon received yearly was 666 talents, [That is, about 23 tons (about 23 metric tons)] not including the revenues brought in by merchants and traders. Also all the kings of Arabia and the governors of the land brought gold and silver to Solomon.

King Solomon made two hundred large shields of hammered gold; six hundred bekas [That is, about 7 1/2 pounds (about 3.5 kilograms)] of hammered gold went into each shield.

He also made three hundred small shields of hammered gold, with three hundred bekas [That is, about 3 3/4 pounds (about 1.7 kilograms)] of gold in each shield. The king put them in the Palace of the Forest of Lebanon.

Then the king made a great throne inlaid with ivory and overlaid with pure gold.

The throne had six steps, and a footstool of gold was attached to it. On both sides of the seat were armrests, with a lion standing beside each of them.

Twelve lions stood on the six steps, one at either end of each step. Nothing like it had ever been made for any other kingdom.

All King Solomon’s goblets were gold, and all the household articles in the Palace of the Forest of Lebanon were pure gold. Nothing was made of silver, because silver was considered of little value in Solomon’s day.

The king had a fleet of trading ships [Hebrew of ships that could go to Tarshish] manned by Hiram’s [Hebrew Huram, a variant of Hiram] men. Once every three years it returned, carrying gold, silver and ivory, and apes and baboons.

King Solomon was greater in riches and wisdom than all the other kings of the earth.

All the kings of the earth sought audience with Solomon to hear the wisdom God had put in his heart.

Year after year, everyone who came brought a gift — articles of silver and gold, and robes, weapons and spices, and horses and mules.
Solomon had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots, and twelve thousand horses, [Or charioteers] which he kept in the chariot cities and also with him in Jerusalem.

He ruled over all the kings from the River [That is, the Euphrates] to the land of the Philistines, as far as the border of Egypt.

The king made silver as common in Jerusalem as stones, and cedar as plentiful as sycamore-fig trees in the foothills.

Solomon’s horses were imported from Egypt [Or possibly Muzur, a region in Cilicia] and from all other countries.

As for the other events of Solomon’s reign, from beginning to end, are they not written in the records of Nathan the prophet, in the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite and in the visions of Iddo the seer concerning Jeroboam son of Nebat?

Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel for forty years.

Then he rested with his fathers and was buried in the city of David his father. And Rehoboam his son succeeded him as king.

CHAPTER 10

Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all the Israelites had gone there to make him king.

When Jeroboam son of Nebat heard this (he was in Egypt, where he had fled from King Solomon), he returned from Egypt.

So they sent for Jeroboam, and he and all Israel went to Rehoboam and said to him:

“Your father put a heavy yoke on us, but now lighten the harsh labour and the heavy yoke he put on us, and we will serve you.”
Rehoboam answered, “Come back to me in three days.” So the people went away.

Then King Rehoboam consulted the elders who had served his father Solomon during his lifetime. “How would you advise me to answer these people?” he asked.

They replied, “If you will be kind to these people and please them and give them a favourable answer, they will always be your servants.”

But Rehoboam rejected the advice the elders gave him and consulted the young men who had grown up with him and were serving him.

He asked them, “What is your advice? How should we answer these people who say to me, ‘Lighten the yoke your father put on us’?”

The young men who had grown up with him replied, “Tell the people who have said to you, ‘Your father put a heavy yoke on us, but make our yoke lighter’ — tell them, ‘My little finger is thicker than my father’s waist. My father laid on you a heavy yoke; I will make it even heavier. My father scourged you with whips; I will scourge you with scorpions.’”

Three days later Jeroboam and all the people returned to Rehoboam, as the king had said, “Come back to me in three days.”

The king answered them harshly. Rejecting the advice of the elders, he followed the advice of the young men and said, “My father made your yoke heavy; I will make it even heavier. My father scourged you with whips; I will scourge you with scorpions.”

So the king did not listen to the people, for this turn of events was from God, to fulfil the word that the LORD had spoken to Jeroboam son of Nebat through Ahijah the Shilonite.
When all Israel saw that the king refused to listen to them, they answered the king: “What share do we have in David, what part in Jesse’s son? To your tents, O Israel! Look after your own house, O David!” So all the Israelites went home.

But as for the Israelites who were living in the towns of Judah, Rehoboam still ruled over them.

King Rehoboam sent out Adoniram, [Hebrew Hadoram, a variant of Adoniram] who was in charge of forced labour, but the Israelites stoned him to death. King Rehoboam, however, managed to get into his chariot and escape to Jerusalem.

So Israel has been in rebellion against the house of David to this day.

CHAPTER 11

When Rehoboam arrived in Jerusalem, he mustered the house of Judah and Benjamin — a hundred and eighty thousand fighting men — to make war against Israel and to regain the kingdom for Rehoboam.

But this word of the LORD came to Shemaiah the man of God:

“Say to Rehoboam son of Solomon king of Judah and to all the Israelites in Judah and Benjamin,

`This is what the LORD says: Do not go up to fight against your brothers. Go home, every one of you, for this is my doing.’“ So they obeyed the words of the LORD and turned back from marching against Jeroboam.

Rehoboam lived in Jerusalem and built up towns for defence in Judah:

Bethlehem, Etam, Tekoa,

Beth Zur, Soco, Adullam,

Gath, Mareshah, Ziph,
Adoraim, Lachish, Azekah,

Zorah, Aijalon and Hebron. These were fortified cities in Judah and Benjamin.

He strengthened their defences and put commanders in them, with supplies of food, olive oil and wine.

He put shields and spears in all the cities, and made them very strong. So Judah and Benjamin were his.

The priests and Levites from all their districts throughout Israel sided with him.

The Levites even abandoned their pasture-lands and property, and came to Judah and Jerusalem because Jeroboam and his sons had rejected them as priests of the LORD.

And he appointed his own priests for the high places and for the goat and calf idols he had made.

Those from every tribe of Israel who set their hearts on seeking the LORD, the God of Israel, followed the Levites to Jerusalem to offer sacrifices to the LORD, the God of their fathers.

Rehoboam married Mahalath, who was the daughter of David’s son Jerimoth and of Abihail, the daughter of Jesse’s son Eliab.

She bore him sons: Jeush, Shemariah and Zaham.

Then he married Maacah daughter of Absalom, who bore him Abijah, Attai, Ziza and Shelomith.

Rehoboam loved Maacah daughter of Absalom more than any of his other wives and concubines. In all he had eighteen wives and sixty concubines, twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters.
Rehoboam appointed Abijah son of Maacah to be the chief prince among his brothers, in order to make him king.

He acted wisely, dispersing some of his sons throughout the districts of Judah and Benjamin, and to all the fortified cities. He gave them abundant provisions and took many wives for them.

CHAPTER 12

After Rehoboam’s position as king was established and he had become strong, he and all Israel [That is, Judah, as frequently in 2 Chronicles] with him abandoned the law of the LORD.

Because they had been unfaithful to the LORD, Shishak king of Egypt attacked Jerusalem in the fifth year of King Rehoboam.

With twelve hundred chariots and sixty thousand horsemen and the innumerable troops of Libyans, Sukkites and Cushites [That is, people from the upper Nile region] that came with him from Egypt, he captured the fortified cities of Judah and came as far as Jerusalem.

Then the prophet Shemaiah came to Rehoboam and to the leaders of Judah who had assembled in Jerusalem for fear of Shishak, and he said to them, “This is what the LORD says: ‘You have abandoned me; therefore I now abandon you to Shishak.’“

The leaders of Israel and the king humbled themselves and said, “The LORD is just.”

When the LORD saw that they humbled themselves, this word of the LORD came to Shemaiah: “Since they have humbled themselves, I will not destroy them but will soon give them deliverance. My wrath will not be poured out on Jerusalem through Shishak.”
They will, however, become subject to him, so that they may learn the difference between serving me and serving the kings of other lands.”

When Shishak king of Egypt attacked Jerusalem, he carried off the treasures of the temple of the LORD and the treasures of the royal palace. He took everything, including the gold shields that Solomon had made.

So King Rehoboam made bronze shields to replace them and assigned these to the commanders of the guard on duty at the entrance to the royal palace.

Whenever the king went to the LORD’s temple, the guards went with him, bearing the shields, and afterwards they returned them to the guardroom.

Because Rehoboam humbled himself, the LORD’s anger turned from him, and he was not totally destroyed. Indeed, there was some good in Judah.

King Rehoboam established himself firmly in Jerusalem and continued as king. He was forty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned for seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel in which to put his Name. His mother’s name was Naamah; she was an Ammonite.

He did evil because he had not set his heart on seeking the LORD.

As for the events of Rehoboam’s reign, from beginning to end, are they not written in the records of Shemaiah the prophet and of Iddo the seer that deal with genealogies? There was continual warfare between Rehoboam and Jeroboam.

Rehoboam rested with his fathers and was buried in the City of David. And Abijah his son succeeded him as king.
In the eighteenth year of the reign of Jeroboam, Abijah became king of Judah, and he reigned in Jerusalem for three years. His mother’s name was Maacah, [Most Septuagint manuscripts and Syriac (see also 2 Chron. 11:20 and 1 Kings 15:2); Hebrew Micaiah] a daughter [Or granddaughter] of Uriel of Gibeah. There was war between Abijah and Jeroboam.

Abijah went into battle with a force of four hundred thousand able fighting men, and Jeroboam drew up a battle line against him with eight hundred thousand able troops.

Abijah stood on Mount Zemaraim, in the hill country of Ephraim, and said, “Jeroboam and all Israel, listen to me!

Don’t you know that the LORD, the God of Israel, has given the kingship of Israel to David and his descendants for ever by a covenant of salt?

Yet Jeroboam son of Nebat, an official of Solomon son of David, rebelled against his master.

Some worthless scoundrels gathered around him and opposed Rehoboam son of Solomon when he was young and indecisive and not strong enough to resist them.

“And now you plan to resist the kingdom of the LORD, which is in the hands of David’s descendants. You are indeed a vast army and have with you the golden calves that Jeroboam made to be your gods.

But didn’t you drive out the priests of the LORD, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and make priests of your own as the peoples of other lands do? Whoever comes to consecrate himself with a young bull and seven rams may become a priest of what are not gods.
2Ch. 13:10 "As for us, the LORD is our God, and we have not forsaken him. The priests who serve the LORD are sons of Aaron, and the Levites assist them.

2Ch. 13:11 Every morning and evening they present burnt offerings and fragrant incense to the LORD. They set out the bread on the ceremonially clean table and light the lamps on the gold lampstand every evening. We are observing the requirements of the LORD our God. But you have forsaken him.

2Ch. 13:12 God is with us; he is our leader. His priests with their trumpets will sound the battle cry against you. Men of Israel, do not fight against the LORD, the God of your fathers, for you will not succeed.”

2Ch. 13:13 Now Jeroboam had sent troops round to the rear, so that while he was in front of Judah the ambush was behind them.

2Ch. 13:14 Judah turned and saw that they were being attacked at both front and rear. Then they cried out to the LORD. The priests blew their trumpets

2Ch. 13:15 and the men of Judah raised the battle cry. At the sound of their battle cry, God routed Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah.

2Ch. 13:16 The Israelites fled before Judah, and God delivered them into their hands.

2Ch. 13:17 Abijah and his men inflicted heavy losses on them, so that there were five hundred thousand casualties among Israel’s able men.

2Ch. 13:18 The men of Israel were subdued on that occasion, and the men of Judah were victorious because they relied on the LORD, the God of their fathers.

2Ch. 13:19 Abijah pursued Jeroboam and took from him the towns of Bethel, Jeshanah and Ephron, with their surrounding villages.

2Ch. 13:20 Jeroboam did not regain power during the time of Abijah. And the LORD struck him down and he died.
But Abijah grew in strength. He married fourteen wives and had twenty-two sons and sixteen daughters.

The other events of Abijah’s reign, what he did and what he said, are written in the annotations of the prophet Iddo.

CHAPTER 14

And Abijah rested with his fathers and was buried in the City of David. Asa his son succeeded him as king, and in his days the country was at peace for ten years.

Asa did what was good and right in the eyes of the LORD his God.

He removed the foreign altars and the high places, smashed the sacred stones and cut down the Asherah poles. [That is, symbols of the goddess Asherah; here and elsewhere in 2 Chronicles]

He commanded Judah to seek the LORD, the God of their fathers, and to obey his laws and commands.

He removed the high places and incense altars in every town in Judah, and the kingdom was at peace under him.

He built up the fortified cities of Judah, since the land was at peace. No-one was at war with him during those years, for the LORD gave him rest.

“Let us build up these towns,” he said to Judah, “and put walls round them, with towers, gates and bars. The land is still ours, because we have sought the LORD our God; we sought him and he has given us rest on every side.” So they built and prospered.

Asa had an army of three hundred thousand men from Judah, equipped with large shields and with spears, and two hundred and eighty thousand from Benjamin, armed with small shields and with bows. All these were brave fighting men.
2Ch. 14:9 Zerah the Cushite marched out against them with a vast army [Hebrew with an army of a thousand thousands or with an army of thousands upon thousands] and three hundred chariots, and came as far as Mareshah.

2Ch. 14:10 Asa went out to meet him, and they took up battle positions in the Valley of Zephathah near Mareshah.

2Ch. 14:11 Then Asa called to the LORD his God and said, “LORD, there is no-one like you to help the powerless against the mighty. Help us, O LORD our God, for we rely on you, and in your name we have come against this vast army. O LORD, you are our God; do not let man prevail against you.”

2Ch. 14:12 The LORD struck down the Cushites before Asa and Judah. The Cushites fled, 2Ch. 14:13 and Asa and his army pursued them as far as Gerar. Such a great number of Cushites fell that they could not recover; they were crushed before the LORD and his forces. The men of Judah carried off a large amount of plunder.

2Ch. 14:14 They destroyed all the villages around Gerar, for the terror of the LORD had fallen upon them. They plundered all these villages, since there was much booty there.

2Ch. 14:15 They also attacked the camps of the herdsmen and carried off droves of sheep and goats and camels. Then they returned to Jerusalem.

CHAPTER 15

2Ch. 15:1 The Spirit of God came upon Azariah son of Oded.

2Ch. 15:2 He went out to meet Asa and said to him, “Listen to me, Asa and all Judah and Benjamin. The LORD is with you when you are with him. If you seek him, he will be found by you, but if you forsake him, he will forsake you.

2Ch. 15:3 For a long time Israel was without the true God, without a priest to teach and without the law.
2Ch. 15:4 But in their distress they turned to the LORD, the God of Israel, and sought him, and he was found by them.

2Ch. 15:5 In those days it was not safe to travel about, for all the inhabitants of the lands were in great turmoil.

2Ch. 15:6 One nation was being crushed by another and one city by another, because God was troubling them with every kind of distress.

2Ch. 15:7 But as for you, be strong and do not give up, for your work will be rewarded.”

2Ch. 15:8 When Asa heard these words and the prophecy of Azariah son of [Vulgate and Syriac (see also Septuagint and verse 1); Hebrew does not have Azariah son of.] Oded the prophet, he took courage. He removed the detestable idols from the whole land of Judah and Benjamin and from the towns he had captured in the hills of Ephraim. He repaired the altar of the LORD that was in front of the portico of the LORD’s temple.

2Ch. 15:9 Then he assembled all Judah and Benjamin and the people from Ephraim, Manasseh and Simeon who had settled among them, for large numbers had come over to him from Israel when they saw that the LORD his God was with him.

2Ch. 15:10 They assembled at Jerusalem in the third month of the fifteenth year of Asa’s reign.

2Ch. 15:11 At that time they sacrificed to the LORD seven hundred head of cattle and seven thousand sheep and goats from the plunder they had brought back.

2Ch. 15:12 They entered into a covenant to seek the LORD, the God of their fathers, with all their heart and soul.

2Ch. 15:13 All who would not seek the LORD, the God of Israel, were to be put to death, whether small or great, man or woman.

2Ch. 15:14 They took an oath to the LORD with loud acclamation, with shouting and with trumpets and horns.
2Ch. 15:15 All Judah rejoiced about the oath because they had sworn it wholeheartedly. They sought God eagerly, and he was found by them. So the LORD gave them rest on every side.

2Ch. 15:16 King Asa also deposed his grandmother Maacah from her position as queen mother, because she had made a repulsive Asherah pole. Asa cut the pole down, broke it up and burned it in the Kidron Valley.

2Ch. 15:17 Although he did not remove the high places from Israel, Asa’s heart was fully committed to the LORD all his life.

2Ch. 15:18 He brought into the temple of God the silver and gold and the articles that he and his father had dedicated.

2Ch. 15:19 There was no more war until the thirty-fifth year of Asa’s reign.

CHAPTER 16

2Ch. 16:1 In the thirty-sixth year of Asa’s reign Baasha king of Israel went up against Judah and fortified Ramah to prevent anyone from leaving or entering the territory of Asa king of Judah.

2Ch. 16:2 Asa then took the silver and gold out of the treasuries of the LORD’s temple and of his own palace and sent it to Ben-Hadad king of Aram, who was ruling in Damascus.

2Ch. 16:3 “Let there be a treaty between me and you,” he said, “as there was between my father and your father. See, I am sending you silver and gold. Now break your treaty with Baasha king of Israel so that he will withdraw from me.”

2Ch. 16:4 Ben-Hadad agreed with King Asa and sent the commanders of his forces against the towns of Israel. They conquered Ijon, Dan, Abel Maim [Also known as Abel Beth Maacah] and all the store cities of Naphtali.

2Ch. 16:5 When Baasha heard this, he stopped building Ramah and abandoned his work.
Then King Asa brought all the men of Judah, and they carried away from Ramah the stones and timber Baasha had been using. With them he built up Geba and Mizpah.

At that time Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Judah and said to him: “Because you relied on the king of Aram and not on the LORD your God, the army of the king of Aram has escaped from your hand.

Were not the Cushites [That is, people from the upper Nile region] and Libyans a mighty army with great numbers of chariots and horsemen? [Or charioteers] Yet when you relied on the LORD, he delivered them into your hand.

For the eyes of the LORD range throughout the earth to strengthen those whose hearts are fully committed to him. You have done a foolish thing, and from now on you will be at war.”

Asa was angry with the seer because of this; he was so enraged that he put him in prison. At the same time Asa brutally oppressed some of the people.

The events of Asa’s reign, from beginning to end, are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

In the thirty-ninth year of his reign Asa was afflicted with a disease in his feet. Though his disease was severe, even in his illness he did not seek help from the LORD, but only from the physicians.

Then in the forty-first year of his reign Asa died and rested with his fathers.

They buried him in the tomb that he had cut out for himself in the City of David. They laid him on a bier covered with spices and various blended perfumes, and they made a huge fire in his honour.
Jehoshaphat his son succeeded him as king and strengthened himself against Israel.

He stationed troops in all the fortified cities of Judah and put garrisons in Judah and in the towns of Ephraim that his father Asa had captured.

The LORD was with Jehoshaphat because in his early years he walked in the ways that his father David had followed. He did not consult the Baals but sought the God of his father and followed his commands rather than the practices of Israel.

The LORD established the kingdom under his control; and all Judah brought gifts to Jehoshaphat, so that he had great wealth and honour.

His heart was devoted to the ways of the LORD; furthermore, he removed the high places and the Asherah poles from Judah.

In the third year of his reign he sent his officials Ben-Hail, Obadiah, Zechariah, Nethanel and Micaiah to teach in the towns of Judah.

With them were certain Levites — Shemaiah, Nethaniah, Zebadiah, Asahel, Shemiramoth, Jehonathan, Adonijah, Tobijah and Tob-Adonijah — and the priests Elishama and Jehoram. They taught throughout Judah, taking with them the Book of the Law of the LORD; they went round to all the towns of Judah and taught the people.

The fear of the LORD fell on all the kingdoms of the lands surrounding Judah, so that they did not make war with Jehoshaphat.
2Ch. 17:11 Some Philistines brought Jehoshaphat gifts and silver as tribute, and the Arabs brought him flocks: seven thousand seven hundred rams and seven thousand seven hundred goats.

2Ch. 17:12 Jehoshaphat became more and more powerful; he built forts and store cities in Judah.

2Ch. 17:13 and had large supplies in the towns of Judah. He also kept experienced fighting men in Jerusalem.

2Ch. 17:14 Their enrolment by families was as follows: From Judah, commanders of units of 1,000: Adnah the commander, with 300,000 fighting men;

2Ch. 17:15 next, Jehohanan the commander, with 280,000;

2Ch. 17:16 next, Amasiah son of Zicri, who volunteered himself for the service of the LORD, with 200,000.

2Ch. 17:17 From Benjamin: Eliada, a valiant soldier, with 200,000 men armed with bows and shields;

2Ch. 17:18 next, Jehozabad, with 180,000 men armed for battle.

2Ch. 17:19 These were the men who served the king, besides those he stationed in the fortified cities throughout Judah.

CHAPTER 18

2Ch. 18:1 Now Jehoshaphat had great wealth and honour, and he allied himself with Ahab by marriage.

2Ch. 18:2 Some years later he went down to visit Ahab in Samaria. Ahab slaughtered many sheep and cattle for him and the people with him and urged him to attack Ramoth Gilead.

2Ch. 18:3 Ahab king of Israel asked Jehoshaphat king of Judah, “Will you go with me against Ramoth Gilead?” Jehoshaphat replied, “I am as you are, and my people as your people; we will join you in the war.”

2Ch. 18:4 But Jehoshaphat also said to the king of Israel, “First seek the counsel of the LORD.”
So the king of Israel brought together the prophets — four hundred men — and asked them, “Shall we go to war against Ramoth Gilead, or shall I refrain?” “Go,” they answered, “for God will give it into the king’s hand.”

But Jehoshaphat asked, “Is there not a prophet of the LORD here whom we can enquire of?”

The king of Israel answered Jehoshaphat, “There is still one man through whom we can enquire of the LORD, but I hate him because he never prophesies anything good about me, but always bad. He is Micaiah son of Imlah.” “The king should not say that,” Jehoshaphat replied.

So the king of Israel called one of his officials and said, “Bring Micaiah son of Imlah at once.”

Dressed in their royal robes, the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah were sitting on their thrones at the threshing-floor by the entrance to the gate of Samaria, with all the prophets prophesying before them.

Now Zedekiah son of Kenaanah had made iron horns, and he declared, “This is what the LORD says: ‘With these you will gore the Arameans until they are destroyed.’“

All the other prophets were prophesying the same thing. “Attack Ramoth Gilead and be victorious,” they said, “for the LORD will give it into the king’s hand.”

The messenger who had gone to summon Micaiah said to him, “Look, as one man the other prophets are predicting success for the king. Let your word agree with theirs, and speak favourably.”

But Micaiah said, “As surely as the LORD lives, I can tell him only what my God says.”

When he arrived, the king asked him, “Micaiah, shall we go to war against Ramoth Gilead, or shall I refrain?” “Attack and be victorious,” he answered, “for they will be given into your hand.”
2Ch. 18:15 The king said to him, “How many times must I make you swear to tell me nothing but the truth in the name of the LORD?”

2Ch. 18:16 Then Micaiah answered, “I saw all Israel scattered on the hills like sheep without a shepherd, and the LORD said, ‘These people have no master. Let each one go home in peace.’”

2Ch. 18:17 The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “Didn’t I tell you that he never prophesies anything good about me, but only bad?”

2Ch. 18:18 Micaiah continued, “Therefore hear the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on his throne with all the host of heaven standing on his right and on his left.

2Ch. 18:19 And the LORD said, ‘Who will entice Ahab king of Israel into attacking Ramoth Gilead and going to his death there?’ ‘One suggested this, and another that.’

2Ch. 18:20 “I will go and be a lying spirit in the mouths of all his prophets,’ he said. ‘You will succeed in enticing him,’ said the LORD. ‘Go and do it.’

2Ch. 18:21 “So now the LORD has put a lying spirit in the mouths of these prophets of yours. The LORD has decreed disaster for you.”

2Ch. 18:22 Then Zedekiah son of Kenaanah went up and slapped Micaiah in the face. “Which way did the spirit from [Or Spirit of] the LORD go when he went from me to speak to you?” he asked.

2Ch. 18:23 Micaiah replied, “You will find out on the day you go to hide in an inner room.”

2Ch. 18:24 The king of Israel then ordered, “Take Micaiah and send him back to Amon the ruler of the city and to Joash the king’s son, and say, `This is what the king says: Put this fellow in prison and give him nothing but bread and water until I return safely.'"

Micaiah declared, “If you ever return safely, the LORD has not spoken through me.” Then he added, “Mark my words, all you people!”

So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah went up to Ramoth Gilead.

The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “I will enter the battle in disguise, but you wear your royal robes.” So the king of Israel disguised himself and went into battle.

Now the king of Aram had ordered his chariot commanders, “Do not fight with anyone, small or great, except the king of Israel.”

When the chariot commanders saw Jehoshaphat, they thought, “This is the king of Israel.” So they turned to attack him, but Jehoshaphat cried out, and the LORD helped him. God drew them away from him, for when the chariot commanders saw that he was not the king of Israel, they stopped pursuing him.

But someone drew his bow at random and hit the king of Israel between the sections of his armour. The king told the chariot driver, “Wheel around and get me out of the fighting. I’ve been wounded.”

All day long the battle raged, and the king of Israel propped himself up in his chariot facing the Arameans until evening. Then at sunset he died.

CHAPTER 19

When Jehoshaphat king of Judah returned safely to his palace in Jerusalem, 1042

2Ch. 19:2 Jehu the seer, the son of Hanani, went out to meet him and said to the king, “Should you help the wicked and love [or make alliances with] those who hate the LORD? Because of this, the wrath of the LORD is upon you.”

2Ch. 19:3 There is, however, some good in you, for you have rid the land of the Asherah poles and have set your heart on seeking God.”

2Ch. 19:4 Jehoshaphat lived in Jerusalem, and he went out again among the people from Beersheba to the hill country of Ephraim and turned them back to the LORD, the God of their fathers.

2Ch. 19:5 He appointed judges in the land, in each of the fortified cities of Judah.

2Ch. 19:6 He told them, “Consider carefully what you do, because you are not judging for man but for the LORD, who is with you whenever you give a verdict.

2Ch. 19:7 Now let the fear of the LORD be upon you. Judge carefully, for with the LORD our God there is no injustice or partiality or bribery.”

2Ch. 19:8 In Jerusalem also, Jehoshaphat appointed some of the Levites, priests and heads of Israelite families to administer the law of the LORD and to settle disputes. And they lived in Jerusalem.

2Ch. 19:9 He gave them these orders: “You must serve faithfully and wholeheartedly in the fear of the LORD.

2Ch. 19:10 In every case that comes before you from your fellow countrymen who live in the cities — whether bloodshed or other concerns of the law, commands, decrees or ordinances — you are to warn them not to sin against the LORD; otherwise his wrath will come on you and your brothers. Do this, and you will not sin.

2Ch. 19:11 “Amariah the chief priest will be over you in any matter concerning the LORD, and Zebadiah son of Ishmael, the leader of the tribe of Judah, will be over you in any matter concerning the king, and the Levites will serve as officials before you. Act with courage, and may the LORD be with those who do well.”

CHAPTER 20

2Ch. 20:1 After this, the Moabites and Ammonites with some of the Meunites [Some Septuagint manuscripts; Hebrew Ammonites] came to make war on Jehoshaphat.

2Ch. 20:2 Some men came and told Jehoshaphat, “A vast army is coming against you from Edom, [One Hebrew manuscript; most Hebrew manuscripts, Septuagint and Vulgate Aram] from the other side of the Sea. [That is, the Dead Sea] It is already in Hazezon Tamar” (that is, En Gedi).

2Ch. 20:3 Alarmed, Jehoshaphat resolved to enquire of the LORD, and he proclaimed a fast for all Judah.

2Ch. 20:4 The people of Judah came together to seek help from the LORD; indeed, they came from every town in Judah to seek him.

2Ch. 20:5 Then Jehoshaphat stood up in the assembly of Judah and Jerusalem at the temple of the LORD in the front of the new courtyard

2Ch. 20:6 and said: “O LORD, God of our fathers, are you not the God who is in heaven? You rule over all the kingdoms of the nations. Power and might are in your hand, and no-one can withstand you.

2Ch. 20:7 our God, did you not drive out the inhabitants of this land before your people Israel and give it for ever to the descendants of Abraham your friend?

2Ch. 20:8 They have lived in it and have built in it a sanctuary for your Name, saying,

2Ch. 20:9 `If calamity comes upon us, whether the sword of judgment, or plague or famine, we will stand in your presence before this temple that bears your Name and will cry out to you in our distress, and you will hear us and save us.’

2Ch. 20:10 “But now here are men from Ammon, Moab and Mount Seir, whose territory you would not allow Israel to invade when they came from Egypt; so they turned away from them and did not destroy them.

2Ch. 20:11 See how they are repaying us by coming to drive us out of the possession you gave us as an inheritance.

2Ch. 20:12 our God, will you not judge them? For we have no power to face this vast army that is attacking us. We do not know what to do, but our eyes are upon you.”

2Ch. 20:13 All the men of Judah, with their wives and children and little ones, stood there before the LORD.

2Ch. 20:14 Then the Spirit of the LORD came upon Jahaziel son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah, a Levite and descendant of Asaph, as he stood in the assembly.

2Ch. 20:15 He said: “Listen, King Jehoshaphat and all who live in Judah and Jerusalem! This is what the LORD says to you: ‘Do not be afraid or discouraged because of this vast army. For the battle is not yours, but God’s.

2Ch. 20:16 Tomorrow march down against them. They will be climbing up by the Pass of Ziz, and you will find them at the end of the gorge in the Desert of Jeruel.

2Ch. 20:17 You will not have to fight this battle. Take up your positions; stand firm and see the deliverance the LORD will give you, O Judah and Jerusalem. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged. Go out to face them tomorrow, and the LORD will be with you.’“

2Ch. 20:18 Jehoshaphat bowed with his face to the ground, and all the people of Judah and Jerusalem fell down in worship before the LORD.
Then some Levites from the Kohathites and Korahites stood up and praised the LORD, the God of Israel, with a very loud voice.

Early in the morning they left for the Desert of Tekoa. As they set out, Jehoshaphat stood and said, “Listen to me, Judah and people of Jerusalem! Have faith in the LORD your God and you will be upheld; have faith in his prophets and you will be successful.”

After consulting the people, Jehoshaphat appointed men to sing to the LORD and to praise him for the splendour of his holiness as they went out at the head of the army, saying: “Give thanks to the LORD, for his love endures for ever.”

As they began to sing and praise, the LORD set ambushes against the men of Ammon and Moab and Mount Seir who were invading Judah, and they were defeated.

The men of Ammon and Moab rose up against the men from Mount Seir to destroy and annihilate them. After they finished slaughtering the men from Seir, they helped to destroy one another.

When the men of Judah came to the place that overlooks the desert and looked towards the vast army, they saw only dead bodies lying on the ground; no-one had escaped.

So Jehoshaphat and his men went to carry off their plunder, and they found among them a great amount of equipment and clothing — more than they could take away. There was so much plunder that it took three days to collect it.

On the fourth day they assembled in the Valley of Beracah, where they praised the LORD. This is why it is called the Valley of Beracah [Beracah means praise.] to this day.
Then, led by Jehoshaphat, all the men of Judah and Jerusalem returned joyfully to Jerusalem, for the LORD had given them cause to rejoice over their enemies.

They entered Jerusalem and went to the temple of the LORD with harps and lutes and trumpets.

The fear of God came upon all the kingdoms of the countries when they heard how the LORD had fought against the enemies of Israel.

And the kingdom of Jehoshaphat was at peace, for his God had given him rest on every side.

So Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah. He was thirty-five years old when he became king of Judah, and he reigned in Jerusalem for twenty-five years. His mother’s name was Azubah daughter of Shilhi.

He walked in the ways of his father Asa and did not stray from them; he did what was right in the eyes of the LORD.

The high places, however, were not removed, and the people still had not set their hearts on the God of their fathers.

The other events of Jehoshaphat’s reign, from beginning to end, are written in the annals of Jehu son of Hanani, which are recorded in the book of the kings of Israel.

Later, Jehoshaphat king of Judah made an alliance with Ahaziah king of Israel, who was guilty of wickedness.

He agreed with him to construct a fleet of trading ships. [Hebrew of ships that could go to Tarshish] After these were built at Ezion Geber, Eliezer son of Dodavahu of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, “Because you have made an alliance with Ahaziah, the LORD will destroy what you have made.” The ships were wrecked and were not able to set sail to trade. [Hebrew sail for Tarshish]

CHAPTER 21

2Ch. 21:1 Then Jehoshaphat rested with his fathers and was buried with them in the City of David. And Jehoram his son succeeded him as king.

2Ch. 21:2 Jehoram’s brothers, the sons of Jehoshaphat, were Azariah, Jehiel, Zechariah, Azariahu, Michael and Shephatiah. All these were sons of Jehoshaphat king of Israel. [That is, Judah, as frequently in 2 Chronicles]

2Ch. 21:3 Their father had given them many gifts of silver and gold and articles of value, as well as fortified cities in Judah, but he had given the kingdom to Jehoram because he was his firstborn son.

2Ch. 21:4 When Jehoram established himself firmly over his father’s kingdom, he put all his brothers to the sword along with some of the princes of Israel.

2Ch. 21:5 Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for eight years.

2Ch. 21:6 He walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, as the house of Ahab had done, for he married a daughter of Ahab. He did evil in the eyes of the LORD.

2Ch. 21:7 Nevertheless, because of the covenant the LORD had made with David, the LORD was not willing to destroy the house of David. He had promised to maintain a lamp for him and his descendants for ever.

2Ch. 21:8 In the time of Jehoram, Edom rebelled against Judah and set up its own king.

2Ch. 21:9 So Jehoram went there with his officers and all his chariots. The Edomites surrounded him and his chariot commanders, but he rose up and broke through by night.

2Ch. 21:10 To this day Edom has been in rebellion against Judah. Libnah revolted at the same time, because Jehoram had forsaken the LORD, the God of his fathers.
He had also built high places on the hills of Judah and had caused the people of Jerusalem to prostitute themselves and had led Judah astray.

Jehoram received a letter from Elijah the prophet, which said: “This is what the LORD, the God of your father David, says: ‘You have not walked in the ways of your father Jehoshaphat or of Asa king of Judah.

But you have walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and you have led Judah and the people of Jerusalem to prostitute themselves, just as the house of Ahab did. You have also murdered your own brothers, members of your father’s house, men who were better than you.

So now the LORD is about to strike your people, your sons, your wives and everything that is yours, with a heavy blow.

You yourself will be very ill with a lingering disease of the bowels, until the disease causes your bowels to come out.”

The LORD aroused against Jehoram the hostility of the Philistines and of the Arabs who lived near the Cushites.

They attacked Judah, invaded it and carried off all the goods found in the king’s palace, together with his sons and wives. Not a son was left to him except Ahaziah, [Hebrew Jehoahaz, a variant of Ahaziah] the youngest.

After all this, the LORD afflicted Jehoram with an incurable disease of the bowels.

In the course of time, at the end of the second year, his bowels came out because of the disease, and he died in great pain. His people made no fire in his honour, as they had for his fathers.

Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for eight years. He passed away, to no-one’s regret, and was buried in the City of David, but not in the tombs of the kings.
The people of Jerusalem made Ahaziah, Jehoram’s youngest son, king in his place, since the raiders, who came with the Arabs into the camp, had killed all the older sons. So Ahaziah son of Jehoram king of Judah began to reign.

Ahaziah was twenty-two [Some Septuagint manuscripts and Syriac (see also 2 Kings 8:26); Hebrew forty-two] years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for one year. His mother’s name was Athaliah, a granddaughter of Omri.

He too walked in the ways of the house of Ahab, for his mother encouraged him in doing wrong.

He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, as the house of Ahab had done, for after his father’s death they became his advisers, to his undoing.

He also followed their counsel when he went with Joram [Hebrew Jehoram, a variant of Joram; also in verses 6 and 7] son of Ahab king of Israel to war against Hazael king of Aram at Ramoth Gilead. The Arameans wounded Joram; so he returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds they had inflicted on him at Ramoth [Hebrew Ramah, a variant of Ramoth] in his battle with Hazael king of Aram. Then Ahaziah [Some Hebrew manuscripts, Septuagint, Vulgate and Syriac (see also 2 Kings 8:29); most Hebrew manuscripts Azariah] son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to Jezreel to see Joram son of Ahab because he had been wounded.

Through Ahaziah’s visit to Joram, God brought about Ahaziah’s downfall. When Ahaziah arrived, he went out with Joram to meet Jehu son of Nimshi, whom the LORD had anointed to destroy the house of Ahab.

While Jehu was executing judgment on the house of Ahab, he found the princes of Judah and the sons of Ahaziah’s relatives, who had been attending Ahaziah, and he killed them.

2Ch. 22:9 He then went in search of Ahaziah, and his men captured him while he was hiding in Samaria. He was brought to Jehu and put to death. They buried him, for they said, “He was a son of Jehoshaphat, who sought the LORD with all his heart.” So there was no-one in the house of Ahaziah powerful enough to retain the kingdom.

2Ch. 22:10 When Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she proceeded to destroy the whole royal family of the house of Judah.

2Ch. 22:11 But Jehosheba, [Hebrew Jehoshabeath, a variant of Jehosheba] the daughter of King Jehoram, took Joash son of Ahaziah and stole him away from among the royal princes who were about to be murdered and put him and his nurse in a bedroom. Because Jehosheba, [Hebrew Jehoshabeath, a variant of Jehosheba] the daughter of King Jehoram and wife of the priest Jehoiada, was Ahaziah’s sister, she hid the child from Athaliah so that she could not kill him.

2Ch. 22:12 He remained hidden with them at the temple of God for six years while Athaliah ruled the land.

CHAPTER 23

2Ch. 23:1 In the seventh year Jehoiada showed his strength. He made a covenant with the commanders of units of a hundred: Azariah son of Jeroham, Ishmael son of Jehohanan, Azariah son of Obed, Maaseiah son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat son of Zicri.

2Ch. 23:2 They went throughout Judah and gathered the Levites and the heads of Israelite families from all the towns. When they came to Jerusalem, 2Ch. 23:3 the whole assembly made a covenant with the king at the temple of God. Jehoiada said to them, “The king’s son shall reign, as the LORD promised concerning the descendants of David.

Now this is what you are to do: A third of you priests and Levites who are going on duty on the Sabbath are to keep watch at the doors, a third of you at the royal palace and a third at the Foundation Gate, and all the other men are to be in the courtyards of the temple of the LORD.

No-one is to enter the temple of the LORD except the priests and Levites on duty; they may enter because they are consecrated, but all the other men are to guard what the LORD has assigned to them. [Or to observe the LORD’S command not to enter]

The Levites are to station themselves round the king, each man with his weapons in his hand. Anyone who enters the temple must be put to death. Stay close to the king wherever he goes.”

The Levites and all the men of Judah did just as Jehoiada the priest ordered. Each one took his men — those who were going on duty on the Sabbath and those who were going off duty — for Jehoiada the priest had not released any of the divisions.

Then he gave the commanders of units of a hundred the spears and the large and small shields that had belonged to King David and that were in the temple of God.

He stationed all the men, each with his weapon in his hand, round the king — near the altar and the temple, from the south side to the north side of the temple.

Jehoiada and his sons brought out the king’s son and put the crown on him; they presented him with a copy of the covenant and proclaimed him king. They anointed him and shouted, “Long live the king!”

When Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and cheering the king, she went to them at the temple of the LORD.
2Ch. 23:13 She looked, and there was the king, standing by his pillar at the entrance. The officers and the trumpeters were beside the king, and all the people of the land were rejoicing and blowing trumpets, and singers with musical instruments were leading the praises. Then Athaliah tore her robes and shouted, “Treason! Treason!”

2Ch. 23:14 Jehoiada the priest sent out the commanders of units of a hundred, who were in charge of the troops, and said to them: “Bring her out between the ranks [Or out from the precincts] and put to the sword anyone who follows her.” For the priest had said, “Do not put her to death at the temple of the LORD.”

2Ch. 23:15 So they seized her as she reached the entrance of the Horse Gate on the palace grounds, and there they put her to death.

2Ch. 23:16 Jehoiada then made a covenant that he and the people and the king [Or covenant between the LORD and the people and the king that they (see 2 Kings 11:17)] would be the LORD’s people.

2Ch. 23:17 All the people went to the temple of Baal and tore it down. They smashed the altars and idols and killed Mattan the priest of Baal in front of the altars.

2Ch. 23:18 Then Jehoiada placed the oversight of the temple of the LORD in the hands of the priests, who were Levites, to whom David had made assignments in the temple, to present the burnt offerings of the LORD as written in the Law of Moses, with rejoicing and singing, as David had ordered.

2Ch. 23:19 He also stationed doorkeepers at the gates of the LORD’s temple so that no-one who was in any way unclean might enter.

2Ch. 23:20 He took with him the commanders of hundreds, the nobles, the rulers of the people and all the people of the land and brought the king down from the temple of the LORD. They went into the palace through the Upper Gate and seated the king on the royal throne, and all the people of the land rejoiced. And the city was quiet, because Athaliah had been slain with the sword.

CHAPTER 24

2Ch. 24:1 Joash was seven years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for forty years. His mother’s name was Zibiah; she was from Beersheba.

2Ch. 24:2 Joash did what was right in the eyes of the LORD all the years of Jehoiada the priest.

2Ch. 24:3 Jehoiada chose two wives for him, and he had sons and daughters.

2Ch. 24:4 Some time later Joash decided to restore the temple of the LORD.

2Ch. 24:5 He called together the priests and Levites and said to them, “Go to the towns of Judah and collect the money due annually from all Israel, to repair the temple of your God. Do it now.” But the Levites did not act at once.

2Ch. 24:6 Therefore the king summoned Jehoiada the chief priest and said to him, “Why haven’t you required the Levites to bring in from Judah and Jerusalem the tax imposed by Moses the servant of the LORD and by the assembly of Israel for the Tent of the Testimony?”

2Ch. 24:7 Now the sons of that wicked woman Athaliah had broken into the temple of God and had used even its sacred objects for the Baals.

2Ch. 24:8 At the king’s command, a chest was made and placed outside, at the gate of the temple of the LORD.

2Ch. 24:9 A proclamation was then issued in Judah and Jerusalem that they should bring to the LORD the tax that Moses the servant of God had required of Israel in the desert.

2Ch. 24:10 All the officials and all the people brought their contributions gladly, dropping them into the chest until it was full.
Whenever the chest was brought in by the Levites to the king’s officials and they saw that there was a large amount of money, the royal secretary and the officer of the chief priest would come and empty the chest and carry it back to its place. They did this regularly and collected a great amount of money.

The king and Jehoiada gave it to the men who carried out the work required for the temple of the LORD. They hired masons and carpenters to restore the LORD’s temple, and also workers in iron and bronze to repair the temple.

The men in charge of the work were diligent, and the repairs progressed under them. They rebuilt the temple of God according to its original design and reinforced it.

When they had finished, they brought the rest of the money to the king and Jehoiada, and with it were made articles for the LORD’s temple: articles for the service and for the burnt offerings, and also dishes and other objects of gold and silver. As long as Jehoiada lived, burnt offerings were presented continually in the temple of the LORD.

Now Jehoiada was old and full of years, and he died at the age of a hundred and thirty.

He was buried with the kings in the City of David, because of the good he had done in Israel for God and his temple.

After the death of Jehoiada, the officials of Judah came and paid homage to the king, and he listened to them.

They abandoned the temple of the LORD, the God of their fathers, and worshipped Asherah poles and idols. Because of their guilt, God’s anger came upon Judah and Jerusalem.

Although the LORD sent prophets to the people to bring them back to him, and though they testified against them, they would not listen.

Then the Spirit of God came upon Zechariah son of Jehoiada the priest. He stood before the people and said, “This is what God says: ‘Why do you disobey the LORD’s commands?’
You will not prosper. Because you have forsaken the LORD, he has forsaken you.”

But they plotted against him, and by order of the king they stoned him to death in the courtyard of the LORD’s temple.

King Joash did not remember the kindness Zechariah’s father Jehoiada had shown him but killed his son, who said as he lay dying, “May the LORD see this and call you to account.”

At the turn of the year, [Probably in the spring] the army of Aram marched against Joash; it invaded Judah and Jerusalem and killed all the leaders of the people. They sent all the plunder to their king in Damascus.

Although the Aramean army had come with only a few men, the LORD delivered into their hands a much larger army. Because Judah had forsaken the LORD, the God of their fathers, judgment was executed on Joash.

When the Arameans withdrew, they left Joash severely wounded. His officials conspired against him for murdering the son of Jehoiada the priest, and they killed him in his bed. So he died and was buried in the City of David, but not in the tombs of the kings.

Those who conspired against him were Zabad, [A variant of Jozabad] son of Shimeath an Ammonite woman, and Jehozabad, son of Shimrith [A variant of Shomer] a Moabite woman.

The account of his sons, the many prophecies about him, and the record of the restoration of the temple of God are written in the annotations on the book of the kings. And Amaziah his son succeeded him as king.

Amaziah was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for twenty-nine years. His mother’s name was Jehoaddin; [Hebrew Jehoaddan, a variant of Jehoaddin] she was from Jerusalem.

2Ch. 25:2 He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, but not wholeheartedly.

2Ch. 25:3 After the kingdom was firmly in his control, he executed the officials who had murdered his father the king.

2Ch. 25:4 Yet he did not put their sons to death, but acted in accordance with what is written in the Law, in the Book of Moses, where the LORD commanded: “Fathers shall not be put to death for their children, nor children put to death for their fathers; each is to die for his own sins.” [Deut. 24:16]

2Ch. 25:5 Amaziah called the people of Judah together and assigned them according to their families to commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds for all Judah and Benjamin. He then mustered those twenty years old or more and found that there were three hundred thousand men ready for military service, able to handle the spear and shield.

2Ch. 25:6 He also hired a hundred thousand fighting men from Israel for a hundred talents [That is, about 3 1/3 tons (about 3.4 metric tons); also in verse 9] of silver.

2Ch. 25:7 But a man of God came to him and said, “O king, these troops from Israel must not march with you, for the LORD is not with Israel — not with any of the people of Ephraim.

2Ch. 25:8 Even if you go and fight courageously in battle, God will overthrow you before the enemy, for God has the power to help or to overthrow.”

2Ch. 25:9 Amaziah asked the man of God, “But what about the hundred talents I paid for these Israelite troops?” The man of God replied, “The LORD can give you much more than that.”

2Ch. 25:10 So Amaziah dismissed the troops who had come to him from Ephraim and sent them home. They were furious with Judah and left for home in a great rage.
Amaziah then marshalled his strength and led his army to the Valley of Salt, where he killed ten thousand men of Seir.

The army of Judah also captured ten thousand men alive, took them to the top of a cliff and threw them down so that all were dashed to pieces.

Meanwhile the troops that Amaziah had sent back and had not allowed to take part in the war raided Judean towns from Samaria to Beth Horon. They killed three thousand people and carried off great quantities of plunder.

When Amaziah returned from slaughtering the Edomites, he brought back the gods of the people of Seir. He set them up as his own gods, bowed down to them and burned sacrifices to them.

The anger of the LORD burned against Amaziah, and he sent a prophet to him, who said, “Why do you consult this people’s gods, which could not save their own people from your hand?”

While he was still speaking, the king said to him, “Have we appointed you an adviser to the king? Stop! Why be struck down?” So the prophet stopped but said, “I know that God has determined to destroy you, because you have done this and have not listened to my counsel.”

After Amaziah king of Judah consulted his advisers, he sent this challenge to Jehoash [Hebrew Joash, a variant of Jehoash; also in verses 18, 21, 23 and 25] son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, king of Israel: “Come, meet me face to face.”

But Jehoash king of Israel replied to Amaziah king of Judah, “A thistle in Lebanon sent a message to a cedar in Lebanon, ‘Give your daughter to my son in marriage.’ Then a wild beast in Lebanon came along and trampled the thistle underfoot.

You say to yourself that you have defeated Edom, and now you are arrogant and proud. But stay at home! Why ask for trouble and cause your own downfall and that of Judah also?”
Amaziah, however, would not listen, for God so worked that he might hand them over to Jehoash, because they sought the gods of Edom.

So Jehoash king of Israel attacked. He and Amaziah king of Judah faced each other at Beth Shemesh in Judah.

Jehoash king of Israel captured Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash, the son of Ahaziah, [Hebrew Jehoahaz, a variant of Ahaziah] at Beth Shemesh. Then Jehoash brought him to Jerusalem and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the Ephraim Gate to the Corner Gate — a section about six hundred feet [Hebrew four hundred cubits (about 180 metres)] long.

He took all the gold and silver and all the articles found in the temple of God that had been in the care of Obed-Edom, together with the palace treasures and the hostages, and returned to Samaria.

Amaziah son of Joash king of Judah lived for fifteen years after the death of Jehoash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel.

As for the other events of Amaziah’s reign, from beginning to end, are they not written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel?

From the time that Amaziah turned away from following the LORD, they conspired against him in Jerusalem and he fled to Lachish, but they sent men after him to Lachish and killed him there.

He was brought back by horse and was buried with his fathers in the City of Judah.
Then all the people of Judah took Uzziah, [Also called Azariah] who was sixteen years old, and made him king in place of his father Amaziah.

He was the one who rebuilt Elath and restored it to Judah after Amaziah rested with his fathers.

Uzziah was sixteen years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for fifty-two years. His mother’s name was Jecoliah; she was from Jerusalem.

He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, just as his father Amaziah had done.

He sought God during the days of Zechariah, who instructed him in the fear [Many Hebrew manuscripts, Septuagint and Syriac; other Hebrew manuscripts vision] of God. As long as he sought the LORD, God gave him success.

He went to war against the Philistines and broke down the walls of Gath, Jabneh and Ashdod. He then rebuilt towns near Ashdod and elsewhere among the Philistines.

God helped him against the Philistines and against the Arabs who lived in Gur Baal and against the Meunites.

The Ammonites brought tribute to Uzziah, and his fame spread as far as the border of Egypt, because he had become very powerful.

Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the Corner Gate, at the Valley Gate and at the angle of the wall, and he fortified them.

He also built towers in the desert and dug many cisterns, because he had much livestock in the foothills and in the plain. He had people working his fields and vineyards in the hills and in the fertile lands, for he loved the soil.

Uzziah had a well-trained army, ready to go out by divisions according to their numbers as mustered by Jeiel the secretary.
and Maaseiah the officer under the direction of Hananiah, one of the royal officials.

2Ch. 26:12 The total number of family leaders over the fighting men was 2,600.

2Ch. 26:13 Under their command was an army of 307,500 men trained for war, a powerful force to support the king against his enemies.

2Ch. 26:14 Uzziah provided shields, spears, helmets, coats of armour, bows and slingstones for the entire army.

2Ch. 26:15 In Jerusalem he made machines designed by skilful men for use on the towers and on the corner defences to shoot arrows and hurl large stones. His fame spread far and wide, for he was greatly helped until he became powerful.

2Ch. 26:16 But after Uzziah became powerful, his pride led to his downfall. He was unfaithful to the LORD his God, and entered the temple of the LORD to burn incense on the altar of incense.

2Ch. 26:17 Azariah the priest with eighty other courageous priests of the LORD followed him in.

2Ch. 26:18 They confronted him and said, “It is not right for you, Uzziah, to burn incense to the LORD. That is for the priests, the descendants of Aaron, who have been consecrated to burn incense. Leave the sanctuary, for you have been unfaithful; and you will not be honoured by the LORD God.”

2Ch. 26:19 Uzziah, who had a censer in his hand ready to burn incense, became angry. While he was raging at the priests in their presence before the incense altar in the LORD’s temple, leprosy [The Hebrew word was used for various diseases affecting the skin — not necessarily leprosy; also in verses 20, 21 and 23.] broke out on his forehead.

2Ch. 26:20 When Azariah the chief priest and all the other priests looked at him, they saw that he had leprosy on his forehead, so they hurried him out. Indeed, he himself was eager to leave, because the LORD had afflicted him.
2Ch. 26:21  King Uzziah had leprosy until the day he died. He lived in a separate house — [Or in a house where he was relieved of responsibilities] leprous, and excluded from the temple of the LORD. Jotham his son had charge of the palace and governed the people of the land.

2Ch. 26:22  The other events of Uzziah’s reign, from beginning to end, are recorded by the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz.

2Ch. 26:23  Uzziah rested with his fathers and was buried near them in a field for burial that belonged to the kings, for people said, “He had leprosy.” And Jotham his son succeeded him as king.

CHAPTER 27

2Ch. 27:1  Jotham was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for sixteen years. His mother’s name was Jerusha daughter of Zadok.

2Ch. 27:2  He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, just as his father Uzziah had done, but unlike him he did not enter the temple of the LORD. The people, however, continued their corrupt practices.

2Ch. 27:3  Jotham rebuilt the Upper Gate of the temple of the LORD and did extensive work on the wall at the hill of Ophel.

2Ch. 27:4  He built towns in the Judean hills and forts and towers in the wooded areas.

2Ch. 27:5  Jotham made war on the king of the Ammonites and conquered them. That year the Ammonites paid him a hundred talents [That is, about 3 1/3 tons (about 3.4 metric tons)] of silver, ten thousand cors [That is, probably about 60,500 bushels (about 2,200 kilolitres)] of wheat and ten thousand cors of barley. The Ammonites brought him the same amount also in the second and third years.

2Ch. 27:6  Jotham grew powerful because he walked steadfastly before the LORD his God.
2Ch. 27:7 The other events in Jotham’s reign, including all his wars and the other things he did, are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

2Ch. 27:8 He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for sixteen years.

2Ch. 27:9 Jotham rested with his fathers and was buried in the City of David. And Ahaz his son succeeded him as king.

CHAPTER 28

2Ch. 28:1 Ahaz was twenty years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for sixteen years. Unlike David his father, he did not do what was right in the eyes of the LORD.

2Ch. 28:2 He walked in the ways of the kings of Israel and also made cast idols for worshipping the Baals.

2Ch. 28:3 He burned sacrifices in the Valley of Ben Hinnom and sacrificed his sons in the fire, following the detestable ways of the nations that the LORD had driven out before the Israelites.

2Ch. 28:4 He offered sacrifices and burned incense at the high places, on the hilltops and under every spreading tree.

2Ch. 28:5 Therefore the LORD his God handed him over to the king of Aram. The Arameans defeated him and took many of his people as prisoners and brought them to Damascus. He was also given into the hands of the king of Israel, who inflicted heavy casualties on him.

2Ch. 28:6 In one day Pekah son of Remaliah killed a hundred and twenty thousand soldiers in Judah — because Judah had forsaken the LORD, the God of their fathers.

2Ch. 28:7 Zicri, an Ephraimite warrior, killed Maaseiah the king’s son, Azrikam the officer in charge of the palace, and Elkanah, second to the king.
The Israelites took captive from their kinsmen two hundred thousand wives, sons and daughters. They also took a great deal of plunder, which they carried back to Samaria.

But a prophet of the LORD named Oded was there, and he went out to meet the army when it returned to Samaria. He said to them, “Because the LORD, the God of your fathers, was angry with Judah, he gave them into your hand. But you have slaughtered them in a rage that reaches to heaven. And now you intend to make the men and women of Judah and Jerusalem your slaves. But aren’t you also guilty of sins against the LORD your God?”

Now listen to me! Send back your fellow countrymen that you have taken as prisoners, for the LORD’s fierce anger rests on you.”

Then some of the leaders in Ephraim — Azariah son of Jehohanan, Berekiah son of Meshillemoth, Jehizkiah son of Shallum, and Amasa son of Hadlai — confronted those who were arriving from the war. “You must not bring those prisoners here,” they said, “or we will be guilty before the LORD. Do you intend to add to our sin and guilt? For our guilt is already great, and his fierce anger rests on Israel.”

So the soldiers gave up the prisoners and plunder in the presence of the officials and all the assembly.

The men designated by name took the prisoners, and from the plunder they clothed all who were naked. They provided them with clothes and sandals, food and drink, and healing balm. All those who were weak they put on donkeys. So they took them back to their fellow countrymen at Jericho, the City of Palms, and returned to Samaria.

At that time King Ahaz sent to the king [One Hebrew manuscript, Septuagint and Vulgate (see also 2 Kings 16:7); most Hebrew manuscripts kings] of Assyria for help.
The Edomites had again come and attacked Judah and carried away prisoners, while the Philistines had raided towns in the foothills and in the Negev of Judah. They captured and occupied Beth Shemesh, Aijalon and Gederoth, as well as Soco, Timnah and Gimzo, with their surrounding villages.

The LORD had humbled Judah because of Ahaz king of Israel, [That is, Judah, as frequently in 2 Chronicles] for he had promoted wickedness in Judah and had been most unfaithful to the LORD.

Tiglath-Pileser [Hebrew Tilgath-Pilneser, a variant of Tiglath-Pileser] king of Assyria came to him, but gave him trouble instead of help.

Ahaz took some of the things from the temple of the LORD and from the royal palace and from the princes and presented them to the king of Assyria, but that did not help him.

In his time of trouble King Ahaz became even more unfaithful to the LORD.

He offered sacrifices to the gods of Damascus, who had defeated him; for he thought, “Since the gods of the kings of Aram have helped them, I will sacrifice to them so that they will help me.” But they were his downfall and the downfall of all Israel.

Ahaz gathered together the furnishings from the temple of God and took them away. [Or and cut them up] He shut the doors of the LORD’s temple and set up altars at every street corner in Jerusalem.

In every town in Judah he built high places to burn sacrifices to other gods and provoked the LORD, the God of his fathers, to anger.

The other events of his reign and all his ways, from beginning to end, are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.
Ahaz rested with his fathers and was buried in the city of Jerusalem, but he was not placed in the tombs of the kings of Israel. And Hezekiah his son succeeded him as king.

CHAPTER 29

Hezekiah was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for twenty-nine years. His mother’s name was Abijah daughter of Zechariah.

He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, just as his father David had done.

In the first month of the first year of his reign, he opened the doors of the temple of the LORD and repaired them.

He brought in the priests and the Levites, assembled them in the square on the east side and said, “Listen to me, Levites! Consecrate yourselves now and consecrate the temple of the LORD, the God of your fathers. Remove all defilement from the sanctuary.

Our fathers were unfaithful; they did evil in the eyes of the LORD our God and forsook him. They turned their faces away from the LORD’s dwelling-place and turned their backs on him.

They also shut the doors of the portico and put out the lamps. They did not burn incense or present any burnt offerings at the sanctuary to the God of Israel.

Therefore, the anger of the LORD has fallen on Judah and Jerusalem; he has made them an object of dread and horror and scorn, as you can see with your own eyes.

This is why our fathers have fallen by the sword and why our sons and daughters and our wives are in captivity.

Now I intend to make a covenant with the LORD, the God of Israel, so that his fierce anger will turn away from us.
2Ch. 29:11 My sons, do not be negligent now, for the LORD has chosen you to stand before him and serve him, to minister before him and to burn incense.”

2Ch. 29:12 Then these Levites set to work: from the Kohathites, Mahath son of Amasai and Joel son of Azariah; from the Merarites, Kish son of Abdi and Azariah son of Jehallelel; from the Gershonites, Joah son of Zimmah and Eden son of Joah;

2Ch. 29:13 from the descendants of Elizaphan, Shimri and Jeiel; from the descendants of Asaph, Zechariah and Mattaniah;

2Ch. 29:14 from the descendants of Heman, Jehiel and Shimei; from the descendants of Jeduthun, Shemaiah and Uzziel.

2Ch. 29:15 When they had assembled their brothers and consecrated themselves, they went in to purify the temple of the LORD, as the king had ordered, following the word of the LORD.

2Ch. 29:16 The priests went into the sanctuary of the LORD to purify it. They brought out to the courtyard of the LORD’s temple everything unclean that they found in the temple of the LORD. The Levites took it and carried it out to the Kidron Valley.

2Ch. 29:17 They began the consecration on the first day of the first month, and by the eighth day of the month they reached the portico of the LORD. For eight more days they consecrated the temple of the LORD itself, finishing in the sixteenth day of the first month.

2Ch. 29:18 Then they went in to King Hezekiah and reported: “We have purified the entire temple of the LORD, the altar of burnt offering with all its utensils, and the table for setting out the consecrated bread, with all its articles.

2Ch. 29:19 We have prepared and consecrated all the articles that King Ahaz removed in his unfaithfulness while he was king. They are now in front of the LORD’s altar.”

2Ch. 29:20 Early the next morning King Hezekiah gathered the city officials together and went up to the temple of the LORD.
They brought seven bulls, seven rams, seven male lambs and seven male goats as a sin offering for the kingdom, for the sanctuary and for Judah. The king commanded the priests, the descendants of Aaron, to offer these on the altar of the LORD.

So they slaughtered the bulls, and the priests took the blood and sprinkled it on the altar; next they slaughtered the rams and sprinkled their blood on the altar; then they slaughtered the lambs and sprinkled their blood on the altar.

The goats for the sin offering were brought before the king and the assembly, and they laid their hands on them.

The priests then slaughtered the goats and presented their blood on the altar for a sin offering to atone for all Israel, because the king had ordered the burnt offering and the sin offering for all Israel.

He stationed the Levites in the temple of the LORD with cymbals, harps and lyres in the way prescribed by David and Gad the king’s seer and Nathan the prophet; this was commanded by the LORD through his prophets.

So the Levites stood ready with David’s instruments, and the priests with their trumpets.

Hezekiah gave the order to sacrifice the burnt offering on the altar. As the offering began, singing to the LORD began also, accompanied by trumpets and the instruments of David king of Israel.

The whole assembly bowed in worship, while the singers sang and the trumpeters played. All this continued until the sacrifice of the burnt offering was completed.

When the offerings were finished, the king and everyone present with him knelt down and worshipped.

King Hezekiah and his officials ordered the Levites to praise the LORD with the words of David and of Asaph the seer. So they sang praises with gladness and bowed their heads and worshipped.
Then Hezekiah said, “You have now dedicated yourselves to the LORD. Come and bring sacrifices and thank-offerings to the temple of the LORD.” So the assembly brought sacrifices and thank-offerings, and all whose hearts were willing brought burnt offerings.

The number of burnt offerings the assembly brought was seventy bulls, a hundred rams and two hundred male lambs — all of them for burnt offerings to the LORD.

The animals consecrated as sacrifices amounted to six hundred bulls and three thousand sheep and goats.

The priests, however, were too few to skin all the burnt offerings; so their kinsmen the Levites helped them until the task was finished and until other priests had been consecrated, for the Levites had been more conscientious in consecrating themselves than the priests had been.

There were burnt offerings in abundance, together with the fat of the fellowship offerings [Traditionally peace offerings] and the drink offerings that accompanied the burnt offerings. So the service of the temple of the LORD was re-established.

Hezekiah and all the people rejoiced at what God had brought about for his people, because it was done so quickly.

CHAPTER 30

Hezekiah sent word to all Israel and Judah and also wrote letters to Ephraim and Manasseh, inviting them to come to the temple of the LORD in Jerusalem and celebrate the Passover to the LORD, the God of Israel.

The king and his officials and the whole assembly in Jerusalem decided to celebrate the Passover in the second month.

They had not been able to celebrate it at the regular time because not enough priests had consecrated themselves and the people had not assembled in Jerusalem.
The plan seemed right both to the king and to the whole assembly.

They decided to send a proclamation throughout Israel, from Beersheba to Dan, calling the people to come to Jerusalem and celebrate the Passover to the LORD, the God of Israel. It had not been celebrated in large numbers according to what was written.

At the king’s command, couriers went throughout Israel and Judah with letters from the king and from his officials, which read: “People of Israel, return to the LORD, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Israel, that he may return to you who are left, who have escaped from the hand of the kings of Assyria.

Do not be like your fathers and brothers, who were unfaithful to the LORD, the God of their fathers, so that he made them an object of horror, as you see.

Do not be stiff-necked, as your fathers were; submit to the LORD. Come to the sanctuary, which he has consecrated for ever. Serve the LORD your God, so that his fierce anger will turn away from you.

If you return to the LORD, then your brothers and your children will be shown compassion by their captors and will come back to this land, for the LORD your God is gracious and compassionate. He will not turn his face from you if you return to him.”

The couriers went from town to town in Ephraim and Manasseh, as far as Zebulun, but the people scorned and ridiculed them.

Nevertheless, some men of Asher, Manasseh and Zebulun humbled themselves and went to Jerusalem.

Also in Judah the hand of God was on the people to give them unity of mind to carry out what the king and his officials had ordered, following the word of the LORD.
A very large crowd of people assembled in Jerusalem to celebrate the Feast of Unleavened Bread in the second month.

They removed the altars in Jerusalem and cleared away the incense altars and threw them into the Kidron Valley.

They slaughtered the Passover lamb on the fourteenth day of the second month. The priests and the Levites were ashamed and consecrated themselves and brought burnt offerings to the temple of the LORD.

Then they took up their regular positions as prescribed in the Law of Moses the man of God. The priests sprinkled the blood handed to them by the Levites.

Since many in the crowd had not consecrated themselves, the Levites had to kill the Passover lambs for all those who were not ceremonially clean and could not consecrate their lambs to the LORD.

Although most of the many people who came from Ephraim, Manasseh, Issachar and Zebulun had not purified themselves, yet they ate the Passover, contrary to what was written. But Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, “May the LORD, who is good, pardon everyone who sets his heart on seeking God — the LORD, the God of his fathers — even if he is not clean according to the rules of the sanctuary.”

And the LORD heard Hezekiah and healed the people.

The Israelites who were present in Jerusalem celebrated the Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days with great rejoicing, while the Levites and priests sang to the LORD every day, accompanied by the LORD’s instruments of praise. [Or priests praised the LORD every day with resounding instruments belonging to the LORD.]

Hezekiah spoke encouragingly to all the Levites, who showed good understanding of the service of the LORD. For the seven days they ate their assigned portion and offered fellowship offerings [Traditionally peace offerings] and praised the LORD, the God of their fathers.

2Ch. 30:23 The whole assembly then agreed to celebrate the festival seven more days; so for another seven days they celebrated joyfully.

2Ch. 30:24 Hezekiah king of Judah provided a thousand bulls and seven thousand sheep and goats for the assembly, and the officials provided them with a thousand bulls and ten thousand sheep and goats. A great number of priests consecrated themselves.

2Ch. 30:25 The entire assembly of Judah rejoiced, along with the priests and Levites and all who had assembled from Israel, including the aliens who had come from Israel and those who lived in Judah.

2Ch. 30:26 There was great joy in Jerusalem, for since the days of Solomon son of David king of Israel there had been nothing like this in Jerusalem.

2Ch. 30:27 The priests and the Levites stood to bless the people, and God heard them, for their prayer reached heaven, his holy dwelling-place.

CHAPTER 31

2Ch. 31:1 When all this had ended, the Israelites who were there went out to the towns of Judah, smashed the sacred stones and cut down the Asherah poles. They destroyed the high places and the altars throughout Judah and Benjamin and in Ephraim and Manasseh. After they had destroyed all of them, the Israelites returned to their own towns and to their own property.

2Ch. 31:2 Hezekiah assigned the priests and Levites to divisions — each of them according to their duties as priests or Levites — to offer burnt offerings and fellowship offerings, [Traditionally peace offerings] to minister, to give thanks and to sing praises at the gates of the LORD’s dwelling.
The king contributed from his own possessions for the morning and evening burnt offerings and for the burnt offerings on the Sabbaths, New Moons and appointed feasts as written in the Law of the LORD.

He ordered the people living in Jerusalem to give the portion due to the priests and Levites so that they could devote themselves to the Law of the LORD.

As soon as the order went out, the Israelites generously gave the firstfruits of their grain, new wine, oil and honey and all that the fields produced. They brought a great amount, a tithe of everything.

The men of Israel and Judah who lived in the towns of Judah also brought a tithe of their herds and flocks and a tithe of the holy things dedicated to the LORD their God, and they piled them in heaps.

They began doing this in the third month and finished in the seventh month.

When Hezekiah and his officials came and saw the heaps, they praised the LORD and blessed his people Israel.

Hezekiah asked the priests and Levites about the heaps; and Azariah the chief priest, from the family of Zadok, answered, “Since the people began to bring their contributions to the temple of the LORD, we have had enough to eat and plenty to spare, because the LORD has blessed his people, and this great amount is left over.”

Hezekiah gave orders to prepare storerooms in the temple of the LORD, and this was done.

Then they faithfully brought in the contributions, tithes and dedicated gifts. Conaniah, a Levite, was in charge of these things, and his brother Shimeai was next in rank.

Jehiel, Azaziah, Nahath, Asahel, Jerimoth, Jozabad, Eliel, Ismakiah, Mahath and Benaiah were supervisors under Conaniah and Shimeai his brother, by appointment of King
Hezekiah and Azariah the official in charge of the temple of God.

2Ch. 31:14 Kore son of Imnah the Levite, keeper of the East Gate, was in charge of the freewill offerings given to God, distributing the contributions made to the LORD and also the consecrated gifts.

2Ch. 31:15 Eden, Miniamin, Jeshua, Shemaiah, Amariah and Shecaniah assisted him faithfully in the towns of the priests, distributing to their fellow priests according to their divisions, old and young alike.

2Ch. 31:16 In addition, they distributed to the males three years old or more whose names were in the genealogical records — all who would enter the temple of the LORD to perform the daily duties of their various tasks, according to their responsibilities and their divisions.

2Ch. 31:17 And they distributed to the priests enrolled by their families in the genealogical records and likewise to the Levites twenty years old or more, according to their responsibilities and their divisions.

2Ch. 31:18 They included all the little ones, the wives, and the sons and daughters of the whole community listed in these genealogical records. For they were faithful in consecrating themselves.

2Ch. 31:19 As for the priests, the descendants of Aaron, who lived on the farm lands around their towns or in any other towns, men were designated by name to distribute portions to every male among them and to all who were recorded in the genealogies of the Levites.

2Ch. 31:20 This is what Hezekiah did throughout Judah, doing what was good and right and faithful before the LORD his God.

2Ch. 31:21 In everything that he undertook in the service of God’s temple and in obedience to the law and the commands, he sought his God and worked wholeheartedly. And so he prospered.
After all that Hezekiah had so faithfully done, Sennacherib king of Assyria came and invaded Judah. He laid siege to the fortified cities, thinking to conquer them for himself.

When Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib had come and that he intended to make war on Jerusalem, he consulted with his officials and military staff about blocking off the water from the springs outside the city, and they helped him.

A large force of men assembled, and they blocked all the springs and the stream that flowed through the land. “Why should the kings [Hebrew; Septuagint and Syriac king] of Assyria come and find plenty of water?” they said.

Then he worked hard repairing all the broken sections of the wall and building towers on it. He built another wall outside that one and reinforced the supporting terraces [Or the Millo] of the City of David. He also made large numbers of weapons and shields.

He appointed military officers over the people and assembled them before him in the square at the city gate and encouraged them with these words:

“Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid or discouraged because of the king of Assyria and the vast army with him, for there is a greater power with us than with him.

With him is only the arm of flesh, but with us is the LORD our God to help us and to fight our battles.” And the people gained confidence from what Hezekiah the king of Judah said.

Later, when Sennacherib king of Assyria and all his forces were laying siege to Lachish, he sent his officers to Jerusalem with this message for Hezekiah king of Judah and for all the people of Judah who were there:
2Ch. 32:10 “This is what Sennacherib king of Assyria says: On what are you basing your confidence, that you remain in Jerusalem under siege?

2Ch. 32:11 When Hezekiah says, ‘The LORD our God will save us from the hand of the king of Assyria,’ he is misleading you, to let you die of hunger and thirst.

2Ch. 32:12 Did not Hezekiah himself remove this god’s high places and altars, saying to Judah and Jerusalem, ‘You must worship before one altar and burn sacrifices on it’?

2Ch. 32:13 “Do you not know what I and my fathers have done to all the peoples of the other lands? Were the gods of those nations ever able to deliver their land from my hand?

2Ch. 32:14 Who of all the gods of these nations that my fathers destroyed has been able to save his people from me? How then can your god deliver you from my hand?”

2Ch. 32:15 Now do not let Hezekiah deceive you and mislead you like this. Do not believe him, for no god of any nation or kingdom has been able to deliver his people from my hand or the hand of my fathers. How much less will your god deliver you from my hand!”

2Ch. 32:16 Sennacherib’s officers spoke further against the LORD God and against his servant Hezekiah.

2Ch. 32:17 The king also wrote letters insulting the LORD, the God of Israel, and saying this against him: “Just as the gods of the peoples of the other lands did not rescue their people from my hand, so the god of Hezekiah will not rescue his people from my hand.”

2Ch. 32:18 Then they called out in Hebrew to the people of Jerusalem who were on the wall, to terrify them and make them afraid in order to capture the city.

2Ch. 32:19 They spoke about the God of Jerusalem as they did about the gods of the other peoples of the world — the work of men’s hands.
2Ch. 32:20  King Hezekiah and the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz cried out in prayer to heaven about this.

2Ch. 32:21  And the LORD sent an angel, who annihilated all the fighting men and the leaders and officers in the camp of the Assyrian king. So he withdrew to his own land in disgrace. And when he went into the temple of his god, some of his sons cut him down with the sword.

2Ch. 32:22  So the LORD saved Hezekiah and the people of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib king of Assyria and from the hand of all others. He took care of them [Hebrew; Septuagint and Vulgate He gave them rest] on every side.

2Ch. 32:23  Many brought offerings to Jerusalem for the LORD and valuable gifts for Hezekiah king of Judah. From then on he was highly regarded by all the nations.

2Ch. 32:24  In those days Hezekiah became ill and was at the point of death. He prayed to the LORD, who answered him and gave him a miraculous sign.

2Ch. 32:25  But Hezekiah’s heart was proud and he did not respond to the kindness shown him; therefore the LORD’s wrath was on him and on Judah and Jerusalem.

2Ch. 32:26  Then Hezekiah repented of the pride of his heart, as did the people of Jerusalem; therefore the LORD’s wrath did not come upon them during the days of Hezekiah.

2Ch. 32:27  Hezekiah had very great riches and honour, and he made treasuries for his silver and gold and for his precious stones, spices, shields and all kinds of valuables.

2Ch. 32:28  He also made buildings to store the harvest of grain, new wine and oil; and he made stalls for various kinds of cattle, and pens for the flocks.

2Ch. 32:29  He built villages and acquired great numbers of flocks and herds, for God had given him very great riches.

2Ch. 32:30 It was Hezekiah who blocked the upper outlet of the Gihon spring and channelled the water down to the west side of the City of David. He succeeded in everything he undertook.

2Ch. 32:31 But when envoys were sent by the rulers of Babylon to ask him about the miraculous sign that had occurred in the land, God left him to test him and to know everything that was in his heart.

2Ch. 32:32 The other events of Hezekiah’s reign and his acts of devotion are written in the vision of the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

2Ch. 32:33 Hezekiah rested with his fathers and was buried on the hill where the tombs of David’s descendants are. All Judah and the people of Jerusalem honoured him when he died. And Manasseh his son succeeded him as king.

CHAPTER 33

2Ch. 33:1 Manasseh was twelve years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for fifty-five years.

2Ch. 33:2 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, following the detestable practices of the nations the LORD had driven out before the Israelites.

2Ch. 33:3 He rebuilt the high places his father Hezekiah had demolished; he also erected altars to the Baals and made Asherah poles. He bowed down to all the starry hosts and worshipped them.

2Ch. 33:4 He built altars in the temple of the LORD, of which the LORD had said, “My Name will remain in Jerusalem for ever.”

2Ch. 33:5 In both courts of the temple of the LORD, he built altars to all the starry hosts.

2Ch. 33:6 He sacrificed his sons in [Or He made his sons pass through] the fire in the Valley of Ben Hinnom, practised sorcery, divination and witchcraft, and consulted mediums and spiritists. He did much evil in the eyes of the LORD, provoking him to anger.

2Ch. 33:7 He took the carved image he had made and put it in God’s temple, of which God had said to David and to his son Solomon, “In this temple and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will put my Name forever.”

2Ch. 33:8 I will not again make the feet of the Israelites leave the land I assigned to your forefathers, if only they will be careful to do everything that I commanded them concerning all the laws, decrees and ordinances given through Moses.”

2Ch. 33:9 But Manasseh led Judah and the people of Jerusalem astray, so that they did more evil than the nations the LORD had destroyed before the Israelites.

2Ch. 33:10 The LORD spoke to Manasseh and his people, but they paid no attention.

2Ch. 33:11 So the LORD brought against them the army commanders of the king of Assyria, who took Manasseh prisoner, put a hook in his nose, bound him with bronze shackles and took him to Babylon.

2Ch. 33:12 In his distress he sought the favour of the LORD his God and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers.

2Ch. 33:13 And when he prayed to him, the LORD was moved by his entreaty and listened to his plea; so he brought him back to Jerusalem and to his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that the LORD is God.

2Ch. 33:14 Afterwards he rebuilt the outer wall of the City of David, west of the Gihon spring in the valley, as far as the entrance of the Fish Gate and encircling the hill of Ophel; he also made it much higher. He stationed military commanders in all the fortified cities in Judah.

2Ch. 33:15 He got rid of the foreign gods and removed the image from the temple of the LORD, as well as all the altars he had built on the temple hill and in Jerusalem; and he threw them out of the city.

2Ch. 33:16 Then he restored the altar of the LORD and sacrificed fellowship offerings [Traditionally peace offerings] and thank-offerings on it, and told Judah to serve the LORD, the God of Israel.

2Ch. 33:17 The people, however, continued to sacrifice at the high places, but only to the LORD their God.

2Ch. 33:18 The other events of Manasseh’s reign, including his prayer to his God and the words the seers spoke to him in the name of the LORD, the God of Israel, are written in the annals of the kings of Israel. [That is, Judah, as frequently in 2 Chronicles]

2Ch. 33:19 His prayer and how God was moved by his entreaty, as well as all his sins and unfaithfulness, and the sites where he built high places and set up Asherah poles and idols before he humbled himself — all are written in the records of the seers. [One Hebrew manuscript and Septuagint; most Hebrew manuscripts of Hozai]

2Ch. 33:20 Manasseh rested with his fathers and was buried in his palace. And Amon his son succeeded him as king.

2Ch. 33:21 Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for two years.

2Ch. 33:22 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, as his father Manasseh had done. Amon worshipped and offered sacrifices to all the idols Manasseh had made.

2Ch. 33:23 But unlike his father Manasseh, he did not humble himself before the LORD; Amon increased his guilt.

2Ch. 33:24 Amon’s officials conspired against him and assassinated him in his palace.

2Ch. 33:25 Then the people of the land killed all who had plotted against King Amon, and they made Josiah his son king in his place.
Josiah was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for thirty-one years.

He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD and walked in the ways of his father David, not turning aside to the right or to the left.

In the eighth year of his reign, while he was still young, he began to seek the God of his father David. In his twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem of high places, Asherah poles, carved idols and cast images.

Under his direction the altars of the Baals were torn down; he cut to pieces the incense altars that were above them, and smashed the Asherah poles, the idols and the images. These he broke to pieces and scattered over the graves of those who had sacrificed to them.

He burned the bones of the priests on their altars, and so he purged Judah and Jerusalem.

In the towns of Manasseh, Ephraim and Simeon, as far as Naphtali, and in the ruins around them, he tore down the altars and the Asherah poles and crushed the idols to powder and cut to pieces all the incense altars throughout Israel. Then he went back to Jerusalem.

In the eighteenth year of Josiah’s reign, to purify the land and the temple, he sent Shaphan son of Azaliah and Maaseiah the ruler of the city, with Joah son of Joahaz, the recorder, to repair the temple of the LORD his God.

They went to Hilkiah the high priest and gave him the money that had been brought into the temple of God, which the Levites who were the doorkeepers had collected from the people of Manasseh, Ephraim and the entire remnant of Israel and from all the people of Judah and Benjamin and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
Then they entrusted it to the men appointed to supervise the work on the LORD’s temple. These men paid the workers who repaired and restored the temple.

They also gave money to the carpenters and builders to purchase dressed stone, and timber for joists and beams for the buildings that the kings of Judah had allowed to fall into ruin.

The men did the work faithfully. Over them to direct them were Jahath and Obadiah, Levites descended from Merari, and Zechariah and Meshullam, descended from Kohath. The Levites — all who were skilled in playing musical instruments — had charge of the labourers and supervised all the workers from job to job. Some of the Levites were secretaries, scribes and doorkeepers.

While they were bringing out the money that had been taken into the temple of the LORD, Hilkiah the priest found the Book of the Law of the LORD that had been given through Moses.

Hilkiah said to Shaphan the secretary, “I have found the Book of the Law in the temple of the LORD.” He gave it to Shaphan.

Then Shaphan took the book to the king and reported to him: “Your officials are doing everything that has been committed to them.

Then Shaphan the secretary informed the king, “Hilkiah the priest has given me a book.” And Shaphan read from it in the presence of the king.

When the king heard the words of the Law, he tore his robes.
He gave these orders to Hilkiah, Ahikam son of Shaphan, Abdon son of Micah, [Also called Acbor son of Micaiah] Shaphan the secretary and Asaiah the king’s attendant:

“Go and enquire of the LORD for me and for the remnant in Israel and Judah about what is written in this book that has been found. Great is the LORD’s anger that is poured out on us because our fathers have not kept the word of the LORD; they have not acted in accordance with all that is written in this book.”

Hilkiah and those the king had sent with him [One Hebrew manuscript, Vulgate and Syriac; most Hebrew manuscripts do not have had sent with him.] went to speak to the prophetess Huldah, who was the wife of Shallum son of Tokhath, [Also called Tikvah] the son of Hasrah, [Also called Harhas] keeper of the wardrobe. She lived in Jerusalem, in the Second District.

She said to them, ‘This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Tell the man who sent you to me,

`This is what the LORD says: I am going to bring disaster on this place and its people — all the curses written in the book that has been read in the presence of the king of Judah.

Because they have forsaken me and burned incense to other gods and provoked me to anger by all that their hands have made, [Or by everything they have done] my anger will be poured out on this place and will not be quenched.’

Tell the king of Judah, who sent you to enquire of the LORD, `This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says concerning the words you heard:

Because your heart was responsive and you humbled yourself before God when you heard what he spoke against this place and its people, and because you humbled yourself before me and tore your robes and wept in my presence, I have heard you, declares the LORD.
Now I will gather you to your fathers, and you will be buried in peace. Your eyes will not see all the disaster I am going to bring on this place and on those who live here.’” So they took her answer back to the king.

Then the king called together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.

He went up to the temple of the LORD with the men of Judah, the people of Jerusalem, the priests and the Levites — all the people from the least to the greatest. He read in their hearing all the words of the Book of the Covenant, which had been found in the temple of the LORD.

The king stood by his pillar and renewed the covenant in the presence of the LORD — to follow the LORD and keep his commands, regulations and decrees with all his heart and all his soul, and to obey the words of the covenant written in this book.

Then he made everyone in Jerusalem and Benjamin pledge themselves to it; the people of Jerusalem did this in accordance with the covenant of God, the God of their fathers.

Josiah removed all the detestable idols from all the territory belonging to the Israelites, and he made all who were present in Israel serve the LORD their God. As long as he lived, they did not fail to follow the LORD, the God of their fathers.

CHAPTER 35

Josiah celebrated the Passover to the LORD in Jerusalem, and the Passover lamb was slaughtered on the fourteenth day of the first month.

He appointed the priests to their duties and encouraged them in the service of the LORD’s temple.

He said to the Levites, who instructed all Israel and who had been consecrated to the LORD: “Put the sacred ark in the temple that Solomon son of David king of Israel built. It is not to be carried about on your shoulders. Now serve the LORD your God and his people Israel.

2Ch. 35:4 Prepare yourselves by families in your divisions, according to the directions written by David king of Israel and by his son Solomon.

2Ch. 35:5 “Stand in the holy place with a group of Levites for each subdivision of the families of your fellow countrymen, the lay people.

2Ch. 35:6 Slaughter the Passover lambs, consecrate yourselves and prepare the lambs for your fellow countrymen, doing what the LORD commanded through Moses.”

2Ch. 35:7 Josiah provided for all the lay people who were there a total of thirty thousand sheep and goats for the Passover offerings, and also three thousand cattle — all from the king’s own possessions.

2Ch. 35:8 His officials also contributed voluntarily to the people and the priests and Levites. Hilkiah, Zechariah and Jehiel, the administrators of God’s temple, gave the priests two thousand six hundred Passover offerings and three hundred cattle.

2Ch. 35:9 Also Conaniah along with Shemaiah and Nethanel, his brothers, and Hashabiah, Jeiel and Jozabad, the leaders of the Levites, provided five thousand Passover offerings and five hundred head of cattle for the Levites.

2Ch. 35:10 The service was arranged and the priests stood in their places with the Levites in their divisions as the king had ordered.

2Ch. 35:11 The Passover lambs were slaughtered, and the priests sprinkled the blood handed to them, while the Levites skinned the animals.

2Ch. 35:12 They set aside the burnt offerings to give them to the subdivisions of the families of the people to offer to the LORD, as is written in the Book of Moses. They did the same with the cattle.
They roasted the Passover animals over the fire as prescribed, and boiled the holy offerings in pots, cauldrons and pans and served them quickly to all the people.

After this, they made preparations for themselves and for the priests, because the priests, the descendants of Aaron, were sacrificing the burnt offerings and the fat portions until nightfall. So the Levites made preparations for themselves and for the Aaronic priests.

The musicians, the descendants of Asaph, were in the places prescribed by David, Asaph, Heman and Jeduthun the king’s seer. The gatekeepers at each gate did not need to leave their posts, because their fellow Levites made the preparations for them.

So at that time the entire service of the LORD was carried out for the celebration of the Passover and the offering of burnt offerings on the altar of the LORD, as King Josiah had ordered.

The Israelites who were present celebrated the Passover at that time and observed the Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days.

The Passover had not been observed like this in Israel since the days of the prophet Samuel; and none of the kings of Israel had ever celebrated such a Passover as did Josiah, with the priests, the Levites and all Judah and Israel who were there with the people of Jerusalem.

This Passover was celebrated in the eighteenth year of Josiah’s reign.

After all this, when Josiah had set the temple in order, Neco king of Egypt went up to fight at Carchemish on the Euphrates, and Josiah marched out to meet him in battle.

But Neco sent messengers to him saying, “What quarrel is there between you and me, O king of Judah? It is not you I am attacking at this time, but the house with which I am at war. God has told me to hurry; so stop opposing God, who is with me, or he will destroy you.”

2Ch. 35:22 Josiah, however, would not turn away from him, but disguised himself to engage him in battle. He would not listen to what Neco had said at God’s command but went to fight him on the plain of Megiddo.

2Ch. 35:23 Archers shot King Josiah, and he told his officers, “Take me away; I am badly wounded.”

2Ch. 35:24 So they took him out of his chariot, put him in the other chariot he had and brought him to Jerusalem, where he died. He was buried in the tombs of his fathers, and all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for him.

2Ch. 35:25 Jeremiah composed laments for Josiah, and to this day all the men and women singers commemorate Josiah in the laments. These became a tradition in Israel and are written in the Laments.

2Ch. 35:26 The other events of Josiah’s reign and his acts of devotion, according to what is written in the Law of the LORD —

2Ch. 35:27 all the events, from beginning to end, are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

CHAPTER 36

2Ch. 36:1 And the people of the land took Jehoahaz son of Josiah and made him king in Jerusalem in place of his father.

2Ch. 36:2 Jehoahaz [Hebrew Joahaz, a variant of Jehoahaz; also in verse 4] was twenty-three years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for three months.

2Ch. 36:3 The king of Egypt dethroned him in Jerusalem and imposed on Judah a levy of a hundred talents [That is, about 3 1/3 tons (about 3.4 metric tons)] of silver and a talent [That is, about 75 pounds (about 34 kilograms)] of gold.
2Ch. 36:4 The king of Egypt made Eliakim, a brother of Jehoahaz, king over Judah and Jerusalem and changed Eliakim’s name to Jehoiakim. But Neco took Eliakim’s brother Jehoahaz and carried him off to Egypt.

2Ch. 36:5 Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for eleven years. He did evil in the eyes of the LORD his God.

2Ch. 36:6 Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon attacked him and bound him with bronze shackles to take him to Babylon.

2Ch. 36:7 Nebuchadnezzar also took to Babylon articles from the temple of the LORD and put them in his temple [Or palace] there.

2Ch. 36:8 The other events of Jehoiakim’s reign, the detestable things he did and all that was found against him, are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. And Jehoiachin his son succeeded him as king.

2Ch. 36:9 Jehoiachin was eighteen [One Hebrew manuscript, some Septuagint manuscripts and Syriac (see also 2 Kings 24:8); most Hebrew manuscripts eight] years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for three months and ten days. He did evil in the eyes of the LORD.

2Ch. 36:10 In the spring, King Nebuchadnezzar sent for him and brought him to Babylon, together with articles of value from the temple of the LORD, and he made Jehoiachin’s uncle, [Hebrew brother, that is, relative (see 2 Kings 24:17)] Zedekiah, king over Judah and Jerusalem.

2Ch. 36:11 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for eleven years.

2Ch. 36:12 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD his God and did not humble himself before Jeremiah the prophet, who spoke the word of the LORD.

2Ch. 36:13 He also rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him take an oath in God’s name. He became stiff-necked and hardened his heart and would not turn to the LORD, the God of Israel.

2Ch. 36:14 Furthermore, all the leaders of the priests and the people became more and more unfaithful, following all the detestable practices of the nations and defiling the temple of the LORD, which he had consecrated in Jerusalem.

2Ch. 36:15 The LORD, the God of their fathers, sent word to them through his messengers again and again, because he had pity on his people and on his dwelling-place.

2Ch. 36:16 But they mocked God’s messengers, despised his words and scoffed at his prophets until the wrath of the LORD was aroused against his people and there was no remedy.

2Ch. 36:17 He brought up against them the king of the Babylonians, [Or Chaldeans] who killed their young men with the sword in the sanctuary, and spared neither young man nor young woman, old man or aged. God handed all of them over to Nebuchadnezzar.

2Ch. 36:18 He carried to Babylon all the articles from the temple of God, both large and small, and the treasures of the LORD’s temple and the treasures of the king and his officials.

2Ch. 36:19 They set fire to God’s temple and broke down the wall of Jerusalem; they burned all the palaces and destroyed everything of value there.

2Ch. 36:20 He carried into exile to Babylon the remnant who escaped from the sword, and they became servants to him and his sons until the kingdom of Persia came to power.

2Ch. 36:21 The land enjoyed its sabbath rests; all the time of its desolation it rested, until the seventy years were completed in fulfilment of the word of the LORD spoken by Jeremiah.

2Ch. 36:22 In the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, in order to fulfil the word of the LORD spoken by Jeremiah, the LORD moved the heart of Cyrus king of Persia to make a proclamation throughout his realm and to put it in writing:
2Ch. 36:23  “This is what Cyrus king of Persia says: “The LORD, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth and he has appointed me to build a temple for him at Jerusalem in Judah. Anyone of his people among you — may the LORD his God be with him, and let him go up.”“
In the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, in order to fulfil the word of the LORD spoken by Jeremiah, the LORD moved the heart of Cyrus king of Persia to make a proclamation throughout his realm and to put it in writing:

“This is what Cyrus king of Persia says: ‘The LORD, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth and he has appointed me to build a temple for him at Jerusalem in Judah.

Anyone of his people among you — may his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem in Judah and build the temple of the LORD, the God of Israel, the God who is in Jerusalem.’

Then the family heads of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests and Levites — everyone whose heart God had moved — prepared to go up and build the house of the LORD in Jerusalem.

Moreover, King Cyrus brought out the articles belonging to the temple of the LORD, which Nebuchadnezzar had carried away from Jerusalem and had placed in the temple of his god. [Or gods]
Ezr. 1:8  Cyrus king of Persia had them brought by Mithredath the treasurer, who counted them out to Sheshbazzar the prince of Judah.

Ezr. 1:9  This was the inventory: gold dishes 30 silver dishes 1,000 silver pans [The meaning of the Hebrew for this word is uncertain.] 29 gold bowls 30 matching silver bowls 410 other articles 1,000 in all, there were 5,400 articles of gold and of silver. Sheshbazzar brought all these along when the exiles came up from Babylon to Jerusalem.

Ezr. 2:58 The temple servants and the descendants of Solomon 392
Ezr. 2:59 The following came up from the towns of Tel Melah, Tel Harsha, Kerub, Addon and Immer, but they could not show that their families were descended from Israel:

Ezr. 2:60 The descendants of Delaiah, Tobiah and Nekoda 652

Ezr. 2:61 And from among the priests: The descendants of Hobaiah, Hakkoz and Barzillai (a man who had married a daughter of Barzillai the Gileadite and was called by that name).

Ezr. 2:62 These searched for their family records, but they could not find them and so were excluded from the priesthood as unclean.

Ezr. 2:63 The governor ordered them not to eat any of the most sacred food until there was a priest ministering with the Urim and Thummim.

Ezr. 2:64 The whole company numbered 42,360,

Ezr. 2:65 besides their 7,337 menservants and maidservants; and they also had 200 men and women singers.

Ezr. 2:66 They had 736 horses, 245 mules,

Ezr. 2:67 435 camels and 6,720 donkeys.

Ezr. 2:68 When they arrived at the house of the LORD in Jerusalem, some of the heads of the families gave freewill offerings towards the rebuilding of the house of God on its site.

Ezr. 2:69 According to their ability they gave to the treasury for this work 61,000 drachmas [That is, about 1,100 pounds (about 500 kilograms)] of gold, 5,000 minas [That is, about 2-4/5 tons (about 2.9 metric tons)] of silver and 100 priestly garments.

Ezr. 2:70 The priests, the Levites, the singers, the gatekeepers and the temple servants settled in their own towns, along with some of the other people, and the rest of the Israelites settled in their towns.
Ezr. 3:1 When the seventh month came and the Israelites had settled in their towns, the people assembled as one man in Jerusalem.

Ezr. 3:2 Then Jeshua son of Jozadak and his fellow priests and Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and his associates began to build the altar of the God of Israel to sacrifice burnt offerings on it, in accordance with what is written in the Law of Moses the man of God.

Ezr. 3:3 Despite their fear of the peoples around them, they built the altar on its foundation and sacrificed burnt offerings on it to the LORD, both the morning and evening sacrifices.

Ezr. 3:4 Then in accordance with what is written, they celebrated the Feast of Tabernacles with the required number of burnt offerings prescribed for each day.

Ezr. 3:5 After that, they presented the regular burnt offerings, the New Moon sacrifices and the sacrifices for all the appointed sacred feasts of the LORD, as well as those brought as freewill offerings to the LORD.

Ezr. 3:6 On the first day of the seventh month they began to offer burnt offerings to the LORD, though the foundation of the LORD’s temple had not yet been laid.

Ezr. 3:7 Then they gave money to the masons and carpenters, and gave food and drink and oil to the people of Sidon and Tyre, so that they would bring cedar logs by sea from Lebanon to Joppa, as authorised by Cyrus king of Persia.

Ezr. 3:8 In the second month of the second year after their arrival at the house of God in Jerusalem, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, Jeshua son of Jozadak and the rest of their brothers (the priests and the Levites and all who had returned from the captivity to Jerusalem) began the work, appointing Levites twenty years of age and older to supervise the building of the house of the LORD.
Ezr. 3:9  Jeshua and his sons and brothers and Kadmiel and his sons (descendants of Hodaviah) [Hebrew Yehudah, probably a variant of Hodaviah] and the sons of Henadad and their sons and brothers — all Levites — joined together in supervising those working on the house of God.

Ezr. 3:10  When the builders laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, the priests in their vestments and with trumpets, and the Levites (the sons of Asaph) with cymbals, took their places to praise the LORD, as prescribed by David king of Israel.

Ezr. 3:11  With praise and thanksgiving they sang to the LORD: “He is good; his love to Israel endures for ever.” And all the people gave a great shout of praise to the LORD, because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid.

Ezr. 3:12  But many of the older priests and Levites and family heads, who had seen the former temple, wept aloud when they saw the foundation of this temple being laid, while many others shouted for joy.

Ezr. 3:13  No-one could distinguish the sound of the shouts of joy from the sound of weeping, because the people made so much noise. And the sound was heard far away.

CHAPTER 4

Ezr. 4:1  When the enemies of Judah and Benjamin heard that the exiles were building a temple for the LORD, the God of Israel,

Ezr. 4:2  they came to Zerubbabel and to the heads of the families and said, “Let us help you build because, like you, we seek your God and have been sacrificing to him since the time of Esarhaddon king of Assyria, who brought us here.”

Ezr. 4:3  But Zerubbabel, Jeshua and the rest of the heads of the families of Israel answered, “You have no part with us in building a temple to our God. We alone will build it for the LORD, the God of Israel, as King Cyrus, the king of Persia, commanded us.”

Ezr. 4:4 Then the peoples around them set out to discourage the people of Judah and make them afraid to go on building. [Or and troubled them as they built]

Ezr. 4:5 They hired counsellors to work against them and frustrate their plans during the entire reign of Cyrus king of Persia and down to the reign of Darius king of Persia.

Ezr. 4:6 At the beginning of the reign of Xerxes, [Hebrew Ahasuerus, a variant of Xerxes’ Persian name] they lodged an accusation against the people of Judah and Jerusalem.

Ezr. 4:7 And in the days of Artaxerxes king of Persia, Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel and the rest of his associates wrote a letter to Artaxerxes. The letter was written in Aramaic script and in the Aramaic language. [Or written in Aramaic and translated] [The text of Ezra 4:8-6:18 is in Aramaic.]

Ezr. 4:8 Rehum the commanding officer and Shimshai the secretary wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Artaxerxes the king as follows:

Ezr. 4:9 Rehum the commanding officer and Shimshai the secretary, together with the rest of their associates — the judges and officials over the men from Tripolis, Persia, [Or officials, magistrates and governors over the men from] Erech and Babylon, the Elamites of Susa, Ezr. 4:10 and the other people whom the great and honourable Ashurbanipal [Aramaic Osnappar, a variant of Ashurbanipal] deported and settled in the city of Samaria and elsewhere in Trans-Euphrates.

Ezr. 4:11 (This is a copy of the letter they sent him.) To King Artaxerxes, From your servants, the men of Trans-Euphrates:

Ezr. 4:12 The king should know that the Jews who came up to us from you have gone to Jerusalem and are rebuilding that rebellious and wicked city. They are restoring the walls and repairing the foundations.
Ezr. 4:13 Furthermore, the king should know that if this city is built and its walls are restored, no more taxes, tribute or duty will be paid, and the royal revenues will suffer.

Ezr. 4:14 Now since we are under obligation to the palace and it is not proper for us to see the king dishonoured, we are sending this message to inform the king,

Ezr. 4:15 so that a search may be made in the archives of your predecessors. In these records you will find that this city is a rebellious city, troublesome to kings and provinces, a place of rebellion from ancient times. That is why this city was destroyed.

Ezr. 4:16 We inform the king that if this city is built and its walls are restored, you will be left with nothing in Trans-Euphrates.

Ezr. 4:17 The king sent this reply: To Rehum the commanding officer, Shimshai the secretary and the rest of their associates living in Samaria and elsewhere in Trans-Euphrates: Greetings.

Ezr. 4:18 The letter you sent us has been read and translated in my presence.

Ezr. 4:19 I issued an order and a search was made, and it was found that this city has a long history of revolt against kings and has been a place of rebellion and sedition.

Ezr. 4:20 Jerusalem has had powerful kings ruling over the whole of Trans-Euphrates, and taxes, tribute and duty were paid to them.

Ezr. 4:21 Now issue an order to these men to stop work, so that this city will not be rebuilt until I so order.

Ezr. 4:22 Be careful not to neglect this matter. Why let this threat grow, to the detriment of the royal interests?

Ezr. 4:23 As soon as the copy of the letter of King Artaxerxes was read to Rehum and Shimshai the secretary and their associates, they went immediately to the Jews in Jerusalem and compelled them by force to stop.
Ezr. 4:24 Thus the work on the house of God in Jerusalem came to a standstill until the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

CHAPTER 5

Ezr. 5:1 Now Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the prophet, a descendant of Iddo, prophesied to the Jews in Judah and Jerusalem in the name of the God of Israel, who was over them.

Ezr. 5:2 Then Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and Jeshua son of Jozadak set to work to rebuild the house of God in Jerusalem. And the prophets of God were with them, helping them.

Ezr. 5:3 At that time Tattenai, governor of Trans-Euphrates, and Shethar-Bozenai and their associates went to them and asked, “Who authorised you to rebuild this temple and restore this structure?”

Ezr. 5:4 They also asked, “What are the names of the men constructing this building?” [See Septuagint; Aramaic 4 We told them the names of the men constructing this building.]

Ezr. 5:5 But the eye of their God was watching over the elders of the Jews, and they were not stopped until a report could go to Darius and his written reply be received.

Ezr. 5:6 This is a copy of the letter that Tattenai, governor of Trans-Euphrates, and Shethar-Bozenai and their associates, the officials of Trans-Euphrates, sent to King Darius.

Ezr. 5:7 The report they sent him read as follows: To King Darius: Cordial greetings.

Ezr. 5:8 The king should know that we went to the district of Judah, to the temple of the great God. The people are building it with large stones and placing the timbers in the walls. The work is being carried on with diligence and is making rapid progress under their direction.
Ezr. 5:9  We questioned the elders and asked them, “Who authorised you to rebuild this temple and restore this structure?”

Ezr. 5:10  We also asked them their names, so that we could write down the names of their leaders for your information.

Ezr. 5:11  This is the answer they gave us: “We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and we are rebuilding the temple that was built many years ago, one that a great king of Israel built and finished.

Ezr. 5:12  But because our fathers angered the God of heaven, he handed them over to Nebuchadnezzar the Chaldean, king of Babylon, who destroyed this temple and deported the people to Babylon.

Ezr. 5:13  “However, in the first year of Cyrus king of Babylon, King Cyrus issued a decree to rebuild this house of God.

Ezr. 5:14  He even removed from the temple [Or palace] of Babylon the gold and silver articles of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the temple in Jerusalem and brought to the temple [Or palace] in Babylon. “Then King Cyrus gave them to a man named Sheshbazzar, whom he had appointed governor,

Ezr. 5:15  and he told him, ‘Take these articles and go and deposit them in the temple in Jerusalem. And rebuild the house of God on its site.’

Ezr. 5:16  So this Sheshbazzar came and laid the foundations of the house of God in Jerusalem. From that day to the present it has been under construction but is not yet finished.”

Ezr. 5:17  Now if it pleases the king, let a search be made in the royal archives of Babylon to see if King Cyrus did in fact issue a decree to rebuild this house of God in Jerusalem. Then let the king send us his decision in this matter.
Ezr. 6:1 King Darius then issued an order, and they searched in the archives stored in the treasury at Babylon.

Ezr. 6:2 A scroll was found in the citadel of Ecbatana in the province of Media, and this was written on it: Memorandum:

Ezr. 6:3 In the first year of King Cyrus, the king issued a decree concerning the temple of God in Jerusalem: Let the temple be rebuilt as a place to present sacrifices, and let its foundations be laid. It is to be ninety feet [Aramaic sixty cubits (about 27 metres)] high and ninety feet wide, Ezr. 6:4 with three courses of large stones and one of timbers. The costs are to be paid by the royal treasury.

Ezr. 6:5 Also, the gold and silver articles of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took from the temple in Jerusalem and brought to Babylon, are to be returned to their places in the temple in Jerusalem; they are to be deposited in the house of God.

Ezr. 6:6 Now then, Tattenai, governor of Trans-Euphrates, and Shethar-Bozenai and you, their fellow officials of that province, stay away from there.

Ezr. 6:7 Do not interfere with the work on this temple of God. Let the governor of the Jews and the Jewish elders rebuild this house of God on its site.

Ezr. 6:8 Moreover, I hereby decree what you are to do for these elders of the Jews in the construction of this house of God: The expenses of these men are to be fully paid out of the royal treasury, from the revenues of Trans-Euphrates, so that the work will not stop.

Ezr. 6:9 Whatever is needed — young bulls, rams, male lambs for burnt offerings to the God of heaven, and wheat, salt, wine and oil, as requested by the priests in Jerusalem — must be given them daily without fail, so that they may offer sacrifices pleasing to the God of heaven and pray for the well-being of the king and his sons.

Furthermore, I decree that if anyone changes this edict, a beam is to be pulled from his house and he is to be lifted up and impaled on it. And for this crime his house is to be made a pile of rubble.

May God, who has caused his Name to dwell there, overthrow any king or people who lifts a hand to change this decree or to destroy this temple in Jerusalem. I Darius have decreed it. Let it be carried out with diligence.

Then, because of the decree King Darius had sent, Tattenai, governor of Trans-Euphrates, and Shethar-Bozenai and their associates carried it out with diligence.

So the elders of the Jews continued to build and prosper under the preaching of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah, a descendant of Iddo. They finished building the temple according to the command of the God of Israel and the decrees of Cyrus, Darius and Artaxerxes, kings of Persia.

The temple was completed on the third day of the month Adar, in the sixth year of the reign of King Darius.

Then the people of Israel — the priests, the Levites and the rest of the exiles — celebrated the dedication of the house of God with joy.

For the dedication of this house of God they offered a hundred bulls, two hundred rams, four hundred male lambs and, as a sin offering for all Israel, twelve male goats, one for each of the tribes of Israel.

And they installed the priests in their divisions and the Levites in their groups for the service of God at Jerusalem, according to what is written in the Book of Moses.

On the fourteenth day of the first month, the exiles celebrated the Passover.
The priests and Levites had purified themselves and were all ceremonially clean. The Levites slaughtered the Passover lamb for all the exiles, for their brothers the priests and for themselves.

So the Israelites who had returned from the exile ate it, together with all who had separated themselves from the unclean practices of their Gentile neighbours in order to seek the LORD, the God of Israel.

For seven days they celebrated with joy the Feast of Unleavened Bread, because the LORD had filled them with joy by changing the attitude of the king of Assyria, so that he assisted them in the work on the house of God, the God of Israel.

CHAPTER 7

After these things, during the reign of Artaxerxes king of Persia, Ezra son of Seraiah, the son of Azariah, the son of Hilkiah, the son of Shallum, the son of Zadok, the son of Ahitub, the son of Amariah, the son of Azariah, the son of Meraioth, the son of Zerahiah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki, the son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the chief priest — this Ezra came up from Babylon. He was a teacher well versed in the Law of Moses, which the LORD, the God of Israel, had given. The king had granted him everything he asked, for the hand of the LORD his God was on him.

Some of the Israelites, including priests, Levites, singers, gatekeepers and temple servants, also came up to Jerusalem in the seventh year of King Artaxerxes.

Ezra arrived in Jerusalem in the fifth month of the seventh year of the king.
Ezr. 7:9 He had begun his journey from Babylon on the first day of the first month, and he arrived in Jerusalem on the first day of the fifth month, for the gracious hand of his God was on him.

Ezr. 7:10 For Ezra had devoted himself to the study and observance of the Law of the LORD, and to teaching its decrees and laws in Israel.

Ezr. 7:11 This is a copy of the letter King Artaxerxes had given to Ezra the priest and teacher, a man learned in matters concerning the commands and decrees of the LORD for Israel:

Ezr. 7:12 [The text of Ezra 7:12-26 is in Aramaic.] Artaxerxes, king of kings, To Ezra the priest, a teacher of the Law of the God of heaven: Greetings.

Ezr. 7:13 Now I decree that any of the Israelites in my kingdom, including priests and Levites, who wish to go to Jerusalem with you, may go.

Ezr. 7:14 You are sent by the king and his seven advisers to enquire about Judah and Jerusalem with regard to the Law of your God, which is in your hand.

Ezr. 7:15 Moreover, you are to take with you the silver and gold that the king and his advisers have freely given to the God of Israel, whose dwelling is in Jerusalem,

Ezr. 7:16 together with all the silver and gold you may obtain from the province of Babylon, as well as the freewill offerings of the people and priests for the temple of their God in Jerusalem.

Ezr. 7:17 With this money be sure to buy bulls, rams and male lambs, together with their grain offerings and drink offerings, and sacrifice them on the altar of the temple of your God in Jerusalem.

Ezr. 7:18 You and your brother Jews may then do whatever seems best with the rest of the silver and gold, in accordance with the will of your God.

Ezr. 7:19 Deliver to the God of Jerusalem all the articles entrusted to you for worship in the temple of your God.
And anything else needed for the temple of your God that you may have occasion to supply, you may provide from the royal treasury.

Now I, King Artaxerxes, order all the treasurers of Trans-Euphrates to provide with diligence whatever Ezra the priest, a teacher of the Law of the God of heaven, may ask of you — up to a hundred talents [That is, about 3 1/3 tons (about 3.4 metric tons)] of silver, a hundred cors [That is, probably about 600 bushels (about 22 kilolitres)] of wheat, a hundred baths [That is, probably about 500 gallons (about 2.2 kilolitres)] of wine, a hundred baths [That is, probably about 500 gallons (about 2.2 kilolitres)] of olive oil, and salt without limit.

Whatever the God of heaven has prescribed, let it be done with diligence for the temple of the God of heaven. Why should there be wrath against the realm of the king and of his sons?

You are also to know that you have no authority to impose taxes, tribute or duty on any of the priests, Levites, singers, gatekeepers, temple servants or other workers at this house of God.

And you, Ezra, in accordance with the wisdom of your God, which you possess, appoint magistrates and judges to administer justice to all the people of Trans-Euphrates — all who know the laws of your God. And you are to teach any who do not know them.

Whoever does not obey the law of your God and the law of the king must surely be punished by death, banishment, confiscation of property, or imprisonment.

Praise be to the LORD, the God of our fathers, who has put it into the king’s heart to bring honour to the house of the LORD in Jerusalem in this way
Ezr. 7:28 and who has extended his good favour to me before the king and his advisers and all the king’s powerful officials. Because the hand of the LORD my God was on me, I took courage and gathered leading men from Israel to go up with me.

CHAPTER 8

Ezr. 8:1 These are the family heads and those registered with them who came up with me from Babylon during the reign of King Artaxerxes:

Ezr. 8:2 of the descendants of Phinehas, Gershom; of the descendants of Ithamar, Daniel; of the descendants of David, Hattush

Ezr. 8:3 of the descendants of Shecaniah; of the descendants of Parosh, Zechariah, and with him were registered 150 men;

Ezr. 8:4 of the descendants of Pahath-Moab, Eliehoenai son of Zerahiah, and with him 200 men;

Ezr. 8:5 of the descendants of Zattu, [Some Septuagint manuscripts (also 1 Esdras 8:32); Hebrew does not have Zattu.] Shecaniah son of Jahaziel, and with him 300 men;

Ezr. 8:6 of the descendants of Adin, Ebed son of Jonathan, and with him 50 men;

Ezr. 8:7 of the descendants of Elam, Jeshaiah son of Athaliah, and with him 70 men;

Ezr. 8:8 of the descendants of Shephatiah, Zebadiah son of Michael, and with him 80 men;

Ezr. 8:9 of the descendants of Joab, Obadiah son of Jehiel, and with him 218 men;

Ezr. 8:10 of the descendants of Bani, [Some Septuagint manuscripts (also 1 Esdras 8:36); Hebrew does not have Bani.] Shelomith son of Josiphiah, and with him 160 men;

Ezr. 8:11 of the descendants of Bebai, Zechariah son of Bebai, and with him 28 men; of the descendants of Azgad, Johanan son of Hakkatan, and with him 110 men; of the descendants of Adonikam, the last ones, whose names were Eliphelet, Jeuel and Shemaiah, and with them 60 men; of the descendants of Bigvai, Uthai and Zaccur, and with them 70 men.

I assembled them at the canal that flows towards Ahava, and we camped there three days. When I checked among the people and the priests, I found no Levites there.

So I summoned Eliezer, Ariel, Shemaiah, Elnathan, Jarib, Elnathan, Nathan, Zechariah and Meshullam, who were leaders, and Joiarib and Elnathan, who were men of learning, and I sent them to Iddo, the leader in Casiphia. I told them what to say to Iddo and his kinsmen, the temple servants in Casiphia, so that they might bring attendants to us for the house of our God.

Because the gracious hand of our God was on us, they brought us Sherebiah, a capable man, from the descendants of Mahli son of Levi, the son of Israel, and Sherebiah’s sons and brothers, 18 men; and Hashabiah, together with Jeshaiah from the descendants of Merari, and his brothers and nephews, 20 men.

They also brought 220 of the temple servants — a body that David and the officials had established to assist the Levites. All were registered by name.

There, by the Ahava Canal, I proclaimed a fast, so that we might humble ourselves before our God and ask him for a safe journey for us and our children, with all our possessions.

I was ashamed to ask the king for soldiers and horsemen to protect us from enemies on the road, because we had told the king, “The gracious hand of our God is on everyone who looks to him, but his great anger is against all who forsake him.”
Ezr. 8:23 So we fasted and petitioned our God about this, and he answered our prayer.

Ezr. 8:24 Then I set apart twelve of the leading priests, together with Sherebiah, Hashabiah and ten of their brothers,

Ezr. 8:25 and I weighed out to them the offering of silver and gold and the articles that the king, his advisers, his officials and all Israel present there had donated for the house of our God.

Ezr. 8:26 I weighed out to them 650 talents [That is, about 22 tons (about 22 metric tons)] of silver, silver articles weighing 100 talents, [That is, about 3 1/3 tons (about 3.4 metric tons)] 100 talents [That is, about 3 1/3 tons (about 3.4 metric tons)] of gold, Ezr. 8:27 20 bowls of gold valued at 1,000 darics, [That is, about 19 pounds (about 8.5 kilograms)] and two fine articles of polished bronze, as precious as gold.

Ezr. 8:28 I said to them, “You as well as these articles are consecrated to the LORD. The silver and gold are a freewill offering to the LORD, the God of your fathers.

Ezr. 8:29 Guard them carefully until you weigh them out in the chambers of the house of the LORD in Jerusalem before the leading priests and the Levites and the family heads of Israel.”

Ezr. 8:30 Then the priests and Levites received the silver and gold and sacred articles that had been weighed out to be taken to the house of our God in Jerusalem.

Ezr. 8:31 On the twelfth day of the first month we set out from the Ahava Canal to go to Jerusalem. The hand of our God was on us, and he protected us from enemies and bandits along the way.

Ezr. 8:32 So we arrived in Jerusalem, where we rested three days.

Ezr. 8:33 On the fourth day, in the house of our God, we weighed out the silver and gold and the sacred articles into the hands of Meremoth son of Uriah, the priest. Eleazar son of Phinehas was with him, and so were the Levites Jozabad son of Jeshua and Noadiah son of Binnui.

Ezr. 8:34  Everything was accounted for by number and weight, and the entire weight was recorded at that time.

Ezr. 8:35  Then the exiles who had returned from captivity sacrificed burnt offerings to the God of Israel: twelve bulls for all Israel, ninety-six rams, seventy-seven male lambs and, as a sin offering, twelve male goats. All this was a burnt offering to the LORD.

Ezr. 8:36  They also delivered the king’s orders to the royal satraps and to the governors of Trans-Euphrates who then gave assistance to the people and to the house of God.

CHAPTER 9

Ezr. 9:1  After these things had been done, the leaders came to me and said, “The people of Israel, including the priests and the Levites, have not kept themselves separate from the neighbouring peoples with their detestable practices, like those of the Canaanites, Hittites, Perizzites, Jebusites, Ammonites, Moabites, Egyptians and Amorites.

Ezr. 9:2  They have taken some of their daughters as wives for themselves and their sons, and have mingled the holy race with the peoples around them. And the leaders and officials have led the way in this unfaithfulness.”

Ezr. 9:3  When I heard this, I tore my tunic and cloak, pulled hair from my head and beard and sat down appalled.

Ezr. 9:4  Then everyone who trembled at the words of the God of Israel gathered round me because of this unfaithfulness of the exiles. And I sat there appalled until the evening sacrifice.

Ezr. 9:5  Then, at the evening sacrifice, I rose from my self-abasement, with my tunic and cloak torn, and fell on my knees with my hands spread out to the LORD my God
Ezr. 9:6 and prayed: "O my God, I am too ashamed and disgraced to lift up my face to you, my God, because our sins are higher than our heads and our guilt has reached to the heavens.

Ezr. 9:7 From the days of our forefathers until now, our guilt has been great. Because of our sins, we and our kings and our priests have been subjected to the sword and captivity, to pillage and humiliation at the hand of foreign kings, as it is today.

Ezr. 9:8 "But now, for a brief moment, the LORD our God has been gracious in leaving us a remnant and giving us a firm place in his sanctuary, and so our God gives light to our eyes and a little relief in our bondage.

Ezr. 9:9 Though we are slaves, our God has not deserted us in our bondage. He has shown us kindness in the sight of the kings of Persia: He has granted us new life to rebuild the house of our God and repair its ruins, and he has given us a wall of protection in Judah and Jerusalem.

Ezr. 9:10 ‘But now, O our God, what can we say after this? For we have disregarded the commands

Ezr. 9:11 you gave through your servants the prophets when you said: `The land you are entering to possess is a land polluted by the corruption of its peoples. By their detestable practices they have filled it with their impurity from one end to the other.

Ezr. 9:12 Therefore, do not give your daughters in marriage to their sons or take their daughters for your sons. Do not seek a treaty of friendship with them at any time, that you may be strong and eat the good things of the land and leave it to your children as an everlasting inheritance.’

Ezr. 9:13 "What has happened to us is a result of our evil deeds and our great guilt, and yet, our God, you have punished us less than our sins have deserved and have given us a remnant like this.

Ezr. 9:14 Shall we again break your commands and intermarry with the peoples who commit such detestable practices? Would you not be angry enough with us to destroy us, leaving us no remnant or survivor?

Ezr. 9:15 LORD, God of Israel, you are righteous! We are left this day as a remnant. Here we are before you in our guilt, though because of it not one of us can stand in your presence.”

CHAPTER 10

Ezr. 10:1 While Ezra was praying and confessing, weeping and throwing himself down before the house of God, a large crowd of Israelites — men, women and children — gathered round him. They too wept bitterly.

Ezr. 10:2 Then Shecaniah son of Jehiel, one of the descendants of Elam, said to Ezra, “We have been unfaithful to our God by marrying foreign women from the peoples around us. But in spite of this, there is still hope for Israel.

Ezr. 10:3 Now let us make a covenant before our God to send away all these women and their children, in accordance with the counsel of my lord and of those who fear the commands of our God. Let it be done according to the Law.

Ezr. 10:4 Rise up; this matter is in your hands. We will support you, so take courage and do it.”

Ezr. 10:5 So Ezra rose up and put the leading priests and Levites and all Israel under oath to do what had been suggested. And they took the oath.

Ezr. 10:6 Then Ezra withdrew from before the house of God and went to the room of Jehohanan son of Eliashib. While he was there, he ate no food and drank no water, because he continued to mourn over the unfaithfulness of the exiles.

Ezr. 10:7 A proclamation was then issued throughout Judah and Jerusalem for all the exiles to assemble in Jerusalem.

Ezr. 10:8 Anyone who failed to appear within three days would forfeit all his property, in accordance with the decision of the officials and elders, and would himself be expelled from the assembly of the exiles.

Ezr. 10:9 Within the three days, all the men of Judah and Benjamin had gathered in Jerusalem. And on the twentieth day of the ninth month, all the people were sitting in the square before the house of God, greatly distressed by the occasion and because of the rain.

Ezr. 10:10 Then Ezra the priest stood up and said to them, “You have been unfaithful; you have married foreign women, adding to Israel’s guilt.

Ezr. 10:11 Now make confession to the LORD, the God of your fathers, and do his will. Separate yourselves from the peoples around you and from your foreign wives.”

Ezr. 10:12 The whole assembly responded with a loud voice: “You are right! We must do as you say.

Ezr. 10:13 But there are many people here and it is the rainy season; so we cannot stand outside. Besides, this matter cannot be taken care of in a day or two, because we have sinned greatly in this thing.

Ezr. 10:14 Let our officials act for the whole assembly. Then let everyone in our towns who has married a foreign woman come at a set time, along with the elders and judges of each town, until the fierce anger of our God in this matter is turned away from us.”

Ezr. 10:15 Only Jonathan son of Asahel and Jahzeiah son of Tikvah, supported by Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite, opposed this.

Ezr. 10:16 So the exiles did as was proposed. Ezra the priest selected men who were family heads, one from each family division, and all of them designated by name. On the first day of the tenth month they sat down to investigate the cases,

Ezr. 10:17 and by the first day of the first month they finished dealing with all the men who had married foreign women.
Ezr. 10:18 Among the descendants of the priests, the following had married foreign women: From the descendants of Jeshua son of Jozadak, and his brothers: Maaseiah, Eliezer, Jarib and Gedaliah.

Ezr. 10:19 (They all gave their hands in pledge to put away their wives, and for their guilt they each presented a ram from the flock as a guilt offering.)

Ezr. 10:20 From the descendants of Immer: Hanani and Zebadiah.

Ezr. 10:21 From the descendants of Harim: Maaseiah, Elijah, Shemaiah, Jehiel and Uzziah.

Ezr. 10:22 From the descendants of Pashhur: Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethanel, Jozabad and Elasah.

Ezr. 10:23 Among the Levites: Jozabad, Shimei, Kelaiah (that is Kelita), Pethahiah, Judah and Eliezer.

Ezr. 10:24 From the singers: Eliashib. From the gatekeepers: Shallum, Telem and Uri.

Ezr. 10:25 And among the other Israelites: From the descendants of Parosh: Ramiah, Izziah, Malkijah, Mijamin, Eleazar, Malkijah and Benaiah.

Ezr. 10:26 From the descendants of Elam: Mattaniah, Zechariah, Jehiel, Abdi, Jeremoth and Elijah.

Ezr. 10:27 From the descendants of Zattu: Elioenai, Eliashib, Mattaniah, Jeremoth, Zabad and Aziza.

Ezr. 10:28 From the descendants of Bebai: Jehohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai and Athlai.

Ezr. 10:29 From the descendants of Bani: Meshullam, Malluch, Adaiah, Jashub, Sheal and Jeremoth.

Ezr. 10:30 From the descendants of Pahath-Moab: Adna, Kelal, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Bezalel, Binnui and Manasseh.

Ezr. 10:31 From the descendants of Harim: Eliezer, Ishijah, Malkijah, Shemaiah, Shimeon, Ezr. 10:32 Benjamin, Malluch and Shemariah.

Ezr. 10:33 From the descendants of Hashum: Mattenai, Mattattah, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasseh and Shimei.

Ezr. 10:34 From the descendants of Bani: Maadai, Amram, Uel,

Ezr. 10:35 Benaiah, Bedeiah, Keluhi,

Ezr. 10:36 Vaniah, Meremoth, Eliashib,

Ezr. 10:37 Mattaniah, Mattenai and Jaasu.

Ezr. 10:38 From the descendants of Binnui: [See Septuagint (also 1 Esdras 9:34); Hebrew Jaasu 38 and Bani and Binnui.] Shimei,

Ezr. 10:39 Shelemiah, Nathan, Adaiah,

Ezr. 10:40 Macnadebai, Shashai, Sharai,

Ezr. 10:41 Azarel, Shelemiah, Shemariah,

Ezr. 10:42 Shallum, Amariah and Joseph.

Ezr. 10:43 From the descendants of Nebo: Jeiel, Mattithiah, Zabad, Zebina, Jaddai, Joel and Benaiah.

Ezr. 10:44 All these had married foreign women, and some of them had children by these wives. [Or and they sent them away with their children]
The words of Nehemiah son of Hacaliah: In the month of Kislev in the twentieth year, while I was in the citadel of Susa, Hanani, one of my brothers, came from Judah with some other men, and I questioned them about the Jewish remnant that survived the exile, and also about Jerusalem.

They said to me, “Those who survived the exile and are back in the province are in great trouble and disgrace. The wall of Jerusalem is broken down, and its gates have been burned with fire.”

When I heard these things, I sat down and wept. For some days I mourned and fasted and prayed before the God of heaven.

Then I said: “O LORD, God of heaven, the great and awesome God, who keeps his covenant of love with those who love him and obey his commands, let your ear be attentive and your eyes open to hear the prayer your servant is praying before you day and night for your servants, the people of Israel. I confess the sins we Israelites, including myself and my father’s house, have committed against you.

We have acted very wickedly towards you. We have not obeyed the commands, decrees and laws you gave your servant Moses.

“Remember the instruction you gave your servant Moses, saying, ‘If you are unfaithful, I will scatter you among the nations,”
Ne. 1:9 but if you return to me and obey my commands, then even if your exiled people are at the farthest horizon, I will gather them from there and bring them to the place I have chosen as a dwelling for my Name.’

Ne. 1:10 “They are your servants and your people, whom you redeemed by your great strength and your mighty hand.

Ne. 1:11 Lord, let your ear be attentive to the prayer of this your servant and to the prayer of your servants who delight in revering your name. Give your servant success today by granting him favour in the presence of this man.” I was cupbearer to the king.

CHAPTER 2

Ne. 2:1 In the month of Nisan in the twentieth year of King Artaxerxes, when wine was brought for him, I took the wine and gave it to the king. I had not been sad in his presence before;

Ne. 2:2 so the king asked me, “Why does your face look so sad when you are not ill? This can be nothing but sadness of heart.” I was very much afraid,

Ne. 2:3 but I said to the king, “May the king live for ever! Why should my face not look sad when the city where my fathers are buried lies in ruins, and its gates have been destroyed by fire?”

Ne. 2:4 The king said to me, “What is it you want?” Then I prayed to the God of heaven,

Ne. 2:5 and I answered the king, “If it pleases the king and if your servant has found favour in his sight, let him send me to the city in Judah where my fathers are buried so that I can rebuild it.”

Ne. 2:6 Then the king, with the queen sitting beside him, asked me, “How long will your journey take, and when will you get back?” It pleased the king to send me; so I set a time.
I also said to him, “If it pleases the king, may I have letters to the governors of Trans-Euphrates, so that they will provide me safe-conduct until I arrive in Judah?

And may I have a letter to Asaph, keeper of the king’s forest, so he will give me timber to make beams for the gates of the citadel by the temple and for the city wall and for the residence I will occupy?” And because the gracious hand of my God was upon me, the king granted my requests.

So I went to the governors of Trans-Euphrates and gave them the king’s letters. The king had also sent army officers and cavalry with me.

When Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the Ammonite official heard about this, they were very much disturbed that someone had come to promote the welfare of the Israelites.

I went to Jerusalem, and after staying there three days

I set out during the night with a few men. I had not told anyone what my God had put in my heart to do for Jerusalem. There were no mounts with me except the one I was riding on.

By night I went out through the Valley Gate towards the Jackal [Or Serpent or Fig] Well and the Dung Gate, examining the walls of Jerusalem, which had been broken down, and its gates, which had been destroyed by fire.

Then I moved on towards the Fountain Gate and the King’s Pool, but there was not enough room for my mount to get through; so I went up the valley by night, examining the wall. Finally, I turned back and re-entered through the Valley Gate.

The officials did not know where I had gone or what I was doing, because as yet I had said nothing to the Jews or the priests or nobles or officials or any others who would be doing the work.
Then I said to them, “You see the trouble we are in: Jerusalem lies in ruins, and its gates have been burned with fire. Come, let us rebuild the wall of Jerusalem, and we will no longer be in disgrace.”

I also told them about the gracious hand of my God upon me and what the king had said to me. They replied, “Let us start rebuilding.” So they began this good work.

But when Sanballat the Horonite, Tobiah the Ammonite official and Geshem the Arab heard about it, they mocked and ridiculed us. “What is this you are doing?” they asked. “Are you rebelling against the king?”

I answered them by saying, “The God of heaven will give us success. We his servants will start rebuilding, but as for you, you have no share in Jerusalem or any claim or historic right to it.”

CHAPTER 3

Eliashib the high priest and his fellow priests went to work and rebuilt the Sheep Gate. They dedicated it and set its doors in place, building as far as the Tower of the Hundred, which they dedicated, and as far as the Tower of Hananel.

The men of Jericho built the adjoining section, and Zaccur son of Imri built next to them.

The Fish Gate was rebuilt by the sons of Hassenaah. They laid its beams and put its doors and bolts and bars in place.

Meremoth son of Uriah, the son of Hakkoz, repaired the next section. Next to him Meshullam son of Berekiah, the son of Meshezabel, made repairs, and next to him Zadok son of Baana also made repairs.

The next section was repaired by the men of Tekoa, but their nobles would not put their shoulders to the work under their supervisors. [Or their Lord or the governor]
Ne. 3:6 The Jeshanah [Or Old] Gate was repaired by Joiada son of Paseah and Meshullam son of Besodeiah. They laid its beams and put its doors and bolts and bars in place.

Ne. 3:7 Next to them, repairs were made by men from Gibeon and Mizpah — Melatiah of Gibeon and Jadon of Meronoth — places under the authority of the governor of Trans-Euphrates.

Ne. 3:8 Uzziel son of Harhaiah, one of the goldsmiths, repaired the next section; and Hananiah, one of the perfume-makers, made repairs next to that. They restored [Or They left out part of] Jerusalem as far as the Broad Wall.

Ne. 3:9 Rephaiah son of Hur, ruler of a half-district of Jerusalem, repaired the next section.

Ne. 3:10 Adjoining this, Jedaiah son of Harumaph made repairs opposite his house, and Hattush son of Hashabneiah made repairs next to him.

Ne. 3:11 Malkijah son of Harim and Hasshub son of Pahath-Moab repaired another section and the Tower of the Ovens.

Ne. 3:12 Shallum son of Hallohesh, ruler of a half-district of Jerusalem, repaired the next section with the help of his daughters.

Ne. 3:13 The Valley Gate was repaired by Hanun and the residents of Zanoah. They rebuilt it and put its doors and bolts and bars in place. They also repaired five hundred yards [Hebrew a thousand cubits (about 450 metres)] of the wall as far as the Dung Gate.

Ne. 3:14 The Dung Gate was repaired by Malkijah son of Recab, ruler of the district of Beth Hakkerem. He rebuilt it and put its doors and bolts and bars in place.

Ne. 3:15 The Fountain Gate was repaired by Shallun son of Col-Hozeh, ruler of the district of Mizpah. He rebuilt it, roofing it over and putting its doors and bolts and bars in place. He also repaired the wall of the Pool of Siloam, [Hebrew Shelah, a variant of Shiloah, that is, Siloam] by the King’s Garden, as far as the steps going down from the City of David.

Ne. 3:16 Beyond him, Nehemiah son of Azbuk, ruler of a half-district of Beth Zur, made repairs up to a point opposite the tombs [Hebrew; Septuagint, some Vulgate manuscripts and Syriac tomb] of David, as far as the artificial pool and the House of the Heroes.

Ne. 3:17 Next to him, the repairs were made by the Levites under Rehum son of Bani. Beside him, Hashabiah, ruler of half the district of Keilah, carried out repairs for his district.

Ne. 3:18 Next to him, the repairs were made by their countrymen under Binnui [Two Hebrew manuscripts and Syriac (see also Septuagint and verse 24); most Hebrew manuscripts Bavvai] son of Henadad, ruler of the other half-district of Keilah.

Ne. 3:19 Next to him, Ezer son of Jeshua, ruler of Mizpah, repaired another section, from a point facing the ascent to the armoury as far as the angle.

Ne. 3:20 Next to him, Baruch son of Zabbai zealously repaired another section, from the angle to the entrance of the house of Eliashib the high priest.

Ne. 3:21 The repairs next to him were made by the priests from the surrounding region.

Ne. 3:22 Beyond them, Benjamin and Hasshub made repairs in front of their house; and next to them, Azariah son of Maaseiah, the son of Ananiah, made repairs beside his house.

Ne. 3:23 Next to him, Binnui son of Henadad repaired another section, from Azariah’s house to the angle and the corner,

Ne. 3:24 and Palal son of Uzai worked opposite the angle and the tower projecting from the upper palace near the court of the guard. Next to him, Pedaiah son of Parosh
Ne. 3:26 and the temple servants living on the hill of Ophel made repairs up to a point opposite the Water Gate towards the east and the projecting tower.

Ne. 3:27 Next to them, the men of Tekoa repaired another section, from the great projecting tower to the wall of Ophel.

Ne. 3:28 Above the Horse Gate, the priests made repairs, each in front of his own house.

Ne. 3:29 Next to them, Zadok son of Immer made repairs opposite his house. Next to him, Shemaiah son of Shecaniah, the guard at the East Gate, made repairs.

Ne. 3:30 Next to him, Hananiah son of Shelemiah, and Hanun, the sixth son of Zalaph, repaired another section. Next to them, Meshullam son of Berekiah made repairs opposite his living quarters.

Ne. 3:31 Next to him, Malkijah, one of the goldsmiths, made repairs as far as the house of the temple servants and the merchants, opposite the Inspection Gate, and as far as the room above the corner;

Ne. 3:32 and between the room above the corner and the Sheep Gate the goldsmiths and merchants made repairs.

CHAPTER 4

Ne. 4:1 When Sanballat heard that we were rebuilding the wall, he became angry and was greatly incensed. He ridiculed the Jews,

Ne. 4:2 and in the presence of his associates and the army of Samaria, he said, “What are those feeble Jews doing? Will they restore their wall? Will they offer sacrifices? Will they finish in a day? Can they bring the stones back to life from those heaps of rubble — burned as they are?”
Tobiah the Ammonite, who was at his side, said, “What they are building — if even a fox climbed up on it, he would break down their wall of stones!”

Hear us, O our God, for we are despised. Turn their insults back on their own heads. Give them over as plunder in a land of captivity.

Do not cover up their guilt or blot out their sins from your sight, for they have thrown insults in the face of [Or have provoked you to anger before] the builders.

So we rebuilt the wall till all of it reached half its height, for the people worked with all their heart.

But when Sanballat, Tobiah, the Arabs, the Ammonites and the men of Ashdod heard that the repairs to Jerusalem’s walls had gone ahead and that the gaps were being closed, they were very angry.

They all plotted together to come and fight against Jerusalem and stir up trouble against it.

But we prayed to our God and posted a guard day and night to meet this threat.

Meanwhile, the people in Judah said, “The strength of the labourers is giving out, and there is so much rubble that we cannot rebuild the wall.”

Also our enemies said, “Before they know it or see us, we will be right there among them and will kill them and put an end to the work.”

Therefore I stationed some of the people behind the lowest points of the wall at the exposed places, posting them by families, with their swords, spears and bows.

After I looked things over, I stood up and said to the nobles, the officials and the rest of the people, “Don’t be afraid of them. Remember the Lord, who is great and awesome, and fight for your brothers, your sons and your daughters, your wives and your homes.”

Ne. 4:15 When our enemies heard that we were aware of their plot and that God had frustrated it, we all returned to the wall, each to his own work.

Ne. 4:16 From that day on, half of my men did the work, while the other half were equipped with spears, shields, bows and armour. The officers posted themselves behind all the people of Judah.

Ne. 4:17 who were building the wall. Those who carried materials did their work with one hand and held a weapon in the other,

Ne. 4:18 and each of the builders wore his sword at his side as he worked. But the man who sounded the trumpet stayed with me.

Ne. 4:19 Then I said to the nobles, the officials and the rest of the people, “The work is extensive and spread out, and we are widely separated from each other along the wall.

Ne. 4:20 Wherever you hear the sound of the trumpet, join us there. Our God will fight for us!”

Ne. 4:21 So we continued the work with half the men holding spears, from the first light of dawn till the stars came out.

Ne. 4:22 At that time I also said to the people, “Have every man and his helper stay inside Jerusalem at night, so that they can serve us as guards by night and workmen by day.”

Ne. 4:23 Neither I nor my brothers nor my men nor the guards with me took off our clothes; each had his weapon, even when he went for water. [The meaning of the Hebrew for this clause is uncertain.]

CHAPTER 5

Ne. 5:1 Now the men and their wives raised a great outcry against their Jewish brothers.
Ne. 5:2 Some were saying, “We and our sons and daughters are numerous; in order for us to eat and stay alive, we must get grain.”

Ne. 5:3 Others were saying, “We are mortgaging our fields, our vineyards and our homes to get grain during the famine.”

Ne. 5:4 Still others were saying, “We have had to borrow money to pay the king’s tax on our fields and vineyards.

Ne. 5:5 Although we are of the same flesh and blood as our countrymen and though our sons are as good as theirs, yet we have to subject our sons and daughters to slavery. Some of our daughters have already been enslaved, but we are powerless, because our fields and our vineyards belong to others.”

Ne. 5:6 When I heard their outcry and these charges, I was very angry.

Ne. 5:7 I pondered them in my mind and then accused the nobles and officials. I told them, “You are exacting usury from your own countrymen!” So I called together a large meeting to deal with them

Ne. 5:8 and said: “As far as possible, we have bought back our Jewish brothers who were sold to the Gentiles. Now you are selling your brothers, only for them to be sold back to us!” They kept quiet, because they could find nothing to say.

Ne. 5:9 So I continued, “What you are doing is not right. Shouldn’t you walk in the fear of our God to avoid the reproach of our Gentile enemies?

Ne. 5:10 I and my brothers and my men are also lending the people money and grain. But let the exacting of usury stop!

Ne. 5:11 Give back to them immediately their fields, vineyards, olive groves and houses, and also the usury you are charging them — the hundredth part of the money, grain, new wine and oil.”

Ne. 5:12 “We will give it back,” they said. “And we will not demand anything more from them. We will do as you say.” Then I summoned the priests and made the nobles and officials take an oath to do what they had promised.

Ne. 5:13 I also shook out the folds of my robe and said, “In this way may God shake out of his house and possessions every man who does not keep this promise. So may such a man be shaken out and emptied!” At this the whole assembly said, “Amen,” and praised the LORD. And the people did as they had promised.

Ne. 5:14 Moreover, from the twentieth year of King Artaxerxes, when I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, until his thirty-second year — twelve years — neither I nor my brothers ate the food allotted to the governor.

Ne. 5:15 But the earlier governors — those preceding me — placed a heavy burden on the people and took forty shekels [That is, about 1 pound (about 0.5 kilogram)] of silver from them in addition to food and wine. Their assistants also lorded it over the people. But out of reverence for God I did not act like that.

Ne. 5:16 Instead, I devoted myself to the work on this wall. All my men were assembled there for the work; we [Most Hebrew manuscripts; some Hebrew manuscripts, Septuagint, Vulgate and Syriac I] did not acquire any land.

Ne. 5:17 Furthermore, a hundred and fifty Jews and officials ate at my table, as well as those who came to us from the surrounding nations.

Ne. 5:18 Each day one ox, six choice sheep and some poultry were prepared for me, and every ten days an abundant supply of wine of all kinds. In spite of all this, I never demanded the food allotted to the governor, because the demands were heavy on these people.

Ne. 5:19 Remember me with favour, O my God, for all I have done for these people.
CHAPTER 6

Ne. 6:1 When word came to Sanballat, Tobiah, Geshem the Arab and the rest of our enemies that I had rebuilt the wall and not a gap was left in it — though up to that time I had not set the doors in the gates —

Ne. 6:2 Sanballat and Geshem sent me this message: “Come, let us meet together in one of the villages [Or in Kephirim] on the plain of Ono.” But they were scheming to harm me;

Ne. 6:3 so I sent messengers to them with this reply: “I am carrying on a great project and cannot go down. Why should the work stop while I leave it and go down to you?”

Ne. 6:4 Four times they sent me the same message, and each time I gave them the same answer.

Ne. 6:5 Then, the fifth time, Sanballat sent his assistant to me with the same message, and in his hand was an unsealed letter

Ne. 6:6 in which was written: “It is reported among the nations — and Geshem [Hebrew Gashmu, a variant of Geshem] says it is true — that you and the Jews are plotting to revolt, and therefore you are building the wall. Moreover, according to these reports you are about to become their king

Ne. 6:7 and have even appointed prophets to make this proclamation about you in Jerusalem: ‘There is a king in Judah!’ Now this report will get back to the king; so come, let us confer together.”

Ne. 6:8 I sent him this reply: “Nothing like what you are saying is happening; you are just making it up out of your head.”

Ne. 6:9 They were all trying to frighten us, thinking, “Their hands will get too weak for the work, and it will not be completed.” But I prayed, “Now strengthen my hands.”

Ne. 6:10 One day I went to the house of Shemaiah son of Delaiah, the son of Mehetabel, who was shut in at his home. He said, “Let us meet in the house of God, inside the temple, and let us close the temple doors, because men are coming to kill you — by night they are coming to kill you.”

Ne. 6:11 But I said, “Should a man like me run away? Or should one like me go into the temple to save his life? I will not go!”

Ne. 6:12 I realised that God had not sent him, but that he had prophesied against me because Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him.

Ne. 6:13 He had been hired to intimidate me so that I would commit a sin by doing this, and then they would give me a bad name to discredit me.

Ne. 6:14 Remember Tobiah and Sanballat, O my God, because of what they have done; remember also the prophetess Noadiah and the rest of the prophets who have been trying to intimidate me.

Ne. 6:15 So the wall was completed on the twenty-fifth of Elul, in fifty-two days.

Ne. 6:16 When all our enemies heard about this, all the surrounding nations were afraid and lost their self-confidence, because they realised that this work had been done with the help of our God.

Ne. 6:17 Also, in those days the nobles of Judah were sending many letters to Tobiah, and replies from Tobiah kept coming to them.

Ne. 6:18 For many in Judah were under oath to him, since he was son-in-law to Shecaniah son of Arah, and his son Jehohanan had married the daughter of Meshullam son of Berekiah.

Ne. 6:19 Moreover, they kept reporting to me his good deeds and then telling him what I said. And Tobiah sent letters to intimidate me.
CHAPTER 7

Ne. 7:1 After the wall had been rebuilt and I had set the doors in place, the gatekeepers and the singers and the Levites were appointed.

Ne. 7:2 I put in charge of Jerusalem my brother Hanani, along with [Or Hanani, that is,] Hananiah the commander of the citadel, because he was a man of integrity and feared God more than most men do.

Ne. 7:3 I said to them, “The gates of Jerusalem are not to be opened until the sun is hot. While the gatekeepers are still on duty, make them shut the doors and bar them. Also appoint residents of Jerusalem as guards, some at their posts and some near their own houses.”

Ne. 7:4 Now the city was large and spacious, but there were few people in it, and the houses had not yet been rebuilt.

Ne. 7:5 So my God put it into my heart to assemble the nobles, the officials and the common people for registration by families. I found the genealogical record of those who had been the first to return. This is what I found written there:

Ne. 7:6 These are the people of the province who came up from the captivity of the exiles whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had taken captive (they returned to Jerusalem and Judah, each to his own town, Ne. 7:7 in company with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum and Baanah): The list of the men of Israel:

Ne. 7:60 The temple servants and the descendants of the servants of Solomon 392

Ne. 7:61 The following came up from the towns of Tel Melah, Tel Harsha, Kerub, Addon and Immer, but they could not show that their families were descended from Israel:

Ne. 7:62 the descendants of Delaiah, Tobiah and Nekoda 642

Ne. 7:63 And from among the priests: the descendants of Hobaiah, Hakkoz and Barzillai (a man who had married a daughter of Barzillai the Gileadite and was called by that name).

Ne. 7:64 These searched for their family records, but they could not find them and so were excluded from the priesthood as unclean.

Ne. 7:65 The governor, therefore, ordered them not to eat any of the most sacred food until there should be a priest ministering with the Urim and Thummim.

Ne. 7:66 The whole company numbered 42,360,

Ne. 7:67 besides their 7,337 menservants and maidservants; and they also had 245 men and women singers.

Ne. 7:68 There were 736 horses, 245 mules, [Some Hebrew manuscripts (see also Ezra 2:66); most Hebrew manuscripts do not have this verse.]

Ne. 7:69 435 camels and 6,720 donkeys.

Ne. 7:70 Some of the heads of the families contributed to the work. The governor gave to the treasury 1,000 drachmas [That is, about 19 pounds (about 8.5 kilograms)] of gold, 50 bowls and 530 garments for priests.

Ne. 7:71 Some of the heads of the families gave to the treasury for the work 20,000 drachmas [That is, about 375 pounds (about 170 kilograms); also in verse 72] of gold and 2,200 minas [That is, about 1 1/4 tons (about 1.3 metric tons)] of silver.
Ne. 7:72 The total given by the rest of the people was 20,000 drachmas of gold, 2,000 minas [That is, about 1 ton (about 1.1 metric tons)] of silver and 67 garments for priests.

Ne. 7:73 The priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers and the temple servants, along with certain of the people and the rest of the Israelites, settled in their own towns. When the seventh month came and the Israelites had settled in their towns,

CHAPTER 8

Ne. 8:1 all the people assembled as one man in the square before the Water Gate. They told Ezra the scribe to bring out the Book of the Law of Moses, which the LORD had commanded for Israel.

Ne. 8:2 So on the first day of the seventh month, Ezra the priest brought the Law before the assembly, which was made up of men and women and all who were able to understand. And all the people listened attentively to the Book of the Law.

Ne. 8:3 He read it aloud from daybreak till noon as he faced the square before the Water Gate in the presence of the men, women and others who could understand. And all the people listened attentively to the Book of the Law.

Ne. 8:4 Ezra the scribe stood on a high wooden platform built for the occasion. Beside him on his right stood Mattithiah, Shema, Anaiah, Uriah, Hilkiah and Maaseiah; and on his left were Pedaiah, Mishael, Malkijah, Hashum, Hashbaddanah, Zechariah and Meshullam.

Ne. 8:5 Ezra opened the book. All the people could see him because he was standing above them; and as he opened it, the people all stood up.

Ne. 8:6 Ezra praised the LORD, the great God; and all the people lifted their hands and responded, “Amen! Amen!” Then they bowed down and worshipped the LORD with their faces to the ground.
The Levites — Jeshua, Bani, Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan and Pelaiah — instructed the people in the Law while the people were standing there.

They read from the Book of the Law of God, making it clear [Or God, translating it] and giving the meaning so that the people could understand what was being read.

Then Nehemiah the governor, Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who were instructing the people said to them all, “This day is sacred to the LORD your God. Do not mourn or weep.” For all the people had been weeping as they listened to the words of the Law.

Nehemiah said, “Go and enjoy choice food and sweet drinks, and send some to those who have nothing prepared. This day is sacred to our Lord. Do not grieve, for the joy of the LORD is your strength.”

The Levites calmed all the people, saying, “Be still, for this is a sacred day. Do not grieve.”

Then all the people went away to eat and drink, to send portions of food and to celebrate with great joy, because they now understood the words that had been made known to them.

On the second day of the month, the heads of all the families, along with the priests and the Levites, gathered round Ezra the scribe to give attention to the words of the Law.

They found written in the Law, which the LORD had commanded through Moses, that the Israelites were to live in booths during the feast of the seventh month and that they should proclaim this word and spread it throughout their towns and in Jerusalem: “Go out into the hill country and bring back branches from olive and wild olive trees, and from myrtles, palms and shade trees, to make booths” — as it is written. [See Lev. 23:37-40.]
Ne. 8:16 So the people went out and brought back branches and built themselves booths on their own roofs, in their courtyards, in the courts of the house of God and in the square by the Water Gate and the one by the Gate of Ephraim.

Ne. 8:17 The whole company that had returned from exile built booths and lived in them. From the days of Joshua son of Nun until that day, the Israelites had not celebrated it like this. And their joy was very great.

Ne. 8:18 Day after day, from the first day to the last, Ezra read from the Book of the Law of God. They celebrated the feast for seven days, and on the eighth day, in accordance with the regulation, there was an assembly.

CHAPTER 9

Ne. 9:1 On the twenty-fourth day of the same month, the Israelites gathered together, fasting and wearing sackcloth and having dust on their heads.

Ne. 9:2 Those of Israelite descent had separated themselves from all foreigners. They stood in their places and confessed their sins and the wickedness of their fathers.

Ne. 9:3 They stood where they were and read from the Book of the Law of the LORD their God for a quarter of the day, and spent another quarter in confession and in worshipping the LORD their God.

Ne. 9:4 Standing on the stairs were the Levites — Jeshua, Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani and Kenani — who called with loud voices to the LORD their God.

Ne. 9:5 And the Levites — Jeshua, Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabneiah, Sherebiah, Hodiah, Shebaniah and Pethahiah — said: “Stand up and praise the LORD your God, who is from everlasting to everlasting.” [Or God for ever and ever] “Blessed be your glorious name, and may it be exalted above all blessing and praise.
You alone are the LORD. You made the heavens, even the highest heavens, and all their starry host, the earth and all that is on it, the seas and all that is in them. You give life to everything, and the multitudes of heaven worship you.

“You are the LORD God, who chose Abram and brought him out of Ur of the Chaldeans and named him Abraham.

You found his heart faithful to you, and you made a covenant with him to give to his descendants the land of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Jebusites and Girgashites. You have kept your promise because you are righteous.

“You saw the suffering of our forefathers in Egypt; you heard their cry at the Red Sea. [Hebrew Yam Suph; that is, Sea of Reeds]

You sent miraculous signs and wonders against Pharaoh, against all his officials and all the people of his land, for you knew how arrogantly the Egyptians treated them. You made a name for yourself, which remains to this day.

You divided the sea before them, so that they passed through it on dry ground, but you hurled their pursuers into the depths, like a stone into mighty waters.

By day you led them with a pillar of cloud, and by night with a pillar of fire to give them light on the way they were to take.

“You came down on Mount Sinai; you spoke to them from heaven. You gave them regulations and laws that are just and right, and decrees and commands that are good.

You made known to them your holy Sabbath and gave them commands, decrees and laws through your servant Moses.

In their hunger you gave them bread from heaven and in their thirst you brought them water from the rock; you told them to go in and take possession of the land you had sworn with uplifted hand to give them.
Ne. 9:16 “But they, our forefathers, became arrogant and stiff-necked, and did not obey your commands.

Ne. 9:17 They refused to listen and failed to remember the miracles you performed among them. They became stiff-necked and in their rebellion appointed a leader in order to return to their slavery. But you are a forgiving God, gracious and compassionate, slow to anger and abounding in love. Therefore you did not desert them,

Ne. 9:18 even when they cast for themselves an image of a calf and said, ‘This is your god, who brought you up out of Egypt,’ or when they committed awful blasphemies.

Ne. 9:19 “Because of your great compassion you did not abandon them in the desert. By day the pillar of cloud did not cease to guide them on their path, nor the pillar of fire by night to shine on the way they were to take.

Ne. 9:20 You gave your good Spirit to instruct them. You did not withhold your manna from their mouths, and you gave them water for their thirst.

Ne. 9:21 For forty years you sustained them in the desert; they lacked nothing, their clothes did not wear out nor did their feet become swollen.

Ne. 9:22 “You gave them kingdoms and nations, allotting to them even the remotest frontiers. They took over the country of Sihon [One Hebrew manuscript and Septuagint; most Hebrew manuscripts Sihon, that is, the country of the] king of Heshbon and the country of Og king of Bashan.

Ne. 9:23 You made their sons as numerous as the stars in the sky, and you brought them into the land that you told their fathers to enter and possess.

Ne. 9:24 Their sons went in and took possession of the land. You subdued before them the Canaanites, who lived in the land; you handed the Canaanites over to them, along with their kings and the peoples of the land, to deal with them as they pleased.
Ne. 9:25 They captured fortified cities and fertile land; they took possession of houses filled with all kinds of good things, wells already dug, vineyards, olive groves and fruit trees in abundance. They ate to the full and were well-nourished; they revelled in your great goodness.

Ne. 9:26 “But they were disobedient and rebelled against you; they put your law behind their backs. They killed your prophets, who had admonished them in order to turn them back to you; they committed awful blasphemies.

Ne. 9:27 So you handed them over to their enemies, who oppressed them. But when they were oppressed they cried out to you. From heaven you heard them, and in your great compassion you gave them deliverers, who rescued them from the hand of their enemies.

Ne. 9:28 “But as soon as they were at rest, they again did what was evil in your sight. Then you abandoned them to the hand of their enemies so that they ruled over them. And when they cried out to you again, you heard from heaven, and in your compassion you delivered them time after time.

Ne. 9:29 “You warned them to return to your law, but they became arrogant and disobeyed your commands. They sinned against your ordinances, by which a man will live if he obeys them.Stubbornly they turned their backs on you, became stiff-necked and refused to listen.

Ne. 9:30 For many years you were patient with them. By your Spirit you admonished them through your prophets. Yet they paid no attention, so you handed them over to the neighbouring peoples.

Ne. 9:31 But in your great mercy you did not put an end to them or abandon them, for you are a gracious and merciful God.

Ne. 9:32 “Now therefore, O our God, the great, mighty and awesome God, who keeps his covenant of love, do not let all this hardship seem trifling in your eyes — the hardship that has come upon us, upon our kings and leaders, upon our priests and prophets, upon our fathers and all your people, from the days of the kings of Assyria until today.

Ne. 9:33 In all that has happened to us, you have been just; you have acted faithfully, while we did wrong.

Ne. 9:34 Our kings, our leaders, our priests and our fathers did not follow your law; they did not pay attention to your commands or the warnings you gave them.

Ne. 9:35 Even while they were in their kingdom, enjoying your great goodness to them in the spacious and fertile land you gave them, they did not serve you or turn from their evil ways.

Ne. 9:36 “But see, we are slaves today, slaves in the land you gave our forefathers so that they could eat its fruit and the other good things it produces.

Ne. 9:37 Because of our sins, its abundant harvest goes to the kings you have placed over us. They rule over our bodies and our cattle as they please. We are in great distress.

Ne. 9:38 “In view of all this, we are making a binding agreement, putting it in writing, and our leaders, our Levites and our priests are affixing their seals to it.”

CHAPTER 10

Ne. 10:1 Those who sealed it were: Nehemiah the governor, the son of Hacaliah. Zedekiah,

Ne. 10:2 Seraiah, Azariah, Jeremiah,

Ne. 10:3 Pashhur, Amariah, Malkijah,

Ne. 10:4 Hattush, Shebaniah, Malluch,

Ne. 10:5 Harim, Meremoth, Obadiah,

Ne. 10:6 Daniel, Ginnethon, Baruch,

Ne. 10:7 Meshullam, Abijah, Mijamin,

Ne. 10:8 Maaziah, Bilgai and Shemaiah. These were the priests.
The Levites: Jeshua son of Azaniah, Binnui of the sons of Henadad, Kadmiel, and their associates: Shebaniah, Hodiah, Kelita, Pelaiah, Hanan, Mica, Rehob, Hashabiah,

Zaccur, Sherebiah, Shebaniah,

Hodiah, Bani and Beninu.

The leaders of the people: Parosh, Pahath-Moab, Elam, Zattu, Bani, Bunni, Azgad, Bebai,

Adonijah, Bigvai, Adin,

Ater, Hezekiah, Azzur,

Hodiah, Hashum, Bezai,

Hariph, Anathoth, Nebai,

Magpiash, Meshullam, Hezir,

Meshezabel, Zadok, Jaddua,

Pelatiah, Hanan, Anaiah,

Hoshea, Hananiah, Hashhub,

Hallohesh, Pilha, Shobek,

Rehum, Hashabnah, Maaseiah,

Ahiah, Hanan, Anan,

Malluch, Harim and Baanah.

“The rest of the people — priests, Levites, gatekeepers, singers, temple servants and all who separated themselves from the neighbouring peoples for the sake of the Law of God, together with their wives and all their sons and daughters who are able to understand — all these now join their brothers the nobles, and bind themselves with a curse and an oath to follow the Law of God given through Moses the servant of God and to obey carefully all the commands, regulations and decrees of the LORD our Lord.

“We promise not to give our daughters in marriage to the peoples around us or take their daughters for our sons.

“When the neighbouring peoples bring merchandise or grain to sell on the Sabbath, we will not buy from them on the Sabbath or on any holy day. Every seventh year we will forgo working the land and will cancel all debts.

“We assume the responsibility for carrying out the commands to give a third of a shekel [That is, about 1/8 ounce (about 4 grams)] each year for the service of the house of our God:

for the bread set out on the table; for the regular grain offerings and burnt offerings; for the offerings on the Sabbaths, New Moon festivals and appointed feasts; for the holy offerings; for sin offerings to make atonement for Israel; and for all the duties of the house of our God.

“We — the priests, the Levites and the people — have cast lots to determine when each of our families is to bring to the house of our God at set times each year a contribution of wood to burn on the altar of the LORD our God, as it is written in the Law.

“We also assume responsibility for bringing to the house of the LORD each year the firstfruits of our crops and of every fruit tree.

“As it is also written in the Law, we will bring the firstborn of our sons and of our cattle, of our herds and of our flocks to the house of our God, to the priests ministering there.

“Moreover, we will bring to the storerooms of the house of our God, to the priests, the first of our ground meal, of our grain offerings, of the fruit of all our trees and of our new wine and oil. And we will bring a tithe of our crops to the Levites, for it is the Levites who collect the tithes in all the towns where we work.

Ne. 10:38 A priest descended from Aaron is to accompany the Levites when they receive the tithes, and the Levites are to bring a tenth of the tithes up to the house of our God, to the storerooms of the treasury.

Ne. 10:39 The people of Israel, including the Levites, are to bring their contributions of grain, new wine and oil to the storerooms where the articles for the sanctuary are kept and where the ministering priests, the gatekeepers and the singers stay. “We will not neglect the house of our God.”

CHAPTER 11

Ne. 11:1 Now the leaders of the people settled in Jerusalem, and the rest of the people cast lots to bring one out of every ten to live in Jerusalem, the holy city, while the remaining nine were to stay in their own towns.

Ne. 11:2 The people commended all the men who volunteered to live in Jerusalem.

Ne. 11:3 These are the provincial leaders who settled in Jerusalem (now some Israelites, priests, Levites, temple servants and descendants of Solomon’s servants lived in the towns of Judah, each on his own property in the various towns,

Ne. 11:4 while other people from both Judah and Benjamin lived in Jerusalem): From the descendants of Judah: Athaiah son of Uzzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Malachi, the son of Shephatiah, the son of Mahalalel, a descendant of Perez;

Ne. 11:5 and Maaseiah son of Baruch, the son of Col-Hozeh, the son of Hazaiah, the son of Adaiah, the son of Joiarib, the son of Zechariah, a descendant of Shelah.

Ne. 11:6 The descendants of Perez who lived in Jerusalem totalled 468 able men.
From the descendants of Benjamin: Sallu son of Meshullam, the son of Joed, the son of Pedaiah, the son of Kolaiah, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel, the son of Jeshaiah, and his followers, Gabbai and Sallai — 928 men.

Joel son of Zicri was their chief officer, and Judah son of Hassenuah was over the Second District of the city.

From the priests: Jedaiah; the son of Joiarib; Jakin; Seraiah son of Hilkiiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, supervisor in the house of God, and their associates, who carried on work for the temple — 822 men; Adaiah son of Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Pashhur, the son of Malkijah, and his associates, who were heads of families — 242 men; Amashsai son of Azarel, the son of Ahzai, the son of Meshillemoth, the son of Immer, and his [Most Septuagint manuscripts; Hebrew their] associates, who were able men — 128 men. Their chief officer was Zabdiel son of Haggedolim.

From the Levites: Shemaiah son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Bunni; Shabbethai and Jozabad, two of the heads of the Levites, who had charge of the outside work of the house of God; Mattaniah son of Mica, the son of Zabdi, the son of Asaph, the director who led in thanksgiving and prayer; Bakbukiah, second among his associates; and Abda son of Shammua, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun.

The Levites in the holy city totalled 284.

The gatekeepers: Akkub, Talmon and their associates, who kept watch at the gates — 172 men.
The rest of the Israelites, with the priests and Levites, were in all the towns of Judah, each on his ancestral property.

The temple servants lived on the hill of Ophel, and Ziha and Gishpa were in charge of them.

The chief officer of the Levites in Jerusalem was Uzzi son of Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Mica. Uzzi was one of Asaph’s descendants, who were the singers responsible for the service of the house of God.

The singers were under the king’s orders, which regulated their daily activity.

Pethahiah son of Meshezabel, one of the descendants of Zerah son of Judah, was the king’s agent in all affairs relating to the people.

As for the villages with their fields, some of the people of Judah lived in Kiriath Arba and its surrounding settlements, in Dibon and its settlements, in Jekabzeel and its villages, in Jeshua, in Moladah, in Beth Pelet, in Hazar Shual, in Beersheba and its settlements, in Ziklag, in Meconah and its settlements, in En Rimmon, in Zorah, in Jarmuth,

Zanoah, Adullam and their villages, in Lachish and its fields, and in Azekah and its settlements. So they were living all the way from Beersheba to the Valley of Hinnom.

The descendants of the Benjamites from Geba lived in Michmash, Aija, Bethel and its settlements, in Anathoth, Nob and Ananiah, in Hazor, Ramah and Gittaim, in Hadid, Zeboim and Neballat, in Lod and Ono, and in the Valley of the Craftsmen.

Some of the divisions of the Levites of Judah settled in Benjamin.

CHAPTER 12

These were the priests and Levites who returned with Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and with Jeshua: Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra,

Amariah, Malluch, Hattush,

Shecaniah, Rehum, Meremoth,

Iddo, Ginnethon, [Many Hebrew manuscripts and Vulgate (see also Neh. 12:16); most Hebrew manuscripts Ginnethoi] Abijah, Mijamin, [A variant of Miniamin] Moadiah, Bilgah,

Shemaiah, Joiarib, Jedaiah,

Sallu, Amok, Hilkhia and Jedaiah. These were the leaders of the priests and their associates in the days of Jeshua.

The Levites were Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and also Mattaniah, who, together with his associates, was in charge of the songs of thanksgiving.

Bakbukiah and Unni, their associates, stood opposite them in the services.

Jeshua was the father of Joiakim, Joiakim the father of Eliashib, Eliashib the father of Joiada, Joiada the father of Jonathan, and Jonathan the father of Jaddua.

In the days of Joiakim, these were the heads of the priestly families: of Seraiah’s family, Meraiah; of Jeremiah’s, Hananiah; of Ezra’s, Meshullam; of Amariah’s, Jehohanan; of Malluch’s, Jonathan; of Shecaniah’s, [Very many Hebrew manuscripts, some Septuagint manuscripts and Syriac (see also Neh. 12:3); most Hebrew manuscripts Shebaniah’s] Joseph;

of Harim’s, Adna; of Meremoth’s, [Some Septuagint manuscripts (see also Neh. 12:3); Hebrew Meraioth’s] Helkai;

of Iddo’s, Zechariah; of Ginnethon’s, Meshullam; of Abijah’s, Zicri; of Miniamin’s and of Moadiah’s, Piltai;

of Bilgah’s, Shammua; of Shemaiah’s, Jehonathan;

of Joiarib’s, Mattenai; of Jedaiah’s, Uzzi;

of Sallu’s, Kallai; of Amok’s, Eber;

of Hilkiah’s, Hashabiah; of Jedaiah’s, Nethanel.

The family heads of the Levites in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, Johanan and Jaddua, as well as those of the priests, were recorded in the reign of Darius the Persian.

The family heads among the descendants of Levi up to the time of Johanan son of Eliashib were recorded in the book of the annals.

And the leaders of the Levites were Hashabiah, Sherebiah, Jeshua son of Kadmiel, and their associates, who stood opposite them to give praise and thanksgiving, one section responding to the other, as prescribed by David the man of God.

Mattaniah, Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon and Akkub were gatekeepers who guarded the storerooms at the gates.

They served in the days of Joiakim son of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the governor and of Ezra the priest and scribe.

At the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem, the Levites were sought out from where they lived and were brought to Jerusalem to celebrate joyfully the dedication with songs of thanksgiving and with the music of cymbals, harps and lyres.

Ne. 12:28 The singers also were brought together from the region around Jerusalem — from the villages of the Netophathites, from Beth Gilgal, and from the area of Geba and Azmaveth, for the singers had built villages for themselves around Jerusalem.

Ne. 12:29 When the priests and Levites had purified themselves ceremonially, they purified the people, the gates and the wall.

Ne. 12:30 I had the leaders of Judah go up on top [Or go alongside] of the wall. I also assigned two large choirs to give thanks. One was to proceed on top [Or proceed alongside] of the wall to the right, towards the Dung Gate.

Ne. 12:31 Hoshaiah and half the leaders of Judah followed them, along with Azariah, Ezra, Meshullam, Judah, Benjamin, Shemaiah, Jeremiah,

Ne. 12:32 as well as some priests with trumpets, and also Zechariah son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Micaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph,

Ne. 12:33 and his associates — Shemaiah, Azarel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethanel, Judah and Hanani — with musical instruments prescribed by David the man of God. Ezra the scribe led the procession.

Ne. 12:34 At the Fountain Gate they continued directly up the steps of the City of David on the ascent to the wall and passed above the house of David to the Water Gate on the east.

Ne. 12:35 The second choir proceeded in the opposite direction. I followed them on top [Or them alongside] of the wall, together with half the people — past the Tower of the Ovens to the Broad Wall,

Ne. 12:36 over the Gate of Ephraim, the Jeshanah [Or Old] Gate, the Fish Gate, the Tower of Hananel and the Tower of the Hundred, as far as the Sheep Gate. At the Gate of the Guard they stopped.

Ne. 12:40 The two choirs that gave thanks then took their places in the house of God; so did I, together with half the officials,

Ne. 12:41 as well as the priests — Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Micaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah and Hananiah with their trumpets —

Ne. 12:42 and also Maaseiah, Shemaiah, Eleazar, Uzzi, Jehohanan, Malkijah, Elam and Ezer. The choirs sang under the direction of Jezrahiah.

Ne. 12:43 And on that day they offered great sacrifices, rejoicing because God had given them great joy. The women and children also rejoiced. The sound of rejoicing in Jerusalem could be heard far away.

Ne. 12:44 At that time men were appointed to be in charge of the storerooms for the contributions, firstfruits and tithes. From the fields around the towns they were to bring into the storerooms the portions required by the Law for the priests and the Levites, for Judah was pleased with the ministering priests and Levites.

Ne. 12:45 They performed the service of their God and the service of purification, as did also the singers and gatekeepers, according to the commands of David and his son Solomon.

Ne. 12:46 For long ago, in the days of David and Asaph, there had been directors for the singers and for the songs of praise and thanksgiving to God.

Ne. 12:47 So in the days of Zerubbabel and of Nehemiah, all Israel contributed the daily portions for the singers and gatekeepers. They also set aside the portion for the other Levites, and the Levites set aside the portion for the descendants of Aaron.
On that day the Book of Moses was read aloud in the hearing of the people and there it was found written that no Ammonite or Moabite should ever be admitted into the assembly of God, because they had not met the Israelites with food and water but had hired Balaam to call a curse down on them. (Our God, however, turned the curse into a blessing.)

When the people heard this law, they excluded from Israel all who were of foreign descent.

Before this, Eliashib the priest had been put in charge of the storerooms of the house of our God. He was closely associated with Tobiah, and he had provided him with a large room formerly used to store the grain offerings and incense and temple articles, and also the tithes of grain, new wine and oil prescribed for the Levites, singers and gatekeepers, as well as the contributions for the priests.

But while all this was going on, I was not in Jerusalem, for in the thirty-second year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon I had returned to the king. Some time later I asked his permission and came back to Jerusalem. Here I learned about the evil thing Eliashib had done in providing Tobiah a room in the courts of the house of God.

I was greatly displeased and threw all Tobiah’s household goods out of the room.

I gave orders to purify the rooms, and then I put back into them the equipment of the house of God, with the grain offerings and the incense.

I also learned that the portions assigned to the Levites had not been given to them, and that all the Levites and singers responsible for the service had gone back to their own fields.
Ne. 13:11 So I rebuked the officials and asked them, “Why is the house of God neglected?” Then I called them together and stationed them at their posts.

Ne. 13:12 All Judah brought the tithes of grain, new wine and oil into the storerooms.

Ne. 13:13 I put Shelemiah the priest, Zadok the scribe, and a Levite named Pedaiah in charge of the storerooms and made Hanan son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah, their assistant, because these men were considered trustworthy. They were made responsible for distributing the supplies to their brothers.

Ne. 13:14 Remember me for this, O my God, and do not blot out what I have so faithfully done for the house of my God and its services.

Ne. 13:15 In those days I saw men in Judah treading winepresses on the Sabbath and bringing in grain and loading it on donkeys, together with wine, grapes, figs and all other kinds of loads. And they were bringing all this into Jerusalem on the Sabbath. Therefore I warned them against selling food on that day.

Ne. 13:16 Men from Tyre who lived in Jerusalem were bringing in fish and all kinds of merchandise and selling them in Jerusalem on the Sabbath to the people of Judah.

Ne. 13:17 I rebuked the nobles of Judah and said to them, “What is this wicked thing you are doing — desecrating the Sabbath day?

Ne. 13:18 Didn’t your forefathers do the same things, so that our God brought all this calamity upon us and upon this city? Now you are stirring up more wrath against Israel by desecrating the Sabbath.”

Ne. 13:19 When evening shadows fell on the gates of Jerusalem before the Sabbath, I ordered the doors to be shut and not opened until the Sabbath was over. I stationed some of my own men at the gates so that no load could be brought in on the Sabbath day.
Once or twice the merchants and sellers of all kinds of goods spent the night outside Jerusalem.

But I warned them and said, “Why do you spend the night by the wall? If you do this again, I will lay hands on you.” From that time on they no longer came on the Sabbath.

Then I commanded the Levites to purify themselves and go and guard the gates in order to keep the Sabbath day holy. Remember me for this also, O my God, and show mercy to me according to your great love.

Moreover, in those days I saw men of Judah who had married women from Ashdod, Ammon and Moab.

Half of their children spoke the language of Ashdod or the language of one of the other peoples, and did not know how to speak the language of Judah.

I rebuked them and called curses down on them. I beat some of the men and pulled out their hair. I made them take an oath in God’s name and said: “You are not to give your daughters in marriage to their sons, nor are you to take their daughters in marriage for your sons or for yourselves.

Was it not because of marriages like these that Solomon king of Israel sinned? Among the many nations there was no king like him. He was loved by his God, and God made him king over all Israel, but even he was led into sin by foreign women.

Must we hear now that you too are doing all this terrible wickedness and are being unfaithful to our God by marrying foreign women?”

One of the sons of Joiada son of Eliashib the high priest was son-in-law to Sanballat the Horonite. And I drove him away from me.

Remember them, O my God, because they defiled the priestly office and the covenant of the priesthood and of the Levites.
Ne. 13:30 So I purified the priests and the Levites of everything foreign, and assigned them duties, each to his own task.

Ne. 13:31 I also made provision for contributions of wood at designated times, and for the firstfruits. Remember me with favour, O my God.
This is what happened during the time of Xerxes, [Hebrew Ahasuerus, a variant of Xerxes’ Persian name; here and throughout Esther] the Xerxes who ruled over 127 provinces stretching from India to Cush: [That is, the upper Nile region]

At that time King Xerxes reigned from his royal throne in the citadel of Susa, and in the third year of his reign he gave a banquet for all his nobles and officials. The military leaders of Persia and Media, the princes, and the nobles of the provinces were present.

For a full 180 days he displayed the vast wealth of his kingdom and the splendour and glory of his majesty.

When these days were over, the king gave a banquet, lasting seven days, in the enclosed garden of the king’s palace, for all the people from the least to the greatest, who were in the citadel of Susa.

The garden had hangings of white and blue linen, fastened with cords of white linen and purple material to silver rings on marble pillars. There were couches of gold and silver on a mosaic pavement of porphyry, marble, mother-of-pearl and other costly stones.

Wine was served in goblets of gold, each one different from the other, and the royal wine was abundant, in keeping with the king’s liberality.

By the king’s command each guest was allowed to drink in his own way, for the king instructed all the wine stewards to serve each man what he wished.
Queen Vashti also gave a banquet for the women in the royal palace of King Xerxes.

On the seventh day, when King Xerxes was in high spirits from wine, he commanded the seven eunuchs who served him — Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, Abagtha, Zethar and Carcas — to bring before him Queen Vashti, wearing her royal crown, in order to display her beauty to the people and nobles, for she was lovely to look at.

But when the attendants delivered the king’s command, Queen Vashti refused to come. Then the king became furious and burned with anger.

Since it was customary for the king to consult experts in matters of law and justice, he spoke with the wise men who understood the times and were closest to the king — Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena and Memucan, the seven nobles of Persia and Media who had special access to the king and were highest in the kingdom.

“According to law, what must be done to Queen Vashti?” he asked. “She has not obeyed the command of King Xerxes that the eunuchs have taken to her.”

Then Memucan replied in the presence of the king and the nobles, “Queen Vashti has done wrong, not only against the king but also against all the nobles and the peoples of all the provinces of King Xerxes.

For the queen’s conduct will become known to all the women, and so they will despise their husbands and say, ‘King Xerxes commanded Queen Vashti to be brought before him, but she would not come.’

This very day the Persian and Median women of the nobility who have heard about the queen’s conduct will respond to all the king’s nobles in the same way. There will be no end of disrespect and discord.
Es. 1:19 “Therefore, if it pleases the king, let him issue a royal decree and let it be written in the laws of Persia and Media, which cannot be repealed, that Vashti is never again to enter the presence of King Xerxes. Also let the king give her royal position to someone else who is better than she.

Es. 1:20 Then when the king’s edict is proclaimed throughout all his vast realm, all the women will respect their husbands, from the least to the greatest.”

Es. 1:21 The king and his nobles were pleased with this advice, so the king did as Memucan proposed.

Es. 1:22 He sent dispatches to all parts of the kingdom, to each province in its own script and to each people in its own language, proclaiming in each people’s tongue that every man should be ruler over his own household.

CHAPTER 2

Es. 2:1 Later when the anger of King Xerxes had subsided, he remembered Vashti and what she had done and what he had decreed about her.

Es. 2:2 Then the king’s personal attendants proposed, “Let a search be made for beautiful young virgins for the king.

Es. 2:3 Let the king appoint commissioners in every province of his realm to bring all these beautiful girls into the harem at the citadel of Susa. Let them be placed under the care of Hegai, the king’s eunuch, who is in charge of the women; and let beauty treatments be given to them.

Es. 2:4 Then let the girl who pleases the king be queen instead of Vashti.” This advice appealed to the king, and he followed it.

Es. 2:5 Now there was in the citadel of Susa a Jew of the tribe of Benjamin, named Mordecai son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish,
Es. 2:6 who had been carried into exile from Jerusalem by Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, among those taken captive with Jehoiachin [Hebrew Jeconiah, a variant of Jehoiachin] king of Judah.

Es. 2:7 Mordecai had a cousin named Hadassah, whom he had brought up because she had neither father nor mother. This girl, who was also known as Esther, was lovely in form and features, and Mordecai had taken her as his own daughter when her father and mother died.

Es. 2:8 When the king’s order and edict had been proclaimed, many girls were brought to the citadel of Susa and put under the care of Hegai. Esther also was taken to the king’s palace and entrusted to Hegai, who had charge of the harem.

Es. 2:9 The girl pleased him and won his favour. Immediately he provided her with her beauty treatments and special food. He assigned to her seven maids selected from the king’s palace and moved her and her maids into the best place in the harem.

Es. 2:10 Esther had not revealed her nationality and family background, because Mordecai had forbidden her to do so.

Es. 2:11 Every day he walked to and fro near the courtyard of the harem to find out how Esther was and what was happening to her.

Es. 2:12 Before a girl’s turn came to go in to King Xerxes, she had to complete twelve months of beauty treatments prescribed for the women, six months with oil of myrrh and six with perfumes and cosmetics.

Es. 2:13 And this is how she would go to the king: Anything she wanted was given to her to take with her from the harem to the king’s palace.

Es. 2:14 In the evening she would go there and in the morning return to another part of the harem to the care of Shaashgaz, the king’s eunuch who was in charge of the concubines. She would not return to the king unless he was pleased with her and summoned her by name.
When the turn came for Esther (the girl Mordecai had adopted, the daughter of his uncle Abihail) to go to the king, she asked for nothing other than what Hegai, the king’s eunuch who was in charge of the harem, suggested. And Esther won the favour of everyone who saw her.

She was taken to King Xerxes in the royal residence in the tenth month, the month of Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign.

Now the king was attracted to Esther more than to any of the other women, and she won his favour and approval more than any of the other virgins. So he set a royal crown on her head and made her queen instead of Vashti.

And the king gave a great banquet, Esther’s banquet, for all his nobles and officials. He proclaimed a holiday throughout the provinces and distributed gifts with royal liberality.

When the virgins were assembled a second time, Mordecai was sitting at the king’s gate.

But Esther had kept secret her family background and nationality just as Mordecai had told her to do, for she continued to follow Mordecai’s instructions as she had done when he was bringing her up.

During the time Mordecai was sitting at the king’s gate, Bigthan [Hebrew Bigthan, a variant of Bigthana] and Teresh, two of the king’s officers who guarded the doorway, became angry and conspired to assassinate King Xerxes.

But Mordecai found out about the plot and told Queen Esther, who in turn reported it to the king, giving credit to Mordecai.

And when the report was investigated and found to be true, the two officials were hanged on a gallows. [Or were hung (or impaled) on poles; similarly elsewhere in Esther] All this was recorded in the book of the annals in the presence of the king.
CHAPTER 3

Es. 3:1 After these events, King Xerxes honoured Haman son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, elevating him and giving him a seat of honour higher than that of all the other nobles.

Es. 3:2 All the royal officials at the king’s gate knelt down and paid honour to Haman, for the king had commanded this concerning him. But Mordecai would not kneel down or pay him honour.

Es. 3:3 Then the royal officials at the king’s gate asked Mordecai, “Why do you disobey the king’s command?”

Es. 3:4 Day after day they spoke to him but he refused to comply. Therefore they told Haman about it to see whether Mordecai’s behaviour would be tolerated, for he had told them he was a Jew.

Es. 3:5 When Haman saw that Mordecai would not kneel down or pay him honour, he was enraged.

Es. 3:6 Yet having learned who Mordecai’s people were, he scorned the idea of killing only Mordecai. Instead Haman looked for a way to destroy all Mordecai’s people, the Jews, throughout the whole kingdom of Xerxes.

Es. 3:7 In the twelfth year of King Xerxes, in the first month, the month of Nisan, they cast the pur (that is, the lot) in the presence of Haman to select a day and month. And the lot fell on [Septuagint; Hebrew does not have And the lot fell on.] the twelfth month, the month of Adar.

Es. 3:8 Then Haman said to King Xerxes, “There is a certain people dispersed and scattered among the peoples in all the provinces of your kingdom whose customs are different from those of all other people and who do not obey the king’s laws; it is not in the king’s best interest to tolerate them.

Es. 3:9 If it pleases the king, let a decree be issued to destroy them, and I will put ten thousand talents [That is, about 340 tons (about 345 metric tons)] of silver into the royal treasury for the men who carry out this business.”

Es. 3:10 So the king took his signet ring from his finger and gave it to Haman son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of the Jews.

Es. 3:11 “Keep the money,” the king said to Haman, “and do with the people as you please.”

Es. 3:12 Then on the thirteenth day of the first month the royal secretaries were summoned. They wrote out in the script of each province and in the language of each people all Haman’s orders to the king’s satraps, the governors of the various provinces and the nobles of the various peoples. These were written in the name of King Xerxes himself and sealed with his own ring.

Es. 3:13 Dispatches were sent by couriers to all the king’s provinces with the order to destroy, kill and annihilate all the Jews — young and old, women and little children — on a single day, the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month of Adar, and to plunder their goods.

Es. 3:14 A copy of the text of the edict was to be issued as law in every province and made known to the people of every nationality so that they would be ready for that day.

Es. 3:15 Spurred on by the king’s command, the couriers went out, and the edict was issued in the citadel of Susa. The king and Haman sat down to drink, but the city of Susa was bewildered.

CHAPTER 4

Es. 4:1 When Mordecai learned of all that had been done, he tore his clothes, put on sackcloth and ashes, and went out into the city, wailing loudly and bitterly.

Es. 4:2 But he went only as far as the king’s gate, because no-one clothed in sackcloth was allowed to enter it.
In every province to which the edict and order of the king came, there was great mourning among the Jews, with fasting, weeping and wailing. Many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

When Esther’s maids and eunuchs came and told her about Mordecai, she was in great distress. She sent clothes for him to put on instead of his sackcloth, but he would not accept them.

Then Esther summoned Hathach, one of the king’s eunuchs assigned to attend her, and ordered him to find out what was troubling Mordecai and why.

So Hathach went out to Mordecai in the open square of the city in front of the king’s gate.

Mordecai told him everything that had happened to him, including the exact amount of money Haman had promised to pay into the royal treasury for the destruction of the Jews.

He also gave him a copy of the text of the edict for their annihilation, which had been published in Susa, to show to Esther and explain it to her, and he told him to urge her to go into the king’s presence to beg for mercy and plead with him for her people.

Hathach went back and reported to Esther what Mordecai had said.

“All the king’s officials and the people of the royal provinces know that for any man or woman who approaches the king in the inner court without being summoned the king has but one law: that he be put to death. The only exception to this is for the king to extend the gold sceptre to him and spare his life. But thirty days have passed since I was called to go to the king.”

When Esther’s words were reported to Mordecai,
Es. 4:13 he sent back this answer: “Do not think that because you are in the king’s house you alone of all the Jews will escape.

Es. 4:14 For if you remain silent at this time, relief and deliverance for the Jews will arise from another place, but you and your father’s family will perish. And who knows but that you have come to royal position for such a time as this?”

Es. 4:15 Then Esther sent this reply to Mordecai:

Es. 4:16 “Go, gather together all the Jews who are in Susa, and fast for me. Do not eat or drink for three days, night or day. I and my maids will fast as you do. When this is done, I will go to the king, even though it is against the law. And if I perish, I perish.”

Es. 4:17 So Mordecai went away and carried out all of Esther’s instructions.

CHAPTER 5

Es. 5:1 On the third day Esther put on her royal robes and stood in the inner court of the palace, in front of the king’s hall. The king was sitting on his royal throne in the hall, facing the entrance.

Es. 5:2 When he saw Queen Esther standing in the court, he was pleased with her and held out to her the gold sceptre that was in his hand. So Esther approached and touched the tip of the sceptre.

Es. 5:3 Then the king asked, “What is it, Queen Esther? What is your request? Even up to half the kingdom, it will be given you.”

Es. 5:4 “If it pleases the king,” replied Esther, “let the king, together with Haman, come today to a banquet I have prepared for him.”

Es. 5:5 “Bring Haman at once,” the king said, “so that we may do what Esther asks.” So the king and Haman went to the banquet Esther had prepared.
Es. 5:6 As they were drinking wine, the king again asked Esther, “Now what is your petition? It will be given you. And what is your request? Even up to half the kingdom, it will be granted.”

Es. 5:7 Esther replied, “My petition and my request is this:

Es. 5:8 If the king regards me with favour and if it pleases the king to grant my petition and fulfil my request, let the king and Haman come tomorrow to the banquet I will prepare for them. Then I will answer the king’s question.”

Es. 5:9 Haman went out that day happy and in high spirits. But when he saw Mordecai at the king’s gate and observed that he neither rose nor showed fear in his presence, he was filled with rage against Mordecai.

Es. 5:10 Nevertheless, Haman restrained himself and went home. Calling together his friends and Zeresh, his wife, Es. 5:11 Haman boasted to them about his vast wealth, his many sons, and all the ways the king had honoured him and how he had elevated him above the other nobles and officials.

Es. 5:12 “And that’s not all,” Haman added. “I’m the only person Queen Esther invited to accompany the king to the banquet she gave. And she has invited me along with the king tomorrow.

Es. 5:13 But all this gives me no satisfaction as long as I see that Jew Mordecai sitting at the king’s gate.”

Es. 5:14 His wife Zeresh and all his friends said to him, “Have a gallows built, seventy-five feet [Hebrew fifty cubits (about 23 metres)] high, and ask the king in the morning to have Mordecai hanged on it. Then go with the king to the dinner and be happy.” This suggestion delighted Haman, and he had the gallows built.
That night the king could not sleep; so he ordered the book of the chronicles, the record of his reign, to be brought in and read to him.

It was found recorded there that Mordecai had exposed Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king’s officers who guarded the doorway, who had conspired to assassinate King Xerxes.

“What honour and recognition has Mordecai received for this?” the king asked. “Nothing has been done for him,” his attendants answered.

The king said, “Who is in the court?” Now Haman had just entered the outer court of the palace to speak to the king about hanging Mordecai on the gallows he had erected for him.

His attendants answered, “Haman is standing in the court.” “Bring him in,” the king ordered.

When Haman entered, the king asked him, “What should be done for the man the king delights to honour?” Now Haman thought to himself, “Who is there that the king would rather honour than me?”

So he answered the king, “For the man the king delights to honour, have them bring a royal robe the king has worn and a horse the king has ridden, one with a royal crest placed on its head.

Then let the robe and horse be entrusted to one of the king’s most noble princes. Let them robe the man the king delights to honour, and lead him on the horse through the city streets, proclaiming before him, “This is what is done for the man the king delights to honour!”

“Go at once,” the king commanded Haman. “Get the robe and the horse and do just as you have suggested for Mordecai the Jew, who sits at the king’s gate. Do not neglect anything you have recommended.”

Es. 6:11 So Haman got the robe and the horse. He robed Mordecai, and led him on horseback through the city streets, proclaiming before him, “This is what is done for the man the king delights to honour!”

Es. 6:12 Afterwards Mordecai returned to the king’s gate. But Haman rushed home, with his head covered, in grief,

Es. 6:13 and told Zeresh his wife and all his friends everything that had happened to him. His advisers and his wife Zeresh said to him, “Since Mordecai, before whom your downfall has started, is of Jewish origin, you cannot stand against him — you will surely come to ruin!”

Es. 6:14 While they were still talking with him, the king’s eunuchs arrived and hurried Haman away to the banquet Esther had prepared.

CHAPTER 7

Es. 7:1 So the king and Haman went to dine with Queen Esther,

Es. 7:2 and as they were drinking wine on that second day, the king again asked, “Queen Esther, what is your petition? It will be given you. What is your request? Even up to half the kingdom, it will be granted.”

Es. 7:3 Then Queen Esther answered, “If I have found favour with you, O king, and if it pleases your majesty, grant me my life — this is my petition. And spare my people — this is my request.

Es. 7:4 For I and my people have been sold for destruction and slaughter and annihilation. If we had merely been sold as male and female slaves, I would have kept quiet, because no such distress would justify disturbing the king.” [Or quiet, but the compensation our adversary offers cannot be compared with the loss the king would suffer]
Es. 7:5 King Xerxes asked Queen Esther, “Who is he? Where is the man who has dared to do such a thing?”

Es. 7:6 Esther said, “The adversary and enemy is this vile Haman.” Then Haman was terrified before the king and queen.

Es. 7:7 The king got up in a rage, left his wine and went out into the palace garden. But Haman, realising that the king had already decided his fate, stayed behind to beg Queen Esther for his life.

Es. 7:8 Just as the king returned from the palace garden to the banquet hall, Haman was falling on the couch where Esther was reclining. The king exclaimed, “Will he even molest the queen while she is with me in the house?” As soon as the word left the king’s mouth, they covered Haman’s face.

Es. 7:9 Then Harbona, one of the eunuchs attending the king, said, “A gallows seventy-five feet [Hebrew fifty cubits (about 23 metres)] high stands by Haman’s house. He had it made for Mordecai, who spoke up to help the king.” The king said, “Hang him on it!”

Es. 7:10 So they hanged Haman on the gallows he had prepared for Mordecai. Then the king’s fury subsided.

CHAPTER 8

Es. 8:1 That same day King Xerxes gave Queen Esther the estate of Haman, the enemy of the Jews. And Mordecai came into the presence of the king, for Esther had told how he was related to her.

Es. 8:2 The king took off his signet ring, which he had reclaimed from Haman, and presented it to Mordecai. And Esther appointed him over Haman’s estate.

Es. 8:3 Esther again pleaded with the king, falling at his feet and weeping. She begged him to put an end to the evil plan of Haman the Agagite, which he had devised against the Jews.
Then the king extended the gold sceptre to Esther and she arose and stood before him.

“If it pleases the king,” she said, “and if he regards me with favour and thinks it the right thing to do, and if he is pleased with me, let an order be written overruling the dispatches that Haman son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, devised and wrote to destroy the Jews in all the king’s provinces.

For how can I bear to see disaster fall on my people? How can I bear to see the destruction of my family?”

King Xerxes replied to Queen Esther and to Mordecai the Jew, “Because Haman attacked the Jews, I have given his estate to Esther, and they have hanged him on the gallows.

Now write another decree in the king’s name on behalf of the Jews as seems best to you, and seal it with the king’s signet ring — for no document written in the king’s name and sealed with his ring can be revoked.”

At once the royal secretaries were summoned — on the twenty-third day of the third month, the month of Sivan. They wrote out all Mordecai’s orders to the Jews, and to the satraps, governors and nobles of the 127 provinces stretching from India to Cush. [That is, the upper Nile region] These orders were written in the script of each province and the language of each people and also to the Jews in their own script and language.

Mordecai wrote in the name of King Xerxes, sealed the dispatches with the king’s signet ring, and sent them by mounted couriers, who rode fast horses especially bred for the king.

The king’s edict granted the Jews in every city the right to assemble and protect themselves; to destroy, kill and annihilate any armed force of any nationality or province that might attack them and their women and children; and to plunder the property of their enemies.
The day appointed for the Jews to do this in all the provinces of King Xerxes was the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month of Adar.

A copy of the text of the edict was to be issued as law in every province and made known to the people of every nationality so that the Jews would be ready on that day to avenge themselves on their enemies.

The couriers, riding the royal horses, raced out, spurred on by the king’s command. And the edict was also issued in the citadel of Susa.

Mordecai left the king’s presence wearing royal garments of blue and white, a large crown of gold and a purple robe of fine linen. And the city of Susa held a joyous celebration.

For the Jews it was a time of happiness and joy, gladness and honour.

In every province and in every city, wherever the edict of the king went, there was joy and gladness among the Jews, with feasting and celebrating. And many people of other nationalities became Jews because fear of the Jews had seized them.

On the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month of Adar, the edict commanded by the king was to be carried out. On this day the enemies of the Jews had hoped to overpower them, but now the tables were turned and the Jews got the upper hand over those who hated them.

The Jews assembled in their cities in all the provinces of King Xerxes to attack those seeking their destruction. No-one could stand against them, because the people of all the other nationalities were afraid of them.
And all the nobles of the provinces, the satraps, the governors and the king’s administrators helped the Jews, because fear of Mordecai had seized them.

Mordecai was prominent in the palace; his reputation spread throughout the provinces, and he became more and more powerful.

The Jews struck down all their enemies with the sword, killing and destroying them, and they did what they pleased to those who hated them.

In the citadel of Susa, the Jews killed and destroyed five hundred men.

They also killed Parshandatha, Dalphon, Aspatha,
Poratha, Adalia, Aridatha,
Parmashta, Arisai, Aridai and Vaizatha, the ten sons of Haman son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews. But they did not lay their hands on the plunder.

The number of those slain in the citadel of Susa was reported to the king that same day.

The king said to Queen Esther, “The Jews have killed and destroyed five hundred men and the ten sons of Haman in the citadel of Susa. What have they done in the rest of the king’s provinces? Now what is your petition? It will be given you. What is your request? It will also be granted.”

“If it pleases the king,” Esther answered, “give the Jews in Susa permission to carry out this day’s edict tomorrow also, and let Haman’s ten sons be hanged on gallows.”

So the king commanded that this be done. An edict was issued in Susa, and they hanged the ten sons of Haman.

The Jews in Susa came together on the fourteenth day of the month of Adar, and they put to death in Susa three hundred men, but they did not lay their hands on the plunder.
Es. 9:16 Meanwhile, the remainder of the Jews who were in the king’s provinces also assembled to protect themselves and get relief from their enemies. They killed seventy-five thousand of them but did not lay their hands on the plunder.

Es. 9:17 This happened on the thirteenth day of the month of Adar, and on the fourteenth they rested and made it a day of feasting and joy.

Es. 9:18 The Jews in Susa, however, had assembled on the thirteenth and fourteenth, and then on the fifteenth they rested and made it a day of feasting and joy.

Es. 9:19 That is why rural Jews — those living in villages — observe the fourteenth of the month of Adar as a day of joy and feasting, a day for giving presents to each other.

Es. 9:20 Mordecai recorded these events, and he sent letters to all the Jews throughout the provinces of King Xerxes, near and far, to have them celebrate annually the fourteenth and fifteenth days of the month of Adar.

Es. 9:22 as the time when the Jews got relief from their enemies, and as the month when their sorrow was turned into joy and their mourning into a day of celebration. He wrote to them to observe the days as days of feasting and joy and giving presents of food to one another and gifts to the poor.

Es. 9:23 So the Jews agreed to continue the celebration they had begun, doing what Mordecai had written to them.

Es. 9:24 For Haman son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had plotted against the Jews to destroy them and had cast the pur (that is, the lot) for their ruin and destruction.

Es. 9:25 But when the plot came to the king’s attention, [Or when Esther came before the king] he issued written orders that the evil scheme Haman had devised against the Jews should come back on to his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.
Es. 9:26  (Therefore these days were called Purim, from the word pur.)
Because of everything written in this letter and because of what they had seen and what had happened to them,

Es. 9:27  the Jews took it upon themselves to establish the custom that they and their descendants and all who join them should without fail observe these two days every year, in the way prescribed and at the time appointed.

Es. 9:28  These days should be remembered and observed in every generation by every family, and in every province and in every city. And these days of Purim should never cease to be celebrated by the Jews, nor should the memory of them die out among their descendants.

Es. 9:29  So Queen Esther, daughter of Abihail, along with Mordecai the Jew, wrote with full authority to confirm this second letter concerning Purim.

Es. 9:30  And Mordecai sent letters to all the Jews in the 127 provinces of the kingdom of Xerxes — words of goodwill and assurance — to establish these days of Purim at their designated times, as Mordecai the Jew and Queen Esther had decreed for them, and as they had established for themselves and their descendants in regard to their times of fasting and lamentation.

Es. 9:32  Esther’s decree confirmed these regulations about Purim, and it was written down in the records.

CHAPTER 10

Es. 10:1  King Xerxes imposed tribute throughout the empire, to its distant shores.

Es. 10:2  And all his acts of power and might, together with a full account of the greatness of Mordecai to which the king had raised him, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Media and Persia?
Es. 10:3  Mordecai the Jew was second in rank to King Xerxes, pre-eminent among the Jews, and held in high esteem by his many fellow Jews, because he worked for the good of his people and spoke up for the welfare of all the Jews.
In the land of Uz there lived a man whose name was Job. This man was blameless and upright; he feared God and shunned evil.

He had seven sons and three daughters, and he owned seven thousand sheep, three thousand camels, five hundred yoke of oxen and five hundred donkeys, and had a large number of servants. He was the greatest man among all the people of the East.

His sons used to take turns holding feasts in their homes, and they would invite their three sisters to eat and drink with them.

When a period of feasting had run its course, Job would send and have them purified. Early in the morning he would sacrifice a burnt offering for each of them, thinking, “Perhaps my children have sinned and cursed God in their hearts.” This was Job’s regular custom.

One day the angels [Hebrew the sons of God] came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan [Satan means accuser.] also came with them.

The LORD said to Satan, “Where have you come from?” Satan answered the LORD, “From roaming through the earth and going to and fro in it.”

Then the LORD said to Satan, “Have you considered my servant Job? There is no-one on earth like him; he is blameless and upright, a man who fears God and shuns evil.”

“Does Job fear God for nothing?” Satan replied.
Job 1:10 “Have you not put a hedge around him and his household and everything he has? You have blessed the work of his hands, so that his flocks and herds are spread throughout the land.

Job 1:11 But stretch out your hand and strike everything he has, and he will surely curse you to your face.”

Job 1:12 The LORD said to Satan, “Very well, then, everything he has is in your hands, but on the man himself do not lay a finger.” Then Satan went out from the presence of the LORD.

Job 1:13 One day when Job’s sons and daughters were feasting and drinking wine at the oldest brother’s house,

Job 1:14 a messenger came to Job and said, “The oxen were ploughing and the donkeys were grazing nearby, Job 1:15 and the Sabeans attacked and carried them off. They put the servants to the sword, and I am the only one who has escaped to tell you!”

Job 1:16 While he was still speaking, another messenger came and said, “The fire of God fell from the sky and burned up the sheep and the servants, and I am the only one who has escaped to tell you!”

Job 1:17 While he was still speaking, another messenger came and said, “The Chaldeans formed three raiding parties and swept down on your camels and carried them off. They put the servants to the sword, and I am the only one who has escaped to tell you!”

Job 1:18 While he was still speaking, yet another messenger came and said, “Your sons and daughters were feasting and drinking wine at the oldest brother’s house, Job 1:19 when suddenly a mighty wind swept in from the desert and struck the four corners of the house. It collapsed on them and they are dead, and I am the only one who has escaped to tell you!”

Job 1:20 At this, Job got up and tore his robe and shaved his head. Then he fell to the ground in worship
Job 1:21 and said: “Naked I came from my mother’s womb, and naked I shall depart. [Or shall return there] The LORD gave and the LORD has taken away; may the name of the LORD be praised.”

Job 1:22 In all this, Job did not sin by charging God with wrongdoing.

CHAPTER 2

Job 2:1 On another day the angels [Hebrew the sons of God] came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan also came with them to present himself before him.

Job 2:2 And the LORD said to Satan, “Where have you come from?” Satan answered the LORD, “From roaming through the earth and going to and fro in it.”

Job 2:3 Then the LORD said to Satan, “Have you considered my servant Job? There is no-one on earth like him; he is blameless and upright, a man who fears God and shuns evil. And he still maintains his integrity, though you incited me against him to ruin him without any reason.”

Job 2:4 “Skin for skin!” Satan replied. “A man will give all he has for his own life.

Job 2:5 But stretch out your hand and strike his flesh and bones, and he will surely curse you to your face.”

Job 2:6 The LORD said to Satan, “Very well, then, he is in your hands; but you must spare his life.”

Job 2:7 So Satan went out from the presence of the LORD and afflicted Job with painful sores from the soles of his feet to the top of his head.

Job 2:8 Then Job took a piece of broken pottery and scraped himself with it as he sat among the ashes.

Job 2:9 His wife said to him, “Are you still holding on to your integrity? Curse God and die!”
Job 2:10 He replied, “You are talking like a foolish [The Hebrew word rendered foolish denotes moral deficiency.] woman. Shall we accept good from God, and not trouble?” In all this, Job did not sin in what he said.

Job 2:11 When Job’s three friends, Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite, heard about all the troubles that had come upon him, they set out from their homes and met together by agreement to go and sympathise with him and comfort him.

Job 2:12 When they saw him from a distance, they could hardly recognise him; they began to weep aloud, and they tore their robes and sprinkled dust on their heads.

Job 2:13 Then they sat on the ground with him for seven days and seven nights. No-one said a word to him, because they saw how great his suffering was.

CHAPTER 3

Job 3:1 After this, Job opened his mouth and cursed the day of his birth.

Job 3:2 He said:

Job 3:3 “May the day of my birth perish, and the night it was said, ‘A boy is born!’

Job 3:4 That day — may it turn to darkness; may God above not care about it; may no light shine upon it.

Job 3:5 May darkness and deep shadow [Or and the shadow of death] claim it once more; may a cloud settle over it; may blackness overwhelm its light.

Job 3:6 That night — may thick darkness seize it; may it not be included among the days of the year nor be entered in any of the months.

Job 3:7 May that night be barren; may no shout of joy be heard in it.
May those who curse days [Or the sea] curse that day, those who are ready to rouse Leviathan.

May its morning stars become dark; may it wait for daylight in vain and not see the first rays of dawn, for it did not shut the doors of the womb on me to hide trouble from my eyes.

“Why did I not perish at birth, and die as I came from the womb?

Why were there knees to receive me and breasts that I might be nursed?

For now I would be lying down in peace; I would be asleep and at rest with kings and counsellors of the earth, who built for themselves places now lying in ruins, with rulers who had gold, who filled their houses with silver.

Or why was I not hidden in the ground like a stillborn child, like an infant who never saw the light of day?

There the wicked cease from turmoil, and there the weary are at rest.

Captives also enjoy their ease; they no longer hear the slave driver’s shout.

The small and the great are there, and the slave is freed from his master.

“Why is light given to those in misery, and life to the bitter of soul, to those who long for death that does not come, who search for it more than for hidden treasure, who are filled with gladness and rejoice when they reach the grave?

Why is life given to a man whose way is hidden, whom God has hedged in?
Job 3:24 For sighing comes to me instead of food; my groans pour out like water.

Job 3:25 What I feared has come upon me; what I dreaded has happened to me.

Job 3:26 I have no peace, no quietness; I have no rest, but only turmoil.”

CHAPTER 4

Job 4:1 Then Eliphaz the Temanite replied:

Job 4:2 “If someone ventures a word with you, will you be impatient? But who can keep from speaking?

Job 4:3 Think how you have instructed many, how you have strengthened feeble hands.

Job 4:4 Your words have supported those who stumbled; you have strengthened faltering knees.

Job 4:5 But now trouble comes to you, and you are discouraged; it strikes you, and you are dismayed.

Job 4:6 Should not your piety be your confidence and your blameless ways your hope?

Job 4:7 “Consider now: Who, being innocent, has ever perished? Where were the upright ever destroyed?

Job 4:8 As I have observed, those who plough evil and those who sow trouble reap it.

Job 4:9 At the breath of God they are destroyed; at the blast of his anger they perish.

Job 4:10 The lions may roar and growl, yet the teeth of the great lions are broken.

Job 4:11 The lion perishes for lack of prey, and the cubs of the lioness are scattered.
Job 4:12 “A word was secretly brought to me, my ears caught a whisper of it.

Job 4:13 Amid disquieting dreams in the night, when deep sleep falls on men,

Job 4:14 fear and trembling seized me and made all my bones shake.

Job 4:15 A spirit glided past my face, and the hair on my body stood on end.

Job 4:16 It stopped, but I could not tell what it was. A form stood before my eyes, and I heard a hushed voice:

Job 4:17 ‘Can a mortal be more righteous than God? Can a man be more pure than his Maker?

Job 4:18 If God places no trust in his servants, if he charges his angels with error,

Job 4:19 how much more those who live in houses of clay, whose foundations are in the dust, who are crushed more readily than a moth!

Job 4:20 Between dawn and dusk they are broken to pieces; unnoticed, they perish for ever.

Job 4:21 Are not the cords of their tent pulled up, so that they die without wisdom?’ [Some interpreters end the quotation after verse 17.]

CHAPTER 5

Job 5:1 “Call if you will, but who will answer you? To which of the holy ones will you turn?

Job 5:2 Resentment kills a fool, and envy slays the simple.

Job 5:3 I myself have seen a fool taking root, but suddenly his house was cursed.

Job 5:4 His children are far from safety, crushed in court without a defender.
Job 5:5 The hungry consume his harvest, taking it even from among thorns, and the thirsty pant after his wealth.

Job 5:6 For hardship does not spring from the soil, nor does trouble sprout from the ground.

Job 5:7 Yet man is born to trouble as surely as sparks fly upward.

Job 5:8 “But if it were I, I would appeal to God; I would lay my cause before him.

Job 5:9 He performs wonders that cannot be fathomed, miracles that cannot be counted.

Job 5:10 He bestows rain on the earth; he sends water upon the countryside.

Job 5:11 The lowly he sets on high, and those who mourn are lifted to safety.

Job 5:12 He thwarts the plans of the crafty, so that their hands achieve no success.

Job 5:13 He catches the wise in their craftiness, and the schemes of the wily are swept away.

Job 5:14 Darkness comes upon them in the daytime; at noon they grope as in the night.

Job 5:15 He saves the needy from the sword in their mouth; he saves them from the clutches of the powerful.

Job 5:16 So the poor have hope, and injustice shuts its mouth.

Job 5:17 “Blessed is the man whom God corrects; so do not despise the discipline of the Almighty. [Hebrew Shaddai; here and throughout Job]

Job 5:18 For he wounds, but he also binds up; he injures, but his hands also heal.

Job 5:19 From six calamities he will rescue you; in seven no harm will befall you.

Job 5:20 In famine he will ransom you from death, and in battle from the stroke of the sword.
Job 5:21 You will be protected from the lash of the tongue, and need not fear when destruction comes.

Job 5:22 You will laugh at destruction and famine, and need not fear the beasts of the earth.

Job 5:23 For you will have a covenant with the stones of the field, and the wild animals will be at peace with you.

Job 5:24 You will know that your tent is secure; you will take stock of your property and find nothing missing.

Job 5:25 You will know that your children will be many, and your descendants like the grass of the earth.

Job 5:26 You will come to the grave in full vigour, like sheaves gathered in season.

Job 5:27 “We have examined this, and it is true. So hear it and apply it to yourself.”

CHAPTER 6

Job 6:1 Then Job replied:

Job 6:2 “If only my anguish could be weighed and all my misery be placed on the scales!

Job 6:3 It would surely outweigh the sand of the seas — no wonder my words have been impetuous.

Job 6:4 The arrows of the Almighty are in me, my spirit drinks in their poison; God’s terrors are marshalled against me.

Job 6:5 Does a wild donkey bray when it has grass, or an ox bellow when it has fodder?

Job 6:6 Is tasteless food eaten without salt, or is there flavour in the white of an egg? [The meaning of the Hebrew for this phrase is uncertain.]

Job 6:7 I refuse to touch it; such food makes me ill.
Job 6:8 “Oh, that I might have my request, that God would grant what I hope for,

Job 6:9 that God would be willing to crush me, to let loose his hand and cut me off!

Job 6:10 Then I would still have this consolation — my joy in unrelenting pain — that I had not denied the words of the Holy One.

Job 6:11 “What strength do I have, that I should still hope? What prospects, that I should be patient?

Job 6:12 Do I have the strength of stone? Is my flesh bronze?

Job 6:13 Do I have any power to help myself, now that success has been driven from me?

Job 6:14 “A despairing man should have the devotion of his friends, even though he forsakes the fear of the Almighty.

Job 6:15 But my brothers are as undependable as intermittent streams, as the streams that overflow

Job 6:16 when darkened by thawing ice and swollen with melting snow,

Job 6:17 but that cease to flow in the dry season, and in the heat vanish from their channels.

Job 6:18 Caravans turn aside from their routes; they go up into the wasteland and perish.

Job 6:19 The caravans of Tema look for water, the travelling merchants of Sheba look in hope.

Job 6:20 They are distressed, because they had been confident; they arrive there, only to be disappointed.

Job 6:21 Now you too have proved to be of no help; you see something dreadful and are afraid.

Job 6:22 Have I ever said, ‘Give something on my behalf, pay a ransom for me from your wealth, Job 6:23 deliver me from the hand of the enemy, ransom me from the clutches of the ruthless’?

Job 6:24 “Teach me, and I will be quiet; show me where I have been wrong.

Job 6:25 How painful are honest words! But what do your arguments prove?

Job 6:26 Do you mean to correct what I say, and treat the words of a despairing man as wind?

Job 6:27 You would even cast lots for the fatherless and barter away your friend.

Job 6:28 “But now be so kind as to look at me. Would I lie to your face?

Job 6:29 Relent, do not be unjust; reconsider, for my integrity is at stake. [Or my righteousness still stands]

Job 6:30 Is there any wickedness on my lips? Can my mouth not discern malice?

CHAPTER 7

Job 7:1 “Does not man have hard service on earth? Are not his days like those of a hired man?

Job 7:2 Like a slave longing for the evening shadows, or a hired man waiting eagerly for his wages,

Job 7:3 so I have been allotted months of futility, and nights of misery have been assigned to me.

Job 7:4 When I lie down I think, ‘How long before I get up?’ The night drags on, and I toss till dawn.

Job 7:5 My body is clothed with worms and scabs, my skin is broken and festering.

Job 7:6 “My days are swifter than a weaver’s shuttle, and they come to an end without hope.
Remember, O God, that my life is but a breath; my eyes will never see happiness again.

The eye that now sees me will see me no longer; you will look for me, but I will be no more.

As a cloud vanishes and is gone, so he who goes down to the grave [Hebrew Sheol] does not return.

He will never come to his house again; his place will know him no more.

“Therefore I will not keep silent; I will speak out in the anguish of my spirit, I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.

Am I the sea, or the monster of the deep, that you put me under guard?

When I think my bed will comfort me and my couch will ease my complaint, even then you frighten me with dreams and terrify me with visions, so that I prefer strangling and death, rather than this body of mine.

I despise my life; I would not live for ever. Let me alone; my days have no meaning.

“What is man that you make so much of him, that you give him so much attention, that you examine him every morning and test him every moment?

Will you never look away from me, or let me alone even for an instant?

If I have sinned, what have I done to you, O watcher of men? Why have you made me your target? Have I become a burden to you? [A few manuscripts of the Masoretic Text, an ancient Hebrew scribal tradition and Septuagint; most Job 7:21 Why do you not pardon my offences and forgive my sins? For I shall soon lie down in the dust; you will search for me, but I shall be no more.”

CHAPTER 8

Job 8:1 Then Bildad the Shuhite replied:

Job 8:2 “How long will you say such things? Your words are a blustering wind.

Job 8:3 Does God pervert justice? Does the Almighty pervert what is right?

Job 8:4 When your children sinned against him, he gave them over to the penalty of their sin.

Job 8:5 But if you will look to God and plead with the Almighty,

Job 8:6 if you are pure and upright, even now he will rouse himself on your behalf and restore you to your rightful place.

Job 8:7 Your beginnings will seem humble, so prosperous will your future be.

Job 8:8 “Ask the former generations and find out what their fathers learned,

Job 8:9 for we were born only yesterday and know nothing, and our days on earth are but a shadow.

Job 8:10 Will they not instruct you and tell you? Will they not bring forth words from their understanding?

Job 8:11 Can papyrus grow tall where there is no marsh? Can reeds thrive without water?

Job 8:12 While still growing and uncut, they wither more quickly than grass.
Job 8:13 Such is the destiny of all who forget God; so perishes the hope of the godless.

Job 8:14 What he trusts in is fragile; [The meaning of the Hebrew for this word is uncertain.] what he relies on is a spider’s web.

Job 8:15 He leans on his web, but it gives way; he clings to it, but it does not hold.

Job 8:16 He is like a well-watered plant in the sunshine, spreading its shoots over the garden;

Job 8:17 it entwines its roots around a pile of rocks and looks for a place among the stones.

Job 8:18 But when it is torn from its spot, that place disowns it and says, ‘I never saw you.’

Job 8:19 Surely its life withers away, and [Or Surely all the joy it has is that] from the soil other plants grow.

Job 8:20 “Surely God does not reject a blameless man or strengthen the hands of evildoers.

Job 8:21 He will yet fill your mouth with laughter and your lips with shouts of joy.

Job 8:22 Your enemies will be clothed in shame, and the tents of the wicked will be no more.”

CHAPTER 9

Job 9:1 Then Job replied:

Job 9:2 “Indeed, I know that this is true. But how can a mortal be righteous before God?

Job 9:3 Though one wished to dispute with him, he could not answer him one time out of a thousand.

Job 9:4 His wisdom is profound, his power is vast. Who has resisted him and come out unscathed?
Job 9:5 He moves mountains without their knowing it and overturns them in his anger.

Job 9:6 He shakes the earth from its place and makes its pillars tremble.

Job 9:7 He speaks to the sun and it does not shine; he seals off the light of the stars.

Job 9:8 He alone stretches out the heavens and treads on the waves of the sea.

Job 9:9 He is the Maker of the Bear and Orion, the Pleiades and the constellations of the south.

Job 9:10 He performs wonders that cannot be fathomed, miracles that cannot be counted.

Job 9:11 When he passes me, I cannot see him; when he goes by, I cannot perceive him.

Job 9:12 If he snatches away, who can stop him? Who can say to him, ‘What are you doing?’

Job 9:13 God does not restrain his anger; even the cohorts of Rahab cowered at his feet.

Job 9:14 “How then can I dispute with him? How can I find words to argue with him?

Job 9:15 Though I were innocent, I could not answer him; I could only plead with my Judge for mercy.

Job 9:16 Even if I summoned him and he responded, I do not believe he would give me a hearing.

Job 9:17 He would crush me with a storm and multiply my wounds for no reason.

Job 9:18 He would not let me regain my breath but would overwhelm me with misery.

Job 9:19 If it is a matter of strength, he is mighty! And if it is a matter of justice, who will summon him? [See Septuagint; Hebrew me.]
Job 9:20  Even if I were innocent, my mouth would condemn me; if I were blameless, it would pronounce me guilty.

Job 9:21  “Although I am blameless, I have no concern for myself; I despise my own life.

Job 9:22  It is all the same; that is why I say, ‘He destroys both the blameless and the wicked.’

Job 9:23  When a scourge brings sudden death, he mocks the despair of the innocent.

Job 9:24  When a land falls into the hands of the wicked, he blindfolds its judges. If it is not he, then who is it?

Job 9:25  ‘My days are swifter than a runner; they fly away without a glimpse of joy.

Job 9:26  They skim past like boats of papyrus, like eagles swooping down on their prey.

Job 9:27  If I say, ‘I will forget my complaint, I will change my expression, and smile,’

Job 9:28  I still dread all my sufferings, for I know you will not hold me innocent.

Job 9:29  Since I am already found guilty, why should I struggle in vain?

Job 9:30  Even if I washed myself with soap [Or snow] and my hands with washing soda, Job 9:31  you would plunge me into a slime pit so that even my clothes would detest me.

Job 9:32  “He is not a man like me that I might answer him, that we might confront each other in court.

Job 9:33  If only there were someone to arbitrate between us, to lay his hand upon us both,

Job 9:34  someone to remove God’s rod from me, so that his terror would frighten me no more.
Then I would speak up without fear of him, but as it now stands with me, I cannot.

CHAPTER 10

Job 10:1 “I loathe my very life; therefore I will give free rein to my complaint and speak out in the bitterness of my soul.

Job 10:2 I will say to God: Do not condemn me, but tell me what charges you have against me.

Job 10:3 Does it please you to oppress me, to spurn the work of your hands, while you smile on the schemes of the wicked?

Job 10:4 Do you have eyes of flesh? Do you see as a mortal sees?

Job 10:5 Are your days like those of a mortal or your years like those of a man,

Job 10:6 that you must search out my faults and probe after my sin —

Job 10:7 though you know that I am not guilty and that no-one can rescue me from your hand?

Job 10:8 “Your hands shaped me and made me. Will you now turn and destroy me?

Job 10:9 Remember that you moulded me like clay. Will you now turn me to dust again?

Job 10:10 Did you not pour me out like milk and curdle me like cheese,

Job 10:11 clothe me with skin and flesh and knit me together with bones and sinews?

Job 10:12 You gave me life and showed me kindness, and in your providence watched over my spirit.

Job 10:13 “But this is what you concealed in your heart, and I know that this was in your mind:

Job 10:14 If I sinned, you would be watching me and would not let my offence go unpunished.
Job 10:15 If I am guilty — woe to me! Even if I am innocent, I cannot lift my head, for I am full of shame and drowned in [Or and aware of] my affliction.

Job 10:16 If I hold my head high, you stalk me like a lion and again display your awesome power against me.

Job 10:17 You bring new witnesses against me and increase your anger towards me; your forces come against me wave upon wave.

Job 10:18 “Why then did you bring me out of the womb? I wish I had died before any eye saw me.

Job 10:19 If only I had never come into being, or had been carried straight from the womb to the grave!

Job 10:20 Are not my few days almost over? Turn away from me so that I can have a moment’s joy

Job 10:21 before I go to the place of no return, to the land of gloom and deep shadow, [Or and the shadow of death; also in verse 22]

Job 10:22 to the land of deepest night, of deep shadow and disorder, where even the light is like darkness.”

CHAPTER 11

Job 11:1 Then Zophar the Naamathite replied:

Job 11:2 “Are all these words to go unanswered? Is this talker to be vindicated?

Job 11:3 Will your idle talk reduce men to silence? Will no-one rebuke you when you mock?

Job 11:4 You say to God, `My beliefs are flawless and I am pure in your sight.’

Job 11:5 Oh, how I wish that God would speak, that he would open his lips against you and disclose to you the secrets of wisdom, for true wisdom has two sides. Know this: God has even forgotten some of your sin.

Job 11:7 “Can you fathom the mysteries of God? Can you probe the limits of the Almighty?

Job 11:8 They are higher than the heavens — what can you do? They are deeper than the depths of the grave — [Hebrew than Sheol] what can you know?

Job 11:9 Their measure is longer than the earth and wider than the sea.

Job 11:10 “If he comes along and confines you in prison and convenes a court, who can oppose him?

Job 11:11 Surely he recognises deceitful men; and when he sees evil, does he not take note?

Job 11:12 But a witless man can no more become wise than a wild donkey’s colt can be born a man. [Or wild donkey can be born tame]

Job 11:13 “Yet if you devote your heart to him and stretch out your hands to him,

Job 11:14 if you put away the sin that is in your hand and allow no evil to dwell in your tent,

Job 11:15 then you will lift up your face without shame; you will stand firm and without fear.

Job 11:16 You will surely forget your trouble, recalling it only as waters gone by.

Job 11:17 Life will be brighter than noonday, and darkness will become like morning.

Job 11:18 You will be secure, because there is hope; you will look about you and take your rest in safety.

Job 11:19 You will lie down, with no-one to make you afraid, and many will court your favour.
Job 11:20  But the eyes of the wicked will fail, and escape will elude them; their hope will become a dying gasp.”

CHAPTER 12

Job 12:1  Then Job replied:

Job 12:2  “Doubtless you are the people, and wisdom will die with you!

Job 12:3  But I have a mind as well as you; I am not inferior to you.
Who does not know all these things?

Job 12:4  “I have become a laughing-stock to my friends, though I called upon God and he answered — a mere laughing-stock, though righteous and blameless!

Job 12:5  Men at ease have contempt for misfortune as the fate of those whose feet are slipping.

Job 12:6  The tents of marauders are undisturbed, and those who provoke God are secure — those who carry their god in their hands. [Or secure in what God’s hand brings them]

Job 12:7  “But ask the animals, and they will teach you, or the birds of the air, and they will tell you;

Job 12:8  or speak to the earth, and it will teach you, or let the fish of the sea inform you.

Job 12:9  Which of all these does not know that the hand of the LORD has done this?

Job 12:10  In his hand is the life of every creature and the breath of all mankind.

Job 12:11  Does not the ear test words as the tongue tastes food?

Job 12:12  Is not wisdom found among the aged? Does not long life bring understanding?

Job 12:13  “To God belong wisdom and power; counsel and understanding are his.
Job 12:14  What he tears down cannot be rebuilt; the man he imprisons cannot be released.

Job 12:15  If he holds back the waters, there is drought; if he lets them loose, they devastate the land.

Job 12:16  To him belong strength and victory; both deceived and deceiver are his.

Job 12:17  He leads counsellors away stripped and makes fools of judges.

Job 12:18  He takes off the shackles put on by kings and ties a loincloth [Or shackles of kings and ties a belt] round their waist.

Job 12:19  He leads priests away stripped and overthrows men long established.

Job 12:20  He silences the lips of trusted advisers and takes away the discernment of elders.

Job 12:21  He pours contempt on nobles and disarms the mighty.

Job 12:22  He reveals the deep things of darkness and brings deep shadows into the light.

Job 12:23  He makes nations great, and destroys them; he enlarges nations, and disperses them.

Job 12:24  He deprives the leaders of the earth of their reason; he sends them wandering through a trackless waste.

Job 12:25  They grope in darkness with no light; he makes them stagger like drunkards.

CHAPTER 13

Job 13:1  “My eyes have seen all this, my ears have heard and understood it.

Job 13:2  What you know, I also know; I am not inferior to you.

Job 13:3  But I desire to speak to the Almighty and to argue my case with God.
You, however, smear me with lies; you are worthless physicians, all of you!

If only you would be altogether silent! For you, that would be wisdom.

Hear now my argument; listen to the plea of my lips.

Will you speak wickedly on God’s behalf? Will you speak deceitfully for him?

Will you show him partiality? Will you argue the case for God?

Would it turn out well if he examined you? Could you deceive him as you might deceive men?

He would surely rebuke you if you secretly showed partiality.

Would not his splendour terrify you? Would not the dread of him fall on you?

Your maxims are proverbs of ashes; your defences are defences of clay.

“Keep silent and let me speak; then let come to me what may.

Why do I put myself in jeopardy and take my life in my hands?

Though he slay me, yet will I hope in him; I will surely [Or He will surely slay me; I have no hope — yet I will] defend my ways to his face.

Indeed, this will turn out for my deliverance, for no godless man would dare come before him!

Listen carefully to my words; let your ears take in what I say.

Now that I have prepared my case, I know I will be vindicated.

Can anyone bring charges against me? If so, I will be silent and die.
Job 13:20 “Only grant me these two things, O God, and then I will not hide from you:

Job 13:21 Withdraw your hand far from me, and stop frightening me with your terrors.

Job 13:22 Then summon me and I will answer, or let me speak, and you reply.

Job 13:23 How many wrongs and sins have I committed? Show me my offence and my sin.

Job 13:24 Why do you hide your face and consider me your enemy?

Job 13:25 Will you torment a wind-blown leaf? Will you chase after dry chaff?

Job 13:26 For you write down bitter things against me and make me inherit the sins of my youth.

Job 13:27 You fasten my feet in shackles; you keep close watch on all my paths by putting marks on the soles of my feet.

Job 13:28 “So man wastes away like something rotten, like a garment eaten by moths.

CHAPTER 14

Job 14:1 “Man born of woman is of few days and full of trouble.

Job 14:2 He springs up like a flower and withers away; like a fleeting shadow, he does not endure.

Job 14:3 Do you fix your eye on such a one? Will you bring him [Septuagint, Vulgate and Syriac; Hebrew me] before you for judgment?

Job 14:4 Who can bring what is pure from the impure? No-one!

Job 14:5 Man’s days are determined; you have decreed the number of his months and have set limits he cannot exceed.

Job 14:6 So look away from him and let him alone, till he has put in his time like a hired man.
Job 14:7  “At least there is hope for a tree: If it is cut down, it will sprout again, and its new shoots will not fail.

Job 14:8  Its roots may grow old in the ground and its stump die in the soil,

Job 14:9  yet at the scent of water it will bud and put forth shoots like a plant.

Job 14:10 But man dies and is laid low; he breathes his last and is no more.

Job 14:11 As water disappears from the sea or a river bed becomes parched and dry, Job 14:12 so man lies down and does not rise; till the heavens are no more, men will not awake or be roused from their sleep.

Job 14:13 “If only you would hide me in the grave [Hebrew Sheol] and conceal me till your anger has passed! If only you would set me a time and then remember me!

Job 14:14 If a man dies, will he live again? All the days of my hard service I will wait for my renewal [Or release] to come.

Job 14:15 You will call and I will answer you; you will long for the creature your hands have made.

Job 14:16 Surely then you will count my steps but not keep track of my sin.

Job 14:17 My offences will be sealed up in a bag; you will cover over my sin.

Job 14:18 “But as a mountain erodes and crumbles and as a rock is moved from its place,

Job 14:19 as water wears away stones and torrents wash away the soil, so you destroy man’s hope.

Job 14:20 You overpower him once for all, and he is gone; you change his countenance and send him away.

Job 14:21 If his sons are honoured, he does not know it; if they are brought low, he does not see it.
Job 14:22 He feels but the pain of his own body and mourns only for himself.”

CHAPTER 15

Job 15:1 Then Eliphaz the Temanite replied:

Job 15:2 “Would a wise man answer with empty notions or fill his belly with the hot east wind?

Job 15:3 Would he argue with useless words, with speeches that have no value?

Job 15:4 But you even undermine piety and hinder devotion to God.

Job 15:5 Your sin prompts your mouth; you adopt the tongue of the crafty.

Job 15:6 Your own mouth condemns you, not mine; your own lips testify against you.

Job 15:7 “Are you the first man ever born? Were you brought forth before the hills?

Job 15:8 Do you listen in on God’s council? Do you limit wisdom to yourself?

Job 15:9 What do you know that we do not know? What insights do you have that we do not have?

Job 15:10 The grey-haired and the aged are on our side, men even older than your father.

Job 15:11 Are God’s consolations not enough for you, words spoken gently to you?

Job 15:12 Why has your heart carried you away, and why do your eyes flash,

Job 15:13 so that you vent your rage against God and pour out such words from your mouth?

Job 15:14 “What is man, that he could be pure, or one born of woman, that he could be righteous?
Job 15:15 If God places no trust in his holy ones, if even the heavens are not pure in his eyes,

Job 15:16 how much less man, who is vile and corrupt, who drinks up evil like water!

Job 15:17 “Listen to me and I will explain to you; let me tell you what I have seen,

Job 15:18 what wise men have declared, hiding nothing received from their fathers

Job 15:19 (to whom alone the land was given when no alien passed among them):

Job 15:20 All his days the wicked man suffers torment, the ruthless through all the years stored up for him.

Job 15:21 Terrifying sounds fill his ears; when all seems well, marauders attack him.

Job 15:22 He despairs of escaping the darkness; he is marked for the sword.

Job 15:23 He wanders about — food for vultures; [Or about, looking for food] he knows the day of darkness is at hand.

Job 15:24 Distress and anguish fill him with terror; they overwhelm him, like a king poised to attack,

Job 15:25 because he shakes his fist at God and vaunts himself against the Almighty, Job 15:26 defiantly charging against him with a thick, strong shield.

Job 15:27 “Though his face is covered with fat and his waist bulges with flesh,

Job 15:28 he will inhabit ruined towns and houses where no-one lives, houses crumbling to rubble.

Job 15:29 He will no longer be rich and his wealth will not endure, nor will his possessions spread over the land.

Job 15:30 He will not escape the darkness; a flame will wither his shoots, and the breath of God’s mouth will carry him away.
Job 15:31 Let him not deceive himself by trusting what is worthless, for he will get nothing in return.

Job 15:32 Before his time he will be paid in full, and his branches will not flourish.

Job 15:33 He will be like a vine stripped of its unripe grapes, like an olive tree shedding its blossoms.

Job 15:34 For the company of the godless will be barren, and fire will consume the tents of those who love bribes.

Job 15:35 They conceive trouble and give birth to evil; their womb fashions deceit.”

CHAPTER 16

Job 16:1 Then Job replied:

Job 16:2 “I have heard many things like these; miserable comforters are you all!

Job 16:3 Will your long-winded speeches never end? What ails you that you keep on arguing?

Job 16:4 I also could speak like you, if you were in my place; I could make fine speeches against you and shake my head at you.

Job 16:5 But my mouth would encourage you; comfort from my lips would bring you relief.

Job 16:6 “Yet if I speak, my pain is not relieved; and if I refrain, it does not go away.

Job 16:7 Surely, O God, you have worn me out; you have devastated my entire household.

Job 16:8 You have bound me — and it has become a witness; my gauntness rises up and testifies against me.

Job 16:9 God assails me and tears me in his anger and gnashes his teeth at me; my opponent fastens on me his piercing eyes.
Job 16:10 Men open their mouths to jeer at me; they strike my cheek in scorn and unite together against me.

Job 16:11 God has turned me over to evil men and thrown me into the clutches of the wicked.

Job 16:12 All was well with me, but he shattered me; he seized me by the neck and crushed me. He has made me his target;

Job 16:13 his archers surround me. Without pity, he pierces my kidneys and spills my gall on the ground.

Job 16:14 Again and again he bursts upon me; he rushes at me like a warrior.

Job 16:15 “I have sewed sackcloth over my skin and buried my brow in the dust.

Job 16:16 My face is red with weeping, deep shadows ring my eyes;

Job 16:17 yet my hands have been free of violence and my prayer is pure.

Job 16:18 “O earth, do not cover my blood; may my cry never be laid to rest!

Job 16:19 Even now my witness is in heaven; my advocate is on high.

Job 16:20 My intercessor is my friend [Or My friends treat me with scorn] as my eyes pour out tears to God;

Job 16:21 on behalf of a man he pleads with God as a man pleads for his friend.

Job 16:22 “Only a few years will pass before I go on the journey of no return.

CHAPTER 17

Job 17:1 My spirit is broken, my days are cut short, the grave awaits me.

Job 17:2 Surely mockers surround me; my eyes must dwell on their hostility.
Job 17:3 “Give me, O God, the pledge you demand. Who else will put up security for me?

Job 17:4 You have closed their minds to understanding; therefore you will not let them triumph.

Job 17:5 If a man denounces his friends for reward, the eyes of his children will fail.

Job 17:6 “God has made me a byword to everyone, a man in whose face people spit.

Job 17:7 My eyes have grown dim with grief; my whole frame is but a shadow.

Job 17:8 Upright men are appalled at this; the innocent are aroused against the ungodly.

Job 17:9 Nevertheless, the righteous will hold to their ways, and those with clean hands will grow stronger.

Job 17:10 “But come on, all of you, try again! I will not find a wise man among you.

Job 17:11 My days have passed, my plans are shattered, and so are the desires of my heart.

Job 17:12 These men turn night into day; in the face of darkness they say, `Light is near.'

Job 17:13 If the only home I hope for is the grave, [Hebrew Sheol] if I spread out my bed in darkness,

Job 17:14 if I say to corruption, `You are my father,' and to the worm, `My mother' or `My sister', Job 17:15 where then is my hope? Who can see any hope for me?

Job 17:16 Will it go down to the gates of death? [Hebrew to Sheol] Will we descend together into the dust?”

CHAPTER 18

Job 18:1 Then Bildad the Shuhite replied:
Job 18:2  “When will you end these speeches? Be sensible, and then we can talk.

Job 18:3  Why are we regarded as cattle and considered stupid in your sight?

Job 18:4  You who tear yourself to pieces in your anger, is the earth to be abandoned for your sake? Or must the rocks be moved from their place?

Job 18:5  “The lamp of the wicked is snuffed out; the flame of his fire stops burning.

Job 18:6  The light in his tent becomes dark; the lamp beside him goes out.

Job 18:7  The vigour of his step is weakened; his own schemes throw him down.

Job 18:8  His feet thrust him into a net and he wanders into its mesh.

Job 18:9  A trap seizes him by the heel; a snare holds him fast.

Job 18:10  A noose is hidden for him on the ground; a trap lies in his path.

Job 18:11  Terrors startle him on every side and dog his every step.

Job 18:12  Calamity is hungry for him; disaster is ready for him when he falls.

Job 18:13  It eats away parts of his skin; death’s firstborn devours his limbs.

Job 18:14  He is torn from the security of his tent and marched off to the king of terrors.

Job 18:15  Fire resides [Or Nothing he had remains] in his tent; burning sulphur is scattered over his dwelling.

Job 18:16  His roots dry up below and his branches wither above.

Job 18:17  The memory of him perishes from the earth; he has no name in the land.
Job 18:18 He is driven from light into darkness and is banished from the world.

Job 18:19 He has no offspring or descendants among his people, no survivor where once he lived.

Job 18:20 Men of the west are appalled at his fate; men of the east are seized with horror.

Job 18:21 Surely such is the dwelling of an evil man; such is the place of one who knows not God.”

CHAPTER 19

Job 19:1 Then Job replied:

Job 19:2 “How long will you torment me and crush me with words?

Job 19:3 Ten times now you have reproached me; shamelessly you attack me.

Job 19:4 If it is true that I have gone astray, my error remains my concern alone.

Job 19:5 If indeed you would exalt yourselves above me and use my humiliation against me,

Job 19:6 then know that God has wronged me and drawn his net around me.

Job 19:7 “Though I cry, `I’ve been wronged!’ I get no response; though I call for help, there is no justice.

Job 19:8 He has blocked my way so that I cannot pass; he has shrouded my paths in darkness.

Job 19:9 He has stripped me of my honour and removed the crown from my head.

Job 19:10 He tears me down on every side till I am gone; he uproots my hope like a tree.

Job 19:11 His anger burns against me; he counts me among his enemies.
His troops advance in force; they build a siege ramp against me and encamp around my tent.

“He has alienated my brothers from me; my acquaintances are completely estranged from me.

My kinsmen have gone away; my friends have forgotten me.

My guests and my maidservants count me a stranger; they look upon me as an alien.

I summon my servant, but he does not answer, though I beg him with my own mouth.

My breath is offensive to my wife; I am loathsome to my own brothers.

Even the little boys scorn me; when I appear, they ridicule me.

All my intimate friends detest me; those I love have turned against me.

I am nothing but skin and bones; I have escaped by only the skin of my teeth. [Or only my gums]

“Have pity on me, my friends, have pity, for the hand of God has struck me.

Why do you pursue me as God does? Will you never get enough of my flesh?

“Oh, that my words were recorded, that they were written on a scroll, that they were inscribed with an iron tool on [Or and] lead, or engraved in rock for ever!

I know that my Redeemer [Or defender] lives, and that in the end he will stand upon the earth. [Or upon my grave]

And after my skin has been destroyed, yet [Or And after I awake, though this body has been destroyed, then] in [Or apart from] my flesh I will see God;
Job 19:27  I myself will see him with my own eyes — I, and not another. How my heart yearns within me!

Job 19:28  “If you say, ‘How we will hound him, since the root of the trouble lies in him,’ [Many Hebrew manuscripts, Septuagint and Vulgate; most Hebrew manuscripts me]

Job 19:29  you should fear the sword yourselves; for wrath will bring punishment by the sword, and then you will know that there is judgment.” [Or that you may come to know the Almighty]

CHAPTER 20

Job 20:1  Then Zophar the Naamathite replied:

Job 20:2  “My troubled thoughts prompt me to answer because I am greatly disturbed.

Job 20:3  I hear a rebuke that dishonours me, and my understanding inspires me to reply.

Job 20:4  “Surely you know how it has been from of old, ever since man [Or Adam] was placed on the earth,

Job 20:5  that the mirth of the wicked is brief, the joy of the godless lasts but a moment.

Job 20:6  Though his pride reaches to the heavens and his head touches the clouds,

Job 20:7  he will perish for ever, like his own dung; those who have seen him will say, ‘Where is he?’

Job 20:8  Like a dream he flies away, no more to be found, banished like a vision of the night.

Job 20:9  The eye that saw him will not see him again; his place will look on him no more.

Job 20:10  His children must make amends to the poor; his own hands must give back his wealth.
The youthful vigour that fills his bones will lie with him in the dust.

“Though evil is sweet in his mouth and he hides it under his tongue, though he cannot bear to let it go and keeps it in his mouth, yet his food will turn sour in his stomach; it will become the venom of serpents within him.

He will spit out the riches he swallowed; God will make his stomach vomit them up.

He will suck the poison of serpents; the fangs of an adder will kill him.

He will not enjoy the streams, the rivers flowing with honey and cream.

What he toiled for he must give back uneaten; he will not enjoy the profit from his trading.

For he has oppressed the poor and left them destitute; he has seized houses he did not build.

“Surely he will have no respite from his craving; he cannot save himself by his treasure.

Nothing is left for him to devour; his prosperity will not endure.

In the midst of his plenty, distress will overtake him; the full force of misery will come upon him.

When he has filled his belly, God will vent his burning anger against him and rain down his blows upon him.

Though he flees from an iron weapon, a bronze-tipped arrow pierces him.

He pulls it out of his back, the gleaming point out of his liver. Terrors will come over him; total darkness lies in wait for his treasures. A fire unfanned will consume him and devour what is left in his tent.

Job 20:27 The heavens will expose his guilt; the earth will rise up against him.

Job 20:28 A flood will carry off his house, rushing waters [Or The possessions in his house will be carried off, washed away] on the day of God’s wrath.

Job 20:29 Such is the fate God allots the wicked, the heritage appointed for them by God.”

CHAPTER 21

Job 21:1 Then Job replied:

Job 21:2 “Listen carefully to my words; let this be the consolation you give me.

Job 21:3 Bear with me while I speak, and after I have spoken, mock on.

Job 21:4 “Is my complaint directed to man? Why should I not be impatient?

Job 21:5 Look at me and be astonished; clap your hand over your mouth.

Job 21:6 When I think about this, I am terrified; trembling seizes my body.

Job 21:7 Why do the wicked live on, growing old and increasing in power?

Job 21:8 They see their children established around them, their offspring before their eyes.

Job 21:9 Their homes are safe and free from fear; the rod of God is not upon them.

Job 21:10 Their bulls never fail to breed; their cows calve and do not miscarry.

Job 21:11 They send forth their children as a flock; their little ones dance about.
They sing to the music of tambourine and harp; they make merry to the sound of the flute.

They spend their years in prosperity and go down to the grave [Hebrew Sheol] in peace. [Or in an instant]

Yet they say to God, `Leave us alone! We have no desire to know your ways.'

Who is the Almighty, that we should serve him? What would we gain by praying to him?'

But their prosperity is not in their own hands, so I stand aloof from the counsel of the wicked.

Yet how often is the lamp of the wicked snuffed out? How often does calamity come upon them, the fate God allots in his anger?

How often are they like straw before the wind, like chaff swept away by a gale?

It is said, `God stores up a man’s punishment for his sons.’ Let him repay the man himself, so that he will know it!

Let his own eyes see his destruction; let him drink of the wrath of the Almighty. [Verses 17 and 18 may be taken as exclamations and 19 and 20 as declarations.]

For what does he care about the family he leaves behind when his allotted months come to an end?

“Can anyone teach knowledge to God, since he judges even the highest?

One man dies in full vigour, completely secure and at ease, his body [The meaning of the Hebrew for this word is uncertain.] well nourished, his bones rich with marrow.

Another man dies in bitterness of soul, never having enjoyed anything good.

Side by side they lie in the dust, and worms cover them both.
Job 21:27  “I know full well what you are thinking, the schemes by which you would wrong me.

Job 21:28  You say, ‘Where now is the great man’s house, the tents where wicked men lived?’

Job 21:29  Have you never questioned those who travel? Have you paid no regard to their accounts —

Job 21:30  that the evil man is spared from the day of calamity, that he is delivered from [Or man is reserved for the day of calamity, that he is brought forth to] the day of wrath?

Job 21:31  Who denounces his conduct to his face? Who repays him for what he has done?

Job 21:32  He is carried to the grave, and watch is kept over his tomb.

Job 21:33  The soil in the valley is sweet to him; all men follow after him, and a countless throng goes [Or as a countless throng went] before him.

Job 21:34  “So how can you console me with your nonsense? Nothing is left of your answers but falsehood!”

CHAPTER 22

Job 22:1  Then Eliphaz the Temanite replied:

Job 22:2  “Can a man be of benefit to God? Can even a wise man benefit him?

Job 22:3  What pleasure would it give the Almighty if you were righteous? What would he gain if your ways were blameless?

Job 22:4  “Is it for your piety that he rebukes you and brings charges against you?

Job 22:5  Is not your wickedness great? Are not your sins endless?

Job 22:6  You demanded security from your brothers for no reason; you stripped men of their clothing, leaving them naked.
Job 22:7  You gave no water to the weary and you withheld food from the hungry,

Job 22:8  though you were a powerful man, owning land — an honoured man, living on it.

Job 22:9  And you sent widows away empty-handed and broke the strength of the fatherless.

Job 22:10  That is why snares are all around you, why sudden peril terrifies you,

Job 22:11  why it is so dark that you cannot see, and why a flood of water covers you.

Job 22:12  "Is not God in the heights of heaven? And see how lofty are the highest stars!

Job 22:13  Yet you say, 'What does God know? Does he judge through such darkness?

Job 22:14  Thick clouds veil him, so he does not see us as he goes about in the vaulted heavens.'

Job 22:15  Will you keep to the old path that evil men have trod?

Job 22:16  They were carried off before their time, their foundations washed away by a flood.

Job 22:17  They said to God, 'Leave us alone! What can the Almighty do to us?'

Job 22:18  Yet it was he who filled their houses with good things, so I stand aloof from the counsel of the wicked.

Job 22:19  "The righteous see their ruin and rejoice; the innocent mock them, saying,

Job 22:20  'Surely our foes are destroyed, and fire devours their wealth.'

Job 22:21  "Submit to God and be at peace with him; in this way prosperity will come to you.

Job 22:22  Accept instruction from his mouth and lay up his words in your heart.
Job 22:23 If you return to the Almighty, you will be restored: If you remove wickedness far from your tent

Job 22:24 and assign your nuggets to the dust, your gold of Ophir to the rocks in the ravines, Job 22:25 then the Almighty will be your gold, the choicest silver for you.

Job 22:26 Surely then you will find delight in the Almighty and will lift up your face to God.

Job 22:27 You will pray to him, and he will hear you, and you will fulfil your vows.

Job 22:28 What you decide on will be done, and light will shine on your ways.

Job 22:29 When men are brought low and you say, `Lift them up!’ then he will save the downcast.

Job 22:30 He will deliver even one who is not innocent, who will be delivered through the cleanness of your hands.”

CHAPTER 23

Job 23:1 Then Job replied:

Job 23:2 “Even today my complaint is bitter; his hand [Septuagint and Syriac; Hebrew the hand on me] is heavy in spite of [Or heavy on me in] my groaning.

Job 23:3 If only I knew where to find him; if only I could go to his dwelling!

Job 23:4 I would state my case before him and fill my mouth with arguments.

Job 23:5 I would find out what he would answer me, and consider what he would say.

Job 23:6 Would he oppose me with great power? No, he would not press charges against me.
Job 23:7 There an upright man could present his case before him, and I would be delivered for ever from my judge.

Job 23:8 “But if I go to the east, he is not there; if I go to the west, I do not find him.

Job 23:9 When he is at work in the north, I do not see him; when he turns to the south, I catch no glimpse of him.

Job 23:10 But he knows the way that I take; when he has tested me, I shall come forth as gold.

Job 23:11 My feet have closely followed his steps; I have kept to his way without turning aside.

Job 23:12 I have not departed from the commands of his lips; I have treasured the words of his mouth more than my daily bread.

Job 23:13 “But he stands alone, and who can oppose him? He does whatever he pleases.

Job 23:14 He carries out his decree against me, and many such plans he still has in store.

Job 23:15 That is why I am terrified before him; when I think of all this, I fear him.

Job 23:16 God has made my heart faint; the Almighty has terrified me.

Job 23:17 Yet I am not silenced by the darkness, by the thick darkness that covers my face.

CHAPTER 24

Job 24:1 “Why does the Almighty not set times for judgment? Why must those who know him look in vain for such days?

Job 24:2 Men move boundary stones; they pasture flocks they have stolen.

Job 24:3 They drive away the orphan’s donkey and take the widow’s ox in pledge.
Job 24:4  They thrust the needy from the path and force all the poor of the land into hiding.

Job 24:5  Like wild donkeys in the desert, the poor go about their labour of foraging food; the wasteland provides food for their children.

Job 24:6  They gather fodder in the fields and glean in the vineyards of the wicked.

Job 24:7  Lacking clothes, they spend the night naked; they have nothing to cover themselves in the cold.

Job 24:8  They are drenched by mountain rains and hug the rocks for lack of shelter.

Job 24:9  The fatherless child is snatched from the breast; the infant of the poor is seized for a debt.

Job 24:10 Lacking clothes, they go about naked; they carry the sheaves, but still go hungry.

Job 24:11 They crush olives among the terraces; [Or olives between the millstones; the meaning of the Hebrew for this word is uncertain.] they tread the winepresses, yet suffer thirst.

Job 24:12 The groans of the dying rise from the city, and the souls of the wounded cry out for help. But God charges no-one with wrongdoing.

Job 24:13 “There are those who rebel against the light, who do not know its ways or stay in its paths.

Job 24:14 When daylight is gone, the murderer rises up and kills the poor and needy; in the night he steals forth like a thief.

Job 24:15 The eye of the adulterer watches for dusk; he thinks, ‘No eye will see me,’ and he keeps his face concealed.

Job 24:16 In the dark, men break into houses, but by day they shut themselves in; they want nothing to do with the light.

Job 24:17 For all of them, deep darkness is their morning; [Or them, their morning is like the shadow of death] they make friends with the terrors of darkness. [Or of the shadow of death]
Job 24:18 “Yet they are foam on the surface of the water; their portion of the land is cursed, so that no-one goes to the vineyards.

Job 24:19 As heat and drought snatch away the melted snow, so the grave [Hebrew Sheol] snatches away those who have sinned.

Job 24:20 The womb forgets them, the worm feasts on them; evil men are no longer remembered but are broken like a tree.

Job 24:21 They prey on the barren and childless woman, and to the widow show no kindness.

Job 24:22 But God drags away the mighty by his power; though they become established, they have no assurance of life.

Job 24:23 He may let them rest in a feeling of security, but his eyes are on their ways.

Job 24:24 For a little while they are exalted, and then they are gone; they are brought low and gathered up like all others; they are cut off like ears of corn.

Job 24:25 “If this is not so, who can prove me false and reduce my words to nothing?”

CHAPTER 25

Job 25:1 Then Bildad the Shuhite replied:

Job 25:2 “Dominion and awe belong to God; he establishes order in the heights of heaven.

Job 25:3 Can his forces be numbered? Upon whom does his light not rise?

Job 25:4 How then can a man be righteous before God? How can one born of woman be pure?

Job 25:5 If even the moon is not bright and the stars are not pure in his eyes,

Job 25:6 how much less man, who is but a maggot — a son of man, who is only a worm!”
Job 26:1 Then Job replied:

Job 26:2 “How you have helped the powerless! How you have saved the arm that is feeble!

Job 26:3 What advice you have offered to one without wisdom! And what great insight you have displayed!

Job 26:4 Who has helped you utter these words? And whose spirit spoke from your mouth?

Job 26:5 “The dead are in deep anguish, those beneath the waters and all that live in them.

Job 26:6 Death [Hebrew Sheol] is naked before God; Destruction [Hebrew Abaddon] lies uncovered.

Job 26:7 He spreads out the northern skies over empty space; he suspends the earth over nothing.

Job 26:8 He wraps up the waters in his clouds, yet the clouds do not burst under their weight.

Job 26:9 He covers the face of the full moon, spreading his clouds over it.

Job 26:10 He marks out the horizon on the face of the waters for a boundary between light and darkness.

Job 26:11 The pillars of the heavens quake, aghast at his rebuke.

Job 26:12 By his power he churned up the sea; by his wisdom he cut Rahab to pieces.

Job 26:13 By his breath the skies became fair; his hand pierced the gliding serpent.

Job 26:14 And these are but the outer fringe of his works; how faint the whisper we hear of him! Who then can understand the thunder of his power?”

CHAPTER 27

Job 27:1 And Job continued his discourse:
“As surely as God lives, who has denied me justice, the Almighty, who has made me taste bitterness of soul, as long as I have life within me, the breath of God in my nostrils, my lips will not speak wickedness, and my tongue will utter no deceit.
I will never admit you are in the right; till I die, I will not deny my integrity.
I will maintain my righteousness and never let go of it; my conscience will not reproach me as long as I live.
“May my enemies be like the wicked, my adversaries like the unjust!
For what hope has the godless when he is cut off, when God takes away his life?
Does God listen to his cry when distress comes upon him?
Will he find delight in the Almighty? Will he call upon God at all times?
“I will teach you about the power of God; the ways of the Almighty I will not conceal.
You have all seen this yourselves. Why then this meaningless talk?
“Here is the fate God allots to the wicked, the heritage a ruthless man receives from the Almighty:
However many his children, their fate is the sword; his offspring will never have enough to eat.
The plague will bury those who survive him, and their widows will not weep for them.
Though he heaps up silver like dust and clothes like piles of clay, what he lays up the righteous will wear, and the innocent will divide his silver.
Job 27:18 The house he builds is like a moth’s cocoon, like a hut made by a watchman.
Job 27:19 He lies down wealthy, but will do so no more; when he opens his eyes, all is gone.
Job 27:20 Terrors overtake him like a flood; a tempest snatches him away in the night.
Job 27:21 The east wind carries him off, and he is gone; it sweeps him out of his place.
Job 27:22 It hurls itself against him without mercy as he flees headlong from its power.
Job 27:23 It claps its hands in derision and hisses him out of his place.

CHAPTER 28

Job 28:1 “There is a mine for silver and a place where gold is refined.
Job 28:2 Iron is taken from the earth, and copper is smelted from ore.
Job 28:3 Man puts an end to the darkness; he searches the farthest recesses for ore in the blackest darkness.
Job 28:4 Far from where people dwell he cuts a shaft, in places forgotten by the foot of man; far from men he dangles and sways.
Job 28:5 The earth, from which food comes, is transformed below as by fire;
Job 28:6 sapphires [Or lapis lazuli; also in verse 16] come from its rocks, and its dust contains nuggets of gold.
Job 28:7 No bird of prey knows that hidden path, no falcon’s eye has seen it.
Job 28:8 Proud beasts do not set foot on it, and no lion prowls there.
Job 28:9 Man’s hand assaults the flinty rock and lays bare the roots of the mountains.
1216

Job 28:10 He tunnels through the rock; his eyes see all its treasures.

Job 28:11 He searches [Septuagint, Aquila and Vulgate; Hebrew He dams up] the sources of the rivers and brings hidden things to light.

Job 28:12 “But where can wisdom be found? Where does understanding dwell?

Job 28:13 Man does not comprehend its worth; it cannot be found in the land of the living.

Job 28:14 The deep says, ‘It is not in me’; the sea says, ‘It is not with me.’

Job 28:15 It cannot be bought with the finest gold, nor can its price be weighed in silver.

Job 28:16 It cannot be bought with the gold of Ophir, with precious onyx or sapphires.

Job 28:17 Neither gold nor crystal can compare with it, nor can it be had for jewels of gold.

Job 28:18 Coral and jasper are not worthy of mention; the price of wisdom is beyond rubies.

Job 28:19 The topaz of Cush cannot compare with it; it cannot be bought with pure gold.

Job 28:20 “Where then does wisdom come from? Where does understanding dwell?

Job 28:21 It is hidden from the eyes of every living thing, concealed even from the birds of the air.

Job 28:22 Destruction [Hebrew Abaddon] and Death say, ‘Only a rumour of it has reached our ears.’

Job 28:23 God understands the way to it and he alone knows where it dwells,

Job 28:24 for he views the ends of the earth and sees everything under the heavens.
Job 28:25 When he established the force of the wind and measured out the waters,

Job 28:26 when he made a decree for the rain and a path for the thunderstorm,

Job 28:27 then he looked at wisdom and appraised it; he confirmed it and tested it.

Job 28:28 And he said to man, `The fear of the Lord — that is wisdom, and to shun evil is understanding.'"

CHAPTER 29

Job 29:1 Job continued his discourse:

Job 29:2 “How I long for the months gone by, for the days when God watched over me,

Job 29:3 when his lamp shone upon my head and by his light I walked through darkness!

Job 29:4 Oh, for the days when I was in my prime, when God’s intimate friendship blessed my house,

Job 29:5 when the Almighty was still with me and my children were around me,

Job 29:6 when my path was drenched with cream and the rock poured out for me streams of olive oil.

Job 29:7 “When I went to the gate of the city and took my seat in the public square,

Job 29:8 the young men saw me and stepped aside and the old men rose to their feet;

Job 29:9 the chief men refrained from speaking and covered their mouths with their hands;

Job 29:10 the voices of the nobles were hushed, and their tongues stuck to the roof of their mouths.
Whoever heard me spoke well of me, and those who saw me commended me, because I rescued the poor who cried for help, and the fatherless who had none to assist him.
The man who was dying blessed me; I made the widow’s heart sing.
I put on righteousness as my clothing; justice was my robe and my turban.
I was eyes to the blind and feet to the lame.
I was a father to the needy; I took up the case of the stranger.
I broke the fangs of the wicked and snatched the victims from their teeth.
“I thought, ‘I shall die in my own house, my days as numerous as the grains of sand.’
My roots will reach to the water, and the dew will lie all night on my branches.
My glory will remain fresh in me, the bow ever new in my hand.’
‘Men listened to me expectantly, waiting in silence for my counsel.
They waited for me as for showers and drank in my words as the spring rain.
When I smiled at them, they scarcely believed it; the light of my face was precious to them. [The meaning of the Hebrew for this clause is uncertain.]
I chose the way for them and sat as their chief; I dwelt as a king among his troops; I was like one who comforts mourners.
“But now they mock me, men younger than I, whose fathers I would have disdained to put with my sheep dogs.

Of what use was the strength of their hands to me, since their vigour had gone from them?

Haggard from want and hunger, they roamed [Or gnawed] the parched land in desolate wastelands at night.

In the brush they gathered salt herbs, and their food [Or fuel] was the root of the broom tree.

They were banished from their fellow-men, shouted at as if they were thieves.

They were forced to live in the dry stream beds, among the rocks and in holes in the ground.

They brayed among the bushes and huddled in the undergrowth.

A base and nameless brood, they were driven out of the land.

“And now their sons mock me in song; I have become a byword among them.

They detest me and keep their distance; they do not hesitate to spit in my face.

Now that God has unstrung my bow and afflicted me, they throw off restraint in my presence.

On my right the tribe [The meaning of the Hebrew for this word is uncertain.] attacks; they lay snares for my feet, they build their siege ramps against me.

They break up my road; they succeed in destroying me — without anyone’s helping them. [Or me. “No-one can help him,’ they say]

They advance as through a gaping breach; amid the ruins they come rolling in.
Terrors overwhelm me; my dignity is driven away as by the wind, my safety vanishes like a cloud.

“And now my life ebbs away; days of suffering grip me.

Night pierces my bones; my gnawing pains never rest.

In his great power God becomes like clothing to me; [Hebrew; Septuagint God grasps my clothing] he binds me like the neck of my garment.

He throws me into the mud, and I am reduced to dust and ashes.

“I cry out to you, O God, but you do not answer; I stand up, but you merely look at me.

You turn on me ruthlessly; with the might of your hand you attack me.

You snatch me up and drive me before the wind; you toss me about in the storm.

I know you will bring me down to death, to the place appointed for all the living.

“Surely no-one lays a hand on a broken man when he cries for help in his distress.

Have I not wept for those in trouble? Has not my soul grieved for the poor?

Yet when I hoped for good, evil came; when I looked for light, then came darkness.

The churning inside me never stops; days of suffering confront me.

I go about blackened, but not by the sun; I stand up in the assembly and cry for help.

I have become a brother of jackals, a companion of owls.

My skin grows black and peels; my body burns with fever.
Job 30:31 My harp is tuned to mourning, and my flute to the sound of wailing.

CHAPTER 31

Job 31:1 “I made a covenant with my eyes not to look lustfully at a girl.

Job 31:2 For what is man’s lot from God above, his heritage from the Almighty on high?

Job 31:3 Is it not ruin for the wicked, disaster for those who do wrong?

Job 31:4 Does he not see my ways and count my every step?

Job 31:5 “If I have walked in falsehood or my foot has hurried after deceit —

Job 31:6 let God weigh me in honest scales and he will know that I am blameless —

Job 31:7 if my steps have turned from the path, if my heart has been led by my eyes, or if my hands have been defiled,

Job 31:8 then may others eat what I have sown, and may my crops be uprooted.

Job 31:9 “If my heart has been enticed by a woman, or if I have lurked at my neighbour’s door,

Job 31:10 then may my wife grind another man’s grain, and may other men sleep with her.

Job 31:11 For that would have been shameful, a sin to be judged.

Job 31:12 It is a fire that burns to Destruction; [Hebrew Abaddon] it would have uprooted my harvest.

Job 31:13 “If I have denied justice to my menservants and maidservants when they had a grievance against me,

Job 31:14 what will I do when God confronts me? What will I answer when called to account?
Did not he who made me in the womb make them? Did not the same one form us both within our mothers?

“If I have denied the desires of the poor or let the eyes of the widow grow weary, if I have kept my bread to myself, not sharing it with the fatherless — but from my youth I reared him as would a father, and from my birth I guided the widow —

if I have seen anyone perishing for lack of clothing, or a needy man without a garment, and his heart did not bless me for warming him with the fleece from my sheep, if I have raised my hand against the fatherless, knowing that I had influence in court, then let my arm fall from the shoulder, let it be broken off at the joint.

For I dreaded destruction from God, and for fear of his splendour I could not do such things.

“If I have put my trust in gold or said to pure gold, ‘You are my security,’ if I have rejoiced over my great wealth, the fortune my hands had gained, if I have regarded the sun in its radiance or the moon moving in splendour, so that my heart was secretly enticed and my hand offered them a kiss of homage, then these also would be sins to be judged, for I would have been unfaithful to God on high.

“If I have rejoiced at my enemy’s misfortune or gloated over the trouble that came to him —
Job 31:30  I have not allowed my mouth to sin by invoking a curse against his life —

Job 31:31  if the men of my household have never said, `Who has not had his fill of Job’s meat?’ —

Job 31:32  but no stranger had to spend the night in the street, for my door was always open to the traveller —

Job 31:33  if I have concealed my sin as men do, [Or as Adam did] by hiding my guilt in my heart

Job 31:34  because I so feared the crowd and so dreaded the contempt of the clans that I kept silent and would not go outside —

Job 31:35  (“Oh, that I had someone to hear me! I sign now my defence — let the Almighty answer me; let my accuser put his indictment in writing.

Job 31:36  Surely I would wear it on my shoulder, I would put it on like a crown.

Job 31:37  I would give him an account of my every step; like a prince I would approach him.) —

Job 31:38  “if my land cries out against me and all its furrows are wet with tears,

Job 31:39  if I have devoured its yield without payment or broken the spirit of its tenants, Job 31:40  then let briers come up instead of wheat and weeds instead of barley.” The words of Job are ended.

CHAPTER 32

Job 32:1  So these three men stopped answering Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes.

Job 32:2  But Elihu son of Barakel the Buzite, of the family of Ram, became very angry with Job for justifying himself rather than God.
Job 32:3 He was also angry with the three friends, because they had found no way to refute Job, and yet had condemned him. [Masoretic Text; an ancient Hebrew scribal tradition Job, and so had condemned God]

Job 32:4 Now Elihu had waited before speaking to Job because they were older than he.

Job 32:5 But when he saw that the three men had nothing more to say, his anger was aroused.

Job 32:6 So Elihu son of Barakel the Buzite said: “I am young in years, and you are old; that is why I was fearful, not daring to tell you what I know.

Job 32:7 I thought, `Age should speak; advanced years should teach wisdom.’

Job 32:8 But it is the spirit [Or Spirit; also in verse 18] in a man, the breath of the Almighty, that gives him understanding.

Job 32:9 It is not only the old [Or many; or great] who are wise, not only the aged who understand what is right.

Job 32:10 “Therefore I say: Listen to me; I too will tell you what I know.

Job 32:11 I waited while you spoke, I listened to your reasoning; while you were searching for words,

Job 32:12 I gave you my full attention. But not one of you has proved Job wrong; none of you has answered his arguments.

Job 32:13 Do not say, `We have found wisdom; let God refute him, not man.’

Job 32:14 But Job has not marshalled his words against me, and I will not answer him with your arguments.

Job 32:15 “They are dismayed and have no more to say; words have failed them.

Job 32:16 Must I wait, now that they are silent, now that they stand there with no reply?
I too will have my say; I too will tell what I know.

For I am full of words, and the spirit within me compels me;

inside I am like bottled-up wine, like new wineskins ready to burst.

I must speak and find relief; I must open my lips and reply.

I will show partiality to no-one, nor will I flatter any man;

for if I were skilled in flattery, my Maker would soon take me away.

CHAPTER 33

“But now, Job, listen to my words; pay attention to everything I say.

I am about to open my mouth; my words are on the tip of my tongue.

My words come from an upright heart; my lips sincerely speak what I know.

The Spirit of God has made me; the breath of the Almighty gives me life.

Answer me then, if you can; prepare yourself and confront me.

I am just like you before God; I too have been taken from clay.

No fear of me should alarm you, nor should my hand be heavy upon you.

“But you have said in my hearing — I heard the very words —

`I am pure and without sin; I am clean and free from guilt.

Yet God has found fault with me; he considers me his enemy.
Job 33:11 He fastens my feet in shackles; he keeps close watch on all my paths.’

Job 33:12 “But I tell you, in this you are not right, for God is greater than man.

Job 33:13 Why do you complain to him that he answers none of man’s words? [Or that he does not answer for any of his actions]

Job 33:14 For God does speak — now one way, now another — though man may not perceive it.

Job 33:15 In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falls on men as they slumber in their beds,

Job 33:16 he may speak in their ears and terrify them with warnings,

Job 33:17 to turn man from wrongdoing and keep him from pride,

Job 33:18 to preserve his soul from the pit, [Or preserve him from the grave] his life from perishing by the sword. [Or from crossing the River]

Job 33:19 Or a man may be chastened on a bed of pain with constant distress in his bones,

Job 33:20 so that his very being finds food repulsive and his soul loathes the choicest meal.

Job 33:21 His flesh wastes away to nothing, and his bones, once hidden, now stick out.

Job 33:22 His soul draws near to the pit, [Or He draws near to the grave] and his life to the messengers of death. [Or to the dead]

Job 33:23 “Yet if there is an angel on his side as a mediator, one out of a thousand, to tell a man what is right for him,

Job 33:24 to be gracious to him and say, ‘Spare him from going down to the pit; [Or grave] I have found a ransom for him’ —

Job 33:25 then his flesh is renewed like a child’s; it is restored as in the days of his youth.
Job 33:26 He prays to God and finds favour with him, he sees God’s face and shouts for joy; he is restored by God to his righteous state.

Job 33:27 Then he comes to men and says, ‘I have sinned, and perverted what was right, but I did not get what I deserved.

Job 33:28 He redeemed my soul from going down to the pit, [Or redeemed me from going down to the grave] and I shall live to enjoy the light.’

Job 33:29 “God does all these things to a man — twice, even three times —

Job 33:30 to turn back his soul from the pit, [Or turn him back from the grave] that the light of life may shine on him.

Job 33:31 “Pay attention, Job, and listen to me; be silent, and I will speak.

Job 33:32 If you have anything to say, answer me; speak up, for I want you to be cleared.

Job 33:33 But if not, then listen to me; be silent, and I will teach you wisdom.”

CHAPTER 34

Job 34:1 Then Elihu said:

Job 34:2 “Hear my words, you wise men; listen to me, you men of learning.

Job 34:3 For the ear tests words as the tongue tastes food.

Job 34:4 Let us discern for ourselves what is right; let us learn together what is good.

Job 34:5 “Job says, ‘I am innocent, but God denies me justice.

Job 34:6 Although I am right, I am considered a liar; although I am guiltless, his arrow inflicts an incurable wound.’

Job 34:7 What man is like Job, who drinks scorn like water?
Job 34:8
He keeps company with evildoers; he associates with wicked men.

Job 34:9
For he says, `It profits a man nothing when he tries to please God.’

Job 34:10
“So listen to me, you men of understanding. Far be it from God to do evil, from the Almighty to do wrong.

Job 34:11
He repays a man for what he has done; he brings upon him what his conduct deserves.

Job 34:12
It is unthinkable that God would do wrong, that the Almighty would pervert justice.

Job 34:13
Who appointed him over the earth? Who put him in charge of the whole world?

Job 34:14
If it were his intention and he withdrew his spirit [Or Spirit] and breath,

Job 34:15
all mankind would perish together and man would return to the dust.

Job 34:16
“If you have understanding, hear this; listen to what I say.

Job 34:17
Can he who hates justice govern? Will you condemn the just and mighty One?

Job 34:18
Is he not the One who says to kings, `You are worthless,’ and to nobles, `You are wicked,’ who shows no partiality to princes and does not favour the rich over the poor, for they are all the work of his hands?

Job 34:19

Job 34:20
They die in an instant, in the middle of the night; the people are shaken and they pass away; the mighty are removed without human hand.

Job 34:21
“His eyes are on the ways of men; he sees their every step.

Job 34:22
There is no dark place, no deep shadow, where evildoers can hide.

Job 34:23
God has no need to examine men further, that they should come before him for judgment.
Job 34:24 Without enquiry he shatters the mighty and sets up others in their place.

Job 34:25 Because he takes note of their deeds, he overthrows them in the night and they are crushed.

Job 34:26 He punishes them for their wickedness where everyone can see them,

Job 34:27 because they turned from following him and had no regard for any of his ways.

Job 34:28 They caused the cry of the poor to come before him, so that he heard the cry of the needy.

Job 34:29 But if he remains silent, who can condemn him? If he hides his face, who can see him? Yet he is over man and nation alike, Job 34:30 to keep a godless man from ruling, from laying snares for the people.

Job 34:31 “Suppose a man says to God, `I am guilty but will offend no more."

Job 34:32 Teach me what I cannot see; if I have done wrong, I will not do so again.’

Job 34:33 Should God then reward you on your terms, when you refuse to repent? You must decide, not I; so tell me what you know.

Job 34:34 “Men of understanding declare, wise men who hear me say to me,

Job 34:35 `Job speaks without knowledge; his words lack insight.’

Job 34:36 Oh, that Job might be tested to the utmost for answering like a wicked man!

Job 34:37 To his sin he adds rebellion; scornfully he claps his hands among us and multiplies his words against God.”
CHAPTER 35

Job 35:1 Then Elihu said:

Job 35:2 ‘Do you think this is just? You say, `I shall be cleared by God.’ [Or My righteousness is more than God’s] Job 35:3 Yet you ask him, `What profit is it to me, [Or you] and what do I gain by not sinning?’

Job 35:4 “I would like to reply to you and to your friends with you.

Job 35:5 Look up at the heavens and see; gaze at the clouds so high above you.

Job 35:6 If you sin, how does that affect him? If your sins are many, what does that do to him?

Job 35:7 If you are righteous, what do you give to him, or what does he receive from your hand?

Job 35:8 Your wickedness affects only a man like yourself, and your righteousness only the sons of men.

Job 35:9 “Men cry out under a load of oppression; they plead for relief from the arm of the powerful.

Job 35:10 But no-one says, `Where is God my Maker, who gives songs in the night,

Job 35:11 who teaches more to us than to [Or teaches us by] the beasts of the earth and makes us wiser than [Or us wise by] the birds of the air?’

Job 35:12 He does not answer when men cry out because of the arrogance of the wicked.

Job 35:13 Indeed, God does not listen to their empty plea; the Almighty pays no attention to it.

Job 35:14 How much less, then, will he listen when you say that you do not see him, that your case is before him and you must wait for him, and further, that his anger never punishes and he does not take the least notice of wickedness. [Symmachus, Theodotion and Vulgate; the meaning of the Hebrew for this word is uncertain.]

So Job opens his mouth with empty talk; without knowledge he multiplies words.”

Elihu continued:

“Bear with me a little longer and I will show you that there is more to be said on God’s behalf.

I get my knowledge from afar; I will ascribe justice to my Maker.

Be assured that my words are not false; one perfect in knowledge is with you.

“God is mighty, but does not despise men; he is mighty, and firm in his purpose.

He does not keep the wicked alive but gives the afflicted their rights.

He does not take his eyes off the righteous; he entrones them with kings and exalts them for ever.

But if men are bound in chains, held fast by cords of affliction, he tells them what they have done — that they have sinned arrogantly.

He makes them listen to correction and commands them to repent of their evil.

If they obey and serve him, they will spend the rest of their days in prosperity and their years in contentment.
Job 36:12 But if they do not listen, they will perish by the sword [Or will cross the River] and die without knowledge.

Job 36:13 “The godless in heart harbour resentment; even when he fetters them, they do not cry for help.

Job 36:14 They die in their youth, among male prostitutes of the shrines.

Job 36:15 But those who suffer he delivers in their suffering; he speaks to them in their affliction.

Job 36:16 “He is wooing you from the jaws of distress to a spacious place free from restriction, to the comfort of your table laden with choice food.

Job 36:17 But now you are laden with the judgment due to the wicked; judgment and justice have taken hold of you.

Job 36:18 Be careful that no-one entices you by riches; do not let a large bribe turn you aside.

Job 36:19 Would your wealth or even all your mighty efforts sustain you so you would not be in distress?

Job 36:20 Do not long for the night, to drag people away from their homes. [The meaning of the Hebrew for verses 18-20 is uncertain.]

Job 36:21 Beware of turning to evil, which you seem to prefer to affliction.

Job 36:22 “God is exalted in his power. Who is a teacher like him?

Job 36:23 Who has prescribed his ways for him, or said to him, `You have done wrong’?

Job 36:24 Remember to extol his work, which men have praised in song.

Job 36:25 All mankind has seen it; men gaze on it from afar.

Job 36:26 How great is God — beyond our understanding! The number of his years is past finding out.
Job 36:27 “He draws up the drops of water, which distil as rain to the streams; [Or distil from the mist as rain]

Job 36:28 the clouds pour down their moisture and abundant showers fall on mankind.

Job 36:29 Who can understand how he spreads out the clouds, how he thunders from his pavilion?

Job 36:30 See how he scatters his lightning about him, bathing the depths of the sea.

Job 36:31 This is the way he governs [Or nourishes] the nations and provides food in abundance.

Job 36:32 He fills his hands with lightning and commands it to strike its mark.

Job 36:33 His thunder announces the coming storm; even the cattle make known its approach. [Or announces his coming — the One zealous against evil]

CHAPTER 37

Job 37:1 “At this my heart pounds and leaps from its place.

Job 37:2 Listen! Listen to the roar of his voice, to the rumbling that comes from his mouth.

Job 37:3 He unleashes his lightning beneath the whole heaven and sends it to the ends of the earth.

Job 37:4 After that comes the sound of his roar; he thunders with his majestic voice. When his voice resounds, he holds nothing back.

Job 37:5 God’s voice thunders in marvellous ways; he does great things beyond our understanding.

Job 37:6 He says to the snow, ‘Fall on the earth,’ and to the rain shower, ‘Be a mighty downpour.’
So that all men he has made may know his work, he stops every man from his labour. [Or he fills all men with fear by his power]

The animals take cover; they remain in their dens.

The tempest comes out from its chamber, the cold from the driving winds.

The breath of God produces ice, and the broad waters become frozen.

He loads the clouds with moisture; he scatters his lightning through them.

At his direction they swirl around over the face of the whole earth to do whatever he commands them.

He brings the clouds to punish men, or to water his earth [Or to favour them] and show his love.

“Listen to this, Job; stop and consider God’s wonders.

Do you know how God controls the clouds and makes his lightning flash?

Do you know how the clouds hang poised, those wonders of him who is perfect in knowledge?

You who swelter in your clothes when the land lies hushed under the south wind,

Can you join him in spreading out the skies, hard as a mirror of cast bronze?

“Tell us what we should say to him; we cannot draw up our case because of our darkness.

Should he be told that I want to speak? Would any man ask to be swallowed up?

Now no-one can look at the sun, bright as it is in the skies after the wind has swept them clean.

Out of the north he comes in golden splendour; God comes in awesome majesty.
Job 37:23  The Almighty is beyond our reach and exalted in power; in his justice and great righteousness, he does not oppress.

Job 37:24  Therefore, men revere him, for does he not have regard for all the wise in heart?” [Or for he does not have regard for any who think they are wise.]

CHAPTER 38

Job 38:1  Then the LORD answered Job out of the storm. He said:

Job 38:2  “Who is this that darkens my counsel with words without knowledge?

Job 38:3  Brace yourself like a man; I will question you, and you shall answer me.

Job 38:4  “Where were you when I laid the earth’s foundation? Tell me, if you understand.

Job 38:5  Who marked off its dimensions? Surely you know! Who stretched a measuring line across it?

Job 38:6  On what were its footings set, or who laid its cornerstone —

Job 38:7  while the morning stars sang together and all the angels [Hebrew the sons of God] shouted for joy?

Job 38:8  “Who shut up the sea behind doors when it burst forth from the womb,

Job 38:9  when I made the clouds its garment and wrapped it in thick darkness,

Job 38:10  when I fixed limits for it and set its doors and bars in place,

Job 38:11  when I said, `This far you may come and no farther; here is where your proud waves halt’?

Job 38:12  “Have you ever given orders to the morning, or shown the dawn its place,

Job 38:13  that it might take the earth by the edges and shake the wicked out of it?
Job 38:14 The earth takes shape like clay under a seal; its features stand out like those of a garment.

Job 38:15 The wicked are denied their light, and their upraised arm is broken.

Job 38:16 “Have you journeyed to the springs of the sea or walked in the recesses of the deep?

Job 38:17 Have the gates of death been shown to you? Have you seen the gates of the shadow of death? [Or gates of deep shadows]

Job 38:18 Have you comprehended the vast expanses of the earth? Tell me, if you know all this.

Job 38:19 “What is the way to the abode of light? And where does darkness reside?

Job 38:20 Can you take them to their places? Do you know the paths to their dwellings?

Job 38:21 Surely you know, for you were already born! You have lived so many years!

Job 38:22 “Have you entered the storehouses of the snow or seen the storehouses of the hail,

Job 38:23 which I reserve for times of trouble, for days of war and battle?

Job 38:24 What is the way to the place where the lightning is dispersed, or the place where the east winds are scattered over the earth?

Job 38:25 Who cuts a channel for the torrents of rain, and a path for the thunderstorm,

Job 38:26 to water a land where no man lives, a desert with no-one in it,

Job 38:27 to satisfy a desolate wasteland and make it sprout with grass?

Job 38:28 Does the rain have a father? Who fathers the drops of dew?

Job 38:29 From whose womb comes the ice? Who gives birth to the frost from the heavens
Job 38:30 when the waters become hard as stone, when the surface of the deep is frozen?

Job 38:31 “Can you bind the beautiful [Or the twinkling; or the chains of the] Pleiades? Can you loose the cords of Orion?

Job 38:32 Can you bring forth the constellations in their seasons [Or the morning star in its season] or lead out the Bear [Or out Leo] with its cubs?

Job 38:33 Do you know the laws of the heavens? Can you set up God’s [Or his; or their] dominion over the earth?

Job 38:34 “Can you raise your voice to the clouds and cover yourself with a flood of water?

Job 38:35 Do you send the lightning bolts on their way? Do they report to you, ‘Here we are’?

Job 38:36 Who endowed the heart [The meaning of the Hebrew for this word is uncertain.] with wisdom or gave understanding to the mind? [The meaning of the Hebrew for this word is uncertain.]

Job 38:37 Who has the wisdom to count the clouds? Who can tip over the water jars of the heavens

Job 38:38 when the dust becomes hard and the clods of earth stick together?

Job 38:39 “Do you hunt the prey for the lioness and satisfy the hunger of the lions Job 38:40 when they crouch in their dens or lie in wait in a thicket?

Job 38:41 Who provides food for the raven when its young cry out to God and wander about for lack of food?

Chapter 39

Job 39:1 “Do you know when the mountain goats give birth? Do you watch when the doe bears her fawn?

Job 39:2 Do you count the months till they bear? Do you know the time they give birth?
Job 39:3 They crouch down and bring forth their young; their labour pains are ended.

Job 39:4 Their young thrive and grow strong in the wilds; they leave and do not return.

Job 39:5 “Who let the wild donkey go free? Who untied his ropes?

Job 39:6 I gave him the wasteland as his home, the salt flats as his habitat.

Job 39:7 He laughs at the commotion in the town; he does not hear a driver’s shout.

Job 39:8 He ranges the hills for his pasture and searches for any green thing.

Job 39:9 “Will the wild ox consent to serve you? Will he stay by your manger at night?

Job 39:10 Can you hold him to the furrow with a harness? Will he till the valleys behind you?

Job 39:11 Will you rely on him for his great strength? Will you leave your heavy work to him?

Job 39:12 Can you trust him to bring in your grain and gather it to your threshing-floor?

Job 39:13 “The wings of the ostrich flap joyfully, but they cannot compare with the pinions and feathers of the stork.

Job 39:14 She lays her eggs on the ground and lets them warm in the sand,

Job 39:15 unmindful that a foot may crush them, that some wild animal may trample them.

Job 39:16 She treats her young harshly, as if they were not hers; she cares not that her labour was in vain,

Job 39:17 for God did not endow her with wisdom or give her a share of good sense.

Job 39:18 Yet when she spreads her feathers to run, she laughs at horse and rider.
Job 39:19 “Do you give the horse his strength or clothe his neck with a flowing mane?

Job 39:20 Do you make him leap like a locust, striking terror with his proud snorting?

Job 39:21 He paws fiercely, rejoicing in his strength, and charges into the fray.

Job 39:22 He laughs at fear, afraid of nothing; he does not shy away from the sword.

Job 39:23 The quiver rattles against his side, along with the flashing spear and lance.

Job 39:24 In frenzied excitement he eats up the ground; he cannot stand still when the trumpet sounds.

Job 39:25 At the blast of the trumpet he snorts, `Aha!’ He catches the scent of battle from afar, the shout of commanders and the battle cry.

Job 39:26 “Does the hawk take flight by your wisdom and spread his wings towards the south?

Job 39:27 Does the eagle soar at your command and build his nest on high?

Job 39:28 He dwells on a cliff and stays there at night; a rocky crag is his stronghold.

Job 39:29 From there he seeks out his food; his eyes detect it from afar.

Job 39:30 His young ones feast on blood, and where the slain are, there is he.”

CHAPTER 40

Job 40:1 The LORD said to Job:

Job 40:2 “Will the one who contends with the Almighty correct him? Let him who accuses God answer him!”

Job 40:3 Then Job answered the LORD:
Job 40:4  “I am unworthy — how can I reply to you? I put my hand over my mouth.

Job 40:5  I spoke once, but I have no answer — twice, but I will say no more.”

Job 40:6  Then the LORD spoke to Job out of the storm:

Job 40:7  “Brace yourself like a man; I will question you, and you shall answer me.

Job 40:8  “Would you discredit my justice? Would you condemn me to justify yourself?

Job 40:9  Do you have an arm like God’s, and can your voice thunder like his?

Job 40:10 Then adorn yourself with glory and splendour, and clothe yourself in honour and majesty.

Job 40:11 Unleash the fury of your wrath, look at every proud man and bring him low,

Job 40:12 look at every proud man and humble him, crush the wicked where they stand.

Job 40:13 Bury them all in the dust together; shroud their faces in the grave.

Job 40:14 Then I myself will admit to you that your own right hand can save you.

Job 40:15 “Look at the behemoth, [Possibly the hippopotamus or the elephant] which I made along with you and which feeds on grass like an ox.

Job 40:16 What strength he has in his loins, what power in the muscles of his belly!

Job 40:17 His tail [Possibly trunk] sways like a cedar; the sinews of his thighs are close-knit.

Job 40:18 His bones are tubes of bronze, his limbs like rods of iron.

Job 40:19 He ranks first among the works of God, yet his Maker can approach him with his sword.
Job 40:20  The hills bring him their produce, and all the wild animals play nearby.

Job 40:21  Under the lotus plant he lies, hidden among the reeds in the marsh.

Job 40:22  The lotuses conceal him in their shadow; the poplars by the stream surround him.

Job 40:23  When the river rages, he is not alarmed; he is secure, though the Jordan should surge against his mouth.

Job 40:24  Can anyone capture him by the eyes, [Or by a water hole] or trap him and pierce his nose?

CHAPTER 41

Job 41:1  “Can you pull in the leviathan [Possibly the crocodile] with a fishhook or tie down his tongue with a rope?

Job 41:2  Can you put a cord through his nose or pierce his jaw with a hook?

Job 41:3  Will he keep begging you for mercy? Will he speak to you with gentle words?

Job 41:4  Will he make an agreement with you for you to take him as your slave for life?

Job 41:5  Can you make a pet of him like a bird or put him on a leash for your girls?

Job 41:6  Will traders barter for him? Will they divide him up among the merchants?

Job 41:7  Can you fill his hide with harpoons or his head with fishing spears?

Job 41:8  If you lay a hand on him, you will remember the struggle and never do it again!

Job 41:9  Any hope of subduing him is false; the mere sight of him is overpowering.
Job 41:10 No-one is fierce enough to rouse him. Who then is able to stand against me?

Job 41:11 Who has a claim against me that I must pay? Everything under heaven belongs to me.

Job 41:12 “I will not fail to speak of his limbs, his strength and his graceful form.

Job 41:13 Who can strip off his outer coat? Who would approach him with a bridle?

Job 41:14 Who dares open the doors of his mouth, ringed about with his fearsome teeth?

Job 41:15 His back has [Or His pride is his] rows of shields tightly sealed together;

Job 41:16 each is so close to the next that no air can pass between.

Job 41:17 They are joined fast to one another; they cling together and cannot be parted.

Job 41:18 His snorting throws out flashes of light; his eyes are like the rays of dawn.

Job 41:19 Firebrands stream from his mouth; sparks of fire shoot out.

Job 41:20 Smoke pours from his nostrils as from a boiling pot over a fire of reeds.

Job 41:21 His breath sets coals ablaze, and flames dart from his mouth.

Job 41:22 Strength resides in his neck; dismay goes before him.

Job 41:23 The folds of his flesh are tightly joined; they are firm and immovable.

Job 41:24 His chest is hard as rock, hard as a lower millstone.

Job 41:25 When he rises up, the mighty are terrified; they retreat before his thrashing.

Job 41:26 The sword that reaches him has no effect, nor does the spear or the javelin.
Job 41:27 Iron he treats like straw and bronze like rotten wood.
Job 41:28 Arrows do not make him flee; slingstones are like chaff to him.
Job 41:29 A club seems to him but a piece of straw; he laughs at the rattling of the lance.
Job 41:30 His undersides are jagged potsherds, leaving a trail in the mud like a threshing-sledge.
Job 41:31 He makes the depths churn like a boiling cauldron and stirs up the sea like a pot of ointment.
Job 41:32 Behind him he leaves a glistening wake; one would think the deep had white hair.
Job 41:33 Nothing on earth is his equal — a creature without fear.
Job 41:34 He looks down on all that are haughty; he is king over all that are proud.”

CHAPTER 42

Job 42:1 Then Job replied to the LORD:
Job 42:2 “I know that you can do all things; no plan of yours can be thwarted.
Job 42:3 You asked, ‘Who is this that obscures my counsel without knowledge?’ Surely I spoke of things I did not understand, things too wonderful for me to know.
Job 42:4 “You said, ‘Listen now, and I will speak; I will question you, and you shall answer me.’
Job 42:5 My ears had heard of you but now my eyes have seen you.
Job 42:6 Therefore I despise myself and repent in dust and ashes.”
Job 42:7 After the LORD had said these things to Job, he said to Eliphaz the Temanite, “I am angry with you and your two friends, because you have not spoken of me what is right, as my servant Job has.
Job 42:8 So now take seven bulls and seven rams and go to my servant Job and sacrifice a burnt offering for yourselves. My servant Job will pray for you, and I will accept his prayer and not deal with you according to your folly. You have not spoken of me what is right, as my servant Job has.”

Job 42:9 So Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite did what the LORD told them; and the LORD accepted Job’s prayer.

Job 42:10 After Job had prayed for his friends, the LORD made him prosperous again and gave him twice as much as he had before.

Job 42:11 All his brothers and sisters and everyone who had known him before came and ate with him in his house. They comforted and consoled him over all the trouble the LORD had brought upon him, and each one gave him a piece of silver [Hebrew him a kesitah; a kesitah was a unit of money of unknown weight and value.] and a gold ring.

Job 42:12 The LORD blessed the latter part of Job’s life more than the first. He had fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, a thousand yoke of oxen and a thousand donkeys.

Job 42:13 And he also had seven sons and three daughters.

Job 42:14 The first daughter he named Jemimah, the second Keziah and the third Keren-Happuch.

Job 42:15 Nowhere in all the land were there found women as beautiful as Job’s daughters, and their father granted them an inheritance along with their brothers.

Job 42:16 After this, Job lived a hundred and forty years; he saw his children and their children to the fourth generation.

Job 42:17 And so he died, old and full of years.
Ps. 1:1 Blessed is the man who does not walk in the counsel of the wicked or stand in the way of sinners or sit in the seat of mockers.

Ps. 1:2 But his delight is in the law of the LORD, and on his law he meditates day and night.

Ps. 1:3 He is like a tree planted by streams of water, which yields its fruit in season and whose leaf does not wither. Whatever he does prospers.

Ps. 1:4 Not so the wicked! They are like chaff that the wind blows away.

Ps. 1:5 Therefore the wicked will not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the assembly of the righteous.

Ps. 1:6 For the LORD watches over the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked will perish.

Ps. 2:1 Why do the nations conspire [Hebrew; Septuagint: rage] and the peoples plot in vain?

Ps. 2:2 The kings of the earth take their stand and the rulers gather together against the LORD and against his Anointed One. [Or anointed one]

Ps. 2:3 “Let us break their chains,” they say, “and throw off their fetters.”

Ps. 2:4 The One enthroned in heaven laughs; the Lord scoffs at them.
Ps. 2:5 Then he rebukes them in his anger and terrifies them in his wrath, saying,

Ps. 2:6 “I have installed my King [Or king] on Zion, my holy hill.”

Ps. 2:7 I will proclaim the decree of the LORD: He said to me, “You are my Son; [Or son; also in verse 12] today I have become your Father. [Or have begotten you]

Ps. 2:8 Ask of me, and I will make the nations your inheritance, the ends of the earth your possession.

Ps. 2:9 You will rule them with an iron sceptre; [Or will break them with a rod of iron] you will dash them to pieces like pottery.”

Ps. 2:10 Therefore, you kings, be wise; be warned, you rulers of the earth.

Ps. 2:11 Serve the LORD with fear and rejoice with trembling.

Ps. 2:12 Kiss the Son, lest he be angry and you be destroyed in your way, for his wrath can flare up in a moment. Blessed are all who take refuge in him.

Ps. 18:1 I love you, O LORD, my strength.

Ps. 18:10 He mounted the cherubim and flew; he soared on the wings of the wind.

Ps. 18:12 Out of the brightness of his presence clouds advanced, with hailstones and bolts of lightning.

Ps. 18:13 The LORD thundered from heaven; the voice of the Most High resounded. [Some Hebrew manuscripts and Septuagint (see also 2 Samuel 22:14); most Hebrew manuscripts resounded, amid hailstones and bolts of lightning]

Ps. 18:14 He shot his arrows and scattered the enemies, great bolts of lightning and routed them.

Ps. 18:17 He rescued me from my powerful enemy, from my foes, who were too strong for me.

Ps. 18:28 You, O LORD, keep my lamp burning; my God turns my darkness into light.

Ps. 18:29 With your help I can advance against a troop; [Or can run through a barricade] with my God I can scale a wall.

Ps. 18:30 As for God, his way is perfect; the word of the LORD is flawless. He is a shield for all who take refuge in him.

Ps. 18:31 For who is God besides the LORD? And who is the Rock except our God?

Ps. 18:39 You armed me with strength for battle; you made my adversaries bow at my feet.

Ps. 18:40 You made my enemies turn their backs in flight, and I destroyed my foes.

Ps. 18:41 They cried for help, but there was no-one to save them — to the LORD, but he did not answer.

Ps. 18:42 I beat them as fine as dust borne on the wind; I poured them out like mud in the streets.

Ps. 18:43 You have delivered me from the attacks of the people; you have made me the head of nations; people I did not know are subject to me.

Ps. 19:4  Their voice [Septuagint, Jerome and Syriac; Hebrew line] goes out into all the earth, their words to the ends of the world. In the heavens he has pitched a tent for the sun, which is like a bridegroom coming forth from his pavilion, like a champion rejoicing to run his course.

Ps. 19:5  It rises at one end of the heavens and makes its circuit to the other; nothing is hidden from its heat.

Ps. 19:6  The law of the LORD is perfect, reviving the soul. The statutes of the LORD are trustworthy, making wise the simple.

Ps. 19:11 By them is your servant warned; in keeping them there is great reward.

Ps. 19:12 Who can discern his errors? Forgive my hidden faults.

Ps. 19:13 Keep your servant also from wilful sins; may they not rule over me. Then will I be blameless, innocent of great transgression.

CHAPTER 22

FOR THE DIRECTOR OF MUSIC. TO THE TUNE OF “THE DOE OF THE MORNING.” A PSALM OF DAVID.

Ps. 22:1 My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? Why are you so far from saving me, so far from the words of my groaning?

Ps. 22:2 my God, I cry out by day, but you do not answer, by night, and am not silent.

Ps. 22:3 Yet you are enthroned as the Holy One; you are the praise of Israel. [Or Yet you are holy, enthroned on the praises of Israel]

Ps. 22:4 In you our fathers put their trust; they trusted and you delivered them.

Ps. 22:5 They cried to you and were saved; in you they trusted and were not disappointed.

Ps. 22:6 But I am a worm and not a man, scorned by men and despised by the people.

Ps. 22:7 All who see me mock me; they hurl insults, shaking their heads:

Ps. 22:8 “He trusts in the LORD; let the LORD rescue him. Let him deliver him, since he delights in him.”

Ps. 22:9 Yet you brought me out of the womb; you made me trust in you even at my mother’s breast.

Ps. 22:10 From birth I was cast upon you; from my mother’s womb you have been my God.

Ps. 22:11 Do not be far from me, for trouble is near and there is no-one to help.

Ps. 22:12 Many bulls surround me; strong bulls of Bashan encircle me.
Ps. 22:13  Roaring lions tearing their prey open their mouths wide against me.

Ps. 22:14  I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint. My heart has turned to wax; it has melted away within me.

Ps. 22:15  My strength is dried up like a potsherd, and my tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth; you lay me [Or I am laid] in the dust of death.

Ps. 22:16  Dogs have surrounded me; a band of evil men has encircled me, they have pierced [Some Hebrew manuscripts, Septuagint and Syriac; most Hebrew manuscripts like the lion,] my hands and my feet.

Ps. 22:17  I can count all my bones; people stare and gloat over me.

Ps. 22:18  They divide my garments among them and cast lots for my clothing.

Ps. 22:19  But you, O LORD, be not far off; O my Strength, come quickly to help me.

Ps. 22:20  Deliver my life from the sword, my precious life from the power of the dogs.

Ps. 22:21  Rescue me from the mouth of the lions; save [Or you have heard] me from the horns of the wild oxen.

Ps. 37:30 The mouth of the righteous man utters wisdom, and his tongue speaks what is just.

Ps. 37:31 The law of his God is in his heart; his feet do not slip.

Ps. 37:32 The wicked lie in wait for the righteous, seeking their very lives;

Ps. 37:33 but the LORD will not leave them in their power or let them be condemned when brought to trial.

Ps. 37:34 Wait for the LORD and keep his way. He will exalt you to inherit the land; when the wicked are cut off, you will see it.

Ps. 37:35 I have seen a wicked and ruthless man flourishing like a green tree in its native soil,

Ps. 37:36 but he soon passed away and was no more; though I looked for him, he could not be found.

 CHAPTER 38

A PSALM OF DAVID. A PETITION.

Ps. 38:1 O LORD, do not rebuke me in your anger or discipline me in your wrath.

Ps. 38:2 For your arrows have pierced me, and your hand has come down upon me.

Ps. 38:3 Because of your wrath there is no health in my body; my bones have no soundness because of my sin.

Ps. 38:4 My guilt has overwhelmed me like a burden too heavy to bear.

Ps. 38:5 My wounds fester and are loathsome because of my sinful folly.

Ps. 38:6 I am bowed down and brought very low; all day long I go about mourning.

Ps. 38:7 My back is filled with searing pain; there is no health in my body.

Ps. 38:8 I am feeble and utterly crushed; I groan in anguish of heart.

Ps. 38:9 All my longings lie open before you, O Lord: my sighing is not hidden from you.

Ps. 38:10 My heart pounds, my strength fails me; even the light has gone from my eyes.

Ps. 38:11 My friends and companions avoid me because of my wounds; my neighbours stay far away.

Ps. 38:12 Those who seek my life set their traps, those who would harm me talk of my ruin; all day long they plot deception.
Ps. 38:13 I am like a deaf man, who cannot hear, like a mute, who cannot open his mouth;

Ps. 38:14 I have become like a man who does not hear, whose mouth can offer no reply.

Ps. 38:15 I wait for you, O LORD; you will answer, O Lord my God.

Ps. 38:16 For I said, “Do not let them gloat or exalt themselves over me when my foot slips.”

Ps. 38:17 For I am about to fall, and my pain is ever with me.

Ps. 38:18 I confess my iniquity; I am troubled by my sin.

Ps. 38:19 Many are those who are my vigorous enemies; those who hate me without reason are numerous.

Ps. 38:20 Those who repay my good with evil slander me when I pursue what is good.

Ps. 38:21 LORD, do not forsake me; be not far from me, O my God.

Ps. 38:22 Come quickly to help me, O Lord my Saviour.

CHAPTER 39

FOR THE DIRECTOR OF MUSIC. FOR JEDUTHUN. A PSALM OF DAVID.

Ps. 39:1 I said, “I will watch my ways and keep my tongue from sin; I will put a muzzle on my mouth as long as the wicked are in my presence.”

Ps. 39:2 But when I was silent and still, not even saying anything good, my anguish increased.

Ps. 39:3 My heart grew hot within me, and as I meditated, the fire burned; then I spoke with my tongue:

Ps. 39:4 “Show me, O LORD, my life’s end and the number of my days; let me know how fleeting is my life.
Ps. 39:5  You have made my days a mere handbreadth; the span of my years is as nothing before you. Each man’s life is but a breath. Selah

Ps. 39:6  Man is a mere phantom as he goes to and fro: He bustles about, but only in vain; he heaps up wealth, not knowing who will get it.

Ps. 39:7  “But now, Lord, what do I look for? My hope is in you.

Ps. 39:8  Save me from all my transgressions; do not make me the scorn of fools.

Ps. 39:9  I was silent; I would not open my mouth, for you are the one who has done this.

Ps. 39:10 Remove your scourge from me; I am overcome by the blow of your hand.

Ps. 39:11 You rebuke and discipline men for their sin; you consume their wealth like a moth — each man is but a breath. Selah

Ps. 39:12 “Hear my prayer, O LORD, listen to my cry for help; be not deaf to my weeping. For I dwell with you as an alien, a stranger, as all my fathers were.

Ps. 39:13 Look away from me, that I may rejoice again before I depart and am no more.”

CHAPTER 40

FOR THE DIRECTOR OF MUSIC. OF DAVID. A PSALM.

Ps. 40:1  I waited patiently for the LORD; he turned to me and heard my cry.

Ps. 40:2  He lifted me out of the slimy pit, out of the mud and mire; he set my feet on a rock and gave me a firm place to stand.

Ps. 40:3  He put a new song in my mouth, a hymn of praise to our God. Many will see and fear and put their trust in the LORD.
Blessed is the man who makes the LORD his trust, who does not look to the proud, to those who turn aside to false gods. [Or to falsehood]

Many, O LORD my God, are the wonders you have done. The things you planned for us no-one can recount to you; were I to speak and tell of them, they would be too many to declare.

Sacrifice and offering you did not desire, but my ears you have pierced; [Hebrew; Septuagint but a body you have prepared for me (see also Symmachus and Theodotion)] [Or opened] burnt offerings and sin offerings you did not require.

Then I said, “Here I am, I have come — it is written about me in the scroll. [Or come with the scroll written for me]

I desire to do your will, O my God; your law is within my heart.”

I proclaim righteousness in the great assembly; I do not seal my lips, as you know, O LORD.
